I am about to start an industry in this town and one that will "fill a long felt want." The number of hands to be employed, all men, will be at least twelve. I need about five acres of rich, arable land which I would guarantee to completely cover in one year with a beautiful assortment of the different species of weeds, aromatic and otherwise, which we see so profusely growing on all our principal streets. I want a remission of all taxes, including school rates and dog tags, also water rates. The land must be as near the centre of the town as possible, and if there are not five acres in one lot I am willing to take them in two lots, or even in ordinary building lots, say 50 feet frontage—but they must be on good streets. The lots are to become mine at the end of 10 years if the industry is kept going during that time to the satisfaction of the present town council.

The industry is an entirely novel one here. It is the cutting down and carting away of all the weeds and long grass which now so luxuriantly line each side of every street in town. This industry is really needed because one mother at least, lost her child for three hours on Monday—actually lost it within a few yards of her own door, among the weeds allowed to go to seed. My, in some streets you could almost lose a man!

Will you advise me as to the best way for me to secure this bonus. I understand that the council is "dead easy" just now, so I want to strike while the iron is hot.

Yours truly,

CONTRACTOR.

In answer to our correspondent, we fear that all vacant lots in town are now in use in the manner he proposes. We have not made a lot-to-lot search, but a short survey assures us that every lot and street side unoccupied by buildings is at present covered with a luxuriantly, almost tropical growth of weeds, thistles, burrs, burdocks and all such flora which the council apparently desires cultivated and preserved by seeding propagation.—Ed. The Ottawa Exhibition

Central Canada Exhibition Has now Issued its Prospectus

The Times was yesterday in receipt of the recently completed prospectus and prize list of Ottawa's grand yearly exhibition for 1905.

This exhibition is so well and favorably known to our readers that any extended description is superfluous, but it might be stated that the show for this fall contains larger and more interesting features than ever before. Of all the large Canadian Fall Exhibitions that held in Ottawa is, not only from the splendid attractions universally in evidence, but from visitors being in the Capital of Canada, and able to see the Parliament and historic buildings there, perhaps the most interesting of all.

To attempt to enter into details of this year's attractions at the Ottawa Fair would take too much space. One feature, however, that might be noticed is the unique exhibition of fireworks to be given; "The Siege of Lucknow," will be the grandest spectacular piece of pyrotechnics that Canada has ever seen. All entries must, accompanied by the necessary fee, be placed at least two weeks previous to the opening.

One very sensible regulation that will be enforced this year, is that no dodgers or similar advertising matter, will be allowed to litter up the grounds; those exhibitors desirous of letting the public know particulars of their goods must do so through medium of cards, which are really better and more apt to receive attention.

Intending exhibitors or others interested in the exhibition would do well to write for particulars to the Secretary at Ottawa.

THE COTTAGERS' COMPLAINT.

In our issue of yesterday appeared a report of the Stony Lake Cottagers' Association held in the Y.M.C.A. the preceding evening. This report, among other business transacted by the Association, noted the objection they have raised to Stony Lake's water level being raised a few inches, and also a decision attained to send a complaint, concerning the inconvenience caused those having summer resorts on that lake, to Mr. Cotlingwood Schreiber, Deputy Minister of Railways and Canals. We fully recognise that the water being held at a slightly higher level, for this time of year, than is customary, may cause some slight inconvenience to those whose wharves or buildings at the waters' edge may be in a measure affected, and deplore the unavoidable seeming interference with public property.

There is, however, a vastly wider scope of view in which to investigate and judge the cause of these complaints.

It would be a work of supererogation to tell the people of Peterborough that her many and important manufacturing industries are the very heart and life's blood of the town's existence and future prosperity, but it may not be known to all, as in the truth, that these industries are, in turn, directly dependent on Peterborough's water supply, which furnishes the power to turn the belts and wheels of her industries. Without, or with a limited, water supply not one of our factories using water as their direct source of power, but those using electric power induced only by water-power, in this town, the wheels would soon become still and hunting grounds for spiders. It is well known that last summer not only did the Peterborough Light and Power Company experience trouble from a limited water supply, but the American Cereal Company had for days at a time to shut down completely for lack of water.

To obtain a regular and manageable water supply for our direct feeder, the Otonabee River, it is absolutely necessary to have a vast reservoir under a control that favors no particular body of men or industry, so that water may be conserved for the exigencies of low water in the river during the hot months. Stony Lake is by nature, position, utility and decree of the officer in charge, under Government, Mr. J. H. McClellan, the proper, nearest and most important link in the chain of reservoirs wherein is controlled the water that makes Peterborough and feeds thousands of her citizens. Mr. McClellan has taken a wonderfully quick and comprehensive grasp of the situation and shows by his management of the Otonabee's waters that he understands the way to manage his charge so as to give the greatest good to the greatest number.

We cannot allow hundreds of thousands of capital to be wasted, our town's prosperity to be sacrificed and thousands of workmen to lay idle for weeks to save the expenditure of a few days' work or a few dollars by cottagers, who could easily make the necessary alterations.

The power source of Peterborough must be conserved and Stony Lake is where it must be stored, even if the water level is raised a few inches.

As far as the appeal to Mr. Schreiber is concerned, that gentleman will doubtless investigate and form an intelligent judgment, which will make him send a polite regret to the cottagers, with a hint that Peterborough's progress and life is the more important factor.

TESLA PATENTS EXPIRING

New York, June 22.—A great stir has been made among electricians everywhere by the announcement that the famous patents of Nicola Tesla covering the alternating dynamo have just expired. They have been widely known for years as the "three fundamental patents." Their expiration is an event in the world of electricity not second in importance to the dying out of the Bell telephone patents. The alternating motor has been a monopoly.

Tesla has been drawing princely royalties on these patents, much of which the picturesque inventor is said to have applied to his experiments in wireless telegraphy. His mysterious tower at Wardenclife, Long Island, is said to have been built in part by money subscribed by J. Pierpont Morgan, and in part out of the royalties from the motor patents.

In 1885 Professor Galileo Ferraris, of Turin, Italy, discovered the electro magnetic rotating field and applied his invention, according to William Stanley, to a rotating field motor. In 1888 Tesla received United States patents covering the broad application of the Ferraris discovery. George Westinghouse bought the Tesla patents and also the rights of Ferraris.

The fundamental Tesla patents have been for years in the possession of what is called the "patent pool trust." They have been attacked many times in the courts, but without success. It is now generally believed by electricians that the expiration of the patents releases to the world at large the immensely important principle of the rotary field. There will be a grand scramble everywhere to make the Tesla motor now invariably used, without paying any more royalty to Tesla.

POLITICS OF NOVIA SCOTIA

Provincial General Elections Expected in the Near Future

Ottawa, Ont., June 22. — Nova Scotia members of Parliament are anticipating in the not far distant future the dissolution of the Legislature of that province and a general election. Before this occurs, or whether or not there is an election, there will need to be a Cabinet reconstruction. Attorney-General Longley, for years one of the strongest members of the Government has received the reward of long political service. He has been created a judge. It is not improbable that Hon. Arthur Drysdale, Provincial Minister of Public Works, will be made Attorney-General while Hon. Mr. Pipes may receive a portfolio.

The Legislature, elected for five years, has another year to run, but the Cabinet reconstruction doubtless will furnish reason for an appeal to the people a little ahead of time.

In anticipation of elections this fall, Nova Scotia Conservatives recently held a convention and made arrangements for active organization. Mr. A. L. Davidson, barrister, of Meddleton, has been appointed provincial organizer.

SOUND FINANCING

Encouraging Report of Ontario Bank's Directors Made at Annual Meeting, June 20th

The shareholders and depositors of the Ontario Bank have good cause for earnest congratulation over the splendid showing made on Tuesday, June 20th, of the year's results of this conservatively managed progressive banking institution, at the annual meeting of shareholders in Toronto.

Since Mr. Charles McGill has been at the helm, the standing of the Ontario Bank has steadily and rapidly risen to the enviable position it now occupies among the foremost banks of Canada.

Shareholders of the bank will congratulate themselves on a sound investment, since, after paying a yearly dividend of 6 per cent. per annum, out of profits, the bank has added $50,000 to rest account, applied $5,000 towards officers' pension fund, and carried forward a balance of profits amounting to $92,445.79. With such a record as this for last year the officials of the bank can feel confident that their labors are recognized as being beyond the average in finance.

A brief glance through the detailed statement of the meetings, reports, given in another column of this issue, will show that the character and quality of the bank's assets are of a high order.

It would be unfair to our own town, in this notice not to make a brief reference to the prominent part Peterborough has played in the success of the Ontario Bank. As is well known, Mr. C. McGill, the general manager, who has raised the bank's status so materially, was for many years local manager here, in fact, we might say, was educated in finance in Peterborough.

It is also well known that the Peterborough branch of the Ontario Bank is their most important feeder. Since Mr. John Crane assumed control of the local branch, on Mr. McGill's promotion to the general managership, the Peterborough branch has not only retained the proud position it then held among the financial institutions here, but it is not invidious to say, that under Mr. Crane's management the local branch has extended its sphere and number of customers until it now occupies first place among the local banks as regards volume of business done here.

Last Sad Rites.

The funeral of the late Eugene McNichol took place yesterday morning to St. Peter's cathedral, and thence to the Roman Catholic cemetery. It was largely attended and many people followed the remains to their last resting place. The pall bearers were Messrs. Geo. Lynch, James O'Brien, Fred Deroche, Frank Pope, Fred McGrath, and Geo. Morris. Requiem high mass was sung at the cathedral by Rev. Father Kelly, while the services at the grave were conducted by Rev. Dr. O'Brien.

Rev. Father McColl, of St. Peter's cathedral, yesterday received a letter from Rev. Father John O'Brien, [illegible] giving further particulars with regard to the death of the late Eugene McNicholl. It seems that the young man was braking upon the Temiskaming railway. On Sunday morning he noticed that an Italian who was in bathing, had got beyond his depth and was struggling for life. McNicholl hastened to his assistance and endeavored to save him. They were both carried away in the current before anybody could come to their rescue, however, and were drowned. Rev. Father John O'Brien, who was formerly located in Peterborough, was well acquainted with the young man.

The Adjourned Inquest Jury Reach a Verdict

After Four and a Half Hours' Deliberation the Jury, Inquiring Into the Cause of the Death of the Late Fred Hudson, Deliver a Verdict

The adjourned inquest into the death of Fred Hudson, the Hunter street hotelkeeper, who was struck in the bar-room of his hotel by Patrick McCluliffe, and later succumbed to his injuries, was resumed last night in the Council Chambers. The jury, after four hours' deliberation, arrived at the following verdict: That the late Fred Hudson came to his death as a result of a blow delivered by Patrick McCluliffe with some hard substance, but that some provocation may have caused McCluliffe to strike the blow.

CHANGE AT NIAGARA

RIVER WATER LET INTO THE FOREBAY

Niagara Falls, June 22.—The completition of the first portion of the Ontario Power Company's works was marked by the admission of water to the forebay to-day. The big wing dam, the construction of which was one of the most difficult and spectacular of the undertakings in connection with the development, was pierced and its water, which is fifteen feet deep outside, was slowly admitted.

The stream ran down over the great expanse of river bed, which has been bare for several years, to the astonishment of all visitors, and found its way through the screens, gates and sluices, which will hereafter guide the flow of water. As the tower works and power house of the company are not completed, the head gates of the great conduit were closed, and the water stopped when it reached them and began to rise. A corps of engineers watched its progress eagerly, and all went along without hitch or difficulty. The water rose rapidly and filled the wide basin lapping around the shores of the new islands and finding its way into many queer places which did not exist when old Niagara was turned out of his ancient pathway for a season. For the first and last time the river bed has been laid bare. Now the water has resumed its sway and the great expanse of rock bed is hidden forever. It took a number of hours for the water to fill the basin, but finally it came to the top of the but finally it came to the top of the overflow walls and began to pour over in a beautiful cascade, which will henceforth be one of the prettiest sights around the falls. Visitors will be unable to comprehend the vast work that was necessary and the immensity of the walls and concrete and stone which had to be built to turn Niagara from its natural course and make it the servant of man.

KAISER'S LATEST VAGARY

Hamburg, June 22.—Emperor William, while coming from Hanover to this city in an automobile, ran a race with an express train on a line whose tracks run parallel with the highway, hoping to prove the contention that the automobile would win in such a contest. He maintained a speed of 60 miles an hour until to his chagrin, the road made a curve and compelled him to abandon the race. Near Celle a tire burst, and the automobile tilted until it was almost on its

BRITISH ARMY SCANDALS

SELECT COMMITTEE OF HOUSE OF COMMONS TO INVESTIGATE

Announcement of Premier Balfour--No Ground for Criminal Prosecution --Mr. Lowther Installed as Speaker

London, June 22.—The House of Commons reassembled to-day after the Whitsuntide holidays, and the new Speaker, Mr. Lowther, was installed after a brief ceremony in the House of Lords, at which the royal approval of Mr. Lowther's selections was announced. The Opposition immediately thereafter bombarded the Government with questions about the army stores scandals, and Premier Balfour announced that the Government had placed the papers connected with the case in the hands of the Director of Public Prosecutions. The latter, however, considered that the papers did not reveal any ground for criminal prosecution. The censured officers had been relieved from their duties. Mr. Balfour added that he proposed to apoint a select committee of the House of Common to deal with the matter.

Yesterday's police court session was a short one, only one case on the docket. Owing to Mr. Dumble's absence at Stony Lake, Mr. V. Eastwood occupied the dais. Mr. R. E. Wood, County Crown Attorney, represented the prosecution.

Harry Greffe, an English lad who has been in Canada about four years, was charged with stealing, on Monday, June 19th, the sum of $50 from his employer, David McMullen. In answer to the usual question as to whether he pleaded "Guilty or not guilty," the prisoner replied that he was guilty of stealing $6.

Mr. McMullen's story is that on the 19th, he, accompanied by the boy, drove from his farm, which is located about four concessions north of Pontypool, to visit another farmer from whom he intended purchasing a horse. After the purchase had been completed, the two drove back to McMullen's farm. McMullen leading the newly purchased horse from behind the buggy in which they sat. McMullen drew the money remaining over after his purchase, from his trouser's pocket, counted, and shoved it, some $50 into his inside vest pocket. On their arrival home, McMullen hanging his vest, containing the money, on a hook in the sitting room, went out to attend to his work, shortly afterwards telling the boy, Grieff, to ride a horse out to a certain pasture some considerable distance and bring in two colts and water them. After a time, wondering at the continued absence of the lad, he went into the house to make some enquiry; a female relative expressed some surprise at the boy's action, previous to his starting for the colts, telling McMullen the boy had come into the house, and remaining some little time, had put on his coat and vest before going out. She had asked him to pump some water, which he had done, remarking as he finished pumping, "Well, I have pumped this pail, and I do not care who pumps the next." These circumstances bred suspicion in McMullen's mind as to his money, and on feeling in the vest pocket he discovered that all his money was gone.

Search was at once instituted, but the boy was not to be found. It appears that Grieff had ridden the horse to the pasture, as instructed, but instead of bringing back the colts had turned the horse into the pasture and left him there; Shortly afterwards a neighbor reported he had seen the boy some two miles north of the pasture, running across some field towards a swamp where he lay hidden all night.

Next morning McMullen went to Pontypool station to telephone the police at Peterborough to watch for the boy. Here the station master told him that the lad had purchased a single ticket to Peterborough, but had told him he was going to return that evening. On asking why he purchased a single ticket, if he were returning, the boy gave an evasive and impertinent answer. The station master told Mr. McMullen he had seen at least $6 in the boy's possession, although McMullen says the boy had no money whatever the preceding day. On Monday evening the boy was arrested, and $4.75, with the inevitable (with such boys) package of cigarettes found. McMullen says that when he drew the roll of bills from his pocket in the buggy, the boy remarked "I wish I had that money and I would soon buy a ticket for the Old Country."

Grieff had lived with the McMullens about two weeks, during which time he had run away and after spending all his money, returned by night, sleeping in the barn the night of his return.

Grieff insists that he only took $6, but Mr. Wood instructed the police to strip the boy and make a thorough search to see if the balance, as claimed by McMullen, could be located, this was done but no more cash was discovered. Grieff was remanded until this morning for trial, when it is probable Mr. Dumble will be present.

All Night Light Service for Jackson Park

It is Understood That Hot Water will be Heated by Electricity for Picnic Parties--The Steam Fire Engine will Probably be Examined by an Out-of-Town Expert.

The Committee of the Whole Council met last night and came to a decided understanding with the Peterborough Light and Power Co. on the question of lighting Jackson Park. Mr. Harry Beal was present in the interest of the Light and Power Company. The committee agreed that the Town shall contribute $100 toward the expense of material for wiring. This amount will be spent in wiring from the transformer at the park entrance into and through this resort. The balance of the cost of wiring and furnishing a current transformer — 9210— will be borne by the company, who will furnish the necessary current free. All wire strung in the park will be town property. An all-night service will be maintained during the summer months until September 20th, and the Council are assured that the wiring will remain in satisfactory operative condition for twenty years. This means that the town is contributing at the rate of $5 a year toward illuminating one of the most beautiful spots in the city. Mr. Larmouth, the general manager of the street Railway Company, has also given out that he will furnish for the park a reservoir, in which water will be heated by electricity for the benefit of picnic parties. The Peterborough Radial Railway Company have had printed handsome booklets, setting forth the many advantages offered by Peterborough to excursionists from out of town. The city's beauty spots, the American Cereal mills, and the Lift Lock are all briefly described and handsomely illustrated. These booklets are being distributed broadcast.

POLICE PROTECTION.

THE STEAM FIRE ENGINE.

The question of whether the steam fire engine, recently burnt out, should be repaired at an estimated cost of $500 or $600, or a new engine procured, also came up for consideration.

On motion of Ald. Mason, seconded by Ald. Adams, the clerk was instructed to write Brantford, London and Seneca Falls firms, enquiring how much the town would be charged for sending an expert on steam fire engines to examine our engine as to its present condition and the cost of putting it in thorough repair once more.—Carried.

Engineer Wainwright's responsibility for the engine's present condition was another issue taken up. Ald. Johnston reported for the benefit of those aldermen not present at the recent investigation that Mr. Wainwright claims that the pump was out of order and the new injector stopped up, and admits that in the hurry of the moment he may have overlooked the proper course to overcome the difficulties of the contingency which consequently arose. Ald. Johnston contended that Wainwright had taken good care of the steam roller, and excepting this unfortunate accident in question, proved a faithful servant to the town. This was acquiesced in by several of the Aldermen. Mr. Wainwright has expressed his willingness to undergo a rigorous examination as an engineer before a competent board of examiners.

Ald. Tovey contended that at the investigation Mr. McEwen, of the "City of Peterborough," and Mr. Major, of the Wm. Hamilton Co., were evidently screening Wainwright, and suspiciously so. While he was as ready as any man to act in charity with all men, still he was a representative of the people, whose interests he was elected as alderman to safeguard. If the pump and new injector were out of order he wanted to know why they were in that condition. He thought it the engineer's duty to see that this fire engine which is lying in the fire hall a greater portion of the time, is always available for immediate service. Supposing the break down had occurred at a big fire, serious consequences might have ensued. The people holds us and not the engineer responsible for the engine. When it was found that the injector would not work, the boiler could have been filled with a pail at the worst. I have a notion, continued Ald. Tovey—I may be wrong—still I can't help thinking that Mr. McEwen could tell us a good deal more about that accident were he so disposed. Chief Rutherford assures us that many a time this boiler has been filled by means of a bucket.

Ald. Hall contended that there are more ways than one to fill the boiler of the fire engine. The proper course under the circumstances would have been to shut off pumping and let the rotary supply the boiler with water; that has been done by the old engineers.

Ald. Mason moved, seconded by Ald. Adams, that no steps at present be taken regarding the engineer.—Carried.

DIVERSION OF CREEKS.

Nothing definite was arrived at regarding the diversion of the Aylmer and Fifth Ward creeks. Council are awaiting conclusive opinion as to whether the work can be done under the Municipal Drainage Act or charged as a local improvement. The Town Solicitor and a referee in Toronto both agree that this work ought to be paid for by a general rate; but the Council have been advised to submit the question to such municipal experts as Messrs. Aylesworth and Watson, of Toronto. His Worship submits that the work, in justice to others, should be charged up against the properties benefited thereby.

THE BATHING NUISANCE.

Ald. Tovey drew attention to the fact that considerable bathing is done in the Little Lake these days, and young men can be seen running the booms in nature's garb, much to the annoyance of lady canoeists and others. This he urged, should be put a stop to. Ald. Tovey deplores the fact that the town has not before this furnished a suitable bathing house for public use. That is one of the city's present needs. The chief will be instructed to see that the law regarding indecent exposure is carried out.

ROADWAY TO THE LIFT LOCK.

The plan prepared by the Town Engineer showing the course of the proposed road and profile to the Lift Lock will be submitted to Mr. E. A. Peck, solicitor for the Armour estate. The Mayor again reiterated his opinion that the Government should pay for this proposed extension of Hunter street.

CHURCH AND POLITICS

Pope Calls on Catholics to Take Part in Elections in Italy

Rome, June 21.—The attitude of the Pope towards Catholics sharing in the political voting in Italy, which he has already shown is far broader than was the late Pope Leo's, has been further widened by an encyclical recommending that Catholics prepare to take a vigorous part in the next elections to combat the menace of Socialism. Some see in this the realisation of the predicted understanding between the Vatican and the Government.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. POOR OLD SPAIN

Poor old Spain has four good years with a surplus instead of a deficit in the national treasury, and she has grown optimistic. Nevertheless is she "poor old Spain" still and obstinately determined to remain so. The cabinet proposed to devote her little surplus of wealth to buiding a new navy, as Premier Villaverde has announced in his budget speech. And no progress into deeper poverty could be obtained in a more effective way than that.

Only two years ago Premier Silvela retired finally from public life because he could arouse no interest in his navy projects. Villaverde succeeded him then—there have been three or four ministries in the interval—and at that time was himself opposed to the new navy idea. His present conversion is therefore highly significant that the naval scheme is popular and seems to indicate that it will probably be adopted.

Spain has a national debt of about $1,900,000,000, twice as big as the net debt of the United States. This debt is equivalent to $100 a head of the population, and the interest charge is over $4 a head. The people are always on the verge of bread riots. The country is in woeful need of railroads, ports and a hundred kinds of internal improvements, in order that it may develop economically to the best advantage. The annual surpluses over which the premier boasts have been only about $10,000,000 a year. The country cries out that they be used to make industry more productive. And yet the new navy is in sight.

The new navy may help Spain to make alliance with France. It may be a factor in the higher politics. But it can never by any possibility be made strong enough to act independently against any great power of the world. The day will be evil for Spain when the new policy is finally adopted by the cortes.

New Milk Regulations.

Milk Must be Sold in Bulk, the Bottle Trade Now Illegal.

Mr. R. W. Errett, local inspector of weight and measures, has received instructions from the Department of Inland Revenue at Ottawa, to the effect that henceforth no milk must be sold or delivered in bottles by the dairymen of Peterborough. At the present time there are some seven or eight milkmen in town who dispose of their goods in bottles, and the inspector wishes to give these men fair warning that his instructions from headquarters will be strictly and impartially carried out.

The department's instructions have also been sent to other towns and cities, and in Belleville recently 100 bottles were seized. If the practice is continued here of selling milk in bottles dairymen are liable to have the glass vessels confiscated, and they may also be heavily fined.

Mr. Errett says that bottles can neither be properly measured nor stamped, and hence the decision of the department. The instructions will not prevent householders using a bottle to receive their daily supply of the lacteal fluid, the same as they do a pail or pitcher, but the dairyman must pour the milk in the vessel provided for its reception.

Pope Calls on Catholics to Take Part in Elections in Italy

Rome, June 21.—The attitude of the Pope towards Catholics sharing in the political voting in Italy, which he has already shown is far broader than was the late Pope Leo's, has been further widened by an encyclical recommending that Catholics prepare to take a vigorous part in the next elections to combat the menace of Socialism. Some see in this the realization of the predicted understanding between the Vatican and the Government.

IF YOU WANT MONEY

Buy a block of stock of the Toropah-Crow Gold and Copper Company. This stock is selling at 18 cents a share. It will be paying a profit in one year of not less than 25 per cent. on capitalization, which will mean a value of the stock of $2.50 a share. It may be worth $5.00 in less than two years time. There are more than 100 mineral veins crossing this property. The lowest average of ores as far as developed is $54 a ton, which does not include numerous small bodies running from $100 to $1,000. The money to be raised in these sales of stock is to be put in hoisting plant, equip and rapidly develop the mine, which includes six mining claims and mill site; 125 acres. Where can you make so much money in so short a time? This is an opportunity that seldom occurs.

BLOOD DISEASES CURED

Before Treatment. After Treatment.

He was surprised at how the sores healed—I took your New Method Treatment for a serious blood disease with which I had been afflicted for twelve years. I had consulted a score of physicians, taken all kinds of blood medicine, visited Hot Springs and other mineral water resorts, but only got temporary relief. They would help me for a time, but after discontinuing the medicines the symptoms would break out again—running sores, blotches, rheumatic pains, looseness of the hair, swellings of the glands, palms of the hands scaling, itchiness of the skin, dyspeptic stomach, etc. I had given up in despair when a friend advised me to consult you, as you had cured him of a similar disease 8 years ago. I had no hope, but took his advice. In three weeks' time the sores commenced to heal up and I became encouraged. I continued the New Method Treatment for four months and at the end of that time every symptom had disappeared. I was cured 7 years ago and no signs of any disease since. My boy, three years old, is sound and healthy. I certainly can recommend your treatment with all my heart. You can refer any person to me privately, but you can use this testimonial as you wish." W. THE GRAND TRUNK PACIFIC

Tenders Will Soon Be Asked for Construction of Lake Superior Branch

Ottawa, June 21.—Mr. Morse, General Manager of the Grand Trunk Pacific, who was in town last evening stated that as soon as specifications for the Lake Superior branch are printed, the company will ask leading Canadian contractors to tender for the construction of the line. Approximately this will be two hundred miles in length to the point of junction with the main line from Winnipeg eastward. It is not improbable that construction will be begun in about a month's time. The company has all the land it requires for terminal facilities at Fort William on Mission Island amounting to about 1,600 acres.

The company of course purchased the land from the Government, and while Mr. Morse did not mention it, the price is said to be about $400,000.

Asked as to elevator facilities, Mr. Morse replied guardedly that the Grand Trunk Pacific would have as large a plant as anybody else. In regard to a possible fleet of grain vessels, Mr. Morse's statement conveyed the idea that the company had not yet decided upon any plans.

Hon. W. S. Fielding on Friday signed the mortgage deed, executed in connection with the Government guarantee of the three per cent. bonds issued on account of the prairie section of the line. These bonds when floated recently brought 92 1-2. The mortgage deed will be held by the Royal Trust Company as trustees.

CRONJE ON THE WARPATH

Says Boers Will "Strike for Liberty" if European War Comes

New York, N.Y., June 21.—"If war comes and Great Britain is embroiled, the Boers are ready to strike for their liberty," said General Cronje, in an interview here.

"Germany will see that we have means," he added.

Although General Cronje is busy coining American dollars, he is watching international events with keen interest, and in this remarks he expressed the hope for a European conflict which will give the Boers their opportunity.

"The understanding between Great Britain and France is at the bottom of the whole affair," he continued. "The practical alliance between Great Britain and France is an anti-German move, and the combined fleets of these two powers behind their desires puts a damper on Germany's territorial ambitions. Now that the Franco-Russian alliance is so weak, Germany wants France's friendship, for the colonial aspirations of the two countries do not really clash, whereas those of Great Britain and Germany do. In my opinion the Moroccan question is only an excuse for raising an argument."

History and Production of the Goldfields of Boulder County, Colorado, Portraying Economic Conditions Which Predict the Coming Goldfields of Colorado and Presenting the Stock Offering of a Great Gold Mining Enterprise of the United States Gold Corporation

FREE

Our booklet on the gold fields of Boulder County is off the press, and is being distributed free to investors. We have prepared this book to advertise the gold fields of Northern Colorado and our great gold mining enterprise. The books will be free for the asking while they last. It will tell you of how over fifty millions have been added to the world's wealth in production of gold, silver and copper under primitive methods and from surface workings of an average depth of not to exceed 250 feet. It will tell you of its great tungsten belt, the largest in the world. It will tell you of the existence of a diversity of precious and rare minerals, unrivaled by any other gold fields on this continent. It will tell you of a mineral area of twenty-five square miles literally covered with a network of veins practically undeveloped, with only one shaft below the thousand foot and half a dozen below the six hundred foot level. It will tell you of a gold field nearer to the Denver smelters than any other in Colorado; of a change of economic conditions, in this section, which will enable the miner to ship ore to the smelters, at a net profit, that is now being thrown over the dumps in other sections of Colorado; it will tell you of a field so attractive that it resulted in the construction of two railways from one end of the field to the other. It will tell you of the substitution of modern and up-to-date mining methods, in place of the primitive ones of the past; in short, it will tell you of all those conditions which predict for the gold fields of Boulder County the coming gold fields of Colorado.

It will also tell you of our great gold mining enterprise in the western part of the gold fields of Boulder County, near the continental divide, where nature has deposited her largest and richest treasure vaults; it will tell you of our economic development tunnel, driven to drain and develop a mineral estate almost a mile long and half a mile wide; of the thousands of tons of gold ore now blocked out and ready for shipment in the five different veins cut by this tunnel in driving it eight hundred feet, the result of two years' steady development work night and day; of our wonderful discovery of molybdenite—a rare metal—in large commercial quantities, foretelling for us the first molybdenite mine in Colorado that is producing, as well as a large and permanent source of revenue, of our project to drive this tunnel, long before the end of this year, into the famous Fourth of July dyke or "Mother Lode," from which the far famed Caribou group of mines produced twenty million dollars in gold, silver and copper from 1869 to 1893; of the tremendous possibilities for ore production which will follow the cutting of a mineral dyke from 50 to 100 feet wide at a depth of a thousand feet, and the great probability of our opening the first great copper mine in Colorado when we reach this dyke with the tunnel. In short, it will tell you of a gold mining enterprise that will go on a large producing basis long before the end of 1905; of an enterprise with possibilities second to none in Colorado, the developments of which have already shorn it of any element of risk or speculative features, rendering the investment offered a safe and attractive one.

For the financial and commercial standing of the business men who stand back of this enterprise we refer you to the First National Bank, Boulder, Colo. or Bradstreets Commercial Agency

The edition will not last long. If you would be sure of securing a copy, write to-day, or your name and address on a postal card, with the word "Booklet," will do the work.

AN AMERICAN DISEASE

Indigestion is Responsible for More Sickness in America Than Any Other Disease.

Some doctors go so far as to say that indigestion is the national disease of America. Repeated attacks inflame the lining of the stomach and cause the glands to secrete mucous in stead of the juice of natural digestion. Consequently the blood is poisoned, nerve force is reduced, the vitality of the entire system is weakened.

There is but one national remedy for indigestion and that remedy is Dr. Hamilton's Pills, which are being used by thousands with marvellous success.

Dr. Hamilton's Pills accelerate the action of the gastric glands and give tone to the digestive organs. They strengthen the kidneys and liver, cleanse and purify the blood, and thus add general tone to every organ of the body. Flesh and strength are fast restored and the patient can eat and digest any food he pleases.

Under the vitalizing effect of Dr. Hamilton's Pills your system will soon rally; once more you'll enjoy the blessings of health. Test Dr. Hamilton's Pills yourself. 25c. per box or five boxes for $1; at all dealers, or by mail from N. C. Polson & Co., Hartford, Conn., U.S.A., and Kingston, Ont.

A New Industry.

Peterborough will Have a Carriage Factory Employing 100 Hands

That Peterborough is rapidly pushing to the front of the industrial centres is proved by the many new factories enquiring for sites, terms, etc.

The latest factory that has about concluded to operate here is the Peterborough Carriage Company, Limited, and the Provisional Directors are: Wm. Irwin, R. H. Leary, Alex. Elliott, R. J. Munro, B. McKee, and C. B. Coughlin, M.D. The Secretary-Treasurer is P. Campbell, and the Bankers, the Bank of Toronto. The capital stock of the company will be $100,000, divided into 1,000 shares of $100 each. The prospectus of the company recently issued states that the company is to be incorporated for the purpose of manufacturing Buggies, Road Carts, Carriages, Trucks, Omnibussing, Farm and Delivery Wagons, Cutters, Sleighs, etc.

The company will probably take over the well known business of Messrs. Geo. Fitzgerald & Co., Brock street, and will employ about 100 hands. The company will confine itself to the manufacture of the light and less expensive vehicles at first, but as the business and demand expand will enter into the making of drays, busses, hacks, etc.

It is estimated that such a factory could build about 1000 vehicles per annum.

WEATHER NOTES.

How long will it take the man to fill the sack if he does not stop the leak? To attempt to nourish the body when the stomach is diseased is like trying to fill the sack with the hole in it. When the stomach and other digestive and nutritive organs are diseased, there is a constant loss of nutrition.

Enough is eaten but the body loses flesh,—plain proof that the food eaten is largely wasted because it is not digested and assimilated.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It stops the leaks by which nutrition is lost, and enables the building up of the body by the nutrition derived from food. The gain in weight proves the cure.

"Three years ago I was taken sick with what the doctor called nervousness and indigestion," writes Mrs. Warren E. Parker, of Orange Street, Nantucket, Mass. "He gave me medicine for the trouble, but I could not eat even a little toast or oatmeal without suffering severely. In a few months I began to have distressing pains right in the pit of my stomach. I called the doctor again and he said I had catarrh of stomach; gave me medicine but it did not do any good. I lost 26 pounds in three months. I then commenced taking Dr. Pierce's medicines and soon began to feel better. I have taken six bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' two of 'Favorite Prescription' and six vials of Dr. Pierce's Pellets. I have gained ten pounds. Can eat everything."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation.

Stony Lake Cottagers' Protest Condemned.

Board of Trade, at a Meeting Held Last Night, Decided to Send a Deputation to Ottawa.

At a meeting held last night by the Board of Trade to take action on the recent telegram of protest sent by Stony Lake Cottagers' Association to Ottawa, against the high level of Stony Lake's water, with President Hughes-Charles in the chair, it was almost unanimously agreed that, in the interests of Peterborough, and her industries, the present high level must be preserved intact. Each and every speaker spoke in strong terms of the satisfactory manner in which Mr. McClellan was controlling the waters this year.

Among those speaking on the subject were Mr. Patterson, of the C. P. S. Co, Mr. Drain, of the Calcutt line of Steamers, Mr. McDonald, of Point St. Charles, Mr. Nugent, Mr. Brook, of the Dickson Co., Mr. Denistoun, Mr. Moore, Mr. Neil, Mr. Learmonth, of the P. L. & P. Co., and others; the consensus of opinion being that the water in Stony and other back lakes must be conserved to protect this town and its future, even though the cottagers suffer, but all agreed that the Government would better pay such actual damages as result than let the water go, and how an eight foot channel through Stony Lake's bottom for navigatio

Mr. Meldrum, as a cottage owner, said he would sooner see his cottage six feet under water than see the industries of Peterborough suffer as they would, when warmer weather came, by letting go the reserve water.

by Mr. Learmonth, that in the opinion of the Board the present level of the water must be preserved and that a deputation be sent to wait on the Minister of Railways and Canals and convey to him the sentiments of the meeting. — Carried. nem. con.

A GRAND RECORD

One of the most conservatively managed and still progressive banking institutions in Canada is the Imperial Bank. The financial statement as presented to the shareholders, at the 30th annual meeting of the bank, held in Toronto on June 21st, was one to excite enthusiasm among those fortunate enough to hold stock, and to raise a feeling of the most profound confidence among the depositors.

The net profits of this admirably managed concern are most reassuring; out of the net profits for the past fiscal year, after making provision in full for all bad and doubtful debts, and laying enough aside for the bank's usual appropriation for officers' pensions and guaranteed funds, to semi-annual dividends of 7 per cent. have been made, amounting to $200,000, $150,000 has been transferred to rest account, $25,000 was written off bank premises, etc., and the large sum of $175,516 has been brought forward to balance.

The assets of The Imperial Bank are of an unusually high character, and as such must inspire unbounded confidence in the minds of all having business relations with the bank. The assets are well worthy of careful attention by all interested, consisting mainly of Dominion, Provincial governments and municipal securities.

The whole history of the Imperial Bank can be written in the few words, Conservative, careful, progressive management and strenuous working after the best class of business.

Mr. T. R. Merritt was re-elected President, and a glance at the detailed statement, given in another column, of the bank's officers, assures that next year their credit will continue to hold its high place in Canadian finance.

Police Court

OFFICIALS

Chief of Police, G. L. Reed

Magistrate, D. W. Dumble

Yesterday morning a good attendance of the "Busy Labourers" and "Busy Hours" clubs, were present, when his Worship, Mr. Dumble mounted the forum of justice.

The first case called was that of "Having created a disturbance and being generally a nuisance to the whole neighborhood," preferred against George Crouder and his wife. Several witnesses were heard who's evidence was turned in showing that the charge was no empty bluff, but only too true. His Worship in no unmistakable words, told Crouder that he and his wife were a nuisance to the town, and suggested that $5 would about cover yesterday's dose of it.

J. R. Butcher was charged with having created a disturbance and being drunk in a house on Antrim street. Butcher pleaded guilty, but Mr. Kyles, J.P., was heard in evidence. He said that the prisoner lived in the house adjoining his own, and that the language, on the night the charge referred to, was the roughest, toughest and most profane he had ever had to listen to. $2 with $2.60 costs, was the amount his Worship considered the profanity should be taxed for.

McAuliffe's case was enlarged until June 29th.

Quite a discussion was then held concerning the woman who had been under arrest for stealing a lace collarette from Mrs. J. R. Stratton. It appears that the woman had been working for Mrs. Stratton, and had stolen a valuable lace collarette, said by its owner to be worth several hundred dollars. At the time of her arrest, a few days since, Mr. Dumble was away at his summer residence in Stony Lake. Mr. Denistoun, counsel for the arrested, explained to his Worship that the woman had been in the cell, during which time he asked Magistrates Eastwood and Rush to come and arrange for bail. He then went to see Crown Attorney Wood, but found him out. He then saw Mr Stratton, who consented to let the woman go, as she had a good name previously. He met new County Magistrate Edmison.

The woman had made a written statement that she had stolen the collar (which had been found in her possession) and admitting that Mr. Stratton was justified in having him to himself. had her arrested. Mrs. Stratton had, Mr. Denistoun continued, addressed the Magistrates, stating that he did not wish to prosecute; the Magistrates had then dismissed the prisoner with a warning. Mr. Denistoun admitted that the proceedings had been somewhat irregular, but protested against his client being later before the court a second time. Crown Attorney Wood claimed it would be a flagrant act of injustice, after this woman had not only pleaded guilty, but the goods had been found with her, to allow her to go simply because she "Had a good name." The Magistrate concurred in this view of the case and a special session was arranged for four o'clock yesterday afternoon, when Mr. Denistoun was asked to have his client present.

The special session, kindly arranged by Magistrate Dumble, was held at four o'clock, when the woman, thoroughly repentant, was given a reprimand and allowed to go.

Our Baseball Team Complimented.

"Mayor of Peterborough;

"Dear sir,—I wish to congratulate you on having in your town such a gentlemanly lot of fellows, which which composes the baseball team. They came to our town on Saturday last, and although they were beat in they deserve praise for bringing such good losers and the way they conducted themselves both on the field and on the street. I hope that when our boys go to your town that they will do likewise, having learnt a lesson from Peterborough. This not only comes from me, but from the citizens generally.

"Yours truly,

"GEO. E. MAYNARD.

"Secretary Bowmanville Baseball Club."

Wanted in Lindsay

Dr. Taggert Arrested on Telegram From Lindsay.

Yesterday evening a gentleman, well known here as a "herb" doctor, sat quietly in a chair in the police station awaiting an escort to waft him to Lindsay. The gentleman's name is A. A. Taggert and his profession in the professing of healing by medicines compounded by himself from ingredients known also to himself.

Unfortunately the doctor (?) neglected, in his earlier youth, when contemplating following the banner of Esculapius, to fulfil the seemingly essential details of learning those hidden mysteries that a medical school course reveals: in short the doctor (?) is a doctor by courtesy only, and that courtesy is paid by him to himself.

The College of Physicians and Surgeons have, of late, been very active in defending jealously the rights and emoluments belonging Only to those who have faced the music and passed the examinations demanded by the Medical Faculty of Ontario, and incidentally paid the customary fees into their treasury. The latter is also a little detail that the doctor (?) has neglected.

It appears that he, although honoring Peterborough by calling it "home," has for some months been practising medicine in Lindsay, and now the C. P. and S. are after his financial scalp.

He was arrested yesterday on a telegram from Lindsay and accompanied an officer sent after him to the Stoney city, on the nine o'clock train.

The doctor (?) is a bright faced, elderly man with a beard whose length is out of all proportion to the medical diplomas held by him being long and voluminous. In answer to The Times yesterday evening, when asked what his prospects were when tried, the unqualified medico said, "They will show, they have got me dead to rights though, I guess."

A Finger Gone

Jas. Bellegham Meets with an Accident at C.O.E. Co.

On Wednesday one of [illegible] deplored, but seemingly inevitable accidents that occasionally befall employees of all large factories happened to James Bellegham, Antrim street, at the Canadian General Electric Company's Works, whereby the first finger of the left hand was amputated.

He was working at one of the machines of the punch press department when the accident happened. The company nor any of their officials are in any way to blame, the matter was simply an accident that might have happened at any time to any one that fate had picked out.

AN IDEAL OUTING

The Young's Point Hotel Now Open, and Doing Good Business

Mr. Fred Darey was in town yesterday and gave The Times a friendly call. He reports that his recent purchase, the Darey House, which he bought from Mr. Brouk, is a winner, as the trade is exceeding his expectations. This Hotel just "fills the bill" for a charming trip terminus and resting spot for a short outing, such as a Saturday or Sunday drive from town. Mr. Darey reports that the fishing this year is better than ever: he has made arrangements for supplying his guests, or the transient trade with first-class live bait. Mr. Darey is too well known as a genial boniface for it to be necessary to state that his guests are always treated well.

Stony Lake Water.

A Prominent Stony Lake Cottager Expresses His Opinion.

Yesterday The Times, as a consequence of having been appreciated by several cottagers of Stony Lake who sought to have the columns of this paper present their grievances over the present water level being unduly high, made numerous enquiries among those owning property there

One of the most prominent cottagers on Stony Lake freely expressed his opinion on the matter, saying that without doubt the water is three feet higher than ever before at this time of year: he even said that the water was higher than the new Government wharf.

Now this gentleman, a prominent official of the town, whilst noting the unusual height of Stony Lake waters, fully concurred in an article which appeared in yesterday's issue, which said that whilst the inconvenience to cottagers is deplorable, the industries of Peterborough must occupy first place in considering the conservation of our water, which is synonymous with having Stony Lake used as a general reservoir.

Our informant further said that this year the water is higher than ever before, from natural causes: he said that Mr. McClellan has made a great success in his control of our water supply, and should not be interfered with, or misjudged by the action of the cottagers. In his opinion the water might be lowered about a foot and still there would be a sufficiency held back. By doing this the cottagers would be, with very few exceptions, satisfied.

We consider that in such cases the control must be left to some person who will do as he thinks best for the general public, without fear or favor, and it is better to leave the matter absolutely in his hands.

Mrs. Lambert Fined

A Viavi Practicioner Fined Fifty Dollars.

A case that has excited much comment and induced some rather harsh criticisms by those who rely on the established schools of medicine for care of the sick, has at last been decided. The case involved a charge made by the College of Physicians and Surgeons against Mrs. Lambert, a disciple and practicioner of a new medical treatment called "The Viavi Treatment." It is alleged that this treatment is promulgated and practiced throughout the Province by people utterly ignorant of the first principles of medical science, anatomy, chemistry, physiology, or any other branch of the healing art, to the danger of those submitting to the treatment. Magistrate Robinson has now given his decision in Mrs. Lambert's case, which was tried at the town hall, Hastings, on 7th June.

The defendant was fined $50 and costs.

Twenty-One Killed and Score Injured In Awful Catastrophe

Train, Going at the Rate of 70 Miles an Hour, Jumped the Track Near Cleveland--Probably the Work of Some Fiend--Injured Passengers Forget Their Names--Horrors of Scene When Boiler Burst.

Cleveland, O., June 22. — Twenty-one persons are dead as a result of the wreck on the Twentieth Century Limited on the Lake Shore Road at Mentor last night.

Cleveland, O., June 22. — While travelling at the rate of 70 miles an hour, the Twentieth Century Limited, the fastest long distance train in the world, ran through an open switch at Menton, about 25 miles east of Cleveland, at 9.20 o'clock last night, causing one of the most horrible wrecks in the history of the Lake Shore road.

The engine was hurled into the ditch. A portion of the train was crushed on top of it, and the wreck was partly burned. The horrors of the wreck were doubled in the horrors of the fire.

More than a score of people were killed and injured, and the famous train was largely demolished.

The train was crowded, practically all its accommodations being taken when it left the city. It was behind time, and the greatest speed was being made to make up the lost time.

Dual Telephone System Useless

The meagre reports which have been published of the evidence gleaned by the Select Committee of Parliament on the telephone service, would lead one to the conclusion that the investigation has been rather a drag net proceedings against the Bell Telephone Company. If the committee narrows its labors down to this apparent object, it will not only defeat its own purpose, but will miss the splendid opportunity it has of doing the public a lasting service in taking this eminently practical question out of the hands of professional promoters and agitators.

Peterborough has had an experience of its own and is in a position to speak feelingly on this question.

It is nearly fifteen years ago that a professional promoter, whose chief object was the sale of the products of a Montreal factory, incidentally to keep his own pot supplied and boiling, selected Peterborough as a good market and carried his plans to a successful finish. Those of us who were in business then well remember the unsatisfactory results of a dual service, which, though it lasted only about a year, we were all so glad to get rid of, and none happier than those who had saved a portion of their investment in the scheme. That the competing plant, as a result of bad construction, was wiped out a week later through contact with a wire charged with a heavy current only completed the fiasco and showed the investors what they had so narrowly escaped.

Last year, our Town Council, influenced by sympathy for a popular citizen who had invested heavily in a telephone patent, granted another competing franchise. Though the plant of this company was to have been in operation months ago, it is still uncompleted, and the experiment it involves has not fairly begun. The company has just been granted a six months extension in which to complete the system within the city. What our people are trying to figure out is, at the same rate of progress how long would it take to instal a system which would give Peterborough anything like the outside connection, which the Bell Telephone Company has and upon which the prosperity of the place so much depends. So long as the competing systems last we evidently must bear the expense of a dual system.

The Special Committee is apparently solicitous regarding local telephone systems as something highly deserving of encouragement. The district hereabouts can show some interesting examples of this class of lines and some contrasts which the committee would do well to consider.

South and west of Peterborough the country shows a net work of private telephone lines, all in various stages of delapidation and not one of which affords a satisfactory service. The people generally are now looking to the Bell Telephone Company to come in and occupy the field. The other rural districts about Peterborough have long been served by the Bell Company, whose lines are in good condition; the charges moderate, and Peterborough greatly benefits commercially by the business being in the hands of a strong concern. This company's development of the farmers' service has been especially satisfactory, and now nearly every rural section contributory to the place has its rural party line, with excellent service at rates as low as those charged within the corporation limits.

If the Special Committee is actuated by a sincere desire to do this country a permanent service, let them discern between the tactics of the salesman and the promoter as contrasted with the real interests of the country and learn the lesson of which the experience in this section is a striking example.

France's Answer Is Now Due.

Berlin, June 23—France's answer to the German note on the Moroccan question has not yet reached the Foreign office, but it is expected that Ambassador Bihourd will present it in the course of the afternoon.

The impression here is that the answer does not promote an understanding between France and Germany, but the Foreign Office here does not abandon the hope of an adjustment of the differences in a manner satisfactory to Germany.

King Christian of Denmark Dying.

Imperial Yacht Club, Kiel, Germany, June 22.—Emperor William received a telegram last night announcing that King Christian of Denmark is in a state of great weakness, which is causing his entourage much concern. Reports from Wiesbaden a few days ago described the King as well enough to drive out and take part in small entertainments.

King Christian of Denmark was born April 8th, 1818. He is the father of Queen Alexandra of Great Britain and Ireland, King George of Greece, Empress Dowager Maria Feodorovna of Russia, and other distinguished personages.

BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW

Prominent Church of England Brotherhood to Meet in Ottawa October 5th.

The Seventh Dominion Convention of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew will be held in the City of Ottawa from October 5th to 8th next, both inclusive.

The Brotherhood of St. Andrew is an institution composed of men of the Church of England banded together for promoting the spread of Christ's kingdom among young men.

Great preparations are being made locally for this Convention while the Dominion Council at head quarters in Toronto is actively engaged in preparing a program which it is expected will contain the names of a number of the leading bishops, and clergy and prominent laymen of the church. Delegates are expected from the majority of the 300 active chapters scattered throughout the Dominion.

Ottawans are noted for hospitality while the Capital has a setting as an ideal Convention City. These facts with the additional inducement of reduced rates on all railways will insure a largely attended and successful gathering when October comes round.

Oddfellows' Decoration Day

DECORATION DAY, that red-letter day in Oddfellowship, has once more come and gone. Yesterday old Sol's face seemed to shine and scintillate extra rays of brightness as the long procession of loyal and kind hearted members of our local I.O.O.F. Lodges, headed by the 57th Regiment Band, bound on an errand of charity and good-will, marched, in good line, and perfect time, bouquets in hand, to the last resting place of hundreds of their departed brethren, to show the world that death does not break the mystic bond of the triple links as brothers in life, those now lying in the Little Lake cemetery, always observed the teaching of the Order's motto, Friendship, Love and Truth, so do their brothers of the three links, now living, show, before the world, that they cherish and keep green the memories of ladges, and velvet like grass, caused many exclamations of admiration. After the ceremony had been concluded, the brethren gathered together and heard most interesting addresses given by the Rev. Mr. Lewis, of Mark street church, Rev. Mr McKay, of St Andrew's, and Rev Dr. Creighton, of George street church. Then throughout this loyalest spot in Peterborough, resounded, in swelling tones, made more impressive by so many manly voices, the grand old hymn "Nearer My God to Thee." This ended the formalities and the brethren dispersed to mingle later with wives or sweethearts, and wander admiringly through the paths and foliage of the cemetery. The merchants on George street honored the occasion by closing their respective places of business, most of them for the rest of the day.

It was remarked yesterday that the turnout was somewhat smaller than usual, only about 85 or 90 being in line, out of some 400 members of the Order in town: this is accounted for by the great pressure at present on the local factories, which are now straining every nerve to catch up with their overplus of orders.

Brother J. W. Miller filled ably, as only a Canadian Regimental officer could, the onerous duties of marshall. The chaplain for the day was Bro. M. W. Matchett. When the long line reached the cemetery gates, the ranks counter marched and proceeded with the impressive ceremony of decorating the graves of departed Oddfellows. This ceremony, midst the beautiful verdancy of the lofty trees, well trimmed

NOW GERMS ENTER THE SYSTEM

Have No Bad Effect Upon People With Good Digestion.

Like a thief in the night, unheralded and unsought, the disease germ steals into the system under cover of the air we breathe, or our food and drink.

If this germs finds a weak stomach and digestive system, be at once sets up housekeeping, with the result that his landlord has a serious illness.

On the other hand, if the stomach where the germ finds lodgment is strong and healthy through the use of Mi-o-na, the injurious effect of the disease germ is at once neutralized, or the germ itself is driven out of the system. Keep the digestion good by strengthening the stomach and intestines with Mi-o-na, and there need be no fear of what disease germs will do.

If you suffer from headaches, indigestion, flatulency, specks before the eyes, vertigo, heart-burn, dizziness, or have a variable appetite, and a general feeling of despondency and weakness, you should at once strengthen the stomach and digestive system by the use of Mi-o-na. There is no liquid, no alcohol, no spoonful doses with this remedy. Just one small tablet out of a fifty cent box, before each meal, and your stomach will soon become so strong and healthy that you can eat anything you want to without fear of distress, and you will be germ proof.

Ask Wm. Medill to show you the guarantee under which he sells Mi-o-na. It costs nothing unless it cures.

LIFE INSURANCE SCANDAL

One of the gravest scandals in connection with the recent history of private financial institutions has occurred in the management of the Equitable Life Insurance Company.

This is one of the largest companies of its kind in the world; having 500,000 policy holders and $408,000,000 at risk in policies—over one-third the value of the farm property of Ontario.

The opportunity given by the control of such large sums of money as poured into the coffers of the Equitable in the form of premiums seems to have proved a greater temptation than some of those responsible for the management of the company's affairs were able to withstand. They formed a company to sell to themselves as managers of the Equitable Life certain securities in which the money belonging to policy holders was invested. It is not charged that these securities were lacking in stability; what is charged is that the profit on the transaction, which should have gone to the policy holders, went into the pockets of the men who were handling the policy holders' trust funds. It is even alleged that the cost of social entertainments was met at the expense of the company.

It is said that these exposures have put a very great check on the income of the Equitable, and is having more or less effect on life insurance business in general. If this influence proves permanent it will be nothing less than a calamity, because insurance provides practically the only means by which thousands of men can make provision for their dependents. The larger the business carried on by an insurance company, subject to certain limitations, the greater the economy and the better the security for the policy holders. But the danger with these large companies, is shown in the case of the Equitable, is that the control of enormous funds gives a temptation which many men are unable to resist. The temptation becomes all the greater owing to the impossibility of effective supervision with policy holders scattered all over the continent.

Would it not be better to place the whole insurance business in the hands of Government? There is nothing new in this proposal. Something of this kind has been put into practice in what has been known as the great state experimental station of the world, New Zealand, and it is also in operation in conservative Germany. State insurance carried on by one public organization, would cost less than insurance carried on by a number of private organizations. The security would also be better and the supervision by the people's representatives should be more effective than in the case of a private company like the Equitable.

EDITORIAL COMMENT.

Now that the Chinaman at home has begun to boycott goods from the United States, entrance to that country will soon be free to Ah Sin. Uncle Sam is quite willing to strain his much worshipped constitution to exclude Chinamen at the demand of many votes; but when it comes to interference with his trade he will think again. He is more afraid of losing the almighty dollar than he is of the votes of those who are opposed to the entrance of the moon-eyed lepers. His "yellow peril" is the danger of the loss of gold.

KEENE.

As usual the Sons of Rest met on their park on Saturday night last. All the members were present, with the exception of Minney Wales, the president, who was unable to attend on account of a severe illness from a potato bug, which mistook his nose for a potato. Fighting Archy took the chair, and opened the meeting. Positive Legget laid a charge against Fatty Drummond for chewing gum in bed. Fatty was fined five dollars and cost. Montgomery McCarthy rose and informed the brethren that he had a question to ask, viz., How long a time does it take the hind wheel of a wagon to catch up to the front wheel? Cowboy George said he followed a wagon for half a mile, and thought he gained about the 99-100th of an inch. Hosier Roach objected to that statement. He said that he rode in a wagon for 250 miles on Friday, and the hind wheel never gained any. Howden Dorts told Hosier that he considered his story was false, and asked the president to impose a fine of five cents, it being his first offence.

Merchant Campbell was threatened with a fine of $2, if he did not exclude cattle and geese from the [illegible] grounds.

Banker Lund rose and intimated that the seats should be cushioned as it would add to the comfort of the members, especially when tormented with Lucifer Squire Scriver then rose and said that he perfectly agreed with Lundy's suggestion, and moved that a concert be held on this park on the first of July, instead of a boat race, as our champion rower had left our village.

Mayor Drummond appointed Squire Scriver, Shat Taylor, Sankey McFarlane and Rinker McIntyre, a committee to make all necessary arrangements for the concert.

Fisher Dickson moved that the Indian brass band be secured for the occasion. Pokey Moore seconded the motion. Fighting Archy now rose and informed the brethern the hour for closing had arrived, and he asked Squire Scriver and Fady Wedlock to sing the closing ode and Gatewhitaker they got up to the key of G, and shook the boots of several of the brethern. The meeting was then closed until next Saturday night at the usual hour and place.

God Save the King.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS

Any even numbered section of Dominion lands in Manitoba or the North west Territories, excepting 8 and 26, which has not been homesteaded, or reserved to provide wood lots for settlers, or for other purposes, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres more or less.

ENTRY

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land to be taken is situate, or if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration Winnipeg or the local agent for the district in which the land is situate, receive authority for some one to make entry for him. A fee of $10 is charged for a homestead entry.

HOMESTEAD DUTIES

A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required by the provisions of the Dominion Lands Act, and the amendments thereto, to perform the conditions connected therewith, under one of the following plans:

(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years. It is the practice of the Department to require a settler to bring 15 acres under cultivation but if he prefers he may substitute stock and 20 head of cattle, to be actually his own property, with buildings for their accommodation, will be accepted instead of the cultivation.

(2) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased), of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

(3) If a settler was entitled to and has obtained entry for a second homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by residence upon the first homestead, if the second homestead is in the vicinity of the first homestead.

(4) If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

The term "vicinity used above is meant to indicate the same township, or an adjoining or connecting township.

A settler who avails himself of the provisions of clauses (2), (3) or (4) must cultivate 20 acres of his homestead, or substitute 20 head of stock, with buildings for their accommodation, and have besides 20 acres substantially fenced.

The privilege of a second entry is restricted by law to those settlers only who completed the duties upon their first homesteads to entitle them to patent on or before the 3rd of June, 1889.

Every homesteader who fails to comply with the requirements of the homestead law is liable to have his entry cancelled and the land may again be thrown open for entry.

APPLICATION FOR PATENT

Should be made at the end of three years before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector. Before making application for patent the settler must give six months notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa of his intention to do so.

INFORMATION

Newly arrived immigrants will receive, at the Immigration Office in Winnipeg, or at any Dominion Lands Office in Manitoba or the north west Territories, information as to the lands that are open for entry, and from the officers in charge, free of expense, advice and assistance in securing lands to suit them. Full information respecting the land, timber, coal and mineral laws, as well as respecting Dominion Lands in the Railway Belt in British Columbia, may be obtained upon application to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, Manitoba, or to any of the Dominion Lands Agents in Manitoba or the North-west Territories.

W. W. CORY,
Deputy Minister of the Interior

N. B.—In addition to Free Grant Lands, to which the Regulations above stated refer, thousands of acres of most desirable lands are available for lease or purchase from railroad and other corporations and private firms in Western Canada.

IF YOU WANT MONEY

Buy a block of stock of the Temopah-Crow Gold and Copper Company. This stock is selling at 18 cents a share. It will be paying a profit in one year of not less than 25 per cent. on capitalization, which will mean a value of the stock of $2.50 a share. It may be worth $5.00 in less than two years time. There are more than 100 mineral veins crossing this property. The lowest average of ores as far as developed is $54 a ton, which does not include numerous small bodies running from $100 to $1,000. The money to be raised in these sales of stock is to be put in hoisting plant, equip and rapidly develop the mine, which includes six mining claims and mill site; 125 acres. Where can you make so much money in so short a time? This is an opportunity that seldom occurs.

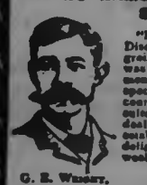
STRICTURE AND KIDNEY DISEASE CURED.



G. E. Wright.

"I had stricture for eleven years. It finally brought on Bright's Disease of the Kidneys. I had an uncomfortable shooting pain in the groin and feeling as though something was in the urethra. My back was weak and I could scarcely stoop over. Urine was full of sediment. Had a desire to urinate frequently. Family doctors, so-called specialists, patent medicines, electric belts, all failed. I was discouraged. I had spent hundreds of dollars in vain. Finally I consulted Drs. Kennedy & Kergan as the last resort. I had heard a great deal about them and concluded from the fact that they had been established over 25 years that they understood their business. I am delighted with the results. In one week I felt better and in a few weeks was entirely cured. Have gained sixteen pounds in weight."

CHANGE AT NIAGARA

RIVER WATER LET INTO THE FOREBAY

Niagara Falls, June 22.—The completion of the first portion of the Ontario Power Company's works was marked by the admission of water to the forebay to-day. The big wing dam, the construction of which was one of the most difficult and spectacular of the undertakings in connection with the development, was pierced and the water, which is fifteen feet deep outside, was slowly admitted.

The stream ran down over the great expanse of river bed, which has been bare for several years, to the delight of all visitors, and found its way through the screens, gates and sluices, which will hereafter guide the flow of water. As the tower works and power house of the company are not completed, the head gates of the great conduit were closed, and the water stopped when it reached them and began to rise. A corps of engineers watched its progress eagerly, and all went along without hitch or difficulty. The water rose rapidly and filled the wide basin, lapping around the shores of the new islands and finding its way into many queer places which did not exist when old Niagara was turned out of his ancient pathway for a season. For the first and last time the river bed has been laid bare. Now the water has resumed its sway and the great expanse of rock bed is hidden forever. It took a number of hours for the water to fill the basin, but finally it came to the top of the but finally it came to the top of the overflow walls and began to pour over in a beautiful cascade, which will henceforth be one of the prettiest sights around the falls. Visitors will be unable to comprehend the vast work that was necessary and the immensity of the walls and concrete and stone which had to be built to turn Niagara from its natural course and make it the servant of man.

TESLA PATENTS EXPIRING

New York, June 22.—A great stir has been made among electricians everywhere by the announcement that the famous patents of Nicola Tesla covering the alternating dynamo have just expired. They have been widely known for years as the "three fundamental patents." Their expiration is an event in the world of electricity not second in importance to the dying out of the Bell telephone patents. The alternating motor has been a monopoly.

Tesla has been drawing princely royalties on these patents, much of which the picturesque inventor is said to have applied to his experiments in wireless telegraphy. His mysterious tower at Wardencliffe, Long Island, is said to have been built in part by money subscribed by J. Pierpont Morgan, and in part out of the royalties from the motor patents.

In 1885 Professor Galileo Ferraris of Turin, Italy, discovered the electro magnetic rotating field and applied his invention, according to William Stanley, to a rotating field motor. In 1888 Tesla received United States patents covering the broad application of the Ferraris discovery. George Westinghouse bought the Tesla patents and also the rights of Ferraris.

The fundamental Tesla patents have been for years in the possession of what is called the "patent pool trust." They have been attacked many times in the courts, but without success. It is now generally believed by electricians that the expiration of the patents releases to the world at large the immensely important principle of the rotary field. There will be a grand scramble everywhere to make the Tesla motor now invariably used, without paying any more royalty to Tesla.

POLITICS OF NOVIA SCOTIA

Provincial General Elections Expected in the Near Future

Ottawa, Ont., June 22.—Nova Scotia members of Parliament are anticipating in the not far distant future the dissolution of the Legislature of that province and a general election. Before this occurs, or whether or not there is an election, there will need to be a Cabinet reconstruction. Attorney-General Longley, for years one of the strongest members of the Government has received the reward of long political service. He has been created a Judge. It is not improbable that Hon. Arthur Dryadale, Provincial Minister of Public Works, will be made Attorney-General while Hon. Mr. Pipes may receive a portfolio.

The Legislature, elected for five years, has another year to run, but the Cabinet reconstruction doubtless will furnish reason for an appeal to the people a little ahead of time.

In anticipation of elections this fall, Nova Scotia Conservatives recently held a convention and made arrangements for active organization. Mr. A. L. Davidson, barrister, of Middleton, has been appointed provincial organiser.

Seashore, Asbury Park N. J., N. E. A. Convention.

Tickets good going July 1, 2 and 3rd; direct route, Grand Trunk and Lehigh Valley. Tickets only $16.35 from Peterborough to Asbury Park. Tickets via New York all rail or Sandy Hook steamers route. On payment of $6c. additional, time extended for return to August 30th. Call at G.T.R. City Ticket Office for tickets and further particulars. W. Bunton, agent.

Hamburg, June 22.—Emperor William, while coming from Hanover to this city in an automobile, ran a race with an express train on a line whose tracks run parallel with the highway, hoping to prove the contention that the automobile would win in such a contest. He maintained a speed of 60 miles an hour until to his chagrin, the road made a curve and compelled him to abandon the race. Near Celle a tire burst, and the automobile tilted until it was almost ov r.

RHEUMATISM

Lives in the Blood

Consequently it requires an internal treatment one that will reach the cause and thoroughly relieve the cause of the pain.

After years of experiment Dr. Hamilton succeeded in producing a remedy that quickly cures rheumatism, gout and all uric acid disorders. This marvelous cure has been given to the people as Dr. Hamilton's Mandrake and Butternut Pill; in every case they cure quickly.

By toning the kidneys and liver, Dr. Hamilton's Pills cause a clean healthy body. The blood is restored to a normal healthy condition, removed from organs and thus the general health is built up, and no room is left for rheumatism to creep in.

A Cripple's Story of Cure

"This is a glad day for me," writes James E. Brennan, from Midland, Ont., "because I can speak of my permanent cure of rheumatism. I have been all through the aching days and sleepless nights, have spent my money on so-called remedies and doctors, but consequently in recommending Dr. Hamilton's Pills I feel sure of their merit. No remedy gave such relief or did me so much good as Dr. Hamilton's Pills. My rheumatism they cured, and ever since my health has been perfect."

When Dr. Hamilton's Pills are to be had in any drug store, it's foolish to live on in misery and ill-health. You ought to get this medicine today and cure yourself. Price 25c. per box, or five boxes for $1 at all dealers, or by mail from N. C. Polson & Co., Hartford, Conn., U.S.A., and Kingston, Ont.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. Fathers at Jackson Park Beware

Yesterday afternoon P. C. McGinty took a trip out to Jackson Park to investigate the matter of boys clad in only their natural nerve who, it has been complained go "in swimming" in the artificial lake there. The doughty officer failed to connect as no one was bathing when he went out. Boys had better cut this out and paste it in their hats as a reminder that any one caught bathing at this spot or in the park unless clothed in something more opaque than a dose of sunburn, will have to explain their actions to the Magistrate.

EVERYBODY READS THE TIMES.

That old copybook maxim finds its most forceful application in the waste of vitality, which is called "burning the candle at both ends." A woman is often tempted beyond her strength by domestic or social demands. Some day she awakens from this waste of strength to the woeful want of it. She has become weak, nervous and miserable.

For weak, nervous, run-down women, there is no better tonic and nervine than Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It restores the appetite, quiets the nerves and gives refreshing sleep. It cures local diseases peculiarly womanly which undermine the general health. It makes weak women strong, sick women well.

"No doubt you have forgotten me, but after you sends me a letter—you will remember me," writes Mrs. Annie E. Morring, of 736 7th Avenue, S. W., Roanoke, Va. "In the year 1897, I wrote to you for advice, which you gave me free of charge. When I wrote to you I was a wreck; I could not walk straight for pains in my abdomen; could not sit down, lie down, or get any ease at all. I had what was called the best doctor here, but did not get any better until I went through a course of your medicine. I took eight bottles each of 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and ten bottles of the 'Pleasant Pellets.' I tell you the medicine made a cure of me."

Weak and sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is held as strictly private. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Powerful Intrigues Urge France to War.

French Note Does Not Improve Matters, But Germany Fears France May Be Goaded Into Resisting Her Claims.

Berlin, June 24.—The French note on this subject of the proposed Morocco Conference was handed to the Foreign Office this morning. Owing to its great length, the note had to be sent by mail to Berlin, instead of by telegraph. The Foreign Office, while declining to discuss the points of the note in detail, admits that it leaves the situation where it was before. The points of disagreement between Germany and France have been removed. It is expected that the negotiations will continue for a long time before results are reached.

Germany's answer to Premier Rouvier has not yet been considered. It will require considerable time in order to meet all the points raised.

INCITING TO WAR.

While the delay might under ordinary circumstances be of advantage in affording time for the excitement to subside, German Government circles note with some concern that powerful intrigues are going on, having for their object war between Germany and France.

Germany's intentions remain thoroughly pacific, but Government circles here apprehend the possibility that these intrigues will result in inflaming the French people against Germany, and creating a delicate and complicated situation.

FRANCE SEEKING AMERICAN AID

Support of United States Wanted in the Moroccan Tangle

THE COMING CONFERENCE

New York, June 24.—The Washington correspondent of the Herald says:—

"France is seeking the aid of the United States in the Moroccan question, and has been casting her influence against Germany in Washington. The French Government does not let the United States forget that when Ion Perdicaris, an American citizen, was kidnapped by Raisuli, the Moorish bandit, Mr. Gummere, then United States Consul General at Fez, was directed to seek the aid of France in the effort to rescue him. France regards this as a recognition by the United States of her predominant influence in Morocco.

"Information has reached here that Germany may recast her proposal for a conference. It is probable that the amended proposal will be eagerly seated in the particular that it will not commit the powers to any position in contravention of any action they have hitherto taken in regard to Morocco.

BRITAIN'S STAUN APPROVED.

Paris, June 24.—Commenting upon the Moroccan situation, the Figaro says that the announcement that Great Britain may accept the invitation to attend the international conference is of the greatest significance. There could not be a better indication of the favorable course of affairs. The Petit Parisien remarks that Great Britain has given proof absolute of her good faith in the situation, which is now less strained as regards Germany and is simple and favorable as regards Great Britain.

Paris, June 24.—It is considered here that the German newspapers are assuming too hurriedly that every thing is running optimistically. As yet France has actually accepted nothing. The conversations between the two powers are continuing satisfactorily, but it were premature to think that definite conclusions have been reached.

GERMANY WANTS FRANCE AS FRIEND

Attainment Has Been Her Policy for Many Years

NEUTRALITY IS IMPOSSIBLE

Must Side With Britain or Kaiser, Says Trusted Personal Friend of Emperor

Paris, June 24.—A significant side light on Germany's attitude regarding the Anglo-French entente, which has already been explained in the despatches, is furnished in an interview with Schiemann, professor of history at the Berlin University, published yb the Temps. Prof. Schiemann is a trusted personal friend of Emperor William, and accompanied him on his recent visit to Tangier. Promising that the Moroccan difficulty will be settled satisfactorily, Prof. Schiemann declared that Germany was forced to act as she has acted, but nevertheless she desires nothing more keenly than an understanding and rapprochement with France. The attainment of that rapprochement has been her policy for years. Then pointing to certain English publications that were lying on a table, he said;—"There are the organs of the syndicate organized against our good relations."

He added that he did not associate the British Government with the British campaign of calumny, although its interest lay in having France as a friend. Germany's policy, he declared, is absolutely pacific, but if ever there is a war between Germany and England, it will be impossible for France to remain outside of it. She will be involved and must choose one side or the other.

Mulock on Fast Mail Service

London, June 24.—Sir William Mulock, Canadian Postmaster-General in an interview here to-day, said that Canada will ultimately command the entire traffic between Great Britain and the North American Continent. What is wanted is the earliest, fastest mail, and Canada will give this by way of Sydney, Cape Breton.

Two hundred and four Barnardo boys sail to-day on the Dominion Line Southwark.

THE absolute purity of the ROYAL BAKING POWDER makes it pre-eminently the most useful and wholesome leavening agent known. It contains no lime, alum, phosphate or ammonia, leaves no acid or alkaline residuum in the food, and its use always insures pure, light and sweet bread, biscuit and cake which are perfectly digestible and wholesome, whether hot or cold, fresh or stale.

Royal Baking Powder has been analyzed by the Chief Health Officers of Great Britain, Canada and the United States who recommend it for its wholesome and economic qualities.

HAULTAIN OUT IN THE COLD?

Government May Pass Him Over in Selecting Provisional Governments

Ottawa, June 24.—The departure of F. W. G. Haultain to Regina suggests the approaching political struggles in the new western provinces. Mr. Haultain has been a leading figure in the West for many years, a member of the Territorial Assembly for nearly twenty years, and for twelve years the leader of the non-partisan government that has existed. Mr. Haultain's long services are not to count, however, and in the selection of the provisional government following the passing of the Autonomy bills, he runs absolutely no chance of being named. Mr. Haultain's attitude in regard to the autonomy bills gives the Government an excuse for passing over his claims and indicates a line of party cleavage in the west. All sorts of speculation as to the formation of the government in the West is being indulged in. It seems to be pretty well settled in the minds of most Western members that Dr. Douglas, expM.P., will have a Governorship, and that Walter Scott, M.P., or Mr. Bulyea will be provincial premier of Saskatchewan. The situation in Alberta is more hazy, but the current of suggestion runs in the direction of Mr. Rutherford, M.L.A. One thing can be stated definitely, the inauguration ceremonies will not take place on Dominion Day. They will not occur before September 1, and may probably go over to a still later date.

MINISTER BOWEN DISMISSED

Washington, D.C., June 24. — The dismissal of Herbert W. Bowen, United States Minister to Venezuela, and the exoneration of Assistant Secretary of State Francis B. Loomis, of the aggegations brought against him, are directed by President Roosevelt, in a letter addressed to Secretary Taft, approving Mr. Taft's report on his findings and conclusions in the case. The President scathingly arraigns Minister Bowen, declaring that his conduct "is especially reprehensible;" that Mr. Bowen asked one of his witnesses to enter the employ of a certain company for the purpose, "in plain words, of stealing" documents which he hoped might incriminate Mr. Loomis; and that Mr. Bowen has "evidently for many months, indeed for the last two years, devoted himself" to hunting up scandal and gossip until it became a monomania and caused him "to show complete disloyalty" to the country he represented. The President says he had hoped to promote Mr. Bowen, as during much of his service he had done good work, but that his usefulness in the diplomatic service is now at an end. The President adds that he would direct that Mr. Bowen's resignation be requested, but for his statement that he would consider a resignation an admission of misconduct and the dismissal is therefore ordered.

A M DE-IN-CANADA FAIR

Ottawa's Fiftieth Anniversary Will Be Celebrated by King's Daughters

Ottawa, June 24.—On Dominion Day the fiftieth anniversary of the city of Ottawa will be commemorated by the holding of a Made-in-Canada Fair, under the auspices of the King's Daughters' Guild. The matter was decided on last Christmas, and since then those interested have been hard at work. Many of the leading manufacturers have promised their hearty support, and the space in Aberdeen Pavilion, where the fair will be held, is being rapidly allotted. In many instances the manufacturers have announced that their exhibit will be donated to the building fund of the King's Daughters' Guild. The fair will be under the patronage of their Excellencies the Governor-General and Lady Grey. Mrs. C. A. Bigger, the president of the guild is energetically forwarding the arrangements.

STABBED HEART SEWN UP

A Rare and Difficult Operation Performed in New York Hospital

New York, June 24.—The physicians in this city are watching with great interest the case of Camillo Detamo, a young Italian, who last Sunday night, was taken to Harlem Hospital suffering from a stab wound which had punctured the wall of his heart and penetrated the right auricle. A rare and difficult operation was immediately performed by three surgeons attached to the hospital, all of whom are young men, and the wound in the heart was sewn together. The operation took thirty-five minutes. To get at the heart the physicians had to saw off an inch and a half of the third rib. At latest reports this man was still alive, with hope, although slight, that he may recover.

SELLS BODY TO SAVE HIS NECK

Hoch, the Murderer, to Make Final Appeal

Chicago, June 24.—In a final effort to save his neck from the gallows, Johann Hoch, the condemned wife murderer and polygamist, has sold his body to a physician for $600, paid in advance, in order to pay for appeal from his conviction. There seems no doubt now that Hoch will get respite of a week to appeal. He was to be hanged to-day.

It is announced authoritatively that the Governor intends to take action. He promised to do this if Hoch could guarantee $700, the fees necessary for appeal. Besides $600 raised by sale of his body, Hoch is raising a collection among his fellow-prisoners. He tried to get his last wife to contribute.

Petition from 5th Ward

The Citizens of Our Newly Added Ward Want Street Car Service

Our good transfluvian fellow citizens of the 5th Ward consider that the hot walk over Hunter street bridge is worth five cents and are now circulating a petition for signatures, asking that the system be extended to them. The petition is as follows:

June 19th, 1905.

J. H. Larmonth, Esq., Manager P. R. R. Co.:

Dear Sir,—We, the undersigned residents of the 5th Ward, respectfully beg to point out to you the fact that, in their opinion, they are not being given the street railway service which the importance of that part of the town deserves. The population in this ward is increasing rapidly, and it is the opinion of your petitioners, that a service embracing this section of the town, would be most profitable to the company. The question as to how the service is to be given, and other details, are matters of which, no doubt, satisfactory solution can be found by you. We are strongly of the opinion, however, that some service should be inaugurated, and respectfully ask that the matter be given your serious consideration.

A Busy Industry.

Hot weather and dry throats means a demand for about six inches of good cool lager, applied internally ad lib.

The Calcutt Brewing & Malting Company are kept busy now owing, in part, to the attitude of the local Licensed Victuallers, who are enraged at the persistent refusal of the Beer Combine to see that this town and county do not want their out rate prices not beer when they are attempting to kill a Peterborough industry of long standing and good reputation. Calcutt's brewery is now brewing six days a week, as shown by the Dominion Government's Inland Revenue books. This does not look like quitting and allowing the Toronto Beer Trust to dictate to Peterborough, and frighten a local industry into either joining the combine or shutting up shop. The combine yesterday had a new delivery waggon out in town but all reports received by special cable do not point to the waggon being worn out quickly with business. We understand that at one hotel at least a point blank refusal was made when the outfit wanted to get stable and yard accommodation. Peterborough will uphold a Peterborough industry and the combine may as well digest and thoroughly assimilate this fact.

Murdered Child's Father Found

Detective and Notary of Boston Is the Man—He Deceived Maude Ward

Boston, Mass., June 24.—Elmer E. Young, private detective and notary public with an office in this city, is the father of six-year-old Minnie Young, for whose alleged murder, May Hope Young is now under arrest at Digby, N.S.

According to the story of Marie Ward, the child's mother, who has been found here, Young left Boston for Digby on the steamer Prince George yesterday afternoon, his avowed purpose being to aid in the defence of May Hope Young. That he is the father of Minnie Young as well as of the baby of whom May Hope Young declares she is the mother, and which was found bound and gagged in the woods when the lifeless body of the six-year-old girl was found there seems to be no doubt from the story told by Marie Ward and others. Miss Ward declares that she went to live with Elmer E. Young when she was but seventeen years old, having been deceived by him into the belief that she was his lawful wife. She never suspected the manner in which she had been duped until over a year after the supposed marriage had taken place. She lived with Young, she said, in different parts of the city for about five years, during which time she gave birth to Minnie Young, the murdered child, and a boy named Harry Young, who died when nine months' old of spinal meningitis.

Better Order in The Park Last Night.

P. C. Miller is "Johnny on the Spot" on Band Night.

Last night the Band played to thousands of delighted citizens. The air was balmy and refreshing and the vast crowd was orderly. On former occasions the intolerable noise of unruly youngsters was a nuisance to everybody — but last night a member of the Scotts Guards was present in policeman's uniform, and if at times a ripple of noisy conduct broke out among the boys, as soon as Tom's head loomed in sight all was silent as a country school.

CZAR NICHOLAS IN DEEP GLOOM

Russians Begin to Realize the Position of Linevitch

THEY DOUBT THE GENERAL

Cassini Will not be one of the Peace Plenipotentiaries, But Will Return

St. Petersburg, June 24.—It is now known that the Czar and his entourage, now at the summer palace, at Peterhoff, are greatly alarmed at the situation in Manchuria and at home.

The aspect of the interior is gloom. It is believed that Linevitch is almost surrounded, and his retreat is threatened. Oyama's right wing is now resting on the Mandarin Road, is nearing Ninguta, and will soon cut off Vladivostock.

THEY DOUBT LINEVITCH.

General Linevitch's record increases the perplexity of the people here. They remember that in 1900 Linevitch reported imaginary battles, and one time recorded a loss of 500 men out of a company containing only 200. His recent boast that if he had troops he could take Tokio, and has story that the Japanese were exhausted and suffering and his ridicule of Oyama's strategy all inspire belief in the notion that he is about to lead the army into dreadful disaster. To-day he admits that the Japanese have advanced north of Itune. Japan's refusal to consent to an armistice and Admiral Uriu's cruise to the Yangtse disprove the contention of Souvorine, editor of the Novoe Vremya that Japan would be unable to force Russia to yield.

The Czar now reads that as Oyama is in a position to take Vladivostock and Harbin and Togo is prepared to sail to the Baltic, he must submit to the Mikado's terms and that President Roosevelt alone can induce the Japanese to moderate their demands.

CASSINI WILL NOT REMAIN.

St. Petersburg, June 24.—The Russ says it is authorized to say that Count Cassini, the retired Russian Ambassador at Washington, will not participate in the peace negotiations, but will leave the United States immediately on the arrival of Baron Rosen, his successor. From independent sources the Associated Press confirms the statement of the "Russ" that Count Cassini will have no part in the peace negotiations.

Foreign Minister Lamsdorff is indisposed. It is understood that his condition is not serious, but his physician was called in last night and ordered the Minister not to leave his bedroom to-day. There is no intimation, however, that this will delay the pending negotiations. The question of a temporary suspension of hostilities seems to rest with Japan. In the meantime the chancelleries of St. Petersburg and Tokio are occupied with the selection of the plenipotentiaries.

Peterborough Deputation Waited Upon Mr. Emmerson

Yesterday Morning to Oppose Action of Stony Lake Cottagers--The Minister Will Have His Engineers Report Upon the Matter, Though He As Much As Gave a Definite Promise.

Ottawa, June 23.—A Peterborough deputation saw Hon. Mr. Emmerson yesterday morning and asked that the level of the water at Stony Lake District be left as it is. Summer cottagers want the water let out, but the Peterborough men say that this would be disastrous to manufacturers in Peterborough, who would be short on power in the fall. The Minister is much as gave a definite promise, but said he would have his engineers report on the question.

The crisis in Europe arising out of the German Emperor's interference in Morocco continues. It is difficult at this distance to say how acute it has become, but it is significant that a semi-panic on the Paris Bourse yesterday was followed by similar conditions on the Berlin Bourse today, the excitement being increased by rumors of mobilization of French troops. The diplomats report that the situation remains as it was; in other words, that diplomacy still holds the balance in her hands. But a most significant despatch comes from Berlin, in which it is insinuated that "powerful intrigues" (presumably by Great Britain) are at work with the object of provoking war between Germany and France. There is no doubt but that the situation is most delicate. The War Lord of the Fatherland evidently has it in his power to plunge the whole world into war, or by moderation preserve its peace. The issue is in the womb of time. Its delivery cannot be delayed for very long.

No Easy Job To Arrange for Peace.

Each Nation Wants the Other to Take Next Move--Field Marshal Oyama is Developing His Offensive, and is Actually in Progress of Delivering His Blow.

St Petersburg, June 23.—There is not likely to be any further move in the direction of an armistice until the plenipotentiaries are appointed and the time of their meeting is definitely fixed. Japan seems unwilling to discuss any new issue until these two questions are settled.

This does not necessarily mean that all hope or arranging a suspension of hostilities before the meeting has disappeared. But as an indication of Japan's mood it increases the doubt as to whether she could be induced to relinquish temporarily the strategic advantages which she evidently believes she enjoys. Indeed, it might raise the suspicion of sparring for time until Field Marshal Oyama has developed his offensive, and is actually in process of delivering his blow, when Japan could easily plead that it was late.

The delay in settling the matter of the plenipotentiaries is therefore all the more deplored by those desiring to avoid further bloodshed. Both countries seem to be perfectly willing to name negotiators, but each evidently desires the other to show its hand first.

Our Congratulations.

Mr. Basil D. Hall Successful in R.M.C. Examinations.

We, and many citizens of Peterborough, would congratulate Mr. Basil D. Hall, second son of Mr. E. H. D. Hall, of town, on his having very successfully passed the recent examinations held at the Royal Military College, Kingston. This examination is a very exacting one, both in the percentage required to attain success and in the quality of the subjects written upon. This is the second son of our town solicitor who has successfully wrestled with the R. M. C. examinations, and their respective successful careers there, should make their father proud of them.

Sir Frederick Borden, Minister of Militia, attended the closing exercises at the College. He reviewed the Cadets, who marches past finely, saw them in gymnastics, and military engineering, and then presented the prizes, announced by the Commandant. The graduates were 24 in number.

The Dominion mounted patrol competition was won by Harrington, McPhee, Hall and Cannfield.

That "Treasure Trove"

Old Clapboard House on Charlotte St. Retreats Before Advancing Demands of Advertising

Yesterday one of the oldest structures in Peterborough was finally removed to make way for the progressive march of modern business methods.

At 174 Charlotte, until yesterday, stood a small clapboard, weather-beaten building recently purchased by Mr. Lendrum, the Charlotte street photographer. A prominent citizen when referring to this building which was yesterday torn down to make room for another of Mr. Stockee's billboards, told The Times that during the last conversation he held with the late Mr. William Clurton, held in front of this house, the latter told him, when the house was erected it was considered "one of the most imposing structures in Peterborough."

This old shack was built about the year 1835 and when erected was one of Peterborough's foremost hotels: its first landlord was Mr. J. Denchey, P.L.S., who, after managing the hotel for several years, went to Norwood to practice his profession.

Quite an excitement was caused yesterday morning over the demolition of this house, through a false report promulgated by a waggish local hotelman. He gave the wink to one or two others, and they started a report that $100 had been discovered by workmen tearing down the house. The news spread fast and scores of people went to ascertain the facts. The owner of the building, hearing of the "Treasure trove," in good faith, went to the workmen supposed to have made the find and demanded the coin as his own. It took some persuasion to convince the matter was a joke.

Mr. Bowman Leaving

A Well Known Local Man Will Start Business at Terminus of Temiscamingue Railway.

A gentleman born and raised in Peterborough, and particularly well known by regular visitors to the market, Mr. W. A. Bowman, is about to leave the town of his birth. He, in company with Mr. Singer, who has carried on a dry goods business on George street, opposite the premises of Messrs. J. J. Turner and Sons, will leave for the terminus of the Temiscamingue Railroad on Monday to start, in partnership, a new general store.

The new firm have already purchased several thousand dollars worth of goods which have been shipped ahead to their new location. They will at once, on arrival, have a wooden building erected for their new venture, and will for the present, camp out in a tent purchased this week from a local tent manufacturer. They anticipate doing a good general business as where they will locate, in a huge boarding house, where several hundred railroad employees live.

"Billy" Bowman is too well and favorably known here to require a valedictory, but his many friends will wish him and his partner bon voyage and good luck.

MEXICAN INVESTMENT

They Have Purchased $12,000,000 of Property in Mexico

Montreal, June 24.—Mr. F. S. Pearson, the chief promoter of the Mexican Light and Power Company, having arrived in the city from London, a series of meetings of this corporation's directors are being held. There was a meeting yesterday, and as the business before them remained unfinished there will, in all probability be another session today. To-morrow a general meeting of the stockholders has been called to ratify the recent purchase and consider the various questions pertaining to the company's future.

The company lately acquired two of the largest lighting companies in the Republic, the San Ildefonso Lighting Company and the Mexican Gas and Electric Company. The price paid for these two corporations is understood to be in the neighborhood of $12,000,000, and the shareholders are being called together to authorize a bond issue which will cover this expenditure, as well as provide for future contingencies.

GENERAL SPORTING GOSSIP

THE TURF—BASEBALL—LACROSSE—FOOTBALL

As an index of the extreme interest excited throughout the Dominion, by the coming Eastern Ontario Turf Club's Circuit's races, particularly those to be held in Peterborough next month, we might note that Mr. Arthur Bountree, Secretary of the local Turf Club, yesterday received a communication from Dorval, Que., in which the writer, Mr. John F. Smyth, a well known horseman, desired to enter his horse, "Marston Moor," for the Peterborough races.

The horse is now entered for the the three-quarter mile running dash on the 12th July and one-half mile race hats on July 13th. That a horse belonging to the Province of Quebec should be entered on the 22nd June for a race that will not be run until the 12th July demonstrates clearly that the whole sporting public of Canada have their attention attracted towards the Peterborough races.

THE TRACK.

The Peterborough Turf Club, who as noted in former issues, have had a gang of men getting their track into shape, are to be congratulated on the success of their efforts. The track was yesterday practically completed and was last night, by several experts on such matters, as Mr. Geo. Curtis, owner of Minnie Keswick, and other horsemen well known throughout Ontario, pronounced to be inferior to none in Canada.

Dan. Johnston who has had his fast mare Donna Bell, now with a mark of 2.23 1-2, but of town attending the Western Circuit's races has returned with a bunch of the long green and another horse, "Billy P.," with a record of 2.16 1-4. The doc. will probbly make some of the local sports hustle now.

LACROSSE.

The first home championship lacrosse game of the season will be played at the Riverside Park this afternoon, when the unbeaten Bowmanville lacrosse team will cross sticks with the locals. The locals have strengthened up considerably and will do their prettiest to break the visitors winning streak. The spectators are assured of witnessing fast and clean lacrosse. The game is called for 2.30 sharp.

THE NORTHWEST

The future of the Canadian Northwest depends very much on the numbers and the class of immigrants. People going there should be prepared for hardships, says the London Free Press. Only thrift and industry can succeed. Many people from the old country settle in American and Canadian cities, and find employment in factories and stores. The work they do is common labor. They are unfit for the more lucrative positions, on account of lack of education. The wages of the laboring classes range from $1 to $1.25 per day. Although the wages are higher than in the old country, their living expenses are greater. The Northwest offers more inducements to the workingman and home seeker, as the rich and poor alike receive the same rights and privileges. Everything depends on the industry of the farmer in the cultivation of his land.

On going West one should seek employment with some reliable farmer, who will pay $15 and upwards, with board, and additional pay in harvest time. Great advantage will be derived. The methods of farming are different from those in vogue in the old country. Besides, the information gained as to the best places in which to locate is another great and important item. By industry and thrift the poor immigrant may in a few years become the wealthy farmer, while by remaining in his native land it is impossible for the laboring man to better his condition.

The ever increasing population, the vast acres of golden grain, together with the prosperous towns and villages, with their well equipped schools and churches, cannot but help to convince the new comers that the West has a prosperous and happy future. If you care to share it you have your chance.

OPENING OF DARKEST AFRICA

It is almost three hundred years ago when the world received its first account of the wonders of Niagara Falls. It is only fifty years ago when Livingston carved his name on a tree standing in view of the marvels of the Victoria Falls, in what was then "Darkest Africa." After Livingstone came Stanley, and it was only thirty years ago that this great explorer explored the boundaries of Lake Victoria Nyanza, and it is less than twenty years ago when he made his last and in many respects most memorable trip through the then unknown regions of Central Africa. "Yet we have before us now," says the Wall Street Journal, "a two-page advertisement of a fast railway train running through the very region explored by Livingstone and Stanley. A train de luxe leaves Cape Town every Wednesday for Kimberley, Mafeking and Bulawayo, connecting with a fast saloon service and sleeping accommodations to Gwelo, Salisbury and Victoria Falls. These trains are lighted by electricity and provided with saloons, dining and buffet accommodations. The Cape-to-Cairo Railway indeed reached nearly every important point, which only a few years ago we were reading about in the wonderful narratives of Livingstone's and Stanley's explorations. Nothing could illustrate more vividly the rapidity with which modern civilization is moving and the spell with which Darkest Africa is being opened, not only to the commerce, but to the tourists of the world. Not only have the Victoria Falls thus been brought within the easy reach of travellers, but this stupendous wonder of the world like Niagara, is about to be utilized to provide power to conduct electric energy for use in transportation and industry."

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

BRUTAL TORTURE INFLICTED

Non-Union Teamster Barbarously Treated in Chicago

Chicago, June 24.—Edward Blekett, a non-union teamster, employed by the National Express Company, was subjected to barbarous torture early yesterday by four men, alleged to be strike sympathizers. Blekett was attacked in front of the Teamsters' Union head-quarters. After being knocked down by the men, three fingers of his right hand were broken, and two of his finger nails were torn off. The victim appealed to the men to have mercy, but his cries were in vain, and when the assailants left he was unconscious in the street, where he was found later by a policeman.

HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS

Any even numbered section of Dominion lands in Manitoba or the North-west Territories, excepting 8 and 26, which has not been homesteaded, or reserved to provide wood lots for settlers, or for other purposes, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres more or less.

ENTRY

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land to be taken is situate, or if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration Winnipeg or the local agent for the district in which the land is situate, receive authority for some one to make entry for him. A fee of $10 is charged for a homestead entry.

HOMESTEAD DUTIES

A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required by the provisions of the Dominion Lands Act, and the amendments thereto, to perform the conditions connected therewith, under one of the following plans:

[1] At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years. It is the practice of the Department to require a settler to bring 15 acres under cultivation, but if he prefers he may substitute stock; and 20 head of cattle, to be actually his own property, with buildings for their accommodation, will be accepted instead of the cultivation.

[2] If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased), of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

[3] If a settler was entitled to and has obtained entry for a second homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by residence upon the first homestead, if the second homestead is in the vicinity of the first homestead.

[4] If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

The term "vicinity" used above is meant to indicate the same township, or an adjoining or cornering township.

A settler who avails himself of the provisions of clauses [2], [3] or [4] must cultivate 30 acres of his homestead, or substitute 20 head of stock, with buildings for their accommodation, and have besides 80 acres substantially fenced.

The privilege of a second entry is restricted by law to those settlers only who completed the duties upon their first homesteads to entitle them to patent on or before the 2nd of June, 1899.

Every homesteader who fails to comply with the requirements of the homestead law is liable to have his entry cancelled and the land may again be thrown open for entry.

APPLICATION FOR PATENT

Should be made at the end of three years before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector. Before making application for patent the settler must give six months notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa of his intention to do so.

INFORMATION

Newly arrived immigrants will receive, at the Immigration Office in Winnipeg, or at any Dominion Lands Office in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories, information as to the lands that are open for entry, and from the officers in charge, free of expense, advice and assistance in securing lands to suit them. Full information respecting the land, timber, coal and mineral laws, as well as respecting Dominion Lands in the Railway Belt in British Columbia, may be obtained upon application to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, Manitoba, or to any of the Dominion Lands Agents in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories.

W. W. CORY,
Deputy Minister of the Interior

N. B.—In addition to Free Grant Lands, to which the Regulations above stated refer, thousands of acres of most desirable lands are available for lease or purchase from railroad and other corporations and private firms in Western Canada.

IF YOU WANT MONEY

Buy a block of stock of the Toropah-Crow Gold and Copper Company. This stock is selling at 18 cents a share. It will be paying a profit in one year of not less than 25 per cent. on capitalization, which will mean a value of the stock of $2.50 a share. It may be worth $5.00 in less than two years time. There are more than 100 mineral veins crossing this property. The lowest average of ores as far as developed is $54 a ton, which does not include numerous small bodies running from $100 to $1,000. The money to be raised in these sales of stock is to be put in hoisting plant, equip and rapidly develop the mine, which includes six mining claims and mill site; 125 acres. Where can you make so much money in so short a time? This is an opportunity that seldom occurs.

King Christian of Denmark Dying.

Imperial Yacht Club, Kiel, Germany, June 22.—Emperor William received a telegram last night announcing that King Christian of Denmark is in a state of great weakness, which is causing his entourage much concern. Reports from Wiesbaden a few days ago described the King as well enough to drive out and take part in small entertainments.

King Christian of Denmark was born April 8th, 1818. He is the father of Queen Alexandra of Great Britain and Ireland. King George of Greece, Empress Dowager Maria-Feodorovna of Russia, and other distinguished personages.

France's Answer Is Now Due.

Berlin, June 23.—France's answer to the German note on the Morocco question has not yet reached the Foreign office, but it is expected that Ambassador Bihourd will present it in the course of the afternoon.

The impression here is that the answer does not promote an understanding between France and Germany, but the Foreign Office here does not abandon the hope of an adjustment of the differences in a manner satisfactory to Germany.

KEENE.

As usual the Sons of Rest met on their park on Saturday night last. All the members were present, with the exception of Minney Wales, the president, who was unable to attend on account of a severe bite from a potatoe bug, which mistook his nose for a potatoe. Fighting Archy took the chair, and opened the meeting. Positive Legget laid a charge against Fatty Drummond for chewing gum in bed. Fatty was fined five dollars and cost. Montgomery McCarthy rose and informed the brethern that he had a question to ask, viz., How long a time does it take the hind wheel of a wagon to catch up to the front wheel? Cowboy George said he followed a wagon for half a mile, and thought is gained about the 99-100th of an inch. Hosier Roach objected to that statement. He said that he rode in a wagon for 250 miles on Friday, and the hind wheel never gained any. Howden Doris told Hosier that he considered his story was false, and asked the president to impose a fine of five cents, it being his first offence.

Merchant Campbell was threatened with a fine of $2. if he didnot exclude cattle and geese from the society's grounds.

Banker Lund rose and intimated that the seats should be cushioned as it would add to the comfort of the members, especially when tormented with boils. Squire Scriver then rose and said that he perfectly agreed with Lundy's suggestion, and moved that a concert be held on the park on the first of July, instead of a boat race, as our champion rower had left our village.

Major Drummond appointed Squire Scriver, Shat Taylor, Sanky McFarlane and Rinker McIntyre, a committee to make all necessary arrangements for the concert.

Fisher Dickson moved that the Indian brass band be secured for the occasion. Penny Moore seconded the motion. Fighting Archy now rose and informed the brethern the hour for closing had arrived, and he asked Squire Scriver and Fady Wedlook to sing the closing ode and Gerwhitaker they got up to the key of G, and shook the boots of several of the berthern. The meeting was then closed until next Saturday night at the usual hour and place.

History and Production of the Goldfields of Boulder County, Colorado, Portraying Economic Conditions Which Predict the Coming Goldfields of Colorado and Presenting the Stock Offering of a Great Gold Mining Enterprise of the United States Gold Corporation

FREE

Our booklet on the gold fields of Boulder County is off the press, and is being distributed free to investors. We have prepared this book to advertise the gold fields of Northern Colorado and our great gold mining enterprise. The books will be free for the asking while they last. It will tell you of how over fifty millions have been added to the world's wealth in production of gold, silver and copper under primitive methods and from surface workings of an average depth of not to exceed 250 feet. It will tell you of its great tungsten belt, the largest in the world. It will tell you of the existence of a diversity of precious and rare minerals, unrivaled by any other gold fields on this continent. It will tell you of a mineral area of twenty-five square miles literally covered with a network of veins practically undeveloped, with only one shaft below the thousand foot and half a dozen below the six hundred foot level. It will tell you of a gold field nearer to the Denver smelters than any other in Colorado; of a change of economic conditions, in this section, which will enable the miner to ship ore to the smelters, at a net profit, that is now being thrown over the dumps in other sections of Colorado; it will tell you of a field so attractive that it resulted in the construction of two railways from our end of the field to the other. It will tell you of the substitution of modern and up-to-date mining methods, in place of the primitive ones of the past; in short, it will tell you of all those conditions which predict for the gold fields of Boulder County the coming gold fields of Colorado

It will also tell you of our great gold mining enterprise in the western part of the gold fields of Boulder County, near the continental divide, where nature has deposited her largest and richest treasure vaults; it will tell you of our economic development tunnel, driven to drain and develop a mineral estate almost a mile long and half a mile wide; of the thousands of tons of gold ore now blocked out and ready for shipment in the five different veins cut by this tunnel in driving it eight hundred feet, the result of two years' steady development work night and day; of our wonderful discovery of molybdenite—a rare metal—in large commercial quantities, foretelling for us the first molybdenite mine in Colorado that is producing, as well as a large and permanent source of revenue, of our project to drive this tunnel, long before the end of this year, into the famous Fourth of July dyke or "Mother Lode," from which the far famed Caribou group of mines produced twenty million dollars in gold, silver and copper from 1869 to 1893; of the tremendous possibilities for ore production which will follow the cutting of a mineral dyke from 50 to 100 feet wide at a depth of a thousand feet, and the great probability of our opening the first great copper mine in Colorado when we reach this dyke with the tunnel. In short, it will tell you of a gold mining enterprise that will go on a large producing basis long before the end of 1905; of an enterprise with possibilities second to none in Colorado, the developments of which have already shorn it of any element of risk or speculative features, rendering the investment offered a safe and attractive one.

For the financial and commercial standing of the business men who stand back of this enterprise we refer you to the First National Bank, Boulder, Colo, or Bradstreets Commercial Agency

The edition will not last long. If you would be sure of securing a copy, write to-day, or your name and address on a postal card, with the word "Booklet," will do the work.

Great interest has been manifested in the special services conducted by Evangelist Cox at Bethany Tabernacle. The Evangelist will continue in the city until next Tuesday evening. He will speak three times on the coming Lord's Day, in the morning and evening at the Tabernacle, and in the afternoon at 3.30 in Inverlea Park.

Mr. Anderson to Ill to See Visitors

At the conclusion on Thursday of the Douro picnic the County Council, accompanied by several other gentlemen, drove over to see Mr. Wm. Anderson, M.P.P., East Peterborough. Owing to Mr. Anderson's critical condition, the Hon. J. R. Stratton was the only member of the party to see Mr. Anderson, and reported him as being in a most critical condition. His nurse stated that he is resting comfortably and if nothing unforseen arises the prospects of recovery are hopeful.

The fire which occurred about one o'clock yesterday morning, and of which as much as could then be learned about, was noted in yesterday's issue, caused damage to the amount of about $500. The portion of the house occupied by Mr. Laviolette was almost completely destroyed. The building is the property of the Auburn Woollen Co. The blaze occasioned considerable excitement in the north end, many residents being present to witness it.

The Bowdly Excursion Log Bound

Yesterday the ever popular steamer, City of Peterborough, arrived in town with a large party of excursionists from Bewdley, Rice Lake, en route to Lakefield and return. The party, enjoying the trip and river scenery to the utmost, passed safely through the Lift Locks, but after reaching Dam 5 were prevented from reaching Lakefield, the river being simply blocked from shore to shore with the Dickson Company's drive of logs. The party returned to town and after spending several hours taking in the sights of Peterborough, returned, in the early evening to Bewdley. All spoke in high terms of the wonders they saw at the Lift Lock and of their treatment aboard the "City."

Local Incidents
BY THE THIRD MAN ON THE STREET.

—The Dickson Company are now employing more than eighty men in their mill in the 5th Ward.

—For the past day or two Mr. Wm. Scott, of the Calcutt Brewing & Malting Co., better known about town as "Billy," has had to submit to many a roast and round of congratulations. Billy is a grandpa!!!

—There was a tremendous crowd at last night's band concert in Victoria Park. There was very general satisfaction over the newly-installed lighting system, which is a great improvement. The concert was unusually good and the various numbers were loudly applauded.

The First Drive

The Dickson Company's Vanguard Drive of Logs Now in Town.

The first of the Dickson Company's six drives to arrive at Peterborough this season is now passing through the town. The tail end of this drive passed Lakefield yesterday morning, and the whole drive will probably be delivered at their fine new mill in a day or two. Mr. W. Davidson reports that the present high water is of material assistance in getting their logs through the hitherto shallow places in the river.

Yesterday afternoon several of their employees wishing to get to the bunch of logs piled up against the middle pier of Hunter street bridge, tried to make connection by riding saw logs from the dam. The current, however, baffled their endeavors, just as they were almost within jumping distance of the held back logs. Again and again this was tried, but in the end, the veteran river drivers had to ignominiously climb down over the edge of the bridge and pier.

MANY PEOPLE HAVE CATARRH OF KIDNEYS AND DON'T KNOW IT.

Backache, the First Symptom of Kidney Trouble.

Prominent Persons Who Have Been Cured.

Daniel D. Bidwell, Supervisor, Notary Public and a member of I. O. O. F., 160 Pearl street, Buffalo, N. Y., writes:

"Having used Peruna for a short time, I desire to write you as to my present condition.

"When I obtained Peruna I was suffering from chronic indigestion and kidney and bladder trouble. It seemed to help the circulation at once. My digestion is now perfect and my kidneys and bladder do not trouble me in any way. In fact, I give Peruna the entire credit.

"Hoping that your remedy will reach all sufferers in a similar case, and thanking you, I remain,"—Daniel D. Bidwell, N. Y.

A South American Cured by Pe-ru-na.

"I used Peruna a short time ago to build up my system, which was all run down from overwork, worry and a cold which had settled in my back and kidneys, causing me serious annoyance and trouble.

"When I returned home from work at night, I was so exhausted and worn out, together with the pain in my back, that I felt I would never be able to take up the burden of life again in the morning, but when morning came I would get out somehow. This dragging through life continued for a couple of months, when I decided I would take Peruna.

"I am glad to state that I found it just the medicine for me. In a couple of months I was restored to perfect health and strength, and my work was no longer a burden. I therefore endorse your medicine as worthy of the confidence of the sick."—Alfonso d' Aljores.

Dangerous Kidney Diseases Cured.

It at once relieves the catarrhal kidneys of the stagnant blood, and prevents the escape of serum from the blood.

Peruna stimulates the kidneys to excrete from the blood the accumulating poison, and thus prevents the convulsions which are sure to follow if the poisons are allowed to remain.

It gives great vigor to the heart's action and digestive system, both of which are apt to fail rapidly in this disease.

Peruna cures catarrh of the kidneys simply because it cures catarrh wherever located.

A Prominent Merchant Restored to Health By Pe-ru-na

Mr. John Nimmo, 215 Lippincott St., Toronto, Can., a prominent merchant of that city, and also a member of the Masonic Order, writes:

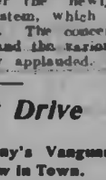
"I have been in poor health generally for over four years. When I caught a bad cold last winter it settled in the bladder and kidneys, causing serious trouble. I took two greatly advertised kidney remedies without getting the desired results.

"Peruna is the only remedy which was really of any benefit to me. It seemed to act in perfect harmony with the system, eliminating the poisons, stopping the ravages of the disease and gradually restoring me to health and strength.

We have on file many thousand testimonials like the ones given here. We can only give our readers a slight glimpse of the vast array of unsolicited endorsements we are receiving every month. No other physician in the world has received such a volume of enthusiastic letters of thanks as Dr Hartman for Peruna.

All correspondence held strictly confidential.

Police Court



OFFICIALS
Chief of Police, G. L. Reed
Magistrate, D. W. Dumble

Yesterday morning there was a small attendance when Magistrate Dumble opened court.

The only case tried was a charge against Mr. W. B. Warne, whose scalp, the local dispensers of drugs, would not regret to have dangling in front of their tepees. The information in this case explains itself, and, in part, reads as follows:

The said informant says that he is informed and believes that W. B. Warne, at the Town of Peterborough, in the County of Peterborough, on, or about the 3rd day of May, 1905, did assume or use the title of "Druggist," in the said town, being part of the Province of Ontario, without being registered under 'The Pharmacy Act," and without having taken out a certificate under the provisions of section 18 of the said Act, for the time in which he was assuming or using such title.

(Sgd.) ALF BROWN,
Inspector, O.C.P.

Sworn before H. Rush, J.P.

Mr. Brown, who has been in town several days, is connected with the Ontario College of Pharmacy, which all those intending to become druggists in this Province must attend, and pass the examinations in connection therewith.

Mr. F. S. Mearns, Toronto, counsel for the Ontario College of Pharmacy, appeared for the prosecution, and Mr. Kerr for the defendant.

Before the evidence was heard, his Worship asked the Chief, "Have you a copy of the Pharmacy Act, for I don't know anything about it?" Mr. Brown produced the necessary document and the trial began.

Mr. Mearns called his Worship's attention to section 31 of the act, which practically puts the onus of proof of innocence upon the accused. Mr. Brown, in evidence, produced copies of the Peterborough Evening Examiner of May 3rd, and of April 27th, 28th, and 29th, which contained advertisements of a patent medicine called "Ozone," at the foot of which appeared Mr. Warne's name, with the title "Druggist" appended. He also produced copies of a local paper of July 16th, 1904, containing another advertisement with Warne's title of druggist affixed, this latter however, was marked out as evidence. Mr. Brown stated that he has often warned Mr. Warne that he has been breaking the law, and Warne, as often, had promised to drop the title, "druggist."

The inspector then went on to show that the wholesalers, from whom Warne purchases his patent medicines, have the ads. put in the papers with consent of the retailers. Mr. Brown testified he had several times asked Warne to request the wholesalers to omit the title druggist when using his name as handling the goods they advertise and he had promised to do this. Warne had admitted to him, subsequent to when the information had been laid, that he had put in the Ozone advertisement.

Under cross-examination by Mr. Kerr, Mr. Brown admitted that Mr. Warne told him he had notified the wholesalers not to use his name in their advertisements.

The Ozone adv. had run in the papers from April 24th to 4th May.

Mr. Brown in answer to a question by Mr. Kerr said that yesterday he had been exactly 14 years acting as prosecutor for the O.C.P.

In summing up the evidence, his Worship contended that the prosecution's evidence had clearly proven that the advertisements had been put in by the wholesalers, not Warne and dismissed the case, with costs.

A passage of arms was held between his Worship and Mr. Mearns, when the former, referring to the Ontario Pharmacy Act, said the act had been passed by the druggists to freeze out competition. Mr. Mearns hotly replied that the law had been passed by the Legislature to protect the public from incompetent men, handling poisons, stating that Warne had many kinds of poisons in his store.

The Delegation Gone.

Board of Trade Sends Delegation to Ottawa to Have Water Conserved

As noted in our yesterday's issue, at the special meeting of the Board of Trade held Thursday night, a committee was appointed to go to Ottawa and interview the Deputy Minister of Railways and Canals, and ask that the present high level of Stony Lake be maintained. This was to offset a telegram sent by a few of the Stony Lake Cottagers Association, protesting against the water being so high.

This deputation, comprising the following gentlemen, Messrs. R. Neal and J. R. Stratton, J. C. Slaunk in the interests of the lumbermen, J. H. Learmouth representing the power interests and Capt. P. T. Young, Lakefield, representing the steamboat interests, left by the C.P.R. train Thursday night.

It is to be hoped that the Ministers will not only see the injustice of allowing the whole future prospects of Peterborough to be sacrificed because a few temporary season wharves, and some few trees are inundated at Stony Lake, but will in justice see that the sufferers be recompensed for their damaged property.

"He Won't Die

Of consumption" is a remark often made of a fleshy man. The remark expresses the popular recognition of the fact that the sign of consumption is emaciation, loss of flesh. On the other hand, a gain in flesh is a sure sign that wasting diseases are being cured.

Emaciated people with obstinate coughs, bleeding lungs, night-sweats and weakness, have been perfectly cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. The several steps of the cure were recorded in ounces and pounds of increasing weight. When there is gain in flesh the wasting disease is being surely cured.

Mr. Will H. Whitmire, of Atkison, Rockingham Co., Va., writes: "Our son contracted a deep cold about the first of July, 1904, and had a terrible cough. We called a doctor and he pronounced it irritation of the bronchial tubes, with asthmatic trouble, and he informed me that my son was liable to die at any time. He told me that if we could keep the bronchial tubes open, he might cure him; but after treating him several weeks and my son growing worse all the time, I concluded to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Pleasant Pellets.' I had seen several almost miraculous cures brought about by the use of these medicines, and of course I had wonderful faith in them. He used three bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery' at home and one vial of the 'Pellets,' and was then well enough to go to West Virginia, taking a supply with him. I am just in receipt of a letter from him from which I quote: 'I am well and hearty and getting very fatty.'"

War in City's Sts. Over 2,000 Victims After One Awful Day

131 Persons Killed Outright and 41 Die in the Hospitals, Which are Crowded to Overflowing with Injured--Many Wounded Unattended--Troops Fire Volley After Volley Into Mob, who Reply with Firearms and Showers of Vitrol.

Lods, Russian Poland, June 24. — Yesterday, "Black Friday" in Lods, surpassed all the horrors of "Red Sunday," in St. Petersburg. While it is not yet possible to ascertain the exact number of victims estimates place the killed and wounded as high as 2000. The trouble here was initiated by the Social Democrats and Jewish Bund, who determined to avenge their comrades killed in the rioting on Wednesday. Thursday, the feast of Corpus Christi, passed off quietly, but during the night workmen attacked the patrols. In this fighting two officers and seven Cossacks were killed. One of the latter was shot by a girl of 13 years.

At dawn Friday commenced a day of terror. The city was given up to bloodshed. At 11 o'clock all the factory hands struck and flocked into the streets. Cossacks, dragoons and infantry charged the mobs time after time, firing volley after volley into the crowds. The rioters replied with revolvers, while their comrades on roofs and in windows joined in the fusilade. Some dashed vitrol from points of vantage upon the troops in the streets below. The burning fluid drove its victims into a frenzy and led to scenes of horrible character.

AMAZING SERIES OF FORGERIES

Banks and Trust Companies of Philadelphia Badly Swindled

MAY LOSE ABOUT A MILLION

Many Stock Certificates Were Fraudulently Raised---The Forger Now a Dead Man

Philadelphia, June 24.—One of the most sensational cases of forgery that has ever been brought to light in professional circles was disclosed yesterday when it was announced that certificates calling for small numbers of shares of stock had been fraudulently raised to hundreds of shares, causing a loss to certain banks and trust companies here of from $750,000 to $1,000,000. The forgery involves the name of Benjamin H. Gaskill, who died four weeks ago. Gaskill was the sole member of the banking and brokerage concern known as Benjamin H. Gaskill & Company. He died of illness in the financial district, and his estate was considered gilt-edged. At his death he was believed to be worth about half a million dollars. He left no will, and administrators began to close up his business. A patron of the firm, whose name is not given, bought from the estate 100 shares of Philadelphia Traction Company stocks, and 100 shares of stock of the United States Steel Corporation. He turned his account over to E. C. Miller & Company, which firm sent the 100 shares of Traction stock to the Philadelphia Traction Company's office, to have the transfer recorded. The certificate did not agree with the company's books, and an investigation showed that the certificate had been raised from six shares to 100.

A further investigation revealed the fact that Gaskill had credited himself in his own books with 6,000 shares of Philadelphia Traction stock, valued approximately at $600,000, while the company's book showed that he had only 600 shares. He had raised stock certificates of the United Railways of New Jersey from two to 200, and the certificates of the Frankford and Southwark Street Railway Co., of this city, worth $450 a share, from two to 20. Gaskill kept two accounts, one recording the transactions of his customers, which was correct, and another giving his own transactions. His books showed that he was losing from $15,000 to $25,000 a year. His method was to obtain certificates of gilt-edged securities calling for one, two, three or some other small number of shares raise this figure, and give them as securities for large loans.

The amount loaned on the raised certificates will aggregate between $750,000 and $1,000,000. Probably little will be recovered from the estate.

Gaskill was about 40 years old, and lived high.

TO BUILD HER OWN NAVY

Stories Denied That Ships are to be Built Abroad

St. Petersburg, June 26.—The Admiralty announces that the Emperor has appointed a commission on naval construction, to which will be entrusted all building proposals. It will shortly begin work. It includes Admiral Tchoukmine, commander of the Black Sea fleet; Admiral Dubassoff, and Admiral Avellan, formerly Minister of Marine. The Admiralty states that all reports of arrangement with foreign companies for the rebuilding of the navy are unfounded. According to the Novoe Vremya, the rumors of the transfer of local shipbuilding yards to steel or shipbuilding trusts emanate from Charles N. Schwab, who, when he was in St. Petersburg recently, made a proposal with regard to such transfer which the Admiralty did not accept or even take into consideration.

A RAILWAY SCENIC MULTIPLIER

A Western Writer's High Tribute to the Magnificence of the Canadian Rockies

A well-known western author, Mr. de Putron Gliddon, writing from Banff, to the officials of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, pays the following tribute to the magnificence of the scenery of the Canadian Rockies;—

"No matter what superlatives you use, you cannot exaggerate the grandeur and glories of the scenery on the Canadian Pacific Railway between Banff and Vancouver. I do not claim to be a globe trotter, who has seen it all, or knows it all, for my little travels have been confined to a few trips in Switzerland and Austria, and most of the European countries, and I think I have been on all the transcontinental lines in the United States of America, certainly all the mountain lines, including the Denver & Rio Grande, which takes in the greatest mountain scenery, of Colorado, and I also have run by the Japanese scenery, including wonderful Fujiyama, but put them all together and they do not excel, and I think do not equal the C.P.R.'s scenery. That scenery seems to me to be a sort of Railway Scenic Multiplier, for the Fraser River Canon is the Royal Gorge multiplied and enlarged and glorified. The trip up the Kicking Horse Canyon is Marshall Pass magnified and the excitement thereof intensified to the highest power. And so it is throughout the whole trip to say nothing of the attractiveness of the Bow Falls right by this hotel, that for swiftness and beauty and surroundings are as fine as the far famed Falls of the Rhine. But, there, I must not weary you with a description, for no one can adequately describe what he sees from the C.P.R. trains from here to the Coast. He can try, but his best will be to the reality just about what stage scenery means is to the original."

NORTHWEST CROPS

Estimate of the Territorial Government

Winnipeg, June 26.—The Territorial Government have just issued a statement of the crop estimate for 1905, which shows a very substantial increase in acreage of three great cereals—wheat, oats and barley. The estimated acreage under spring wheat is 1,108,272, an increase of 150,979 acres over 1904. Acreage under oats 594,981, an increase of 71,347 acres; under barley 93,555, an increase of 7,401 acres. There is also an estimated acreage of 13,932 under fall wheat against 8,296 acres in 1904.

"TORONTO THE HOG."

Latest Move is to Induce Union Drinkers to Consume City Goods

Toronto, June 26.—The Brewery Workmen's Union is considering ways and means to increase the consumption of Toronto-made liquors in this city. At their meeting held in the Labor Temple last night it was proposed to organize with the bartenders, asking them to use their influence in regard to the selling of beer and ale, to push the sale of the city brewed article. Circulars will likely be distributed among the various local unions, asking the members where possible, to drink only liquors of the city breweries.

NEW C. P. R. STEAMER

Vessel to be Built for Victoria-Seattle Trade

Victoria, B.C., June 26.—Capt. Troup, Superintendent of the C.P.R. steamship service here, announced to-day that a contract for a new steamer for the C.P.R. will shortly be let. She will cost a quarter of a million and be a wooden vessel. Like the Princess Beatrice, she will be built at the Victoria shipyards and probably ply alternately about probably ply alternately between this city and Seattle and to the north. She is designed to meet the demands for an up-to-date passenger boat for this trade. The boat will be built this summer.

WAS NO SUMMER IN 1816

Sharp Frost Every Month--Farmers Paid Five Dollars a Bus. for Corn

The year 1816 is called the year without a summer, for there was a sharp frost every month, says the Hartford, Conn., Times. The farmers refer to it as eighteen hundred and starved to death. January was mild as was also February, with the exception of a few cold days. The greater part of March was cold and boisterous. April opened warm, but grew colder as it advanced, ending with snow and ice and winter cold. In May ice formed an inch thick, birds and flowers were frozen, corn killed, and the fruit was nearly all destroyed. Snow fell to the depth of three inches in New York and Massachusetts, and ten inches in Maine.

July was accompanied with frost and ice. On the 5th ice was formed of the thickness of window glass in New York, New England and Pennsylvania, and corn was nearly all destroyed in certain sections. In August ice formed half an inch thick. A cold northeast wind prevailed nearly all summer. Corn was so frozen that a great deal was cut down and dried for fodder, very little ripened in New England, even in Connecticut, and scarcely any even in the Middle States. Farmers were obliged to pay $4 or $5 a bushel for corn of 1815 for seed for the spring planting. The first two weeks of September were mild; the rest of the month was cold with frost, and ice formed a quarter of an inch thick. October was more than usually cold, with frost and ice. November was cold and lumbering with snow enough for good sleighing. December was quite mild and comfortable.

A PAUPER UNION

Paupers in Poor House Form Union and Strike

New York, June 25.—Considerable merriment has been caused by a strike of paupers in a county almshouse just outside of Jersey City. The men detailed to act as bakers organized and elected a walking delegate, who notified the county board in charge of the institution that his fellows would not knead the almshouse dough until their names were put on the payroll with the attendants and other employes. The delegate explained to the committeemen that the bakers were entitled to pay because, unlike many other paupers, they do not desert the institution during the summer months to recuperate at the sea shore and in the mountains, but remain at their duties in the baker shop and work faithfully for the county. The committee rejected the demands and informed the strikers that they could be put to work in the stone quarries if they do not return to work in the baker shop.

FORTY UNION MEN IN JAIL

They are Suspected of Participating in Attack on Joyce

Philadelphia, June 26.—Forty members of the local branch of the National Structural Iron Workers and Bridge Builders' Union were to-day committed to jail without bail awaiting the result of the injuries of John Joyce, who is said to be dying in an hospital. Joyce's home is in Washington. He is a member of the local bridge builders' union and last night attended a meeting of the organization. He attended a meeting but steadfastly refused to say who shot him, or to make a statement as to the cause of the shooting. The forty other members of the union now under arrest are equally reticent.

REGGS COMMITTED FOR TRIAL

Man Who Wrote Threatening Letters to Girl in Court

Fredericton, N.B., June 25.—George Riggs was sent up for trial by Col. Marsh, at the Supreme Court, on a charge of writing letters to Bessie P. Clarke, threatening to kill her if she did not marry him.

Riggs is mad in love with Miss Clark, who is a pretty young stenographer employed by the Scott Lumber Company, and she would have nothing to do with him. Miss Clark gave evidence in the preliminary examination at the police court of Riggs having followed her about town, and produced letters from Riggs. The nisi prius sittings of the Supreme Court opened here yesterday and adjourned for a week, when Rigg's trial will commence.

SIR CHARLES TUPPER

Reported to Be Progressing Favourably in London

London, June 26.—His many friends in Canada will be grieved to hear that Sir Charles Tupper has, since his arrival in London from the South of France, been confined to a Nursing Home in South Kensington, for the treatment of an old and troublesome complaint. I had a letter from Sir Charles, written on behalf of the veteran Canadian statesman, by his grand-daughter the other day, in which she assured me that the doctors now say, "everything is going on favorably," and all will hope for a speedy and complete restoration to health. By a curious coincidence, Sir Charles is being nursed in the very next house, in Cromwell Road, to that which he made the center of so many Canadian activities in England when he was high Commissioner here.

GERMAN NAVAL ACTIVITY

Two Permanent Flying Squadrons of Fast Cruisers to be Formed

Berlin, June 26.—The National Zeitung says the Government is considering the formation of two permanent flying squadrons of fast cruisers, one for service in the Indian and the other in the Pacific Ocean. It is stated that as a result of the battle of the sea of Japan, and the developments in British naval architecture, the Government has decided to increase the tonnage of the battleships the construction of which is about to be begun. The tonnage of the largest German battleship is 13,200. The new vessels will be of at least 17,000 tons.

A DOUBLE LIFE

Death Revealed Milwaukee Man's Duplicity

Milwaukee, June 26.—The Journal to-day prints a story on the authority of John Keating, that Peter H. Deacon, who died recently in Chicago, had lived a double life for 20 years, having at the same time families in Somerville, Mass., a suburb of Boston, and in Milwaukee.

Keating is a son-in-law of Deacon. He says Deacon came west twenty years ago and married Fanny Adeline Wilcox. At the same time he had a wife and seven children residing in Somerville, having been married there to Anna J. Tuite by the Rev. James Healt in 1868.

The story of the double life leaked out when John Keating, husband of a daughter born of Deacon's first marriage, came west to secure proofs of Deacon's death and to adjust two life insurance policies. For a long time Deacon supported the Somerville, Mass., family, but shortly before his death his contributions ceased altogether.

Mrs. Deacon No. 2 left Milwaukee two weeks ago, and is said to be living with Mrs. Wilcox in Chicago now.

THE CANADA ATLANTIC

The Grand Trunk has Purchased the Railway

Ottawa, June 26.—The Canada Atlantic Railway will pass into the control of the Grand Trunk Railway, and become part of that company's system on September 1. This will be as soon as the new bonds are engraved and issued.

There will be a number of changes in the management. Mr. W. P. Hinton, passenger and freight agent of the Canada Atlantic, will be transferred to Montreal, and Mr. Morley Donaldson, general superintendent of the Canada Atlantic, will retain the position of superintendent of the Canada Atlantic Railway division of the Grand Trunk, and perform the duties which are at present performed by Mr. E. J. Chamberlain, general manager of the Canada Atlantic.

ANTI-TRADING STAMP BILL

Provisions of Measure to be introduced by Mr. Gervais, M.P.

Ottawa, June 26.—The bill to prevent the use of trading stamps in Canada, which Mr. Gervais, of Montreal, will introduce, will be in the nature of an amendment to the section of the Criminal Code which prevents combinations in restraint of trade. The bill, after defining a trading stamp as a device given by a vendor to be redeemed in goods not the property of the vendor, will provide penalties against the vendor giving such stamps, the purchaser receiving them, and the company or its agents issuing such stamps. The bill, after its introduction by Mr. Gervais, who has headed the movement against trading stamps, will probably be accepted by the Minister of Justice as a Government measure, which will ensure its passage this session.

BIG RAFT TO CROSS PACIFIC

It Will be Towed From San Francisco to Shanghai

San Francisco, June 26. — A log raft, containing 10,000,000 feet of spars and piling, is to be towed across the Pacific to Shanghai during the summer. This is the gigantic plan of a new company, just organized under the laws of British Columbia, and which is to be a branch of a raft company of this city. The latter concern is said to have been very successful in rafting lumber from northern points to San Francisco.

The new company will send to Shanghai a larger raft of log logs than has ever yet been put together. From present plans it will be towed by one or more of the most powerful tugboats of San Francisco, accompanied by a collier or oil steamer with fuel for the tugs.

Man Stabbed With Pitchfork

Sydney, N.S., June 26.—James Ramon stabbed John R. King with a pitchfork at the stables of the Sydney Hotel at noon to-day. Both were employed at the stables and the stabbing was without provocation. King's condition is precarious. The pitchfork was quickly thrust into the body two or three times, inflicting serious if not fatal injuries.

HELD UP THE PRESIDENT

Two Washington Policemen get the Surprise of Their Lives

Washington, D.C., June 25. —Two bicycle policemen were given the surprise of their lives Monday, when they found that one of the occupants of an automobile which they halted for fast driving was the President of the United States. When they learned the identity of the person in the vehicle they allowed the driver to proceed.

President Roosevelt rented a large automobile at a local garage, and with his son Theodore and two of the latter's school friends, started for Great Falls, fifteen miles, up the Potomac River. When they reached the outskirts of the city their chauffeur put on a high speed, and they were skimming along at twenty-five miles an hour, much to the enjoyment of the entire party. Two policemen, who saw the large machine approaching in a cloud of dust, shouted at the driver to stop, but no attention was paid to them. After a hot chase the automobile was overtaken and halted. One policeman told the driver he would have to appear in court in the morning, and asked his name. Then President Roosevelt informed the policeman who he was, and the machine was allowed to proceed.

BIG SENTENCE FOR SOLDIER

Maj. Carrington, for Misappropriation of Funds, Gets 60 Years and 5 Days

Washington, June 26.—The proceedings in the case of Major F. De L. Carrington, tried by court-martial in the Philippines, have arrived at the War Department for review by the President. Major Carrington was in charge of the battalion of Philippine scouts at the St. Louis Exhibition, and his trial was based on charges of misappropriation of funds and the duplication of accounts. The court sentenced him to dismissal, was tried by the civil authorities of the Philippines and sentenced to sixty years and five days.

GATHERED FOR THE SHEARING

Seventy-five Thousand Alberta Sheep Waiting to be Clipped

Winnipeg, June 26.—Nearly fifteen miles east of Stirling, Alberta, there is gathered together practically all the sheep in the Territory, some 75,000 being herded there, for the shearing. These sheep include the flocks of Gray & Harvey, Harker Bros., P. North, the Perott flock and some smaller bunches. A crew of 40 men under charge of contractor J. Hardman, are piling up the fleeces, and it is expected that at least a month more will be required to finish the shearing.

Y.W.C.A. Books.

Book Lovers May Now Pour Over the Y.W.C.A Literary Treasures for Two Weeks.

A most satisfactory order has been issued by the Y.W.C.A. authorities, that will be hailed with joy by their many readers. In hot weather, particularly, people like to take time to read, mark, learn and mentally digest the contents of an interesting book, so that the Y.W.C.A. has decided to allow their books to be held for two weeks in place of one, as in the past.

A fine of 5 cents per day will be imposed when books are kept out longer than the time specified.

Every few days one of the new magazines appear in the Y.W.C.A. reading room. A Toronto paper will also be found there shortly.

The young women are again reminded that as the general secretary is leaving town July 1st, it is necessary that all share books be handed in before that date in order that a complete statement may be made of the amount contributed towards the building fund in this way.

Lloyd Says He'll Die Soon

Belleville, June 26.—Adam Lloyd, the old man who is in jail here charged with killing his wife, is taking imprisonment very hard, and says he will die shortly.

St. Petersburg Don't Believe That Linevitch is Surrounded

Information from the Front is Still Scanty--Spirit is One of Optimism Over Russian Prospects in Manchuria.

St. Petersburg, June 26.—Information from the front is still scanty. While the preliminaries are in progress, a general engagement has not yet begun. Gen. Linevitch's latest report is dated June 20, but despatches from Godyadoni report a reconnaissance in force against the Japanese right June 21. The Japanese were found to have strongly fortified in this region three lines of defence probably as usual strengthened in the centre by entrenchments in order to liberate forces to work on the flanks. Sinister rumors continue to circulate that Linevitch is surrounded, but apparently they have no other base than the London Daily Telegraph's despatch from Tokio. An optimistic feeling prevails at the offices of the general staff.

The negotiations for a meeting of peace plenipotentiaries are proceeding slowly. There was no developments today. Foreign Minister Lamsdorff is still ill. It is improbable that an armistice will be arranged until the plenipotentiaries are named and the time of the meeting fixed. The Foreign Office says it is now awaiting Japan's propositions on these points.

Snyod of Ontario's Expression Upon School Question

Kingston, June 24—The Synod of Ontario's expression upon the school question was in the report of the special committee appointed to consider the Bishop's charge. The report, which included the following reference to the school question, was adopted by the Synod: The committee thanks his Lordship for his clear and concise statement in reference to the school question in the Province of Quebec, and regrets to learn that the treatment of the minority in that Province is not as liberal as some of the public men favoring Separate schools would lead the public to believe. His Lordship has made it clear that while the greater share of the school tax of that Province is paid by Protestant tax-payers, only about one-sixth is returned to them. The committee heartily endorses his Lordship's views in favor of National schools, which are best adapted to the wants and requirements of the people of the new Provinces.

WINNIPEG'S GREAT GROWTH

Winnipeg, June 25.—The population of Winnipeg, according to a census just completed, is 78,267.

The Federal census of 1901 gave Winnipeg a population of 42,340, and placed her sixth in the list of Canadian cities. If these figures, taken at a municipal census, are anywhere near accurate, then Winnipeg is now in third place, stepping over Hamilton, Ottawa and Quebec.

Dawson, died of bronchial trouble at the residence of his father, Mr. Wm. Dawson, Concession street, 5th Ward. He was a painter by trade, and some nine years ago removed to North Bay. He married Miss Martha Hamilton, daughter of Mr. F. Hamilton, 5th Ward, and besides his wife, three daughters survive. The late Mr. Dawson was highly respected wherever known. His brothers are William A. and Hilliard, of the North-West, and Thomas, of Chicago, who is at present in town, and there are four sisters, one of whom is Mrs. Henry Gibbs, of town. Fishermen Return

The following gentlemen, Messrs. G. W. Hatton, H. C. Winch, John Crane, John E. Belcher, T. F. Matthews, R. A. Morrow, R. G. Kingen, Alex. Elliott and A. P. McDonald, who all last week were the guests of Mr. Harry Lellrun, at his pretty summer residence, Belleehase, Stony Lake, have returned with spoils from the finny tribe, that demolish any necessity for the usual fish stories: they "have the goods" This report a very enjoyable time. Several good catches are reported. Mr. H. C. Winch carried off the honors by catching an eighteen pound lunge, while Mr. T. F. Matthews somewhat depleted the bass supply of Kawartha Lakes.

Off For Camp.

The 3rd Dragoons Leave To-morrow Morning for Barrifield.

Tomorrow morning, at 8.30, C Squadron of the 3rd Prince of Wales Dragoons will leave by the G.T.R. for the annual camp of two weeks at Barrifield. The officer in command of the local squadron is Major George Hall, of Douro, and the other officers are Capt. Price, Lieut. Campbell, Lieut. T. J. Johnston and Lieut. R. Cleyburn. Major Hall states that the full complement is 72 men and sixty-four horses. The regiment is otherwise made up of A Squadron, from Colborne, under Major Rogers; D Squadron, Wellington, under Capt. McDonald, and B Squadron, Millbrook, under Major W. Hall, of Peterborough. The total strength of the regiment is about 300 men. It will be brigaded with the Fourth Hussars, of Kingston and district.

Where is the Inspector?

Netting Being Openly Carried on Near the Town Limits.

On Saturday a few Toronto fishermen who are the genuine brand of sportsmen, not the class that brags of hog deeds such as cleaning up all the fish in one spot by dynamite or any other old way, saw in broad daylight a gill net string across Kent's Creek, which is located either within or adjacent to our eastern town limits. As they investigated this unsportsmanlike deathtrap to game fish, the owner of the net came forward openly, telling them to get away and leave his net alone. These Toronto gentlemen have seen this net there before, and would, if they will forgive the impertinence of a suggestion, have done well to take a knife and put it out of business or bring it away with them.

"Where is the Fishery Inspector?" one gentlemen asked a Times representative.

We are surprised to learn that such a flagrant and repeated violation of the law should be permitted, or left undiscovered, under the present regime in Toronto: we understand that Ontario Government appointees are now expected to do something more than look pretty, draw pay, and work their relations for votes.

Rev. Mr. Davidson to be Absent.

Rev. J. C. Davidson, Rector of St. John's church, yesterday notified his parishioners that today and tomorrow he will be out of town in connection with the Rural Deanery business. He will also be absent next Sunday from the parish, as being Chaplain of the 57th Regiment, his duties will compel his presence in Ottawa.

Mr. Holmes Resigned From Y.M.C.A.

Great regret will fill the minds of the many members of the local Y.M.C.A., over the resignation of Mr. P. K. Holmes, of his position as physical director. Mr. Holmes since the fall of 1904, has filled his position most acceptably. His resignation was tendered to the Association at the annual meeting Thursday night, and will be considered by the Board in the near future, when it will doubtless be accepted, as Mr. Holmes expresses himself as being fully decided to leave Peterborough at the expiration of his year. Mr. Holmes has had many tempting offers from other associations, but has not yet determined where he will.

GENERAL SPORTING GOSSIP

THE TURF—BASEBALL—LACROSSE—FOOTBALL

The Peterborough Lacrosse Team Defeated Bowmanville on Saturday Afternoon by a Score of 17 to 1, in a C.L.A. Game.

Peterborough 17, Bowmanville 1. The above score is the result of the first home C. L. A. championship game, played on the Riverside Park athletic grounds on Saturday afternoon, between the Bowmanville lacrosse team and the local twelve.

There was a fairly good crowd of spectators, who turned out to witness what was looked upon to be a close, hard game of lacrosse, but the locals had got together their strongest team and were determined to administer to the unbeaten Bowmanville lacrosse team their first defeat. The above score indicates the relative strength of both teams. From the time the ball was faced in the first quarter, the game was never in doubt. The locals jumped into the game and played a consistent, scientific game of lacrosse, and had the visitors beaten at every point. Every man on the Peterborough line-up played lacrosse too fast for the visitors.

Peterborough has got the goods, and it is up to the town to help them deliver them by turning out in large numbers and encouraging the boys.

The game on Saturday was clean and free from rough play.

Mr. George Lynch made a capital field captain for the locals, directing the boys well. Mr. Smith officiated as captain for the visitors.

Following is the line-up:

Mr. T. E. Bart, of Port Hope, made a strict and impartial referee.

LACROSSE.

The Tecumsehs were defeated at St. Catharines by 11 goals to 2 on Saturday afternoon.

Brantford lost to the Torontos, at Rosedale, on Saturday afternoon by 8 to 5.

BASEBALL.

Toronto won from Montreal on Saturday.

PETERBOROUGH, JUNE 26, 1905

THE PEACE PROSPECTS

President Roosevelt is moved by humane as well as politic motives in endeavoring to prevent another useless battle in Manchuria; but he is dealing with a Government at St. Petersburg which has not his solicitude for the fate of the common soldier. Still, one would imagine that, if the position of the Russian army is understood at the capital, motives of policy would dictate a readiness to agree to an armistice. As for Japan, it probably feels a natural desire to take advantage of the position it has been slowly making for itself during the last few weeks, and inflict another and possibly final defeat upon the Russian force.

It is not likely that another battle will embitter the combatants to any appreciable degree. They are long past the state in which the giving and receiving of blows can arouse temper. It will merely be a question as to the position in which it will leave the two nations. Japan will probably put a higher price on peace, but it is doubtful whether even the complete destruction of the Manchurian army would make Russia much more willing to pay.

The Manchurian army is likely to be regarded at St. Petersburg as a headless sword. If it be broken and thrown away, it will not, at all events, cut the hand that wields it. The necessity for making provision at home for the reception of a discontented army interspersed through out the population, will have somewhat lessened; and the Russian Government may feel that one of its domestic problems has been solved.

The pressure from Britain and France is still very probably the most potent factor in the peace negotiations. The last note from Paris to Berlin is not thought to be of a character to meet the views of the Kaiser, which is an indication that France is not yet wholly over-awed. If France is playing for time, it seems quite probable, than she will be exceedingly eager to see peace in the Far East, and if Britain is embarking in the same boat her eagerness will be quite as great. And it is very likely that France and Britain can almost ensure the acceptance of some sort of a compromise by the two powers. That is, unless Russia has been promised active German support, in which case we should soon witness a delivery of the goods.

PEACEFUL PRESSURE

President Roosevelt, rough rider and soldier though he may be, has performed a task for civilization by butting into the war in the far East and suggesting that Russia and Japan get together and figure on peace. That his efforts bid fair to be crowned with success all humane men rejoice. And no one will begrudge the sturdy Roosevelt the encomiums that will be heaped upon him. Besides being the apostle of the strenuous life, the coiner of the phrase, "A square deal," and the opponent of race suicide, he will now be known as the advocate of peaceful pressure.

From this distance Roosevelt seems a man worth while; with high ideals of citizenship and with the courage of honest conviction. His faith in the Yankee stock is without stint, even as his faith in himself is not slight. He is a man who looks at life in the large. Having his hand on the throttle of the United States engine of State and a clear way ahead, he finds it incumbent upon him to take hold of the lever of the locomotive of the world. What would have been considered a trick of the Mailed Fist on the part of the Kaiser, is looked on as the natural thing to be done by the President. He holds a unique status among the monarchs of the world, and is doing unique things in the line of progressive civilization.

It is worth while for citizens to study the make-up of a man like Roosevelt. It's the large view that counts in this life. Roosevelt is a large man with the large view. Keep your eye on him.

A WIDOW'S PATHETIC LETTER.

COOKSHIRE, QUE., June 3rd, 1904.

DEAR SIR,—I hope you will pardon my writing to you. I am Charles Brown's poor mother, that is heart-broken about my one and only son, and longing for your kind letter to arrive to say you can find a place for him soon in the Muskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives. He is the only son I have and I am depending on him for support, and he has a wife and one baby depending on him also for their support. . . . He is the Charles Brown that Judge Britton's daughter spoke to you about. . . . Dear Sir, for God's sake hasten the time for him to get there, as the longer it runs on him the harder it will be for him to get well and back to his former health and strength again. . . .

MARY BROWN.

COOKSHIRE, QUE., June 6th, 1904.

DEAR SIR,—I received your kind and most welcome letter to-day. Very glad I was to hear the good news that my dear son can go to the Hospital any time this week. Thank God for the good news. He will leave Montreal on Monday, the 13th, or Tuesday, 14th, at the latest. . . . It has given him new life to hear the glad news that you have sent to me, his mother.

MARY BROWN.

It is to meet just such cases as this that the Free Hospital for Consumptives has been built. Less than three years opened, nearly 400 patients have been cared for, and not a single patient has ever been refused admission because of his or her poverty.

Sir Wm. R. Meredith, Kt., Chief Justice, 4 Lamport avenue, Toronto, or W. J. Gage, Esq., 54 Front street, will receive and acknowledge any subscriptions our readers will send.

Shocking Outrage in Winnipeg

Winnipeg, Man., June 24.—Three young men decoyed a 15-year-old girl to the vicinity of the Redwood Brewery in the north end, where, after having gagged and rendered helpless their youthful victim, they criminally assaulted her. An employe of the brewery saw the deed and telephoned for the police. When the police arrived the youths were making towards the river, carrying the victim of the assault, with the evident intention of throwing her into the water. Two young men of good families are now held by the police.

Circus Trains and the Sabbath

Ottawa, June 24.—Representatives of the Lord's Day Alliance have been protesting to Hon. H. R. Emmerson against the running of circus trains on Sunday. Mr. Emmerson asked Mr. Pottinger to look into the matter and Mr. Pottinger has now reported that a circus train had broken down at Antigonish on the I.C.R. and had to camp out on Sunday.

British Manufacturers Unite

London, June 24.—British manufacturers and traders interested in the export business are now being formed into a society under the name of the Manufacturers' Association of Great Britain, with objects similar to those of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, including the promotion of trade in the colonial markets.

Peculiar Death of An Infant

Brockville, June 24.—An infant of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Graham came to its death under peculiar circumstances. Mrs. Graham left the child sleeping in bed for some time after rising. When she went to dress it for the day she discovered that the infant was dead. The child had rolled over on it's face between two pillows and smothered to death.

Toronto Soldiers Going to Halifax

Ottawa, June 24.—Two hundred and fifty infantry at Stanley Barracks, Toronto, have received orders to hold themselves in readiness to proceed to Halifax for garrison duty. Some 400 garrison artillery will be sent from Quebec.

Will Boycott all American Goods

Singapore, June 24.—Canton merchants held an important conference here to-day, at which they arranged for a retaliatory boycott on all American goods pending the repeal of the Chinese exclusion act.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS

Any even numbered section of Dominion land in Manitoba or the North-west Territories, excepting 8 and 26, which has not been homesteaded, or reserved to provide wood lots for settlers, or for other purposes, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres more or less.

ENTRY

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land to be taken is situate, or if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration Winnipeg or the local agent for the district in which the land is situate, receive authority for some one to make entry for him. A fee of $10 is charged for a homestead entry.

HOMESTEAD DUTIES

A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required by the provisions of the Dominion Lands Act, and the amendments thereto, to perform the conditions connected therewith, under one of the following plans:

[1] At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years. It is the practice of the Department to require a settler to bring 15 acres under cultivation, but if he prefer he may substitute stock; and 20 head of cattle, to be actually his own property, with buildings for their accommodation, will be accepted instead of the cultivation.

[2] If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased), of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

[3] If a settler was entitled to and has obtained entry for a second homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

[4] If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

The term "vicinity" used above is meant to indicate the same township, or an adjoining or cornering township.

A settler who avails himself of the provisions of clauses [2], [3] or [4] must cultivate 30 acres of his homestead, or substitute 20 head of stock, with buildings for their accommodation, and have besides 40 acres substantially fenced.

The privilege of a second entry is restricted by law to those settlers only who completed the duties upon their first homesteads to entitle them to patent on or before the 2nd of June, 1889.

Every homesteader who fails to comply with the requirements of the homestead law is liable to have his entry cancelled and the land may again be thrown open for entry.

APPLICATION FOR PATENT

Should be made at the end of three years before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector. Before making application for patent the settler must give six months notice in writing to the Commissioner of Immigration Lands at Ottawa of his intention to do so.

INFORMATION

Newly arrived immigrants will receive, at the Immigration Offices in Winnipeg, or at any Dominion Lands Office in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories, information as to the lands that are open for entry, and from the officers in charge, free of expense, advice and assistance in securing lands to suit them. Full information respecting the land, timber, coal and mineral laws, as well as respecting Dominion Lands in the Railway Belt in British Columbia, may be obtained upon application to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, Manitoba, or to any of the Dominion Lands Agents in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories.

W. W. CORY,
Deputy Minister of the Interior

N. B.—In addition to Free Grant Lands, to which the Regulations above stated refer, thousands of acres of most desirable lands are available for lease or purchase from railroad and other corporations and private firms in Western Canada.

IF YOU WANT MONEY

Buy a block of stock of the Teropah-Crow Gold and Copper Company. This stock is selling at 18 cents a share. It will be paying a profit in one year of not less than 25 per cent. on capitalization, which will mean a value of the stock of $2.50 a share. It may be worth $5.00 in less than two years time. There are more than 100 mineral veins crossing this property. The lowest average of ores as far as developed is $54 a ton, which does not include numerous small bodies running from $100 to $1,000. The money to be raised in these sales of stock is to be put in hoisting plant, equip and rapidly develop the mine, which includes six mining claims and mill site; 125 acres. Where can you make so much money in so short a time? This is an opportunity that seldom occurs.

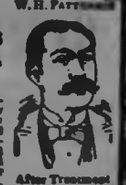
HAD BLOOD POISON 12 YEARS

The New Method Treatment Cured Him after Drugs, Mercury, Hot Springs, &c. all failed.



After Treatment

Wm. H. Patterson, of Saginaw, Mich., relates his experience: "I do not like notoriety and especially of this kind, but I feel I owe this much to Drs. K. & K. for the great good they have done me. I had a serious blood disease when 24 years of age. The skin and blood symptoms gradually developed. Pimples and ulcers formed, running sores broke out, hair became loose, pains in the bones and joints, dyspeptic stomach, foul breath, itchy skin, etc. It is needless for me to say I tried doctors. I grew to hate the looks of one. I visited Hot Springs twice for four months each time. It helped me temporarily, but in six months after returning home I was as bad as ever. Finally a Doctor friend of mine advised me to see Drs. Kennedy & Kergan. He said he had known of them for over 20 years, and as they made a specialty of these diseases and treating the worst cases, he considered they ought to be expert in curing them. I was afraid of advertising doctors, but I took his advice. They agreed to treat me under a guarantee to pay, if I investigated their financial standing and found they were perfectly responsible, so I commenced the new method Treatment. The eruptions disappeared in two weeks the bone pains in four weeks and in four months I was entirely cured. Yes, sir, I can recommend the New Method Treatment for Blood and Skin Diseases."

CZAR NICHOLAS IN DEEP GLOOM

THEY DOUBT THE GENERAL

Cassini Will not be one of the Peace Plenipotentiaries, But Will Return

St. Petersburg, June 24.—It is now known that the Czar and his entourage, now at the summer palace, at Peterhoff, are greatly alarmed at the situation in Manchuria and at home.

The aspect of the interior is gloom. It is believed that Linevitch is almost surrounded, and his retreat is threatened. Oyama's right wing is now resting on the Mandarin Road, is nearing Ninguta, and will soon cut off Vladivostock.

THEY DOUBT LINEVITCH.

General Linevitch's record increases the perplexity of the people here. They remember that in 1900 Linevitch reported imaginary battles, and one time recorded a loss of 500 men out of a company containing only 200. His recent boast that if he had troops he could take Tokio, and his story that the Japanese were exhausted and retiring and his ridicule of Oyama's strategy all inspire belief in the nation that he is about to lead the army into dreadful disaster. To-day he admits that the Japanese have advanced north of Itune. Japan's refusal to consent to an armistice and Admiral Urlus cruise to the Yangtse disprove the contention of Souvorine, editor of the Novoe Vremya that Japan would be unable to force Russia to yield.

The Czar now reads that as Oyama is in a position to take Vladivostock and Harbin and Togo is prepared to sail to the Baltic, he must submit to the Mikado's terms and that President Roosevelt alone can induce the Japanese to moderate their demands.

CASSINI WILL NOT REMAIN.

St. Petersburg, June 24.—The Russ says it is authorized to say that Count Cassini, the retired Russian Ambassador at Washington, will not participate in the peace negotiations, but will leave the United States immediately on the arrival of Baron Rosen, his successor. From independent sources the Associated Press confirms the statement of the "Russ" that Count Cassini will have no part in the peace negotiations.

Foreign Minister Lamsdorff is indisposed. It is understood that his condition is not serious, but his physician was called in last night and ordered the Minister not to leave his bedroom to-day. There is no intimation, however, that this will delay the pending negotiations. The question of a temporary suspension of hostilities seems to rest with Japan. In the meantime the chancelleries of St. Petersburg and Tokio are occupied with the selection of the plenipotentiaries.

HAULTAIN OUT IN THE COLD?

Government May Pass Him Over in Selecting Provisional Governments

Ottawa, June 24.—The departure of F. W. G. Haultain for Regina suggests the approaching political struggles in the new western provinces. Mr. Haultain has been a leading figure in the West for many years, a member of the Territorial Assembly for nearly twenty years, and for twelve years the leader of the non-partisan government that has existed. Mr. Haultain's long services are not to count, however, and in the selection of the provisional government following the passing of the Autonomy bills, he runs absolutely no chance of being named. Mr. Haultain's attitude in regard to the autonomy bills gives the Government an excuse for passing over his claims and indicates a line of party cleavage in the west. All sorts of speculation as to the formation of the government in the West is being indulged in. It seems to be pretty well settled in the minds of most Western members that Dr. Douglas, ex-M.P., will have a Governorship, and that Walter Scott, M. P., or Mr. Bulyea will be provisional premier of Saskatchewan. The situation in Alberta is more hazy, but the current of suggestion runs in the direction of Mr. Rutherford, M.L.A. One thing can be stated definitely, the inauguration ceremonies will not take place on Dominion Day. They will not occur before September 1, and may probably go over to a still later date.

STABBED HEART SEWN UP

New York, June 24.—The physicians in this city are watching with great interest the case of Camillo DeLazo, a young Italian, who last Sunday night, was taken to Harlem Hospital suffering from a stab wound which had punctured the wall of his heart and penetrated the right auricle. A rare and difficult operation was immediately performed by three surgeons attached to the hospital, all of whom are young men, and the wound in the heart was sewn together. The operation took thirty-five minutes. To get at the heart the physicians had to saw off an inch and a half of the third rib. At latest reports the man was still alive, with hope, although slight, that he may recover.

MINISTER BOWEN DISMISSED

Washington, D.C., June 24. — The dismissal of Herbert W. Bowen, United States Minister to Venezuela, and the exoneration of Assistant Secretary of State Francis B. Loomis, of the aggegations brought against him, are directed by President Roosevelt, in a letter addressed to Secretary Taft, approving Mr. Taft's report on his findings and conclusions in the case. The President scathingly arraigns Minister Bowen, declaring that his conduct "is especially reprehensible," that Mr. Bowen asked one of his witnesses to enter the employ of a certain company for the purpose, "in plain words, of stealing" documents which he hoped might incriminate Mr. Loomis; and that Mr. Bowen has "evidently for many months, indeed for the last two years, devoted himself" to hunting up scandal and gossip until it became a monomania, and caused him "to show complete disloyalty" to the country he represented. The President says he had hoped to promote Mr. Bowen, as during much of his service he had done good work, but that his usefulness in the diplomatic service is now at an end. The President adds that he would direct that Mr. Bowen's resignation be requested, but for his statement that he would consider a resignation an admission of misconduct and the dismissal is therefore ordered.

His Worship Talks

Mr. Dumble Considers Town Should Provide Bathing Accommodations

Yesterday morning after the police court had adjourned, Mr. Dumble called the press representatives to his desk and gave his opinion concerning a badly needed want of the town. The immediate cause of his action was a case tried a few minutes previously, when seven boys had been haled before the court for swimming in a public place in a state of nudity. Mr. Dumble spoke feelingly of the requirements of hundreds, perhaps thousands of men and boys without adequate bathing accommodation in their houses, who, returned from their day's work, grimy, sweaty, many of them covered with oil and other dirt, had no proper means of cleansing themselves. He thinks, as it is illegal to bathe in public, that the community should provide some place where the public could bathe, during the hot weather. His idea is to have an old scow procured and sunk, with holes drilled through the sides to allow a free circulation of fresh water. On or beside this, at small cost, a dressing house, of rough boards could be erected, so that bathers, without breaking the by-law providing against public exposure, could undress and don suitable bathing suits. At the same time the Magistrate, in the declared absence of such accommodations, intends to punish severely all men or boys, who from exposure of person whilst bathing, are brought before him and found guilty. He says that the many who go boating on the river, among them being usually a large percentage of ladies, must not be interfered with and have ladies driven from the lake by the few bathers in public.

Adjt. Says Farewell

Adjt. and Mrs. Jennings Bid Their Comrades Good Bye.

Last night the Salvation Army's commodious hall was full to overflowing, despite the intense heat. The Army is now-a-days very popular, and always attracts large audiences, especially to any ceremony of unusual interest. Last night the immense gathering was to do honor to two respected members of this commendable organization on the eve of their departure, for some months from the field of their successful and tireless activities. Adjutant Jennings has obtained leave of absence for a prolonged term of months on account of illness, and his words of farewell last night were uttered in terms of expression of his regret over leaving. The band rose to the occasion and played with unwonted vigor and in excellent harmony.

Some of the selections rendered were of choice character, including: Cornet solo, "My Lodgings on The Cold Ground," Band Instructor Packham; saxophone duet, "Saviour Lead Me," Bandsmen Brown and Dales; trombone solo, "Rocked in the Cradle of the Deep," Bandmaster Greene; selections by the full band, "The Unfailing Promises of God," "Memories of Childhood," "Crown Him Selection."

Police Court

OFFICIALS

Chief of Police, G. L. Reed
Magistrate, D. W. Dumble

Yesterday was his Worship's busy day. The first case occupying his attention, and causing broad smiles to ripple over the faces of a large representation from the Linger Longer Leger League, was one preferred against some small boys, averaging in size from a well developed hop-toad to a newly-arrived mosquito, of having bathed in a public place dressed in the airy costume of our great ancestress Eve.

It seems that two parties of boys had met, held up in the old traditional way all 60-year old boys will remember having done at school, the index and second fingers making a V, and, the countersign having been given, proceeded to lose 1 1-4 minutes of valuable time stripping off every stitch of raiment. Having attended to this usual mystic formulae believed to render cramps impossible, seven boys, with seven splashes proceeded to swim in seven different directions. In a few minutes the three larger boys, with that not-to-be-avoided desire to show off before their more diminutive brethern frogged it to the Government boom out in the lake.

Up on the boom they climb and sit, legs dangling in the water, just as their grandfaddahs did. Round Burnham's point, silently seated in his canoe, sneaks along the sleuth, seeking a sacrifice. The boys deep in their conversation hear not the approaching avenger of the law's infraction. When the dreaded truth reveals itself, three startled boys do some rapid calculation; their clothes—probably by this time tied and knotted by those who remained ashore, as has been customary since boys went swimming—are a long swim away, the officer has a canoe which travels faster than one could offhand this distance by swimming.

Discretion or more possibly necessity demands surrender: they give their names. Whilst this tragedy of the boom was being enacted, the smaller fry near shore, oblivious to all but the present fun, are splashing about regardless of approaching danger. They too are captured by the cop. and give their names.

His Worship, gave the seven a good talking to, and to impress upon their minds, as well as those of other boys, imposed a fine of $2 with $2.25 costs on each of the three larger boys and allowed the mosquito fleet to disperse.

The next case was that of a charge made against an artisan, at present working at the Greek candy store, corner of George and Charlotte streets, of having bored the ears of a small boy named Fredenburg. The evidence showed that the boy had involved a well-merited punishment by being offensively impertinent. The case was dismissed.

The next to meet his Worship was truly a "Comedy of Errors." A certain mechanic well known and respected, occupying a responsible position in a local industry fell from grace a few days ago. He forgot that in hot weather a change in the relative proportions of water and whiskey should be reversed. His better half, who has a small bank account of her own, declined to give him, when he was out of change, any more funds, as she wanted him to get back to his customary state of sobriety. In some way he got it into his temporarily befuddled brain that the lady had withdrawn a check on his private account in the bank, and laid an information.

As soon as he got sobered up next day, the man, disgusted over his stupidity at once went to withdraw the charge. The case was of course dismissed.

Robert Godfrey, a vag, was allowed to go.

George Harris, a river-driver, to whom the long deferred fascinations of the gilded palaces of Bacchus had been denied, and who falling under this spell had become fuzzy-wuzzy, was allowed to get back to the drive. He was advised to confine his attention to the pewies and pikes instead of unloading schooners.

$500 REWARD FOR WOMEN

WHO CANNOT BE CURED.

So uniformly successful has Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription proven in all forms of Female Weakness, Prolapsus, or Falling of Womb, and Leucorrhea, that, after over a third of a century's experience in curing the worst cases of these distressing and debilitating ailments, Dr. Pierce now feels fully warranted in offering to pay $500 in cash for any case of these diseases which he cannot cure.

IT STANDS ALONE.—The "Favorite Prescription" stands alone, as the one and only remedy for these distressingly common forms of weakness, possessed of such positively specific curative properties as to warrant its makers in proposing, and binding themselves to forfeit, as we, the undersigned proprietors of that wonderful remedy hereby do, to pay the sum of $500 in legal money of the United States in any case of the above diseases in which after a fair and reasonable trial of our treatment, we fail to cure. No other medicine for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments is backed by such a remarkable guarantee; no other medicine for woman's ills is possessed of the unparalleled curative properties that would warrant its manufacturers in making such an offer; no other remedy has such a record of cures on which to base such a remarkable offer.

Therefore, insist on having Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and turn your back on any unscrupulous dealer who would insult your intelligence by attempting to foist upon you some inferior substitute, under the plea that "it is just as good." Insist on having the article which has a record of a third of a century of cures and which is backed by those willing to forfeit $500 if they cannot cure you.

In cases attended by a leucorrheal drain a solution of Dr. Pierce's Lotion Tablets should be used conjointly with the use of the "Favorite Prescription." They are sold by all druggists, or sent post-paid to any address, on receipt of 25 cents in stamps. Send 50 cents in stamps for Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. Address WORLD'S DISPENSARY, Buffalo, N. Y.

Weak and sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is held as strictly private. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure biliousness.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

A WIDOW'S PATHETIC LETTER.

DEAR SIR,—I hope you will pardon my writing to you. I am Charles Brown's poor mother, that is heart-broken about my one and only son, and longing for your kind letter to arrive to my you can find a place for him soon in the Muskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives. He is the only son I have and I am depending on him for support, and he has a wife and one baby depending on him also for their support. . . . He is the Charles Brown that Judge Britton's daughter spoke to you about. . . . Dear Sir, for God's sake hasten the time for him to go there, as the longer it runs on him the harder it will be for him to get well and back to his former health and strength again. . . .

MARY'S BROWN.

COCHRANE, ONT., June 6th, 1904.

DEAR SIR,—I received your kind and most welcome letter to-day. Very glad I was to hear the good news that my dear son can go to the Hospital any time this week. Thank God for the good news. He will leave Montreal on Monday, the 13th, or Tuesday, 14th, at the latest. . . . It has given him new life to hear the glad news that you have sent to me, his mother.

MARY'S BROWN.

It is to meet just such cases as this that the Free Hospital for Consumptives has been built. Less than three years opened, nearly 400 patients have been cared for, and not a single patient has ever been refused admission because of his or her poverty.

Peace Outlook With Russia and Japan More Favorable.

Time and Place of Peace Conference Settled--Number of Delegates the Only Question Left--Will Meet at Washington During the First Week in August.

St. Petersburg, June 27.—Both Japan and Russia are now understood to have agreed on the time when their plenipotentiaries shall meet at Washington. It will be during the first ten days of August, but the exact date probably will be announced by President Roosevelt. The question of precedence evidently is the main stumbling block to a prompt settlement of the number of personal negotiations. Both sides seem desirous to make the other take the initiative. Russia seems to consider that it is Japan's duty to name her plenipotentiaries before Russia announces hers.

While the exact number of the plenipotentiaries has not been officially arranged, both powers seem to have tacitly agreed on three. The actual announcement of the names of the plenipotentiaries is expected within a few days. The official statement of the situation is. "All is going on favorably."

RUSS MUTINIED DURING BATTLE

Russian Sailors Refused to Man Ships

FEW INTERESTING FACTS

Czar's Men Were Paralyzed With Fear Before Battle Began

Victoria, B.C., June 27.—Many tales of mutiny during the battle of the Sea of Japan on the part of the seamen of Russian ships are told with other incidents of the battle in Japanese newspapers received by the steamer Athenian to-day. Survivors state firing had not been long in progress before many of the men became so panic-stricken that they were unfit for anything like efficient service. Two gun crews on the Dmitri Donskoi, which had been torpedoed at night, mutinied when the presence of the enemy was suspected, and were only kept at their quarters at the point of the bayonet. A petty officer of the Dmitri Donskoi said the attitude of many on that vessel under fire was cowardly in the extreme, and when the facts were matters of official record, many prisoners now in Japan would not wish to return to Russia at the end of the war.

JAPANESE PRAISED.

Survivors also praised the work of the Japanese torpedo craft which, though the Russians were diligent in the use of searchlights, daringly harried the Russians, and with cunning tactics did effective work, being responsible for the injuries resulting in the quick disposal next day of ships which escaped destruction by them. According to Japanese papers, the torpedo craft went into action resolved to wipe out a bad record made earlier in the war. Togo had made stringent comments on the failures of torpedo officers in the first attack at Port Arthur and at the attack on the battleship Sevastopol at Port Arthur. The officers were determined to achieve something to earn the admiral's commendation on this occasion or die. The small craft attacked both night and day, upsetting theories of this branch of naval practice. One instance recorded of the deeds of the torpedo craft ab, was that one of the three craft ab, were last was disabled at torpedo va of four hundred yards distance from a Russian battleship and another torpedo craft darted in and took off her crew, while she was in a sinking condition without sustaining any loss from the Russian fire.

ROJESTVENSKY'S CAPTURE.

The destroyer, Bisame-maki, which won such renown by her fight with two Russian destroyers off Port Arthur, when the vessels crushed rams as they fought, was further known. It was she that found the Russian destroyer Byedovi at Ulsan and captured Rojestvensky and staff. The Byedovi fought desperately, but was finally forced to surrender. Commander Tamaso has been given the Order of the Kite for his capture.

When captured Rojestvensky wore no tunic. He was in his shirt with his wounded arm, which hung useless at his side. He is resting at the Sasebo hospital. Near are the captain and vice-captain, of the Admiral Nakhimoff, who were picked up on driftwood by fishermen, with their clothes shredded and their faces burned with powder. Fishermen clothed and fed them and took them to Sasebo. Fishermen and villagers on the coast are burying large numbers of mangled dead, who have drifted ashore. Many of the bodies are badly torn by gun wounds, some terribly burned.

ISLAND VANISHING

Was Thrown up by a Volcano Last December

Kobe, June 26.—The Island of Nu-Shima, which was thrown up by volcanic action three miles south of Iwo Islands, Southern Japan, last December, is now vanishing. The summit of the island is now only ten inches of 600 feet above the water. The island was two and three-quarter miles in circumference.

A Buffalo Attraction

Buffalo Will Soon Open a Museum and Theatre Costing $250,000

As Buffalo, N.Y., is one of the most frequently visited cities by excursionists from this city, hundreds of those citizens who annually take in the Toronto, Niagara Falls, and Buffalo trip, will be pleased to hear that on the 1st of July there will be opened in Buffalo one of the grandest museums and theatres in the United States.

The Times has been shown a cut of Dr. Linn's Museum, corner of Broadway and Washington streets, which shows an isolated building devoted wholly to the purpose of amusement. The building is absolutely fireproof, has its floors and stairways of marble, and represents an expenditure of a quarter of a million of dollars. The museum consists of every kind and description of curios, historical, antiques, chamber of horrors, etc., and contains a modern, beautiful theatre, where nine performances are given daily. This is just the place for Peterborough people, when visiting Buffalo, to put in a few hours, and see sights worth going there for alone. The admission fee is very moderate, being only 15 cents.

Resulted in Death.

Mr. McBurney, Who Fell From a Building in Toronto, Succumbed to His Injuries.

It will be remembered by our readers that a few months ago Mr. Geo. McBurney had the misfortune to accidentally fall from a scaffolding surrounding a building on which he was working.

Yesterday morning, Mr. McBurney's friends will regret to hear, his death occurred in Toronto. Paralysis seems to have developed, his spine being affected, and death ensued.

Mr. McBurney lived in this town for nearly 60 years, Peterborough being the home of his birth. He only removed to Toronto some four years ago. There are left to mourn his demise, Mrs. McBurney, who is a sister of Mr. Joseph Richardson, town, and four daughters, Misses May, Gertrude, Ruby, and Verna. Mrs. Edwin Poole, of town, is a sister, and a brother, Mr. Ed. McBurney, lives at Lodi, Pa. Mr. McBurney was sixty-two years of age during the long years of his residence here he was a member of George street Methodist church.

The funeral will be held here under the auspices of Peterborough I.O.O.F., of which deceased was a member.

NEW INSTITUTE BY-LAW UNDER DISCUSSION

Strong Letters for and Against the Proposed By-Law.

Mr. Dumble Answered

Strong Letter in Favor of a New Institute

(To the Editor of The Times.)

Sir,—In reading Mr. Dumble's letter to the evening papers on Saturday evening regarding the New Collegiate Institute Building, the first question which arose in my mind was why does Mr. Dumble try to mislead. One can hardly imagine that Mr. Dumble, a man of education, a man of ability, a man of broad experience, could make such a statement and take such a stand against public interests through ignorance, so I am forced to believe that this letter was prompted by the spirit of animosity, either toward some individual member of the Building Committee or else toward the committee as a body.

Mr. Dumble says;

"You will remember that many of the great universities of the United States have had very indifferent buildings, but their boast was that not the buildings but the professoriate made the university. Quartered oak and plate glass are very nice, but they don't make the college."

Quite true, but why does Mr. Dumble wish to compare the conditions of to-day with the conditions which existed half a century ago? 'Tis true that the universities of the United States, most of which were erected half a century ago, had no quartered oak, nor plate glass, however, he forgot to explain there was a very good reason for this, owing to the fact that at that time such things were almost an unknown quantity. But, because such conditions existed in those days why should we care to be old-fashioned in this modern age. He evidently forgot to state that also in those days he read by the dismal light of a candle dip, which by the way I myself have done not over a quarter of a century ago, yet neither he nor I would be satisfied with such an old-fashioned contrivance to-day. In fact nowadays we feel as though the electric light is a necessity. He also forgot to state that in those good old days he was satisfied with homespun, but does Mr. Dumble to-day advocate homespun for his boys? I think not. To-day he like the most of us prefers fabric a little finer. Then why should Mr. Dumble wish to progress along every line but this one of having a Collegiate Institute built according to the customs of the 20th century instead of the customs that existed during the time of our forefathers.

If the United States universities boasted, as Mr. Dumble says they did, that the professoriate made the university, not the building, then why have the millions of dollars been spent during the past 15 years for buildings for the great American universities? Does Mr. Dumble for one minute think that a man as clever and far-sighted as Mr. John D. Rockefeller would spend millions of dollars for the erection of buildings and appliances for the great Chicago University were it not an essential benefit? I would thank Mr. Dumble if he could name one university in the United States that made such a boast. As a general statement the above quotation sounds well, but it is very inaccurate and misleading. It is true a good staff is the essential element of a good school, and Peterborough Collegiate Institute may well boast of having one of the best staffs in the Dominion, which is all the more reason why the citizens of Peterborough should desire and insist upon having the very best building and the most modern appliances with which to give our excellent staff an opportunity and an assistance to make the Peterborough Collegiate Institute second to none in the Dominion.

Mr. Dumble was for many years a member of the School Board and has I believe, always been a strong advocate of anything that would further the interests of the Collegiate Institute, and was very much in favor of suitable buildings until recently. Possibly he has a grievance against the committee because they did not buy his property for a school site. But then he should not feel grieved about that because the committee purchased the best possible site in town believing of course that Mr. Dumble would appreciate what was best for public interests regardless of personal gain.

If we were living in the times of our forefathers, or even living in the present only, then I think Mr. Dumble's idea of a cheaper building might be worthy of consideration. But as it is the citizens of Peterborough desire to erect a building that will not be torn down in a few years but will be suitable for the City of Peterborough 25 years hence, when our progressive city will undoubtedly have a population nearer 50,000 than 15,000. Such a building as Mr. Dumble says he approves of would in a very few years be inadequate. However, I believe that the citizens of Peterborough are progressive even though Mr. Dumble would lead us to believe he is not. Mr. Dumble's own figures would again try to mislead us. These are his figures; Actual cost for running expenses for last year for the Institute $12,450 less Government grant $1,300, fees $2,150, and cash on hand $850, making a total of $4,300, which leaves a balance of $8,150 to be paid by the taxpayers. The total number of pupils was 221, which would make the expense for each pupil a little over $36, although Mr. Dumble states the expense is $44, and even this amount is not an expense to the city because the county pupil has already paid $25 fees.

Grant that our new building will have a capacity to take care of increased numbers of county pupils, and that it may even have such advantages over other collegiate institutes in our Province as to attract families outside of our county to become citizens of Peterborough, would it not be a good thing for our city? It takes population to make large cities, and certainly first-class schools and modern school buildings would be more apt to attract citizens than otherwise. Mr. Dumble states that each county pupil is a trifling expense to the city, but forgets to state that each county pupil would be living in Peterborough, and would spend from $200 to $300 a year in our city which would mean a great deal more than the trifling expense to which he takes exception. Mr. Dumble makes another inaccurate statement when he says county pupils pay $15 a year for fees. They pay $25 a year each.

Again, Mr. Dumble states if we spend $100,000 for a new Collegiate Institute it means a payment of approximately $6,000 a year for 30 years, or in other words the $50,000 by-law we are asked to vote on if passed would increase our expenditure $6,000 a year for 30 years. This means an increase in taxes of about 50 cents a year to the average taxpayer, while Mr. Dumble's taxes would be increased from $5 to $10 a year. Is this the reason why Mr. Dumble opposes the expenditure? Surely not. Why, it is only a few weeks ago when a great many of our citizens were opposing our town becoming incorporated as a city on July 1st that Mr. Dumble was most energetic in supporting the by-law.

Of course it is true the salary of our Chief Magistrate will be increased $200 a year when our town becomes a city, although I for one do not believe that the salary will be too large for our capable and very efficient Chief Magistrate. Yet it strikes me that Mr. Dumble is inconsistent when he supports progress that benefits his pocket but opposes progress when it increases his expenditure though the increased expenditure is only 1-20th of the increased profits. Again, I quote from Mr. Dumble's letter;

"The Trustees have been away looking at half-million schools in Buffalo and Detroit, and they have lost their heads. When they came back their heads touched the ceilings of the architect's new building, and they ordered them raised. They are, it is said, 17 feet high, which, with a hot air ventilation is unnecessary and doubles the expense of heating."

How thoughtless of him to think that half-million dollar buildings in Buffalo and Detroit would cause the committee to lose their heads. Most of the committee are men who have visited the largest cities in the United States and Europe, and I can assure Mr. Dumble that it would take more than the sight of half-million dollar buildings in cities of small size to cause any one of the gentlemen on the committee to lose his head, as most of us have had the pleasure of gazing upon educational buildings in other parts of the world that cost millions. However, if Mr. Dumble had travelled more in recent years and kept abreast of the times I believe he would be better able to appreciate this point and possibly make better comparisons. He says when we returned from Detroit that our heads touched the ceiling of the architect's new building, and we ordered the ceiling raised to 17 feet. If Mr. Dumble had read the published statement he would have known that this was not true. The following are the exact figures;

Basement first plan ceiling 10 feet, present plan 12 ft., from floor to floor. 1st and 2nd floors plan, ceiling 14 ft., present plan 16 ft., from floor to floor. Assembly Hall plan, ceiling 12 ft., present plan 16 ft., from floor to floor. Halls, width increased from 12 to 16 feet.

Would any parent say that these changes would not be an advantage to their children, as good lighting and good ventilation are a benefit, not a disadvantage.

While in Windsor the Building Committee called upon the School Board in that city, and were informed that 10 years ago, Windsor, which now has a population of only 12,000, built a collegiate institute, at a cost approximately $50,000, (at a time when building material was much cheaper than it is to-day), and now they regret that a better building had not been erected with wider halls and higher ceilings. They advised the Committee not to make the mistake they had made but to prepare a plan that would be adequate for the near future.

Mr. Dumble ends his letter with the following carefully worded paragraph—I mean carefully worded from a legal standpoint;

"N.B.—I have been told that the Trustees who have engineered this matter advise keeping quiet until polling day, then they would hire a lot of rigs and force the vote. I can not think of the people's servants attempting to insult their masters by such an illegal and improper action,—it might be well to watch their actions—but the only safe course is for the people to turn out and vote down the by-law."

It might seem to some as though there was an intended reflection on the integrity of the committee, but I do not believe that Mr. Dumble would accuse such men as W. G. Ferguson, J. J. Hartley, L. M. Hayes, John Crane, Dr. M. M. Morrison, Wm Pringle, and R. B. Rogers of insulting their masters by such an illegal and improper action. So far as supporting the by-law is concerned I can safely voice the sentiments of the committee when I say that we as citizens and members of the Board intend to support the by-law, because the plans which we have prepared and submitted have met with the unanimous approval of the Board, and in asking for the additional grant of $50,000 it was opposed by only two members out of 17, and I understand that these two opposing members will vote for the by-law on Thursday.

In wishing this by-law passed it is not with any hope of financial gain to the committee either individually or as a body, but merely to give to all classes in the community the privileges of the best and most modern. The department of manual training alone will be one of the greatest advantages ever offered the children of Peterborough who wish to take up that particular line of study. It is the duty of every voter in Peterborough to go to the polls next Thursday and vote for the by-law. It is a fact that the Board have already purchased the site which certainly is ideal. After paying for it there remains $40,000. According to the most economical estimate it is admitted that $20,000 of this amount would be required for equipments, furnishings, heating plant and incidentals. This would leave only $20,000 to erect the building which everyone knows would not be nearly sufficient, therefore the defeat of this by-law would mean the submitting of another one for a less amount which would entail a great deal of unnecessary expense.

The lot contains six acres located in the heart of the city, 1-3 of which will be used as a public park, 1-3 for the site for a magnificent armory, and the balance for the Collegiate Institute, and certainly the citizens of Peterborough should erect on the school site a building which would not only be in keeping with the armory but be a credit to the city, as we have no public buildings to which we can point with pride. We should have sufficient public spirit to not allow our neighboring towns of even one-half the population to surpass us in the point of public buildings.

Believing that every citizen who has the interests of our city at heart will vote for the by-law on Thursday,

I remain,

Yours truly,

H. P. KENNEDY,

Chairman of the Building Committee, Board of Education.

Against the By-law

Mr. James Stevenson not in Favor of New Institute

(To the Editor of The Times.)

Sir,—As an old resident and a man who has the interests and progress of Peterborough as much at heart as any man in it, I would ask the privilege of taking a few lines of your valuable space to record my views on the proposed expenditure of such an enormous amount of the tax-payers' money as the majority of the Board of Education contemplate, viz., $100,000. As is well known to our citizens, I have for over half a century taken an active part in education matters in Peterborough, having for many years been Chairman of that Board. Now sir, I think I am not presuming too far, after working faithfully in school matters for more than half a century (55 years), with little or no recompense, to say that I am in a position to know something about educational matters in this town, and fairly entitled to express my views. I will always advocate giving our children as good an education as our funds will permit, but between education and an extravagant building erected in the name, but not necessarily essential to the purposes of education, there is a wide gulf. This year is the dearest, in my recollection extending over two generations in Peterborough, in prices of everything appertaining to building, whether in labor or materials.

It would possibly be an easy matter, if immediate steps were taken, to get the Government to exchange lots; i.e., let the town take the lot to the south and in such case by a comparatively small expenditure the Murray street school could be used, by some small additions either as a Public School for the 4th Book class, or other classes; or it could be converted, at small cost, to all present requirements of a Collegiate Institute until such time as building is at a reasonable figure. Whether this idea will be carried out or not, I say emphatically that this town has no right to pledge her good name financially, and squander the tax-payers' money to the vast sum of $100,000 on a building that all must admit is shown, in the plans and estimated cost, to be more for ornament than education. The School Board desire to carry this matter through as they originated it; I would not impute motives as to their reason; but the the School Board, elected from year to year, do not carry the burden of increased yearly taxation, as do the general tax-payers, who do not share the glory of having been the originators of this grand structure. In a word, the building is too ex-

Jewish Districts Now In Full Revolt, Street Cars as Barricades.

The Center of Interest Transferred to Warsaw, Though Lodz Has Been Declared in a State of Siege.

Warsaw, June 27.—The Jewish districts are now in full revolt. The shops and stores are closed, and traffic has ceased. The street cars have been overturned to form the nucleus of barricades. Great crowds are assembling in the streets, and the ugly temper of both the populace and troops threatens to break out in bloodshed at any moment.

Thirty-four battalions of infantry are stationed in the town. The city has the appearance of a military encampment. Infantry and Cossacks are bivouacked in the streets, and patrols are circulating everywhere.

Barricades have been erected at the corner of Ogrodowa and Zelazna streets, and occasionally the crack of a rifle is heard as strikers shoot at men going to work.

A bomb was thrown last night at a carriage occupied by the Chief of Police, M. Parleff, of the town of Czentlaschwa, Government of Piatrkow. The Chief and several other persons were seriously injured.

A STATE OF SIEGE HAS BEEN PROCLAIMED.

The victims of last week's outbreak total over 1,200. Thus far the bodies of 313 Jews and 216 Christians have been buried. The wounded number over 700.

Some semblance of order has been restored, and the workmen are gradually returning to the factories.

A Venerable Success

Grand Financial Record of the Union Bank as Shown at Their 40th Annual Meeting

A comparison of the various chartered banks of the Dominion and their present financial standing shows that the grand old Union Bank of Canada still, as it has done for forty years, holds a leading place among the strongest banking institutions of this country. At the 40th Annual Meeting of the shareholders, held in Quebec, on Monday, June 19th, with Mr. A. Thomson in the chair, the Directors presented their report for the past fiscal year. The policy of the Union Bank, whilst conservative in many ways, was shown to be strenuously aggressive as far as getting in new business of a desirable class is concerned.

Both shareholders and depositors cannot but feel assured by the financial status of the bank. On May 31st there stood to the bank's credit on profit and loss account, the tidy sum of $67,239.86, and, after deducting all expenses of management, and making ample provision for all bad or doubtful accounts, to this was added the net profits for the year $382,173.80, making a grand total of profit amounting to $449,413.66. Out of this yearly profit, of nearly half a million, was paid a yearly dividend to shareholders, at the rate of 7 per cent, amounting to $175,000; $100,000 was placed to rest account, and an equal amount was written off real estate and bank premises, leaving a balance of $74,413.60 to be carried forward. Truly this is a most encouraging result of the year's work!

The assets of the Union Bank are of a nature calculated to inspire unbounded confidence, consisting mainly of Dominion notes, deposits with the Dominion Government, and loans and discounts of "gilt edge" security. Mr. A. Thomson was re-elected president and Hon. John Sharples, vice president for the year. A glance through the annual statement, given in detail, in this issue, is not only interesting to persons concerned in sound financing but shows how a vast commercial undertaking can be safely brought to the highest pinnacle of success.

FOOD IN SERMONS

Feed the Dominie and the Sermons are Brilliant

A conscientious, hard-working and eminently successful clergyman writes; "I am glad to bear testimony to the pleasure and increased measure of efficiency and health that have come to me from adopting Grape-Nuts food as one of my articles of diet.

"For several years I was much distressed during the early part of each day by indigestion. My breakfast, usually consisting of oatmeal, milk and eggs, seemed to turn sour and failed to digest. After dinner the headache and other symptoms following the breakfast would wear away, only to return, however, next morning.

"Having heard of Grape-Nuts food, I finally concluded to give it a fair trial. I quit the use of oatmeal and eggs, and made my breakfasts of Grape-Nuts, cream, toast and Postum. The result was surprising in improved health and total absence of the distress that had, for so long a time, followed the morning meal. My digestion became once more satisfactory, the headaches ceased, and the old feeling of energy returned. Since that time, four years ago, I have always had Grape-Nuts food on my breakfast table.

"I was delighted to find also, that whereas before I began to use Grape-Nuts food I was quite nervous and became easily wearied in the work of preparing sermons and study, a marked improvement in this respect resulted from the change in my diet. I am convinced that Grape-Nuts food produced this result and helped me to a sturdy condition of mental and physical strength.

"I have known of several persons who were formerly troubled as I was, and who have been helped as I have been, by the use of Grape-Nuts food, on my recommendation, among whom may be mentioned the Rev. ——— now a missionary to China."

Struck by Lightning

Mr. Jas. Goodwin's House Sherbrooke St., Struck by Lightning.

On Sunday night whilst many a good housewife was only held by fear of ridicule from crawling under the bed, or sitting down the cellar, to escape the lightning's flashes, and incidentally the roars of thunder, what might have proved a fatality actually did take place at the residence of Mr. Jas. Goodwin, Sherbrooke street. A lightning dart or bolt was attracted to a chimney situated over the dining room, and following the pipes, tore clear through the stove, carpet, floor and smashing a joist continued on its invincible rush earthwards along the water pipe. The chimney which had been entered first by the deadly element was completely smashed and another one shows signs of the lightning's power. Fortunately the family were out visiting at Mrs. Goodwin's mothers residence, at the time the lightning struck, or there would have, in all probability, been a terrible fate to tell. Almost miraculously this house did not catch fire, but all along the course followed by the deadly fluid, there are tangible proofs of its visit.

Receive Their Diplomas

Last night a large number of people assembled in the spacious Y.M.C.A. hall to witness an annual interesting ceremony in connection with Nicholls' Hospital. The members of the graduating class, the Misses Hester Douglas, D. Wilson, Peterborough; Miss Jean Foster Cunningham, Cannington; Mrs. Leona J. Doyle, Campbellford, were presented, midst considerable applause, with their diplomas, those long coveted documents testifying to their efficiency and knowledge. The examining board was composed of Drs. Caldwell, Carmichael, Greer and Anys.

Mr. Richard Hall, chairman of the Board of Trustees, very ably filled the position of chairman, and delivered a well timed address, complimenting the graduates, and noting the noble work they had striven so hard to prepare for. An interesting program, including a piano selection by Miss D. Coleman, an eloquent address by Rev. E. A. Langfeldt to nurses, a song by Mr. W. Mellmoyle in his inimitable style, Dr. Caldwell's sententious but comprehensive "Charge to Nurses," preceded the formal presentation of diplomas and medals. After this ceremony had been performed, Mr. G. Markle rendered a selection on the violin, followed by a song by Miss G. Keedy. Then the prize for bandaging was presented to Miss M. J. Foster; this was succeeded by a song from Mr. J. Dawson, and the evening's formalities were concluded by the Valedictory, most ably given by Miss D. Wilson.

Painted the Town Yesterday

Not with that rich carmine that is usually referred to when speaking of "Painting the Town," but with a sombre black did Messrs. Cook and Larone paint part of George street yesterday afternoon. They had, previous to imparting this funereal tint to their surroundings, been standing on a plank, placed upon two high step-ladders in front of the Bank of Ottawa decorating the bank premises.

Hey presto! regardless and the plank broke under their combined weight, black paint flying in all directions. Fortunately neither of the gentlemen were seriously injured.

Training Ship Sunk and 22 Cadets Drown

Danish Vessel Rammed in the Dark by a British Steamer--Fifty-Seven Cadets Rescued --Ship Sunk in 11-2 Minutes.

Copenhagen, June 26.—A serious disaster occurred here last night, when the Danish Cadet training schooner George-Stage was rammed and sunk by the British steamer Ancona. The Georg-Stage sank in one and one-half minutes. Twenty-two cadets were drowned and 57 rescued. The boys were all in their bunks at the time of the disaster. The night was overcast, but it was not so dark that objects could not be seen at some distance.

The Ancona was considerably damaged along her water line. The port authorities have placed an embargo on the Ancona, which will remain here until the inquiry into the collision is completed.

Thus far only a single body has been recovered by the divers who have gone down to the wreck.

The Georg-Stage was a schooner of 206 tons register, and was 103 feet long. Apparently she was a training vessel for the mercantile marine, and was owned by a private firm of Copenhagen.

THE REAL DANGER IN RAILROAD TRAVEL

The first impulse is to attribute the shocking wreck of the fastest passenger train in the world, the Twentieth Century Limited, to that indefatigable demon of the times, Hurry. "I told you so," is the attitude of mind of nearly everyone when a train which dashes from New York to Chicago, a distance of 960 miles in 1,000 minutes, runs into an open switch and destroys a score of lives. As a matter of fact, however, the terrific speed of the Limited in no way contributed to the cause of the tragedy. A train of day coaches running at 30 miles an hour would have stood no better chance of escaping this fate, and as many lives would doubtless have been lost. An open switch is an open switch for mile-a-minute specials or freight trains.

Few know what a complete readjustment of a whole complex railroad system the running of a limited train necessitates. Tracks must be cleared for hundreds of miles ahead. No chances are taken. Freight trains are held up for hours on sidings to permit the Limited to pass. When it has thundered by, a division superintendent draws his first long breath in some hours. The Twentieth Century Limited is examined minutely from end to end at least five times between New York and Chicago. There are two relays of great mogul engines to pull it. A whole railroad system is made to conform its goings and comings to the flight of this single train. The cars it draws are few, but they are the steamboat and heaviest Pullman couches. In collision they offer the greatest resistance and the greatest protection to the lives of their occupants. Not only is travel on a limited train the fastest and most luxurious, but it is the safest, for the limited is given the undivided attention of every official of the road, from president to train despatcher.

A list of 10,000 killed and 75,000 injured last year on United States railroads points a ghastly and convincing conclusion that more safeguards, more deliberation, more care are necessary. This killing and maiming was not done by Limited trains. It is the freight, accommodation and local trains of moderate speed that do the killing. It is on the Limited that lives, high-priced lives are spared. If the great railroad systems would give as much care to every train, whatever its speed, its rate of fare and the importance of its clientele, as they do to the Limited, we should not be shocked by such a long list of casualties every year.

EDITORIAL COMMENT.

The Ontario License Holders' Protective Association is going to fight for compensation for all licenses cut off. The situation thus created is an odd one. First a great struggle is made to secure the favor of a license strictly limited to a year; then a demand is to be made for compensation if ever the privilege, granted for only twelve months is withdrawn.

Winnipeg has 800,000 horse-power running to waste daily in a waterfall within 65 miles of that city. The local question is, will the people wake up to the value of this public utility in furnishing cheap power for manufacturing? The question for the east is, if Winnipeg becomes a great manufacturing city by aid of this power, where is it to arrive at?

A Philadelphia assessor was this week fined $500 and sent to jail for three months for having put on 510 fraudulent names out of a total of 777 in a list of voters in his divison. It is hardly possible that such a fraud could be committed in this country under our present system.

Whose Fault Is It?

Victoria Park Although Fully Wired Remains in Darkness and Danger

As was seen by admiring thousands attending the last band concert in Victoria Park, this spot so beautiful by day but a sink hole of indecency and befraught with danger by night, was then not only fully equipped and wired for lighting, but was well lighted up. Since Friday night the old state of things has ruled by night; this park, belonging to the public, provided for the public's pleasure at public expense, and wired for the lamps by the public's money has since Friday night been a forbidden land to the respectable element of the public as soon as darkness fell.

The circumstances rendering the proper lighting of this and other parks in the central part of town, is a delicate one to explain in a public paper, but no false sense of prudery should intervene when this park is, for lack of light, a danger to every woman, girl or child venturesome enough to pass through its paths after dark.

Why should such a condition of things exist, that within one short block of our main thoroughfare, a public park should, not only have its beauties and use denied to our women kind during the summer evenings, but the place be absolutely unsafe for any one to enter?

The question is, whose fault is it that the lamps now proven to be ready for use, should remain dark every night but band night.

The Times yesterday spoke on this subject to several city fathers, who, without exception, said they considered when the town had had the placed wired that the Light and Power Company, were to have the current on every night. Does the company consider this park is only to be safe and enjoyed by the public on band nights, to draw trade for the street cars that evening? If so, the Council had better, at once, disabuse the mangement of this idea. This park is for the public's use and pleasure, not a once-a-week feeder for the street railway.

If our civic representatives have the interests of their constituents at heart, they will see that Victoria Park is properly lighted, and not wait until "Dreary October" to do so either!

If any reader thinks the danger of Victoria Park in darkness is exaggerated, let him make enquiries from any nearby resident, and ask him if he, the man living near by, and acquainted with the condition of affairs, would advise his wife or daughter to pass, without an escort accompanying her, through the park after dark.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS

Any even numbered section of Dominion lands in Manitoba or the North-west Territories, excepting 8 and 26, which has not been homesteaded, or reserved to provide wood lots for settlers, or for other purposes, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres more or less.

ENTRY

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land to be taken is situate, or if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration Winnipeg, or the local agent for the district in which the land is situate, receive authority for some one to make entry for him. A fee of $10 is charged for a homestead entry.

HOMESTEAD DUTIES

A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required by the provisions of the Dominion Lands Act, and the amendments thereto, to perform the conditions connected therewith, under one of the following plans:

[1] At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years. It is the practice of the Department to require a settler to bring 15 acres under cultivation, but if he prefers he may substitute stock; and 20 head of cattle, to be actually his own property, with buildings for their accommodation, will be accepted instead of the cultivation.

[2] If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased), of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

[3] If a settler was entitled to and has obtained entry for a second homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by residence upon the first homestead, if the second homestead is in the vicinity of the first homestead.

[4] If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

The term "vicinity" used above is meant to indicate the same township, or an adjoining or cornering township.

A settler who avails himself of the provisions of clauses [2], [3] or [4] must cultivate 30 acres of his homestead, or substitute 20 head of stock, with buildings for their accommodation, and have besides 80 acres substantially fenced.

The privilege of a second entry is restricted by law to those settlers only who completed the duties upon their first homesteads to entitle them to patent on or before the 2nd of June, 1889.

Every homesteader who fails to comply with the requirements of the homestead law is liable to have his entry cancelled and the land may again be thrown open for entry.

APPLICATION FOR PATENT

Should be made at the end of three years before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector. Before making application for patent the settler must give six months notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa of his intention to do so.

INFORMATION

Newly arrived immigrants will receive, at the Immigration Office in Winnipeg, or at any Dominion Lands Office in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories, information as to the lands that are open for entry, and from the officers in charge, free of expense, advice and assistance in securing lands to suit them. Full information respecting the land, timber, coal and mineral laws, as well as respecting Dominion Lands in the Railway Belt in British Columbia, may be obtained upon application to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, Manitoba, or to any of the Dominion Lands Agents in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories.

W. W. CORY,
Deputy Minister of the Interior

N. B.—In addition to Free Grant Lands, to which the Regulations above stated refer, thousands of acres of most desirable lands are available for lease or purchase from railroad and other corporations and private firms in Western Canada.

IF YOU WANT MONEY

Buy a block of stock of the Tecopah-Crow Gold and Copper Company. This stock is selling at 18 cents a share. It will be paying a profit in one year of not less than 25 per cent. on capitalization, which will mean a value of the stock of $2.50 a share. It may be worth $5.00 in less than two years time. There are more than 100 mineral veins crossing this property. The lowest average of ores as far as developed is $54 a ton, which does not include numerous small bodies running from $100 to $1,000. The money to be raised in these sales of stock is to be put in hoisting plant, equip and rapidly develop the mine, which includes six mining claims and mill site; 125 acres. VARICOCELE CURED

NO NAMES USED WITHOUT WRITTEN CONSENT.

Confined to His Home for Weeks.

"Heavy work, severe straining and evil habits in youth brought on a double varicocele. When I worked hard the aching would become severe and I was often laid up for a week at a time. My family physician told me an operation was my only hope—but I dreaded it. I tried several specialists, but soon found all they wanted was my money. I commenced to look upon all doctors as little Lejar than rogues. One day my boss asked me why I was off work so much and I told him my condition. He advised me to consult Drs. Kennedy and Kergan, as he had taken treatment from them himself and knew they were square and skilful. He wrote them and got the New Method Treatment for me. My progress was somewhat slow and during the first month's treatment I was somewhat discouraged. However, I continued treatment for three months longer and was rewarded with a complete cure. I could only earn $12 a week in a machine shop before treatment, now I am earning $21 and never lose a day. I wish all sufferers knew of your valuable treatment.

WAS NO SUMMER IN 1816

This year 1816 is called the year without a summer, for there was a sharp frost every month, says the Hartford, Conn., Times. The farmers refer to it as eighteen hundred and starved to death. January was mild as was also February, with the exception of a few cold days. The greater part of March was cold and boisterous. April opened warm, but grew colder as it advanced, ending with snow and ice and winter cold. In May ice formed an inch thick, birds and flowers were frozen, corn killed, and the fruit was nearly all destroyed. Snow fell to the depth of three inches in New York and Massachusetts, and ten inches in Maine.

July was accompanied with frost and ice. On the 5th ice was formed of the thickness of window glass in New York, New England and Pennsylvania, and corn was nearly all destroyed in certain sections. In August ice formed half an inch thick. A cold northeast wind prevailed nearly all summer. Corn was so frozen that a great deal was cut down and dried for fodder, very little ripened in New England, even in Connecticut, and scarcely any even in the Middle States. Farmers were obliged to pay $4 or $5 a bushel for corn of 1815 for seed for the spring planting. The first two weeks of September were mild; the rest of the month was cold with frost, and ice formed a quarter of an inch thick. October was more than usually cold, with frost and ice. November was cold and lusbtering with snow enough for good sleighing. December was quite mild and comfortable.

A RAILWAY SCENIC MULTIPLIER

A Western Writer's High Tribute to the Magnificence of the Canadian Rockies

A well-known western author, Mr. de Putron Gliddon, writing from Banff, to the officials of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, pays the following tribute to the magnificence of the scenery of the Canadian Rockies:—

"No matter what superlatives you use, you cannot exaggerate the grandeur and glories of the scenery on the Canadian Pacific Railway between Banff and Vancouver. I do not claim to be a globe trotter, who has seen it all, or knows it all, for my little travels have been confined to a few trips in Switzerland and Austria, and most of the European countries, and I think I have been on all the trans-continental lines in the United States of America, certainly all the mountain lines, including the Denver & Rio Grande, which takes in the greatest mountain scenery, of Colorado, and I also have run by the Japanese scenery, including wonderful Fujiyama, but put them all together and they do not excel, and I think do not equal the C.P.R.'s scenery. That scenery seems to me to be a sort of Railway Scenic Multiplier, for the Fraser River Canon is the Royal Gorge multiplied and enlarged and glorified. The trip up the Kicking Horse Canyon is Marshall Pass magnified and the awesomeness thereof intensified to the highest power. And so it is throughout the whole trip to say nothing of the attractiveness of the Bow Falls right by this hotel. That for swiftness and beauty and surroundings are as fine as the far famed Falls of the Rhine. But, there, I must not weary you with a description, for no one can adequately describe what he sees from the C.P.R. trains from here to the Coast. He can try, but his best will be to the reality just about what stage scenery means is to the original."

ANTI-TRADING STAMP BILL

Provisions of Measure to be introduced by Mr. Gervais, M.P.

Ottawa, June 26.—The bill to prevent the use of trading stamps in Canada, which Mr. Gervais, of Montreal, will introduce, will be in the nature of an amendment to the section of the Criminal Code which prevents combinations in restraint of trade. The bill, after defining a trading stamp as a device given by a vendor to be redeemed in goods not the property of the vendor, will provide penalties against the vendor giving such stamps, the purchaser receiving them, and the company or its agents issuing such stamps. The bill, after its introduction by Mr. Gervais, who has headed the movement against trading stamps, will probably be accepted by the Minister of Justice as a Government measure, which will ensure its passage this session.

A DOUBLE LIFE

Death Revealed Milwaukee Man's Duplicity

Milwaukee, June 26.—The Journal to-day prints a story on the authority of John Keating, that Peter H. Deacon, who died recently in Chicago, had lived a double life for 20 years, having at the same time families in Somerville, Mass., a suburb of Boston, and in Milwaukee.

Keating is a son-in-law of Deacon. He says Deacon came west twenty years ago and married Fanny Adeline Wilcox. At the same time he had a wife and seven children residing in Somerville, having been married there to Anna J. Tuite by the Rev. James Healt in 1868.

The story of the double life leaked out when John Keating, husband of a daughter born of Deacon's first marriage, came west to secure proofs of Deacon's death and to adjust the life insurance policies. For a long time Deacon supported his Somerville, Mass., family, but shortly before his death his contributions ceased altogether.

Mrs. Deacon No. 2 left Milwaukee two weeks ago, and is said to be living with Mrs. Wilcox in Chicago now.

NORTHWEST CROPS

Estimate of the Territorial Government

Winnipeg, June 26.—The Territorial Government have just issued a statement of the crop estimate for 1905, which shows a very substantial increase in acreage of three great cereals—wheat, oats and barley. The estimated acreage under spring wheat is 1,108,272, an increase of 150,979 acres over 1904. Acreage under oats 594,981, an increase of 71,347 acres; under barley 93,555, an increase of 7,401 acres. There is also an estimated acreage of 13,832 under fall wheat against 8,296 acres in 1904.

History and Production of the Goldfields of Boulder County, Colorado, Portraying Economic Conditions Which Predict the Coming Goldfields of Colorado and Presenting the Stock Offering of a Great Gold Mining Enterprise of the United States Gold Corporation

FREE

Our booklet on the gold fields of Boulder County is off the press, and is being distributed free to investors. We have prepared this book to advertise the gold fields of Northern Colorado and our great gold mining enterprise. The books will be free for the asking while they last. It will tell you of how over fifty millions have been added to the world's wealth in production of gold, silver and copper under primitive methods and from surface workings of an average depth of not to exceed 250 feet. It will tell you of its great tungsten belt, the largest in the world. It will tell you of the existence of a diversity of precious and rare minerals, unrivaled by any other gold fields on this continent. It will tell you of a mineral area of twenty-five square miles literally covered with a network of veins practically undeveloped, with only one shaft below the thousand foot and half a dozen below the six hundred foot level. It will tell you of a gold field nearer to the Denver smelters than any other in Colorado; of a change of economic conditions, in this section, which will enable the miner to ship ore to the smelters, at a net profit, that is now being thrown over the dumps in other sections of Colorado; it will tell you of a field so attractive that it resulted in the construction of two railways from one end of the field to the other. It will tell you of the substitution of modern and up-to-date mining methods, in place of the primitive ones of the past; in short, it will tell you of all those conditions which predict for the gold fields of Boulder County the coming gold fields of Colorado.

It will also tell you of our great gold mining enterprise in the western part of the gold fields of Boulder County, near the continental divide, where nature has deposited her largest and richest treasure vaults; it will tell you of our economic development tunnel, driven to drain and develop a mineral estate almost a mile long and half a mile wide; of the thousands of tons of gold ore now blocked out and ready for shipment in the five different veins cut by this tunnel in driving it eight hundred feet, the result of two years' steady development work night and day; of our wonderful discovery of molybdenite—a rare metal—in large commercial quantities, foretelling for us the first molybdenite mine in Colorado that is producing, as well as a large and permanent source of revenue, of our project to drive this tunnel, long before the end of this year, into the famous Fourth of July dyke or "Mother Lode," from which the far famed Caribou group of mines produced twenty million dollars in gold, silver and copper from 1869 to 1893; of the tremendous possibilities for ore production which will follow the cutting of a mineral dyke from 50 to 100 feet wide at a depth of a thousand feet, and the great probability of our opening the first great copper mine in Colorado when we reach this dyke with the tunnel. In short, it will tell you of a gold mining enterprise that will go on a large producing basis long before the end of 1905; of an enterprise with possibilities second to none in Colorado, the developments of which have already shorn it of any element of risk or speculative features, rendering the investment offered a safe and attractive one.

For the financial and commercial standing of the business men who stand back of this enterprise we refer you to the First National Bank, Boulder, Colo, or Bradstreets Commercial Agency

The edition will not last long. If you would be sure of securing a copy, write to-day, or your name and address on a postal card, with the word "Booklet," will do the work.

Two Letters re Collegiate Institute

Mr. Stevenson, the "Dean," of Board of Edu. at on Against $100,000 Expenditure

perative for the town and for the limited number of scholars who attend the Institute, many of whom are from outside the town and not taxpayers. This town would be plunged into such an abyss of debt that it would be impossible to carry out other expensive improvements that will shortly be required, such as paving George street, erecting a City Hall, building much needed Public schools for use of the workingman's children, fire protection and others that will soon loom up. It is too expensive a year in which to build, better wait until we could do as much for say $50,000 as this year could be done for $100,000.

Whilst I would not debar our country children, or those from other towns and villages from getting all the education they can, I, for one, am against spending Peterborough tax-payer's money, to the extent of some $40 a year, on giving the higher branches of education to non-supporters of our institution, and who grudgingly pay the small sum now demanded from them.

The educational status of those graduating from a Collegiate Institute is not dependent upon an extravagant building that would keep the rate-payers poor for a long number of years, but upon the staff of teachers and the way they teach. I am quite willing, and believe, in saying so, I am endorsed by the rate-payers, to spend $50,000 on our Institute, but think that the rate-payers will never agree to spend $100,000, particularly so, as there is no guarantee that this amount will complete and satisfactorily equip the building proposed.

I shall vote against the bylaw, and I do not think I will lack for company, as the people have already a heavy enough burden of taxes to carry without adding $100,000 more.

Yours very truly,

JAMES STEVENSON.

Obituary.

On Sunday a gentleman well and favorably known throughout the town and northern part of the county, in the person of Mr. Henry Voyecy, died at the residence of Mr. J. Howland, Edinburgh street.

Mr. Voyecy came to Canada from England some thirty-five years ago and first settled in Lakefield. Afterwards he moved to Minden and came to Peterborough from there a few weeks ago. He was 62 years of age. He had been ill for about six months with cancer.

His wife survives, and three sons and two daughters are also left to mourn his death, Henry, of Peterborough; John and Arthur, of Minden, Mary Anne, of Minden, and Mrs. J. Howland, Peterborough.

The funeral will take place this afternoon from the residence of his son-in-law, Edinburgh street, to Little Lake cemetery.

A Boy Injured.

Mr. H. Hamilton Accidentally Drives Over a Small Boy.

Last night as Mr. Milne Hamilton was driving, accompanied by a lady, up Water street, the horse became somewhat fractious, and he found some difficulty in restraining the nervous beast. Just as they arrived in front of the Postoffice, a small boy named Montgomery ran out in the street, and not noticing the approaching conveyance, or becoming paralyzed with fear, was knocked down and hurt about the head by one of the horse's front feet.

Mr. Hamilton succeeded in stopping the horse and jumping out, placed the boy in his buggy. He then drove the little fellow to a doctor, when the hurt was attended to.

ONE STEP MORE

Will be fatal to the sleep-walker. Will he draw back or will he take the final, fatal step? A great many people are in peril like the sleep-walker. They are diseased. The disease is progressing day by day. The time comes when one more step away from health is fatal. The man who has suffered from indigestion or gastric trouble goes some night to a dinner and returns home to find he has taken that last step from health which can never be taken back.

To neglect the cure of indigestion or some other form of stomach trouble is dangerous. It is also inexcusable. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It purifies the blood, stimulates the liver, cures biliousness, and eliminates bilious poisons from the system.

"The praise I would like to give your 'Golden Medical Discovery' I cannot utter in words or describe with pen," writes Jas B. Ambrose, Esq., of 1205½ Mifflin St., Huntingdon, Pa. "I was very much taken with what our physicians said was indigestion, I doctored with the best around here and found no relief. I wrote you, and you advised me to use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I took three bottles and I felt so good that I stopped—being cured. I have no symptoms of gastric trouble or indigestion now."

If you ask your dealer for "Golden Medical Discovery" because you have confidence in its cures, do not allow yourself to be switched off to a medicine claimed to be "just as good," but which you did not ask for and of which you know nothing.

Germany Insists On France Agreeing to a Conference

Germany Also Declines to Comply With the Request of France that She Outline the Programme of the Conference--The Situation Is Becoming More Serious.

Berlin, June 27.—The German answer to the French note on the subject of the proposed Moroccan conference was sent to Paris yesterday.

A high official near Chancellor von Buelow informs the Associated Press that the note, while perfectly amicable in form, insists upon a conference, and also declines to comply with France's request that Germany outline beforehand the program of the conference.

HIDE BEHIND MOROCCO.

The Chancellor takes the standpoint that the Moroccan question is an international affair, and that Germany, having accepted the Sultan's invitation to a conference on the subject, cannot rightly agree with any single power as to what can be discussed at the conference. Germany insists that France must agree to the conference before any arrangements are made respecting the subject matter of discussion. After France has agreed to this Germany is willing to listen to France's wishes.

DESIROUS OF PEACE.

The official's attention being called to the warlike talk in the foreign press, he replied:

"The fact that we are urging a conference is clear proof that we have no wish for war with France. When a nation wants war it cannot ask for a conference at the same time. If we wanted war with France we would have regretted Delcasse's fall, since he was the greatest obstacle to good relations with France. On the contrary, M. Delcasse's removal and Premier Rouvier's decision to retain the Foreign portfolio gave great satisfaction in German official circles, because we saw in these steps a guarantee of improved relations."

The Vag's Guide

Synopsis of Peterboro Gaol's History for Last Year

The 37th Annual Report of the Inspector of Prisons and Reformatories of the Province of Ontario for 1904, has just been distributed. A comparative table of the commitments to gaol during 1904 as compared with 1903, shows that in 1904, Peterborough commited 207 males, 20 females, a total of 227; for the year 1903, this town sent to gaol 128 males, 21 females, a total of 149. This shows an increase for last year of 79 males with a decrease of one female. In 1905 Peterborough committed, to gaol for drunkenness 27 persons, and in 1904, one. At the end of the year, the evening of September 30th 1904, there were 17 men and no women in Peterborough gaol.

Of the 227 persons committed to gaol in Peterborough during 1904, 58 were up for a second time, 24 for a third and 23 for more than three times, 28 were lunatics, and 36 were acquitted on trial and discharged. The offences for which prisoners in Peterborough gaol were sentenced during 1904, were; Assault 2, wounding and cutting 4, injuring property 1, drunk 9, obtaining money under false pretences 3, horse stealing 1, inmates of houses of ill-fame 13, receiving stolen goods 1, selling liquor without license 1, trespass 12, vagrancy 14. Of the 227 boarders in Castle Nonbitt in 1904, 69 were married, 130 single, 40 could not read or write, 115 temperate, 112 intemperate. In 1904, from Peterborough, 10 prisoners were sent to Central Prison, Toronto; four to the Mercer Institute, Toronto; three to Kingston Penitentiary. The cost of fuel, food and clothing in the town gaol for 1904 was $1108, salaries $1350, repairs $103, total expenditure $2561.

Average cost of each prisoner $11.28, average for Lindsay $28.16. Solarian, gaoler $650, turnkey $400, matron $150, gaol surgeon $150. There are 18 cells in our gaol, and the greatest number of prisoners at any one time during the year was 24 with seven as the lowest. The average cost per day for each prisoner was 21 cents; in Guelph it was $1.68, down to St. Thomas with a daily average of 11 cents.

Only Fifteen Now Remain

Toronto, June 28.—Of the 102 license inspectors in the province only 15 of the old guard who proved such a valuable asset to the late Government remain in office. The last issue of the Ontario Gazette contains notice of the appointments of eight inspectors and one provincial officer who replace some of those who have resigned or been dismissed. In the list are the Ottawa officials whose appointment was announced during the week namely "John C. Enright, to be Inspector, vice Thomas Smith and Alfred Coleman to be assistant inspectors, vice Frank M. Hannum.

BRITAIN AND FRANCE STAND TOGETHER

German Intrigue to Divide Them a Complete Failure

BOUND BY COMMON DANGER

The French Premier Striving Hard to Bring About a Peaceful Solution of the Moroccan Crisis

London, June 28.—The Paris correspondent of the Times refers to rumors, apparently of semi-official origin, that Germany is disposed to negotiate directly with the Sultan of Morocco, He proceeds;

"That looks as if it were intended to put a little more pressure on the French Government, though I am inclined to believe there will be some more negotiations on the subject of the proposed conference."

THEY STAND TOGETHER.

In any case, eventual direct negotiations between Germany and the Sultan will have to steer carefully clear of certain pet schemes of the Kaiser if the latter does not wish to fall foul of Great Britain, as well as France. One consequence of the browbeating of France that is now evident is the complete failure to divide Great Britain and France."

BOUND BY COMMON DANGER.

The correspondent points out that though France and Great Britain are not bound by any written treaty, they are bound by a common danger. He quotes French observers as saying that the object of the Kaiser's visit to Tangier was to test the bonds linking France and Great Britain and to see to what extent France's well-known desire for peace would make her accept ill-treatment from Germany.

PATIENCE RUNNING OUT.

One informant in Paris told the correspondent that the moment was not far distant when the limit would be reached. Everything possible short of the surrender of national dignity, to pacify Germany had been done. Premier Rouvier, with his subtle diplomacy, was the man to do it. Admitting that an agreement eventually would be reached. Germany would have gained little, but also had already lost the last vestige of sympathy that certain courtesies of the Kaiser had succeeded in arousing, while the good feeling for Great Britain had increased.

The Kaiser seems to have made no secret at all events, to one of his allies, Italy, as to what he will do in case of any extension of the French entente between Great Britain and France, which indicates clearly enough that Germany is acting on a preconceived plan, the execution of which may be deferred, but is not likely to be modified by the obstacle it meets.

A GERMAN SAVANT'S TALE.

Berlin, June 28.—President Roosevelt has interested himself in the matter of war between Germany and France by counselling Great Britain to moderate in support of the French attitude in the Moroccan negotiations, according to Professor Theodore Schiemann, of Berlin.

Professor Schiemann is the intimate advisor of the Kaiser and the Foreign Office on questions relating to world politics. He accompanied William to Tangier and ranks as one of the Government spokesmen on the pending crisis.

He asserts that Britain's incitement of the French constitutes the chief danger of war and that President Roosevelt has brought his personal influence to bear to dissuade Britain from a policy calculated to provoke the peaceably disposed French to offer Germany an intolerable affront. Professor Schiemann said;

"DIABOLICAL EFFORTS."

"The Moroccan question will cause Germany to go to war with France only if the controversy be made the pretext for offending Germany honor or dealing a blow to our international position. At the present moment the possibility of war lies exclusively in the diabolical efforts of the British press to urge the French Republic to assume a position that might bring hostilities within twenty four hours. The Kaiser and the German people are sincerely anxious for peace; Premier Rouvier and the French are similarly inclined.

"A FIENDISH DESIRE."

"Only the British thirst for German blood. They desire the crushing of our naval power and extermination of our growing prestige. These longings have filled them with a fiendish desire to exploit a Moroccan crisis for our undoing.

"We declare solemnly that is in attitude fraught with the direst consequences to European peace.

"France's shrewdest course would be unconditional acceptance of this conference. If she prefer to employ force in Morocco she will not only succeed in plunging the whole Mohammedan world into a holy war against Christianity, but will also almost inevitably offer a challenge to Germany which will leave us no alternative except war. We have no alliance with Morocco but the Kaiser's solemn proclamation at Tangier of the Sultan's independence imposes obligations no German thinks of evading. War from every standpoint would be suicidal for France."

AWFUL TO THINK OF.

"She is already filled with anxiety concerning Indo-China. This anxiety will become more acute after Russia has concluded peace with Japan. She alone would have to pay the cost of a British and French war against Germany, because the fatherland would take full retribution on French soil for its losses on sea. The result would be Britain's domination of Europe and the reduction of France to the position it occupied after Waterloo.

Minnows and Wheel

The Minnows Are Spilled and the Bait Comes in Handy

A prominent tonsorial artist, whose place of business is located on George street, a few days since, craving for an exchange of the perfume laden air of his shop to the fresh and balmy breezes sweeping down the Otonabee, decided to go fishing. By the expenditure of sundry small coins of the realm, our sporting barber secured possession of a large pail of minnows, with which he expected to lure many large sized bass. In his inside pocket rested a bottle of that style of bait that every fisherman considers essential to success of a fishing trip if not for the actual catching of fish.

Now the particular fishing spot our hero had in his mind's eye, is some distance from his shop, so how to get there with his pail of minnows, was the question. A bright idea illuminated his thought-box; a bicycle was just the thing!

Laden with his can of minnows and his other bait, our tonsorial friend mounts the fiery bike and trundles off. The stores and houses quickly sped by as he pumps the pedals on towards his anticipated game. Alas and alack! human contrivances, whilst under human complete control and observation, work well, but when the driver has his mind far away off on a fishing spot and, that bait in his coat pocket, the contrivance has not the intelligence to avoid the tricks of Fate. Our barber's wheel ran foul of a stone in his path and a spill of man, minnows and bait results. The barber says he is going to try

EVENTS THAT LED TO WAR

Story of its Cause and Beginning Interesting as Peace Negotiations Open

ADMIRAL ALEXIEFF WARNED

He Was Told to be Firm but to Avoid War—Japs not to Pass Parallel 38

St. Petersburg, June 28.—In view of the present negotiations looking to the conclusion of war between Russia and Japan a short history of events leading up to the war, prepared from the highest sources, is interesting and opportune;

Admiral Alexieff telegraphed to the Czar on December 24, 1904, from Port Arthur, informing his Majesty that the Japanese were preparing to establish a protectorate over the Korean government and heedless of any diplomatic representations by Russia. Probably only 15,000 or 20,000 troops would be landed, but the whole Japanese fleet and the rest of the army were ready for war, which, the admiral observed, constituted a grave danger for Russia.

Admiral Alexieff warned the Czar that the Japanese would forestall the Russians on the Yalu and the lands leading to the Eastern Chinese railway, which would ruin all Russia's plans and force her to centralize any eventual operations further to the north and leave Port Arthur to its fate. Such good fortune for Japan at the commencement of the campaign would cause a rising of all the elements hostile to Russia in Northern China, who, relying on the proximity of the Japanese army, would be a serious menace to the Russian railway. A Japanese occupation of Korea, however small, the numbers of the troops employed might be, would place Russia in a very bad strategic position, and would compel her, not with any desire of provoking war, but in self-defence, to take the necessary precautionary measures.

In view of this various considerations Admiral Alexieff suggested the mobilization of the far eastern districts, and, if possible, of the Siberian governments, the declaration of a state of siege in Manchuria for the purpose of effecting the concentration of the troops, the occupation of the mouth of the Yalu by advanced posts, the immediate dispatch of the fourth and seventeen Army corps to Irkutsk on a war footing, and preparations to mobilize further reinforcements. He also urged that a state of siege should be declared at Port Arthur and Vladivostock in order to facilitate the completion of the unfinished defences. All of these measures Admiral Alexieff described as absolutely imperative.

He also telegraphed to St. Petersburg announcing that 22 Japanese transports with troops and guns were ready to sail, Japan, he said, could easily send three or four divisions at a moment's notice.

As the result of these representations on December 28 the Czar commanded Admiral Alexeff to mobilize the far eastern districts, to declare a state of siege in Manchuria, at Port Arthur and at Vladivostock, and generally to prepare for war. The occupation of the mouths of the Yalu, however, was in the opinion of the Czasr, undesirable, and should be carried out only in the last resort.

On December 30, 1903, Admiral Abaza, president of the committee for eastern affairs, telegraphed to Admiral Alexeff, giving him an epitome of the Czar's views as expressed to him in numerous audiences. Admiral Abaza said that the Czar considered that every year of peace gained was of enormous importance to Russia. Although he must not yield. Admiral Alexeff should do his utmost to avoid war. His policy should be firm, but courteous in form and should ignore unimportant details. There must be no discussion about Manchuria either with Japan or with any other power. That was an affair between Russia and China. Russia was willing to take into consideration the commercial interests of Japan and other nations provided they were under the Russian aegis and there was no settlements. Russia would not regard a Japanese occupation of Korea as a "casus belli." On the contrary such an occupation would be very advantageous to Russia because it would convict Japan of all violation of international law.

On January 3, 1904, Admiral Alexieff reported to the Czar expressing the opinion that the negotiations then in progress could not result in any understanding owing to the insistently provocative tone of Japan, but tended more and more to increase the tension in the relations between Russia and Japan and would probably lead to a rupture. He therefore asked his majesty's opinion therefore asked his Majesty's opinion on the situation, dwelling on the advisability of studying the Korean question in all its bearings.

In view of the surprise of the Port Arthur garrison and ships by the Japanese on the night of January 26, February 8, 1904, the two following telegrams from the Czar to Admiral Alexieff are of special interest. The first, dated January 25, —February 7—reads; "Seeing that diplomatic relations with Japan have been broken off, you can prevent, if you consider it necessary, any Japanese descent on Korea." The next day his Majesty telegraphed; "It is desirable that the Japanese, not we, should begin hostilities. If they begin war against you, you should not prevent a descent on Southern Korea, or near Gensan, but if their fleet, with or without an invasion, passes the thirty-eighth parallel, you

THE DEFENSE OF INDIA

Railways in Afghanistan are Indispensable

OUTPOST OF THE EMPIRE

Russian Troops Massed Near the Frontier—British Army Officer Urges Construction of Railways For Conveyance of Troops and Supplies

London, June 28.—Colonel Mark Bell in an interview says that it is necessary for England to recognize that the defence of Afghanistan is the defence of India; that Afghanistan is India's outpost, of which Afghan Turkistan and the Herat provinces form the glacis, and that it is necessary to recognize that the defence of this glacis is the most important part of the defence of the main work—India. Continuing, Colonel Bell says;

"War must be preceded by preparations for war, and from the fact that this Government proposes to take no immediate steps to prepare the Afghanistan theater on war to India's advantage, we can only argue that they at least fail to appreciate the gravity of the defence. We know that on her side of the border Russia has between Samakhi and Ush, massed some 200,000 men with stores, including railway material, and that her depots are fortified. We also know that she has railways sufficient to mass and supply a much larger force on this line. There is nothing whatever to prevent her occupation of the glacis of India. The Afghans are altogether powerless to do so, and before we could come to their aid in any sufficient force, Russia would not only be in possession of the glacis of our fortress, with railway communication to her base, but would, as well, have seized the passes leading into it from Afghanistan and have forfeited them, their mouths and their exits; and Russia need not trust solely to pack animal transport as both Afghan Turkistan and the Herat province are favorable to railway construction. Ethnographical considerations also favor Russia. Unfortunately for India, the country that lies between the Indus and the Hindu Kush is not one that would be chosen by the railway engineer.

"In this sorry plight Afghanistan will call upon us to restore to her her lost provinces. Will the task be a possible one, even with half a million of men all told? Before we can attempt to do so with any chance of success we must construct railways to Kabul and Bamian, Kandahar and Seistan.

"Instead of waiting until Russia occupies our Indian glacis, it is an imperial duty to construct those lines necessary to its defense. That we should veto the construction by Russia of railways into Afghanistan is comprehensible, but that we should ourselves refrain from constructing those necessary to her safety as well as our own, and to the commercial development of both is incomprehensible. The policy of masterly inactivity, of allowing Afghanistan to stew in her own juice, will not answer in this twentieth century. Civilization cannot be checked by barbarism, and to attempt to stay her progress is to fight against a law of nature and to court failure."

Construction of C.P.R.'s New Line

New Institute By-Law Further Opinions

More Letters Strongly in Favor of the Proposed By-Law--Ex-Mayor Roger Thinks the Collegiate Should be Built as Asked by the Board.

(To the Editor of The Times.)

Dear Sir,—If Peterborough was a retrograde or a stagnant town there might be some ground for the pessimistic views expressed by Mr. Dumble regarding the outlay for a new Collegiate Institute, but considering that it has doubled its population by natural development in the last twenty years, that it gains speed as it goes and is now growing faster than ever and will probably double itself again in ten or twelve years this time, it would surely be the very height or folly to withhold our hands and deal with this matter in a timid and halting manner.

When the makers of Canada, in laying out this country originally, came to the spot where Peterborough now stands, before there was a tree cut, a furrow turned, or a house built, they saw the natural possibilities of the place and instead of laying it out in farm lots and concessions as they had done the surrounding country, they laid it out as a town site on generous, liberal lines. Are we, who have lived to see the realization in admittedly the most prosperous town in Ontario, already grown to twice its original dimensions, with Canada as yet only entering on the threshold of a great future to be the foremost in discrediting our town, and to build so that we may have reason to regret our own timidity before the foundations are settled.

There isn't a municipal building in Peterborough today that is equal to present requirements, nor a public building of any kind over ten years of age in which more room could not be utilized with advantage. Religious congregations are continually burdening themselves almost beyond this point of endurance in the effort to make reasonable provision for the future, and yet instead of overdoing it, it has seemed almost impossible to keep pace with the needs of an vigorous and healthy a community.

We have a School Board of as responsible and capable business men as we are ever likely to have; they have made it their business to study this matter more thoroughly than a private citizen can very well do, and they have come to an almost unanimous recommendation on the subject, and citizens will do well to give their recommendations the most careful consideration. Opposition there will always be, no matter what the scheme that is submitted. Building is costly, at the present time, no doubt, but on the other hand the building is required now, there is no prospect that building will be cheaper in the near future, and in any event people are better able to bear the expense in prosperous than in dull times. The building that was insufficient and unsuitable for Separate School purposes is equally so for Collegiate Institute or Public School purposes, and is not available in any case as the inducement held out to the Government to contribute and the bargain with them was that the four town lots, or two acres at the rear of the block, is to be left clear of buildings for drill and play ground purposes, which necessity involves the removal of the Separate School building. As additional accommodation is wanted for Public School as well as for Collegiate Institute purposes, every foot of space not now required for this latter can be advantageously used for the former purpose, until further extension becomes absolutely necessary, and thus the building can be made to pay its way from the beginning.

It will be our most conspicuous municipal building, it will stand alongside an imposing Government structure, it will represent Peterborough's own estimate of its own future, and we simply cannot afford to preserve any narrow or half hearted policy. It is a case in which it is an economy and not an extravagance to put our best foot foremost and do this thing handsomely for all it is worth.

Yours truly,
G. M. ROGER.

Mr. Pringle, of Supervision Committee Gives His Views

(To the Editor of The Times.)

Sir, — As there appears to be an impression among some people that Public schools are being sacrificed for the Collegiate Institute, permit me to give a few words of explanation.

The Supervision committee has, for some time, given considerable attention to the important question of raising the standard of work in our Public schools, as they are conscious that under present arrangements it is next to impossible to give the pupils the thorough grounding in general education so necessary afterwards, no matter what occupation, trade or profession may be engaged in. At a recent meeting of the Board, the committee recommended the centralization of the "Fourth Book classes as the best means to this end. In order to do this, it is necessary to have a suitable building, and as the present Collegiate Institute (which belongs to the Public schools) is well suited for the work, the committee recommended it being used for the purpose.

There are at present attending the Fourth Book classes some 200 pupils and by providing accommodation for these the congestion in the South Central would be relieved for some time, as well as providing a room for those attending the Monzies school, which will not, I understand, be available for school purposes after next year.

The advantages gained by centralizing the Fourth Book classes are readily apparent to anyone, the principal being:

1. The provision for uniform and more efficient instruction, by placing in charge of the classes teachers having special aptitude for particular subjects.

2. The enabling of pupils to receive systematic physical training—an important branch of education now almost entirely neglected in three classes.

3. The introduction of manual training and domestic science—subjects which must soon receive attention.

The committee also recommended that the First Form in the Collegiate Institute be free to town pupils, which would enable them to spend on an average two years in the Collegiate at little more than cost of attending the Public schools.

If this plan were adopted, Mr. Editor, I am satisfied that the general education of our boys and girls would be very greatly improved.

Thanking you for your valuable space.

WM. PRINGLE,
Chairman Supervision committee.

AUTO-LOOP KILLED HER

Mlle. Randel Died of Shock After the Twenty-ninth Performance

Paris, June 28.—The perils of "looping the loop" in a motor car were illustrated by some remarkable revelations made at the magisterial inquiry regarding Mlle. Randel, the young woman who died from shock recently after attempting the performance at the Casino de Paris. Before her first attempts to loop the loop in a motor car was made, experiments were tried with dummy figures in the car. They were dessitated in nearly every case. Then a pig was placed in the car, and sent around the circle. The animal, was so severely injured that it had to be slaughtered.

The first time Mlle. Randel looped the loop she fainted. She pluckily attempted it again, and again she fainted. A doctor told her that she was undertaking a highly dangerous performance, which would eventually kill her, by causing a tremendous rush of blood to the head and he predicted that she would not survive ten performances. Mlle Randel kept up her performances for some time in spite of the terrible strain on her nerves. But she died after the twenty-ninth. The managers of the house and the managers of the exhibit were prosecuted for allowing the performance.

THE CURSE OF HIS COUNTRY

In dismissing in disgrace Admiral Alexieff from his position as "viceroy of the far east" the Czar is apparently beginning to identify and sort out the scamps of the war. Alexieff is an excellent beginning. More than any other living man he is responsible not only for the war but for the unbroken series of Russian disasters. It was his false representations to the Emperor that plunged Russia into hostilities before she was ready, indeed before she knew that war was even imminent. From the vantage point of his headquarters at Port Arthur, Alexieff was entrusted with the diplomatic negotiations with Japan. Up to the firing of the first gun he insisted that war was impossible. His emperor believed him.

When Japan sent him the note which meant war he still declared that Japan was "bluffing." On the fated night of February 8, when his fleet was attacked and crippled by Admiral Togo in Port Arthur, Alexieff was giving a bal masque on shore to the garrison. St. Petersburg relying upon his assurances, had made no preparation for war. The Russian naval force on the Pacific, in theory superior to that of Japan, was ill-equipped and badly placed. The Russian army in Manchuria, estimated on paper to be between 300,000 and 400,000 men, is now known to have been less than 50,000 at the beginning of hostilities. The Siberian road through faulty construction was inadequate to carry the troops needed for the emergency. Alexieff permitted Japan, whose plans in the minutest detail had been maturing for ten years and focusing upon a single date, to secure an advantage which she has never lost and from which Russia has never rallied.

The colossal incompetence of this autocrat Alexieff has destroyed the Russian navy, sent hundreds of thousands of men to unmarked graves, lost millions of dollars in supplies and munitions and irreparably ruined the prestige of his Emperor and country. Retiring Alexieff is a good beginning. But it would be better if the Czar would go further and demand some atonement for the sins of this man, one of the world's great slaughterers.

HOSTAGE FOR NIAGARA FALLS SAFETY

An interesting compromise between sentiment and commercial aggressiveness for the preservation of Niagara Falls is suggested by Alton D. Adams in the June number of the Engineering Magazine. He proposed that on condition that no further attempts at utilizing the water power of the falls themselves will be made, private enterprise be permitted to utilize the power below the falls. In the five miles from the foot of the cataract to the lake the river falls more than 100 feet and is capable of developing a theoretical force of 2,000,000 horse power and if properly conserved an actual force of a million and a half horse power. By constructing six tunnels, three on each side of the river, varying from a quarter of a mile to three miles in length, Mr. Adams figures that 1,200,000 horse power could be developed and that by damming the river at Lewiston that 300,000 more could be obtained, making 1,500,000 in all.

The entire gorge below the falls would be virtually converted into a mill-pond and the impressiveness of the whirlpools and rapids would be utterly destroyed, but if strictly adhered to the plan would save the falls themselves. Cause for regret has been given by the encroachments already made on the mighty cataract and the prevention of further encroachments at which aggregations of capital already aim is a question in which the entire continent is interested. A part of the features of this natural wonder might be readily surrendered if it was perfectly certain that the chief feature of the scenic attraction would be preserved to us.

A Related Spring Poem

Remarkable Poetic Effusion by a Times' Reader

This great family journal received the following for publication, and even at the risk of breaking our press, we present it to our readers:

The spring it sprang a fearful leak from clouded dome supernal, and weather that should be divine might be declared infernal; entirely too much chilliness, nocturnal and diurnal, which prompted many citizens to take, for woes external, the ancient spring reviver of the old Canadian Colonel.

The mercury fell down the tube a point close to freezing, and spring herself might be excused for shivering and sneezing. The wind, a brisk northeaster, howled, the sky was dark and solemn, and chills chased one another up and down the spinal column.

Oh! hail, diphtherial mildness, hail and rain and snow—and blossom! Perhaps the spring has come and may be playing 'possum!

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

CHINESE TO RUN MILLS

Feature of Boycott on the United States

Vancouver, B. C., June 27. — The Canadian-Chinese Reform Association is promoting a scheme in connection with the proposed Chinese mercantile boycott of the United States by which it is proposed that several flour mills be operated in British Columbia by Chinese capital and Chinese cheap labor to supply flour to China.

Also that other manufactories be operated on the same lines.

The Canadian-Chinese Empire Reform Association, the British Columbia Chinese Merchants' Guild and the British Columbia Chinese Board of Trade met and indorsed the propaganda of the Canton and Shanghai merchants contemplating the United States boycott.

COFFIN FOR SICK WIFE

Hubby Bought It Before Her Death--Ends Life in Cell

Manistee, Mich., June 27. — While the wife of Herman Totch of Parkdale was sick in bed last week he drove here and bought a coffin for her. She died on Saturday, leaving six small children, motherless. Totch was arrested and jailed here, and was found hanging to the door of the cell, having used a towel to end his life. His children are left destitute.

Mrs. Totch died from puerperal convulsions. Totch's baby had died and he bought the coffin thinking his wife was also dead and he could bury both in one coffin. His wife was removed to the county hospital and died there.

HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS

Any even numbered section of Dominion lands in Manitoba or the North west Territories, excepting 8 and 26, which has not been homesteaded, or reserved to provide wood lots for settlers, or for other purposes, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres more or less.

ENTRY

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land to be taken is situate, or if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration Winnipeg or the local agent for the district in which the land is situate, receive authority for some one to make entry for him. A fee of $10 is charged for a homestead entry.

HOMESTEAD DUTIES

A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required by the provisions of the Dominion Lands Act, and the amendments thereto, to perform the conditions connected therewith, under one of the following plans:

[1] At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years. It is the practice of the Department to require a settler to bring 15 acres under cultivation, but if he prefers he may substitute stock; and 20 head of cattle, to be actually his own property, with buildings for their accommodation, will be accepted instead of the cultivation.

2] If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased), of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

[3] If a settler was entitled to and has obtained entry for a second homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by residence upon the first homestead, if the second homestead is in the vicinity of the first homestead.

[4] If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

The term "vicinity used above is meant to indicate the same township, or an adjoining or cornering township.

A settler who avails himself of the provisions of clauses [2] [3] or [4] must cultivate 30 acres of his homestead, or substitute 20 head of stock, with buildings for their accommodation, and have besides 80 acres substantially fenced.

The privilege of a second entry is restricted by law to those settlers only who completed the duties upon their first homesteads to entitle them to patent on or before the 2nd of June, 1889.

Every homesteader who fails to comply with the requirements of the homestead law is liable to have his entry cancelled and the land may again be thrown open for entry.

APPLICATION FOR PATENT

Should be made at the end of three years before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector. Before making application for patent the settler must give six months notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa of his intention to do so.

INFORMATION

Newly arrived immigrants will receive, at the Immigration Office in Winnipeg, or at any Dominion Lands Office in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories, information as to the lands that are open for entry, and from the officers in charge, free of expense, advice and assistance in securing lands to suit them. Full information respecting the land, timber, coal and mineral laws, as well as respecting Dominion Lands in the Railway Belt in British Columbia, may be obtained upon application to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, Manitoba, or to any of the Dominion Lands Agents in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories.

IF YOU WANT MONEY

Buy a block of stock of the Teregah-Crow Gold and Copper Company. This stock is selling at 18 cents a share. It will be paying a profit in one year of not less than 25 per cent. on capitalization, which will mean a value of the stock of $2.50 a share. It may be worth $5.00 in less than two years time. There are more than 100 mineral veins crossing this property. The lowest average of ores as far as developed is $54 a ton, which does not include numerous small bodies running from $100 to $1,000. The money to be raised in these sales of stock is to be put in hoisting plant, equip and rapidly develop the mine, which includes six mining claims and mill site; 125 acres. Where can you make so much money in so short a time? This is an opportunity that seldom occurs.

THREATENED WITH PARALYSIS.

Peter E. Summers, of Kalamazoo, Mich., relates his experience:

"I was troubled with Nervous Debility for many years. I lay it to indiscretion and excesses in early youth. I became very despondent and didn't care whether I worked or not. I imagined everybody who looked at me guessed my secret. Imaginative dreams at night weakened me—my back ached, bad pains in the back of my head, hands and feet were cold, tired in the morning, poor appetite, fingers were shaky, eyes blurred, hair loose, memory poor, etc. Numbness in the fingers set in and the doctor told me he feared paralysis. I took all kinds of medicines and tried many first-class physicians, wore an electric belt for three months, went to St. [illegible] without receiving little benefit. [illegible] at Mt. Clemens I was induced to consult Drs. Kennedy & Kergan, though I had lost all faith in doctors. Like a drowning man I commenced the New Method Treatment and it saved my life. The improvement was like magic. I could feel the vigor going through my nerves. I was cured mentally, physically and [illegible] I have sent them many patients and will continue to do so."

CURES GUARANTEED OR NO PAY.

RUSS MUTINIED DURING BATTLE

Russian Sailors Refused to Man Ships

FEW INTERESTING FACTS

Czar's Men Were Paralyzed With Fear Before Battle Began

Victoria, B.C., June 27.—Many tales of mutiny during the battle of the Sea of Japan on the part of the seamen of Russian ships are told with other incidents of the battle in Japanese newspapers received by the steamer Athenian to-day. Survivors state firing had not been long in progress before many of the men became so panic-stricken that they were unfit for anything like efficient service. Two gun crews on the Dmitri Donskoi, which had been torpedoed at night, mutinied when the presence of the enemy was suspected, and were only kept at their spiritless tasks under threats of being shot down. A petty officer of the Dmitri Donskoi said the attitude of many on that vessel under fire was cowardly in the extreme, and when the facts were matters of official record, many prisoners now in Japan would not seek to return to Russia at the end of the war.

JAPANESE PRAISED.

Survivors also praised the work of the Japanese torpedo craft which, though the Russians were diligent in the use of searchlights, daringly harried the Russians, and with cunning tactics did effective work, being responsible for the injuries resulting in the quick disposal next day of ships which escaped destruction by them. According to Japanese papers, the torpedo craft went into action resolved to wipe out a bad record made earlier in the war. Togo had made stringent comments on the failures of torpedo officers in the first attack at Port Arthur and at the attack on the battleship Sevastopol at Port Arthur. The officers were determined to achieve something to earn the admiral's commendation on this occasion or die. The small craft attached both night and day, upsetting theories of this branch of naval practice. One instance recorded of the deeds of the torpedo craft shows that one of the three torpedo vessels lost was disabled at a distance of four hundred yards from a Russian battleship and another torpedo craft darted in and took off her crew, while she was in a sinking condition without sustaining loss from the Russian fire.

ROJESTVENSKY'S CAPTURE.

The destroyer, Sazanami, which won such renown by her fight with two Russian destroyers off Port Arthur, when the vessels brushed sides as they fought, won further renown. It was she that found the Russian destroyer Byedovi at Ulleung and captured Rojestvensky and staff. The Byedovi fought desperately, but was finally forced to surrender. Commander Tsuneso has been given the Order of the Kite for his capture.

When captured Rojestvensky wore no tunic. He was in his shirt with his mangled arm, which hung useless at his side. He is resting at the Sasebo hospital. Near are the captain and vice-captain, of the Admiral Nakhimoff, who were picked up on driftwood by fishermen, with their clothes shredded and their faces burned with powder. Fishermen clothed and fed them and took them to Sasebo. Fishermen and villagers on the coast are burying large numbers of mangled dead, who have drifted ashore. Many of the bodies are badly burn by gun wounds, some terribly burned.

ISLAND VANISHING

Was Thrown up by a Volcano Last December

Kobe, June 28.—The Island of Nushime, which was thrown up by volcanic action three miles south of Two Islands, Southern Japan, last December, is now vanishing. The summit of the island is now only ten instead of 400 feet above the water. The island was two and three-quarter miles in circumference.

Our Local Police Did Well

It reflects great credit on the police force of Peterborough to compare the behaviour of Lemon Brothers Circus when here, with what transpired at several places in Quebec. In this Province, the gang of robbers and gamblers following the show, intimidated, with rifles and revolvers, several villages, shooting one man and trying to shoot others. Twenty-five soldiers and a squad of police from Quebec City arrested a number of the desperadoes at Grand Mere. Here, after the Chief and members of the local police warned the officials they had to behave, nothing as bad even as a game of "Old Maid" or "Patience" was even heard of at the grounds whilst the show was in town.

Miss May Carter, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and wore dove colored crepe de chine, and carried pink roses. Mr. Geo. Hounsell acted as groomsman.

A WIDOW'S LUCK

Quit the Thing That Was Slowly Killing Her.

"I suffered for many years chiefly from trouble with my heart with severe nervous headaches and neuralgia; but although incapacitated at times for my house work, I did not realize the gravity of my condition till I was rejected for life insurance, because, the examining physician said, my heart was so bad he could not pass me. This distressed me very much, as I was a widow and had a child dependant upon me. It was to protect her future that I wanted to insure my life.

"Fortunately for me, I happened to read an advertisement containing a testimonial from a man who had been affected in the same way that I was with heart trouble, and who was cured by leaving off Coffee and using Postum Food Coffee. I grasped at the hope this held out, and made the change at once.

"My health began to improve immediately. The headaches and neuralgia disappeared, I gained in flesh, and my appetite came back to me at once. Greatest of all, my heart was strengthened from the beginning, and soon all the distressing symptoms passed away. No more waking up in the night with my heart trying to fly out of my mouth! Then I again made application for life insurance, and had no trouble in passing the medical examination.

"It was seven years ago that I began to use Postum Food Coffee, and I am using it still, and shall continue to do so, as I find in it a guarantee of good health."

MRS. MORROW'S RECITAL

A GRAND VOCAL AND INSTRUMENTAL PROGRAM GIVEN

Mr. David Ross, English Concert Baritone Adds Much to the Enjoyment of the Evening

The concert given in the opera house last evening by the pupils and orchestra of Mrs. W. J. Morrow, assisted by Mr. David Ross, English concert baritone, was in every respect a success, and reflects great credit on those who took part. Mrs Morrow has every reason to feel gratified with the result of last night's entertainment. Her pupils without exception acquitted themselves creditably, and were thoroughly appreciated by the audience.

The opening number "The Three Knights" (Nelson), by the choral class in Grecian costume, was well executed and pleased, and was followed by a solo, "Spring Tide" (Muir), by Miss A. Maloney, which was well rendered.

Mr. J. M. Weir then rendered "They All Love Jack" (Adams), in a masterly manner, after which Miss Della King sang sweetly "So Robin Sang" (Lane).

A piano duet, "Tarantella" (Beaumont), was the next number, and was given by Mrs. W. J. Morrow at first piano and Miss Alma Levasaur at second. This number evoked much enthusiasm and applause. Both performers were here presented with bouquets.

A vocal solo, "Von Dir" (Kummer), by Miss K. Wilson, with flute obligato by Mr. J. Butcher, was next enjoyed, after which Mr. Vernon Morphet sang "The Reaper Song" (Lawrence), in his immitable style.

Mr. H. Morphet, tenor, and Mr. A. Elliott, bass added much to the pleasure of the evening by their rendition of a duet entitled "Battle Eve" (Bonheur).

Mrs. Cullendar, of Norwood, then sang "The Daisy" (Arditi), after which Miss Myrtle Kline gave a well executed piano solo.

Mr. David Ross, English concert baritone, delighted the audience with a double number, (a) "To Anthea" (Hatton). (b) "Love Song" (Long). For an encore he gave a comic song.

The second part of the program was opened by the choral class singing "Minuet" (Patty Stair), after which Mr. J. King sang "Calm as Night" (Bohm).

Miss Myrtle Kline was next heard in a much appreciated vocal number entitled "Non Vergin Vezzosa" (Bellini). Miss V. Hallahan sang "Staccato Polka" very sweetly, and Mr. J. H. Scriver effectively gave "The Veteran's Song" (Adams), and was heartily applauded, and responded to an encore. Miss Lilian Bell's vocal solo, "Le Parlate d'amor" (Gounod) was much enjoyed, after which a piano duet entitled "Marche Triomphale" (Goria) by Mrs. Morrow and Miss Myrtle Kline, was listened to with much pleasure. Miss M. Bryce sang with good effect "Una Voceo Poco Fa" (Rossini), and Mr. David Ross again delighted the audience by his rendition of "Why do the Nations" from Handel's "Messiah." A duet by Messrs. Morphet and Elliott was well received. The closing number, "Hallelujah" (Handel), was given by the choral class. The National Anthem brought this delightful musical evening to a close.

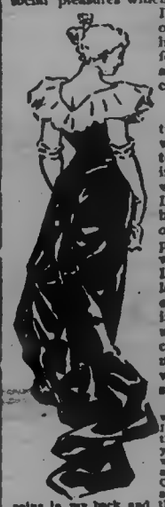
The Price of Pleasure.

It is hard for a lovely woman to forego the pleasures of the life which she was created to enjoy and adorn. She may have to be busy all day in office or in store, yet she cannot deny herself the social pleasures which are offered her.



But the fatigue is often too great for her, and she suffers from headache and backache as a consequence of over-exertion.

Women who are tired and worn out will find a perfect tonic and nervine in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It cures headache, backache and the other aches and pains to which women are subject. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

"I am so pleased with your instructions, I hardly know what thanks to give you for your kind favors," writes Mrs Mile Bryant, of Lola, Thomas Co., Ga. "I suffered so much with great pains in my back and the lower part of my stomach and palpitation of the heart, that at times I could hardly lie down. Could hardly get up in the morning, but after using three bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and two vials of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, I am like a new woman."

Sick women, especially those suffering from diseases of long standing, are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is held as strictly private and secredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Police Court

OFFICIALS
Chief of Police, G. L. Reed
Magistrate, D. W. Dunlop

Yesterday the Weary Willies and other usual spectators at police court trials were promptly on hand to hear such trials as might be brought on the tapis. After waiting anxiously for nearly an hour, fidgeting and lovingly feeling for their long-cooled pipes, they filed out one by one to resume their labors of holding up telephone poles or brick walls. At last his Worship showed up, and the one trial on the docket was held before empty benches. William Reilly, looking weary and worn after a night spent in the Hotel Dea Cops, paid $2 for the privilege of being drunk and disorderly on George street, Monday night.

The Lindsay Post says, Two years ago last March an old man named A. A. Taggart, of Peterborough, spent some time in Lindsay, and got into trouble with the medical profession by prescribing without a license. He was summoned to appear before the magistrate, but skipped out and went to the States, where he remained until a few days ago, when he returned to his native town, Peterborough. A warrant awaited him, he was arrested, and on Thursday, Chief Nevilson went to the Ottonabee town and secured his prisoner. Yesterday he appeared before Magistrate Jackson and was fined $25 and costs, which he paid forthwith.

The Engineering Magazine

The Engineering Magazine for July opens and closes with articles of peculiar importance and interest. The former, by Alex. Del Mar, the international authority on the production of the precious metals, predicts in almost overwhelming future for the gold dredge as a factor in the world's output. Two million dollars a day is his conservative estimate of the recovery, within a period of ten years. He indicates the sources of this incredible store of gold, and describes the methods of its extraction, in which he is aided by many illustrations of the new machines at work. The second article referred to is by Professor Elihu Thomson, and is an account of his personal recollections of the birth of the electrical industry, and the pioneer work in the fields of lighting, power, and traction, most entertainingly told.

Mr. W. Pollard Digby presents a graphic study of the movement of engineering exports in the leading trade areas in the world, showing the relative progress made by Great Britain, Germany, and the United States in gaining control of these markets. Mr. C. R. King has an illustrated account of a large locomotive-building works in France. Mr. Neilson concludes a review of condensing apparatus, with a great number of engravings, and three other papers deal with special problems of shop management or mechanical practice. This number carries the usual full review and index of the Engineering Press.

Last Guns Fired Before To-day's Vote

Final Correspondence Concerning To-day's Vote on Collegiate Institute By-law, Two Letter for, One Against, and Two Neutral.

(To the Editor of The Times.)

Sir,—If you will kindly allow me a few lines of your valuable space I would like to suggest to the electorate in a most respectful way, that in connection with the Institute vote to-day there is a principle at stake almost as important as the result of the vote. In the past, hundreds of Peterborough electors have refrained from voting on such matters as this, who will turn out and move heaven and earth to see that Tom, Dick or Harry sits for one year in an aldermanic chair.

Every man in Peterborough, who is qualified to vote on the by-law to be submitted to-day, should turn out and exercise his right of franchise. The subject is one that concerns the educational status of our town and the opinion strangers will form of our intelligence in school legislation on the one hand, whilst on the reverse side looms up a vastly increased amount added to the town's bonded indebtedness for many years to come.

The responsibility resting on the shoulders of those possessing the right to vote to-day is too heavy for them to conscientiously shirk or refrain from voting. The papers of the town have all published lengthy correspondence giving diametrically opposed arguments on the subject; good arguments have appeared for either side of the question by writers firmly believing in the right and justice of their opinions.

By this time every man who can vote to-day has had ample opportunity to form an intelligent opinion as to how he shall mark his ballot, and should let nothing prevent him doing his duty to the community on so important a matter. There are those who, very plausibly, argue that it is false economy to erect a building that, by the town's inevitable growth, will in 15 or 20 years be too small to fill the requirements of its demands in the future; again, with good logic, others fear to trust the sum asked for in the hands of our present Board of Education, and express grave doubts as to the wisdom of adding so vast a sum to the town's present debt, when the inevitable demands of our rapid increase in population, will necessitate large expenditures for other public works. There is a very small minority of our citizens opposed to the erection of a Collegiate Institute building at all, but they form only an insignificant handful.

Another view of the matter is taken by still others of our citizens, who think the Murray street school, by an exchange of lots with the Government, could be made to fulfill all present requirements until such times as building operations are more reasonable in cost.

Whatever may be the individual opinion of each qualified voter to-day, he should turn out and vote according to his individual judgment, and not stand for coercion by advocates of either side of the question.

I remain,
Yours truly,
JOHN T. FOWLER.

(To the Editor of The Times.)

Sir,—I have, as a citizen and ratepayer, followed somewhat closely the arguments for and against the voting of an additional $60,000 asked for by the School Board to give them sufficient funds to proceed with the erection of new Collegiate Buildings. That a new Institute is a necessity and an immediate necessity appears to be generally admitted. The only matter in which difference of opinion exists, is the amount proposed to be spent. Nor do we hear any person seriously questioning the ability of the School Board to expend the money voted to the best advantage and giving the citizens value for their money. The point of difference appears to be the amount asked for, and the somewhat contradictory view that the whole amount was not asked for in the beginning. The error in not asking for the larger sum at first is not a serious one, and would point to look of material for argument. It in no way affects the vital point that the added sum is required to give us an Institute that is in keeping with our progressive and growing city.

Comparisons are always useful in arriving at a decision—Several Ontario towns of less population (and we do not feel like admitting that they have more enterprise) have erected new school buildings costing a similar amount to that proposed to be spent here—They must either be very extravagant or we very penurious if we fail to endorse the action of our School Board.

Another comparison which is legitimate argument—Some three or four of our religious denominations each have property in town totalling more than the amount asked for for Institute Buildings for the entire community. If three each of these several denominations voluntarily spend cash sums on their public places of worship—cash for only a section of the people—surely the amount is not too large to ask the entire community for these public buildings, which are for the use of all.

Once more comparison—The town of Calgary (4,000 to 7,000 population) in this summer building seven churches, each costing from $30,000 to $60,000, and also putting up a public school costing $100,000. This place is spoken of as a progressive go-ahead town. A place that has faith in its future, as I believe the majority of the ratepayers of Peterborough have. The suggestion to put up a cheaper building and add to it, would be most doubtful economy. To build for say the next five years with no thought of the requirement of ten years hence would certainly be most unwise.

In conclusion I shall vote for the by-law because I believe our educational interests are vitally important—because the age—the city and conditions demand the best we can give our children educationally.

A. W. CRESSMAN.

(To the Editor of The Times.)

Sir,—In expressing my decision against the by-law to be submitted to-day, I am actuated not by any desire to limit the educational privileges and facilities of our children, nor by any idea that our present School Board is incompetent or unfit to be trusted with the handling of so large a sum of the people's money, but simply because I consider that this town is bound to go ahead and grow. This almost certain growth means that we will have to spend tens of thousands of dollars on improvements that such increase will incur. We will have to provide the money to meet these coming expenses, and if we rush blindly into debt now, where is the money to come from to pay them. Peterborough's public debt is now a heavy one, our present taxes are heavy enough now, as every taxpayer knows to his cost. There is a limit to what the taxpayer can or will stand, and should this by-law carry to-day, the amount added to the taxes will bring us pretty near the limit of our purses.

This will leave us in the position of having to forego many needed improvements that every citizen would enjoy for the privilege and at the cost of a large half-empty building, that is perhaps beautiful architecturally outside and extravagantly fitted inside, but which is only of use to less than 150 of our upper class children and a few children sent in from the country, and whose parents do not pay one cent of the cost of this proposed palace. I do not blame the School Board for wanting this by-law passed. They asked for and got $50,000 with which to erect an institute, but, with strange lack of business method, they started to make their suit before counting the number of yards in their cloth. Now they are in the hole and want the public to help them out, at the public's expense for 30 years to come. Had they gone into details of the matter in the first place and found out where they were at in this building, people would possibly have compromised and given them a few thousand dollars more so as to get a building that is for educational purposes, and not a white elephant for which the taxpayers will every year pay to see. I am of the opinion, and if the by-law carries, time will prove my prophecy correct, that after $100,000 has been spent, the Board will come back at the public for perhaps $25,000 more to complete the building.

WM. SNOWDEN.

(To the Editor of The Times.)

Sir,—Mr. Dumble, in his last letter, claims that his figures as at first given are correct. How does he explain his first statement that the county pupils pay $15 a year when they actually pay $25? How does he explain his statement that the ceilings of the proposed Collegiate Institute are to be seventeen feet, when the proposal is to make them sixteen feet from floor to floor or about fifteen feet clear?

Where did he learn that the average attendance during the year just closed was 221? It was much higher; as many as 280 were in attendance during several months, and the total attendance is what must be provided for. Again he says that the School Board propose to build on one acre, consisting of one lot from the Central Park and one lot from the Separate School grounds. The School Board have one lot from the Central Park and three lots from the Separate School grounds, just the same, in fact, as the Government have for the Armouries, and by agreement the students of the Institute will have the use of all the grounds.

I hope that Mr. Dumble will give this statement of facts his careful consideration and act accordingly—in other word vote for the bylaw. "The said salvation has been found Between the saddle and the ground."

Respectfully yours,
W. H. HILL.

(To the Editor of The Times.)

Sir,—Many letters have appeared pro and con in reference to the by-law to be voted on today, and as one who intends to vote against the bylaw I may mention a few reasons for doing so, which other writers have not noticed. In the first place the Board of Education led the people to believe that they intended to buy a school site at $3,000 instead of $10,000 which they paid. This financial blunder may lead the citizens to think that our Board of Education is either reckless or incompetent. The voters today can draw their own conclusions. The second blunder of the Board is the situation they have chosen. The Collegiate Institute will be in close proximity to a military barrack or armoury. In no other place in the civilized world can be found an institute for the education of young ladies under the shadow of a military barracks. Such an impropriety might occur in Timbuctoo or in Central Africa.

W. O. W. In Session

Mr. C. C. Hodgins, Head Consul Commander, and Other Leading Officers Present

The Canadian Order of Woodmen of the World, have reason to be proud of their success of last year, both financially, and as regards membership.

Their Executive were in session at the Oriental Hotel for transacting business for their order.

Those are present; C. C. Hodgins, M.P.P., Lucan, Head Consul Commander; Deacon J. B. Hoover, of Clinton, Chairman of the Board of Head Managers; L. H. Taylor, Brantford, Head Manager; J. A. Rampin, Toronto, Head Manager; D. Chapman, Lindsay, Head Advisor; R. M. Blackmore, St. Thomas, Head Escort; Jr. Saunders, London, Head Watchman; W. S. Harrison, M.D., Toronto, Head Physician; Dr. W. D. Wiley, Dresden, Head Secretary; W. C. Fitzgerald, London, Head Clerk.

The most important item of Tuesday's business was reading and considering of the head clerk's report. This was most encouraging and showed, for the past half year, that while the assessments up excess of losses for 1905 to June 23rd amount to $20,991, for the whole of last year the excess was $19,948. The probable excess for this year is placed at $40,000.

We have added this year up to date 980 new members, an increase of 199 over 1904 for the same period.

Our deaths have been 26 in number amounting to $29,500, or $5,000 less for the same period last year.

Our death rate so far is less than 1 1-2. The death rate for last year was 6.66.

We have 409 ladies in the order.

We have organized 13 new camps and four camps have been disbanded. We have also organized four new circles.

The financial statement shows that for death claims $31,559.55 have been paid, $6,928.65 has been invested, and the balance on hand amounts to $20,511.24; the total net balance of the order now amounts to $146,337.22.

Yesterday the members of the executive took in this trip to Stony Lake with the local Woodmen. Messrs. L. H. Taylor, J. B. Hoover, and C. C. Hodgins are accompanied by their wives.

Turning Officer.

MAN TO LIVE ALWAYS

Midway Biologist Believes Science Will Find Way to Ward off Death

LIFE REACTION IS FOUND

Dr. Matthews Says in an Article That Breathing Process is Key to Discovery.

Chicago, June 29.—Man will live forever on earth without fear of death, except by accident, if modern science is successful in experiments now taking shape in the great scientific laboratories, according to Dr. Albert P. Mathews, professor of physiological chemistry at the university of Chicago. The immortality of the body depends simply on the discovery on a diet which will keep intact the fundamental principle of the human cell, and it is probable that this will be found, Dr. Mathews believes.

Professor Mathews, who has been conducting remarkable experiments in regard to the artificial formation of life and the restoration of life by artifical means, announced his views in an article on "What Is Death?" in the current number of this World to-day. His view is that death is caused primarily by the cessation of respiration, which may be kept up indefinitely if the proper relation between food and the fundamental cell substance is found.

FINDS LIFE REACTION.

Dr. Matthews has discovered that the breathing process causes the same reaction as that produced by alcohol on the substance "benzophenone" in the sunlight. The alcohol in this experiment decomposes, and the substances formed are sugar, amides, acids, proteids and other components of the human cell.

The probability of a correct diet keeping up this "life reaction" is commented upon by Dr. Matthews as follows; "Now, this reaction under perfect conditions should continue indefinitely, and so render the human body immortal. Unfortunately, however, it does not so continue. It is the keen desire of all to find out why it does not continue and to change conditions so that it will continue as long as possible.

"The chief causes of its cessation may be divided into obviously extrinsic and apparently intrinsic causes. The obvious external causes are the ordinary causes of death—accidents, assaults and taking of poison, the action of parasites and disease germs these causes of death are negatively easily removed. They will be removed for the most part in the future. There will remain apparently intrinsic causes of death, improper feeding and incomplete excretion.

CHEMISTRY AS THE KEY.

"As yet we are not familiar enough with the chemical processes going on in the different tissues. We do not know exactly what they need for food as in what amount. Our eating is entirely empirical. Until we know exactly what the different tissues need we must continue as at present to give one tissue too much, too little or not quite the right food. The result is that in this tissue the fundamental reaction ultimately ceases. This incidentally ruins the rest of our body. A true science of dieties is, however, now being formed."

As to the possibility of discovering the chemical nature of the "life substance" in the cell, Dr. Mathews says, "The endeavor is now being made in many laboratories to discover what the substance is which thus acts on water and carries on the respiration in the cell. When that is known I feel confident that we can speak much more fully on the subject of life and death."

MOTHER SLAYS FOUR CHILDREN

Finishes by Probably Fatally Wounding Herself

Grand Lake, Colo., June 29.—While temporarily insane, Mrs. Gregg, wife of Watt C. Gregg, this morning shot and killed her four children, Josie, aged 8; Ralph, 5; Harold, 3, and the baby, six months old. Mr. Gregg heard the shots and rushed to his home, where he found his wife lying across the doorstep with a ghastly wound in her side. Inside the room was his oldest boy, dead in a chair, while the other children lay on the floor.

At a late hour last night, Mrs. Gregg was in a critical condition, and it is doubtful if she will live until morning. An inquest will be held to-morrow.

Mrs. Gregg had showed signs of mental aberration, but at no time had her condition caused alarm. The husband and father is prostrated.

Russian Battleship Crew Have Mutinied

Murdered Their Officers and Threaten to Bombard Odessa -- Conditions in Lodz Are Unchanged.

Odessa, June 29.—The crew of a battleship in the Roads have mutinied and murdered their officers. It is reported that the mutineers are threatening to bombard the town. All the work of the port has been stopped.

MORE DETAILS.

Washington, June 29. — Thomas Heenan, American Consul at Odessa, today cabled the State Department in substance as follows: The Russian warship Knias Potemkin and one torpedo boat arrived yesterday evening. All officers murdered at sea and bodies thrown overboard. Men threaten to bombard the town if interfered with. The situation is precarious. The Black Sea fleet is expected today.

Hatton's Brave Act

Royal Humane Society Has a Case in Peterborough Worth Investigation

One of those brave deeds that earn the title of "Hero" for not only strong, brave men but for equally plucky little boys, was enacted near the C.P.R. bridge last Saturday. Several boys, inspired by that latent love of adventure and risk that characterizes the average small boy, had taken advantage of a passing drive of logs, to use the long boom timbers floating by as a means of support and ferriage. One of them had struck the point of a pike pole too far and firmly into a passing timber and unable to pull it loose, and hanging on to it too long, was dragged into the water. The current here is swift and the eddying waters make this one of the most dangerous spots in this river for even a strong swimmer.

The boy would, to a certainty, have been drowned, had it not been for the plucky act of little Edwin Hatton, the twelve year old son of Mr. G. W. Hatton, who, dressed as he had come from home, plunged in and saved the half-drowned lad, just as he was going down the last time. The attention of the Royal Humane Society should be drawn to this brave act, and doubtless a well-merited recognition in the form of a medal would be sent to young Hatton.

I. O. O. F. Funeral

Remains of Late Mr. G. McBurney Sepultured by His Brethren of the Three Links

Yesterday afternoon, surrounded by sorrowing brethren of I. O. O. F. Lodges, who assisted in the touching burial ceremony peculiar to this Order, the remains of the late Mr. George McBurney, were laid to rest in the Little Lake cemetery. Rev. Dr. Crothers, of George street Methodist church, conducted the service.

Br. J. F. Leader, P.G., of Prospect Lodge, Toronto, and W. J. McCormack, Grand Treasurer, of Toronto, came down to attend the funeral.

The pall bearers were Bros. A. J. Johnston, W. J. Green, Wm. Hattisby, William Cowie, J. Brownlee and Wm. Hill.

The floral tributes included a wreath from the Peterborough Old Boys' Association, an anchor from the children of the deceased, a wreath from Peterborough Lodge, I.O.O.F., and a pillow from Mrs McBurney.

Mine Owner Here

Mr. T. H. Crowley Who Has Secured Rich Mining Property Now in Town

"Mr. T. H. Crowley, of Steelton, Ont., is at the King Edward Hotel, and will leave today for Peterborough. Mr. Crowley is well known in mining circles, and has just returned from the Rainy River District, where he discovered one of the richest mineral countries in Canada. He has located a copper and nickel mine which runs $30 to the ton, and intends to form a syndicate to work the mine. The mine is situated in the Rainy River District, north of Fort Frances, and in addition to copper and nickel, contains gold, silver, galena, iron and other minerals. An expert geologist has been engaged, and is now examining the land. Millions of tons of copper are in sight, declares Mr. Crowley, and he intends to dispose of the shares in the syndicate to persons of limited capital. While in Peterborough his business will be conducted here by Col. Hamilton.

Attack Through Belgium

London, June 29.—The Brussels correspondent of the Daily Mail says that France, fearing a sudden German attack through Belgium, has warned the Belgian Minister in Paris of the necessity for making effective the fortifications along the river Meuse and at Antwerp.

Japanese Objective Point is Vladivostok

Vladivostok, June 28. — Japanese warships, believed to be torpedo boats, were seen on the horizon today.

Paris, June 28.—Baron and Baroness Rosen sailed today from Cherbourg for New York on the steamer Kaiser Wilhelm II.

RUSSIANS GAVE GROUND.

Tokio, June 28.—The War Department has given out the following telegram.

"The enemy, some five companies strong, with 6 guns, attacked our troops in the vicinity of Changchiatien, 18 miles northwest of Quanping, and were repulsed on June 24. Our cavalry occupied Kuyong, 10 miles north of Kyongsyong, in Northern Korea, June 26."

AN AMERICAN BONAPARTE

A GRAND NEPHEW OF THE GREAT EMPEROR

In Roosevelt's Cabinet--May Some Day Become Emperor of France

New York, June 29.—It will be interesting to note the significance attached in Paris and elsewhere in Europe to Mr. Roosevelt's selection of a Bonaparte for the office of Secretary of the Navy. It is well known that Charles Jerome Bonaparte is the grandson of the great Napoleon's youngest brother, Jerome Bonaparte King of Westphalia, by the latter's first marriage to Miss Elizabeth Patterson of Baltimore, a marriage the validity of which has been firmly upheld by the Vatican, but which was annulled by a civil tribunal in France, out of deference to the Emperor's demand. For his second wife King Jerome married a daughter of the King of Wurtemberg, and their son, "Plon-Plon," married the Princess Clotilde, a daughter of Victor Emmanuel. If the latter's two sons, Prince Victor and Prince Louis, were to die without descendants, the American Bonaparte would become the representative of the Napoleonic dynasty, their relationship to the family having been recognized under the Second Empire. Their claim undoubtedly would be preferred by most Bonapartists to that of the descendants of Napoleon's eldest brother, Lucien, who have been formally barred from the succession. It is evident that in the eyes of French Republicans an American Bonaparte would be more acceptable than any other imperialist candidate, and now that Mr. Charles J. Bonaparte has been made Secretary of the Navy they are certain to hear a great deal about him. For an American citizen to become a French Emperor would be no more surprising than it is that a French citizen should have become King of Sweden, and that his descendants should have kept the throne in their family.

A Business Divorce

Mr. Rountree Determines That the License Regulations be Complied With in His Store

Mr. Arthur Rountree, who recently purchased the fine grocery business at 304 George street, once operated by Messrs. E. Brown & Co., yesterday finished the separation, as now required by law, of his grocery and liquor departments. This store from its unusual depth, was admirably adapted to making a sokeroom for the liquor branch at the rear, with entrance a few feet from Hunter street. Mr. Rountree in making this separations, has fully complied with both the spirit and letter of the license laws, there being no connection by door, passage, stairway or cellar between the two branches of his business. So determined was he to comply with all formalities, that he had the cellar entrance, which originally was located in the present liquor store, floored over.

Ladies entering the grocery department now, need have no hesitancy as sometimes exists in the dual branches of grocery and liquor business. The two branches are as thoroughly separated as though a mile apart.

14th Battery Gone

Our Local Artillerists Are Now in Camp at Kingston

The Peterborough contingent of the 14th Field Battery, under command of Lieutenant Mulholland, Campbellford, Tuesday morning entrained for camp. Our boys met their comrades in armes of the Battery at Cobourg, en route, when 23 men and 18 horses strong they went on to Kingston.

The Battery has this year been reduced from a six to a four-gun strength, owing to the establishment of the new battery. For this reason several of the local officers, including Captain W. C. Ashburnham and Lieutenants Mulholland and Colville, of Campbellford, will not accompany them to camp. These officers, while still on the strength are not on the training establishment. The reduction in strength will be from the 125 men and 100 horses of last year to 102 men and 75 horses this year.

Lieut. Mulholland returned Tuesday evening to Campbellford.

The Battery which is up to fighting strength, will remain ten days in camp, and is in command of Lieut.-Col. N. F. McNaghten.

Mrs. Morrow's Recital

A Brilliant Affair--Good Talent--Good Weather--A Comparatively Small Attendance

(To the Editor of The Times.)

Dear Sir,—It must be rather discouraging to a woman of Mrs. Morrow's talent and energy to go to the expense and trouble—a trouble which meant days of hard work for her and her pupils, to produce such an excellent entertainment as she presented on Tuesday evening, and have her efforts appreciated by a mere handful of our citizens.

'Tis true there may be very few people in Peterborough who can appreciate good music and cannot distinguish the air of Yankee Doodle from God Save the King, but still one would think they would at least patronize entertainments that are good, and possibly in time they might be able to appreciate something of the beautiful—something of the inspiring in music. There is nothing in the world so refined and inspiring as the influences of good music, and there is no one in the Province more capable of presenting a good musical entertainment than Mrs. Morrow. But her efforts in Peterborough must have reminded her of the words of the poet, "Full many a flower is born to blush unseen and waste its fragrance on the desert air."

After the recital on Tuesday evening Mrs. Morrow entertained her pupils and a few friends at the T.A.S. Rooms, where there were some short addresses made.

Mr. David Ross, the great baritone from Toronto, said he had attended a great many recitals this year in various cities in the Province, including Toronto, and he had heard none that excelled Mrs. Morrow's, and few that had equalled it.

Mr. George A. Sheris, of New York, said he had heard numerous. After the recital on Tuesday celebrated artists were presented, and he was simply surprised and delighted with the cultivation of the talent that Mrs. Morrow presented.

As a citizen I regret the disregard the citizens of Peterborough have for good music.

ONE WHO LOVES MUSIC.

ATHLETIC WORLD

BY OUR SPORTING EDITOR.

The Peterborough Turf Club are leaving nothing undone to make not only the local end, but the Eastern Ontario Turf Club's circuit in general a success. They yesterday completed arrangements with the G.T.R. whereby a special train will leave Port Hope on July 1st at 10 p.m. This will allow Peterborough and intermediate visitors to the Port Hope races to wait for the completion of their fine program; otherwise they would have had to cut out about half the races to leave for home by the regular 4.15 train. It is expected that quite a number of our local sports will take in these races, now that a more accommodating train time has been fixed on. Such enterprise is deserving of support when our own races are pulled off on July 12.

Good arrangements have been concluded for cheap fares from Lindsay, Belleville, Port Hope, Cobourg, Campbellford and other towns to Peterborough, for our own races on July 12th and 13th.

Things are looking brighter every day for the best races that Peterborough has ever held, on July 12th and 13th. Local horsemen are taking more interest than they ever exhibited before, and enquiries are now pouring in from horsemen and sporting men all over the Dominion, regarding our races next month.

On Tuesday afternoon there was a work out that was as good as most races, on the track, which is now in great trim. The following speedy ones were put together, Minnie Keewick, Miss Paisley, Dan Flanister, Jim X, and Dunnan's chestnut trotter, who stepped miles round the track at 2.27. In the last of fourheats between Miss Paisley and Dan Flanister, just after the rain, they worked out the mile in 2.3, which for going in fresh mud was pretty speedy moving; the heat was none and none, and a moving picture camera could not have shown the winner.

Will Do Away With Card System

Vancouver, B.C., June 29. — Unions are sending out notices that in spite of the unprecedented activity in building, there is an army of unemployed here. The unions will also likely do away with the card system. The proposition is now being discussed, as there are so many open shops in the city now that union men are frequently prevented from working.

FERROZONE

Cures all Ailments From which Women Suffer

Many women suffer untold torture from nervous debility caused by disorders of the feminine organs. Day by day they grow worse, but from a false sense of modesty they shrink from using a good remedy like Ferrozone. And it would cure them.

No restorative so potent and prompt as Ferrozone has ever been discovered. You feel its uplifting effect at once. Your spirits rise, you gain in power and cheerfulness, feelings of weakness and despondency disappear.

No woman can remain sick or miserable if she uses Ferrozone. It goes direct to the seat of trouble, puts a stop to functional irregularities, and so establishes buoyant, robust health. Being free from alcohol, and dangerous drugs, Ferrozone can be used by young and old with absolute safety. HEALTH IN ARMIES

The Japanese have shown the world in army sanitation, no less than in fighting tactics, how to apply the knowledge gained by observation and experience. The medical staff of the U. S. instructed by their example, is now entering upon an entire reorganization of the system, stimulated by the memory of the horrors of the Spanish war. Of the 70,000 men sent to Cuba the mortality from bullets and battle wounds was 285, that from diseases, largely preventable, was 2,802, not including large numbers of men returned to civil life permanently impaired. The mortality of the American civil war may be roughly classified as follows;

Deaths from disease	500,000
Deaths from wounds	100,000
Total fatalities	600,000

In the present war the Japanese have shown that a large mortality other than that due to brave and persistent fighting is wholly unnecessary. They did not always know this. Major Seaman has learned from a study of Japanese official records that during the war with Korea a few years ago the mortality was nearly as great as during the civil war, and that 45 per cent. of all the sailors engaged were attacked with beri-beri.

Of the practical benefits of wise measures of army sanitation, as exemplified in this present war, Major Seaman, of the United States medical staff, says;

"I know that the Japanese would never have won that series of brilliant victories from Yalu to Mukden unless they had their army in the most magnificent physical condition, and that it would not have been in that condition if it had not had the most thorough sanitary government and control any army has ever yet had in all history."

The conditions afloat are as good as those ashore. There has been practically no sickness in the navy, and not one case of beri-beri. Major Seaman states that he was at Hiroshima last summer when 9,000 men were brought in wounded from the front. Of this number only thirty-four died. Nearly all the rest recovered and returned to duty. Of 1,100 stretcher cases sent to Tokio, as too severely wounded to be treated in field hospitals, not one died. Of this detail six had bullets through the head, nine had bullets through the chest, and six through the abdomen. Such a record in reparative surgery would be miraculous if the men had not been in a condition to permit nature to exercise her beneficent functions unhampered by poisons which excite inflammation after injury. This means a rational ration, temperance, and good habits generally.

Major Seaman discovers the secret of the success of the Japanese system of army sanitation in the high rank and large emoluments of the responsible heads of the medical staff, and the power conferred upon them to enforce orders.

ISSUES OF DIPLOMACY

The great conflict between Russia and Japan for Asiatic supremacy will soon turn from the theatre of martial struggles in Manchuria to a mighty battle of diplomacy in some other country—perhaps in the United States. Russia, having exhausted her military and naval resources in futile effort to hold what diplomacy had gained for her out of the wreck of the war between Japan and China, will again seek to retrieve her shattered fortunes at the council table.

Russian diplomacy has ever been a synonymic term for surpassing deceit, masterful evasion and unscrupulous obloquy. Indeed, Diplomacy—if the word may be corrupted to signalize the perfidious Muscovite strategy which has always circumvented justice—has played a more prominent part in the expansion of Russia than have the Russian feats of arms. What more natural than that the Romanoff coterie should resort to the devices of the council chamber when all else failed? Experienced in the Machiavellian methods, "sustained by cunning, unrestrained by morals," Russian statesmen no doubt believe themselves well equipped to meet the Japanese plenipotentiaries.

What sort of diplomats has Japan? The answer to that question involves in large measure the success or failure of this war. If the Mikado's representatives are as skillful in the art of negotiation as Oyama and Togo in their respective branches of service, Japan will soon win the crowning victory in her mighty struggle for mastery in the Orient.

EDITORIAL COMMENT.

The name of Lieut. Thomas Casey Callaghan will go down in history as the chief scout of the Japanese army in Manchuria. He is a Canadian, and a hero of the Boer war. Previous to that time he had roughed it on North-western ranches, becoming an expert horseman, rifle shot, and hunter of big game. As a Jap scout he rose rapidly in his difficult and dangerous work. When you hear of a Jap victory remember "Casey's at the bat."

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS

Any even numbered section of Dominion lands in Manitoba or the North-west Territories, excepting 8 and 26, which has not been homesteaded, or reserved to provide wood lots for settlers, or for other purposes, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one quarter section of 160 acres more or less.

ENTRY

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land to be taken is situate, or if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration Winnipeg or the local agent for the district in which the land is situate, receive authority for some one to make entry for him. A fee of $10 is charged for a homestead entry.

HOMESTEAD DUTIES

A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required by the provisions of the Dominion Lands Act, and the amendments thereto, to perform the conditions connected therewith, under one of the following plans:

[1] At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years. It is the practice of the Department to require a settler to bring 15 acres under cultivation, but if he prefers he may substitute stock; and 20 head of cattle, to be actually his own property, with buildings for their accommodation, will be accepted instead of the cultivation.

[2] If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased), of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

[3] If a settler was entitled to and has obtained entry for a second homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by residence upon the first homestead, if the second homestead is in the vicinity of the first homestead.

[4] If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

The term "vicinity" used above is meant to indicate the same township, or an adjoining or corresponding township.

A settler who avails himself of the provisions of clauses [2], [3] or [4] must cultivate 30 acres of his homestead, or substitute 30 head of stock, with buildings for their accommodation, and have besides 80 acres substantially fenced.

The privilege of a second entry is restricted by law to those settlers only who completed the duties upon their first homesteads or entitle them to patent on or before the 3rd of June, 1889.

Every homesteader who fails to comply with the requirements of the homestead law is liable to have his entry cancelled and the land may again be thrown open for entry.

APPLICATION FOR PATENT

Should be made at the end of three years before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector. Before making application for patent the settler must give six months notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa of his intention to do so.

INFORMATION

Newly arrived immigrants will receive, at the Immigration Office in Winnipeg, or at any Dominion Lands Office in Manitoba or the North-west Territories, information as to the lands that are open for entry, and from the officers in charge, free of expense, advice and assistance in securing lands to suit them. Full information respecting the land, timber, coal and mineral laws, as well as respecting Dominion Lands in the Railway Belt in British Columbia, may be obtained upon application to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, Manitoba, or to any of the Dominion Lands Agents in Manitoba or the North-west Territories.

IF YOU WANT MONEY

Buy a block of stock of the Tonopah-Crow Gold and Copper Company. This stock is selling at 18 cents a share. It will be paying a profit in one year of not less than 25 per cent. on capitalization, which will mean a value of the stock of $2.50 a share. It may be worth $5.00 in less than two years time. There are more than 100 mineral veins crossing this property. The lowest average of ores as far as developed is $54 a top, which does not include numerous small bodies running from $100 to $1,000. The money to be raised in these sales of stock is to be put in hoisting plant, equip and rapidly develop the mine, which includes six mining claims and mill site; 125 acres. Where can you make so much money in so short a time? This is an opportunity that seldom occurs.

SMILED WHEN TOLD

Mrs. Meyers Sentenced For Killing Husband

Kansas City, June 28.—Mrs. Aggie Myers, who was found guilty at Liberty, Mo., recently of murder in the first degree, was to-day refused a new trial and was sentenced to be hanged on August 11. An appeal will be taken to the state supreme court. Mrs. Myers was convicted with Frank Hottman, who was infatuated with her, of killing the woman's husband, Clarence Myers, a printer.

Hottman, now under sentence of death, testified at the woman's trial that she had urged him to kill Myers, had let him into their home on the night of the murder, had given her husband a sedative to put him to sleep and then, while he cried to her for help, she first struck him over the head with a bedslat and then slashed his throat and back with scissors and a razor. Hottman was arrested in Montana, where he had escaped on money furnished by Mrs. Myers.

Since her arrest Mrs. Myers has shown practically no emotion, and when sentence was passed to-day she smiled.

LABOUR UNION OUTRAGE

Non-Union Man's Nails Pulled out by Roots

Chicago, June 28.—Edward Beckett, a non-union teamster employed by the National Express Company, was subjected to barbarous torture early to-day by four men, alleged to be strike sympathizers. Bickett was attacked in front of the Teamsters' union head-quarters.

After being knocked down by the men, three fingers of his right hand were broken, and two of his finger nails torn off. The victim pleaded mercy, but his cries were in vain and when the assailants left he was unconscious in the street, where he was found later by a policeman.

Mr. W. A. Fife Gets an Unpleasant Fling Into Hunter Street Mud

Tuesday, Mr. W. A. Fife, a driver employed by the Peterborough Coral Company, took an involuntary header into the mud on Hunter St. He was driving a team, belonging to his employers, into the lane just west of Bell's grocery store, when a box fell from a pile on the pavement. This caused the frightened horses to suddenly swerve and attempt to back, when the wagon upset. Mr. Fife was thrown from his place with more celerity than ceremony, but sustained no injuries further than a slight shock. The team was at once gotten under control.

Almost a Car of Bananas Spoilt

On Monday night many mothers of small boys felt nervous and wondered whether that old bottle of castor oil had survived from its last forward application. Mr. S. A. Oke, the George street fruit man had the misfortune to have a car-load of bananas, shipped from Philadelphia, Pa., arrive in bad order, having become heated, with consequent fermentation en route. Mr. Oke at once sold bunas, that were still edible from the car, at any cold price he could get, realizing about $100. As the car cost him, laid down here about $675, his loss is a heavy one. In answer to an enquiry made by The Times, Mr. Oke said he did not know whether he could hold the shippers good for part of or the whole net loss. Fruit is generally shipped "at consignees' risk," but in this event should be receipted for by the railroad accepting shipment, "Received in good order." We trust Mr. Oke will obtain some rebate on the shipment.

Little Folks Have Enjoyable Time

History and Production of the Goldfields of Boulder County, Colorado, Portraying Economic Conditions Which Predict the Coming Goldfields of Colorado and Presenting the Stock Offering of a Great Gold Mining Enterprise of the United States Gold Corporation

FREE

Our booklet on the gold fields of Boulder County is off the press, and is being distributed free to investors. We have prepared this book to advertise the gold fields of Northern Colorado and our great gold mining enterprise. The books will be free for the asking while they last. It will tell you of how over fifty millions have been added to the world's wealth in production of gold, silver and copper under primitive methods and from surface workings of an average depth of not to exceed 250 feet. It will tell you of its great tungsten belt, the largest in the world. It will tell you of the existence of a diversity of precious and rare minerals, unrivaled by any other gold fields on this continent. It will tell you of a mineral area of twenty-five square miles literally covered with a network of veins practically undeveloped, with only one shaft below the thousand foot and half a dozen below the six hundred foot level. It will tell you of a gold field nearer to the Denver smelters than any other in Colorado; of a change of economic conditions, in this section, which will enable the miner to ship ore to the smelters, at a net profit, that is now being thrown over the dumps in other sections of Colorado; it will tell you of a field so attractive that it resulted in the construction of two railways from one end of the field to the other. It will tell you of the substitution of modern and up-to-date mining methods, in place of the primitive ones of the past; in short, it will tell you of all those conditions which predict for the gold fields of Boulder County the coming gold fields of Colorado.

It will also tell you of our great gold mining enterprise in the western part of the gold fields of Boulder County, near the continental divide, where nature has deposited her largest and richest treasure vaults; it will tell you of our economic development tunnel, driven to drain and develop a mineral estate almost a mile long and half a mile wide; of the thousands of tons of gold ore now blocked out and ready for shipment in the five different veins cut by this tunnel in driving it eight hundred feet, the result of two years' steady development work night and day; of our wonderful discovery of molybdenite—a rare metal—in large commercial quantities, foretelling for us the first molybdenite mine in Colorado that is producing, as well as a large and permanent source of revenue, of our project to drive this tunnel, long before the end of this year, into the famous Fourth of July dyke or "Mother Lode," from which the far famed Caribou group of mines produced twenty million dollars in gold, silver and copper from 1869 to 1893; of the tremendous possibilities for ore production which will follow the cutting of a mineral dyke from 50 to 100 feet wide at a depth of a thousand feet, and the great probability of our opening the first great copper mine in Colorado when we reach this dyke with the tunnel. In short, it will tell you of a gold mining enterprise that will go on a large producing basis long before the end of 1905; of an enterprise with possibilities second to none in Colorado, the developments of which have already shorn it of any element of risk or speculative features, rendering the investment offered a safe and attractive one.

For the financial and commercial standing of the business men who stand back of this enterprise we refer you to the First National Bank, Boulder, Colo, or Bradstreets Commercial Agency

The edition will not last long. If you would be sure of securing a copy, write to-day, or your name and address on a postal card, with the word "Booklet," will do the work.

Mr. W. G. Morrow, the genial Secretary of the Board of Education, is at home once more, from his extended tour, embracing England and Scotland. Mr. Morrow states that he sailed from Liverpool shortly before the Canadian Manufacturers' party arrived. While in the Old Country the visitors toured through England and Scotland and therefore had an opportunity of seeing everything at its best. The trip across the Atlantic was made upon the S.S. Celtic of the White Star Line and was very enjoyable.

Bowmanville Pleased With Us

That the Bowmanville Lacrosse Club harbor no animosity against this town for the drubbing they got from our boys last Saturday, is demonstrated by a letter received by Lieut. E. M. Best, from the secretary of the Bowmanville Lacrosse Club, expressing appreciation of the very kind treatment accorded the team from that place, on the occasion of the game here. They promise to return the compliment when opportunity affords, and also to improve the score. An effort is now being made to secure games with the intermediate teams of Orillia and Toronto Junction prior to the next league game with Oshawa on July 15th.

WM PRINGLE

Unusually Important

One of, if not the most, important question that has been brought before the citizens of Peterborough in its history, is now before us, viz: The by-law, which is to be voted on to-day, for an extra $50,000 appropriation for the new Collegiate Institute building. There have been a great many letters written to the newspapers—some for and some against the by-law. All these letters were written by citizens who were unquestionably imbued with honesty of purpose. But unfortunately, most of those who have taken the opposition gave, as their paramount reason, economy. But is it economy to save a few dollars on a building which would mean so much to our citizens of to-day and the generation to come? The Times thinks the defeat of this by-law would be false economy. We suggest to every reader of The Times, to digest very carefully the eight good reasons printed in another column, why every voter who has the interests of Peterborough at heart should vote for this by-law.

July Canadian Magazine

The opening article in the July Canadian Magazine is a bright, readable article entitled "The Home and Haunts of Joseph Howe," the great Nova Scotian orator. This is illustrated with some excellent photographs of ancient and modern scenes in and around Halifax, Nova Scotia is also represented by a second contribution, a "Donald" story by W. Albert Hickman, who has certainly found a splendid mine in the delightful character who is so typical of the Scotch-Canadian of the Maritime provinces. Mr. Beatty's illustrations are exceptionally fine and do credit to Canadian art. So does the drawing by Fergus Kyle which illustrates a story by Norman Duncan. The sketch of Lady Plunket, the late Lord Dufferin's Canadian-born daughter, who is now wife of the Governor of New Zealand, will interest many people. The Hon. Mr. Gouin, the new Premier of Quebec, is the celebrity of the month, and Mr. Mosher contributes a readable character sketch of him. Mr. C. W. Young's fishing story is seasonable; so is the frontispiece, a rare photograph of two baby moose born in the Yukon woods last year.

Chief of Police, G. L. Hunt
Magistrate, R. W. Dundas

Yesterday's police court only had one case before it, that of the English boy Grieffe, charged with having stolen $60 from his employer, Mr. McMullen of Pentypool. The case was enlarged for still another week to enable the police to communicate with Toronto headquarters of the Barnardo Home Mission, as Grieffe professes to be a Barnardo Home Boy. If it turns out as represented by the lad, the Barnardo Home authorities will be requested to have him deported to England, whence he came. The boy greatly dreads going back to Toronto, as he says the head official of the Barnardo Mission there has a strong arm and mighty handy in the use of a whip.

Obituary

Death of Robert Stebbins

Yesterday morning a man well known to many of our older citizens in the person of Mr. Robert Stebbins, 12 Kirk street, passed away. Mr. Stebbins has been a citizen of Peterborough for many years, and was universally respected and well spoken of by both personal friends and his employers.

Deceased was in his sixty-fifth year and had been ill for about seven weeks with bronchitis. He was an employee of the Peterborough Light and Power Co.

The late Mr. Stebbings was born in Norfolk, Eng. He came to Canada in the early sixties and had been a resident of Peterborough since 1890. His wife and one daughter survive.

Entrance Examinations Now On

Yesterday morning 179 pupils in the Public School started to write on the entrance examinations. Mr. D. Walker is in charge of the examinations, and the examining officers are Miss Odell and Messrs. Kenner and Sergley. The number writing this year is seventeen in excess of that of last year, when 162 tried the entrance, an evidence of the fact that the demand for space in the Collegiate is increasing.

OSTRICH LOGIC.

"When I can't see danger there is no danger." That's the logic of the ostrich which hides its head and exposes its body to the hunter. There are not a few people who seem to have gone to the ostrich to learn logic. The most dangerous enemies of humanity are the enemies which can't be seen, the disease breeding microbes which infect the blood. It is harder to get the microbe out of the blood than to keep it out, but Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery does both, by purifying the blood and then keeping it pure.

If there are eruptions on the skin, boils, pimples, sores or other signs of impure blood, use Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which will purify the blood and cure the eruptions which come from it.

"My blood was all out of order, and I had to go to the doctor," writes Mrs. James R. Moss, New London, Stanly Co., N.C. "He gave me medicine which helped me for a short time. In the winter of 1895 I got worse than I had ever been. My tonsils were enlarged and my neck swollen all out of shape; my throat was sore and I could not eat it. My husband went for the doctor, but he gave me no encouragement. He helped me a little, but it did not last long. He attended me for twelve months, when I heard of a lady whose condition was like mine, who was taking your medicine and was getting well. So I procured some of the medicine and began taking it. In one week I was able to do my cooking. When I began taking the medicine I could sit up only a few minutes at a time, and I could rest or sleep only a little while at a time. My throat was so sore at times I could not even swallow sweet milk, and my tonsils were full of little eating sores. My left side was swollen out of shape and I could hardly get my breath. The doctor said I would not get well, but three bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, three bottles of his 'Pellets,' three bottles of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy and the use of salt water did the work and cured me."

Father and Son are Drowned

Waterloo, Iowa, June 29.—C. W. Young, aged 47, and his son Ross, aged 21, of Britt, were drowned while bathing near Silver Spring, a summer resort near this city, this afternoon. The son, who was a poor swimmer, had gone to his father's rescue when waves from a passing pleasure steamer enveloped them both. The bodies have not been recovered.

MOST IMPORTANT AND UNUSUAL

Eight Reasons Why Every Voter, Who Has the Interest of Peterborough at Heart, Should Support the By-law To-day.

I.—Because the city should progress, not retrograde.

II.—Because the congestion in the Public Schools will be relieved.

III.—Because the Menzies School property has been sold, and the Board has the lease of it for only one year more, therefore, Peterborough must have increased accommodation before that date.

IV.—Because the site selected for the Institute is paid for, at a cost to the City of Peterborough of $20,000, and, if it is not utilized for school purposes, the city would lose $800 a year in interest.

V.—Because the present Murray Street School building cannot be used for school purposes, as it has to be removed, according to the contract made with the Government.

VI.—Because, unless more money is voted, no institution can be built that will meet even present requirements.

VII.—Because the Board of Education is practically unanimous on the question after an exhaustive study of the whole situation and the absolute need of increased facilities and up to-date equipment.

VIII.—Because $50,000 additional is essential to complete and equip a substantial building, without any extravagant outlay for quartered oak doors or plate glass panels; the doors throughout the building with the exception of the main entrance, will be of white pine

Soldiers May Revolt and Join the Sailors

Battleship and Cruiser to Re-Capture War Vessels in Hands of Mutineers--Odessa the Scene of a Serious Outbreak Last Night

Libau, Russia, June 29.—The Russian sailors here mutinied last night, attacked the Government stores, seized the arms, and fired into the officers' quarters. Infantry, artillery and Cossacks were brought to the seat of the fighting, but the result is not known. Intense excitement prevails here.

REVOLUTION FEARED.

Sebastopol, June 29.—A battleship and a cruiser left here during the night with orders to steam at full speed for Odessa.

RIOTERS SHOT.

Odessa, June 29.—Hundreds of rioters were shot and many killed by troops during last night's outbreak. Martial law has been proclaimed. Practically the entire harbor was gutted by the fires started by the mob last night. All the warehouses with large quantities of merchandise, as well as four or five Russian steamers, were burned. Probably three hundred rioters were killed. Several Cossacks also were slain, but the troops are rapidly restoring order.

ST. PETERSBURG ALARMED.

St. Petersburg, June 29.—2.05 p.m.—The Government is in a state approaching panic over the events at Odessa, and the gravest fears are entertained that the mutiny among the navy sailors may spread to the army. Should some of the troops at Odessa be won over to the cause of their comrades of the navy other troops sent against them might throw down their arms or join the mutineers, and with the support of over 100,000 workmen Odessa would become the center from which civil war would be waged against the Government.

Gen. Kakhanoff, commander of the military district of Odessa, has been empowered to declare martial law, and Vice-Admiral Shoukinin, who recently declined the post of chief of the Admiralty, in succession to Admiral Advelion, left St. Petersburg hastily during the night, either for Sevastopol or for Odessa. Beyond this no steps are known to have been taken to meet the emergency.

TROOPS REFUSED TO FIRE.

What appears to be certain from the reports received at the various embassies here is that Odessa was at least for a time practically in the hands of the strikers, who erected barricades, from which the police and troops were powerless to dislodge them. Indeed one consul at Odessa reports that the troops refused to fire on the rioters. Nicholaieff, a neighboring town of the Littoral, is reported to be in possession of a mob.

BRITISH SHIPS ALL RIGHT.

London, June 29—Telegrams received from Odessa by ship owners in London and Liverpool confirm the reports of the state of anarchy prevailing in the Russian city yesterday. These advices add that the situation is quieter today. No British steamers were damaged, and so far as is known no British subjects were injured during the rioting. All business at Odessa is at a standstill.

SNUBBED BY THE KAISER

J. Pierpont Morgan Given the Cold Shoulder by the German Emperor

New York, June 30.—The American says: "J. Pierpont Morgan has not met the Kaiser this year, and his Cowes, despite reports to the contrary is not among the American yachts at present this week but is already on her way across the ocean bound for New York. Mr. Morgan hoped to meet the Kaiser when the latter was staying at the coast of Sicily last spring, and ordered the bow of his yacht in the direction of Taormina, where he found the Kaiser waiting to see Emperor William. Although he duly entered his name on the visitors book of the Emperor, the latter took no notice of his presence, and the great financier, deeply affronted, and also the truth were known, somewhat humiliated in the eyes of the large party of guests whom he had on board the Cormir, sailed away to Naples, where the attentions lavished upon Mr. Morgan by the Pontiff and by the King served in a measure to smooth his ruffled feelings. Under the circumstances, it is only natural that he should not have felt disposed to go to Kiel for the yacht race, for which he would have been forced there to play, in a measure 'second fiddle' to the young Vanderbilts, Mrs. Robert Goelet and her son, Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, sr., and Allison Armour, all of whom stand much higher in the good graces of the Emperor than himself.

SENT UP FOR TRIAL

New Evidence Adduced in the Plympton Murder Case

Halifax, N.S., June 30.—The preliminary examination in the Plympton murder case at Digby is over, and the prisoners, May Hope Young and Stanley Melanson, have been sent to the Supreme Court for trial. The trial comes in Clare, Digby County, in September.

No new developments were brought out at the examination yesterday, when Elmer E. Young was called. Little excitement was created in the court room, which was filled to its utmost capacity. He was questioned for about fifty-five minutes, and the main story already published. He said he was not married to Miss Marie Ward or Hope Young. The name of the dead child was Minnie Alice Young. "May Hope Young is the mother and I am its father."

SMELTING BY ELECTRICITY

Canadian Mining Men Believe Experiments Will be Successful

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., June 30.—Mining men throughout this district are highly pleased with the action of the Dominion Government in making an appropriation to assist in the carrying on of experiments in electric smelting. It is believed that the practical process of treating ores will prove a commercial success, as such would open a new era in mining in this country. This want is a smelter like those the greatest mines with which the mining industries of this district have had to deal. A convenient place in the district for the treatment of ores would result in many properties that are now partially developed being productive.

Indian Army Reform Scheme

London, June 30.—The correspondent of the Times, at Simla, says he understands that arrangements have been made calculated to facilitate the carrying out of a scheme of Indian army reorganization, without further friction.

AMBITIOUS WESTERN SCHEME

Plan to Divert Red River and Throw St. Boniface into Winnipeg

Winnipeg, June 30.—According to an evening paper, a Winnipeg gentleman, who has large private investments in the city and who has backings for hundreds of thousands of dollars, has a big scheme on foot to enlarge the eastern boundaries of the city by the removal of an natural impediment, namely, the present channel of the Red River. He proposes to do this by diverting the course of the river through a channel to be dug from the converging point of St. Mary's road and St. Anne's road in St. Boniface, almost opposite the north end of the river park to a point northwest where the river takes a wide sweep east and north of the Ogilvie mills.

"Such a cut-off," said the promoter of the gigantic scheme, "would throw into Winnipeg, the present town of St. Boniface almost as far east as the old exhibition grounds."

DOUBLE DROWNING ACCIDENT

Two Lobster Fishermen Met Sudden Death

Charlottetown, P.E.I., June 30.—A double drowning accident occurred at Boughton Island, at the entrance to Georgetown, the victims being Thomas Jackson, aged 46 and William Stewart, aged 15. Both were fishermen at D. J. McCormack's lobster factory. During a heavy easterly gale they started from the shore in a dory to go out to their fishing boat which was dragging her anchor, and in danger of being driven ashore. They got into the breakers on the reef, and the dory was upset, sending the men to their death. Their bodies drifted ashore shortly after. Jackson leaves a widow and five small children.

GREAT BRITAIN, FRANCE AND JAPAN

Have Their Governments Concluded a New Triple Alliance

New York, June 30.—The special correspondent of the American in London cables: "From official sources, which on several previous occasions has proved of a most reliable character, I learn that France has now been drawn by Great Britain into the latter's alliance with Japan. Confirmation is given the news of the creation of this new triple alliance by the extraordinary action of the French Government, not yet generally known, in sending orders recalling its battleships and first and second-class cruisers from the Far East, leaving merely a number of smaller vessels for coast defence and suppression of native piracy.

DANGER HAS VANISHED.

"A few weeks ago prior to the destruction of the Russian armada, the utmost apprehension prevailed in France of the possibility of a Japanese attack upon Tong King, Cochin China, and of a Japanese descent upon the French colonial possessions in the Orient, and measures were adopted to despatch, without delay, large naval and military reinforcements from France to Indo-China.

"That all danger from this quarter has suddenly vanished is indicated by the fact that orders given for the despatch of reinforcements to the Far East have been cancelled, and that all the principal men of war of the Pacific squadron are being withdrawn, as no longer necessary.

WARSHIPS WITHDRAWN.

"Great Britain has recalled the principal ships of her squadron in Chinese waters for service in home waters since Admiral Togo's victory relying upon her ally to protect her interests in the Far East.

"Has France now followed suit because she has made similar arrangements with Japan and been drawn into the alliance already existing between Great Britain and Japan?

"It is natural that the fact should be kept as secret as possible, since, as long as the war between Russia and Japan is in progress, it would clearly be impolitic to conclude an alliance against her former Russian friends.

"But the conflict has almost reached its conclusion and France being no longer able to rely upon Russia, is naturally compelled to look for other allies in view of the possibility, even the probability, of a struggle with Germany.

"It is understood that Emperor William has some knowledge of this understanding of France with Great Britain and Japan, and that it is this which he has in mind when he demands of the French Government the latter will not try to isolate her by relations or close intimacy with rivals.

M. ROUVIER'S CHANCE.

"Premier Rouvier has always been a foe of the Franco-Russian understanding, mainly on economic grounds, insisting that it constituted no advantage to France, but on the contrary is a terrible drain on her resources. Bent, above everything else, upon restoring the equilibrium of the sadly disorganized state of the finances of France, he may be relied upon to signalize his administration by establishing intimate relations with foreign powers that can prove of greater use to his nation than Russia.

TO DAM LAKE ERIE OUTLET

International Waterways Commission to Consider Matter Here

BOARD OF TRADE ARRANGES

Gathering Will be a Notable One—Commissioners to Be Entertained

Montreal, June 30.—The members of the International Waterways Commission, composed of Americans and Canadians, will meet in Montreal on the 11th of July, the purpose being to discuss the project of damming the outlet of Lake Erie, which proposal, coming from the United States, has already figured largely in the newspapers.

The coming of this body to Montreal has been brought about largely by the Montreal Board of Trade, and at three o'clock this afternoon the Executive Committee of the Board, with representatives of the City Council, the Harbor Board, the Shipping Federation and members of the Chambre de Commerce, will hold a preliminary meeting when the different phases will be discussed.

Mr. John Kennedy, chief engineer of the Harbor Board, who is an authority on such matters, is asked to be present to give his idea on the technical effect of damming up the international waterway so far as regards the St. Lawrence. Mr. W. I. Gear, president of the Board of Trade presided at this meeting today.

Among those who have studied the question is not generally thought that the damming of the outlet of Lake Erie will have any permanent effect upon the height of water in the St. Lawrence provided, of course, that the waters all find their way eventually back to the original channel.

During the stay of the members of the Commission in Canada, elaborate preparations will be made for their entertainment, it being felt that it is particularly desirous to show the visitors from across the line, just what sort of a stream the St. Lawrence is, and what the harbor of Montreal is doing and is further capable of.

With this in view the visitors will be conducted up the St. Lawrence from Quebec to Montreal on the Government steamer Frontenac, and while in this city they will be taken over the harbor. There will also be some private entertaining if the time allows.

CHICAGO BANDITS AT WORK

Armed Men Terrorize a Resort and Get Away With $3,000

Chicago, June 30.— Three armed men held up and robbed a number of persons in a resort kept by Victoria Shaw in Dearborn street early to-day. There were many persons in the place, and the robbers escaped with jewellery and money to the amount of $3,000. Each of the men carried two revolvers. There were five colleagues waiting outside, and some of the three attended to them while the other two went inside. Within were fifteen women and ten men. The two robbers were through the place driving the inmates before them to a room on the second floor, where, after robbing them, they locked them in the room, and breaking the telephone wires, ran from the place. The two were joined by their companions in the street, and the three disappeared in an alley.

WHAT IS A FOREIGNER WORTH TO CANADA?

That is the Question That is Being Asked in Great Britain

UNPLEASANT IMPRESSION

It Has Been Created by the Offer of a Pound a Head for Continental Settlers

London, June 30.—A most unpleasant impression has been created by the Times' account of a contemplated arrangement between the Canadian Government and the North Atlantic Trading Company.

When Australia proposed to exclude English batters they did so simply for trade protection. English indignation, however, caused an instant withdrawal and the Canadian Government now is reported by the Times to be about to plainly advertise to the world that Canada estimates every German, Russian, Scandinavian, or Italian worth three Englishmen or Scotchmen, by granting, as the Times says, a bonus of a pound per continental emigrant against seven shillings only per the British emigrant.

The Globe echoes the general English feeling when it says that it is simply unbelievable that the Ottawa Parliament would openly scorn the surplus population of the United Kingdom as unsuitable for Canadian purposes and pertinently asks, "Who is the North Atlantic Trading Company into whose pockets these pound bonuses will really go?"

"On top of this alleged insulting proposal comes Queen's imposition of a special tax on English commercial travellers. Such acts go far to nullify the excellent sentimentalities expressed made by the Canadian manufacturers now here and are used by the enemies of imperial reciprocity as proving that Canada has no real desire for closer trade relations with Great Britain."

DESIRE FOR NEWS INCREASED.

Hon. Mr. Fielding's reported refusal to state the facts of preferential treatment of continental over British settlers tends to increase the desire for more information.

The Englishman want an answer to a plain question. Does Canada estimate one Pole or Russian worth three Englishmen or Scots for the upbuilding of the Canadian nation?

An official statement is made in the press from the office of the Canadian Emigration Commissioner to the effect that Canada passes over one pound per head for the continental emigrants because the North Atlantic Trading Company does its own advertising and publishes its own literature in seven languages and generally carries its own propaganda, all of which the Canadian Government pays for England.

To this statement the reply is made by the Allan and other steamship lines that far larger sums than the North Atlantic Trading Company will spend, has for many years past been spent in the British Empire emigration propaganda without any special emigration bonus.

Such expenditures are common practice among all European and American steamship and railway companies, but that in no way can justify the Government in the payment of three times as great a bonus on continentals as British settlers.

British officials when appealed to say this is Canada's affair, and Canada may be trusted to do the right thing when fully cognisant of the facts of the case.

AN ANSWER TO CHAMBERLAIN.

The Manchester Guardian, which is now the leading Radical journal in England, finds in Canada's preference for the foreigner the best answer to Hon. Mr. Chamberlain's appeal for an inter-Imperial cooperation at the Canadian Manufacturers' luncheon at Birmingham yesterday.

The Guardian repudiates Chamberlain's assertion that Canada's own population is of common origin with ourselves.

"Her trade with her American neighbor, must always be more important than her trade with Britain, and as for her population, one is tempted to remind Mr. Chamberlain while he strikes an Anglo-Saxon attitude, that Canada pays a pound per head to encourage immigration from the continent, as against a mere seven shillings and six pence to lure it from this country."

The Guardian adds that Canada's loyalty will be unshaken if England rejects Imperial preference or sentimental trade.

Buried in an Excavation

Brockville, June 30.—While at work yesterday in a sewer excavation about seven feet deep, John Carr was struck, and partially buried by one of the sides caving in unexpectedly. Two other laborers were under the building making the sewer connection and these with others hurried to Carr's assistance. They succeeded in digging him out after which he was removed to the hospital where it was found he was badly injured on the body and head by stones and large chunks of dirt.

Fraud Charged in Apple Deal

Belleville, June 30.—Delbert Herrington, of this city, was arrested on a warrant issued at the instance of John Bingham, charging him with fraud in an apple deal in Halton County and taken to Milton for trial.

Another June Bride

A Pretty Ceremony, When Miss Annie L. Burnham Becomes Mrs. G. W. Nickels

A very pretty wedding was that celebrated Wednesday afternoon, when Miss Annie L. Burnham, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Z. Burnham, was married to Mr. George Wimlo Nickels, of Toronto.

The ceremony was celebrated in the beautifully decorated dining room, hung tastily with maiden hair ferns, roses and other blossoms, of the bride's former home. Above the bride, suspended from a garland, hung a wedding bell, under which the marriage was solemnized. The officiating clergyman was the Rev. E. A. Langtidt, M.A., rector of St. Luke's church, of which church the bride was a devoted member.

The groom was supported by Mr. Mark Burnham, brother of the bride. Miss Annie Burnham wore white silk colleene over white chiffon taffeta and silver sequins hat, and carried a bouquet of white bridal roses. The bridesmaids, Miss Florence Burnham, sister of the bride, and Miss Sybil Stethem, of Fort Frances, were dressed in pink chiffon organdie over white taffeta, and wore hats of white chiffon, with wreath of pink roses. Both carried bouquets of pink roses.

At the close of the ceremony a reception was held, followed by a very sumptuous wedding breakfast. Then Mr. and Mrs. Nickels left by the 5.12 p.m. train for Toronto and western points to spend a short honeymoon before taking up their residence in Parkdale. The bride's travelling dress was a blue silk shirt waist suit with blue hat to match. The presents, including a costly pearl pendant from the groom, were unusually beautiful.

Many friends from Toronto, London, Buffalo, Montreal and other points were present.

PANAMA CANAL HAS SCANDAL

Something Behind the Resignation of Chief Engineer Wallace

REVELATIONS EXPECTED

Cost of Work Higher Than the Figures Used in Estimating Total Cost

New York, June 30.—The World says: A highly delicate situation has arisen in the affairs of the Panama Canal Commission, and is one which may lead to more trouble than the Roosevelt administration has yet encountered in any other public matter.

Officers at Washington are desperately endeavoring to avert a scandal which would quite put in the shade anything of the kind heard of since American control began on the Isthmus, and might even run in close competition with some of the notorious affairs of the days when the French were trying to dig the canal.

John T. Wallace, chief engineer of the Commission, has placed a tentative resignation in the hands of the President. If certain requests, almost in the nature of demands, made by the chief engineer upon the administration are complied with, he will remain at his post and the public will hear nothing further of the revelations. But those in close touch with affairs in Washington are of the opinion that Wallace will be allowed to go, even at the risk of uncovering the conditions in the canal zone, which every official, from President down, is anxious to conceal.

The statement is made that at the rate of excavation accomplished in the month of May, the completion of the canal would require more than one hundred years. The cost of excavation at the same time has increased to three and four times the figures which were used in estimating the total cost of the waterway.

The Boys' Camp

The Y. M. C. A. Boys Will Again Camp This Year at Sandy Point

The annual outing of the Y.M.C.A. boys has proved to be popular and successful is proven by the fact that from July 12th to the 26th they will once more repeat the pleasurable experiences of seven years past and have chosen the same old camping ground for their location. Sandy Point fills every requirement needed for such use, it is safe, healthy, easily accessible and found, in the past to suit. The General Secretary and Mr. Holmes, Physical Director, will have charge of the camp and will have the assistance of several capable senior members as leaders, who will have charge of the sections. The camp will be limited to 40, and will only include members of the Y.M.C.A. seventeen years of age and under.

The cost will be $5.00 payable by July 10th. This will include everything.

The party will go by Grand Trunk Railway to Lakefield and take the Majestic to the camp grounds.

A special feature of the close of the camp will be a round trip of the lakes on the day before camp breaks up. There will be no extra charge to boys for this.

Full particulars in regard to outfit, etc. can be had at the building. Parents should see that their boys get this fine outing.

Application cards can be had at the Y.M.C.A. office, which must be signed by parents or guardian giving their consent.

143 Majority Against Yesterday's By-Law

Out of 697 Votes Polled Yesterday, on the Collegiate Institute By-Law, Only 277 Were For It.

Yesterday was a Waterloo for the Board of Education, fought and won by the ballots of an adverse majority. Whilst the further appropriation of $[illegible],000, asked for yesterday, by the Board of Education, was negatived by this substantial majority of 143, there is no indication of any personal doubt of the School Board's integrity as individuals, nor is it to be inferred from the result that Peterborough's citizens look with disfavor upon the erection of a Collegiate Institute.

Last night, on the streets, many reasons were given as to the Board's pet scheme being turned down. The most common explanation heard was the Board's unbusinesslike handling of the Institute question, when they asked for the original grant of $50,000, before fully investigating the probable cost previous to coming to the people for price.

Others feared, judging by the seeming proof, furnished in the Board's action in asking for a second sum, equal to their original demand, before even a sod was turned, that if they were entrusted with the whole $100,000, the Board would come at the public, a third time, ere the building was finished or equipped, for $20,000 or $30,000 more.

Another and common opinion, openly expressed, was that many really in sympathy with the Board in building a handsome Institute were deterred from aiding them, on account of the manner in which the painting and other scandals have been hushed up, instead of the Board uniting, as public duty should have impelled them, in laying bare to the public, everything that was treated just the contrary.

Possibly the majority of those who yesterday voted against the by-law did so because they did not think the town's indebtedness and consequently the taxes, should be so largely added to, in view of large expenditures that will soon crop up for needed town improvements. Whatever may be the reasons or apologies for its defeat, it is up to the Board now to exercise their ingenuity, in the public interests, devoid of all thoughts of retaliation, in overcoming their present predicament.

They, in their wisdom, can choose between several courses, either try to secure and fix up the Murray street school as an Institute, or have a building erected with the $40,000 they have left, either at once or when building expenses have dropped from their present exhorbitant figures.

Yesterday's vote was as follows:

Cereal Co's Rates

Transportation Committee, Ottawa, Investigate American Cereal Company's Complaint

A despatch from Ottawa states that the Transportation Commission have taken up the complaint of the American Cereal Company of Peterborough against the G.T.R. in respect to the charge of one and a half cents, or thereabouts, on grain from Midland to Montreal for export, which is milled at Peterborough. This "stop-off" charge added to the freight rate amounts to a serious discrimination. Moreover, grain passing through the Peterborough factory for export at Montreal was in a higher classification than ought to be the case. The company have factories at Cedar Rapids, Mich., and Akron, Ohio, which enjoy cheaper rates to the sea-board. On this account it was intimated that the factory at Peterborough has had to be closed, and although it is in operation again, this is only a temporary arrangement pending the reconstruction of one of the company's mills in the United States. When that is finished the Peterborough mill will be closed again. Mr. Lee of the Grand Trunk took the witness stand in opposition to the Cereal Company's contentions. He claimed it was utterly impossible for the company to do as the applicants wished and carry on the business at a profit.

The case will be continued to-day when other railway experts will be heard. Mr. R. M. Dennistoun is representing the Cereal Company before the Commission.

Big Bill Boards

Mr. Stocker Yesterday Added 2,000 Square Feet of Advertising Space

Yesterday Mr. Walter Stocker, the enterprising bill poster, with a gang of men, was busy adding to his already extensive area of bill board accommodation.

They have added some 2,000 square feet of bill boards for general advertising purposes. That plot of luxuriant growth of every species of noxious weed known to, and condemned by, every efficient health authority, situated to the south of our Customs House, has been fenced in by a ten foot bill board. There may be those of artistic taste and aesthetic mind, who do not admire glaring posters conveying pictures of bison-like cattle weeping over a diminutive pot of beeswwrille, or showing the unnatural perfections of circus riding ladies attired in their native modesty, who dislike bill boards, but there are two factors to recommend them in Peterborough, the inevitable advance of strenuous hustling for trade, and the fear of mothers that their darlings may be lost in a hardwood and mullen thicket: not only that, but this bill boards, having a tendency to confine the area over which the seeds of these weeds are scattered by the wind, may tend towards depleting the other weed beds scattered by our Council, and thus make them, despairing of a large harvest next year, send out men, armed with scythes and sickles, to cut down the forest of weeds flourishing everywhere.

Mr. Stocker has also put large bill boards in front of the White House, Simcoe street, one in front of the Lock Works, and another in the 5th Ward near the McAllister Milling Co.

A Question of Cost

Government Survey in Progress to Ascertain Cost of Raising Rice Lake One Foot

As there is a possibility of Port Hope being made the outlet of the Trent Valley Canal, and as this would necessitate raising the level of Rice Lake, a party of eight surveyors, working under instructions from the Dominion Government, has been surveying on the shores of the lake, starting at Harwood, the object of the work being to survey the shores of the lake with a view of raising the water one foot above the present high water mark, which will be equal to a rise of five feet above the normal height.

If this is done it will change the present bounds of the lake very materially, and many portions of land now high and dry will be inundated. It will also do away with many of the rice beds, and the saw mill at Keene will be put out of business.

When the survey is completed an estimate of the amount of compensation which the Government would have to pay in the event of the water being raised, will be made.

A Springville Burglary

Mr. R. Moncrief While Sleeping Has His Pockets Rifled, and a Child's Bank Stolen From His House

As Mr. Richard Moncrief, who lives 2 1-2 miles southeast of Springville, in the absence of Mrs. Moncrief, was taking a nap, some person or persons, investigated the contents of his pockets, and getting from them only about $1.50 proceeded to ransack the house for valuables. The cheap burglar soon found a small bank belonging to one of the children, broke it open and took out all that was there, $1.50. He then went to the pantry and satisfied his appetite. There are evidences that every remaining place in the house was searched. When Mr. Moncrief awoke he saw that an unexpected visitor had dropped in, and he armed himself and formed a gun club of one, with the burglar in his mind as a suitable target. Mr. Moncrief suspects the theft to have been committed by a tramp who had been begging at his house the day previous, and had been given the price of two schooners.

PETERBOROUGH, JUNE 30, 1905

FIRST GREAT LESSON OF THE WAR

Immense profundity is discovered in the remark that "the first great lesson of the Russo-Japanese war is to be prepared." This is, of course, merely a variant on the idea of preparation in peace for war, which is twenty odd centuries old, and while it has some significance for those who want to fight or who have a rational fear of some probable attack, it is far from stating the fact.

The first great lesson of the Russo-Japanese war is, "Mind your own business, and be reasonably honest." Russia has suffered her losses in men, money and prestige, because she was overreaching. The whole false situation in the East has been created by the intrigues and aggression of the land hungry and the trade hungry. If we propose to go into the grabbing competition we should keep a full kit of tools on hand. But we have no rights that are likely to be sacrificed, even if we are not more strongly equipped than any of the original burglars.

Possibly if we take the viewpoint of Japan instead of that of Russia the lesson of preparedness may seem to obscure the other, but Japan, like Russia, had a "destiny" to work out, and she has been studying on this particular conflict for years. Her people have longed for the war, have sought revenge as well as the extension of their influence.

A Japanese preparedness for wholly improbable contingencies would be absurd, and each nation should fit its preparations to its probable needs. While the lesson "Mind your own business" is always applicable to the full extent, the other lesson suggests an endless striving for superiority of armament that might be carried beyond all reason. It is absolutely valueless without abundant qualifications.

AN UNKIND CUT

A London paper calls Canada "the Russia of the American continent." This is surely the unkindest cut possible, in view of recent events. It mentions Canada's one gunboat, and complains that there are not more. Well, there will be more in the proper time, but now Canada is not building gunboats; she is building railroads. What did this great country do between the war of 1812-15 and the Civil War? For forty-five solid years she devoted her energies to building railways, digging canals and filling her lands with immigrants. She had no big navy then, nor big stick for either land or sea. Nor did she aim at one. She was engaged on a vital task, and when the terrible interruption of the war within her borders was over she went on with her work harder than ever. Only now, when she has reached full stature and has taken her place with the great nations of the earth, has she begun to think about building a big navy to maintain her dignity among her compeers. Canada's time is surely coming for the building of a navy and the maintenance of an army, though let us hope that neither will need to be large. But in the meantime she has more important work to do. With a country equal to this in size, will she not be doing a great thing for the empire if she builds up a giant nation even approaching this in population and material wealth in the course of the coming time?

EDITORIAL COMMENT.

A preliminary survey is to be made for the enterprise of building a railway tunnel under Behring Strait, between Cape Prince of Wales in Wales in Alaska and East Cape on the Siberian coast, both points being but a short distance from the Arctic Circle. It is said that over thirty responsible capitalist approve the scheme, and will act as the American Executive Committee. The tunnel will be thirty-eight miles in length, but midway are the Diomede Islands, serving as a base for works needed during construction. Arrangements have been made for French and Russian committees to co-operate with the American committee. The railroad on the Alaskan end to make use of the tunnel will pass Council City, Nulato and Fairbanks, to a point about a hundred miles south of Dawson, where it will connect with the Grand Trunk Pacific. It is proposed to capitalize the enterprise at from $250,000,000 to $300,000,000, and the estimated time of construction will be about four years. With this tunnel in operation, one could go from New York to Paris without a boat.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

A fee of $10 is charged for a homestead entry.

HOMESTEAD DUTIES

A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required by the provisions of the Dominion Lands Act, and the amendments thereto, to perform the conditions connected therewith, under one of the following plans:

[1] At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years. It is the practice of the Department to require a settler to bring 15 acres under cultivation, but if he prefers he may substitute stock; and 20 head of cattle, to be actually his own property, with buildings for their accommodation, will be accepted instead of the cultivation.

[2] If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased), of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

[3] If a settler was entitled to and has obtained entry for a second homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by residence upon the first homestead, if the second homestead is in the vicinity of the first homestead.

[4] If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

The term "vicinity" used above is meant to indicate the same township, or an adjoining or cornering township.

A settler who avails himself of the provisions of clauses [2], [3] or [4] must cultivate 30 acres of his homestead, or substitute 20 head of stock, with buildings for their accommodation, and have besides 80 acres substantially fenced.

The privilege of a second entry is restricted by law to those settlers only who completed the duties upon their first homesteads to entitle them to patent on or before the 2nd of June, 1889.

Every homesteader who fails to comply with the requirements of the homestead law is liable to have his entry cancelled and the land may again be thrown open for entry.

APPLICATION FOR PATENT

Should be made at the end of three years before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector. Before making application for patent the settler must give six months notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa of his intention to do so.

INFORMATION

Newly arrived immigrants will receive, at the Immigration Offices in Winnipeg, or at any Dominion Lands Office in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories, information as to the lands that are open for entry, and from the officers in charge, free of expense, advice and assistance in securing lands to suit them. Full information respecting the land, timber, coal and mineral laws, as well as respecting Dominion Lands in the Railway Belt in British Columbia, may be obtained upon application to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, Manitoba, or to any of the Dominion Lands Agents in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories.

IF YOU WANT MONEY

Buy a block of stock of the Tonopah-Crow Gold and Copper Company. This stock is selling at 18 cents a share. It will be paying a profit in one year of not less than 25 per cent. on capitalization, which will mean a value of the stock of $2.50 a share. It may be worth $5.00 in less than two years time. There are more than 100 mineral veins crossing this property. The lowest average of ores so far as developed is $54 a ton, which does not include numerous small bodies running from $100 to $1,000. The money to be raised in these sales of stock is to be put in hoisting plant, equip and rapidly develop the mine, which includes six mining claims and will ore; 125 acres. Where can you make so much money in so short a time? This is an opportunity that seldom occurs.

W. O. W. In Session

Mr. C. C. Hodgins, Head Consul Commander, and Other Leading Officers Present

The Canadian Order of Woodmen of the World, have reason to be proud of their success of last year, both financially, and as regards membership.

Their Executive were in session at the Oriental Hotel for transacting business for their order.

There are present; C. C. Hodgins, M.P.P., Lucan, Head Consul Commander; Deacon J. B. Hoover, of Clinton, Chairman of the Board of Head Managers; L. H. Taylor, Brantford, Head Manager; J. A. Ramplin, Toronto, Head Manager; D. Cinnamon, Lindsay, Head Adviser; R. H. Blackmore, St. Thomas, Head Escort; J. H. Saunders, London, Head Watchman; W. S. Harrison, M.D., Toronto, Head Physician; Wm. B. Wiley, Dresden, Head Secretary; W. C. Fitzgerald, London, Head Clerk.

The most important item of Tuesday's business was reading and considering of the head clerk's report. This was most encouraging and showed, for the past half year, that while the assessments in excess of losses for 1905 to June 23rd amount to $20,991, for the whole of last year the excess was $19,948. The probable excess for this year is placed at $40,000.

We have added this year up to date 950 new members, an increase of 100 over 1904 for the same period.

Our deaths have been 28 in number amounting to $29,500, or $5,000 less for the same period last year.

Our death rate so far is less than 4 1-2. The death rate for last year was 6.08.

We have 409 ladies in the order.

We have organized 13 new camps and four camps have been disbanded. We have also organized four new circles.

The financial statement shows that for death claims $31,559.55 have been paid, $8,925.60 has been invested, and the balance on hand amounts to $20,511.24; the total net balance of the order now amounts to $146,337.22.

Yesterday the members of the executive took in the trip to Stony Lake with the local Woodmen. Messrs. L. H. Taylor, J. B. Hoover, and C. C. Hodgins are accompanied by their wives.

Westward Ho!

Many of Our Citizens Took Advantage of the C. P. R. Excursion

The restless spirit of the age seems to have invaded Peterborough, as quite a number of local people have taken in the C.P.R. excursion for various points on the Western prairies. Among those who have gone west are; Miss Maggie Milburn, to Estevan; Mr. George Byran, to Moosejaw; Miss J. W. Eyres, Miss L. M. Eyres, Miss Carrie Eyres, to Calgary, Mrs. A. J. Warne, sr., and Miss Mabel Warne, to Winnipeg and other points; Miss E. Crusty, to Moosejaw; Mrs. George Garbutt, to Calgary, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Milburn, to McLeod; E. Sanderson, to McLeod; Chas. Dredge, to Strathcona; Mrs. Harry Beal and Miss Amy Beal, to Winnipeg and other points; Miss Lillie, Miss Nellie and Miss Emma Gilberd, to Carberry and Brandon. So far as known, it is the intention of all of the above to return, the excursions being good until August.

Bowmanville Pleased With Us

That the Bowmanville Lacrosse Club harbor no animosity against this town for the drubbing they got from our boys last Saturday, is demonstrated by a letter received by Lieut. E. M. Best, from the secretary of the Bowmanville Lacrosse Club, expressing appreciation of the very kind treatment accorded the team from that place, on the occasion of the game here They promise to return the compliment when opportunity affords, and also to improve the score. An effort is now being made to secure games with the intermediate teams of Orillia and Toronto Junction prior to the next league game with Oshawa on July 19th.

A Business Divorce

Mr. Rountree Determines That the License Regulations be Complied With in His Store

Mr. Arthur Rountree, who recently purchased the fine grocery business at 204 George street, once operated by Messrs. E. Brown & Co., yesterday finished the separation, as now required by law, of his grocery and liquor departments. This store from its unusual depth, was admirably adapted to making a sales-room for the liquor branch at the rear, with entrance a few feet from Hunter street. Mr. Rountree in making this separation, has fully complied with both the spirit and letter of the license laws, there being no connection by door, passage, stairway or cellar between the two branches of his business. So determined was he to comply with all formalities, that he had the cellar entrance, which originally was located in the grocery store, floored over.

Ladies entering the grocery department now, need have no hesitancy as sometimes exists in the dual branches of grocery and liquor business. The two branches are as thoroughly separated as though a mile apart.

—Rev. J. H. Burrows, an ex-graduate of the Peterborough Collegiate Institute, after an absence of 18 years in Manitoba, is visiting his old friends in town.

History and Production of the Goldfields of Boulder County, Colorado, Portraying Economic Conditions Which Predict the Coming Goldfields of Colorado and Presenting the Stock Offering of a Great Gold Mining Enterprise of the United States Gold Corporation

FREE

Our booklet on the gold fields of Boulder County is off the press, and is being distributed free to investors. We have prepared this book to advertise the gold fields of Northern Colorado and our great gold mining enterprise. The books will be free for the asking while they last. It will tell you of how over fifty millions have been added to the world's wealth in production of gold, silver and copper under primitive methods and from surface workings of an average depth of not to exceed 250 feet It will tell you of its great tungsten belt, the largest in the world. It will tell you of the existence of a diversity of precious and rare minerals, unrivaled by any other gold fields on this continent. It will tell you of a mineral area of twenty-five square miles literally covered with a network of veins practically undeveloped, with only one shaft below the thousand foot and half a dozen below the six hundred foot level. It will tell you of a gold field nearer to the Denver smelters than any other in Colorado; of a change of economic conditions, in this section, which will enable the miner to ship ore to the smelters, at a net profit, that is now being thrown over the dumps in other sections of Colorado; it will tell you of a field so attractive that it resulted in the construction of two railways from one end of the field to the other. It will tell you of the substitution of modern and up-to-date mining methods, in place of the primitive ones of the past; in short, it will tell you of all those conditions which predict for the gold fields of Boulder County the coming gold fields of Colorado.

It will also tell you of our great gold mining enterprise in the western part of the gold fields of Boulder County, near the continental divide, where nature has deposited her largest and richest treasure vaults; it will tell you of our economic development tunnel, driven to drain and develop a mineral estate almost a mile long and half a mile wide; of the thousands of tons of gold ore now blocked out and ready for shipment in the five different veins cut by this tunnel in driving it eight hundred feet, the result of two years' steady development work night and day; of our wonderful discovery of molybdenite—a rare metal—in large commercial quantities, foretelling for us the first molybdenite mine in Colorado that is producing, as well as a large and permanent source of revenue, of our project to drive this tunnel, long before the end of this year, into the famous Fourth of July dyke or "Mother Lode," from which the far famed Caribou group of mines produced twenty million dollars in gold, silver and copper from 1869 to 1893; of the tremendous possibilities for ore production which will follow the cutting of a mineral dyke from 50 to 100 feet wide at a depth of a thousand feet, and the great probability of our opening the first great copper mine in Colorado when we reach this dyke with the tunnel. In short, it will tell you of a gold mining enterprise that will go on a large producing basis long before the end of 1905; of an enterprise with possibilities second to none in Colorado, the developments of which have already shorn it of any element of risk or speculative features, rendering the investment offered a safe and attractive one.

For the financial and commercial standing of the business men who stand back of this enterprise we refer you to the First National Bank, Boulder, Colo, or Bradstreets Commercial Agency

The edition will not last long. If you would be sure of securing a copy, write to-day, or your name and address on a postal card, with the word "Booklet," will do the work.

A New Pleasure

Hundreds of People Now Enjoy the Use of Victoria Park by Night

A change has come over the style and character, not to mention numbers, of those who nightly enjoy the beauties and freshness of Victoria Park by night.

Many of our citizens, who attended last Friday night's band concert in this pretty public outing spot, having appreciated, to the full, their privileges, so long denied, of passing through the well lighted park in safety were equally disappointed by the recurrence of the old time darkness and danger the three following nights. This trouble has now been done away with for good, as the Light and Power Company have now arranged to have the current turned on every night. Last night it was remarked by residents living near the park, that the new lighting regime had not only rendered the place more safe, but had attracted scores of people, who strolled about the place in safety and enjoyment.

The cause of the light not being turned on for the three nights subsequent to last band night, was that the Council, or its proper officer, had neglected to notify the Light and Power Company that the place had been wired up and in readiness for the current.

—Lindsay Post says; Mr. W. R. Thompson, of Peterborough, insurance agent, was in town to-day on business. Miss Olive Weller, of Peterborough, visited her friend, Miss A. E. Cobern, Caroline street, on her way to Rochester and Buffalo, where she will visit. Mr. George Fitzgerald, cheese buyer, of Peterborough, was in town to-day shipping the cheese purchased by him last Monday.

Police Court

OFFICIALS

Chief of Police, G. L. Steel
Magistrate, R. W. Dunlop

Yesterday was his Worship's busy day at the police court. As McAuliffe, now committed on a charge of murder, was to appear, the audience was large and so intensely interested many of them stood alone, forgetful of the usual pole or brick wall support.

The chief has evidently been on the warpath after merchants who seem to ignore the recent by-law prohibiting them from blocking the pavements with empty packing cases or other obstructions to pedestrians.

Mr. A. H. Stratton was charged with having left paper littered about his back door, to detriment of the scenery and beauty of "Pig Alley." The paper was in court as exhibit A. Mr. Stratton swore that the paper did not belong to him, adding that he taken his waste paper down to the furnace every day. He said that the Chief seemed to have him singled out, and would do better to watch the people who steal his (Stratton's) boxes and box lids from his store. He leaves his empty boxes in the rear of his store, and every three days takes them home for kindling wood. The cartage is 15 cents a load and the boxes only worth 10 cents each, so it would not pay to cart each box singly. Sworn positively the paper in court does not belong to him. Case dismissed.

Mr. W. H. Hamilton, the Simcoe street grocer, was charged with leaving three boxes on the pavement, on Simcoe street, from Monday night till 7 p.m. Tuesday night. Mr. Hamilton explained that one was a butter box left out for the express man who had not called for it.

Mr. Minicoolo, a fruit dealer on Hunter street, was up on a similar charge. P.C. Stewart swore that two boxes, with a plank on top of them had been left on the pavement. Minicoolo, who evidently has the courage to back his opinions, offered to bet the officer $100 that he was wrong, however, Mr. Stewart did not hold up his end of the bet. Mr. E. H. D. Hall, town solicitor, who appeared for the prosecution, said to his Worship, "As this is a first case under this by-law, we do not want to press for a fine, but simply to show merchants they must keep the law." Mr. Hamilton suggested that, in these prosecutions, the police make exceptions, asking "How is it that we have to keep our sidewalks clear, and you cannot walk up street without running into a barber's pole?"

His Worship in summing up the last two cases said; "The by-law is a good law. We cannot draw any line as to the amount of space merchants are entitled to on the pavements to display goods, whether small or large. A fine of $1 was imposed on each case. Mr. Minicoolo produced a wad of bills that showed he could have made his bet good.

Committed For Murder

Mr. R. H. Dennistoun, assisted in evidence taking by Mr. W. Johnston, appeared for the prisoner P. McAuliffe, with Mr. R. E. Wood, for the prosecution.

In stentorian tones the Chief thrice called "Manley Cole," but Mr. Cole did not respond. P. C. Stewart went in the box and swore he had personally served a subpoena on Cole at Havelock, had given him $1.25 travelling expenses and $1 witness fee. Whilst his Worship, and others interested, were getting out a warrant for Cole's arrest as a material witness in the case, Mr. Cole and a friend walked in. They had been waiting in the Council chamber, where Cole had been a witness at the coroner's inquest.

Cole in the box swore that, on June 1st, he had gone into Hudson's Hotel about 8.30 p.m. When he first went into the bar there was no one present but the bartender, so went outside the wash room and met Hudson there and shook hands with him. Hudson remarked to him, "I wish you had been here sooner, I have had some trouble here with a few fellows." Another man (whom he then recognized to be the prisoner McAuliffe, after a long and deliberate stare at him) went to the bar, and calling Hudson an insulting name, said, "Come on now!" Hudson said, "I cannot take that."

McAuliffe walked sideways towards the door with his hands behind him under his coat, and backed up to within a few feet of the screen doors. McAuliffe then pulled out something and smashed Hudson over the head. Hudson's head went back and he fell backwards, head towards the south, to the floor. Two men helped him up.

Under cross-examination by Mr. Dennistoun. Said Hudson had been a barkeeper like he was himself. Got into Peterborough that night from Gravenhurst. Mr. Dennistoun then enquired as to whether he had anything to drink at the various places touched at one his journey, mentioning Gravenhurst, Orillia, Blackwater, etc., until Cole remarked "I don't drink anything." "Oh! Well that will save some time in my investigation." Could not say whether Hudson was drunk that evening, and saw no signs of drink on McAuliffe. Hudson followed McAuliffe half way up the bar. Hudson told McAuliffe to get out of the house, and put up his "dukes" (hands) or get out. Hudson made no attempt to strike McAuliffe. McAuliffe did not hit Hudson whit his fists, was too far away from him, but with some implement. Does not know whether it was a sling shot or not, never saw one. When the implement struck Hudson, McAuliffe's hand was quite a foot away from Hudson's head. Then Hudson was struck by something thrown at him; it was all over in an instant. The implement bounced back after striking Hudson's head, he saw it pass through the air; it might have been a stone. Would not swear whether the screen doors were on or not, one of the outside doors was open. It is his opinion that McAuliffe threw whatever it was that hit Hudson.

Messrs. Wood and Dennistoun agreed that it was unnecessary to call any more witnesses, or go over the evidence already taken during coroner's inquest. His Worship said "There is enough evidence anyway to warrant a committment for trial on the charge of murder."

Although McCauliffe will appear before the October Assizes to answer to the charge of "Murder," the jury may, whilst considering their verdict, with the judge's consent, change it to that of "Manslaughter." This in itself is a serious enough charge, as section 236 of the Criminal Code says: "Every one who commits manslaughter is guilty of an indictable offence and liable for imprisonment for life. R.S.C. c. 162 s. 5.

$500 REWARD FOR WOMEN

WHO CANNOT BE CURED.

Backed up by over a third of a century of remarkable and uniform cures, a record such as no other remedy for the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women ever attained, the proprietors of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription now feel fully warranted in offering to pay $500 in legal money of the United States, for any case of Leucorrhea, Female Weakness, Prolapsus, or Falling of Womb which they cannot cure. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure.

The Vice-President Independent Order of Good Templars.

An experience which many women have was related by Miss Agnes Stebbings, of 231 East 29th Street, New York City, as follows: "I had very poor health for a year until life looked dark and dreary to me. Had headaches, backache, slim pain, my sleep was broken and fitful. I longed for health. Tried several medicines but none were of any lasting benefit until I took Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I soon realized that I had found the right remedy. It helped nature to throw off the poisons that saturated the system, removed all pains and strengthened the digestive organs, and brought the roses of health back to my cheeks. This medicine if taken occasionally keeps the system in perfect condition, helping it to throw off the disease and consequences of exposure to dampness. I am pleased to give it my endorsement."

WANTS WITTE TO SAVE THRONE

Czar Hates Minister, But Needs Him

STRONGEST MAN 'N RUSSIA

He May Leap to Leadership of Liberals—Russia's Terrible Plight

St Petersburg, July 4.—It is quite feasible that Sergius de Witte, ex-premier minister, may eventually appear in the present crisis with the full Rudership of the Liberals. The real cause of the meeting here of Prince Troubetskoy, Prince Dolgorukoff, M. Lvoff and others was not so much to arrange for another zemstvo congress, which could easily be held at Moscow, but to secure the benefit of M. De Witte's advice.

M. de Witte's position has been equivocal for months. He is feared by the Emperor's entourage and he was equally suspected by the Liberals. His natural bent was to support the government, but since the Emperor refused to accept his services he appears to have definitely climbed into the camp of the Liberals.

The Troubetskoy group, which represents the solid substantial men of Russia, manifest great alarm at the possibility of an armed revolt. They want a strong Liberal Government, but not anarchy, and they dread as much as the government does the possibility of bloody revolution in which property interests would be swept away before the brute passions of the mob.

The committee of ministers is expected to complete its consideration of the Boulgin project to-day. A few days ago it was reported that the Emperor favored postponing the matter until the council of the empire, whose members are now on their summer vacation, passes upon it, but present developments will probably make it too dangerous to attempt further delay.

The trouble is that the people have so often been told that they will be given greater participation in the government and so often deceived that they will now hesitate, it is said, to stop their revolutionary work until they have realized the hopes which have been inciting them to the use of force.

The Czar is handicapped by the absence of a strong man from his government. If there is a man who can save autocratic Russia, that man is Sergius De Witte, ex-finance minister of the empire. De Witte has sharply civilized the Emperor and the hurasmerney, and has predicted that if the methods of the government were not changed a revolution would occur. It can be appreciated that the Emperor has had no desire to subordinate himself to one whom he regards as a bitter enemy But that he will have to do if he wishes to remain on his throne is now regarded here as beyond question.

Equally as strong in the Liberal opinion of De Witte. They recognise in him Russia's greatest statesmen, and if he will work with them, will welcome him to the ranks in delight.

Canal Tolls Abolished

Good News for Shippers per Trent Valley Canal

What will be good news to shippers per T. V. C., and still more to be appreciated, by our citizens on completion of the canal, is an Order-in-Council, passed June 22nd, which says:

The Governor-General in Council,—

Whereas, by an Order-in-Council passed on February 25th, 1906, it was ordered that the system of exemption from tolls for the passage of vessels, passengers or cargoes, through the Dominion Canals be continued in force during the season of 1905 "only."

And Whereas it is now deemed expedient that there should be a definite abandonment of the system of toll collection without time limit.

Therefore, the Governor-General in Council is pleased in virtue of the provisions of Section 13, Chapter 37 of the Revised Statutes of Canada, "An act respecting the Department of Railways and Canals," to declare that all vessels, boats, rafts, cribs, and other craft, passengers and cargoes hereforward shall be and the same are hereby exempted from the payment of tolls for passage through any and all of the canals of the Dominion.

Mr. J. H. McClellan, Superintendent of the Trent Canal, was yesterday seen by a Times representative, and in reply to an inquiry stated that he had received notification that the order is applicable to the waters of the Trent Canal. The announcement will be received with great pleasure in Peterborough, to the industries of which it will prove a decided boon.

Bridges Taken Over

County Council Surrenders Bridges to Government

Yesterday the members of the County Council, accompanied by Mr. J. H. McClellan, Superintendent Trent Canal, drove to Bridgenorth, where they embarked on board the Government steamer Empire. The object of the trip was to formally hand over portions of the bridges at Chemong Lake, Gannon's Narrows and Buckhorn. This was done Mr. McClellan accepting the bridges on behalf of the Minister of Railways.

The party also inspected the bridges at Burleigh and Lakefield, which are not included in those surrendered to the Government.

Mr. J. E. Belcher, County Engineer, and a number of invited guests, accompanied the party.

The same gentlemen will proceed down to Rice Lake today, inspecting the bridges on the way. They will return by rail this evening from Hastings.

57th Regiment Received With Open Arms in Ottawa on Their Trip

Previous to their trip on the 1st of July, it is fourteen years since the 57th Regiment, as a military corps, have visited Ottawa. To say the boys enjoyed themselves is to use too feeble an expression. From the Minister of Militia down to the smallest urchin of the street, every one in Ottawa took an interest in, and tried to make things pleasant for, our boys-in-red. This trip was in return of hospitality the 57th extended to their brothers-in-arms, the Governor-General's Foot Guards, Ottawa, the most attractive both entertained, on Friday night at 10.30, until their return early Monday morning, it was simply one huge hurrah!

They owned Ottawa whilst there, and, although given carte blanche, it is to the deserved credit of our local soldiers, that their actions were universally considered, and correctly, those of gentlemen and soldiers. The kindly words used by Lieut.-Col. D. O. C., of No. 4 District, referred to the conduct of the visiting militiamen, were re-echoed by many others of the Ottawa military officers and civilians.

During this Ottawa trip, the 57th turned out in full strength, over 400 hundred men and officers going. Lieut. McLean, as transport officer, carried out his arduous labors with the greatest credit, as proved by the orderly with which the Regiment climbed aboard the cars and was off. Mr. McIlroy, local C. P. R. ticket agent, had every arrangement made to work like well oiled clockwork. The camping ground was in Cartier square, where everything was in readiness for their reception.

At noon the officers of the G.G.F. G's and other distinguished military officers were guests of the 57th officers at luncheon at the marquee on the camping grounds.

One of the most interesting events of this trip was the church parade to Christ's Church cathedral, of which Rev. H. Hilton, Chaplain of the Guards, is rector. 380 of the Guards accompanied the 57th to church.

The return trip was accomplished in equally good and safe manner, as when the boys went down.

Victoria Park Lights

Why Does not the Council Arrange to Have the Lights Turned on?

Why do not the "Grave and reverend seignors," who warm the council chamber chairs, do something more about the lights in Victoria Park? True, they have had the wires and lamps placed in position! The Light and Power Company have done all their contract calls for, the power being ready for anyone wishing to turn it on. On Saturday evening hundreds of people came to the park anticipating a pleasant evening stroll through the grass and tree-bounded paths, but no light was in evidence, so three citizens had to return home without enjoying a pleasure, that three seconds of time would have given them. Again on Sunday night the park was in darkness and danger as of yore, until a gentleman, overhearing three ladies say, "What a shame we cannot go through the park, why don't they light it up?" went to the band stand and turned the switch. Within fifteen minutes, the park, until then almost untenanted, was filled with people having a good time. The council should instruct the police to have this switch turned on every evening, as soon as it grows dusk. Another matter might well be considered by them; if any citizen is able, as he can do now, to turn the lights on, so could any mischievous boy, in a moment, turn all the lights off when the park is crowded. The band stand switch should be enclosed in a locked box and the police be given the key.

A Lindsay Suicide

Mr. Mallett, of Lindsay, Watchman-Warder Ends His Life

On Sunday, what had been dreaded by the friends of the late Mr. A. W. Mallett, city editor of the Watchman-Warder, so sadly proved that their fears were justified. For some time past the unfortunate editor had shown signs of mental derangement, and grave fears were held, by those personally acquainted, that he might commit some mad act.

On Sunday he went into the press room of his paper, took a loaded rifle, and, removing his right boot and sock, used the toes of his naked foot to press the trigger. The bullet pierced his heart and death must have been instaneous.

The deceased was formerly a minister of the Gospel and was been in his late position some years.

Mr. Mallett, who was about thirty years of age, was a bright, clever newspaper man, but of late his mind had been affected.

The deceased was missed from his boarding house on Sunday morning. Dr. Burrows, coroner, viewed the remains, and ordered their removal to Anderson and Nugent's undertaking rooms in Lindsay.

REVOLUTION IN CHINA

Exiled Friend of Emperor Arousing Chinks in Amered

Philadelphia, Pa., July 4.—Kang Yu Wei, claiming to be a friend of the Chinese emperor and to have been exiled by the Dowager Empress, delivered an address to a hundred Chinamen at a mass meeting today. Gen. Lee, a soldier of fortune, also an exile, who is drilling seventy-two battalions in seventy-two American cities, was with him. The Chinamen were greatly excited, and when Kang asked who were willing to die for reform every man volunteered. The Chinese in America and China are said to be preparing for a revolution against the Dowager Empress.

First Meeting of Peterboro's City Council

Routine Business Only Engage the City Fathers' Attention--Improved Fire Protection to be Considered Wednesday Night.

The City Fathers met in their first regular session as a "City Council" last night, when there were present Mayor H. Beat and Aldermen Johnston, Bradley, Hall, Mason, Crowe, Leary, Hall, Batten, McIntyre, Scott Adams.

The minutes of the preceding meeting were confirmed.

COMMUNICATIONS.

From the Police Force, asking for their usual summer holidays. This matter was left to the Chairman of the Supervision committee and the Chief of Police to act in accordance with the request.

A number of petitions for granolithic sidewalks were referred to the Board of Works.

A communication was received from the Union of Canadian Municipalities, asking that a deputation be appointed to attend the annual convention of this association at Winnipeg on July 25, 26 and 27. The Mayor was delegated to attend this gathering, at the city's expense.

The complaint of a stagnant drain in the Fifth Ward was referred to the Board of Works.

The City Solicitor reported that the plumbing bylaw would affect all work contracted for previous to the bylaw being passed and not completed until after it came in force. He advised, however, that the inspector be allowed to use his discretion in such cases as would not endanger the public health were the bylaw not strictly enforced. Ald. Hicks moved, seconded by Ald. Leary, that all plumbing commenced after the incipiency of the bylaw be carried out according to its provisions, but in cases where work was started before the passing of the bylaw, the City Solicitor exercise his judgment as to whether the plumbing bylaw be strictly enforced or not, although the work must be sanitary.—Carried.

The Retail Merchants' Association asked for further consideration of the bylaw recently passed regulating the time when cases of merchandise shall be opened on the sidewalks. They asked that they be allowed to open up packages at their earliest convenience after receipt of same, irrespective of any time limit, and subject to the supervision of the police. They guaranteed to use expedition in such cases, and to thoroughly clear away all debris. They asked that the city provide one or two ladders of sufficient length to reach the top stories of business buildings in case of fire. The latter request was referred to the Fire, Water and Light committee, but the bylaw regulating the opening and removing of merchandise on the sidewalks was allowed to stand in its original form.

Mr. R. M. Roy's request that he be allowed to retain his present business sign was received, and the police authorized to see that said sign is removed, it having been erected contrary to this bylaw governing such matters.

BYLAWS.

A bylaw to adopt a corporate seal for the City of Peterborough passed its several readings.

A bylaw to provide for the weighing of coal passed its several readings.

A bylaw to regulate the repair and moving of buildings in the City of Peterborough has its first reading and was referred to a committee of the Whole Council.

A bylaw to grant $75 to the Salvation Army Band passed its first, second and third readings. This band is to play in one of the parks as directed by the chairman of Finance.

BETTER FIRE PROTECTION.

Ald. Hicks raised the question of having a second fire rig in the hall while the other is away at a fire, and arranging for further improved fire protection.

Ald. Hicks moved, seconded by Ald. Hall, that these two matters be taken up by a committee of the Whole Council on Wednesday next.—Carried.

STONE CRUSHER WANTED.

Ald. Mason drew the Board of Works' attention to the wretched condition of Water street north, and asked that it receive immediate attention. This work will be taken up at the earliest possible date.

Ald. Adams remarked that a stone crusher is badly needed at the north end of the city. He had endeavored to borrow one from the Township of Smith, but that Council declined to lend their crusher, although they are willing to sell the machine, which cost $800.

This matter was referred to a committee of the Whole Council.

FIRE ESCAPES.

Ald. Johnston thought the bylaw regulating buildings within the fire limits should be so amended as to permit one to erect a wood shed or similar structures without building 12 inch walls. The permission of any 8 inch wall in such cases would, in his opinion, induce the substitution of brick structures for many delapidated buildings, many of which are veritable fire traps.

This matter will be taken up by a committee of the whole Council Wednesday night.

The Council then adjourned.

Want Time to Think

Board of Education Takes No Action on the Collegiate Institute Matter

At a meeting of the Board of Education held last night, those present were, Messrs. W. G. Ferguson (chairman), W. Pringle, Rogers, Jamieson, Hartley, Kennedy, Morrison, Hill and Stevenson.

Minutes of last meeting read and confirmed.

Miss G. Florence Bell asked for reappointment of teaching staff and raise of salary. Miss Nellie Evans resigned from South Central school staff.

Mr. Stevenson read the report of Finance committee, recommending the payment of accounts to the amount of $217.43.

Mr. John Crane read the report of the Property committee, recommending that the Peterborough Fuel and Cartage Co.'s tender for coal at $4.90 per ton be accepted.

Mr. W. Pringle read the report of the Supervision committee, recommending that Ormond & Walsh be awarded the contract of supplying chemical supplies for the Collegiate Institute. But in regard to the tender for school books and supplies, that the matter be referred back to the Supervision committee with power to act.

The High School Inspector's (Toronto) report was read, and proved to be very favorable.

It was moved and carried that the schoolboards prize b paid.

Mr. Hill moved that a vote of thanks be tendered to Mr. R. H. Hall for a handsome map sent the Board.

In reference to a question about the present system of charging for school supplies, Mr. Pringle said the books are kept in better shape; very few complaints have come in. Mr. Hill defended the present system and said no complaints came in but could be satisfied: it has been adopted everywhere. The system makes the children neat, and has saved them money.

Mr. Hill moved that the Board adjourn until 8.30, July 10th, for the appointment of teachers.

Mr. Morrison said the Board should discuss their defeat of last Thursday, but Mr. Hill thought it better to wait until next meeting, so they could discuss it more freely.

Mr. Hartley thinks that the Board has done a great deal for the public this past year, thinks the people do not appreciate what they have for them.

Mr. Hill's motion for adjournment until Monday, June 10th, carried.

HEAD, CUT OFF, OPENS EYES

Responds to Two Calls After Being Separated From the Man's Body

Paris, July 4.—At a recent guillotining at Orleans the doctors in attendance made a gruesome experiment. As the murderer's head fell into the basket the doctor seized it and shouted the man's name in the ear, whereupon the eyes opened slowly and then closed. This was done a second time, with the same effect, but to the third call there was no response.

Prof. Hartman explained that after death there is a sensibility of the tissues much longer in those executed in the full vigor of health than in the case of death after illness. In the Orleans case, he says, the eyelids opened not because the name was pronounced, but because the voice produced a reflex action on the nerves. They would have lifted just the same if any other name had been called.

ANOTHER TUNNEL PLANNED

Proposed to Build One Under the Niagara River

Buffalo, N.Y., July 4.—A story went round in New York yesterday that the Canada Southern and Michigan Central were to join in building a tunnel under the Niagara river. Strategists do not take much stock in the tale.

The Michigan Central owns the Canadian bridge at Suspension Bridge, and that is the main gateway for all its traffic from the Niagara frontier. It has a trackage arrangement with the International Bridge Company, which gives it the right to cross the Niagara on the International bridge with its Niagara division trains.

It has been reported from time to time that several roads were to join in building a bridge which would cross Grand Island, but there never has been anything definite to it.

PETERBOROUGH, JULY 4, 1905

MAKING DEATH LESS TERRIBLE

Governor Hoch, of Kansas, has joined the ranks of those who advocate simplicity for funerals and the elimination of black as an emblem of mourning. In an address before the Kansas undertakers annual convention in Topeka, the governor urged the assistance of the funeral directors in this movement towards rationalism in the last rites for the dead. He also decried the grim custom of exposing the dead to public view, "I never could understand why the dead should be exposed to public view," said the governor. "I always thought the dead were sacred. All public exhibitions are of doubtful propriety. The average person wants to be seen at his or her best—and it is one of the afflictions of disease that this is not so with the sufferer. I think that if the dead could speak they would say: 'Now when the luster has left the eye, when the beam has departed from the face, when I appear at my worst, I do not want to be exposed to public view.'"

One of the strange paradoxes of our Christian civilization is that we preach the doctrine of immortality and at the same time gainsay this doctrine by garbling ourselves in the emblem of night and amid the lugubrious waving of black plumes wail over our dead as lost to us forever. We preach the resurrection and the life everlasting in the sublime radiance of heaven, yet we go down to the gloom of the tomb affected by uncertainty and faltering hopes. We lay our dead loved ones into the earth from whence they came, and instead of exemplifying our confidence in the promise of immortality by wearing white and placing the brightest blossoms upon the stilled breast, we mourn as though death were the finality and the grave the end.

Among many savage peoples, belief in the immortality of the soul is a part of religious systems more or less theologic. Devotees of these systems have an unfaltering trust in their dogmas. Death to them is a transformation; a freeing of the spirit from mundane subjugation to a higher sphere. Thus we see in their death rites the semblance of joy, thanksgiving and triumph. Feasts and dancing mark their funeral ceremonies and no element of doubt exists that the spirit of the dead shall rise to a glorious immortality. Christianity might learn something from our savage brothers. It might learn to exemplify faith to the end. Those who live their lives in godliness and religious observance should not weaken at the door of the tomb and show by their customs of mourning that their faith is shaken at that last and severest test of religious consolation. We ought not to go to the extreme in manifestations of spiritual exhilaration. But there is a dignified medium ground that interjects profound respect for the dead with the exalted solemnity of perfect simplicity.

The wearing of crepe mourning garb is a survival of the ancient forms of debasement when the female members of the family were cast-lowed upon the death of the lord of the household. In certain benighted communities of India the custom still prevails of burning the widow upon the funeral pyre of her dead husband. In our enlightened country the wearing of weeds is fast passing away. Once in no more evidence of the anguish of bereavement than those curious epitaphs one may see in old cemeteries and to which black devils, skulls and crossbones and hideous skeletons lend pictorial ghastliness.

The beauty and tender significance perfect simplicity in funeral rites will preserve their sacredness and at the same time shear them of those melancholy and somber accessories that contribute so much to the poignant depression and suffering of those who survive and invest death with many purely psychological terrors.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS

Any even numbered section of Dominion lands in Manitoba or the North-west Territories, excepting 8 and 26, which has not been homesteaded, or reserved to provide wood lots for settlers, or for other purposes, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one quarter section of 160 acres more or less.

ENTRY

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land to be taken is situate, or if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration Winnipeg, or the local agent for the district in which the land is situate, receive authority for some one to make entry for him. A fee of $10 is charged for a homestead entry.

HOMESTEAD DUTIES

A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required by the provisions of the Dominion Lands Act, and the amendments thereto, to perform the conditions connected therewith, under one of the following plans:

(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years. It is the practice of the Department to require a settler to bring 15 acres under cultivation, but if he prefers he may substitute stock; and 20 head of cattle, to be actually his own property, with buildings for their accommodation, will be accepted instead of the cultivation.

2) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased), of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by residence upon the first homestead, if the second homestead is in the vicinity of the first homestead.

(3) If a settler was entitled to and has obtained entry for a second homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by residence upon the first homestead, if the second homestead is in the vicinity of the first homestead.

(4) If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

The term "vicinity" used above is meant to indicate the same township, or an adjoining or cornering township.

A settler who avails himself of the provisions of clauses (2) (3) or (4) must cultivate 30 acres of his homestead, or substitute 30 head of stock, with buildings for their accommodation, and have besides 80 acres substantially fenced.

The privilege of a second entry is restricted by law to those settlers only who completed the duties upon their first homesteads to entitle them to patent on or before the 2nd of June, 1889.

Every homesteader who fails to comply with the requirements of the homestead law is liable to have his entry cancelled and the land may again be thrown open for entry.

APPLICATION FOR PATENT

Should be made at the end of three years before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector. Before making application for patent the settler must give six months notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa of his intention to do so.

INFORMATION

Newly arrived immigrants will receive, at the Immigration Office in Winnipeg, or at any Dominion Lands Office in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories, information as to the lands that are open for entry, and from the officers in charge, free of expense, advice and assistance in securing lands to suit them. Full information respecting the land, timber, coal and mineral laws, as well as respecting Dominion Lands in the Railway Belt in British Columbia, may be obtained upon application to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, Manitoba, or to any of the Dominion Lands Agents in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories.

W. W. CORY,
Deputy Minister of the Interior

N. B.—In addition to Free Grant Lands, to which the Regulations above stated refer, thousands of acres of most desirable lands are available for lease or purchase from railroad and other corporations and private firms in Western Canada.

IF YOU WANT MONEY

Buy a block of stock of the Tonopah-Crow Gold and Copper Company. This stock is selling at 18 cents a share. It will be paying a profit in one year of not less than 25 per cent. on capitalization, which will mean a value of the stock of $2.50 a share. It may be worth $5.00 in less than two years time. There are more than 100 mineral veins crossing this property. The lowest average of ores as far as developed is $54 a ton, which does not include numerous small bodies running from $100 to $1,000. The money to be raised in these sales of stock is to be put in hoisting plant, equip and rapidly develop the mine, which includes six mining claims and mill site; 125 acres. Where can you make so much money in so short a time? This is an opportunity that seldom occurs.

STRICTURE AND KIDNEY DISEASE CURED.

G. E. Wright.

"I had stricture for eleven years. It finally brought on Bright's Disease of the Kidneys. I had an uncomfortable shooting pain in the groin and feeling as though something was in the urethra. My back was weak and I could scarcely stoop over. Urine was full of sediment. Had a desire to urinate frequently. Family doctors, so-called specialists, patent medicines, electric belts, all failed. I was discouraged. I had spent hundreds of dollars in vain. Finally I consulted Drs. Kennedy & Kergan as the last resort. I had heard a great deal about them and concluded from the fact that they had been established over 25 years that they understood their business. I am delighted with the results. In one week I felt better and in a few weeks was entirely cured. Have gained sixteen pounds in weight."

AN ODE TO THE BATH TUB

By the Junior Reporter of This Great Family Journal

The thermometer was at the sizzling point, and the reporter who longed for a plunge in the cold swimming hole, seized pen and paper and gave free rein to his fancy. A fan assisted in cooling the reporter's brow, and he made frequent trips to the ice water next door;

CANTO I.

Some find enjoyment in travel, others in kodaking views,
Some take to automobiling in order themselves to amuse,
But for me there is only one pleasure, although you may call me a "dub,"
There's nothing to my mind can equal a plunge in the porcelain tub.

CANTO II.

Some go to ball games for pleasure, others go bobbing for eels;
Some find delight in making money, especially in real estate deals,
I care not for ball games or fishing, or money unless to buy grub;
But I'd walk forty miles before breakfast to roll in the porcelain tub.

CANTO III.

Some can find sport on the golf links, while many to Rice Lake do flock,
The trolley and boat and the golf links are not one, two, nine, with a rub;
Oh, what in the world is finer than a dip in the porcelain tub?

CANTO IV.

Some run a dairy for pleasure, others a ten-acre farm;
Some turn their heads to insurance, and say it is life's dearest charm.
But for dairies or sweet-scented posies, or old books I care not a rub;
I pass them all up, thank you kindly, for the little old porcelain tub.

BOY STRETCHES 2 INCHES

Increases Height On Machine to Enter the Naval Academy

Annapolis, Md., July 1. — Among those who have passed the mental examination for admission to the naval academy is Luther Welsh of Kansas City, who finding during his preparatory work that he was too short to meet the entrance requirements, underwent a stretching process by means of a specially devised machine. Welsh gained the two inches he needed to increase his height to 5 feet 2 inches, the minimum prescribed by the regulations.

MODERN BATTLES LONGER

More Men Engaged and More Time to Fight It Out

Tokio, July 1.—Concerning the battle of Mukden, Major General Nagaoka, assistant chief of the headquarter's staff in Tokio, has made some interesting statements in a speech made before the Oriental Association. This increasing magnitude of the forces that face each other was pointed out by him. Thus in the Franco-Austrian war of 1805 the armies on both sides totalled 238,000; in the campaign of 1813 there were 250,000 men engaged, and in 1866 Prussia and Austria marshaled 430,000 of all ranks. But the battle of Liao Yang saw 460,000 in the fighting lines; the battle of the Sha Ho 580,000 and the battle of Mukden 850,000. Major General Nagaoka did not explain the processes of his calculation, but inasmuch as the Russians at Mukden are not supposed to have mustered more than 300,000, it would appear from the statement of this eminent authority that the Japanese armies aggregated 470,000.

Another noteworthy point is the duration of present day combats. It used to be predicted by military experts that arms of precision and other deadly instruments furnished by modern science must have the effect of shortening fights. The opposite seems to be the case. Thus the fight at Wagram, in 1809, lasted fourteen hours, that of 1812, at Borodino, twelve and a half hours; that of 1813, at Leipsig, three days, and that on the Lisaine three days. But the fighting at Liao Yang went on for eight days; that on the Sha-ho for five days, and that at Mukden, for fourteen days.

Everything is on a scale of the grandest magnitude. At Liao Yang the Japanese had more than 140 miles of telephone and telegraph in operation. In the war with China, a few years ago, the number of letters sent home from troops in the field throughout the whole war was 12,000,000, whereas in the single month of December last, the men dispatched 15,284,000 letters to Japan, and received 14,567,000.

Again, whereas the sums lodged by the troops in the postal savings bank during the campaigns of 1894-95 aggregated only 6,000,000 yen, they totaled 20,000,000 yen in the present war up to the end of December last. This war proves in the opinion of the Japanese staff that whereas contrivances of war were expected to minimize the value of the soldiers' physique, the latter possesses in reality more importance than ever.

A LONG SENTENCE

Ten Centuries and One Day at Hard Labor Causes Comment

Waco, Texas, July 1.—Loud expressions of amazement to-day greet the statement that Lee Robertson, a negro, has been sentenced to 1,000 years and a day for attempting an assault. Had the deed been accomplished a dead sentence would have been promptly rendered. Mrs. Alonzo Robinson, the victim, was badly hurt in her struggle in self-defence, but will recover.

Lee asked the court to sentence him so that the term might at once begin. He will feel safer behind the bars, and cares little for the long season of his confinement.

HERE IS A CURE FOR

Sleeplessness

Weak, Listless, Sleepless Men and Women Cured Every Day by D. Hamilton's Pills.

The physical suffering and mental anguish that victims of sleeplessness endure is indeed a sad story. But in Dr. Hamilton's Pills there is swift relief from this awful condition. Thousands have proved the merit of this grand medicin, among them Mrs. G. T. Lyons, one of the best known residents of Geneva, who writes: "My health ran down and I was unable to sleep. I had headache and pains in different parts of my body. In the morning I was weary and exhausted—no rest or comfort came from the snatches of sleep I got.

"Dr. Hamilton's Pills braced me at once. After the first night I got refreshing sleep, that extreme weariness left me and I recovered very fast.

A Prosperous Society

The Grand Camp of the Sons of Scotland, were in session in Toronto last week, and the report of the Grand Secretary shows that the Order has now over 200 subordinate camps, and over 8,000 members. The amount paid out for death claims during the past year was $36,651.32, and the reserve fund now amounts to $191,267.42. The delegate from MacAlpin's Camp, No. 36, Peterboro, was J. M. Brooks.

Children's Aid Society

Mr. Wm. O'Connor, Inspector Neglected Children's Department, has been in Peterboro and vicinity for the past few days enquiring into the conditions surrounding wards of the Children's Aid Society who are placed in foster-homes. Mr. O'Connor reports that the farmers of Peterboro and Northumberland counties treat the children entrusted to them with great consideration. Occasionally it is necessary to ask that young children be allowed to attend school more regularly, but this is rare, and the request is usually cheerfully complied with. It is satisfactory to know that the boys who were placed in situations from the Penetanguishene Reformatory, when that institution was closed fourteen months ago, are, almost without exception doing well. They are earning for themselves instead of being a charge on the community, and better still, are gaining in self-reliance and self-respect.

Another Doctor in the City

Dr. N. G. McKinnon, who recently sold out a lucrative practice in Millbrook, arrived in the city, accompanied by Mrs. McKinnon, yesterday. The doctor, who will practice at 453 Water street, brought up a carload of furniture, and will at once proceed to get his new quarters into shape. Dr. McKinnon will not, to use a colloquialism, "Hang out his shingle," for ten days or a fortnight. He comes very highly spoken of by his old friends in Millbrook. A few evenings ago, some of his friends called him unexpectedly to the house of a friend in Millbrook, where they presented him with a valuable travelling bag and an obstretrical surgical case.

Canadian Product in the Lead

A Few of Peterborough Citizens Who Have Recently Purchased Gerhard Heintzman Pianos

According to the official returns only six hundred and forty-three American made pianos have been sold in Canada during the last fiscal year and from the valuation of the same, it is fair to assume that seventy-five per cent. of those pianos have been of the cheap grades.

This official report proves clearly that our musical and cultured people have come to the conclusion that Canada is producing a piano which fulfills their most exacting requirements, and as an indication of how thoroughly this fact is appreciated by our citizens we furnish below a list of patrons of "Canadas Premier Piano and National Instrument" the Gerhard Heintzman, supplied by Mr. W. H. Isaac, local representative for Peterborough District;

Hon. J. R. Stratton; Peterborough Conservatory of Music; Young Women's Christian Association; Mrs. A. L. Davis; F. H. Dobbin, Daily Review; Ladies' Aid, George street Methodist Church; Mrs. George Scott; W. H. Robertson, Daily Times; Arthur Poe; A. Peters; Johnston Cooney; Mrs. Sarah Johnston, Mrs. John Henry; Young People's Society, Christian Endeavor, Presbyterian church, Keene; M. Lyle, Geo. A. Baker and others.

Mr. W. H. Isaac, local salaried representative and Mr. Ruse, Superintendent of Agencies, through whom the purchases were made, may with the Gerhard Heintzman Company be congratulated upon such an array of recent customers.

Mr. Neal Married

Popular Local Disciple of Esculapius Now a Benedict

An interesting event was celebrated in Ridgetown, Kent County, on Wednesday last, when Dr. F. C. Neal, 296 King street, Peterborough, was united in marriage to Miss Bertha Rayeraft, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Rayeraft, at the home of the bride's parents.

About fifty guests witnessed the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Jasper Wilson, pastor of the Methodist church. Mr. William Neal, of Walton, brother of the groom, was best man, and Miss Maude Rayeraft, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid.

Dr. Neal and his bride have returned to the city, and have taken up their residence at 296 King street. Their many friends will wish them every success and happiness. Mrs. Neal will not receive until September.

ATHLETIC WORLD

BY OUR SPORTING EDITOR.

The Port Hope Turf Club has to be congratulated on the success of their races held July 1st, both as to the races and gate money, which amounted to over $600 for the first day. The race course, situated on Protestant Hill is a natural amphitheatre, giving good location from which thousands could see every stretch of the track. The affair was well managed, and little or no friction was encountered anywhere. The judges were Messrs. Fred Burke, and R. B. Monroe; Chas. Wilmot was starter; Tom Chalk, clerk of the course, and A. Rountree, time keeper. The track was in good shape, and some good speeding was seen.

In the 2.30 class, Jos Allen gave Donna Belle a grand tussle for second place. About two hundred went down from Peterboro, most of whom came back on the special 10.30 train.

Saturday's program was:

HALF-MILE GREEN RACE.

Horse.	Owner.
Muriel Wilks	A. J. Brown
Country Girl	J. Hart
Maj. Hambury	H. Ashley
Prince	R. Radcliffe
Ellen City	M. Coyle
Fanny Proctet	Cap Jarrell

This was won by Ellen City, with Muriel Wilks, second.

2.30 CLASS.

Horse.	Owner.
Bonetta	W. A. Fanning
Donna Belle	Dr. Johnston
Sir Oliver	A. Wales
Jos Allen	S. Hullett
Orillia Bell	F. J. Daley
Franklin A.	A. L. Phillips

Ellen City won, with Muriel Wilks second.

HALF-MILE RUN.

Horse.	Owner.
Dominion Day	R. Hutton
Victoria	J. Coventry
The World	Elwood & Lati
Chatalaine	C. Phair
Jimmy	P. Pasto
Cobourg Maid	J. McIntosh
Weston Mistress	F. J. Smith

Yesterday the local Turf Club received several more communications entering more flyers for the running races here on July 12th and 13th, these included Wilfrid Laurier entered by R. J. Dowie, Ogdensburg, N.Y., and Greenfield entered by J. F. Smyth, Montreal, his riding colors being green and grey.

Frank G. Smith, editor of the Buffalo Horse World, has been engaged as starter here for the local races. All the horses entered at Port Hope, with others entered here yesterday will take part in the local races.

About 30 Hamess will arrive here today and to-morrow, to work out on the local track. It would be a good idea if the Young Conservative Club would make arrangements, during their picnic on July 8th, to have a parade of these horses round the track; this would help their gate receipts, and, at the same time, advertise the races.

Police Court

OFFICIALS

Chief of Police, G. I. Read
Magistrate, D. W. Dumble

James Wilson had the honor (?) of being the first man arrested in the brand new City of Peterborough. P. C. Adams gathered him in early Saturday morning just as folks were coming down George street, to see what difference our new title had effected on things in general.

Yesterday morning with Magistrate Harry Rush occupying the forum, Mr. Wilson was charged with being a "wag," and allowed to go on suspended sentence.

Local Incidents

—The Bank of Ottawa opened its doors for business yesterday morning. Mr. Cyril Currier, of Ottawa, is accountant.

—The legal firm of Messrs. Roger & Bennett had the honor of registering the first deed for the City of Peterborough yesterday morning.

—Frank Moffatt, an employee in McLean's box factory, Norwood, fell into the hoop vat on Thursday last and had one of his legs severely mauled. He attempted to jump over the trough instead of going around it, and miscalculated the distance.

—The Hotel National has had a fine new sign placed over the main entrance. The board, of solid golden oak, 19 feet long, has the words "Hotel National," in large carved and gilded letters affixed. Messrs. J. J. Turner & Sons, made a neat and attractive job of it.

Brides

Are always "beautiful" and always "happy" according to the society reporters, and in this case the report is mostly true. There may be unhappy brides in fiction, but there are few in real life. But how hard it is to look upon many of the wives we know, and believe that they were once beautiful and happy. Pain, the result of womanly disease, has marred beauty and undermined happiness.

$500 REWARD FOR WOMEN WHO CANNOT BE CURED.

Backed up by over a third of a century of remarkable and uniform cures, a record such as no other remedy for the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women ever attained, the proprietors of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription now feel fully warranted in offering to pay $500 in legal money of the United States, for any case of Leucorrhea, Female Weakness, Prolapsus, or Falling of Womb which they cannot cure. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure.

"I have thought for some time I would write you and tell you of the great improvement in my health since taking your 'Favorite Prescription,'" says Mrs. H. B. Jones, of Forest, N.C. "When I began its use I was a physical wreck and had despaired of ever having any health again. Could not sit up all day, and was so weak I could not walk one quarter of a mile. I noted a great improvement in my health before the first bottle was used. Was suffering with almost every pain that a woman is subject to; had inflammation of ovaries, painful and suppressed periods, and other symptoms of female disease. After taking six bottles of 'Favorite Prescription,' I felt like a new person. Can ride horseback and take all kinds of exercise and not feel tired."

Russian Mutineers Have Declared War

Notify the Powers They Will Fight All Russian Warships That Will Not Join Them--Officers Volunteer to Sink the Battleship.

Bucharest, July 4. — Before the Kniaz Potemkin sailed from Kustenji, a delegate from the crew handed the prefect a proclamation addressed to the representatives of the powers in Roumania, declared war on all Russian vessels which refuse to join the mutineers.

The proclamation says the Kniaz Potemkin will respect neutral territory and foreign shipping.

The delegation requested that the proclamation be forwarded to the powers.

TO WIPE OUT SHAME.

Odessa, July 4.—It is reported persistently in army and navy circles that the Kniaz Potemkin is being stalked and pursued by several torpedo boats who intend to sink her. The crews of these boats consist of officers and stokers who volunteered. Regret is expressed at the prospective destruction of such a splendid and powerful battleship, and at the inevitable loss of life, but this is thought preferable to the continued dishonor of her presence in the Black Sea, commanded by mutineers.

THREATEN A VILLAGE.

Berlin, July 4.—A despatch to the Lokal Anzeiger from Odessa says the Kniaz Potemkin threatened to attack a village of German colonists on the coast near Odessa and requisitioned and took on board some cattle.

STRIKE AND BLOODSHED.

Warsaw, July 4.—An extensive strike was inaugurated at Kalisz yesterday as a mark of sympathy with the victims of the rioting at Lodz. The railroad station at Kalisz was attacked today and the freight sheds were wrecked. Gendarmes fired on the rioters and troops have been requisitioned to restore order.

GENERAL STRIKE ON THURSDAY.

St. Petersburg, July 4.—The executive committee of the Social Revolutionists has issued a stirring appeal, summoning the workmen and all classes of society interested in the overthrow of the present regime to show sympathy with all of those who fought for freedom at Lodz, Warsaw, Odessa and other places as well as with the sailors who mutinied at Odessa and Libau by inaugurating a general political strike. The workmen's leaders here have supplemented this by the proclamation of a general strike for Thursday. Over 25,000 men are already out, and more or less disorder has curred.

Ungrateful Burglars

Mr. Greenslade Robbed by the Men to Whom He had Been a Good Samaritan

A few days ago two young men named Switzer and French, respectively, came to the boot and shoe store, corner of Charlotte and Aylmer streets, belonging to Mr. W. A. Greenslade, and asked him to oblige them by keeping their grips and valises until called for. Mr. Greenslade complied with their request. On Monday he was in Toronto on business, and returned by the midnight train. On going to his store, after arrival, he was astonished to find that his premises had been broken into and everything showed evidence of a hasty search for valuables having been made. Mr. Greenslade, first thing yesterday morning, swore out warrants for the arrest of Switzer and French, whose grips and valises had been taken away from his store as well as the boots.

The house breakers, had pulled out nails holding up the upper window, down at the rear of Greenslade's store and climbed in. Mr. Greenslade mourns the loss of two pairs of boots from his shelves, as well as the grips he had kindly allowed the young men to store at his shop. It appears that these two young men represented themselves as being agents here of the House Furnishing and Installment Company, of Toronto, and were taking orders for this company.

Mr. Greenslade, yesterday, told The Times that these two men had beaten the City Hotel and the Cavanaugh House out of several weeks board. Warrants are now out for their arrest, as it is likely the local police will soon bring them to justice, although they have "jumped" town.

Yesterday's Storm

Lightning Takes a Trip Along Wires on George Street

Yesterday afternoon when the sudden deafening clap of thunder caused a sudden scattering of George street's pedestrians, much excitement was caused by action of the flash of lightening immediately preceding it. The play of the electric fluid was quite noticeable along the George street and Simcoe street electric light and telephone wires. The fluid struck off several of the clips holding a telephone cable, just across from the Times office, and at every box on the George street poles, the play of fire was most ominous looking.

Two clerks pulling up the awning on Mr. A. Rountree's George street grocery store, instinctively dropped the ropes and ran into the shop, as a blinding flash of lightning rushed along the wire ending on a pole at the corner of George and Hunter streets. No harm of any consequence occurred: it is a fortunate thing that the lightning came before the heavy rain storm, as had wires and poles been wet, there would have been calls for the fire brigade.

THE CZAR WAS WARNED

Alexieff Kept Him Posted on Korean Situation

CZAR URGED TO MOBILIZE

Emperor Anxious for Japs to Open Hostilities—Thought Occupation of Korea Would Convict Japs of all Violations of International Law

St. Petersburg, July 4.—In view of the present negotiations looking to the conclusion of the war between Russia and Japan, a short history of events leading up to the war, prepared from the highest sources, is interesting and opportune.

Admiral Alexieff telegraphed to the Czar December 24, 1903, from Port Arthur, informing his majesty that the Japanese were preparing to establish a protectorate over the Korean government, heedless of any diplomatic representations by Russia. Probably only 15,000 or 20,000 troops would be landed, but the whole Japanese fleet and the rest of the army were ready for war, which the admiral observed, constituted a grave danger for Russia.

Admiral Alexieff warned the Czar that the Japanese would forestall the Russians on the Yalu and the roads leading to the Eastern Chinese railway, which would ruin all of Russia's plans and force her to centralize any eventual operations further to the north and leave Port Arthur to its fate. Such good fortune for Japan at the commencement of the campaign would cause a rising on all the elements hostile to Russia in Northern China, who, relying on the proximity of the Japanese army, would be a serious menace to the Russian railway. The Japanese occupation of Korea, however, small the number of troops employed might be, would place Russia in a very bad strategic position, and would compel her, not with an desire of provoking war, but in self-defense, to take the necessary precautionary measures.

In view of these various considerations Admiral Alexieff suggested the mobilization of the Far Eastern districts, and, if possible, of the Siberian governments, the declaration of a state of seige in Manchuria for the purpose of effecting the concentration of the troops, the occupation of the mouths of the Yalu by advanced posts, the immediate despatch of the Tenth and Seventeenth army corps to Irkutsk on a war footing and preparations to mobilize further reinforcements. He also urged that a state of siege should be declared at Port Arthur and Vladivostok in order to facilitate the completion of the unfinished defenses. All of these measures Admiral Alexieff described as absolutely imperative.

He also telegraphed to St. Petersburg announcing that twenty-two Japanese transports with troops and guns were ready to sail Japan, he said, could easily send three or four divisions at a moment's notice.

As the result of these representations, on December 29, the Czar commanded Admiral Alexieff to mobilize the Far Eastern districts, to declare a state of siege in Manchuria, at Port Arthur and at Vladivostok and generally prepare for war. The occupation of the mouths of the Yalu, however, was, in the opinion of the Czar, undesirable, and should be carried out only in the last resort.

On December 30, 1903, Admiral Abaza, president of the committee for Eastern affairs, telegraphed to Admiral Alexieff, giving him an epitome of the Czar's views as expressed by him in numerous audiences. Admiral Abaza said the Czar considered that every year of peace gained was of enormous importance to Russia. Although he must not yield, Admiral Alexieff should do his utmost to avoid war. His policy should be firm but courteous in form, and should ignore unimportant details. There must be no discussion about Manchuria either with Japan or with any other power. That was an affair between Russia and China.

Russia was willing to take into consideration the commercial interests of Japan and other nations, provided they were under the Russian aegis and there were no settlements. Russia would not regard a Japanese occupation of Korea as a "casus belli." On the contrary, such an occupation would be very advantageous to Russia, because it would convict Japan of all violations of international law.

On January 3, 1904, Admiral Alexieff reported to the Czar expressing the opinion that the negotiations then in progress could not result in any understanding, owing to the insistently provocative tone of Japan, but tended more and more to increase the tension in the relations between Russia and Japan, and would probably lead to a rupture. He therefore asked his Majesty's opinion on the situation, dwelling pointedly on the advisability of studying the Korean question in all its bearings.

In view of the surprise of the Port Arthur garrison and ships by the Japanese on the night of Jan. 26 (February 8) 1904, the two following telegrams from the Czar to Admiral Alexieff are of special interest. The first, dated January 25 (February 7), reads:

"Seeing that diplomatic relations with Japan have been broken off, you can prevent, if you consider it necessary, any Japanese descent on Korea."

The next day his Majesty telegraphed:

"It is desirable that the Japanese not we, should begin hostilities. If they begin war against you, you should not prevent a descent on Southern Korea, or near Gensan, but if their fleet, with or without an ultimatum, passes the 38th parallel you have the right to attack it without waiting for the first shot. I place my trust in you. May God help you."

American Cereal Co. and Mr. Bogue Arrange a Settlement Out of Court

A suit that has long dragged its weary and expensive length along before the court has at last been settled by private agreement.

It is over a year since Mr. James Bogue entered his celebrated suit against the American Cereal Co. and after much disputation by contending counsel and the adding up of considerable expense to both parties involved, the matter, by advice of His Honor, Judge Weller, as local master of the High Court, has been arranged by mutual agreement.

His Honor, very wisely, pointed out that the case was one in which conflicting arguments cropped up on both sides, putting each party to great expense, and strongly advised the course since adopted.

This was done to the satisfaction of all concerned and the action has been withdrawn. Messrs. Hall and Hayes, solicitors for plaintiff, Messrs. Donnelson, Beck, Kerr and Stevenson, solicitors for defendants.

Under the terms of the settlement the company has paid $10,000 and costs. Of the amount mentioned $8,000 has always been admitted by defendants.

President Kittson

Mr. H. N. Kittson, Hamilton, Appointed President of C. O. Power Co

That a great future is in store for the Central Ontario Power Company is beyond cavil or dispute. The grand water power that now lies practically dormant in the fine stretch of reservoir lakes above, and including, Lovesick, Deer Bay, and other waters beyond, will soon be harnessed and put to use of manufacturers in towns lying along Lake Ontario.

Mr. J. A. Culverwell, Managing Director of the C. O. P. Co., announces that Mr. H. N. Kittson has been appointed president of the company.

Mr. Kittson is President of the Hamilton Board of Trade, being partner of Gilyard & Co., wholesale grocers, and director of other prominent Hamilton companies. He only identified himself with the Central Ontario Power Company two months ago and then accepted a directorship, but since considerable Hamilton money is being invested in the company he accepted the presidency.

The Japanese Army Still on the Advance

After Defeating a Cavalry Detachment Japanese Made a Detour and Attacked an Infantry Force Ten Miles Further North

Tokio, July 4.—The following official announcement was made today from the headquarters of the Japanese army in Korea:

"At dawn on July 2 four hundred of the enemy's cavalry with artillery approaching Noronok on the Pu-yong road, ten miles north of Yusyong. Our force engaged and repulsed them northward, inflicting heavy loss. In the meantime our detachment made a detour far northward for the purpose of cutting off the enemy's retreat and engaged the enemy's infantry at noon fourteen miles north of Yusyong. Our detachment also struck and scattered the enemy's cavalry retreating from Noronok."

Another despatch received today says:

"At eight o'clock in the morning of July 1 six hundred of the enemy's cavalry advanced toward the Pinniu River, thirty miles north-east of Kangpin. We repulsed them. On hundred and fifty of the enemy's cavalry and mounted infantry with eighteen guns simultaneously attacked Shishiku, eight miles north-east of Pinniu River. The engagement lasted until dawn July 2, when the enemy was repulsed. The enemy's casualties were over four hundred. Ours was ninety."

Favorable Report of the 57th Regiment's Ottawa Trip in the Ottawa Journal

That the eulogies paid by our local papers to the 57th Regiment's visit to Ottawa were not exaggerated, is shown by the report of their reception given in the "Ottawa Journal," which says, in part:

Right royally were the visitors entertained by the Ottawa corps and never once was the time allowed to hang heavy upon their hands. From morn till night they were taken sight-seeing, or feasted and lunched by the Guards.

The visitors were expected to arrive in Ottawa between five and six o'clock on Saturday morning, but the train arrived sharp on time at 4.30, with the result that the committee on the Guards who were to welcome them were not present.

A warm, hearty welcome awaited them when they were met by the Guards, and pleasure followed pleasure in one continuous round and even the hours of sleep were used for merry-making.

The officers and the men of the 57th were lavish in their praise of the entertainment accorded them and pressed the desire to reciprocate at some time in the near future. But the Guards were only paying off old scores and if any members of the Peterboroughs found their hats too small this morning they may look upon the matter philosophically and consider it was only the experience of the Guards last year. For when the G.G.F.G. visited Peterborough last year they were accorded just as warm a reception and received every whit as much feasting and merry-making as the 57th did on Saturday and Sunday.

The corps was a splendid body of neat, clean, orderly soldiers, who although in a strange city and on a pleasure trip were not boisterous, but carried themselves as gentlemen all.

They were accompanied by a magnificent band, and the only regret was that opportunity was not afforded it to give a band concert during their stay at Ottawa.

A July Wedding

A Port Hope Pedagogue Enters the Army of Benedicts

Today at 12 noon, Miss Vivina Hudgeth, a daughter of the late Mr. Adam Hudgeth, Q.C., of Lindsay, and related to distinguished families in both Peterborough and Brockville, will be joined in the holy bonds of wedlock to Mr. W. H. Nightingale, B.A., house master at Trinity College School, Port Hope, in the T. C. S. chapel.

Mr. Nightingale has been a master at T. C. S. for the past seventeen years, and before that time was well known in Toronto as a master at the Church School for Boys. In both places he established a reputation as a strict disciplinarian, but is now leaving T. C. S. to open a school at Edmonton, N.W.T. On Monday last he was made the recipient of a handsome sterling silver tea service, the gift of the masters and boys of the school. The best wishes of a host of friends accompany Mr. Nightingale in his new venture.

Fun and Formality

County Councillors During Their Picnic Hand Over the Swing Bridges

At the conclusion of their arduous and intelligent labors over county affairs, the County Council of Peterborough, accompanied by representatives from the Counties of Durham and Northumberland, and other prominent citizens, decided to take a day off and combine business with pleasure, by formally relinquishing possession of the Locks Bridge, in charge of W. Downer, and thaswings at Wallace Point, Bensfort, Hastings and Trent Bridges.

The County Council, who are the best of hosts, entertained their friends during the trip down the river, by steamer King Edward, right royally. The formalities were simple, and consisted simply of Mr. J. Harris McClellan, Superintendent of the Trent Valley Canal system, in the name of the Dominion Government, assuming control of all the swing bridges, as was done on Monday with the Chemong floating and Gannon's Narrows Bridges. A very pleasant sail down over beautiful Otonabee was enjoyed to the limit by all present. The party returned by train from Hastings in the evening.

A Boy Injured

A Horse Frightened by the Lightning Injures Young Morris' Shoulder

Yesterday afternoon when the first heavy flash of lightning and roar of thunder immediately following, frightened so many citizens, a cart horse standing near the Simcoe street entrance of Messrs. J. C. Turnbull & Company's dry goods store, became startled by this commotion of the elements and made a dash up Simcoe street, suddenly turning towards the north side of the street, the horse, in its terrified plunge jumped onto the pavement knocking down a lad by name Morris. Morris had his shoulder injured and was conveyed to a near-by house on Simcoe street where he and his mother are temporarily residing. It was ascertained last night that the injury was not likely to prove serious, but the boy received a bad shock and fright.

FERROZONE

Imparts New Vigor—Braces Nerves Strengthens Weak Women.

A woman's anxieties multiply manifold about the time the new baby is expected. If her strength is exhausted and her blood weak, it goes hard in the hour of trial. Ferrozone should be used because it makes the blood nutritious and rich. By instilling new strength into every part of the body, it uplifts your spirits at once.

Childbirth is certainly made easier by Ferrozone. The following statement expresses the earnest gratitude of Mrs. M. E. Duckworth, of Durham. It is a woman's story—of her own case—told that other women may profit by her experience;

"Before baby was born I was in a miserable, weak, nervous state. I had no reserve strength. I tried to build up, but nothing helped me. I looked upon the coming day with dread, knowing I was unequal to the occasion.

"Ferrozone braced me up at once. It gave me strength and spirits, brought back my nerve and cheerfulness. From my experience with Ferrozone I recommend it to all expectant mothers."

There is more concentrated nourishment in Ferrozone than you can get from anything else. It supplies what weak systems need. Simply take one tablet at meals and you'll feel uplifted at once. Ferrozone makes healthy, virile, vigorous women; 177 it, 50c. per box of fifty tablets, or six boxes for $2.50, at all dealers, or by mail from N. C. THE BLACK SEA REVOLT

The Black Sea situation appears to be getting no better very rapidly. Obviously, if Admiral Kruger's warships cannot be depended upon to punish the Kniaz Potemkin, there is nothing better than moral suasion left to the authorities, and moral suasion cannot be expected to have much effect upon men whose only reward for surrendering can be a death sentence. It clearly has required very delicate handling to prevent the whole fleet from going actively into rebellion, and a rebellious squadron in the Black Sea, with a population of sympathizers in all the ports, could keep the rebel flag flying while revolution gathered head throughout the Empire.

It is difficult to believe at this distance that there has been nothing but a sailors' strike against bad food in the affair. We are told that men in civilians' clothes appear to be in command of the rebellious battleship, and this, if true, looks like an indication that something far more serious is behind this outbreak. If this be correct the rumors of surrender at a Roumanian port are very unlikely. A policy of sparring for time is the more probable explanation of this cruising about the Black Sea.

The fate of the Government rests entirely with the army, and thus far the army is staunch. When the news filters through to it that the sailors are really in rebellion in the Black Sea, it may not be so universally ready to obey the commands of the Czar. When a people is profoundly discontented, some seeds of it can hardly avoid blowing into the ranks of a conscript soldiery, and the example of successful revolt may prove swiftly contagious. News from European Russia will continue to be the most eagerly awaited of any news in the world, not excluding that from the manoeuvering armies in Manchuria.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

History of Peterboro

When the militia of Upper Canada was first organized in a loose and informal manner, sometime, before the outbreak, 250 "Brown Bess" muskets with flint locks had been sent to Peterboro. When the Peterboro contingent arrived at Port Hope, they looked in vain for a boat to take them to Toronto.

Just as they were about to march to the scene of danger, word was received that the revolt had collapsed. A party was however, sent into Victoria county, where Mackenzie was known to have a following. When, soon after, some ill-advised invaders occupied Navy Island, in the Niagara river, 800 men from Otonabee, Douro, Dummer and Asphodel, were billited for one night in Peterboro. At a review, in what is now known as, the 5th Ward, 360 of the best men with picked weapons were selected and marched to Cavan, next day on to Port Hope and, the day following, they marched part of the way towards Toronto. On the 5th day they received a great welcome there. These men formed the nucleus of the present 57th Queen's Own Regiment. In the following May they returned home. After some little time the 7th Provincial Battalion of Peterboro was formed, with headquarters here. This organization held together for some years.

At the time of the Fenian Raid in 1866, Peterboro sent one of the best manned and equipped regiments ever seen at a gathering of Canadian militia. Col. Strickland was a potent factor in the inception of the Provincial Battalion, afterwards called, as now the 57th Regiment, or Peterborough Rangers. In 1867 the Government ordered the erection of the drill shed here. In addition to the infantry companies, Col. H. C. Rogers had organized a fine troop of cavalry, the 3rd Cavalry Regiment.

As regards early education in Peterboro, we have mentioned that the first school was held in a log house. In 1852 all the primary schools were united under a common board of trustees, first occupying a disused Methodist church as a school building. In 1854 the grammar and common schools boards organized, when John Langton was appointed chairman, Dr. Hay secretary, and William Cluxton as treasurer.

In 1860 the present union school opposite the court house (now Victoria) park, was opened. The building committee were Messrs. Jos. Hall, chairman, W. S. Conger, Wm. Cluxton, Thos. Fortye, Jas. Stevenson, F. Ferguson and Rev. Mark Burnham. The actual cost of the building was $16,258. Rev. Samuel Armour was the first principal.

The first newspaper published in Peterboro was called the "Peterboro Backwoods and Sentinel, started in 1837 by Mr. John Doreus, who as noted before, when as postmaster, committed suicide. In 1842 "The Chronicle" was published, its office being a frame house on Brock street. The Examiner was started in 1856 by Mr Augustus Sawyer, and the Review in 1858 by Messrs. Thomas White and Robt. Romaine.

The Mechanics Institute was established in 1868, and the now moribund opera house by Mr. Thos. Bradburn.

Peterboro for the first 30 years of its existence was a village, forming part of the township of North Monaghan.

The first Mayor was Thomas Benson, and the first town clerk was C. J. Vissrd.

The corner stone of the market building, under plans made by Mr. Thomas, Toronto, was laid in September 1851, by the then Mayor Chas. Hudson, when Mr. W. H. Wigston was town clerk. In 1854, Peterboro's first daily mail was brought here by steamer Otonabee from Rice Lake. In 1860 our present King, then Prince of Wales, visited Peterboro, amid great rejoicing and extensive decorations. What is now Victoria Park made seating accommodation for over 15,000 people gathered to do honor and welcome to their future sovereign.

One of Peterboro's most lovely spots, Little Lake cemetery, was established in 1850. The Water Works, originated by Mr. Jas. Gamble, a New York stock broker, and carried to successful operation by the late Mr. D. G. Hatton, were begun, and received their charter in 1862. Peterboro was the first town of its size, to introduce electric lighting.

The Bank of Montreal was established here in 1849, as an offshoot from the Cobourg branch, Mr. Robt. Nicholls being its first local manager. The Bank of Toronto came next in 1856 and was followed by the Ontario Bank in 1858. The other banks here belong to the more modern history of Peterboro. The Peterboro Gas Co., was organized in 1869, and in that year laid nine miles of pipes underground, $40,000 stock being paid up.

In 1880 the Grand Junction, connecting Peterboro and Belleville, was built, and three years later the "missing link," between Peterboro and Omemee, to give a shorter haul to Lindsay and Toronto. In 1884 the C.P.R., the local section being then called the Ontario and Quebec Railway, gave Peterboro better connection with both Toronto and the seaboard; this road cut down the time between Peterboro and Toronto from the old schedule of four hours to two.

One of the most important eras in the history of the city, during its infancy, was the charter given in 1853 to the Cobourg and Peterboro Railway, and, at the same time, the former charter of the Port Hope and Peterboro Railway, was amended to allow them to extend their line to Victoria county, to the western boundary of Mariposa. The young town, then struggling along, refused to assist either of these enterprises, but Cobourg, with a desire to bring the products of the then back country to her harbor, pushed the road through and had it open for business by the fall of 1854; by 1855 the Port Hope road completed their line to Lindsay.

The Cobourg and Peterboro line was short lived; futile experiments were made during the summer of 1857 to make the road bed across Rice Lake permanent, by filling it up with earth, as during several successive winters, in the interim ice had often broken the bridge (three miles long and on piers) across this lake down, suspending traffic for weeks at a time. As is known to most of our citizens, what have taken the beautiful trip to Idle Wyld, this embankment only extended from Harwood, a few hundred yards. In 1899 the road was finally abandoned. The remains of the old bridge still remain a menace to navigation and an eyesore to tourists.

In 1857 Peterboro was connected with Millbrook, and consequently with Port Hope.

In 1833 was commenced the stupendous undertaking of connecting the waters that will soon convey the products of our western grain fields to the seaboard, viz, the Trent Valley Canal. The history of this vast waterway, part artificial, but for the most part provided by nature, belongs to more modern times, only a few links in the vast chain remaining to be completed.

The first survey for the T.V.C. was made by Mr. N. H. Baird, C.E., whose estimate for the whole canal was only £495,515. Below Rice Lake £90,000 was soon expended. In 1833 the locks at Bobcaygeon were begun but owing to the rebellion of '37 abandoned for a time.

Perhaps in all the world, with the exception of cities brought into prominence by military operations or naval bases for strategical purposes, there is no city, of equal population, as well known by name, as our new City of Peterboro. This is brought about not by the number of men slain in battle, nor ships sunk in our harbor, or by the city having withstood a long seige, but by the more modern utilities of commerce. Pick up magazines devoted to outing and hunting news, and on their pages, almost to a certainty, somewhere, will appear a reference to "Peterboro Canoes." In India, in Australia, in Africa, everywhere that men go shooting or afishing will the Peterboro canoe be found or enquired for, and now we have four large and separate factories, daily turning out scores of Peterboro canoes that go to every section of the globe's surface.

HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS

Any even numbered section of Dominion lands in Manitoba or the North-west Territories, excepting 8 and 26, which has not been homesteaded, or reserved to provide wood lots for settlers, or for other purposes, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres more or less.

ENTRY

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land to be taken is situate, or if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration Winnipeg, or the local agent for the district in which the land is situate, receive authority for some one to make entry for him. A fee of $10 is charged for a homestead entry.

HOMESTEAD DUTIES

A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required by the provisions of the Dominion Lands Act, and the amendments thereto, to perform the conditions connected therewith, under one of the following plans:

(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years. It is the practice of the Department to require a settler to bring 15 acres under cultivation, but if he prefers he may substitute stock; and 20 head of cattle, to be actually his own property, with buildings for their accommodation, will be accepted instead of the cultivation.

(2) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased), of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

(3) If a settler was entitled to and has obtained entry for a second homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by residence upon the first homestead, if the second homestead is in the vicinity of the first homestead.

(4) If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

The term "vicinity" used above is meant to indicate the same township, or an adjoining or cornering township.

A settler who avails himself of the provisions of clauses (2), (3) or (4) must cultivate 30 acres of his homestead, or substitute 20 head of stock, with buildings for their accommodation, and have besides 80 acres substantially fenced.

The privilege of a second entry is restricted by law to those settlers only who completed the duties upon their first homesteads to entitle them to patent on or before the 2nd of June, 1890.

Every homesteader who fails to comply with the requirements of the homestead law is liable to have his entry cancelled and the land may again be thrown open for entry.

APPLICATION FOR PATENT

Should be made at the end of three years before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector. Before making application for patent the settler must give six months notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa of his intention to do so.

INFORMATION

Newly arrived immigrants will receive, at the Immigration Offices in Winnipeg, or at any Dominion Lands Office in Manitoba or the North-west Territories, information as to the lands that are open for entry, and from the officers in charge free of expense, advice and assistance in securing lands to suit them. Full information respecting the land, timber, coal and mineral laws, as well as respecting Dominion Lands in the Railway Belt in British Columbia, may be obtained upon application to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, Manitoba, or to any of the Dominion Lands Agents in Manitoba or the North-west Territories.

W. W. CORY,
Deputy Minister of the Interior

N. B.—In addition to Free Grant Lands, to which the Regulations above stated refer, thousands of acres of most desirable lands are available for lease or purchase from railroad and other corporations and private firms in Western Canada.

CAN RUSSIA PAY THE PRICE?

Her National Debt is now Enormous

WHAT WILL JAPAN DEMAND

She Has Borrowed $260,000,000 for the War and May Want it Paid Back

New York, July 4.—The amount of the war indemnity which Japan will demand of Russia as one of the conditions of peace, it is reliably stated, will not be less than the sum total of the money borrowed by Japan from foreign countries. This sum is $260,000,000.

The indemnity may be larger than the above sum but it will not be less. In addition to the foreign loans Japan raised for the late war, without going outside of the island kingdom, $360,000,000. So the extra money raised by Japan to prosecute the war amounts to $620,000,000. Back of this was an invested accumulation represented by ships, arms and munitions of war, amounting to as much again.

The actual cost of the war to Japan can not be estimated with accuracy, even by the Japanese Government. Her navy is practically intact, but millions of ammunition have been expended. The army in Manchuria is also a continuing asset, but the cost of its maintenance and transportation has been enormous.

Disregarding recent injury wrought by the war to commerce and to the domestic industry of Japan, the main items of monetary expenditure may be summed up as coming within the figures of the foreign and domestic loans, and, measuring the maximum demands to be made on Russia by these it is safe to say that the Japanese indemnity demand will not be more than $620,000,000.

It is generally believed by well-posted diplomats, and financiers who are interested in the Russian and Japanese loans, that the peace negotiations would begin with a demand by Japan of about $500,000,000, which might later be scaled down to the amount of the foreign loan, namely $260,000,000.

The ability of Russia to pay a huge indemnity is seriously questioned. The nation is now fairly staggering under the recent additions to its load of debt. The Czar's credit is seriously impaired.

It is to-day almost impossible for Russia to raise any considerable sum of ready money in the markets of the world. Since the war began the domestic and foreign commerce of the nation has fallen off more than $25,000,000 each, and the rates of discount have gone up so that little more than half the sum authorized in the latest loans were realized. After the fall of Port Arthur the minister of finance authorized an issue in Germany of 250,000,000 rubles, or $125,000,000, of which only $80,000,000 was subscribed.

History and Production of the Goldfields of Boulder County, Colorado, Portraying Economic Conditions Which Predict the Coming Goldfields of Colorado and Presenting the Stock Offering of a Great Gold Mining Enterprise of the United States Gold Corporation

FREE

Our booklet on the gold fields of Boulder County is off the press, and is being distributed free to investors. We have prepared this book to advertise the gold fields of Northern Colorado and our great gold mining enterprise. The books will be free for the asking while they last. It will tell you of how over fifty millions have been added to the world's wealth in production of gold, silver and copper under primitive methods and from surface workings of an average depth of not to exceed 250 feet It will tell you of its great tungsten belt, the largest in the world. It will tell you of the existence of a diversity of precious and rare minerals, unrivaled by any other gold fields on this continent. It will tell you of a mineral area of twenty-five square miles literally covered with a network of veins practically undeveloped, with only one shaft below the thousand foot and half a dozen below the six hundred foot level. It will tell you of a gold field nearer to the Denver smelters than any other in Colorado; of a change of economic conditions, in this section, which will enable the miner to ship ore to the smelters, at a net profit, that is now being thrown over the dumps in other sections of Colorado; it will tell you of a field so attractive that it resulted in the construction of two railways from one end of the field to the other. It will tell you of the introduction of modern and up-to-date mining methods, in place of the primitive ones of the past; in short, it will tell you of all those conditions which predict for the gold fields of Boulder County the coming gold fields of Colorado.

It will also tell you of our great gold mining enterprise in the western part of the gold fields of Boulder County, near the continental divide, where nature has deposited her largest and richest treasure vaults; it will tell you of our economic development tunnel, driven to drain and develop a mineral estate almost a mile long and half a mile wide; of the thousands of tons of gold ore now blocked out and ready for shipment in the five different veins cut by this tunnel in driving it eight hundred feet, the result of two years steady development work night and day; of our wonderful discovery of molybdenite—a rare metal—in large commercial quantities, foretelling for us the first molybdenite mine in Colorado that is producing, as well as a large and permanent source of revenue, of our project to drive this tunnel, long before the end of this year, into the famous Fourth of July dyke or "Mother Lode," from which the far famed Caribou group of mines produced twenty million dollars in gold, silver and copper from 1869 to 1893; of the tremendous possibilities for ore production which will follow the cutting of a mineral dyke from 50 to 100 feet wide at a depth of a thousand feet, and the great probability of our opening the first great copper mine in Colorado when we reach this dyke with the tunnel. In short, it will tell you of a gold mining enterprise that will go on a large producing basis long before the end of 1905; of an enteprise with possibilities second to none in Colorado, the developments of which have already shorn it of any element of risk or speculative features, rendering the investment offered safe and attractive one.

For the financial and commercial standing of the business men who stand back of this enterprise we refer you to the First National Bank, Boulder, Colo, or Bradstreets Commercial Agency

The edition will not last long. If you would be sure of securing a copy, write to day, or your name and address on a postal card, with the word "Booklet," will do the work.

Still a Deadlock

As noted in a former issue, on Saturday, July 1st, five master barbers celebrated the birth of our young city by asserting their rights to run their own shops as they thought right. The journeymen barbers assert vehemently that this expression of personal opinion will not be tolerated by the Union, and demand that the five, Messrs. W. Rundle, W. McGregor, David Hall, W. J. Morgan and J. Primeau, pay a fine of $5 each for their temerity. The five refuse to comply with the demand, so their employees have gone on strike and removed the union cards that previously displayed the great American Eagle and the intelligence that the particular shop was a "union shop." It is to be hoped that an amicable understanding will be attained.

Turf Club News

The Peterborough Turf Club is trying to arrange for a matinee on the evening of Saturday, July 8th. There will be some 35 to 40 of the swiftest trotters, pacers and running horses in Canada located at their race track at the Exhibition Grounds during the next few days, working out and getting into shape for the great races, July 12th and 13th; so the club think they will give the public some good speedy half-mile heats Saturday evening, one running and one trotting race. Of course, being a matinee, no record made by the horses should be counted, but as arranged for, would count, so the races would be well contested, as owners would be glad to get a try-out that might win whatever purse may be hung up, without prejudicing their horses' records. It is to be hoped the owners will fall in line on the idea, and there would be a good gate receipt if the thing can be fixed.

Mr. Geo. Powell, who is driving Orillia Belle, the horse that has won things at Port Hope races, arrived in town last night. Orillia Belle will follow on this morning. She will have to enter in the .19 class at the Peterborough Turf Club races, July 12th.

The Turf Club have completed arrangements for a special series of races, following on the Young Conservative Club's afternoon picnic during Saturday evening.

SPEED CONTESTS.

Evening.

6.30 p.m.—Several matched horses races will be held in the grounds.

1st Trot—1-2 mile heats.

2nd Running—1-2 mile heats.

Best two out of three heats.

As there are some thirty horses stabled on the grounds belonging to the race circuit some very fine racing is expected.

Police Court

OFFICIALS

Chief of Police, G. L. Reid

Magistrate, D. W. Dumble

Yesterday morning his Worship had a case before him that ended in a penalty which caused cold shivers to chase one another up and down the spinal columns of every man present, as possibly each and every man there, has "boosted apples" or other fruit during his boyhood days, or if any man there never stole fruit from an inviting orchard or garden, he differs greatly from the generality of human nature.

Two young lads, one an employe of the Cordage Co. and the other a student in the Collegiate Institute, on Monday afternoon, were caught picking a few strawberries in an acre patch of the fruit belonging to a man by name Sam Newhall. Newhall and his hired man captured the boys, and after beating them severely about the heads, as claimed by the boys, brought them to town and swore out informations against them on two charges, one of stealing the berries and one of assault (!!)

Newhall seemed very vindictive and repeatedly asked his Worship to inflict penalties on the lads. Both he and his hired man told direful tales of woe about the depredations committed by people on his berries, and evidently wanted these boys to suffer for others' sins. The two witnesses, one of whom limped into court as evidence of the "assault" committed by one of the boys, both stated that the lads had tried to bite them when arrested and that one of them had "hooked" for a stone to throw at him!

The boys, under oath, denied the biting, the assault and the stone throwing. His Worship lectured the lads and said he would make an example of them by sending them to jail for one month at hard labor. Mr. Newhall got a noble revenge! Of course the Magistrate, when such a charge was laid, acknowledged correct by the juvenile depredators, and backed up by that terrible limp, could do nothing but inflict a penalty; but if this man Newhall had ever read "Tom Brown's Schooldays," or had any recollection of what a boy will do during boyhood days, he might have given the boys a good hiding and let them go instead of possibly warping their whole future by a prison experience and record.

A woman who owns considerable property in the city was arrested yesterday afternoon on a charge of D. & D. It appears that the neighbors living in the vicinity of her residence complained to the police of the drunkenness and disorderly proceedings constantly in evidence about the place. A special session of the Police Court was held at four o'clock, when she was remanded for trial until Friday.

WORLD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, Proprietors, Buffalo, N. Y.

THE REASON.—There is no medicine equal to Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, for purifying the blood. It carries off the poisons which contaminate the life fluid. It increases the activity of the blood-making glands and gives the body an increased supply of pure, body-building blood. It builds up the body with sound, healthy flesh instead of flabby fat, promotes the appetite, feeds the nerves, and so gives to weak, nervous people vitality and vigor.

"About a year ago I had a very bad cough and feared it would run into consumption," writes Mrs. Geo. W. Lynch, of 32 Mason Road, Worcester, Mass., "when a severe attack of coughing would come on vomiting would set in. Matter accumulated in nose and my tonsils were irritated. After reading of the wonderful cures resulting from Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery began to use it, with some doubts as to the good it would do me, I am frank to say. But, after I had used one bottle I noticed quite a change for the better. Ordered five more bottles and before I had used them all the cure was complete. There is not now a trace of cough or cold in my system and my health is perfect."

Terrible Conditions In South of Russia

Knowledge of State of Affairs Has Been Suppressed by the Russian Government, Say Fugitives From Odessa--Potemkin Still in Roumanian Harbor--Disarmament of Black Sea Squadron Proceeding.

Bucharest, July 5.—Refugees from Odessa and other towns in Russia along the Black Sea are pouring into this city, and from their stories it appears that the Russian authorities are suppressing many facts with respect to the revolutionary movement, as well as in regard to the mutiny on the Kniaz Potemkin, Georgi Pobiedonosetseff and other battleships of Vice-Admiral Chunkin's fleet.

Apparently terrible conditions prevail in Odessa, and the mutineers of the Kniaz Potemkin, instead of suing for mercy or surrendering unconditionally, are as independent as they were last week when they steamed into the harbor and threatened to bombard the city. When the latest arrivals from Odessa left there early Saturday the city was in a state of siege.

General Kakhanoff's soldiers guarded every thoroughfare and were encamped in all public squares. Barricades were stretched across more than a dozen streets, and most of them were held stubbornly by revolutionists. Dead carts were conveying to the trenches north of the city bodies of citizens shot down in the street battles or burned in the conflagration started by the rioters.

The Potemkin's mutineers were trying to treat with General Kakhanoff for the relaxation of his vigor against their brother rioters on shore, and in the meantime emissaries from the mutinous crew were attempting to win over the infantry and coast artillery.

No attempt to influence the Cossacks to join the uprising was made, as hatred of that branch of the service is general among the Russians.

A successful revolution would mean the wreaking of a fearful vengeance by the Russian masses on the Cossacks and tirailleurs, who have been the chief servants of the Imperial Government. It is questionable if the revolutionists would trust the Cossacks, even if those soldiers went over to the cause of the people.

WOMEN AMONGST THE ROTTING.

Almost all the refugees tell sensational stories of the activity of women in the street fighting in Odessa and of the brutality of Kakhanoff's men towards them.

The Cossacks, they say, charged furiously into crowds composed of young girls, and a detachment of Smolensk sharpshooters fired on a party of women on their way to Kakhanoff's headquarters to intercede for students about to be shot as rebels.

Many women were wounded in defence of this barricades. They fought side by side with the men of the revolutionary party, and scores of women who could not handle fire-arms acted as volunteer nurses for insurgents struck down in battle.

Two women who opened their homes to wounded revolutionists were arrested by Cossacks and confined in barracks on the east side of the city, which building was destroyed by a shell from one of the big guns in the emplacement on Polish Hill.

MUTINY WAS EXPECTED.

It was known to the land insurgents on Friday that mutiny through out the Black Sea fleet was imminent.

A widespread plot. It is related, had been afoot for weeks before the outbreak on the Kniaz Potemkine.

WORST MUTINY IN MANY YEARS

Russian Sea Rebellion Has Few Precedents

MUTINY ON BRITISH SHIP

Raised a Tremendous Sensation in England

Washington, July 4.—Mutinies in a nation's navy as serious as that on the Kniaz Potemkine are rare and one must go back a hundred years or more to find a case so grave. The Culloden of the English navy; Captain Thomas Trowbridge, in December, 1794, furnished the first real outbreak against authority.

The English sailors were dissatisfied with their pay, which had not been raised since the days of Charles II.; with the unequal distribution of prize money, and with what they characterized as undue severity in the matter of discipline. When ordered to weigh anchor the Culloden's crew flatly refused to put to sea. Trowbridge went to shore for help and the ringleaders were thrown into prison and five of them shortly afterward were hanged from the Culloden's yardarm.

MUTINY ON BRITISH SHIP.

The mutiny on the Windsor Castle of the Mediterranean fleet, stationed at San Florenso in the same year, was a serious affair. Her captain was William Shields, but Vice Admiral Robert Linzee had raised his flag aboard her. The crew did not like the rear admiral, the captain, the first lieutenant or the boatswain and refused to obey their orders. Vice Admiral Hotham, in charge of the fleet, for reasons which never appeared in history, changed the Windsor Castle's officers and punished none of her crew.

The very next year the crew of the Dutch Shark seized their craft, steered her into The Hague and turned her over to the enemy.

In April, 1797, an organized mutiny broke out in the channel fleet under Lord Bridgeport. The crews of the Royal George, the Queen Charlotte, the Royal Sovereign, the London, the Glory, the Duke, the Mars, the Marlborough, the Ramidies, the Robust, the Impetuous, the Terrible, the Defense, the Pompee, the Minotaur and the Defiance mutinied and refused to weigh anchor when Admiral Bridport signaled to set sail.

OFFICERS PUT ON SHORE.

The men were in earnest. They put the least liked officers on shore and delegates from the several crews met and drew up a statement of their grievances, which they dispatched to Parliament. A committee from the board of admiralty went down to Portsmouth on April 18, but could do nothing. On the 21st Vice-Admirals Sir Alan Gardner and John Colpoys visited Portsmouth and met the delegates on the Royal George. The mutineers insisted on pardon for all the ringleaders. Sir Alan Gardner lost his temper at this demand and ordered that the ringleaders and every fifth man should be hanged. The more peaceful of the mutineers fought back the others. Gardner was roughly handled and barely escaped with his life.

A red flag was hoisted on the Royal George, and the mutineers went into conference in her cabin. Such officers as remained on the fleet were confined, and ropes were hung to the yardarms as a warning as well as an indication that the mutineers intended to preserve orders among themselves. All the guns were loaded and Bridport's flag was struck.

PARLIAMENT MEETS DEMANDS.

Parliament now sent word to the mutineers that it would meet most of their demands and would pound the ringleaders, but the trouble was by no means over. Most of the fleet had dropped down to Spithead, where on May 7, Lord Bridport hoisted the signal to set sail. The men refused to obey, claiming that they had had no intimation from king or parliament that their demands had been met. On May 14 word came from London that the sailors' demands had been fully met.

The mutiny which followed a few weeks later in the fleet at the Nore was worse. Vice Admiral Charles Bucknor was in command, and to him a delegation of twenty sailors went with a broadside of arrogant demands for more pay, larger prize money, extensive shore leave and lax discipline. The admiral, of course, refused, and communicated with the board of admiralty.

Richard Parker, a seaman, had been chosen by the sailors as their leader. He appointed a committee of twelve to take charge of each vessel. He sailed into Sheerness harbor, fired a gun at the fort by way of warning, and cut out several small gunboats stationed there. Most of the officers were sent ashore, but several were confined on shipboard. On June 24, Parker, seeing the trend of public opinion, offered to capitulate on the ground that every one concerned in the mutiny should be pardoned. This offer was refused.

MENACES CITY OF LONDON.

Parker saw that his last chance lay in showing his teeth, so he stationed the Standard, the Brilliant, the Inspector and a number of smaller boats at the mouth of the Thames, blocking shipping and actually threatening London with bombardment. He had at his beck, as a reserve, twelve ships of the line, two boats armed with fifty guns, six frigates and six smaller men of war.

The admiralty meantime had dispatched the Neptune, the Lancaster, the Agincourt and several gunboats to attack the Parker forces. Fortifications were thrown up on either side of the river. Parker's position was clearly untenable. A large party of sailors advocated unconditional surrender and recruits strengthened it day by day. Finally Parker's own men on the Sandwich mutinied against their leader, and set sail and dropped anchor under the guns of the fort.

Parker was hanged from the yardarm of the Sandwich, acknowledging the justice of his death. Eight other men were put to death shortly after words.

Votes of Thanks

Efforts of Minister of Railways and Mr. McClennan Appreciated

In our report yesterday of the very successful picnic attended by representatives of this and adjacent counties, held on Tuesday, down the Otonabee to Hastings, when the care of the bridges was formally surrendered to Mr. McClellan, Supt. of the Trent Valley Canal, for the Dominion Government, the interest at which complete returns of the trip reached this office, we were obliged to omit the important votes of thanks passed. It was moved by Lt.-Col. McLean, Warden of the United Counties of Northumberland and Durham, seconded by W. T. Buck, Warden of the County of Peterborough, that this company representing the United Counties and the County of Peterborough, hereby express it hearty appreciation of the promptitude and liberality of the Hon. J. R. Emmerson, Minister of Railways and Canals in His Majesty's Government of the Dominion of Canada, in taking over the swings of the bridges upon the line of the Trent Canal, thus facilitating the navigation interests in the said canal, and saving to the two counties interested a large annual expenditure.

Mr. Warden Buck, in a few appropriate words, seconded the resolution, which was unanimously adopted.

In justice to the intelligent and satisfactory manner in which Mr. J. Harris McClellan is fulfilling the onerous duties of his position, it was moved by Mr. W. H. Meldrum, Managing Director, Otonabee Power Co., and the Peterborough Cereal Co., seconded by Mr. F. Fowlds, Hastings, that this company, representing the power producing and navigation interests of the Trent Canal system, desire to express very emphatically its appreciation and approval of the admirable and thorough manner in which Mr. J. H. McClellan, Superintendent of the Trent Canal waters, has managed the conservation of the waters tributary to the Trent Canal system, preserving an equable flow and an ample reserve for the warm months of summer, to the manifest benefit of the interests of navigation and power production.

Many Interesting Curios Presented to Victoria Museum

A meeting of the Peterborough Historical Society was held Tuesday night, at which the report of the delegates to the meeting of the Ontario Historical Society, at Niagara-on-the-Lake, on June 7th and 8th, were received. The reports were presented verbally by Mr. J. H. Burnham, the official representative, and will later be placed on file in written form, at which time they will be published in more detail.

Col. H. C. Rogers, President of this Society, has presented to the Victoria Museum a number of interesting Indian curios secured during his recent trip to British Columbia, among which is an Indian totem pole, which will be placed on exhibition as soon as suitable cases have been provided. Upon it is a highly interesting household legend.

CONCORDAT HAS BEEN ABOLISHED

Bill for Separation of Church and State Passed

WAS OVER A CENTURY OLD

All Authority Held Under the Famous Agreement Done Away With and Church Disestablished

Paris, July 6.—The bill for the separation of Church and State passed the Chamber of Deputies late last night by the decisive vote of 341 to 203. The result was greeted by governmental cheers and opposition hisses, and there was intense excitement.

When the result was officially given after midnight, there was renewed clamor, participated in by those in the crowded galleries and lobbies, as well as by those on the floor of the Chamber.

This most important legislation, affecting the long-established social and religious conditions of France becomes an accomplished fact, so far as the Chamber of Deputies is concerned. Supporters of the Government congratulated themselves on concluding before the long vacation the heavy task which has occupied almost the entire time of the Lower House since March 22.

The opponents of the measure utilized every means to prevent the measure becoming a law, before the elections, moving no fewer than 250 amendments, which were rejected. The discussion of one of these amendments sometimes occupied whole sittings.

The committee charged with seeing the enactment of the bill through the House, showed a very reasonable spirit by accepting suggestions from all sides in order to render the bill as liberal as possible, at the same time taking every precaution to avoid leaving loop-holes for political intrigue.

The text of the bill has been almost completely revised by the committee, since its introduction. The broad principle of reform, however, is permitted to stand, fulfilling the long-expressed desire of advanced Republicans to see the State entirely untrammelled by connection with any religion or sect.

The system swept away by this bill dates from 1801, when the famous Concordat was signed by Pius the Seventh and Napoleon. This gave religion governmental status, the churches being Government property with the clergy paid by the State, and the entire Church administration being under the direction of a member of the President's Cabinet. The new system abolishes all laws and regulations under the Concordat, and terminates the authority of the Concordat itself.

TERMS OF THE BILL.

The general principle of the measure, as finally adopted by the Chamber of Deputies, is as follows:

"The republic assures liberty of conscience, and guarantees the free exercise of religion, subject to the restrictions of public order.

The republic neither recognizes, pay stipends to, nor subsidizes any sect, but provides funds for colleges, hospitals and asylum chaplains. Other wise the public worship budget is abolished and public establishments connected with religion are suppressed."

The most active contest took place over the proposition whereby the priceless riches of the Church, consisting of collections made during many centuries, of paintings, tapestries and statuary, were to be passed to the State. This was finally modified, so that civil organizations retain control of the goods of the Church.

One of the last amendments adopted prohibits members of the clergy becoming mayors or holding other municipal office during the eight years succeeding the adoption of the law. This was bitterly contested on the ground that it created class distinction, which it was the theory of the bill to terminate. Rigorous provisions are made against clergymen taking any active part in politics.

Our Local Representative is a Hustler

Mr. R. R. Hall, M. P., Always Alive to the Interests of the County of Peterborough

That Mr. R. R. Hall, our hustling representative at Ottawa, never sleeps when the interests of this county are at stake, is amply proven by the generous treatment accorded this section of the country in the Dominion estimates for the year, submitted to the House on Tuesday.

Whether one agrees with Mr. Hall's politics or not, one cannot but cheerfully say that he is ever alive to the interests of the county he so ably represents. In the matter of canal appropriations, appears the following:

Trent Canal—To complete surveys, $28,000.

Surveys for dams taken over by the Dominion Government, $6,000.

Trent Canal—One dredging engine, boiler and steel boom, and completion of dredge (revote), $6,500; to complete dump scows, $700; contribution towards construction of a bridge across McLaren's Creek, $2,500; repairs to guard gates, $4,000.

Repairs and renewals to Trent and Beaufort Bridges, $5,500.

PUBLIC BUILDINGS.

Peterborough—Public building, additions and improvements, $4,000.

HARBORS AND RIVERS.

Trenton—Dredging Trent River, $10,000.

River Otonabee—Dredging at the entrance, additional amount, $6,000; wharf at Beaufort Bridge, south side of river, $850.

Indian River—Dredging at the Devil's Elbow, revote, $3,000.

Crowe's Landing—Wharf on south shore of upper Stony Lake, $1,500.

Mr. Hall's most bitter political opponent must admit that in this respect, at least, he is doing nobly for his constituents.

Fire Engine Discussed

Fire, Water and Light Committee to Communicate With Manufacturers

At last night's meeting of the Council in committee of the whole, with Mayor Best in the chair, plans were laid for securing some badly wanted appliances for the city.

The question of a stone crusher was freely discussed, and the Board of Works instructed to write manufacturers of such machines, and obtain prices and other particulars.

With Chief T. Rutherford present, a lengthy discussion was held, and unanimity prevailed as to the city's immediate and pressing need of a new fire engine to replace the old one now destroyed by carelessness. It appeared that no communication had yet been held with any of the manufacturers of such engines, on the subject of prices or other particulars. Messrs. Adams, Leary, Hall, Crowe, Hicks and others spoke of the immediate need of obtaining particulars as to cost, etc., preparatory to getting an engine at once. Ald. Crowe said that a practical man, by name Gibbs, is now at the Wm. Hamilton Mfg. Co., who not only was well posted as to the various kinds of engines, but was willing to give the benefit of his advice to the Council. On the comparative merits of Canadian and American engines, Chief Rutherford thinks those made in Canada are equally good. Several Aldermen concurred in the Chief's opinion, and said, if the Canadian engines were not good enough we could go without one.

Ald. Hall moved that the Fire, Water and Light committee communicate with the several Canadian manufacturers of fire engines, and obtain prices and other information needed.

Ald. Hicks brought up the matter of the danger the city runs every time the brigade is called to a fire, when the city is left without adequate protection should a second alarm be sounded before return of the brigade. He suggested that the chief should arrange to always have a couple of men, with a light waggon, retained at the hall, so, in case of a second fire, hose could at once be taken to the other outbreak.

The old engine, now defunct, was only of 500 gallons per minute capacity, whilst the proposed new one will be required to discharge at least 1,000.

Gas House Change

Wise Appointment Made by Management of American Cereal Co.

As noted in a former issue of The Times, Mr. Andrew Irwin, for many years gas maker at the local works, resigned some few weeks ago, and is now engaged in farming operations near Fraserville. Whilst Mr. Irwin has a host of personal friends in this city, the company, of late, experienced some difficulty and were in receipt of frequent complaints as to poor quality of the gas, so were compelled to apply more modern methods of gas-making than have been used here in the past.

Mr. Learmouth, the manager of this branch of the American Cereal Company's local business, has been lucky in securing the services of one of the expert gas-makers in the Toronto Works, Mr. John Hogan, who understands and is a thoroughly practical man in all the most recent systems of gas-making. Mr. Hogan, who has now taken control of the works, under general management of Mr. Learmouth, will shortly bring his family to the city and reside here permanently.

Another recent improvement inaugurated at the works is that the man, who looks after the works at night, will reside in the house adjoining the works, recently occupied by Mr. Irwin.

With these two important changes, an up-to-date gas-maker in charge, and a surety that some one will always be on hand to regulate matters, by night or day, ensures Peterborough in having as good gas as any city on the continent.

An Equine Mix-Up

Mr. Mann's Horse Runs Amuck and Injures a Cart Horse.

Mr. Mann, the well known George street maker of toothsome "Home-made" bread, has a horse with a mind and gait superior to his lowly calling of dragging loaves and buns throughout the city. He evidently hankers after the blare and excitement of the race-track, where his speed and form would command more attention.

Yesterday morning as he came down the hill on Brock street, taking the bit, and lay to the equine

Put Into Port at Theodosia and Demand That Their Safety Be Guaranteed During Their Stay There--Cossacks Fired on Strikers From the Putiloff Works at St. Petersburg--Intense Excitement.

RIOTING IN St. PETERSBURG.

St. Petersburg, July 5. — Cossacks fired on the Putiloff Works strikers this morning. The trouble was started by the arrest of a youth while entering the works. The police suspected him of having dynamite in his possession. On being made a prisoner, the young man drew a revolver and shot his captor dead, and was himself wounded by a bullet fired by another policeman. The strikers quickly congregated on the Peterhoff road, and Cossacks were ordered to disperse them. The soldiers charged using their whips, and then fired a volley, causing several casualties among the strikers. The excitement in the district is intense.

Theodosia, July 5.—The Russian squadron, under Rear Admiral Kru- situation between his teeth, he suddenly started for the boundless west at a pace that might cause a member of the local Turf Club to enquire his record and pedigree. As the outfit, horse, delivery cart and "the staff of life" jumping and rattling within, at a 2.16 1-4 gait reached Water street, Mr. R. Duncan's cart and horse barred the course of the flying Bucephalus, and the cart horse came off second best, being severely cut in both hind and front legs. The bakery horse was not injured much excepting by the ignominy of having such a fast gait checked by a cart horse. After this he had better loaf along slowly with his bread waggon, or his owner raise the "dough" and back him on the track he would certainly take the bun there, and possibly prove to be the flour of the Yestern Turf Club's bunch.

WAS A PERILOUS TASK

Four Men Carry a Line Across Niagara Rapids

Niagara Falls, Ont., July 6. — The Ontario Power Company which is building a transmission line across the gorge just below the Devil's Hole rapids, was long unable to devise a scheme to get the first line or rope across the stream, which at that point is rough and unsteady, and runs with great swiftness towards the rapids below. Old river men said no boat could pass there and offers of large sums of money to attempt the crossing were refused. Finally, Jas. Wadsworth, of Queenstown, known as a daring and skillful boatman of the lower river, offered to make the attempt with three companions, W. Aldus, S. Humphries, and W. Humphries, all experienced river men. The men started on their perilous passage in the presence of a large gathering of power company officials and others. Paying out the line as they went, after a long period of anxiety and uncertainty, they succeeded in striking the shore current on the other side, and landing in safety.

TALK OF BOER COLONY

General Pearson Has Been Looking Over Venezuela

Kingston, Jamaica, July 6.—There is a probability, says a despatch from Demerara, of a colony of Boers settling on the Venezuelan border of Demerara, General Pearson, the Boer leader who settled in Scranton, Penn., U.S.A., rather than return to South Africa, as a British subject, has been in Venezuela, making an effort to get the President's consent to his plan of establishing a colony of 10,000 Boers on the boundary between Venezuela and Demerara. General Pearson was anxious to get the Delta of the Orinoco River, but as that is the property of the American company, the Orinoco Corporation, successors to the Orinoco Company, Limited, and Munson Company, Limited, it was impossible for the Venezuelan Government to cede that to him. What has been the result of the negotiations has not been divulged, but one would have thought that a Boer general would have known better from the past experience of his country, than to tempt Providence by settling in close proximity to a British boundary, either in Africa or America.

FIREMEN WILL RESIGN

Crisis in the Department at St. Catharines

St. Catharines, July 6.—At a meeting of the Central Fire Company tonight it was decided to notify the city council that the company will at the end of 60 days resign. The trouble follows the dismissal on July 1 of Chief Riddell and Deputy Chief Chapman, for many years in the service. They have been replaced by Driver Early, who is the first paid fire chief. The firemen object to this summary manner in which old officers were dismissed, and refuse to accept the explanations of the Fire Committee.

CHINA MAY FREE BRITISH INDIA

Doom of British Rule in India Said to be Possible

NO REASON FOR ALARM

Sensational Statement to the Contrary, However

London, July 6.—The thunder-cloud of doom is gathering, not on the Afghan Hills, but in China awakened by the successes, and beginning to move under the leadership of Japan. The crisis may not be imminent, it may be long deferred. But with the release of the East from the domination of the West, the end of the British Empire in India comes into view."

But does this not lose sight of the attitude of the people of India themselves? They may not like British rule, as this is a natural feeling of all peoples toward any foreign control, but would they like Chinese rule any better? As a matter of fact, would not the highly intelligent people of India prefer—if they must endure a foreign yoke at all—the leadership of a free democracy, which they have already found to be beneficial materially, to the domination of a despotism which still has mediæval ideas of punishment and whose notion of government is synony mous with corrupt tyranny?

It is against all reason and experience to imagine that China would wage a war simply to set India free. If China undertook to drive Britain out of India, it would almost infallibly be for the purpose of bringing in the rule of the Son of Heaven. Our American neighbors came near to setting a new precedent when they fought to set Cuba free, and then actually did carry out that program. We could hardly expect China to imitate so Occidental an example. Consequently, when the Chinese forces undertake to oust Britain from India, they must fight the millions of that populous peninsula under British leadership; and, at the same time, protect their ports from British bombardment. Such a "crisis" will, indeed, be "long deferred."

May Help Canada's Grain Business

Stoppage of Russian Black Sea Exports to Great Britain

Montreal, July 6.—The old "saw" that one man's meat is another man's poison is brought prominently to the front by Russia's present troubles in the Black Sea.

An immense amount of wheat has been going forward from this Black Sea ports to the English market, but among local grain exporters the general opinion is expressed that the serious troubles at Odessa and other points on the Black Sea and the virtual overthrow of the little that remains of the Czar's navy in that section of the globe, will tend to shut off grain shipments. In this event it is generally thought that the prices will advance to such a figure as to place Canadian wheat on an export basis.

How great a contributor Russia is to Great Britain's wheat stores, is indicated by the fact that for the week ending July third, no less 5,000,000 quarters, or 4,000,000 bushels were shipped from Russian to English ports, while for the week ending June 26 the shipments amounted to 2,800,000 bushels.

A BRANTFORD REVELATION

Brantford is at present scandalized by the discovery that the milk purveyed in that city is preserved with an embalming fluid, called formaldehyde. It is testified that this is the substance used by undertakers in preparing corpses for burial. No wonder the city shudders at the thought more horrible as it may seem than the reality. No doubt the imagination is affected by the Brantford recital more than the sudden use by the fluid in question, partaken of as it is in infinitesimal quantities. But to thousands of people the very idea is enough.

The question may be asked, is Brantford alone in this practice? May not the contagion have spread to other parts of Ontario? Can it be true that one city enjoys a monopoly of a system the theory of which must be within the sum of general knowledge?

There are constant reports and suggestions from other sections of the province leading to the belief that formaldehyde is a common form of milk adulterant, used as a preservative. To that is said to be due the "keeping" quality which milk has assumed in recent times, so distinct from the tendency to souring before the introduction of the powerful and wonderful chemicals of this class. It facilitates the dairyman's trade, making it more certain and profitable. Milk that in summer weather would spoil in thirty-six hours, can by the addition be maintained and sold at sixty hours or more. The inducement to dairymen to use a preservative giving such results is strong, provided the consumers will stand for it.

The people of Brantford are probably more scared than hurt by the revelation that the system prevails in their good city. That it obtains in Montreal is shown by the organization of a Pure Milk League, the object of which is to secure milk unadulterated for the babies of the town. What the League means by pure milk is milk fresh from the cow, not having been tampered with by 'preservatives' or 'turned' by long standing.

Every city should see to it that its people have pure milk, fresh from the dairy every day, not "preserved" by chemicals.

In all likelihood more will be heard of the Brantford case. The testimony of health experts regarding the action of even minute doses of formaldehyde upon digestion, will be heard with general interest.

A VIEW OF GERMAN ARMY

Lieutenant-Colonel Picquart has told us what the condition of the French army is, and now he takes a look at the German army. He finds that since 1870 German military power has considerably increased, but that the system has changed little. The Germans have to-day a good infantry rifle, but their field gun is inferior to the French. The number of their effectives annually called to the colors is almost the same as that of France. The total of their peace effectives, however, is larger than the French because non-commissioned officers are all re-engaged. The first German army is, therefore, composed of the most robust elements of the nation. Less than five in every ten thousand privates are unable to read or write. The soldier is trained to depend upon his own initiative, but Colonel Picquart is doubtful whether the results obtained are altogether conclusive. The organization of the officers' corps is extremely homogeneous. The officer "belongs to a special caste" and has a taste for responsibility. Therefore the General Staff is still the corps d'elite which Moltke made it. But the German officers' corps suffers from the vice of exclusiveness. The colonel thinks that the inability to fill gaps in the ranks of superior officers, in the time of war, is a source of real weakness. He refers with pride to the resistance which France was able to offer, in 1870, with her raw soldiery, after the imperial army had been shattered. On the whole, he is inclined to think that France may regard the possibilities of a conflict with Germany without panic.

BIG LAKE STEAMERS

The leviathan fleet of the upper lakes has been increased by the launching on Monday last at Superior city of the third of the "big four" of the Pittsburg Steel Co's steamers. These are the largest afloat in lake waters. They are 569 feet long, 56 feet beam and 31 feet deep, carry about 12,000 tons, and cost a little less than half a million dollars apiece. Some idea of their capacity, says the Detroit Free Press, can be gained from the fact that when the Wolvin passed Detroit a few days since carrying coal, and incidentally establishing a new record on the lakes, it had aboard 10,937 tons. To transport this by rail would require the services of 246 cars and no less than half a dozen engines, yet the new vessels will have a capacity 10 per cent. greater than this.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. Ungrateful Burglars

Mr. Greenslade Robbed by the Fiends to Whom He had Been a Good Samaritan

A few days ago two young men named Switzar and French, respectively, came to the boot and shoe store, corner of Charlotte and Aylmer streets, belonging to Mr. W. A. Greenslade, and asked him to oblige them by keeping their grips and valises until called for. Mr. Greenslade complied with their request. On Monday he was in Toronto on business, and returned by the midnight train. On going to his store, after arrival, he was astonished to find that his premises had been broken into and everything showed evidence of a hasty search for valuables having been made. Mr. Greenslade, first thing yesterday morning, swore out warrants for the arrest of Switzar and French, whose grips and valises had been taken away from his store as well as the boots.

The house breakers, had pulled out nails holding up the upper window, down at the rear of Greenslade's store and climbed in. Mr. Greenslade mourns the loss of two pairs of boots from the shelves, as well as the grips he had kindly allowed the young men to store at his shop. It appears that these two young men represented themselves as being agents here of the House Furnishing and Installment Company, of Toronto, and were taking orders for this company.

Mr. Greenslade, yesterday, told Tim Timon that these two men had beaten the City Hotel and the Cavanagh House out of several weeks board. Warrants are now out for their arrest, as it is likely the local police will soon bring them to justice, although they have "jumped" town.

HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS

Any even numbered section of Dominion lands in Manitoba or the North-west Territories, excepting 8 and 26, which has not been home-steaded, or reserved to provide wood lots for settlers, or for other purposes, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres more or less.

ENTRY

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land to be taken is situate, or if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration Winnipeg, or the local agent for the district in which the land is situate, receive authority for some one to make entry for him. A fee of $10 is charged for a homestead entry.

HOMESTEAD DUTIES

A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required by the provisions of the Dominion Lands Act, and the amendments thereto, to perform the conditions connected therewith, under one of the following plans:

(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years. It is the practice of the Department to require a settler to bring 15 acres under cultivation, but if he prefers he may substitute stock; and 20 head of cattle, to be actually his own property, with buildings for their accommodation, will be accepted instead of the cultivation

2) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased), of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

(3) If a settler was entitled to and has obtained entry for a second homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by residence upon the first homestead, if the second homestead is in the vicinity of the first homestead.

(4) If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

The term "vicinity need above is meant to indicate the same township, or an adjoining or cornering township.

A settler who avails himself of the provisions of clause (2), (3) or (4) must cultivate 30 acres of his homestead, or substitute 20 head of stock, with buildings for their accommodation, and have besides 80 acres substantially fenced.

The privilege of a second entry is restricted by law to those settlers only who completed the duties upon their first homesteads to entitle them to patent on or before the 2nd of June, 1889.

Every homesteader who fails to comply with the requirements of the homestead law is liable to have his entry cancelled and the land may again be thrown open for entry.

APPLICATION FOR PATENT

Should be made at the end of three years before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector. Before making application for patent the settler must give six months notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa of his intention to do so.

INFORMATION

Newly arrived immigrants will receive, at the Immigration Offices in Winnipeg, or at any Dominion Lands Office in Manitoba or the North-west Territories, information as to the lands that are open for entry, and from the officers in charge, free of expense, advice and assistance in securing lands to suit them. Full information respecting the land, timber, coal and mineral laws, as well as respecting Dominion Lands in the Railway Belt in British Columbia, may be obtained upon application to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, Manitoba or to any of the Dominion Lands Agents in Manitoba or the North-west Territories.

W. W. CORY,
Deputy Minister of the Interior

N. B.—In addition to Free Grant Lands, to which the Regulations above stated refer, thousands of acres of most desirable lands are available for lease or purchase from railroad and other corporations and private firms in Western Canada.

IF YOU WANT MONEY

Buy a block of stock of the Tonopah-Crow Gold and Copper Company. This stock is selling at 18 cents a share. It will be paying a profit in one year of not less than 25 per cent. on capitalization, which will mean a value of the stock of $2.50 a share. It may be worth $5.00 in less than two years time. There are more than 100 mineral veins crossing this property. The lowest average of ores as far as developed is $54 a ton, which does not include numerous small bodies running from $100 to $1,000. The money to be raised in these sales of stock is to be put in sorting plant, equip and rapidly develop the mine, which includes six mining claims and mill site; 125 acres. Where can you make so much money in so short a time? This is an opportunity that seldom occurs.

STRICTURE AND KIDNEY DISEASE CURED.

G. E. Wright.

"I had stricture for eleven years. It finally brought on Bright's Disease of the Kidneys. I had an uncomfortable shooting pain in the groin and feeling as though something was in the urethra. My back was weak and I could scarcely stoop over. Urine was full of sediment. Had a desire to urinate frequently. Family doctors, so-called specialists, patent medicines, electric belts, all failed. I was discouraged. I had spent hundreds of dollars in vain. Finally I consulted Drs. Kennedy & Kergan as the last resort. I had heard a great deal about them and concluded from the fact that they had been established over 25 years that they understood their business. I am delighted with the results. In one week I felt better and in a few weeks was entirely cured. Have gained sixteen pounds in weight."

RUSSIAN RULER VERY PERTURBED

Nicholas, Standing Between Two Fires, Hesitates

ARMY AND NAVY ALIENATED

Muravieff Has Received Instructions to Make Peace at any Price

He has refused to sign a Ukase declaring the whole country in a state of war as he fears the army will rebel and join the people. At the same time he is equally afraid to promulgate a constitution dreading a counter revolution through which he might meet with the fate o. Paul I., the Czar who was assassinated in 1801. Meanwhile the situation is growing worse.

The Cossacks are all ill-tempered in quelling the revolts in the cities and cannot be employed against the peasants who are destroying the manors or the laborers who are burning factories in the country.

It is said that the mutiny in the fleet is the result of the feud between Admiral Skrydloff and Admiral Alexieff on the one hand and Admiral Avellan and Grand Duke Alexis on the other.

The army is equally divided in support of Kuropatkin and Sakharoff as against Linevitch, Grippenberg, Dragomiroff and Grand Duke Nicholas. The Linevitch party has the upper hand.

FRIEDN IN FORCES.

Most of the officers sympathize with General Sakharoff, who has been dismissed. It is feared that a bloody outbreak in various Black Sea ports is inevitable. Admiral Chukmin has been ordered to watch the property of the foreigners in order to avoid complications.

General Ignatieff has been appointed to investigate the situation at Odessa. He wires that everything is quiet.

PEACE AT ANY PRICE.

Count Muravieff, who goes to Washington as peace plenipotentiary, has been instructed to conclude peace at any price. Premier Rouvier, of France, has received assurances that America and Britain, realizing that the prolongation of the war in Manchuria, is leading to Germany's preponderance in Europe and to Japan's preponderance in Asia, will help Russia to obtain favorable terms.

WHAT FRANCE WILL ASK FOR

All the Previous Conventions Must Be Secured

Paris, July 5.—According to the Petit Parisien, the following are the probable conditions upon which France will consent to join in the proposed international conference on Moorish integrity: The Moorish Empire shall be administered, sovereignty of the Sultan shall not be infringed, all existing treaties and conventions will be respected. Anglo-French and Franco-Spanish conventions shall not be infringed, possession of special rights by France shall be recognized by reason of her position on the frontiers of Morocco. Settlement on all questions of an international character shall be submitted for unanimous approval of the signatories o. the Madrid convention. The adhesion of Germany to these conditions, the Petit Parisien says, does not appear doubtful.

RAILROADS COMPLETE

Russia Asks Foreign Powers to Interpose in Odessa

Berlin, July 5.—According to the Berliner Tageblatt, the Russian government has requested the powers which maintain warships at Constantinople, to send them to Odessa to restore order.

The powers concerned are England, France, Germany, Austria, and Italy. The papers say the humiliation of having to make such an appeal to foreign powers underlies the desperate situation at Odessa.

Vessels Tied Up in Bosphorus

Berlin, July 5.—The Frankfort Zeitung says that open revolution has broken out at Nicolaieff, Sebastopol and Batoum, and that all vessels bound for these Black Sea ports, as well as for others, are anchored in the Bosphorus. The Russian steamer Garioux, carrying 600 wounded men from Port Arthur has arrived at Constantinople, where she received a telegram from the naval authorities at Sebastopol, ordering her to remain in the Bosphorus, as it would be unsafe to attempt to land wounded men at Sebastopol.

General Rising Feared

Cologne, July 5.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Cologne Gazette says the situation in Odessa, Lods, and Warsaw is unchanged, but that a general rising of railway men, which would stop the despatch of reinforcements to the front is feared. The correspondent says it becomes more and more apparent that no reliance can be placed upon the troops. The Czar now receives only Ministers in audience. All others are held in suspicion.

Fun and Formality

County Councillors During Their Picnic Hand Over the Swing Bridges

At the conclusion of their arduous and intelligent labors over county affairs the County Council of Peterborough, accompanied by representatives from the Counties of Durham and Northumberland, and other prominent citizens, decided to take a day off and combine business with pleasure, by formally relinquishing possession of the Locks Bridge, in charge of W. Downer, and the swings at Wallace Point, Bensfort, Hastings and Trent Bridges.

The County Council, who are the best of boats, entertained their friends during the trip down the river, by steamer King Edward, right royally. The formalities were simple, and consisted simply of Mr. J. Harris McClellan, Superintendent of the Trent Valley Canal system, in the name of the Dominion Government, returning the control of all the swing bridges, as was done on Monday with the Chemong floating and Gannon's Narrows Bridges. A very pleasant sail down over beautiful Otonabee was enjoyed to the limit by all present. The party returned by train from Hastings in the evening.

Big Sea Lion Shot in Trap

Vancouver, B.C., July 5.—The sockeyes are running strong. Todd's trap off the west coast of Vancouver Island, when examined Saturday morning was found to be holding a plunging sea-lion in its meshes. He had rent a big hole, and let all the salmon out, but failed to get away himself. He weighed 1,600 pounds when shot.

General Strike on Now

St. Petersburg, July 5.—A general strike has begun, workmen of all trades have joined the dock laborers, who already were on strike, and industry is at a complete standstill.

Dr. Hamilton Cures Rheumatism

Rheumatism begins and ends in the blood which at no time is ever free from poison. But if the kidneys are healthy, they will filter out the wastes and poisons.

In case of rheumatism, the kidneys are not doing their work. As a result poisons crystalize around the joints and cause pain almost akin to torture.

There can be no cure, no permanent relief, until the kidneys are stimulated. First get them into working order. For this purpose Dr. Hamilton's Pills excel all other remedies; they heal and strengthen the kidneys, as no other poisons depart from the blood and all medicine can do. Once the kidneys are renewed by Dr. Hamilton's Pills the trace of rheumatism disappears.

No Case is Too Chronic to Yield to the Marvellous Influence of Dr. Hamilton's Pills.

"I spent nearly three years experimenting with rheumatic remedies," writes Geo. H. Sunbury, of Portland. "I had almost given up hope, when I tried Dr. Hamilton's Pills; they completely cured me. No remedy could be better."

You will never regret using Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Get a supply today from your druggist, 25c. per box, or five boxes for $1. By mail to any address if price is forwarded to N. C. Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont., and Hartford, Conn., U.S.A.

Barbers' Troubles Still Exist

The friction between local barbers and bosses is still in statu quo, and neither party seem willing to give in. At present four journeymen barbers are on strike, and are drawing strike pay from the union, and five master barbers have had their cards taken away from them, in default of paying the fine imposed as punishment for remaining open on Saturday. It is possible that other unions in the city may become involved.

Sad Death of Mr. Curtis' Infant Son

This afternoon, the infant son of Mr. David H. Curtis, 5th Ward, named David Dorwyn will be interred in the Little Lake cemetery, the funeral leaving Mr. Curtis' residence at two o'clock. Much sympathy has been expressed by their friends, toward Mr. and Mrs. Curtis, over the regretted taking away of their infant son. The little boy, who was about six months old, has been ill for some time. On Sunday last his condition grew critical, and he passed away Tuesday afternoon at six o'clock.

Mr. John F. Rickerby Now Sole Proprietor of the C. P. R. Hotel

As noted in former issues of the Times, Messrs. Rickerby Brothers recently purchased the ever popular C.P.R. Hotel on Simcoe street from Mr. J. Allen. Mr. George Rickerby, half-owner of the hotel having decided to live in California for some considerable time, owing to his health, lately, not being very robust, has disposed of his interest in the business to his brother, John F., who is now sole proprietor. The patrons of this centrally located hostelry will doubtless appreciate the fact that the hotel, when changing ownership, in a sense, still continues in the hands of Mr. Rickerby, whose business snap and care for the comfort of his guests, has had such extensive improvements inaugurated as are now in evidence, both in the house and yards. Mr. Rickerby is a practical hotelman, having been part proprietor of the Grand Central Hotel at the Canadian "Soo." Mr. Michael Mellhargy, the genial manager, will be retained in his old position and will make things pleasant for all guests, permanent or transient.

Peterboro In Alaska

The Fame of a Local Industry Advertises for City in Far Away Yukon

As an indication of the way in which this city is advertised far and wide by the Peterboro canoes, we might say that the English Canoe Company, is in receipt of a communication from Mr. Geo. E. Lucas, of Circle, Alaska, which says in part; "I have a 16 1-2 foot canoe of your make which I have had since 1898. It has travelled over 29,000 miles on the Yukon and tributaries, and is still in good order, with the exception of six or eight ribs in the bottom, which were cracked by it getting jammed in the ice last fall. This canoe has outlasted all others made in the U.S., etc."

The writer goes on to say that for 1200 miles coming down the Yukon, he hung out a bag of sand attached to a rope from his canoe, and this answered the dual purposes of drawing his canoe and contents along for the 1200 miles at a rate averaging five miles an hour and kept the canoe in the center of the river; all he and his mate had to do, was to sit still and the current did the rest without steering.

This local company is now building two "freighter" canoes, which will, on completion be shipped to Mr. Lucas in Alaska.

Many Disappointed

St. John's Excursion Could Not Get Up the River

St. John's Sunday school excursionists discovered a new route over the Lift Lock and on to Stony Lake yesterday. As experienced by a large crowd of pleasure seekers the correct way to do the Lift Lock, Peterborough's greatest "lion," is to reach the Wolfe street wharf in good time, according to advertised schedules, then luxuriate in the health-giving breezes wafted across a log-ladened lake, while one's mind is beneficially exercised in a mental calculation as to where on earth the eagerly expected steamer can have went to; next take the street car down to the river and on by boat to Crawford's Grove, on reaching which one should take lunch, followed by physical recreation and a quiet chat about the beauties of the trip; then more lunch, more mental and physical indulgence, another trip back to Wolfe street wharf by boat, home again by street car, and arriving there go to bed, get up early the next morning and try again. There were many who made this trip yesterday, under the fatherly eye of Mr. D. Hughes-Charles, the genial superintendent of St. John's Sunday school who, however, rose to the occasion and as far as practicable assuaged the keen disappointment of the excursionists by his irresistible and philosophical acceptance of unfortunate circumstances most decidedly unforseen.

Some 400 people were waiting at the wharf for the City of Peterborough at 8 o'clock yesterday morning, when the news arrived that she had broken her rudder up river Tuesday evening, and consequently the expected trip to Stony Lake via the Lift Lock could not be made. A vote was then taken as to what course to be pursued, and the majority proved in favor of spending the day at Crawford's Grove, reaching there by the street cars and steamer Water Lily, which had to made two trips to accommodate the crowd—one from Wolfe street and another from the end of the car line, to the grove. Of course quite a number did not favor this program, and returned home disappointed; these had or will have their money refunded.

Sports and pastimes were indulged in at the grove, which is a delightful spot, although lacking in essential conveniences. The Water Lily remained with the party till noon, taking those who desired it for a trip on the Otonabee. She then returned up town on the understanding that, if possible, "The City," which was then lying at her wharf, would come down and take this party over the Lift Lock. This arrangement, however, did not materialize and the Water Lily returned for her anxious passengers at 6.30. The day was spent as pleasantly as possible under the circumstances; but the enjoyment of the outing would have been considerably augmented had the Water Lily returned with the news that the "City" could not be brought into service, and then stayed with the excursionists the remainder of the day. As it was some drove home and others walked to the street car terminus, in fear that no boat would return for them; this was at 6 o'clock.

The school management deeply regret the disappointment engendered by the City of Peterborough's mishap, more especially in the case of out-of-town visitors, who may not have another opportunity of going over the Lift Lock.

From his experience yesterday Mr. D. Hughes-Charles must consider a Sunday school picnic a difficult, if not a dangerous, task to engineer. However, no man could have done more than he to clothe the cloud of disappointment with a silver lining of alternatives. His genial nature has brought into full play, and he left no stone unturned to give the party in his care a very happy day.

Magistrate, D.W. Dumble

This young man Grieffe, charged with stealing $50 from one McMullen, a Pontypool farmer, by whom he was employed as a farm helper, and of which the prisoner admitted taking $6, but denying taking the balance, was up, after several remands yesterday morning, for trial. As suggested in the following letter, received on Monday by the Chief, the lad was handed over to a representative sent from Toronto by the Barnardo Home. The letter, which explains itself, reads;

Dr. Barnardo Homes,
July 3rd, Toronto.

My dear sir,—I have just arrived from England, and find awaiting me your letter of June 28th informing us of this lad's conviction and of his having been remanded by the Magistrate until the 5th inst. We will have some one in attendance at the police court on Wednesday morning, who will be instructed to offer to take charge of the boy and either deport him to England or to give him an opportunity of redeeming his character in this country, as the Magistrate may desire.

Thanking you for informing us of the circumstances of the case.

I am, dear sir,
Yours truly,
ALFRED B. OWEN.

The Barnardo Home official took the boy away with him, and the twain went to Mr. Dumble's office to discuss what was best to be done with Grieffe.

Two George street merchants were hailed before yesterday's court on a charge of leaving paper and other litter in Chamber's street, at the rear of their places of business. The cases were enlarged for one week.

VOL XXXIII NO 158 PETERBOROUGH ONTARIO, FRIDAY JULY 7 1905 PRICE TWO CENTS

Admiral Kruger's Squadron to Hunt Down the Mutineers

Naval Officers Statement That Warship Has Little Ammunition Taken with Reserve--Torpedo Boat on Hunt, Sailed from Bulgarian Port in Pursuit of Mutineers.

Odessa, July 7.—Admiral Kruger's squadron, consisting of the battleships Rostislav, Dvienadsat, Apostolof, and Tri Sviatitelia, a cruiser, and half a dozen torpedo boats, with the recaptured battleship, Georgi Pobiedonosteff, has arrived at Sebastopol, where, learning that the Kniaz Potemkin Tavritchesky was at Theodosia, orders were immediately given to pursue her. It seems certain the mutineers will now be hunted down mercilessly.

The excuse for inaction which obtained at Odessa cannot prevail on the open sea. At the same time, the encounter may be terrible. Naval officers at Sebastopol declare positively that the Kniaz Potemkin has comparatively little ammunition, having expended a quantity during the manoeuvres. There is reason, however, for taking this statement with reserve. Meanwhile the freedom of the mutineers to roam the Black Sea is paralyzing trade.

TORPEDO BOAT ON HUNT.

Sofia, July 7.—The Russian torpedo boat destroyer Stremitelni took coal and water at Varna, a Bulgarian port, last evening, and sailed to hunt the Kniaz Potemkin Tavritchesky. Two Russian warships are now at Varna.

TOGO LEADS CHARMED LIFE

PIECE OF SHELL NEARLY CAUSED HIS DEATH

Officer Who was on Board the Flagship Tells of the Battle of Sea of Japan--Russian Officer's Statement.

Tokio, July 6.—Still further details of the battle of the Sea of Japan continue to arrive here. Among the latest is a letter in which the writer, an officer aboard the battleship Mikasa, Admiral Togo's flagship, declares that the valiant Japanese naval commander "must have a charmed life to have gone through that terrible fight unscathed."

"During the hottest exchange of fire," says the writer, "one shell struck the third step of the admiral's bridge ladder and exploded. One of the splinters struck and broke the cover of the compass, smashing it and sending a piece of the iron against Admiral Togo's right thigh as he was standing taking observations with his glass.

"Captain Ijichi saw the fragment strike the Admiral, and, apprehending evil, hastily ran toward him, but only to find him still completely absorbed in taking observations, and apparently unaware of what had occurred. A closer examination showed that Admiral Togo was totally unhurt. The piece of iron, which was the size of the palm of one's hand, was found near him. Captain Ijichi carefully pocketed it, and, returning to his post, went on fighting.

"The piece of iron will long be kept as a souvenir of the providential fortune attending Admiral Togo, and we more firmly believe than ever that Heaven is always with him who is fighting the cause of right and justice."

The following tale of the horror of the conflict is sent by Captain Ishibri, commander of the Japanese torpedo boat No. 38:

"The crews of all the ships were deluged with sea water. The brine went into their eyes, almost blinding them, and this continued for fully twelve hours, but with pieces of rag they went at serving and laying the great work of serving and laying the guns. Many men had the skin taken off their noses and cheeks, and around their eyes. By chewing biscuits, some of which had been soaked in brine and others bespattered with the blood that had spurted warm from the fresh wounds, men stayed their hunger. On the Russian ships it is said that the men fell down, not because of wounds, but owing to that unconsciousness which comes from the horrors of hunger and thirst, and presence at a great and violent scene of death."

A Russian lieutenant who served on board the Admiral Nakimoff, and who is now a prisoner here, says:

"When we entered the Tsushima straits Admiral Rojestvensky signaled: 'We have now entered the enemy's nautical territory. Take care.' Soon our flagship also signaled: 'Four of the enemy's cruisers are approaching. Be ready.' That was the last signal.

"The shells fired by the Japanese always did damage; they were splendid. Many officers and men of our crew were killed, and their warm blood flowed over the deck. It was a miserable scene. Our commander ordered the wounded to be taken below, and their places were automatically filled by others. A line of Japanese destroyers steamed parallel with our fleet from eight o'clock on the night of May 27th. Many Japanese torpedo boats and destroyers came against us. They swarmed on every side, and we had no idea that the Japanese flotillas were so large.

"Hundreds of torpedoes were launched against our fleet. The Admiral Nakimoff received four of them, and the last one, which hit us astern finished us. There were also on board the Russian ship many Whitehead torpedoes, but from the first we had not a single opportunity to use them effectively against the enemy. We fired all our heavy guns at the little craft which darted around our sides, yet in the blackness it was difficult to distinguish objects, so we wasted in this way much precious ammunition."

A survivor belonging to the Ural, the converted Hamburg liner Kaiserin Maria Theresa, brother of the chief editor of the Russ, gives an account of the battle "The Ural," he says, "was hit to starboard by a twelve inch shell, which penetrated into the engine room and burst in it, smashing everything and causing the funnel and masts to fall down. The dock was also rent asunder by the shock in many places. The flesh and bones of 500 dead men were scattered in every direction, and the scene was one of indescribable horror." The narrator and thirty-three others drifted on to the Nagaro coast after fifteen hours' exposure to the sea.

Thos. W. Lawson Interviewed

Author of "Frenzied Finance" Affable But Too Tired to Talk.

On Wednesday, The Times having learned that Mr. Thomas W. Lawson, of Boston and New York, the well known magazine writer and author of "Frenzied Finance," was to pass through the city that evening, sent a representative to interview this talented financier.

Owing to his frequently published portraits The Times man had no difficulty, when passing through his private car, to recognize Mr. Lawson. The time being so limited, the newspaper man came to business at once and asked why he chose Canada as his route for going to Chicago and other western cities to lecture. Mr. Lawson, politely, but with a grimace, answered, "Your newspaper men in Canada seem as instrusive as on our side of the border." He answered The Times' questions by saying that he had received reliable information that an attempt would be made to delay his reaching Kansas in time for his address by some legal action as he passes through New York State. As he leaves July 5 and speaks in Kansas City July 7, and a few hours' delay would upset his plans, he could take no chances, and therefore shunned the route through Canada. Mr. Lawson's secretary accompanies him in his private car.

In the very few minutes conversation held, Mr. Lawson spoke very kindly of Canada, and said that a comparison of Canadian and American methods of finance showed the Canadian system to be much superior and provocative of greater commercial and financial integrity than those in vogue in the United States. Mr. Lawson said he had often heard of Peterboro, as fast his frequently used a Peterboro made canoe. Mr. Lawson will address several Chatauqua assemblies, during his western tour in Kearney, Nebraska, Iowa and Minnesota, returning to Boston about the end of July.

Mr. Lawson, although evidently not over pleased by an unexpected interview, showed by both word and action that he is not only used to such treatment, but knows how to treat representatives with courtesy. He is a fine looking man, with intelligence lighting his eyes and upper features, but with a mouth and chin indicative of strong will and determination to carry out the dictates of his will. He shows evidence of being tired out not only physically from travelling but the lines about his eyes show the strain of continuous mental activity. As the train pulled out he waved a kindly adieu from the car window.

Barbers are Kicking

The Familiar Red, White, and Blue Signs Must get Hence

And now the Tonsorial Artists are hostile about the by-law prohibiting the blocking of sidewalks by merchandise or signs. All of the barbers having signs on the pavement, or hanging over it, were commanded yesterday, by the police, to remove such obstructions.

The barbers claim that hanging signs or those not interfering with pedestrians, have as much right over the sidewalks as have the scores of awnings hung over store fronts. They claim that their weekly bills for wages paid are as large as many of those paid by merchants.

Mr. Hall, whose barber shop in the Snowden House basement, has a small sign hanging to a telephone pole in front of his shop, the sign hanging over six feet from the sidewalk. He considers it an injustice to make him remove the sign which interferes with no one.

The almond-eyed Celestial washee-washees have also got to take in their Hop-Tong and Jim-Long intimations that soiled linen is here washed and exceptorated once. The Council have evidently entered upon an extensive crusade this time. It is worthy of note.

Mr. Ostrom Manager

A Peterborough Man Now Manager of Toronto Branch Monarch Bank

The Toronto Star says; Negotiations are being proceeded with by the provisional directors of the Monarch Bank for the purchase of centrally located property, on which to erect the head office of the new venture. It is the hope of those behind the project to begin operations this fall, in all probability in rented premises. After the head office has been located, city and other branches will be started.

It is the intention of the new bank to do a very conservative business "We shall avoid all wild-cat investments," said one of the directors this morning. The provisional manager is Mr. Marshall Ostrom, but lines are laid to secure a well-known Canadian banker of experience for the permanent occupation of the office.

The capital of the bank is $2,000,000, nearly all of which is Canadian money.

ELIHU ROOT TO SUCCEED HAY

Former Secretary of War may Re-enter the Cabinet

A PRESIDENTAL CANDIDATE

Root May Be the Republican Nominee Three Years From Now

Washington, July 7.—Should the President be able to prevail on Elihu Root to re-enter his Cabinet, as Secretary of State, the result, in the view of practical politicians in Washington would prove of more than ordinary significance.

The name of the former Secretary of War has been associated more than once since the last Presidential election with the Republican Presidential nomination in 1908. This suggestion, it is understood, has not been at all distasteful to Root, and officials of administration, who are on good terms with him believe he has aspirations in that direction.

Men of practical political turn of mind are ready to predict that if Root enters the Cabinet as premier of the administration, a healthy impetus will be given to the movement to make him the Republican nominee three years hence.

Chemong Transit

Messrs. McCollum Bros. Have Placed a Good Bus Schedule Between the City and Chemong.

Messrs. McCollum Bros., the enterprising livery men, who recently purchased the fine barns and business so efficiently managed by Mr. Leary, on Water street, have added a fine new bus, made by the Geo. Fitzgerald Co., to their rapid transit line between the city and Chemong. This bus, which is a credit to both makers and owners, is beautifully painted, strongly constructed, safe and easy riding, and will comfortably seat 25 to 30 persons.

The bus will leave the Water street barn at 8 a.m., arriving at Chemong in time for the boat. At 4 o'clock another bus leaves the livery barn. The next bus leaves the barn at 6.10, for business men or others. This bus leaves Chemong at 8 a.m. for the accommodation of men coming to the city for business.

Season tickets, at reduced rates, good only on the 6.10 p.m., and 8 a.m. bus for the city, can now be secured.

St. Petersburg, July 7.—It is ascertained from official sources that an armistice cannot be arranged. Boston, Mass, July 5—All records for lengthy ball games in this city were broken yesterday afternoon when Philadelphia defeated Boston 4 to 2, after twenty exciting innings. The previous record, a Boston-Providence game, eighteen innings, has stood since 1878. Ferris gave the finest exhibition of infielding seen in this city for years, accepting sixteen honors, many of them difficult, out of seventeen. Young's remarkable steadiness, not giving a base on balls in the entire game, was also a feature.

Lacrosse

The one feature which marred an otherwise brilliant exhibition of lacrosse between the Shamrocks and the Capitals at Ottawa on Dominion Day, was a disgraceful riot in which the players and the public alike participated. A posse of police had to be secured to quell the disturbance, and a dozen of the players would have been arrested had it not been for the prevailing intercession of the officials of the clubs interested. As it is, however, Mayor Ellis is determined that no more games of lacrosse shall take place in Ottawa until a police permit has been secured and a bond given for the good behavior of the players. Things are coming to a pretty sorry pass in lacrosse circles when the authorities have to resort to these drastic measures in order to maintain order during a match. But unless players can control themselves properly it is, perhaps, just as well that they should be placed under police surveillance. A discreditable incident of this kind recounted does much to injure the prestige of a game which has always rightly maintained its place in the vanguard of athletic amusements.—Toronto News.

Diamond Sculls

London, July 6.—In the final heat for the Diamond Sculls today, Kelly easily defeated Blackstaff in the record time of 8 minutes and 10 seconds.

Kelly was in the semi-finals against Lou Scholes, of Toronto, last year, and went down to defeat. He had held the sculls the two years previous. His time today reduced Lou Scholes' record of last year by 13 seconds.

Praise from Strangers

The city has a new ward temporarily added at the driving track, its citizens all being wide-awake, abreed men fond of, and posted on horseflesh. In the long array of sheds, to the south side of the exhibition grounds, are quartered some 25 to 30 men, owners, trainers and general helpers with some of the speediest ponies in this part of the Dominion. Most of the new men reside right in these sheds, to look after their valuable and attention-demanding charges. There is every token of these men, in evidence, from the constant incoming and outgoing of the horses and sulkies, to clothes spread out drying on the grass and kettles boiling over the fire.

In conversation yesterday, at the grounds, some of the horse owners, who live at distant towns and cities, expressed to The Times their hearty approval of the Peterborough Turf Club's grounds, track and management, saying this track beats anything in Ontario. As a horse, hot and sweating, would come in from a spin or work-out round the track, its particular owner and his assistants would immediately unbitch and sponge him down, both as to mouth and sleek coat. For this purpose, just beside the stables is an artesian well supplying clear, cold and pure water.

The local Turf Club are straining every nerve this year to make next week's races the most successful in the history of Peterborough, and there is every appearance of their efforts being appreciated. The Club's this year, will have the public entrances through the first gate, just at the street railway tracks, thus saving the exposed crowds from the hitherto tiring walk along the well known and heretofore dreaded dusty road. They have completed arrangements for having the seats in the covered part of the grand stand upholstered with cotton to save the delicate and fragrile dresses of ladies seated thereon.

The official badges are now ready, which consist of a neat card, suitably inscribed, with date and particulars, to be attached to the owner's button hole by a silk cord; these badges, which admit a gentleman and his lady friends, cost $2 and include the races of both days, and a one day badge for $1. As the supply of these badges is limited to ensure proper seating accommodation for their owners, it is advisable to secure a badge as soon as possible, as the demand, towards race day, will far exceed supply.

Among the horses now stabled at the track, and which were exercised yesterday afternoon, are Mr. George Curtis' mare, Minnie Keswick, by Keswick, dam Minnie by Toronto Chief, with a mark of .16, she will start in the free for all race here; Red Wilks; Minnie P.; Orillia Belle; Duncan Belle; Foston and Chatelaine, owned by Mr. C. Phair; The World, owned by Messrs. Elwood and Latimer; Victoria; Jos Allen, by Malvolio, who has taken 2nd place 4 times out of 4 starts; Helen R., with a mark of 2.31-4; White Blaze, and others.

Yesterday afternoon a closely contested trial—one mile heat, between Minnie Keswick and Orillia Belle, gave as clean an exhibition of trotting as was ever seen on the track; it was neck and neck all the way, Minnie having a few inches the best of it in 2.31-2.

It was suggested by several leading horsemen, at the track yesterday, that the Turf Club should hang up a special purse of $50 to $100 for any horse beating the present record of the local track, 2.14-2 made by Sphinx B. two years ago; this would make some excitement and likely cause the association trouble in the long run.

During the heavy storm of Tuesday afternoon, several yards of the north fence surrounding the track grounds, were blown down and four horses, three belonging to Mr. Leary, and one, to Mr. A. Rountree, got away and are still missing. The local Turf Club have arranged with the Street Railway people for a good street car service to accommodate the thousands of expected patrons of the races; there will be at least a 5 minute service, if not better.

It was decided by the horsemen last night to call off the races for the evening of Saturday, the 8th, owing to the great danger of their horses catching cold from being heated and exposed to the evening air, and thus handicapping them for the race meet the following week.

Made to Lower the British Flag on the Glorious Fourth.

Captain of Schooner Acacia of Kingston Compelled to Take It Down at Charlotte, N. Y., on the Glorious Fourth--A Protest Has Been Filed with the Canadian Minister of Marine by Captain Simmons.

New York, July 7. — A Rochester despatch to The Tribune says: A protest has been filed with the Canadian Minister of Marine by Captain Simmons, of the Canadian schooner Acacia, because the port collector compelled him to lower the British flag on his vessel in the harbor at Charlotte on July 4.

Collector Bump was informed that the Acacia had flouted the Union Jack on the morning of the 4th of July, and ordered Captain Simmons to haul it down, saying it was an insult to the national holiday. Simmons refused and threatened to shoot the collector if he boarded his vessel. Finally Simmons lowered the flag when threatened with refusal of his clearance papers.

The Autonomy Bill Passed.

Given Third Reading After a Series of Interesting Divisions.

Ottawa, July 6. — The autonomy legislation has passed the Commons.

The Alberta Bill received its third reading at midnight, and the Saskatchewan Bill at 1.12 o'clock this morning.

The whole day was taken up with the two measures, and no less than twenty-two divisions will appear on the records. The members were actually called into vote eight times, and on the other occasions the amendments were declared "lost on the same division."

The afternoon saw some excellent debating, Mr. Borden attacking the bill in a speech which was a remarkably good compendium of his position on the whole question, and Mr. Fitzpatrick replying. Late at night Mr. Walter Scott made a violent attack on Mr. Borden.

There was also an animated debate in French in which the Premier crossed swords with Mr. Bourassa and showed that he can still speak effectively in his mother tongue.

For the rest it was a wearisome series of formal motions and votes. The House sought refuge from tedium in boisterousness, but there was no singing, as until this session was a custom with the House, and the session broke up with the spirit of the members unmistakeably jaded.

Painful Accident.

Shortly after resuming work in the Dickson Company's mill, early yesterday afternoon, Ward Graham, son of Mr. Robert Graham, Dublin street, had the misfortune to suffer one of those regretted, but seemingly unavoidable accidents occasionally incidental to work in or about a sawmill.

The young man, when working in the mill, was rolling a log onto the moving carriage operated in connection with the saws. In some manner Graham missed his footing and stepped upon a fast revolving saw which saws from the floor and used chiefly for trimming the ends from the logs. His left foot came in contact with the teeth in such a way that all the toes save the great one were severed. The ambulance was immediately called and the injured man was removed to St. Joseph's Hospital. Dr. Eastwood and Dr. Boucher were called and did everything possible for the comfort of the young man. His great misfortune will cause regret among his fellow-employees, with whom he is a general favorite.

Punished Enough

Many Citizens Are Signing a Petition to Save the Boys' Future.

A petition is being very generally signed throughout the city to have the sentence of the two boys, who were each committed to a month in gaol at hard labor, commuted. The boys, who were found guilty of stealing strawberries from Samuel Newhill, of North Monaghan, were before Police Magistrate Dumble on Tuesday last. The petition will be presented to the Minister of Justice at Ottawa.

Without condoning their offence, we think, if every man in the city who has committed a similar sin, signs the petition, it will be a lengthy one. The fault of these boys is not only a common one during holidays, but already sufficiently punished to satisfy both justice and the man who, first hammered, and then arrested them, and also to warn others off his strawberry-bed, without perhaps making confirmed criminals out of a Collegiate Institute student and an employee of the Cordage Co. Fiat justicia but save the boys!!

Medicines Loaded With Alcohol

Think of It! The Danger You Run — Drink Habit is Easily Acquired, But Hard to Cure.

Careful analysis shows that many so-called tonics contain little else but whiskey—the rankest, poorest kind of whiskey.

You may unconsciously be using an alcoholic liquid remedy. Some member of your family may be doing so. Your duty is plain; stop it at once.

The test of a tonic is the permanency of its cure. To become strong, you must build up the blood—alcohol weakens it. You must increase your nerve force—alcohol steadily devours it.

Give up the liquid tonic, before you become its slave. The true medicine for the run-down, depressed and nervous is Ferrozone. It is nothing but concentrated cure in tablet form. It stimulates the appetite, aids digestion, fills the blood with iron, builds up in nature's way. Never known to fail.

Whether weak from worry, overwork, thin blood, or ill-nourished nerves, Ferrozone will quickly make you well. It is safe and harmless, undoubtedly the best tonic and rebuilding medicine made. We must recommend you to use Ferrozone if in poor health.

Ferrozone, known as the great food-tonic, costs 50c. per box, or six for $2.50, at all dealers, or by mail from N. C. Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont., and Hartford, Conn., U.S.A.

BATTLE SHIPS OF THE FUTURE

The Scientific American contains information we have not seen elsewhere in relation to the latest battleship designs made by the English admiralty. These designs have been made in the light of all the experience gained by the Japanese in their war with Russia. It is probable that British naval officers have had larger access to the results of that experience than those of other nations. These new designs must be taken, therefore, as the very newest thing in naval construction.

If the information of the Scientific American is correct England and Japan hereafter will sacrifice everything to speed and heavy gunfire. All guns but the very heaviest will be abandoned, except for a perfect swarm of small rapid fire guns to repel torpedo boats. It is said that the new ships will have 18,000 tonnage and 21 knots speed and will carry each ten 12-inch guns mounted in five turrets on the main deck.

With these the admiralty is planning huge armored cruisers of 25 knots speed, carrying the same equipment of 9.2-inch guns. The British are planning no ships smaller than these except huge torpedo boat destroyers, ranging up to 36 knots speed with turbine engines and 1,000 tonnage. These, it is thought, will take the place of all cruisers and scouts in the future.

This is the natural result of the demonstration in the Japan and Yellow seas that faster battleships with heavier guns can keep out of harm's way while sinking a slower enemy with inferior guns at long range. It is probable that the example of Great Britain will be followed by all nations that desire to maintain serious pretension to sea power.

The American bureau of naval construction has been feeling its way for two or three years towards the design of battleships armed only with 12-inch guns, though it has not ventured to ask for 21 knots speed. It is suspected that the delay in designing the two battleships authorized by the last session of congress will result in adoption of this very powerful type.

CANADA AND THE NAVY

Another Dominion Day has passed without the ceremony of presenting a fully-equipped battleship to the Imperial navy. In this respect Canada, the foremost of the outlying British possessions, lags behind. Neither Cape Colony nor the Australian Commonwealth can approach the Dominion in wealth of natural resources, yet both have done their full share in assuming this means by which all alike are shielded in their homes as well as their world-wide liberties. Canada does much in supporting a military service, which nobly responds to every requirement of home defence. If that were all, it could be said with truth that Canada has done its part. But it is not all. The Dominion ranks seventh or eighth in its marine among the commercial powers of the world. Some eighty per cent of civilization Canadian sailors, representing Canadian merchants, are dependent upon British consular agents to keep their ways smooth, and upon British warships to protect them in case of difficulty, growing out of foreign wars or the broils in which Great Britain may unhappily be engaged. If the British navy cannot help Canadians in such extremities, no other power can. What, then, is the duty of this country towards the naval power of the Empire?

Mr. Moore Explains

In Regard to the Sunday Excursion at Napanee

(To the Editor of The Times.)

Sir,—Over a week ago there appeared in the daily papers a so-called report of some discussion regarding the report of the Lord's Day Alliance Committee adopted by the Church of England Synod of the Ontario Diocese. That report purported to state what G. F. Ruttan of Napanee, said, and did not even suggest what was contained in the Synod Committee's report which strongly supported the Lord's Day Alliance, and was unanimously carried. Surely the report was more important than the remarks of a member of the Synod, and yet even those remarks were incorrectly stated, and appeared under glaring headlines doing a gross injustice, to both the Church of England and the Methodist Church, as well as to Mr. Ruttan.

I wrote to Mr. Ruttan about the matter, and quote from his reply dated 28th June as follows; "In reply to yours of the 27th instant, would say that I deeply regret that my remarks at the session of the Ontario Synod should have been reported as they were. In speaking on another subject, I incidentally remarked that the Sunday excursion referred to by you, was one gotten up to accommodate people who wished to attend the Methodist Conference at Picton, and I further stated that I believed that the excursion was promoted by the Captain of the Steamer Reindeer. I have no reason to believe it was promoted by the Methodist Church. I am in sympathy with the Lord's Day Alliance in obtaining one day of rest under the Statute laws of Canada for the laboring people, and must say that it is unfortunate that the reporters for the public press enter so much to the sensational loving public. Make such use of this letter as you wish in correcting the false impression given."

I hope, dear sir, you will give this letter a prominent place in your columns, and thus help to correct a very great and grave wrong to the Christian Church, and to a most important cause.

T. ALBERT MOORE,
Secretary Lord's Day Alliance.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Many Interesting Curios Presented to Victoria Museum

A meeting of the Peterborough Historical Society was held Tuesday night, at which the report of the delegates to the meeting of the Ontario Historical Society, at Niagara-on-the-Lake, on June 7th and 8th, were received. The reports were presented verbally by Mr. J. H. Burnham, the official representative, and will later be placed on file in written form, at which time they will be published in more detail.

Col. H. C. Rogers, President of the Society, has presented to the Victoria Museum a number of interesting Indian curios secured during his recent trip to British Columbia, among which is an Indian totem pole, which will be placed on exhibition as soon as suitable cases have been provided. HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS

Any even numbered section of Dominion lands in Manitoba or the North-west Territories, (excepting 8 and 26, which has not been homesteaded, or reserved to provide wood lots for settlers, or for other purposes, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one quarter section of 160 acres more or less.

ENTRY

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land to be taken is situate, or if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration Winnipeg, or the local agent for the district in which the land is situate, receive authority for some one to make entry for him. A fee of $10 is charged for a homestead entry.

HOMESTEAD DUTIES

A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required by the provisions of the Dominion Lands Act, and the amendments thereto, to perform the conditions connected therewith, under one of the following plans:

(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years. It is the practice of the Department to require a settler to bring 15 acres under cultivation, but if he prefers he may substitute stock; and 20 head of cattle, to be actually his own property, with buildings for their accommodation, will be accepted instead of the cultivation.

(2) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased), of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

(3) If a settler was entitled to and has obtained entry for a second homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by residence upon the first homestead, if the second homestead is in the vicinity of the first homestead.

(4) If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

The term "vicinity" used above is meant to indicate the same township, or an adjoining or corgering township.

A settler who avails himself of the provisions of clauses (2), (3) or (4) must cultivate 30 acres of his homestead, or substitute 20 head of stock, with buildings for their accommodation, and have besides 80 acres substantially fenced.

The privilege of a second entry is restricted by law to those settlers only who completed the duties upon their first homesteads to entitle them to patent on or before the 2nd of June, 1889.

Every homesteader who fails to comply with the requirements of the homestead law is liable to have his entry cancelled and the land may again be thrown open for entry.

APPLICATION FOR PATENT

Should be made at the end of three years before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector. Before making application for patent the settler must give six months notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa of his intention to do so.

INFORMATION

Newly arrived immigrants will receive, at the Immigration Office in Winnipeg, or at any Dominion Lands Office in Manitoba or the North-west Territories, information as to the lands that are open for entry, and from the officers in charge, free of expense, advice and assistance in securing lands to suit them. Full information respecting the land, timber, coal and mineral laws, as well as respecting Dominion Lands in the Railway Belt in British Columbia, may be obtained upon application to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, Manitoba or to any of the Dominion Lands Agents in Manitoba or the North-west Territories.

W. W. CORY,
Deputy Minister of the Interior

N. B.—In addition to Free Grant Lands, to which the Regulations above stated refer, thousands of acres of most desirable lands are available for lease or purchase from railroad and other corporations and private firms in Western Canada.

He was surprised at how the sores healed—"I took your New Method Treatment for a serious blood disease with which I had been afflicted for twelve years. I had consulted a score of physicians, taken all kinds of blood medicine, visited Hot Springs and other mineral water resorts, but only got temporary relief. They would help me for a time, but after discontinuing the medicines the symptoms would break out again—running sores, blotches, rheumatic pains, looseness of the hair, swellings of the glands, palms of the hands scaling, itchiness of the skin, dyspeptic stomach, etc. I had given up in despair when a friend advised me to consult you, as you had cured him of a similar disease 8 years ago. I had no hope, but took his advice. In three weeks' time the sores commenced to heal up and I became encouraged. I continued the New Method Treatment for four months and at the end of that time every symptom had disappeared. I was cured 7 years ago and no signs of any disease since. My boy, three years old, is sound and healthy. I certainly can recommend your treatment with all my heart. You can refer any person to me privately, but you can use this testimonial as you wish."

THE TEMISKAMING LINE

Extension as Far North as James Bay not Improbable

Toronto, July 6.—A well-equipped surveying party, under the auspices of the Temiskaming & Northern Ontario Railway Commission, will leave North Bay soon to look over the country between Lake Abitibi and Jess Bay, with a view of reporting upon the practicability and advisability of extending the line to the latter point. The extension, which was referred to in the budget speech, and on other occasions during the recent session of the Legislature, is somewhat favored in Government circles, and is not unlikely to be carried out. Mr. C. B. Smith, Chairman of the Commission, who returned yesterday from a trip over the line, says that everything is running satisfactorily, the traffic is heavy, and good progress is being made with the extension north from Liskeard.

SUGGEST NEW MAIL ROUTE

Merchants Think England Wants to South Seas Should go Via Canada

Vancouver, B.C., July 6—In view of the unsettled condition of the Australian mail question, merchants here think that the time has arrived for Canada to make a move to secure the sending of Australian and New Zealand letters to England via Vancouver and Montreal, and of British postal matter to the south seas via Montreal and Vancouver instead of by the Red Sea route as now. To accomplish this the steamers to and from Sydney, N.S.W., must call at New Zealand ports again. The Board of Trade is being urged to draw the attention of the Federal Government at Ottawa to the facts of the situation by having steamers call at New Zealand. Canadians, it is pointed out, would be able to capture trade from the United States because the Southern Colonies preferential tariff is in favor of the Dominion as against the republic.

Peary Ready for the North

New York, July 6.—The Roosevelt, Commander Robert E. Peary's new ship, in which he will sail within a few days to begin his tenth dash for the North Pole, steamed into port from Bucksport, Me., yesterday, and anchored off West Forty-second street in the North River.

"The Knight of the Frozen North," as Mrs. Peary affectionately styled him yesterday, was accompanied by his wife, his son and Miss Babb, a Maine girl, who hopes to attend the expedition as far north as Whale Sound or Cape Sabine, which will be the base of supplies.

Fourth Attempt at Suicide

Fredericton, N.B., July 6.—Dr. Geo. Riggs, while en route to Dorchester, yesterday, to serve sentence of four years for writing letters to Beasie Clark, threatening to kill her if she refused to become his wife, made his fourth unsuccessful attempt at suicide within a week. Between here and St. John he tried to cut his throat with a knife, but his plans were frustrated by guards. Riggs has not eaten since Thursday last and he is believed to have made up his mind to starve himself to death.

"Indian Tom" Must Hang

Ottawa, July 6.—The Cabinet had before it, yesterday, the case of a Red man, whose colloquial title is "Indian Tom," but why is known among his tribe as Kledamkdumhu. At a potlatch on the British Columbia coast, this man cut the throat of an Indian girl in order to obtain some trinkets worn by the girl. Judge Duff, sentenced him to be executed on July 25, and the law will be allowed to take its course.

Cement Company Incorporated

Ottawa, July 6.—"The Western Canada Cement and Coal Company," with a capital stock of $1,250,000, and chief place of business in Ottawa, has been granted incorporation under letters patent, to carry on the business of manufacturers of and dealers and workers in cement and the by-products thereof. The incorporators are all Ottawa men.

JAPAN'S NEW BATTLESHIP

One of Most Powerful Ever Launched in England

London, July 6.—The Prince and Princess Arisugawa, of Japan, attended the launching of the Japanese battleship Katori at Barrow to-day. The Katori is one of the most powerful battleships ever launched in this country.

Ottawa Man Had Feet Crushed

Vancouver, B.C., July 6.—A man giving the name of John Ryan, Ottawa, was struck by a train at Sumas on Sunday night while lying on the track of the Bellingham Bay and British Columbia Railway in an intoxicated condition. His feet were crushed so badly that both will be amputated.

Votes of Thanks

Efforts of Minister of Railways and Mr. McClennan Appreciated

In our report yesterday of the very successful picnic attended by representatives of this and adjacent counties, held on Tuesday, down the Otonabee to Hastings, when the care of the bridges was formally surrendered to Mr. McClellan, Supt. of the Trent Valley Canal, for the Dominion Government, the lateness at which complete returns of the trip reached this office, we were obliged to omit the important votes of thanks passed. It was moved by Lt.-Col. McLean, Warden of the United Counties of Northumberland and Durham, seconded by W. T. Busk, Warden of the County of Peterborough, that this company representing the United Counties and the County of Peterborough, hereby express it hearty appreciation of the promptitude and liberality of the Hon. J. R. Stratton, Minister of Railways and Canals in His Majesty's Government of the Dominion of Canada, in taking over the swings of the bridges upon the line of the Trent Canal, thus facilitating the navigation interests in the said canal, and saving to the two counties interested a large annual expenditure.

Mr. Warden Busk, in a few appropriate words, seconded the resolution, which was unanimously adopted.

In justice to the intelligent and satisfactory manner in which Mr. J. Harris McClellan is fulfilling the onerous duties of his position, it was moved by Mr. W. H. Meldrum, Managing Director, Otonabee Power Co., and the Peterborough Cereal Co., seconded by Mr. F. Fowlds, Hastings, that this company, representing the power producing and navigation interests of the Trent Canal system, desire to express very emphatically its appreciation and approval of the admirable and thorough manner in which Mr. J. H. McClellan, Superintendent of the Trent Canal waters, has managed the conservation of the waters tributary to the Trent Canal system, preserving an equable flow and an ample reserve for the warm months of summer, to the manifest benefit of the interests of navigation and power production.

Col. McLean heartily endorsed the motion, which was also supported by Mr. Meldrum.

May Help Canada's Grain Business

Montreal, July 6.—The old "new" that one man's meat is another man's poison is brought prominently to the front by Russia's present troubles in the Black Sea.

An immense amount of wheat has been going forward from the Black Sea ports to the English market, but among local grain exporters the general opinion is expressed that the serious troubles at Odessa and other points on the Black Sea and the virtual overthrow of the little that remains of the Czar's navy in that section of the globe, will tend to shut off grain shipments. In this event it is generally thought that the prices will advance to such a figure as to place Canadian wheat on an export basis.

How great a contributor Russia is to Great Britain's wheat stores, is indicated by the fact that for the week ending July third, no less 5,85,000 quarters, or 4,680,000 bushels were shipped from Russian to English ports, while for the week ending June 26 the shipments amounted to 3,960,000 bushels.

History and Production of the Goldfields of Boulder County, Colorado, Portraying Economic Conditions Which Predict the Coming Goldfields of Colorado and Presenting the Stock Offering of a Great Gold Mining Enterprise of the United States Gold Corporation

FREE

Our booklet on the gold fields of Boulder County is off the press, and is being distributed free to investors. We have prepared this book to advertise the gold fields of Northern Colorado and our great gold mining enterprise. The books will be free for the asking while they last. It will tell you of how over fifty millions have been added to the world's wealth in production of gold, silver and copper under primitive methods and from surface workings of an average depth of not to exceed 250 feet. It will tell you of its great tungsten belt, the largest in the world. It will tell you of the existence of a diversity of precious and rare minerals, unrivaled by any other gold fields on this continent. It will tell you of a mineral area of twenty-five square miles literally covered with a network of veins practically undeveloped, with only one shaft below the thousand foot and half a dozen below the six hundred foot level. It will tell you of a gold field nearer to the Denver smelters than any other in Colorado; of a change of economic conditions, in this section, which will enable the miner to ship ore to the smelters, at a net profit, that is now being thrown over the dumps in other sections of Colorado; it will tell you of a field so attractive that it resulted in the construction of two railways from one end of the field to the other; it will tell you of the substitution of modern and up-to-date mining methods, in place of the primitive ones of the past; in short, it will tell you of all those conditions which predict for the gold fields of Boulder County the coming gold fields of Colorado.

It will also tell you of our great gold mining enterprise in the western part of the gold fields of Boulder County, near the continental divide, where nature has deposited her largest and richest treasure vaults; it will tell you of our economic development tunnel, driven to drain and develop a mineral estate almost a mile long and half a mile wide; of the thousands of tons of gold ore now blocked out and ready for shipment in the five different veins cut by this tunnel in driving it eight hundred feet, the result of two years steady development work night and day; of our wonderful discovery of molybdenite—a rare metal—in large commercial quantities, foretelling for us the first molybdenite mine in Colorado that is producing, as well as a large and permanent source of revenue, of our project to drive this tunnel, long before the end of this year, into the famous Fourth of July dyke or "Mother Lode," from which the far famed Caribou group of mines produced twenty million dollars in gold, silver and copper from 1869 to 1893; of the tremendous possibilities for ore production which will follow the cutting of a mineral dyke from 50 to 100 feet wide at a depth of a thousand feet, and the great probability of our opening the first great copper mine in Colorado when we reach this dyke with the tunnel In short, it will tell you of a gold mining enterprise that will go on a large producing basis long before the end of 1905; of an enterprise with possibilities second to none in Colorado, the developments of which have already shorn it of any element of risk or speculative features, rendering the investment offered safe and attractive one.

For the financial and commercial standing of the business men who stand back of this enterprise we refer you to the First National Bank, Boulder, Colo, or Bradstreets Commercial Agency

The edition will not last long. If you would be sure of securing a copy, write to-day, or your name and address on a postal card, with the word "Booklet," will do the work.

OFTEN DUE TO

Deranged Kidneys

When the Kidneys Are Weak It is Impossible for Any Women to be Happy or Healthy.

If the girls and women who are silently suffering with what they suppose is "female trouble," would look to their kidneys they would soon find the source of their ill-health.

The kidneys are very closely allied with the female organs and if the vitality of the kidneys is in any way impaired, great suffering is sure to occur.

No better medicine is known for the kidneys than Dr. Hamilton's Pills of Mandrake and Buttermilk; they stimulate and strengthen the kidneys and thereby assist the other organs to do nature's work. Instant benefit and certain cure are guaranteed in every case.

Sufferer, don't wait, begin treatment with Dr. Hamilton's Pills at once; they will cure you as they did Mrs. A. H. Coburn, a well-known resident of the town of Portland. Read her experience:

"For two years past I have been sickly and weak. My color was dull and sallow, and I felt exhausted and weary, as if all my strength were being eaten up with some hidden trouble. I heard of Dr. Hamilton's Pills and decided to use them. The change in a few days was surprising. They regulated my kidneys and bowels and cured all my suffering; to-day I am perfectly well."

Every woman can take Dr. Hamilton's Pills with safety and benefit. Their occasional use keeps the system in healthy, well regulated order. No medicine more gentle or more prompt in results. Now is the time to get Dr. Hamilton's Pills. 25c. per box or five boxes for $1, at all dealers, or by mail from N. C. Polson & Co., Hartford, Conn., U.S.A., and Kingston, Ont.

Memorial Presented

Mr. McCleggot, for 25 Years a Useful Councillor of Dear,e Is Made a Presentation

FOR a quarter of a century, Mr. James McCleggat been a faithful civil servant, councillor and sometime reeve of the grand old township of Dourro. During these 25 years Mr. McCleggat has made a host of friends, both in this city and the township he served so well and intelligently. About a year ago he decided to abandon the active part taken in municipal affairs and retire to a government position well earned and now to be efficiently filled. Mr. McCleggat has accepted the position tendered him of lockmaster at No. 6 lock, so resigned the position he, up to that date, held in the township council.

Yesterday afternoon quite a number of his friends gathered at his house, near lock No. 5, and presented him with a handsomely illuminated memorial, testifying to the valuable and faithful services he had rendered his county and township for nearly the length of a generation. Reeve Mellon read the presentation address and Mr. W. O'Brien, township clerk, on behalf of Mr. McCleggat's many friends, presented the beautiful memorial. This letter is a specimen of the cunning workmanship of a skilled penman, having been executed by Mr. Pringle, principal of the Peterboro Business College.

After the interesting ceremony of presentation had been performed, some of the most prominent residents of Dourro made well timed, and loudly applauded speeches, and after having enjoyed Mr. McCleggat's hospitality for some considerable time, many earnest wishes for the future happiness of both their host and hostess the party dispersed.

Narrow Chests.

The old theory that consumption was inherited is utterly discredited by modern medical science. The germs of consumption must be received from without. These germs are every where. They are constantly being received and cast out by the healthy system. It is the narrow chested whose inheritance is weakness who fall a prey to consumption because they are too weak of lung to resist and throw off disease.

Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery makes weak lungs strong. It cures obstinate deep-seated coughs, bleeding lungs, weakness, emaciation and other conditions which if neglected or unskilfully treated find a fatal termination in consumption.

$3,000 FORFEIT will be paid by the World's Dispensary Medical Association, Proprietors, Buffalo, N. Y., if they cannot show the original signature of the individual volunteering the testimonial below, and also of the writers of every testimonial among the thousands which they are constantly publishing, thus proving their genuineness.

"In the spring of 1901 I was taken with hemorrhage of the lungs, and became very weak and short of breath, lost flesh and had no appetite," writes Mr. E. L. Robinett, of Xerxes, Tenn. "I was persuaded to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. The first few bottles seemed to do me but little good. Thought I would soon be a victim of that dreaded disease, consumption. Had almost given up in despair when my friends persuaded me to give your 'Golden Medical Discovery' a fair trial. I commenced its use. I weigh 165 pounds now, and when I commenced I only weighed 140 pounds. If any one doubts this statement I will be pleased to answer any inquiry."

Death of Mr. G. Ross, Asphodel

His many friends in the city and county will regret to hear that Mr. Geo. Ross, one of Asphodel's oldest residents, passed away on Monday. Mr. Ross, who lived about one mile east of Norwood, was well and favorably known.

About twelve cars daily are being shipped out, and the season's contract will probably amount to about 160,000 ties.

Two Fishermen Have Good Luck

Messrs. William Snowden and John O'Toole have returned from their fishing trip to Buck. Those posted on the geography of this country may not recognize the spot, as mentioned, where those gentlemen depleted the genus muskinonge, but they report that local option has removed the "bars."

They had great luck with their fishing, having captured muskinonge and bass to the full limit of the law. The two gentlemen report that mine host, Tom Eastland has his hotel well filled, among his guests being a brand new married couple from "The Land of the Free and the Home of the Trusts." Messrs. Snowden and O'Toole brought back some fine muskinonge, but owing to hot weather had to give many away.

J. JACOBS

Police Court

OFFICIALS

Chief of Police, G. I. Hunt

Magistrate, D. W. Dumble

Yesterday was Merchants' day at the police court, owing to the by-law recently passed by the Council forbidding merchants obstructing the pavements with their goods. Mr. E. H. D. Hall represented the city in the prosecution. The first case called was that of the Peterboro Hardware Company, charged with blocking the sidewalk with rolls of felt paper and other merchandise, this case was dismissed.

Mr. Turner, of the Peterboro Music store, was charged with a somewhat similar offence. Mr. Hall remarked that the piano dealers were largely responsible for the passage of this by-law, owing to their having huge piano boxes for long periods on the pavements. Mr. Turner explained that his company often got telephone orders for pianos and had to use the sidewalk when putting them on the carts. He said the case, on which his summons was issued, was a sewing machine which only blocked the sidewalk for five minutes. Mr. Turner objected to the merchants "who help keep up the town," being interfered with. His Worship replied "Twaddle!" going on to say that this prosecution was not so much intended to aim at a conviction in these particular cases, as to let the merchants know, that the city means business in the carrying out of this by-law. Case dismissed with a warning.

Mr. R. A. Dutton faced the music on a similar charge and explained that the fault lay with the expressmen, who had been telephoned for, but did not come to remove the cases. Mr. Hall asked Dutton, "Have you not a back entrance?" Mr. Dutton explained that if berries were brought in at the rear of the store, the clerks would have to carry them through to the front. Mr. Hall insinuated that the convenience of the public, in their rights to pavements, was nearly as much importance as the clerks who would carry the berries.

Mr. Murty, the stove dealer, next bowed to his Worship, and explained the reasons for blocking the sidewalks, he was followed by Keilley, on behalf of Mr. R. Neil, who was charged with belonging to the fraternity of sidewalk blockers. He explained that many of their goods arrived after 12 o'clock by the C.P.R. freight from Montreal, but that they got them in as quickly as possible. In answer to Mr. Hall's question as to why they did not use the entrance at the back for bringing in goods, Mr. Keilley explained that owing to work in progress on their elevator this was impossible. All this batch of cases were dismissed with a warning.

There seemed to be some misunderstanding about the by-law, by those present, the merchants present interpreting its meaning differently. Mr. Hall and his Worship, both made things clear for them in doubt and advised them hereafter to keep the law.

Peterborough Fishermen Return

Messrs. H. LeBrun, G. W. Hatton T. E. Bradburn, T. H. G. Deane, W. H. Denham and his guest, Mr. C. Reifsnider, from Akron, Ohio, constitute a party of fishermen who have lowered the water of the Trent River somewhat, by the quoils captured and extracted from their natural element. They have returned to the city and report good sport among the bass, having captured several bass that pull the scales down below the four pound mark. Whilst they claim to have seen no suckers, each boat load of fishermen caught an eel. This is a strange creature to draw in, but even expert fishermen could not pass it by without raising it.

Kniaz Potemkin's Career Over, Blown Out of the Water.

Reported That the Battleship Kniaz Potemkin Has Been Blown Up Near Theodosia--Russia Appeals Directly to Japan for the Cessation of the War.

Odessa, July 7.—It is reported that the battleship Kniaz Potemkin has been blown up near Theodosia.

RUSSIA APPEALS TO JAPAN.

London, July 7.—"In spite of the denials by the Foreign Office, I have excellent authority for stating that Russia is persisting in her efforts to secure an armistice," says the St. Petersburg correspondent of the Times. "I am assured that representations to this effect have been made direct to Japan, but Tokio has vouchsafed no reply.

According to the Odessa correspondent of the Novosti the total losses through the outbreak there are estimated at a million sterling. The insurance offices refuse payment of the claims, alleging that the State is responsible.

Admiral Kruger's three battleships have proceeded with the Georgi Pobiedonosetz to the Sea of Azoff, presumably to protect property or perhaps capture the Potemkin at Theodosia. The newspapers are not allowed to publish details of the Potemkin's doings or even mention the proclamation issued by its crew, guaranteeing protection to foreign commerce.

UPRISING AT BAKU.

St. Petersburg, July 7.—The situation at Baku is so serious that theoilmen have telegraphed to the Minister of the Interior for permission to organize a militia in self-defence.

Sebastopol, July 8.—Admiral Chouk nin has issued an order forbidding the sale of firearms. The population is in a ferment.

Bagging A Mountain Peak

How Mount Fay, in the Canadian Rockies, was Captured.

A lengthy article would be necessary to do full justice to my one most complete and genuinely Alpine experience of the Canadian Rockies, writes Mr. Charles Fleischer. I refer to the ascent of Mt. Fay, in the company of this gentleman whose name has been bestowed upon that none too gentle mountain by the Geographic Board of Canada, in recognition of Professor Fay's services to that region. In a letter written to a friend the day before our conquest of this mountain—which had been ascended only once, and that a few days before our successful attempt (we climbed it on Aug. 6), I said: "Professor Fay calls this the safest of sports; but if it should prove otherwise in my case, then these are words of farewell to you. If I happen not to return, I am sure you would help my lawyer to settle my estate according to my wish." It is comforting now to read the comment of the sympathetic professor, "It is a very natural feeling, this, in approaching the unknown. Even the long experienced climber has strange waking dreams the night before a perfectly new ascent is undertaken." Also it is a satisfaction, now in my cosey study, to recall his assertion that Mt. Fay afforded, altogether, the most varied, hardest and longest climb in all his years of mountaineering. The conquest was a matter of fifteen hours of vastly harder work than I should ever do as a miner—snow, ice, arete, cornice, etc., knees, feet, teeth and eyelashes—heart-breaking work for a novice like me. But I am proud of it now when I remember that our kind Swiss guides said it was an stiff a proposition as the college fellow would say, as any to be found in the Alps. I have my own impressions and recollections of the experience, but since my space is limited, I prefer to quote from Professor Fay:

PROFESSOR FAY'S OWN STORY.

"The approach to Mt. Fay is from one of the most exquisite of those deep blue Alpine lakes, in the number and beauty of which Switzerland is quite outclassed by this region—Moraine Lake. Its environment is most impressive, yet almost forbidding. It rests in a lofty amphitheatre, in what was first called Desolation Valley, but now is known as the Valley of the Ten Peaks.

For the most part they leap up in sudden, craggy peaks along a great wall of rock which here forms the ridgepole of the continent (the continental divide). Mt. Fay is another massive ridge, rising, as it to form, a second terrace, from a great arena filled to the depth of hundreds of feet with a crevassed glacier. Its feeding cove sweeps at a precipitous angle up this frowning ridge, and seems to curl backward like a breaking wave in a ponderous over-hanging cornice that precludes secure approach from this side. And this is, in part, why the ascent was one of the longest as well as most arduous that I have hitherto made—fifteen hours from our camp by the lakeside and return, from 3.30 a.m. until 6.30 p.m.

. . . To the top of the outlook we made our way, chiefly on the ice, with frequent step-cutting, but one diversion for variety to the crags. It was a parlous looking place, and, as we noted it upon our return by ice below we asked ourselves: How many persons inexperienced in such climbing would consider a passage over such a frowning donjon as in any way possible without wings? Then over snowfields and a brief rocky ridge between peaks Three and Two, then skirting over the latter's snowy side—avoiding in one place a mass of rock discharged at us as if in fury from the outcrop near its summit—and we found ourselves at the col or depression, between Two and the great snow-faced ridge still left for us to surmount, and even now towering some thousand feet above us.

. . . The summit was still hours distant. Probably we should have reached it sooner, though less sensationally, had we made our way downward to the level snows and skirted on these to a point from which a steep climb would have brought us at once to the farthest and highest summit. But our two excellent guides, Hasler and Michel, are true sportsmen in their way, and preferred to try conclusions with the still only partially visible rear of our mountain—in technical phrase, to conquer it by a series of 'traverses.' Never, I am sure, have I had so much of this form of climbing in a single tour. Now up, now down; now pausing for a conference as to feasibility, now waiting for the unfailing Hasler to test the crucial bit; past steep snow couloirs looked down upon by the weirdest of crags rising like gaunt giants a sheer hundred feet out of those snows; so it went until at noon we had reached the crest of our peak and could pause for our midday meal. . . . It remained only to pass over the ponderous dome of snow that crowns the midway portion of the great ridge, and then beyond it by an easy slope to gain its culmination. A vast panorama lay here unfolded, the most impressive feature of which is the seemingly perpendicular drop of about 5,000 feet, on its northern side, to the lake lets of Consolation Valley.

". . . In returning, we made the immediate descent to that great snowfield on the easterly side, and a couple of hours' time sufficed to carry us across it in the intense heat of the August sun, circumnavigating, as it were, peak Two, and connecting with our route of the morning at the top of the great couloir by which we had come up. The heat of the lay had rendered the condition for passing it less favorable, particularly as regards the discharge of loosened stones the one insidious and uncalculable risk in Alpine climbing. Where scattered fragments on the steep snow showed such batteries probable, we moved with speed and sidelong upward glances; but soon we were below the point of imminent risk, and ere long cast aside for good the rope that for hours had bound us together. A great glissade, by which we made a descent of several hundred feet in one exciting minute, and a climb—unroped—down steep ledges bathed by cascades, where the guides themselves did not scorn each other's aid, were the closing features of a day involving every variety of climbing usually met with in Alpine tours of the first order.

We had only two hours' sleep, after a weary eleven-mile tramp, the night before this ascent of Mt. Fay, and we had but little more the night after—and yet we were up with the sun the next morning and walked gayly back over the nine-mile trail to lovely Lake Louise, where we arrived in time for late breakfast at the chalet and a hearty welcome back to the world. I confess I felt more heroic (with Professor Fay it was a matter of course) than if "I (too) had killed a Spaniard."

RUSSIA'S DISTRESS AND THE CAUSES

AUTHORITY ON THE SUBJECT

Natives Russians are Largely Farmers and Le[illegible] Business Largely Foreigners

Montreal, July 8.—"I am a British subject, born of a Russian mother, and I have spent most of my best and happiest day in Russian Territory on the northern shores of the Black Sea, and principally in the Northern and Southern Caucasus, and I challenge any man to prove that the disturbances in Russia—whether political or industrial—are traceable to any but the discontented and conquered people of various other races living in Russian territory."

These are the words of a gentleman in Montreal, who spent so much of his time in the Russian Caucasus with an English firm, which did business there, that he had nearly forgotten his mother tongue.

According to this gentleman's story, he can as well consider himself a British subject as a Russian subject, for his father was an Englishman, and his mother being Russian, he may, according to Russian law, claim the rights of Russian citizenship through her.

"There is no question about it," he went on, "that the Russians hate the Jews, as the Tartars do the Armenians. Of this we have examples in Kishineff and the Armenian massacres in 1898; but the loyalty of the Russians themselves is beyond question."

"What makes you so positive on this point?"

RELIGION MAKES THEM LOYAL

"Because the religion of the people makes them so. I speak with some authority, because I was myself baptized and confirmed in the Russian Orthodox Church, and I know something about the religion. Russians are taught, and they cling to the belief, that the Czar is God-sent and God's annointed, the Defender of the Faith. The Czar in their minds is inseparable from their religion, even as a temporal monarch, Hence he is called the Holy Czar, and to oppose him in any way is to strike at their religion. For this reason also no Russian peasants will allow anyone to say anything against the Czar, and not so much as an evil thought is entertained about him."

"How do you explain the discontent in Warsaw and Odessa?"

DISCONTENT EXPLAINED.

"I will do so as shortly as possible. Russians are for the most part settled on the land as farmers, thus leaving the industrial ranks open to [illegible] In Warsaw, they are all poles; in Odessa, they are nearly all Jews, Turks and Greeks. These people are always in a state of unrest, and on the slightest provocation they become riotous. When this happens it goes out to the world that "Russians" are rioting for reforms."

"Do you mean to say that the Russian people are still satisfied with the present form of government?"

"No, they will welcome a change; but they will not revolt in order to secure it or hasten it. As a general rule, the man of 30 years of age today is illiterate, while the child of 12 years can both read and write efficiently. Russian mothers to-day are proud to have their children as well educated as their means will allow. Hence the association of the students with movements for reform and the desire of the people for better government, because they are able to read the newspapers of other countries and are learning to appreciate their methods. There is no Russian village of 1,000 inhabitants that has not a well equipped school for the education of the children. This was what I saw in the North Caucasus, where millions of Russian immigrants from Central and Northern Russia have settled on the lands and are quiet, industrious and prosperous, although they arrived in an almost destitute condition. The land yields two crops a year and the immigrants are settled in groups of about twenty families."

HARD TO SECURE REFORMS.

Explaining why it is so hard to secure reforms, he said that the Grand Ducal party, who are not necessarily of royal blood, oppose it, because, as representatives of the wealth of Russia, their power will go if the people have a voice in the management of the state. Their policy at first was to keep them in ignorance, and now that this is no longer possible, they are using a weak Monarch to withhold reforms.

He is commonly said that Nihilists assassinated the Czar's grandfather. That is a mistake. The Nihilists were the father of the late Grand Duke Sergius. He alone knew of the new constitution the Czar was giving the people and he destroyed his master so as to deprive the people of it. This is heard from the lips of a late governor-general of Odessa."

Continuing, he said; "You will perhaps like to know why the Cossacks are looked upon as the backbone of the army and the Czar's most faithful men. It is this. The conditions of their service makes them so. They are so highly favored that they excite the jealousy of their less fortunate countrymen. They receive no cash for their services, but are given the best lands—about 45 acres to every family—generally along the banks of rivers and streams, and they are exempt from all taxes, rates or rents After three years of active continuous service, they do a month a year for three years more and then they are transferred to the reserve and are given a pension. One of the results of his training is implicit obedience and I have never seen men with such an idea of duty, regardless of difficulties. The State furnishes him with his whole outfit except his horse."

"I have seen the Georgians referred to as a warlike people. A big mistake. I have always found them, unless there has been a change with in the past two years, as quiet as lambs, almost spiritless, and most inoffensive.

Mother Found Pigs Were Eating Baby

Galt, July 8.—It was by mere chance that the three months' old baby of Mr. and Mrs. J. Wagstaff escaped being eaten alive by pigs yesterday morning. The parents of the baby are English people employed on the farm of Geo. McCormack, near Glen Morris, about seven miles below Galt. Mr. Wagstaff was cutting hay, and his wife was assisting him. She carried the baby around with her for some time, but, growing tired, she made a bed for the child in the hay, where she placed the infant, and then proceeded with her work. A short time afterwards she approached the place where her baby lay, and hearing its cries, hurried to the spot. A most shocking spectacle met her gaze. The baby was surrounded by eight small pigs, none of them over one month old. One was gnawing at the baby's foot, and had eaten off one of the toes. Other pigs were at the baby's side tearing away the clothing and biting into the flesh. When the mother of the infant came running up and snatched the baby from its perilous position, the pigs ran squealing away.

The baby was then taken to Ayr for medical treatment, and while there is some hope held out for its recovery its little life hangs by a thread.

A Dry Public!

This Summer the Public Must Drink Luke Warm Water.

Much criticism has been heard this summer about the public drinking fountains at Central Park and in front of the Police Station. There is much deserved adverse comment, made concerning the local ice dealers, on account of these water supply places not being iced as was done last year. The tender for icing these two places this year, by an undersigned coincidence, amounted to the same figure, viz., $60 for both places. The Times, as usual, having the public's interest at heart, yesterday investigated the cause of this non-icing of these popular drinking fountains. The only reason assigned by members of the Council, is that the price $60 is too high. We find that for the fountain fronting the Police Station, takes about ... ton of ice three times a week to keep the drinking water cool; the fountain at Central Park, taken about 1,200 pounds each icing. Last year Mr. Rebill had the contract for icing these fountains. Yesterday he informed The Times that he went personally with the ice waggon to Central Park; saw the ice tank filled with ice at 8 a.m. and, by the same evening, saw the ice had completely melted away. Mr. Rebill told The Times he had so many undeserved and unwarranted complaints about Central Park icing last, summer, he told Ald. Batten that he would not take the contract this year at any price unless the Central Park tank was filled daily. The Water street tank, taking 4 ton each filling, must be replenished, at least, three times a week. New ice, as supplied to the G. T. R. chrome cars here, costs, by contract, $2 a ton; during the season of say, June, July, August and September, taking the Police Station fountain three times a week with a ton each time, or say five tons a week, and Central Park at 1,200 pounds daily during the season, this would make the cost of ice, without counting labor, more than the price asked by those tendering, viz. $60. Last summer hundreds of strangers were heard, at these two public drinking fountains, to remark on the splendid drinking water we had in Peterborough. The adv. carried to their homes is well worth the $60, not taking public convenience into account at all.

Most of the Aldermen have good drinking facilities, at home, in the shape of ice water, or good cool other drinks in the city thirst quenching foundries, but they might consider the thousands far from home or without the price in their pockets, and supply palatable drinking water to the masses, even if it does cost $60 for about $60 worth of ice.

PEOPLE OF WEST AWAKE.

An Appeal for Western Canada to Unite Against the Aggression of the Federal Power.

Winnipeg, July 7.—The Tribune editorially under the heading "Let Western Canada Unite," says: "Manitoba has never yet attained the full status of a Province. The people of Quebec have full control of their Crown lands, mines, timber and other natural resources. So have the people of every other Province east of Manitoba and west of the Territories.

"The people of Manitoba do not control their public domain. It is controlled by a Parliament to which Quebec sends sixty-five members and Nova Scotia eighteen, while Manitoba sends only ten. The inhabitants of Quebec not only enjoy possession of their public domain, but have more to say in the public domain of Manitoba and have a larger share in its ownership than the people of Manitoba themselves. Not only are we deprived of revenue from this domain, but we must look on with tied hands while the splendid heritage is wasted, mismanaged and given away to brokers and grafters. The people of the new Provinces are to be in the same position.

The article refers to the numerous "insults to the manhood of the West" and then advises united action to remedy the present state of affairs. It believes there is only one possible end to the struggle and the way to end it quickly is through united and energetic action.

No 8 and 10 King street west, $150,000.

Kent's store at 144 Yonge street, $75,000.

A two-thirds interest on property on the north side of Richmond street, worth $50,000.

Properties in Peterborough on Weller street, and George street, worth $15,000.

Fear Kniaz Potemkine Will Bombard Them

Inhabitants of Crimean Summer Resort are in Terror--A British Collier Stopped by the Pirate Ship--The Russian Authorities Are Powerless.

Yalta, Crimea, July 7.—Intense excitement prevails here, owing to fear that the Kniaz Potemkine will bombard the city.

REPORTS UNTRUE.

Theodosia, July 7.—The reports sent from Odessa to London newspapers regarding the bombardment of Theodosia are untrue. Order is fully maintained in the town by the troops.

Before leaving Theodosia the Kniaz Potemkine sighted a British collier which she followed seaward and from which she took a quantity of coal.

GROPING IN THE DARK.

St. Petersburg, July 7.—The Kniaz Potemkine escaped from Theodosia before the Black Sea fleet arrived there from Sevastopol and as the fleet did not put into Theodosia it is presumed the warships are in pursuit of the Kniaz Potemkine. But the advices received by the Admiralty are meagre and most conflicting.

DRINKING IS INCREASING?

Toronto, July 7.—Not for fourteen years have there been so many committments for drunkeness in the Province of Ontario as during the year 1904. As compared with the year 1903 the increase in convictions amounts to about 20 per cent., while as compared with 1902 the increase is almost 40 per cent.

This is the most remarkable feature of the annual report on the inspection of Liquor License, issued today by the Provincial Secretary's Department.

YACHTS MUST BE INSPECTED

Inspector of Steamboats at Kingston Issues Order

Kingston, July 7.—Inspector M. R. Davis, of this city, has given special instructions to custom officers at Canadian ports on the river to not allow the United States gasoline yachts to carry passengers unless they have undergone inspection. On the other side small boats of their class do not require inspection. These gasoline yachts have been allowed too much scope on the river, and are illegally carrying passengers from the Canadian ports where the two countries are so close. One place, a United States yacht, not inspected, was actually doing ferry traffic. When on a tour of inspection on the Brockville, Prescott district yesterday, Mr. Davis saw what was going on, and informed the customs officers as to their duty.

The result was that one yacht was held up.

Power For Peterboro

Central Ontario Power Co. Will Bring the Power Induced by Burleigh Falls to This City

Since Mr. H. N. Kittson of Hamilton, has been appointed President of the Central Ontario Power Company, owing in part, to his prominence in the business world of Hamilton, great enthusiasm has been aroused in that city over the almost limitless possibilities of the power his company will develop at Burleigh Falls and convey to Peterboro, Oshawa, Port Hope and other towns along the front. Mr. J. A. Culverwell is also causing great interest to be taken by Ontario capitalists in this splendid power, which from its competitive proximity to so many factories and other industries, will be a great boon to the towns supplied. With power so vast and so near, new industries cannot but be attracted to this city and nearby towns.

It Does Not Pay

Brantford Aldermen Investigate Companies in Opposition to the Bell

A party of Brantford aldermen have visited Port Arthur and Fort William in search of information to guide them in deciding as to embarking in a municipal telephone venture. The towns named have been much talked of by advocates of the municipalization of this, that and the other utility, and the Brantford people expected to obtain some useful hints. They found that the two towns have $42,000 invested in telephone plants, the system being, of course, entirely local, and the patrons being dependent on the Bell Company for long distance connections. The rates charged are $24 and $12 for office and house services, respectively. Fort William admits a loss on the operation of the plant, but Port Arthur shows a small balance to the good. A remarkable feature of this book-keeping was disclosed, however, when it came to a question of repairs and renewal of plant—very important things in such an account. Neither municipality has made any allowance for that; not a dollar is allowed for depreciation of machinery, or for the introduction of such improvements as are from time to time offered.

In this city we had precisely a similar experience with the defunct Ontario Telephone Company, which died the natural death, certain to follow on the feeble opposition made by a handful of sore-heads with some (generally imagined) grievance, to the well equipped and strongly founded Bell system; this is particularly true with companies with insufficient capital, and this is almost universally the case, to provide against either unforseen disasters from storm, fire or other likely causes, or to establish a sinking fund, out of receipts, to repair the ravages of time and constant use. Apart from the generally admitted inconvenience and expense of a dual system of telephone exchanges, it is well remembered here that the history of the Ontario Telephone Company, although seemingly bright at its inception, soon proved to be alive with incidents and experiences of trouble and delay to customers as the plant began to play out, and was not properly refitted for lack of capital.

We who were in Peterborough during the futile fight maintained for the few months by the Ontario against the Bell Company, all remember the expressions of delight everywhere heard when this local company sold out to the Bell. We also remember the oft-repeated and as frequently broken promises made for outside service "after a while."

strictly local and that cannot give connections with far off cities and towns is of as much service as a steamship without boiler or engine.

In these days of modern methods of business, a telephone service that is If the Brantford city fathers can learn by experience of other places where local services have been inaugurated, and take advantage of what their intelligence must assure them, they will be mighty careful about allowing any local opposition enter their city and hold up their merchants and citizens for the prices of two systems.

News of the Track

Getting Ready for the Great Race Meet on July 12th and 13th.

Yesterday afternoon there was quite a gathering of both local and outside horsemen at the track. "Joe Allen," owned by Mr. Sam. Hallett, of Sunderland, a colt of 4 years of age, entered in the .40 class, during the afternoon stepped the mile in .22; not bad for a four year old and in three heats he never went slower than .25.

"Helen R." and "Billy P." worked out several mile heats round .18 and .20. "Miss Paisley" did some pretty work, that caused more than one quirt to study his watch face pretty close. All the runners were out and drew much attention. Yesterday afternoon and evening there was some hot air talk on George street and in the hotels about a certain mare, entered for the races, and which Dame rumor says is entered under a wrong name. If any one thinks there is anything in this hot air, we can steer him into a chance to put up or keep quiet. This same mare had a similar report made about her at Ottawa and those circulating this rumor had to shut up quick. There is nothing to it.

Two members of the Turf Club committee, before the races are on, will call on the business and professional men of the city, to let them secure badges before strangers grab them up. From the way the $2 badges were being bought up yesterday, it would be advisable for every one to get his badge at once; these admit the holder and his ladies to every privilege for the two days. The grand stand seats were yesterday measured for the cotton upholstering that will be put on to save the ladies dresses. The Turf Club are bound to make this race meet the best this city has ever seen, and everything will be on the square.

Yesterday evening the Turf Club completed arrangements for having a special policeman on the grounds and grandstand, so that ladies need not fear having a man sitting near them chewing tobacco and spitting promiscuously about, as is sometimes done at race meetings.

The whole object of the Turf Club this year is to have not only a large attendance and good races, but to establish a name for the city of having a race meeting that any lady may attend with pleasure.

UNION LABEL

PETERBOROUGH, JULY 8 1905

WHEN WAR WILL CEASE

The waste involved in war is one of its factors that will bring increasing concern to the peoples of the world. For thousands of men to be taken from the list of producers to become spenders of the world's wealth, destroyers of the fruits of the labor of millions, is an inconsistency whose significance will be more and more appreciated. In the complexities of to-day's civilization we are coming to realise that the world cannot afford to waste its substance in violent killing.

War, with its heroism and its achievements, has always appealed to the imagination. The profession of the soldier has been and is deemed honorable. Yet the soldier must be counted out of the number of those who add to the wealth of the world. Taking him in the large, he is a spender, a parasite. However necessary to his country he may be at the present time, he is a destructive force in the economy of the world's housekeeping. His country would be better for his labor. The disarmament of the world is not a dream of theorists and altruists. In the economy of things it will come to be recognized as a necessity. When a universal need is apprehended it finds practical expression.

It will be discovered that war does not pay. When that time arrives altruism will find a working development.

The attitude of the she-wolf in fending and foraging for her young is typical of too much of human effort as expressed by nations and individuals. The nation engaged in grabbing from its neighbor spends in the effort more than it gains. Unborn generations will pay the penalty. The man who snatches for his family the good things that should be earned by real toil is helping to make the world a bad place for his children's children to live in.

The welfare of his own family for which man strives cannot be attained in its ultimate form unless all effort is converged toward one distinct purpose, and that purpose is the good of all. Tolstoi says that the immediate work of the world's development is "the substitution of union and harmony for division and discord." Every being strives for its own happiness. This is egoism and self-love, and self-love must embrace all exponents of the same species. This striving for individual welfare by its very nature tends to comprise all that exists. "It expands its limits naturally by love, first for one's family—one's wife and children—then for friends, then for one's fellow-countrymen; but love is not satisfied with this, and tends to embrace all."

When love for one's fellows becomes paramount there will be no room for hate and its expression in strife. War will cease.

TOO EASY

Canada is finding that she has made herself too attractive to immigrants. It is getting too many of the pauper class from Europe, that stink to the cities and constitute a serious burden on municipal philanthropy. Secretary Richard H. Lane of the Charity Organization Society of Montreal recommends, in his annual report to the society's directors, that the Dominion should scrutinise the incoming foreigners more closely and require that they shall be self-supporting. He says: "You will remember last spring how we as a city were confronted with the serious problems of about one thousand Italians, without funds, without friends, unemployed on our streets, and that a public subscription for bread had to be opened for them. A much more serious problem would have been upon us during the past winter in the arrival of not far from two thousand Hebrews from Russia, had it not been for the generosity of a gentleman of that faith, we understand, in London, who kindly sent a cheek for a large amount for the care of these unfortunate men." Finally, he says, concerning the matter; "We are confident that we do not need and we do not want as strict immigration laws as they have in the States, but on the other hand, it is impossible to escape the fact that we are harboring in our country a very large percent. of these ten thousand immigrants who have been rejected by the officers of that people. Surely, the Dominion of Canada, with all its need for a large population to develop resources, cannot afford to be populated with outcasts from all the countries of Europe thrown to be a burden on us by the United States officials in our midst."

THE ASSESSMENT ACT

At Brockville Judge Reynolds has given a decision which makes an important change in the generally accepted understanding of the new assessment act. The new act says that machinery shall be assessed as part of the real estate, but exempts fixed machinery used for manufacturing purposes. James Cummings, of Lyn, who owns a large mill property, appealed against his business assessment, which is based on the real estate value, the assessors having placed the machinery as part of the real estate. The judge decided that fixed machinery meant any machinery, being permanently used for manufacturing purposes, and consequently his milling machinery was exempt. The best laid schemes of Assessor Hutton gang agley when the average judge gets after them. The intention of the act; that is, the intention of those who prepared the bill; was to assess the great bulk of the machinery used in manufacturing. The judge's decision is that none of it may be assessed, in view of recent decisions by sundry judges it might not be a bad idea for authors of bills to submit them to judges before they are made law—the author of the bill to explain to the judge what he means, and the judge to put the author's desire into such language as will be interpreted, by judges, to mean what it is intended to mean.

This decision, will, of course, be held to be a precedent, and machinery will not be taxed.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer one Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS

Any even numbered section of Dominion lands in Manitoba or the North-west Territories, excepting 8 and 26, which has not been homesteaded, or reserved to provide wood lots for settlers, or for other purposes, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres more or less.

ENTRY

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land to be taken is situate, or if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration Winnipeg, or the local agent for the district in which the land is situate, receive authority for some one to make entry for him. A fee of $10 is charged for a homestead entry.

HOMESTEAD DUTIES

A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required by the provisions of the Dominion Lands Act, and the amendments thereto, to perform the conditions connected therewith, under one of the following plans:

(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years. It is the practice of the Department to require a settler to bring 15 acres under cultivation, but if he prefers he may substitute stock; and 20 head of cattle, to be actually his own property, with buildings for their accommodation, will be accepted instead of the cultivation.

(2) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased), of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

(3) If a settler was entitled to and has obtained entry for a second homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by residence upon the first homestead, if the second homestead is in the vicinity of the first homestead.

(4) If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

The term "vicinity used above is meant to indicate the same township, or an adjoining or cornering township.

A settler who avails himself of the provisions of clauses (2), (3) or (4) must cultivate 30 acres of his homestead, or substitute 20 head of stock, with buildings for their accommodation, and have besides 80 acres substantially fenced.

The privilege of a second entry is restricted by law to those settlers only who completed the duties upon their first homesteads to entitle them to patent on or before the 2nd of June, 1892.

Every homesteader who fails to comply with the requirements of the homestead law is liable to have his entry cancelled and the land may again be thrown open for entry.

APPLICATION FOR PATENT

Should be made at the end of three years before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector. Before making application for patent the settler must give six months notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa of his intention to do so.

INFORMATION

Newly arrived immigrants will receive, at the Immigration Office in Winnipeg, or at any Dominion Lands Office in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories, information as to the lands that are open for entry, and from the officers in charge, free of expense, advice and assistance in securing lands to suit them. Full information respecting the land, timber, coal and mineral laws, as well as respecting Dominion Lands in the Railway Belt in British Columbia, may be obtained upon application to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, Manitoba, or to any of the Dominion Lands Agents in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories.

W. W. CORY,
Deputy Minister of the Interior

N. B.—In addition to Free Grant Lands, to which the Regulations above stated refer, thousands of acres of most desirable lands are available for lease or purchase from railroad and other corporations and private firms in Western Canada.

IF YOU WANT MONEY

Buy a block of stock of the Tonopah-Crow Gold and Copper Company. This stock is selling at 18 cents a share. It will be paying a profit in one year of not less than 25 per cent. on capitalization, which will mean a value of the stock of $2.50 a share. It may be worth $5.00 in less than two years time. There are more than 100 mineral veins crossing this property. The lowest average of ores as far as developed is $54 a ton, which does not include numerous small bodies running from $100 to $1,000. The money to be raised in these sales of stock is to be put in hoisting plant, equip and rapidly develop the mine, which includes six mining claims and mill site; 125 acres. The New Method Treatment Cured Him after Drugs, Mercury, Hot Springs, &c., all failed.

After Treatment

Wm. H. Patterson, of Saginaw, Mich., relates his experience: "I do not like notoriety and especially of this kind, but I feel I owe this much to Drs. K. & K. for the great good they have done me. I had a serious blood disease when 24 years of age. The skin and blood symptoms gradually developed. Pimples and ulcers formed, running sores broke out, hair became loose, pains in the bones and joints, dyspeptic stomach, foul breath, itchy skin, etc. It is needless for me to say I tried doctors. I grew to hate the looks of one. I visited Hot Springs twice for four months each time. It helped me temporarily, but in six months after returning home I was as bad as ever. Finally a Doctor friend of mine advised me to see Drs. Kennedy & Kergan. He said he had known of them for over 20 years, and as they made a specialty of these diseases and treated the worst cases by the hundred they ought to be expert in curing them. I was afraid of advertising fakers, but I took his advice. They agreed to treat me under a guarantee or no pay. I investigated their financial standing and found they were perfectly responsible. I commenced the new method Treatment. The eruptions disappeared in two weeks, the bone pains in four weeks and in four months I was entirely cured. Yes, sir, I can recommend the NEW METHOD TREATMENT for Blood and Skin Diseases."

TO BOMBARD THEODOSIA

TO MAKE EXAMPLE OF CREW

Admiral Werenius Says He Would do so—Easiest Way to Torpedo Ship

Theodosia, Crimea, July 7.—The inhabitants are leaving the town in compliance with the orders of the authorities, who fear that the mutineers of the Kniaz Potemkin will carry out their threat to open fire on Theodosia this evening. only troops and officials remaining here.

STILL AT THEODOSIA.

St. Petersburg, July 6.—Inquiry at the Admiralty this morning failed to confirm the report current last night that the Kniaz Potemkin had already left Theodosia. Admiral Wirenius, chief of the naval staff, informed the Associated Press that, according to the latest advices, the battleship is still at Theodosia.

"What will be done?" asked the correspondent.

"We cannot tell you," was the reply. "The whole affair is in the hands of Vice-Admiral Chouknin, and he has not communicated his plans to us. Admiral Kruger's ships were due to leave Odessa yesterday afternoon. They should be arriving at Sebastopol."

"Do you think that upon their arrival Vice-Admiral Chouknin will despatch the squadron to try to capture the Kniaz Potemkin?"

"We do not know what he will do. In my opinion the easiest and promptest solution would be to send a torpedo boat to sink her, and I have advocated that course. The situation is grave. The ship is not in the hands of her crew, but in the hands of the Revolutionary committee which went on board at Odessa. They have issued a high-sounding manifesto to the powers. They want to be considered insurgents. I presume their next step will be to ask for recognition as belligerents. They know their heads are forfeited, and will stop at nothing. In the eyes of the law they are outlaws and pirates. The first thing necessary is to make an example of the crew and restore discipline in the Black Sea fleet."

Admiral Wirenius said there was no truth in the report from Vienna that four hundred Russian sailors had destroyed a cruiser and sought refuge on board a British steamer bound for Constantinople.

A STRIKE SETTLED.

Choustadt, July 6.—The dock laborers' strike here has been settled, the Commercial Transportation Company reducing the hours of work to nine hours per day and increasing the men's wages ten per cent.

SOLDIERS MUTINY.

Berlin, July 6.—A correspondent at Kattawitz, Silesia, says he learns from an altogether reliable source that sixteen men, who were designated in each company of the Lithuanian Life Guard Regiment in Warsaw to go to Manchuria, June 28, refused to go, and their comrades declined to make them do so. Their colonel sent to another life guard regiment for help, but those men also refused to obey orders. Upon a similar refusal of another life guard regiment the colonel of the Lithuanian regiment applied to the military commander of Warsaw, who sent a detachment of Cossacks to the Mokotow camp. Some of the mutineers fired on the Cossacks, who returned the fire, fourteen altogether being killed before those who resisted were arrested.

LOOKING FOR THE PIRATE.

Sofia, July 6.—The Russian torpedo boat destroyer Stremitelni took coal and water at Varna, a Bulgarian port, last evening, and sailed to hunt the Kniaz Potemkine Tavritchesky. Two Russian warships are now at Varna.

BUILDING TRADES STRIKE

The Conditions Remain Unchanged, but Bricklayers are Moving

Montreal, July 7.—The strike situation among the carpenters and joiners is unchanged. At the headquarters of the union this morning the officials of the Brotherhood said that they had nothing new to report. The secretary of the Builders' Exchange informed The Star that the places of the strikers were gradually being filled with non-union men and that work on some of the buildings was progressing very well.

There will be an important meeting of the Bricklayers' Union this evening in St. Joseph's Hall. All the members have been notified to attend.

YOU ARE AILING

Find the Cause for the Weakness and Nervous Dread That Overshadows Your Life.

You can't keep up forever.

Sooner or later Nature will rebel against the strain that is imposed on your overworked system. So far, will power and nerve may have tied you over, but the end is probably near at hand.

To-day the common complaint with weak men and women is lack of kidney vitality. Here you have the cause of your ill-health.

Wouldn't it be wise to use a time-tested remedy like Dr. Hamilton's Pills—they cure that "ailing" feeling in one night. Next morning you feel like new—bright, fresh and happy. Appetite improves, dull, sallow color grows ruddy and clear, proving that great good is being done by this scientific medicine.

Thus writes Mrs. D. F. Fowler, from Yarmouth: "I used to feel drowsy and heavy, my color was sallow, and there was such a bad taste in my mouth. I had severe pains all through my limbs, and an annoying headache as well.

"After one dose of Dr. Hamilton's Pills there was a sudden change. I felt better, my appetite improved, and that exhaustion and depression gradually left me. Life seemed brighter and happier after I used Dr. Hamilton's Pills, so I strongly recommend such a good medicine."

Mrs. Fowler's letter is a message to you and all others in poor health. You can't do better than follow her advice. Dr. Hamilton's Pills you certainly need; then why not get them now and enjoy the abundant good health they are sure to bring you? Price 25c. per box, or five boxes for $1.00. The Police Should Interfere

People living near a house on Aylmer street, located less than a thousand miles from the Montreal House, have, of late, been complaining as to the disorderly conduct in evidence there every evening and night. In this house, nightly, music (?) is supplied by a piano or melodeon, for the boarders (?) to dance to. Sunday, in particular, and always on Sunday night, the lager beer kegs are emptied with quickness and dexterity. A few nights ago, a gentleman, standing near the Montreal House, saw a brute in human form, several times knock a woman down. The police must know the house and should watch it. Such places are a disgrace to our city and unfair to hotels who pay a fee for selling liquor, as does the Montreal House situated not very far from the scene of these nightly orgies.

Telephone to Hall's Bridge

The local disciples of Esculapius met Thursday night in the Ontario Bank chambers and arranged a uniform tariff of charges. The charges for mending broken hearts was held over indefinitely, the number of June weddings puzzling the fraternity as to anticipated results should the prices for attendance on cardiac afflictions be raised, except in cases of traumatic injuries. Each doctor in the society will be furnished with a printed copy of the the adopted tariff.

The meeting then adjourned to meet next Thursday evening, July 13th, at 8.30, in the same place, when the tariff will be signed, and the subject of contract practice and other matters of importance dealt with.

Distinguished Visitors

The guests were escorted to the commodious chambers of the club, where a short and informal reception was held. Owing to the intense heat, the visitors were not detained long in the rooms, but, escorted by a delegation from the club, were taken to Victoria Park to hear the 57th Regiment Band concert.

All of the club's guests were emphatic in their praises of our beautiful park, and expressed their appreciation of the Regimental Band's playing and numbers.

Mr. R. R. Gamey, M.P.P., will arrive this morning by the 11.35 C.P.R. train.

Today's speakers, headed by the band, will be escorted to the grounds at 1.30.

MISS GENEVIVE MAY.

CATARRH OF STOMACH CURED BY PE-RU-NA.

Miss Genevive May, 1317 S. Meridian St., Indianapolis, Ind., Member Second High School Alumni Ass'n, writes:

"Peruna is the finest regulator of a disordered stomach I have ever found. It certainly deserves high praise, for it is skillfully prepared.

"I was in a terrible condition from a neglected case of catarrh of the stomach. My food had long ceased to be of any good and only distressed me after eating. I was nauseated, had heartburn and headaches, and felt run down completely. But in two weeks after I took Peruna I was a changed person. A few bottles of the medicine made a great change, and in three months my stomach was cleared of catarrh, and my entire system in a better condition."—Genevive May.

Obituary

Death of Mr. Charles Payne

One of the oldest settlers in this part of the country, in the person of Mr. Charles Payne, passed away on July 5th.

Mr. Payne was a brother of Mr. Stephen Payne, the well known local market gardener. The deceased who Bencroft, was aged 82 years. He came to Canada; from England in 1854, and was the oldest son in a family of twelve, seven brothers and five sisters, of whom four brothers and three sisters are still living.

For many years Mr. Payne drove the stage between Peterboro and Warsaw, when he resided in the latter village. Mr. Payne was for years a successful farmer, highly esteemed and respected by all who knew him. His uncle, the late Mr. Levi Payne, Dummer, came here in 1831, when the present city of Peterboro consisted of but two log houses.

The late Mr. Charles Payne, was only ill for five days previous to his death, and was buried at Faraday.

Unionism Gone Mad

Workmen Fine There Bosses for Keeping Open

(To the Editor of The Times.)

Dear sir,—As a disinterested outsider I have watched with keen interest the fight between the "Barbers' Union" and the proprietors of the different shops. This is supposed to be a free country but "unionism," if carried much further, will make this country worse than Russia as a place of residence.

The bosses, as I understand things, allowed their men to go for the holiday but kept their shops open and worked themselves with the help of those of their men who didn't wish to take the holiday. For doing this, the "Union" has fined the bosses, in default of payment of which the shops are declared to be no longer Union shops.

It won't take long for those of us who belong to no unions to quietly organize and agree to patronize none but non-union shops.

This thing of unionism is being carried to excess, and if the men get the public against them, it will be as much the worse for the men.

Yours truly,
OBSERVER.

INDIAN NAMES

(To the Editor of The Times.)

Sir,—Why will the public, including even the news papers, insist on pronouncing the Indian names in this locality quite away from the Pottawatomie vernacular? Why call a town Otty-way, when the natives pronounce it Ot-tau-wah? Why speak of Ni-ag-ry Falls, when the Indians called it Ne-ah-gar-ah? Above all, why speak of Irry-quois, when the word is Ir-rock-woy?

Indignantly yours,
OP-TA-GEE-SHIK.

J. JACOBS

Police Court

OFFICIALS
Chief of Police, G. L. Reed
Magistrate, D. W. Dumble

Yesterday's court was attended by a very different personnel to that which generally frequents this hall of justice.

Mrs. Louisa Howell was charged with maintaining a house of ill-repute on St. Daniel street. The Court had evidently not only received many complaints by persons residing near this woman's house, but had decided to have them make good their complaints.

The list of witnesses for the prosecution comprised nearly the whole immediate neighborhood, there being eleven gentlemen and six ladies subpoenaed and present. Thirteen gentlemen gave their evidence, which was unanimous in showing that Mrs. Howell's residence was, to use the most euphonious express applicable, most undesirable in any locality. The sights, sounds and general "goings on" at her house being beyond the limit of a newspaper's powers and privileges to decently express.

The police had the ladies subpoenaed as witnesses, corralled in the Council chamber, but as the Chief, with great delicacy, decided to try and complete the case for the prosecution without embarrassing the ladies by bringing them into court on such a case, the evidence given by the men was sufficient, and the ladies spared the unpleasant task of bearing testimony. The woman, whose little dog accompanied her to court and was with her in the dock, was sentenced to six months' confinement in the Mercer Institute, Toronto.

Before court opened Dennis Sullivan swore out an information against James Revoy, the charge being that Revoy had assaulted him, in Wednesday night, inflicting serious wounds. Sullivan appeared with his head almost completely enveloped in bandages. The case will be tried this morning.

DISCOURAGED

The expression occurs so many times in letters from sick women to Dr. Pierce; "I was completely discouraged." And there is always good reason for the discouragement. Years of suffering. Doctor after doctor tried in vain. Medicines doing no lasting good. It is no wonder that the woman feels discouraged.

Thousands of these weak and sick women have found health and courage regained as the result of the use of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It establishes regularity, dries unhealthy drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

"In the year 1899 I was taken sick," writes Mrs. Edna Crowder, of Ripley, Lauderdale Co., Tenn. "My limbs ached, had severe pains in back and lower part of bowels, with difficulty in urination, and smarting and burning pain after. I tried many kinds of medicine and four of the best doctors in the country, until I gave up all hope of recovery. In January, 1901, I wrote to Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., and received from him a letter, telling me to try his medicines. I took eleven bottles, six of 'Favorite Prescription,' five of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' one vial of 'Pellets,' and used one box of 'Lotion Tablets' and one of 'Healing Suppositories,' and am now able to work at anything I want to. Thanks to you for your valuable medicine and kind advice."

Weak and sick women are invited to consult Dr. R. V. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is held as strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Japs Attack and Land Troops on Sakhalin.

Japanese Squadron Opens Fire on the Village of Karsakorsk--Torpedo Boats Begin Movement for Possession of the Island, and St. Petersburg Has Been Informed That Landing Has Been Made.

St. Petersburg, July 9.—A landing of Japanese troops on the island of Sakhalin was officially reported to-night, and startled military circles in St. Petersburg, though it had been realized, since the defeat of Admiral Rojestvensky, that the Japanese were able to take possession of the island so soon as they thought fit. The strenbgth of the landing force cannot be ascertained, but the garrison of the island is too weak to offer an effective resistance.

A despatch, dated July 7, from General Liapunoff, commanding the Russian troops on the island of Sakhalin, says:

"At 9 o'clock in the morning of July 7, a Japanese squadron approached the Village of Chipivan, about seven miles southwest of Karakorsk, and opened on the shore."

Another despatch of the same date says; "At 3 p.m., Japanese torpedo boats approached Karsakorsk, and the Russian batteries opened fire on them and compelled the boats to retire. During the bombardment four of the inhabitants of Karsakorsk were killed. The bombardment had been anticipated and the commander had ordered the withdrawal of the defenders northward."

"An Ideal Resort"

Prominent C. P. R. Officials Spying out the Land About Kawartha

There is good reason for supposing that next summer the Canadian Pacific Railway will erect a mammoth summer resort hotel somewhere on our beautiful chain of Kawartha Lakes.

On Friday last a special car bearing Messrs. Robt. Kerr, general traffic manager, and W. T. Robson, advertising agent, both of the C.P.R., with headquarters at Montreal, arrived in Lindsay.

Mr. W. T. C. Boyd's palace steam yacht conveyed a party of guests, including these officials, over the entire route from Cobocunk to Chemong and Burleigh, returning Saturday evening.

The C.P.R. officials were greatly impressed with the beauty and accessibility of the chain of lakes, and one of the Montreal gentlemen remarked, "This is an ideal spot for a large summer resort." It is understood that this official visit will more than likely result in the C.P.R. choosing a location and erecting a large hotel, which would make a great feeders for their system in this district. It is to be hoped that the idea will be consummated, as it would help to boom this city. When the C. P. R. takes hold of such a proposition it does not do things by half.

Since Sunday the greatest lovers of the city—corporate, financial, political and social—have been at work on Bell. The magistrates themselves have been approached by the biggest men in Philadelphia and, by their old political chiefs, and incredible sums of money have been offered them to destroy certain records. District-Attorney Bell has been appealed to upon every ground, from social to political, to intercede. Judges, clubmen, politicians, hosts of the men of the upper volumes are striving to prevent the veil from being drawn.

There was a report last night that one of the women now in Moyamensing had gashed her face terribly with a nail and had been taken fearfully disfigured, to the prison hospital.

Tax Time Coming

The City's Revenue Will Soon be Demanded--Aug. 1st, is the Date

YOUNG CONSERVATIVE CLUB'S FIRST ANNUAL PICNIC HELD ON SATURDAY AFTERNOON WAS A GREAT SUCCESS

Large Crowd of People From Town and Surrounding District Listen to the Speeches at The Driving Park.

The Distinguished Visitors Visit the Lift Lock and Other Points of Interest in the City--Speak in Glowing Terms of Peterboro's Future.

The Young Conservative Club's 1st annual picnic, so long announced and admirably managed, was a grand success. As announced on Saturday's issue, most of the speakers from beyond the city, were taken to the Y.C. Club's apartments on Friday evening. On Saturday morning, Messrs. Perley, Broder and Roche were driven around the city and shown the lift lock and many points of interest. Messrs. James Kendry, T. E. Bradburn, Harry Phelan, James Edgar and G. W. Bennett acted as guides and at 11.35 the party drove down to the station to welcome Hon. Nelson Monteith, Minister of Agriculture and Mr. R. R. Gamey, M.P.P., of Manitoulin. There was a large crowd at the depot to welcome the visitors. Promptly at 1.30 cabs containing the distinguished visitors, accompanied by prominent Conservatives of this city and county, and headed by the 57th band, after a slight detour round the market square, drove down George street to the Exhibition grounds. The band after heading the hacks full of local leaders of the Conservative party and their guests, as far as Charlotte street, got aboard the street cars and rode to the grounds.

The grand stand at the grounds was completely filled with visitors anxious to hear the speeches, and hundreds, crowded out of the stand, well filled the race track fronting it.

Great interest was taken in Mr. R. R. Gamey, who was introduced to hundreds of people by Ex-Ald. Miller, his guide and escort at the grounds previous to the speech making, and many complimentary remarks, were made concerning his affable and manly demeanor. Among the immense crowd present were hundreds of the stalwarts and old war horses of the Conservative party, as well as scores of prominent Liberals; among those present might be mentioned, Mr. Bradburn our member of the Ontario Legislature, Messrs. Reid, ex-M.P.P., for W. Durham, S. Ferguson County Councillor of East Durham, C. McNeil, Bowie of Cavan, John Carnegie, ex-M.P.P., Morse the defeated Candidate for East Peterboro, Chas. Stapleton, Phelan, Sherwood, Le Brun, McIlroy, Layfield, President Peterboro Young Conservative Club, J. B. McWilliams, Croft, Denbux, Winch, and scores of other well known citizens of both political parties.

A stand had been erected, and chairs thereon placed for the speakers, however it was found, owing to the great crowds seated in the grand stand who would have been too far away to hear distinctly, that a cab, with a temporary platform placed between the seats, on the race track, immediately in front of the grand stand would enable the crowds to hear better, so this improvised rostrum was adopted.

After the band had played a few selections, during which the visiting speakers were informally presented to many citizens anxious to meet them Mr. R. E. Layfield, president of the club, to whose efforts, the grand success of the picnic was in great part due, mounted the speakers cab and made the introductory speech of the day. In a few well chosen remarks, Mr. Layfield thanked the people for their generous turn out at this, the 1st annual picnic of the Peterboro Conservative Club. Mr. Layfield acknowledged that some errors might have been made in preparing arrangements, but hoped the people would overlook such, as this was the club's first picnic.

Mr. T. E. Bradburn, M.P.P., next spoke, and said he did not intend to take up the people's time as there were speakers present from both the Dominion and Ontario Governments to address the audience.

Mr. Jas. Kendry, ex-M.P., followed in a short speech. After a short complimentary reference to the Hon. Mr. Monteith, Mr. Kendry spoke very kindly about Mr. Gamey, saying he is one of the young men, "you will hear from him later, both to-day and in the future."

Mr. Layfield next introduced Mr. Broder, M.P. for Dundas. Mr. Broder addressed the audience from a seat in the grand stand. He said he did not come as a speaker, but to see and meet the people, and to hear Mr. Gamey. Mr. Broder made an eloquent and amusing speech dealing with the responsibilities of the party leaders, saying that Mr. Whitney had carried out all his ante-election promises. Mr. Broder laughingly said people used to say with a change in government, Mr. Whitney could not find sufficient timber on which to build a good government, but time has shown he could and has, and when the Dominion Government changes, there will be found just as good men to rule the country, in place of the present administration. He paid complimentary remarks to the ladies and the important influence they yielded in political affairs.

Dr. Roche, M.P., of Marquette, next spoke. The doctor introduced his remarks by a witty account of his last visit to this city, on the day the lift lock opening was so sadly marred by rain. This present trip he has been surprised and delighted with the streets, stores, parks and factories, he had seen on Saturday morning. Said he would not talk about politics of the past. The Dominion Government had been promising for years to do what they were now undoing. We should not have two standards of morality, one for public affairs and one for private individuals, as we hope to have our country respected abroad. The history of the Conservative party has been beyond reproach. He then referred to what Sir John A. Macdonald had done for the country, and said the present Dominion and late Ross Government, were worse morally that Tammany, at its rankest. The present Dominion Administration introduced ballot-box stuffing and political rascality. They bought trick ballot boxes in the United States; the ballot boxes were made under the supervision and direction of the Liberal politicians, so that secret ballots, marked in advance, were introduced into the boxes. "Are we going to wink at or condone such methods?" he cried indignantly. "We owe a higher duty to our country!" He then went on to show how Alex. Mackenzie, himself, a Liberal, had to fairly sit, with his arms round the treasury by night, lest the Reform party would abstract the funds for impure purposes. The speaker then showed that Sir Wilfrid Laurier, so sunny at times, can simulate great indignation against any Conservative short coming but how about his letter to Earl ——? With such duplicity do we wonder that such leaders can bamboozle the people.

Mr. Layfield then introduced Senator Perley," a fine looking man.

The Senator made some very complimentary remarks about the city and the picnic. He next referred briefly to the last occasion when the rain spoiled the lift lock festivities. Spoke of the splendid stores and residences which gave him a different opinion to what his last visit had left with him. He wanted to speak especially to the young people of this great country and it is for the young people to develope its riches. The Senator gave the Liberal party credit for developing the country for the past eight years, because had the Liberals kept their Senate Arming to Defeat Coercion?

There Are Indications That the Hon. Gentlemen of the Upper Chamber May Yet Prove Themselves to be the Heroes of the Autonomy Bill Transaction---An Exciting Debate May End in Referring Bills Back to the Commons for Reconsideration.

Ottawa, July 10.—There is a well defined rumor this morning that when the autonomy bills come up in the Senate on Tuesday there will be very little plain sailing for these two fruits of a lengthy session.

It is said that a determined effort will be made by the upper chamber to modify the drastic terms of the education clause and a long and heated debate is to take place. Sir Mackenzie Bowell is opposed to the shackling of the west and there is every indication that on the Liberal side of the Senate, among the Liberals of the old school of Liberalism, there will be many protests against the proposed outrage.

It is even asserted that the Senate may send back the Alberta and Saskatchewan bills to the commons for reconsideration. In the event of the bills passing the senate it may be stated confidently that it will be only after a long and exciting discussion, and the prorogation may be delayed for another week or ten days by reason of the prejudice of the upper house against the creation of the west.

Not only the educational clauses but the land clauses are likely to meet with considerable criticism. Senator Lougheed, has already asked for information concerning the sales of land, especially lands, in those districts, and this information may take some time to get together.

In any event, one thing is certain, the Senate intends to discuss the autonomy bills very thoroughly and prorogation may be indefinitely delayed for reason of that intention.

Sir Mackenzie Bowell has also moved for a return showing the number of closed grazing leases granted since 1897 by the Government in the North-West Territories. The request calls for many statistics. Sir Mackenzie made the admission that "he required the information for use in discussing certain important bills."

EVIL OF LONG DELAYS

Mr. Borden's Bill Aimed at Having Seats in Commons Filled

Ottawa, July 10.—The bill to amend the act respecting the House of Commons which Mr. R. L. Borden will introduce, is designed to correct the evil of long delays in the filling of vacancies in the Commons caused by the death or resignation of members. The bill following the precedent of the English act and the act of 1904, of the Ontario Legislature, names three months as the maximum period for which a constituency shall be unrepresented in Parliament.

50 Years Wedded.

Golden Wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Jas Leahy, Douro, Celebrated on Thursday.

A very happy event was celebrated last Thursday at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. James Leahy, lot 6, con. 2, in the township of Douro, the occasion being the 50th anniversary of their happy marriage.

Mass was celebrated at St. Joseph's church, Douro, and attended by a large number, Rev. Father Torpey being the celebrant. Afterwards the whole party adjourned to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Leahy, where a splendid dinner was partaken of. Then an interesting programme of toasts followed. The health of the host and hostess were enthusiastically honored and drew forth a happy and reminiscent reply from Mr. Leahy on behalf of himself and wife.

A most enjoyable time, made interesting by speeches and hearty congratulations was spent. The venerable couple show every symptom that their long union has been marked by universal happiness and prosperity.

They have a large family including six daughters, Mrs. Fitzpatrick, Otonabee; Mrs. James Dalton, Dummer; Mrs. Fitzpatrick, Emily; Misses Nora and Catherine at home, and Emma, St. Paul, Minn., and five sons, Patrick, Dodro; Edward, Dummer; Michael James, Douro; Joseph, Pough keepsie, N.Y., and Burton, Douro; most of whom were present at the celebration.

Cobourg is Wrathy

This Sleepy Old Town Finds the "North King" is Giving Them the "Merry Hal Hal"

The good citizens of the venerable town of Cobourg are mad all through and up in arms against the officers and directors of the steamers North King and Captain. It appears that these boats are making Port Hope the principal place of call, and the influence of boat officers is against Cobourg, so there is much talk and anger there over the situation. Some of the leading men are talking of forming a company to purchase a turbine steamer to run on the route, which can make the passage in much shorter time than the present steamers make. Cobourg claims a bona fide grievance when passengers have to go by bus to Port Hope to take that boat, and when influence is used to get passengers to make Port Hope their landing instead of Cobourg.

Cobourg seems to forget that Port Hope is the outlet for Peterboro's excursionists for Charlotte and Rochester.

The Quaker Picnic

The grand picnic given by the American Cereal Company on Saturday, to their employes and friends, was a great success. Fully 1,000 of their guests availed themselves of the kind invitation, and soon crowded the special cars reserved for the outing. Good time and quick connection was made, Cobourg being reached well on time.

A very pleasant day was spent by the Peterboro visitors wandering about the sleepy old town and taking in the sports.

Peterboro football players gave the Cobourg followers of the pigskin a few pointers, defeating the local teams.

Many of the ladies with children awarded themselves of the chance to visit the fine beach and let the little ones enjoy the fresh breezes off Lake Ontario. The return trip was made in good time.

Shoplifter Sentenced

Toronto, July 10.—Jeanie Goldbeck, an eighteen-year-old girl, was charged in the police court with stealing a piece of cloth and two corset-covers from the T. Eaton Company.

She pleaded guilty to the charge and her father gave her a good character and said she was not in want. Crown Attorney Curry said that since she had been arrested the home had been searched and a large quantity of stolen articles had been found. He read out a long list of these goods, which had been stolen from Eaton's, Simpson's, and other stores. Magistrate Denison committed the girl to the Mercer for six months' hard labor.

FOUND DEATH IN THE KISS

Three Families Infected With Consumption From It, Says a Physician

Toronto, July 10.—The evil of tuberculosis was discussed by the council of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario, and the members agreed that no time should be lost in fighting the "white plague." It was thought that the Medical Association should take action.

Dr. W. H. Moorehouse, of London, introduced the question by moving that a committee ask the Government for a grant to oppose the spread of consumption, which was described as contagious as smallpox and more deadly in result.

Dr. Thornton, of Gravenhurst, said that the sanitarium there was filled and that he had been unable to procure accommodation for several of his patients.

It was unwise for sick people to come into contact with tubercular sufferers, and Dr. J. H. Thornton of Omemee related how a Omemee girl had kissed a Kingston patient, and on return home had been kissed by several friends. In consequence three families became infected with tuberculosis, and three deaths resulted.

In his opening remarks, Hon. Dr. Sullivan of Kingston, emphasized the necessity of a crusade against tuberculosis, and his suggested that Public school text books should teach cleanliness and sanitary science in general.

TO SEE WAR OPERATIONS

Prince of Wales to Witness "War in India"

London, July 10.—The Prince of Wales desires to see what real fighting in India would be like, and Lord Kitchener is arranging that military manoeuvers on an altogether unprecedented scale be held during the forthcoming royal visit. The manoeuvers will be continuous, and will, in the main, represent a series of movements, with great battles, for the conquest of India.

The Prince is also anxious to see a certain amount of night work during native operations, and will probably accompany Kitchener and his staff to a camp some miles from headquarters.

Lord Kitchener's view is that ordinary manoeuvers are meaningless, although they may be "brilliant" and impressive to spectators. The coming manoeuvers will be conducted on highly business-like lines.

The Carpenter Strike Still on

Montreal, July, 10.—There is little change among the striking carpenters and joiners to-day. A few more men were called out yesterday, but matters on this whole are reported as being quiet.

More Japanese for Honolulu

Honolulu, July 10.—The local Japanese press says that the Tokio Government has issued a new order which went into effect July 1, increasing the number of immigrants per steamer to Hawaii from 100 to 400. Half of this number may be laborers, the other half women and children.

WITH BULLET THROUGH HEART

In Spite of Fatal Wound This Man Lives

New York, July 10.—According to the Tribune, a man in Livingston, Staten Island, is alive with a bullet in his lung, which passed through his heart.

Unable to trace the course of the bullet by a probe or to credit the indications, Drs. Brady and Rossford, of St. Vincent Hospital, Borough of Richmond, put on the X-rays yesterday and found the probe had been telling the truth.

They were so startled that they repeated the examination and then, that there might be no question as to what they found, they called in several physicians. All agreed that the bullet had passed through the heart and was in the lung.

The patient who thus lives with a punctured heart and lung is Harry Nowok, of Manhattan Borough.

KILLS INVALID SPOUSE

Man Tires of Supporting His Aged Wife

Cleveland, July 8.—That he had become tired of supporting his old wife, who had become an invalid, was the excuse for killing her last Friday afternoon, which August Otto, a 68-year-old German, gave the police last night when he confessed committing the crime.

Otto walked into an undertaker's shop Friday evening, requesting that proper attention be given the body of his wife, who he said, had fallen down stairs and killed herself.

The woman's head was almost hacked to pieces, and blood stains led to a hatchet found in the barn.

Otto was arrested, but denied his guilt. Last night he admitted his guilt, and stated that he had done the deed with a mallet.

RUSSIANS KILL JAP SEALERS

Capture and Shoot Forty Who try to Raid Siberian Rookeries

San Francisco, July 10.—The steamer Mentara, arriving to-day from the Siberian coast, brings a story of the capture and execution of forty Japanese sailors who attempted to raid to rookery on Kamchatkan coast. Expecting such a raid, Russians armed with rifles were on the lookout, and when the Japanese vessel came to anchor off one of the favorite resorts of the seals and its crew put off in small boats to make a killing the Russians descended upon the invaders and captured forty of them. The Japs were taken to the main land, and after a brief examination were shot. Those left on the schooner hastily sailed away.

To Raise Judges' Salaries

Ottawa, July 10.—There is talk of a Ministerial caucus next week, when two questions of importance will be discussed. One relates to a round robin to increase the sessional indemnity to $2,500, and the other to a proposition to raise the judges' salaries.

PHILADELPHIA'S DRAG NET RAID

Terrible Consternation in High Society

TO AVOID AN EXPOSURE

Fabulous Bribes Offered to Secure Release of Prominent Prisoners

Philadelphia, July 10.—Strong pressure is being brought to bear upon the magistrates who committed the women taken in the great raid of Saturday night to force them to destroy their returns to the grand jury. Similar pressure is being exerted upon the district-attorney's office, of which John C. Bell, a member of one of the first Philadelphia families and moving in the foremost club and social circles, is the head.

In the meantime, down at Moyamensing Prison, entered under assumed names, are certainly a dozen and perhaps more of women whose faces are familiar in the gathering as society. Some are there because efforts to secure bail secretly for them have failed; others are prisoners because their escorts, seeking safety for themselves, have abandoned them, and they prefer disappearance and imprisonment to the disgrace attending an appeal to relatives or friends.

It is an innovation in Philadelphia justice that has led to both of these conditions—the besieging of the magistrates and the district-attorney and the self-immolation of the high-class women in Moyamensing prison. Heretofore, on all the Law and Order Society's raids, it has been the custom simply to hold the proprietors of the places and to let all others go, with either a slight fine or a few days in the House of Correction.

Before the raid of Saturday night Director Potter, at the orders of Mayor Weaver, instructed the magistrates that all women caught in the raid be held in bail, there were to be no fines, except for men. These orders were revolutionary. Nothing like them had ever been given before and Director Potter himself refuses to tell at what he was aiming when he gave them.

Members of the best families in Philadelphia, women who are apparently beyond the breath of suspicion were caught in the sweeping raid. No bribe offered by them or by their escorts is known to have been taken because of the fear of the police for Potter. Every one of these women must go in the criminal dock unless the magistrates who committed them unanimously forget to return their cases to the grand jury or the district-attorney acts and dismantles their cases.

NEW COINAGE FOR CANADA

Two Cent and Half Cent Pieces

MAY SHORTLY BE ISSUED

Lords of the Treasury Suggest Redemption at Cost of Light Gold Coin

Ottawa, July 10.—Correspondence presented to Parliament yesterday shows that the duplication of machinery in the Canadian branch of the Royal Mint was urged by the Imperial government.

The Deputy Minister of Finance replied that this was not necessary. Mr. Courtney said that machinery would be required for nothing higher than $10, and would be confined to $5 and $10 pieces. For silver from 50 cents to 5-cent pieces.

"Our present bronze coinage," said Mr. Courtney, "is only for one cent, but it is just possible that 2-cent pieces the equivalent to one penny, may be required, and at the same time a half-cent or farthing may also be wanted."

In London it was stipulated that a deputy master or superintendent an assayer, a chief clerk and a master mechanic who understood machinery should be sent from London. If any additions were required such could be had in the Dominion on the recommendation of the Dominion Government. The funds of the Treasury suggested that the Dominion Government should be invited to undertake to provide for the redemption at cost of the Canadian revenue of all light sterling gold coin found in circulation in the Dominion. This was done in India.

Orangemen's Parade

Local Orangemen Attend St. John's Church and Hear Impressive Sermon.

Last night some 200 of the local Orange brethern, including members of the following lodges; Diamond No. 80, L.O.L., Peterboro, Geo. Birtley, W.M.; Col. Sanderson, No. 321, L.O.L., Downers Corners, R. C. Waldie, W.M.; Wellington No. 457, L.O.L., Nassau, W. Lesson, W.M., gathered at their Simcoe street lodge, and marched in procession to St. John's church.

The parade from the lodge room was a long one and included many of our oldest and best known citizens.

The Regimental band dressed in suitable summer attire white linen coats, headed the procession, they being marshalled by three of the leading officers of the order.

The procession had its route north on George street to Brock, and then by Water street to St. John's church.

Many venerable brothers of the order were in the ranks, as a stimulus to the younger generation.

One lodge, whose members, were attired in summer white cotton hats, presented a fine appearance. The rear of the long parade included such prominent Orangemen as Alderman Batten, Mr. S. Weir and others. Crowds of people lined the streets along the route of the parade, in one part of the route immediately in front of the Munro House, some amusement was caused by nine baby carriages and their infantile contents, side by side on the pavements.

Rev. J. C. Davidson, the rector preached an eloquent and admirably adapted sermon to the order, who filled the central portion of the church.

Mr. L. A. Holley acted as marshall and kept his men well in line.

PEACE PROMISED FROM THE CZAR

Nicholas Will Endeavor to Win Back the Respect of People

JEW-BAITING BEGINS AGAIN

Czar Nicholas Will Soon Make Announcement From Moscow's Historic Fortress

St. Petersburg, July 10.—Nicholas will go to Moscow to announce that peace is about to be concluded in Manchuria and that the interior troubles are subsiding.

General Trepoff is already there organizing a friendly reception for the Czar. Such is the statement of Grand Duke Nicholas' secretary to the correspondent this morning.

"Moscow," said the secretary, "will witness the communion of the Czar with his people and the beginning of a new era.

"The Odessa horrors are fathering law abiding people around the sovereign. They have proved the futility and danger of violent attempt to obtain reform.

"Even the army revolt is nothing because the people are with the Czar.

"In the December revolution, the army rebelled, only the guards remained loyal, yet the Czar triumphed.

"Now the army is loyal and the Cossacks repress civil revolts. The Czar himself intends to grant necessary reforms, to bestow land on the peasants, to shrink the abuses of the bureaucracy and to convoke a national assembly that will however be consultative and not legislative, to make it a legislative assembly would be premature as the Russian people are not ripe for such an advance.

"It would be to simply make the Poles and Jews masters of the land.

"I believe the troubles are over. The gravity of the situation has been exaggerated.

"Defeats and mutinies happen in other countries as well as in Russia.

PETERBOROUGH, JULY 10, 1905

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

The late Dr. J. G. Holland, at the late Toronto convention, advised moral and social reformers to let the old rascals go, and devote their efforts to preventing the young from imitating the example of these hardened sinners, though those who take a more optimistic view of human nature may feel confident that the old rascals are not past reformation, and that

"While the lamp holds out to burn,
The vilest sinner may return,"

still none can dispute the fact that spring is the best time of the year—the time in which the future harvest of wheat or tares is sown. This being the case, the Sunday school, which aims to throw around youth at its most susceptible age the best moral and social influences, is an agency whose importance cannot be overestimated. Of all this summer's educational and philanthropic gatherings none has dealt or will deal with more momentous interests than the International Sunday School Association, which has just held its thirteenth triennial session in Toronto.

To this reunion all Canada sent its best Sunday school workers and the two thousand delegates were made up of leaders in this work from every state and territory in the Union, and also from Cuba, Porto Rico and Mexico. These delegates represented 150,000. Sunday school teachers and 14,000,000. Toronto gave them a hearty welcome and great harmony and enthusiasm attended their day and evening sessions. Distinguished persons of various forms of religious belief took part in the exercises.

This association being an unsectarian body, unessential differences of creed are not, allowed to mar its unity or dampen the zeal of its devotion to a noble cause. The international sessions of the association are continued, but no rules are laid down as to their exclusive use. The aim of this body is to render the course of instruction popular and attractive to pupils of all grades. It is hoped that the Sunday school may so blend entertainment with sacred and useful knowledge that all who attend it will look forward with the most pleasant anticipations to the hour of its weekly session.

When in 1780 Robert Raikes, printer, and editor of a provincial newspaper, opened at Gloucester, England, that first Sunday school, a small and weak affair, he builded better than he knew. The idea, soon taken up in influential quarters, spread rapidly, and the movement became world-wide. Every church now has its Sunday school, and ranks the work of this auxiliary as second only to the ministrations of the pulpit.

NOT FOOLING ENGLAND

Russia is pretty busy nowadays, but she isn't fooling England. Lord Kitchener is going to be allowed to have his way, and he understands the situation, "Slowly but surely," says Lord Kitchener, "the deserts of Cenimpenetrable barrier, have been crossed by a great European power. They are now spanned by railroads which have only one possible significance, and we have every indication that our northern neighbor is pushing forward her preparations for a contest in which we shall have to fight for our very existence."

An addition of 60,000 men will be made to the Indian military establishment. A new system of distribution will be put into effect and new plans of frontier fortification will be formulated. The artillery will be rearmed, and the transport service will be remodelled. The European troops now in India comprise; Infantry 53,728, artillery 14,577, cavalry 5,643, engineers 457—a total of 74,405. The native troops in the government service number 150,870, so that the grand aggregate of the Anglo-Indian army is 231,275. In addition there are some volunteer organizations, and a considerable body of disciplined men in the employ of the feudatory states who have been trained under British officers, and who would be available for defense of the Himlayan passes in case of emergency. It is therefore evident that the total war footing of the Indian army which Lord Kitchener's plans are fully realized will be over 300,000 men.

GERMANY VERSUS FRANCE

In current comment on the possibility of war between Germany and France, it is assumed that Germany is overwhelmingly the stronger, from a military point of view.

The latest statistics of the two powers indicate that Germany is the stronger, but not decisively so.

Germany has 609,189 soldiers of all kinds under arms. France has 574,733. This is on a peace footing. Were reserves called and the armies placed on a war footing Germany would have 3,036,000 men to France's 2,500,000.

Germany has 135 naval vessels, including 14 battleships, 10 cruisers and 91 torpedo boats, carrying 2,648 guns and 36,880 men. France has 328 naval vessels, including 22 battleships, 51 cruisers and 174 torpedo boats, carrying 5,283 guns and 56,516 men.

Of course, the vital issue would be on land, and the Germans would in the last resort have half a million more trained men to go upon. But if Britain were on the French side, which is as likely as war between Germany and France, that difference would be pretty much offset.

Germany does not appear to be as safe in playing the part of bully as has generally been supposed.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. TARRED AND FEATHERED HIM

Italian Receives Popular Justice Near Brockville

Brockville, July 7.—Tony Raggasio, an Italian 57 years of age, residing about five miles above the town on the river road, was made the victim of a ferocious assault last night. Raggasino retired at 9 o'clock, and at 12 was awakened by two men who entered his house.

He was immediately pounced upon and assaulted. He was then taken from his bed and in the kitchen was made the victim of a liberal coat of tar and feathers. His assailants never left until his body was completely covered. Raggasino became unconscious but toward morning staggered to a farmhouse and was conveyed here on a boat and cleaned up at the police station. Raggasino incurred the displeasure of the citizens of that locality last summer, when he abducted two little daughters of Fred Widdis, for which he served eight months in the Central prison. At present he is suffering considerably from his burns, but nothing more serious is anticipated.

Two Firms Were Their Printers That "Open Shop" Plan Will Rule

Chicago, July 9.—The opening guns in the fight between Typographical Union No. 16 and the employing printers over the question of installing the eight-hour day in book and job offices were fired yesterday when M. A. Fountain & Co., 26 Randolph street, and the Fairborn Printing Company, 66 Sherman street, posted "open shop" notices in their offices. Each firm employs about fifty printers. President A. B. Barnes of the Chicago Typothetae said last night that other concerns probably will delay taking similar action until after the convention of the International Typographical Union in Toronto next month.

HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS

Any even numbered section of Dominion lands in Manitoba or the North-west Territories, excepting 8 and 26, which has not been homesteaded, or reserved to provide wood lots for settlers, or for other purposes, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one quarter section of 160 acres more or less.

ENTRY

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land to be taken is situate, or if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration Winnipeg, or the local agent for the district in which the land is situate, receive authority for some one to make entry for him. A fee of $10 is charged for a homestead entry.

HOMESTEAD DUTIES

A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required by the provisions of the Dominion Lands Act, and the amendments thereto, to perform the conditions connected therewith, under one of the following plans:

[1] At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years. It is the practice of the Department to require a settler to bring 15 acres under cultivation, before he may substitute stock; and 20 head of cattle, to be actually his own property, with buildings for their accommodation, will be accepted instead of the cultivation.

[2] If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased), of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

[3] If a settler was entitled to and has obtained entry for a second homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by residence upon the first homestead, if the second homestead is in the vicinity of the first homestead.

[4] If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

The term "vicinity" used above is meant to indicate the same township, or an adjoining or cornering township.

A settler who avails himself of the provisions of clauses [2] [3] or [4] must cultivate 30 acres of his homestead, or substitute 20 head of stock, with buildings for their accommodation, and have besides 80 acres substantially fenced.

The privilege of a second entry is restricted by law to those settlers only who completed the duties upon their first homesteads to entitle them to patent on or before the 2nd of June, 1889.

Every homesteader who fails to comply with the requirements of the homestead law is liable to have his entry cancelled and the land may again be thrown open for entry.

APPLICATION FOR PATENT

Should be made at the end of three years during the Local Agent, Sub-Agent) or the Homestead Inspector. Before making application for patent the settler must give six months notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa of his intention to do so.

INFORMATION

Newly arrived immigrants will receive, at the Immigration Office in Winnipeg, or at any Dominion Lands Office in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories, information as to the lands that are open for entry, and from the officers in charge, free of expense, advice and assistance in securing lands to suit them. Full information respecting the land, timber, coal and mineral laws, as well as respecting Dominion Lands in the Railway Belt in British Columbia, may be obtained upon application to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, Manitoba or to any of the Dominion Lands Agents in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories.

"Heavy work, severe straining and evil habits in youth brought on a double varicocele. When I worked and the pain would become severe and I was often laid up for a week at a time. My family physician told me an operation was my only hope, but I dreaded it. I tried several specialists, but none I tried did all they wanted was my money. I continued to look upon doctors as little better than robbers. One day my boss asked me why I was off work so much and I told him my condition. He advised me to consult Drs. My progress was somewhat slow as I during the first month's treatment I was somewhat discouraged. However I continued treatment for three months longer and was rewarded with a complete cure. WAS A COMPLIMENT

Captain Simmons, of the Acacia, Invited to Raise His Flag

Kingston, July 7. — This morning the schooner Acacia, owned and sailed by Captain Wm. Simmons, of this city, arrived in port with coal from Charlotte, N.Y. This is the schooner whose Union Jack was ordered down by Mr Bump, Customs collector at Charlotte, on the 4th.

Captain Simmons says his vessel was at the long pier, abreast of Ontario Beach Park. In the afternoon of the Fourth a native United Statesser, walking on the pier, said to the captain that he would like to see him put up his colors in honor of the day.

WHERE BUMP CAME IN.

"I'll do as with pleasure," said the Captain, and the crew hoisted the Union Jack to the masthead. Then along came Collector Bump, who was very angry when he saw the Union Jack. Down it must come, he declared. Captain Simmons declared it would not, and threatened to shoot the officious collector if he dared to board the Acacia. A crowd on the pier grew demonstrative, and insisted that the flag come down, but it continued to float above their heads. Finally, the Charlotte man who had invited Captain Simmons to put up the flag, quietly advised him to take it down and avoid trouble with the collector and the excited crowd. Accordingly, the Union Jack was lowered.

Captain Simmons says that Collector Bump deliberately told him that if the flag was not lowered he would not give him clearance papers. This was a ridiculous threat that could not be sustained by any law, and Captain Simmons knew it.

DEFENDED WITH REVOLVER.

For three hours the flag floated over the Acacia, during which time the Kingston captain walked his decks with a revolver in his hand, threatening to bore holes through the first man who came aboard to touch the flag which floated not as an insult but as a compliment. When he lowered the flag it was with the assertion that he would demand redress from the United States Government.

A PROTEST MADE.

This morning Captain Simmons took steps to lay his grievance before the Canadian Minister of Marine. The latter will no doubt ask the United States Government for an explanation of Collector Bump's conduct in committing such an outrage on the British flag.

WILL BUILD SHIPS

British Capitalists to Establis a First-Class Plant at Sydney, to Cost $20,000,000

Halifax, N. S., July 7. — Another shipbuilding project has been broached in Sydney. A proposition has been submitted to the City Council by Messrs. Morse, Malloy, Gladstone and other members of the Cape Breton Coal, Iron & Railway Company, who represent millions of English capital, to the effect that if Sydney should assist in various ways, a shipbuilding plant and other works involving an expenditure of twenty millions of dollars would be established within the limits of the city.

A BIG ENGLISH CONCERN.

The company which proposes to establish the shipbuilding plant is one of the largest in England, and has extensive yards in India. Some of the concessions they want from the city are Victoria Park as a free site for the works, exemption from taxation for twenty years, assistance in securing a free right-of-way over the Intercolonial Railway from Coxheath to the terminal wharf; free water and the payment of three per cent. for twenty years on the cost of constructing a coal shipping pier at Barrack Point.

The Council agreed to grant the company exemption for twenty years and water at usual rates charged to such industries, but was not prepared to vote on the other concessions which were asked. These will be considered by the Council during the next week. The Cape Breton Coal, Iron & Railway Company are reported to be negotiating for the purchase of the Cape Breton Railway, which they will extend from St. Peter's to their plant at Broughton and also to Louisburg.

London, July 10.—With the appointment of plenipotentiaries by Japan and Russia, all of the preliminaries to the meeting of the peace commission have been arranged. The place, Washington; the time, as soon after the 1st of August as possible; the conditions, full power to negotiate; the plenipotentiaries, Foreign Minister Komura and Minister Takahira for Japan, and Ambassador Muravieff, formerly Minister of Justice, and Ambassador Rosen for Russia.

The facts that the plenipotentiaries are men of great recognized ability, and that their powers are ample for effective negotiation are bound up together. Japan at first feared that Russia simply wished to get an official statement of her terms of peace and that she would send representatives who would not go little more than messengers. Certain Russian official statements, put forth for domestic consumption, lent color to that idea. It was fortunate indeed that Russia proved willing to go far beyond that point, for otherwise President Roosevelt's efforts would have ended right there.

As the arrangements are now announced by the President, the plenipotentiaries will have as much power as any such diplomats can obtain in these days of telegraphs and cables. They will take up one after the other the terms set forth by Japan, and will not allow any disagreement on special points to stop their work until they have gone over the entire field. They will, of course, be in continuous communication with their respective countries. Consequently if they reach a final agreement it will be practically equivalent to an agreement between the two nations, and official ratification will follow as little more than a formality.

GARBAGE PICKER WEARS TITLE

English Outcast of Phoenix, Ariz., Inherits a Large Fortune Also

Phoenix, Ariz., July 9.—A legacy of $9,000, a first installment of an inheritance that amounts to many thousands more, has been received by Philip D. Neville, Phoenix, who now appears as one of the nobility of England, though for three years he has been a gleaner in the garbage dumps of Phoenix. He bears the title of Latimer, a barony, the estates of which were escheated to the crown centuries ago. For seventeen years he was an exile, keeping his whereabouts a secret from his relatives. His only dissipation since receiving the money has been to give $250 to the Presbyterian church. He says he has cast off his family and will remain free in America.

STEPHANIE WILL SELL JEWELS

Countess of Lonyay to Part With the Wedding Treasures

Paris, July 8.—Princess Stephanie, countess of Lonyay, has decided to part with a portion of her jewels which at one time excited much admiration. The Austrian court has deposited a certain number with a Parisian jeweler, in view of the forthcoming public sale. The treasures to be disposed of are for the most part connected with the marriage of Stephanie and Archduke Rudolf, and include the veil of lace offered the princess by the city of Brussels and containing the arms of Belgium and Austria united, also the amethyst parure presented by the city of Fiume.

EATS 7,000 IN BONDS

Imprisoned in Vaults of the Bank of France

Paris, July 8.—The Bank of France was this week the scene of an exciting chase after a monkey that had escaped from a house in Rue Ventadour and managed to enter the institution's vaults. It was chased from room to room and took refuge in the security chamber. Having developed a healthy appetite by exercise, the animal made a hearty meal on the city of Paris bonds, whereof it devoured $7,000 worth. A lariat successfully thrown by a policeman put a stop to the monkey's feast.

THE NEW MOUNTED REGIMENT

Generally Expected Medicine Hat Will Be Headquarters

Ottawa, July 7.—It is generally expected that Medicine Hat will be the headquarters of Strathcona's Horse, the new mounted regiment to be established in the Territories. The climate there is mild and the conditions otherwise are good for the economical maintenance of a mounted corps.

History and Production of the Goldfields of Boulder County, Colorado, Portraying Economic Conditions Which Predict the Coming Goldfields of Colorado and Presenting the Stock Offering of a Great Gold Mining Enterprise of the United States Gold Corporation

FREE

Our booklet on the gold fields of Boulder County is off the press, and is being distributed free to investors. We have prepared this book to advertise the gold fields of Northern Colorado and our great gold mining enterprise. The books will be free for the asking while they last. It will tell you of how over fifty millions have been added to the world's wealth in production of gold, silver and copper under primitive methods and from surface workings of an average depth of not to exceed 250 feet It will tell you of its great tungsten belt, the largest in the world. It will tell you of the existence of a diversity of precious and rare minerals, unrivaled by any other gold fields on this continent. It will tell you of a mineral area of twenty-five square miles literally covered with a network of veins practically undeveloped, with only one shaft below the thousand foot and half a dozen below the six hundred foot level. It will tell you of a gold field nearer to the Denver smelters than any other in Colorado; of a change in economic conditions, in this section, which will enable the miner to ship ore to the smelters, at a net profit, that is now being thrown over the dumps in other sections of Colorado; it will tell you of a field so attractive that it resulted in the construction of two railways from one end of the field to the other. It will tell you of the substitution of modern and up-to-date mining methods, in place of the primitive ones of the past; in short, it will tell you of all those conditions which predict for the gold fields of Boulder County the coming gold fields of Colorado.

It will also tell you of our great gold mining enterprise in the western part of the gold fields of Boulder County, near the continental divide, where nature has deposited her largest and richest treasure vaults; it will tell you of our economic development tunnel, driven to drain and develop a mineral estate almost a mile long and half a mile wide; of the thousands of tons of gold ore now blocked out and ready for shipment in the five different veins cut by this tunnel in driving it eight hundred feet, the result of two years steady development work night and day; of our wonderful discovery of molybdenite—a rare metal—in large commercial quantities, foretelling for us the first molybdenite mine in Colorado that is producing, as well as a large and permanent source of revenue, of our project to drive this tunnel, long before the end of this year, into the famous Fourth of July dyke or "Mother Lode," from which the far famed Caribou group of mines produced twenty million dollars in gold, silver and copper from 1869 to 1893; of the tremendous possibilities for ore production which will follow the cutting of a mineral dyke from 50 to 100 feet wide at a depth of a thousand feet, and the great probability of our opening the first great copper mine in Colorado when we reach this dyke with the tunnel In short, it will tell you of a gold mining enterprise that will go on a large producing basis long before the end of 1905; of an enterprise with possibilities second to none in Colorado, the developments of which have already shorn it of any element of risk or speculative features rendering the investment offered safe and attractive one.

For the financial and commercial standing of the business men who stand back of this enterprise we refer you to the First National Bank, Boulder, Colo, or Bradstreets Commercial Agency

The edition will not last long. If you would be sure of securing a copy, write to day, or your name and address on a postal card, with the word "Booklet," will do the work.

SIRE TO SON

Boy Can Sometimes Learn From His Father.

When you catch them young enough you can usually make your sons profit by your own experience.

Afterwards, it's different. A lady tells how her son was made to profit by what his father had learned.

"My husband was always fond of coffee, and after his business took him frequently into a German community he drank it more, with the result that his kidneys became affected, and he suffered greatly with pains and despondency, till, as he says, 'coffee nearly killed me!' So he stopped using it, and began to drink Postum Coffee. It cured him, and in a very short time his kidneys resumed their normal functions, his pains were allayed, and the despondency which had nearly driven him crazy ceased to trouble him.

"My little boy, a year old, had suffered ever since he was weaned, from stomach and bowel troubles. He could properly digest the milk he drank. It passed out of his bowels in hard lumps, sometimes large and again like small pellets, frequently producing diarrhoea, and then we would call in the doctor. But the trouble returned, again and again.

"We used to give him a taste of Postum Coffee occasionally, and as I saw that he relished it and realized how much good it had done his father, I began to put a little in his bottle of milk. The effect was so salutary that I gradually increased the quantity, till at last I used only enough milk to give it color. He thrived wonderfully on it. He is over two years old now, and his digestion is all right. Postum has made him uncommonly large and strong and healthy. I give him a bottle full four times a day."

There's a reason.

JUST IN TIME.

A motorman in Chicago ran his car onto the approach of an open bridge but stopped it with the fender actually overhanging the gulf below. He wouldn't want to repeat the experiment because the chances are that he'd never again have the same good fortune.

Once in a while some one who has traveled to the very edge of the danger line of stomach disease stops just in time to save his health. But the majority of people go across the line, and slight symptoms of indigestion grow to disease of the stomach, involving the other organs of digestion and nutrition.

Indigestion and other forms of stomach "trouble" are perfectly and permanently cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It strengthens the whole body by enabling the perfect digestion and assimilation of food.

$3,000 FORFEIT will be paid by the World's Dispensary Medical Association, Proprietors, Buffalo, N. Y., if they cannot show the original signature of the individual volunteering the testimonial below, and also of the writers of every testimonial among the thousands which they are constantly publishing, thus proving their genuineness.

"I have been suffering for about eight years," writes Mrs R. Pierce, of Millsprings, Ky. "Have had several doctors to treat me—some for female weakness and others for stomach trouble, but received no relief. When I wrote you for advice I was hardly able to work, and you advised me what to do. I took nine bottles, five of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' four of 'Favorite Prescription,' also two vials of the 'Pellets.' Dr. Pierce's medicines will do all that you claim for them. I believe I would have been in my grave if I had not taken them."

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of customs and mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 50 stamps for the cloth-bound volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Y. C. CLUB'S FIRST ANNUAL PICNIC.

promises. Peterboro to-day would not be the fine city, with its vast factories, had they not lied. They have broken every promise they have made but Sir John A. Macdonald has never been known to break a promise. The preference the Grits give English-made goods is hurting Canada more than any other thing. The Senator said he voted against his own son-in-law as he did not support the Conservative party. When the Grits got into power, they found they had not the brains to form a tariff but had to adopt the Conservative policy. The present success of this country is due not to the Ottawa Government but to the crops and resources of the country. There is only one policy for this country that of protection given by the Conservative party and stolen by the Grits.

We have to pay gold for American goods and their laws prevent Canadian workers from earning a living there. Referred to the Intercolonial Railroad on which the deficit to-day is $2,000,000. He saw when going through the richest section of the country, New Brunswick, travelling on that road, miles and miles of railroad ties bought before last election to get votes, and left to rot. In 1900 he bought a farm in the west and sold 40 bushels of wheat and 60 of oats, but reaped no crop, because farmers then did not understand the soil. The Government when they supplied seed grain to the impoverished farmers, at an extravagant price, charged up the seed grain to the poor farmers with six per cent. interest whilst thousands of tons of hay were sent gratis per the I.C.R., the transportation charges being paid by the Dominion in general, this to buy votes of the lower provinces. There is no need for the Grand Trunk Pacific, as the C.P.R. covers 90 per Pacific, as the C.P.R. cover 90 per cent. of the wheat growing country, and can handle all the traffic and the G.T.P. is only made to supply a few Galicians and Doukobors.

Hon. Mr. Monteith was next introduced by Mr. Layfield. Said he is present as a humble member of the Ontario Government to say a few words. A club like the Young Conservative Club of Peterboro must do great good as the future of the country lies with the efforts of the younger generation. Mr. Monteith next spoke very kindly of Mr. Bradburn, who is spoken of by every man in the Ontario Parliament as one of the staunchest supporters and brightest members. He spoke of the wonderful fertility of the country surrounding this city, and he feels, from the prominent part agriculture takes in the wealth of this province, that the responsibility resting on him, as Minister of Agriculture is great. Agriculture should be given the greatest and most intelligent fostering. Our chief care as agriculturists should be to see that farm products should receive great and intelligent attention in the matter of transportation to the old country, by swift and proper transit and cold storage. $250,000,000 represents the annual output of agricultural products in this country. One of the Ontario Government's chief desires is to aid the farmers in every way.

Amid loud and continuous cheers Mr. Layfield then introduced Mr. Gamey.

A prettily dressed little girl, advancing to the speakers' cab, presented Mr. Gamey with a huge bouquet of American beauty roses, tied with the true blue Conservative ribbons.

Mr. Gamey said he was delighted when he heard of the grand majority of 1100, given to his friend Mr. Bradburn at the last election: 'We have now the first strictly Conservative Cabinet in the history of Ontario." Instead of the old scandals of the late Ross Government, the people will have better and cleaner Government under the present administration. In 1902 the Government lost three of the most important seats, as the people were getting their eyes open to the rascalities practised by the Ross Cabinet.

Whilst the new government has not yet given prohibition, the temperance people do not make the same complaints as of yore. Hon. Mr. Hanna has established confidence among the people, as has his friend Mr. Monteith. All the other departments are being well and honestly administered. The people of his (Gamey's) constituency voted against the late government because they believed what he (Gamey) swore to in the witness box.

He does not want Peterboro people to thank he came here to criticize our fellow citizen. He has explained this matter all over the country and has done so without fear or favor. In 1902 three constituencies voted against the Government, which was then morally defeated. In 1898 the Ross Government were nearly defeated, a very few votes then would have changed the Government. Mr. Gamey then spoke of the great advantage handling the machinery of elections gave those in charge. The Ross Government when they only had a majority of one should have gone to the Lieut.-Governor and resigned; had this been done his assassination, the disfranchisement of North Renfrew would never had been heard of. The Minnie M. political trick was about as bad as could have been suggested, and was done to retain hold of the reins of power after the people had said they wanted a change. Instead of this, Ross gathered about him such men as Cap. Sullivan and others, well known at the Reformers present to-day. The whole country was overrun with an army of needless officials.

Mr. Gamey, in a fair and unimpassioned manner, without trying to hold himself absolutely blameless, gave a clear and detailed account of his troubles, in which the name of Hon. J. R. Stratton was so prominently connected. Mr. Gamey spoke very fairly, and treated Mr. Stratton in a gentlemanly way, saying that Mr. Stratton was, in this, no more at fault than any other member of the Ross Cabinet. He proved conclusively that Mr. Ross knew about the affair from its inception.

On conclusion of Mr. Gamey's speech, three hearty cheers were given for him and three more for the visiting speakers. The whole picnic went off most successfully, and Mr. Layfield and other members of the Young Conservative Club have every reason to be congratulated on the splendid termination of the day, and the wisdom displayed in attending to every detail. There was no hitch from first to last. The crowd whilst large should have been larger, there only being about 1800 people present.

We might safely say that Mr. Gamey was the hero of the day, the cheering for him being spontaneous and hearty; as he has been so widely advertised and, added to this, his personal magnetism and affable manners, caught the popular appreciation. The speeches, excepting those of Senator Perley and Mr. Gamey were short, averaging only about 20 minutes. Mr. Gamey spoke for one hour and thirty minutes.

Russian Situation Approaching a Crisis.

Masses Cannot Depose Czar, but His Own Relatives May Do So--The Situation is Rapidly Approaching a Crisis Which will be Darkness Before the Dawn.

London, July 11.—The prospect of a settlement of the crisis in Western Europe turns general attention once more to the slow but terrific drama which is approaching its culmination in Russia. Every insurrectionary development, from the St. Petersburg outbreak in January to the surrender of the rebel battleship in the Black Sea on Saturday, demonstrates that a successful revolution in Russia cannot come from the masses, whether armed or unarmed.

There is no cohesion amogn the Russian people. Generations of the knout have cowed their spirit and reduced their intelligence. The country is too vast, the means of communication too limited, and the available weapons of repression still too strong for any concerted movement toward emancipation by the masses themselves to succeed or even gain a systematic beginning.

A CHANGE IS INEVITABLE.

Nevertheless a radical change in the Russian Government is inevitable and imminent. Even the reactionaries who control the Czar most of the time recognize this fact. They believe that the present condition of virtual anarchy in many parts of the empire is due to lapses from the policy of relentless oppression on the part of the unhappy ruler. It is said that they are convinced there is still a chance of success in stamping out popular discontent by wholesale violence, and hence the reports of a plot to remove the Czar, who is hopelessly weak.

RECTOR PARTS FROM WIFE

To Become a Roman Catholic Priest--The Lady is a Consenting Party, and Will Herself Become a Member of a Strict Religious Order.

San Francisco, Cal., July 11.—The Rev. Stephan Innes, formerly rector of the Church of St. Mary, the Virgin, in this city, is about to take his wife to Italy, and seek Papal sanction of their separation.

It is not because of diminished affection or respect or domestic happiness that Mr. and Mrs. Innes have decided to part. Mr. Innes believes it is his duty to enter the priesthood of the Roman Catholic Church. Mrs. Innes agrees with him, and will not only second his appeal to the Pope, but will herself enter the service of the Church in some one of the strict religious orders. "Father" Innes, as he is commonly known, is the son of the Rev. Robert F. Innes, of Philadelphia, founder of the Philadelphia House of the Merciful Saviour for Crippled Children. He studied for the priesthood, but reconsidered his determination and became a High Church Episcopalian clergyman.

Soon after the announcement it was given out that Mr. Innes was engaged to Miss Louise Smithers, daughter of F. S. Smithers, a wealthy New York banker. The couple were married in 1900, and in September of that year Mr. Innes came to San Francisco as the rector of St. Mary's.

Father Innes became involved in 1902 in a disagreement with his Bishop regarding an alleged violation of church usages, and it was said he was finding himself less in sympathy with the tenets of the Episcopal faith than he had hoped to be. Finally, about a year ago, Mr. Innes gave up his office in St. Mary's and became a communicant in the Roman Catholic Church.

BRIGHT PROSPECTS IN WEST

Wheat Now Past the Point of Early Damage

Winnipeg, July 10.—Crop reports issued to-day by the Canadian Pacific and Canadian Northern Railways give most encouraging promises of a bumper yield of wheat throughout the Canadian West.

Not within the memory of the present generation has the prospects for a heavy crop been so bright as at present. The grain is now past the stage where the evils which threaten the preliminary development can do it much damage. The weather during the past week has been warm and clear, with occasion of heavy June rains, accomplishing a condition most favorable to growth. Up till now, the temperature in some parts of the wheat belt has been rather cool, but it has now risen to the most favorable degree and growth is marvellous.

At some places on the Arnola and Prince Albert branches of the Canadian Pacific Railway wheat is heading out, and within the next two weeks it will be in head throughout the West. Straw is three feet high in some districts.

It is estimated that no matter what happens there will be a record yield of 90 per cent. of the acreage sown. It is believed that with harvesting of what now in sight the West will again start a period of development equal if not surpassing that of 1902-3, which exceeded the heavy wheat crop of former years.

Winnipeg, July 10.—A specimen of wheat straw from the farm of I. B. Way, a mile from Cartwright, Man., measures 39 inches. The whole field stands about three feet, and is a fair sample of this district. A sample of wheat straw from another farm is fully headed out, and numerous fields of barley are in full head.

BETTER MINING OUTLOOK

SATISFACTORY REPORT FROM THE BELLEVILLE REGION

With the Introduction of the Latest Machinery and the Consequent Reduction of the Working Expenses, the Mineral Production is Likely to be Good

Belleville, July 10.—During the past two years mining, particularly gold mining, has been under a cloud in this region, owing to the closing of the two largest plants, namely, those of the Canadian Gold Fields at Deloro and the Cordova Exploration Company in Belmont township. Happily, however, prospects have brightened materially of late, and there is now no reasonable doubt that, with the introduction of the latest machinery, by the use of which working expenses can be so lessened as to largely reduce the cost of operation and the opening of new and the resumption of work in the older mines, the mineral production of the district will shortly exceed that of any previous time.

The Star of the East, in Barrie township, which has for several months been known as a producing mine, is being worked extensively with modern equipments, continues to yield satisfactorily, and this plant is likely to be enlarged in the near future. The Craig Gold Mining & Reduction Company, under the management of Mr. W. A. Hungerford, and the principal stockholders in which live in New York State, have eighty men at work in their mine at Bannockburn, and are both producing and developing. They have instituted the first Merrill's mill in Ontario, by the use of which three times the amount of rock can be crushed by each stamp as with the old battery mills with two-thirds less power, and by the 1st of September they will be able to mill 125 to 150 tons every day of twenty-four hours. The ore, although of low grade—averaging about $6.50 per ton—is in abundance, there being five shafts of from 150 feet to 200 feet deep on the main vein. No stock has been offered for sale by this company.

The Big Dipper Mining Company have secured a large tract in Barrie township, and judging from assays made of material from their property, their prospects are bright.

The Cordova mine, which was closed owing to a misunderstanding between the proprietors and the manager, is likely to be in operation again ere long, as Mr. Kirkegarde, formerly manager at Deloro, is arranging for the merging into one large concern of this mine and the Canadian Gold Fields at Deloro.

Mr. W. A. Hungerford, who is one of our pioneer gold miners, has secured a clear title to the famous Richardson property, where gold was first discovered in Hastings, and the fabulous richness of a great lockey in which astonished the world in 1866-7. This property has been in litigation for more than 30 years, and Mr. Hungerford will make a thorough examination of it.

The Hollinda lead mine, near Bannockburn, has been showing up well of late. The equipment is excellent, and the stockholders are reaping a good return from their investments.

A sulphide mine is in operation near Bogart, the shipments being from twelve to fifteen cars per week. About 60 men are employed.

Copper sulphides, which assay very highly, have been discovered on the Cox property near Eldorado, in what was formerly an iron mine. An American company have secured an option, and declare their intention to erect a smelter. The assays reported are thoroughly reliable, as they were made by Mr. Burroughs, Provincial Assayer.

A RICH DISTRICT

In these days of widely advertised mining propositions, many of them "Wild-cat" mines, it pays well to thoroughly investigate not only the individual mine, of which stock is offered for sale, but to see what the surrounding territory and immediate neighborhood of said mine consists in.

There may be a rich deposit of ore in any particular location, which upon development will likely prove to be limited to a very small spot, where however a paying deposit of ore is discovered, and this deposit is immediately surrounded by other paying mining territories, the investor can be pretty well assured that stock in such a mine must pay dividends, not only in the present but for an indefinite period to come. The veins and lodes of ore in such cases are liable to extend completely through all the property owned by the company in which he invests.

Messrs. Barton Pittman & Co., the well known bankers and brokers of San Francisco, are agents for mining stocks in the gold-field, Tonopah, and Bullfrog mines.

The Bullfrog Combination Mining Co., for which they are agents, own nine claims all of which show free gold in the main tunnel, some of their cross cuts showing $40 of gold to the ton.

This property is practically surrounded by the richest mining territories in the world, so that there is every reason to believe that this property will, as soon as thoroughly developed, produce gold of incalculable worth. Any persons interested in mining investments, handled and endorsed by so well known a firm as Barton Pittman & Co., would do well to communicate with these gentlemen, whose address is 819-820 Hayward Building, Cor. California and Montgomery streets, San Francisco, Cal.

CLERGYMAN DISAPPEARS

Retired Gentleman's Whereabouts Unknown a Cause of Anxiety

Quebec, July 10.—The mysterious disappearance of a retired Presbyterian clergyman belonging to a very prominent Quebec family, is causing much anxiety to his friends.

The missing man is unmarried, and has enjoyed indifferent health for some time past. He has not been seen since Friday of last week.

Captain Did the Right Thing

Ottawa, July 10.—The Minister of Marine and Fisheries has not received any report from Capt. Simmins, of the schooner Acasia, against his being ordered to haul down the Union Jack in the port of Charlotte on July 4. Mr. Prefontaine says that no one had any right to do this. It is understood that the flying of the national flag by the captain was the proper thing for him to do in honor of the celebration.

Lady Chapleau is Recovering

Montreal, July 10.—Lady Chapleau, who was operated on yesterday at the Royal Victoria Hospital, was reported to-day by the officials of the institution as doing well. The operation, which was for appendicitis, proved to be very successful.

—There was nothing doing at the police court yesterday morning.

KAWARTHA LAKES

Toronto News Devotes Considerable Space to Stony Lakes News

In the Toronto News of July 8th, is quite a report of the Stony Lake "doings." The News says in part;

"The number of cottagers already at Stony Lake gives ample support to the statement so often made last year that the summer of 1905 was to be the best ever enthusiparticular branch of the Kawartha Lakes. Rarely, if ever, before, have so many camps been opened in the last week of June.

At a meeting of the Stony Lake Cottagers' Association it was decided that three regattas will be held this season—at Clear Lake, Juniper Island, and Boschink. An entertainment committee, consisting of Messrs. Llewellyn Hall, F. Jo Bradburn, W. F. Graham, F. D. Collins, R. D. Hill, and J. M. Eakins, has been appointed.

"The fishing this year shows a decided improvement over previous years. One of the most ardent of these is Dr. Renouf of Johns Hopkins' University, Baltimore, who has had some good catches. Mr. H. Payne of Peterboro landed five lunge and forty pounds of bass in a week's fishing."

The paper then gives a long list of Toronto citizens now at the lake, and winds up with a long list of guests at Viamede.

Killed by Train.

Cattle Killed on G.T.R. Track Near Lily Lake.

It seems that Lily Lake, just outside the city limits is a dangerous place for cattle. On Saturday three young cattle owned by Mr. Archer, of Smith township, strayed on to the Grand Trunk Railway crossing above Lily Lake, and were struck by a double header freight train going to Lindsay, with the result that one was killed and the two others were that badly injured that they would likely have to be put out of misery. A young heifer, owned by Mr. Hancock, also of Smith, was struck by a freight train at the same crossing and was instantly killed. Last week a valuable driver owned by a neighboring farmer was also killed.

WILL NOT BUILD A NEW INSTITUTE.

Board of Education Shirks Responsibility of Dealing With Collegiate Institute Question

A meeting of the Board of Education was held last night at which the following members were present; Messrs. Ferguson in the chair, Stevenson, Eastwood, Dr. Burnham, Kennedy, Hartley, Pringle, Hill, Rogers, Crane, Morrison and Jamieson.

A meeting of the Board in Committee of the whole, was first held in secret session to appoint teachers for ensuing year.

The Committee on Appointments made the following recommendations and appointments, which were adopted, viz., That Misses Lena Howson of the city, Maude Burns of Caledonia, be appointed on the permanent staff at a salary of $350 per annum, and that Miss Tessie Lightfoot be appointed substitute for the year at $350.

That Misses Cameron, Rush and Deane be appointed 1st kindergarten assistants at a salary of $15 a month.

That the children admitted to the kindergarten be approved by the Public School Inspector.

That Mr. Walker be reappointed Public School Inspector for the ensuing year at a salary of $1500.

W. Smith	$1000
H. A. Young	1000
W. H. Walker	700
Jas. C. Smyth	700
J. W. Kelly	700
Jas. McCreary	672

Mr. Eastwood moved that the Property Committee be instructed to purchase single seats for Miss Perry's room, carried.

Mr. Morrison brought up the subject of the inspector's report in which the punishment of children's misdemeanors was punished by written impositions, taking objection to this system of punishment. Messrs. Rogers and Hartley agreed with the objection.

Mr. Rogers thinks that domestic science should receive more attention.

Mr. Hill after referring to the public school vote in 1893, when the papers attributed the Board's defeat to extravagance, moved that the Board, through Mr. R. R. Hall, M.P., get use of the Murray street school building from the Dominion Government. Mr. Pringle said if the Murray street school could be obtained, it would provide accommodation for some 300 pupils, which would relieve congestion of the south and south-eastern parts of the city.

Mr. Morrison asked would it not be wise to ask the Government to change sites altogether.

Mr. Hill thinks it would be wise to get a lease of the school property so as to get a footing safely.

Mr. Rogers again brought up the question of domestic science, but several members said "No enthusiasm can be aroused on this subject!"

Mr. Hartley spoke very strongly for going ahead with an institute building. He thinks the Board can still erect a building to satisfy the public and be an ornament to the city.

Mr. Eastwood thinks they should at once re-model the public schools, ask for the money from the Council, and, if necessary provide another school. Fix up the South Central school, and in 12 months they could make headway with the institute. The present collegiate institute is better adapted to its needs than the present schools are to theirs. It would take about $30,000 to do what he proposes.

Mr. Hill thinks it false economy to build ward schools everywhere.

Mr. Rogers thinks Mr. Eastwood is quite correct in extending the public school accommodations.

Mr. Crane says this Board had $800 and Mr. Eastwood proposes to spend $35,000. Radical changes are inadvisable. Referring to the Institute Board.

Mr. Crane admitted that Mr. Stevenson was the only one who had been right about the probable cost of the institute. Thinks they ought to work along gradually with the public schools.

Mr. Morrison agrees with Mr. Eastwood.

Mr. Stevenson, thinks Mr. Hill's suggestion about taking the Murray street school is a good one. Thinks it was an outrageous thing to leave matters in this hands of the architect as was done. If the architect would cut the Institute plans down to accommodate 400 pupils it could be built. Thinks $50,000 would build a very good institute.

Without taking any action concerning disposal of the funds voted for the collegiate institute build, the meeting adjourned.

It was evidently the opinion, from expressions made after the adjournment, that the Board wants its successors to handle the responsibility.

Mutineers Opened Sea-cocks and Ship Sunk

The Battleship Potemkine Sunk Can be Raised Without Much Difficulty and it is Expected Will Leave Roumanian Port for Sevastopol on Wednesday.

Kustenji, Roumania, July 11.—The announcement that the battleship Kniaz Potemkine sailed with Rear Admiral Kruger's squadron yesterday evening, turns out to be incorrect. Before leaving the Kniaz Potemkine the mutineers opened the sea cocks and flooded her hold. She is now lying at the bottom but it is expected to be refloated in time to leave for Sevastopol on July 12.

Proves Fatal

Mr. Lowther's Accident at the Smith Cheese Factory Results in Death.

As reported in yesterday's issue, Mr. Jesse Lowther, was the victim of an accident at the Smith cheese factory on the 4th line of that township, last week. We regret to say that the accident yesterday resulted in his death at the Nicholl's Hospital at two in the afternoon.

We might remind our readers that Mr. Lowther was engaged in driving a milk wagon, on which were a number of cans of milk, to the fourth line of Smith Cheese factory, when the team took fright and bolted, throwing him very heavily to the ground. It was found upon examination that several ribs were broken one of which had been driven into the lung.

Mr. Lowther leaves to mourn his loss, a wife and one son. At the hour of going to press the funeral arrangements had not been made.

—This Lindsay Post says; Mr. W. B. Moore, barrister, of Peterboro, was in town to-day.

Very Plain Talk On the Quebec Tax.

British Paper Says the Tax on Commercial Traveler is an Unfriendly Act and Inexcusable--The One Great Need is to Convert the Colonies.

London, July 11.—Commenting on the proposed imposition of a tax on commercial travelers in Quebec, the Canadian Post says the fault with Canadians in the matter of commerce is that they are giving too little and asking too much. The effect of the bill will be that a British firm will be prohibited from doing business in Quebec unless employing an agent or setting up a branch house. This is stretching the right of taxation beyond reasonable limits. Canadians ought to be told plainly, it is an unfriendly action which cannot be excused or condoned. If Canadians wish to solicit sympathy for the removal of the embargo which is imposed for a specific purpose, they should put down with a firm foot fresh attempts to keep British trade with Canada. The Post thinks some strong language from Chamberlain might have some effect at present. The great need is to convert the colonies, who think that in return for the perfectly free market we give them with competition for British agriculturists, they must hinder, as far as they can, competition with colonial manufacturers, while they talk of "rights."

PETERBOROUGH BOY FOR THE KOLAPORE

Bisley Camp, July 11.—The annual meeting of the National Rifle Association opened to-day with a big attendance of riflemen from all parts of the Empire.

It is regretted that no Australian team will compete for the Kolapore Cup.

The Canadian team for this great Imperial competition has been selected as follows;

Staff-Sergeant C. R. Crowe, 30th Regiment, Guelph.
Capt. A. Elliott, 12th Regiment, Toronto.
Capt. W. H. Forest, 6th Regiment, Victoria.
Capt. J. M. Jones, 82nd Regiment, Pownal, P.E.I.
Sergt. W. Kerr, 10th Royal Grenadiers, Toronto.
Color-Sergt. W. B. Moore, 57th Regiment, Peterboro.
Sergt. J. H. Simpson, 10th Royal Grenadiers, Toronto.
Pte. A. Wilson, 43rd Regiment, Ottawa.

The fact that King Edward has promised to distribute the prizes at the close of the meeting has stirred the Canadians to make greater efforts to capture some of the big events.

The Canadian pavilion has received a new coat of paint and presents a most attractive appearance.

AN INDIAN CRIPPLE BRUTALLY MURDERED

Brantford, July 11.—Betsey Jacobs, an Indian woman and a cripple, living on the reserve near this city, was cruelly murdered at an early hour yesterday morning. Joe Bennett, an Indian tough, who has since disappeared, is suspected of the crime, and will be arrested if possible. The evidence against Bennett is of the most convicting nature. A letter which he received only on Saturday night was found beside the murdered woman yesterday morning, while his hasty departure and subsequent hiding are taken as evidences of guilt.

"Now I Know the Joy of Health."

I am Brimming Over with Vitality —Appetite is Good—I Sleep Well—I Feel Happy.

FERROZONE

Made Me Feel Like New

One of the earliest settlers in the town of Turnbull, Man., is Mr. John W. McNichol. Everybody knows him; knows how poor his health was for years.

"Last spring I was terribly run down.

"I was so completely fagged out I couldn't do any hard work.

"In the morning I was tired—my limbs ached all over.

"Appetite?—I simply didn't have any.

"Sleepless?—Yes, nervous and unhappy too.

"I braced up at once after taking Ferrozone. It put new life and vitality into my body. My nerves are strong, I eat heartily, I sleep well. Now I know the joy of health.

JOHN W. McNICHOL."

Won't you take Ferrozone also? It's really a marvellous tonic, some people say there is almost witchery in the way it builds you up. It's concentrated nourishment — that's what Ferrozone is—just one chocolate coated tablet to take three times a day. No other medicine in the world restores so quickly. Price 50c. per box, or six for $2.50, at all dealers, or by mail, from N. C. Polson & Co., Hartford, Conn., U.S.A., and Kingston, Ont.

NOT SO SEVERE

The old men are not going to be chloroformed. That seems to be pretty well settled. In fact, the outlook for them is improving. The Chicago and Alton Railroad Company, one of the first to adopt the age limit of thirty-five years in the employment of men, has abandoned it after three years' trial, and will employ at least 50 per cent. of its men without regard to age, and will consider only their experience and adaptability to the work required of them. The Boston and Maine announces that it will hire men of any age in any capacity. The Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul and also the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy have practically abandoned the arbitrary rule.

So the atrocious crime of being an old, or elderly man, is not going to be punished as at one time seemed likely to be. It is wise to discriminate. Some men who have many years also have much capacity for usefulness, and it should not be thrown away.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

The aesthetic tramp is abroad this summer. One in a Western town, entering a house the other night while the family slept, exchanged his soiled linen for the best underwear, shirt, collar and hosiery that the wardrobe of the young man of the house contained; then, going to the bathroom, took a warm bath, nicely cleaning the tub after using; and then, stepping lightly downstairs, enjoyed a midnight repast at the dining room table from a leg of lamb and a jar of cream which he had found in the refrigerator, carefully folding the napkins when he had finished. Thus refreshed, he left the house by the front door in the young man's raiment and with his walking stick, scrupulously avoiding stealing anything else. Another tramp in the East, contented himself with sleeping for a night on the downy couch of the mistress' boudoir in the house of a wealthy manufacturer, left in a caretaker's charge while the family are touring abroad. This one stole nothing; but, caught when attempting a second night's lodging, he was jailed for statutory burglary. The aesthetic though bothersome tramp is certainly an improvement on the old sort.

HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS

Any even numbered section of Dominion lands in Manitoba or the North-west Territories, excepting 8 and 26, which has not been homesteaded, or reserved to provide wood lots for settlers, or for other purposes, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres more or less.

ENTRY

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land to be taken is situate, or if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration Winnipeg, or the local agent for the district in which the land is situate, receive authority for some one to make entry for him. A fee of $10 is charged for a homestead entry.

HOMESTEAD DUTIES

A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required by the provisions of the Dominion Lands Act and the amendments thereto, to perform the conditions connected therewith, under one of the following plans:

[1] At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years. It is the practice of the Department to require a settler to bring 15 acres under cultivation, but if he prefers he may substitute stock; and 20 head of cattle, to be actually his own property, with buildings for their accommodation, will be accepted instead of the cultivation

[2] If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased), of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

[3] If a settler was entitled to and has obtained entry for a second homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by residence upon the first homestead, if the second homestead is in the vicinity of the first homestead.

[4] If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

The term "vicinity" used above is meant to indicate the same township, or an adjoining or cornering township.

A settler who avails himself of the provisions of clause [2], [3] or [4] must cultivate 30 acres of his homestead, or substitute 20 head of stock, with buildings for their accommodation, and have besides 40 acres substantially fenced.

The privilege of a second entry is restricted by law to those settlers only who completed the duties upon their first homesteads to entitle them to patent on or before the 2nd of June, 1889.

Every homesteader who fails to comply with the requirements of the homestead law is liable to have his entry cancelled and the land may again be thrown open for entry.

APPLICATION FOR PATENT

Should be made at the end of three years before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector. Before making application for patent the settler must give six months notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa of his intention to do so.

INFORMATION

Newly arrived immigrants will receive, at the Immigration Office in Winnipeg, or at any Dominion Lands Office in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories, information as to the lands that are open for entry, and from the officers in charge, free of expense, advice and assistance in securing lands to suit them. Full information respecting the land, timber, coal and mineral laws, as well as respecting Dominion Lands in the Railway Belt in British Columbia, may be obtained upon application to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, Manitoba or to any of the Dominion Lands Agents in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories.

W. W. CORY,
Deputy Minister of the Interior

N. B.—In addition to Free Grant Lands, to which the Regulations above stated refer, thousands of acres of most desirable lands are available for lease or purchase from railroad and other corporations and private firms in Western Canada.

It will be paying a profit in ore year of not less than 25 per cent. on capitalization, which will mean a value of the stock of $2.50 a share. It may be worth $5 00 in less than two years time. There are more than 100 mineral veins crossing this property. The lowest average of ore as far as developed is $34 a ton, which does not include numerous small veins running from $100 to $1,000. The money to be raised in these sales of stock is to be put in hoisting plant, equip and rapidly develop the mine, which includes 4 mining claims and mill site; 125 acres. Where can you make so much money in so short a time? This is an opportunity that seldom occurs.

BEFORE TREATMENT

AFTER TREATMENT

"I was troubled with Nervous Debility for many years. I lay it to indiscretion and excesses in early youth. I became very despondent and didn't care whether I worked or not. I imagined everybody who looked at me, guessed my secret. Imaginative dreams at night weakened me—my back ached, had pains in the back of my head, hands and feet were cold, tired in the morning, poor appetite, fingers were shaky, eyes blurred, hair loose, memory poor, etc. Numbness in the fingers set in and the doctor told me he feared paralysis. I took all kinds of medicines and tried many first-class physicians, wore an electric belt for three months, went to Mt. Clemens for baths, but received little benefit. While at Mt. Clemens I was induced to consult Drs. Kennedy & Kergan, though I had lost all faith in doctors. Like a drowning man I commenced the New Method Treatment and it saved my life. The improvement was like magic—I could feel the vigor going through my nerves. I was cured mentally, physically and sexually. I have sent them many patients and will continue to do so."

Paris, July 8.—Dr. La Grange of Bordeaux has made a communication to the Academy of Medicine describing an operation to a patient whose left eyelids were completely burned off by an explosion of an alcohol lamp. The doctor was successful in replacing both upper and lower eyelids. To effect this he grafted the skin from the patient's left arm, the skin being stitched to the eye and maintained in that position by a plaster of paris mould. SHARK CHASED A BOY

Came Too Far Inshore, However, and Was Killed

Vancouver, B.C, July 10. — Harry Menzies, eight years old, was attacked by a shark while bathing in False Creek. Harry Dusenberry, standing on shore, saw a wave following the boy up, then a big fin shoot through the water. He shouted to the boy to get on shore quick. The shark came on so far that it stuck on a sand bar. Dusenberry, who is a boatman, rammed a boat-hook into its eye, and then, as it opened its mouth, shoved the pole eight feet down its throat. The monster was soon killed. It weighed 1,100 pounds, and took twenty men to pull it from the water. The incident happened close to Vancouver's bathing beach, and has frightened thousands of bathers.

Greeks Are Being Discussed

There was considerable gossip and comment on the streets yesterday about the new Greek store corner of George and Charlotte streets, operated by Messrs. Demetrie Bros. of Montreal, Ottawa, Toronto, and elsewhere, keeping wide open Sunday nights, and selling bananas and other merchandise. The case may be vexatiously in court. It was said that the piano was going merrily, as though Peterboro had become a full fledged American city.

Mr. Croft Still Unable to Work.

Mr. William Croft, the able expounder of the art of brewing ginger beer, who was severely injured, on the 30th June, by being thrown into the dangerous open corporation drain on Park street, is somewhat recovered. Mr. Croft is however, still too stiff and sore to attend to business, and has been compelled to engage a man, during his convalescence, to attend to his work in the factory and drive the delivery wagon. His shoulder and left knee still show signs of his having had a narrow escape. Those deep open drains are a danger to every one driving by them, and should be covered.

A Cobourg Rumor Denied

In the local press of Saturday and yesterday, was a report that the citizens of Cobourg, dissatisfied with the seeming neglect of their interests by the steamers North King and Clapham, were contemplating putting a boat of their own on the Rochester and Charlotte route. Mr. E. E. Horsey, traffic manager of the Lake Ontario and Bay of Quinte Steamboat Co., Kingston, made The Times a friendly call yesterday and denied the Cobourg rumor in toto. He maintains that the boats of his company, as above, give Cobourg the same treatment as of old, and there is no foundation for the sensational rumors of dissatisfaction.

The Start

In married life is generally made on an equal footing of health in man and wife. But how soon, in many cases, the wife loses the advantage and fades in face and fails in flesh, while her husband grows even more rugged and robust.

There is one chief cause for this wifely failure and that is, the failure of the womanly health. When there is irregularity or an unhealthy drain, inflammation, ulceration or female weakness, the general health is soon impaired.

$500 REWARD! FOR WOMEN WHO CANNOT BE CURED.

Proprietors and makers of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription now feel fully warranted in offering to pay $500 in legal money of the United States for any case of Leucorrhea, Female Weakness, Prolapsus, or Falling of Womb, which they cannot cure. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure.

"A little over a year ago I wrote to you for advice," says Mrs. Elizabeth J. Fisher, of Diane, W. Va. "You advised me to use Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery,' which I did, and with the most happy result. I was troubled with female weakness and bearing-down pains. Had a very bad pain nearly all the time in my left side, nervousness and headache. Was so weak I could hardly walk across my room. Could not sit up only just a little while at a time. My husband got me some of Dr. Pierce's medicine and I began to use. Before I had taken five bottles I was able to help do my work. I used three bottles in all and it cured me. Now I do all my housework. It is the best medicine I ever used."

GUARD AGAINST GERMS

Keep Well by Strengthen the Stomach in Summer With Mi-o-na.

In time of war the most responsible rests upon the guard. If he is lacking in vigilance, disaster can easily overtake the army.

With the individual life, the stomach may well represent the "guard" against sickness. If it is strong and vigilant, any disease germs that may be swallowed will be neutralized by the digestive juices, or else driven from the system.

Everyone with weak digestion should use Mi-o-na at this season and so strengthen the stomach that disease germs can have no effect whatever. This remarkable remedy puts the whole digestive system in so healthy, clean and sweet a state that fermentation of the food cannot exist, that any disease germs which may enter the stomach will be destroyed, and food will be so readily assimilated that a rapid and healthy increase in flesh will result.

Nervousness and sleeplessness come more often from a weak stomach than from any other cause; head-ache, backache, and rheumatic pains are directly caused by an acid condition of the stomach. Mi-o-na corrects all this, prevents the formation of acids, and nervousness, kidney trouble, or rheumatism, is quickly cured.

Ask Wm. Madill to show you the guarantee under which he sells Mi-o-na. Price 50 cents. It costs nothing unless it cures.

Mr. Charles P. Stanley in the St. Louis Republican, in an interview as to his opinion on the ideal way of spending one's summer vacation says: "Anywhere but the city for me for vacation. Why should a man fritter away his vacation time in scenes that he has the year round? Give me some Northern lake, where the fish bite eagerly and often, where the water invites you to plunge into it and the railroad, the telegraph and the mails vex not the spirit with their intrusion of business upon pleasure. Somewhere, where the tired city man may doff the stareb and conventionality of city life and may dress as he pleases, eat when and what he pleases and sleep as long as he may." Ticket agent Bunton should forward Mr. Stanley a prospectus of Stony Lake's opportunities for pleasure.

The British Army Is Woefully Weak.

Lord Roberts Says Lessons of Boer War Are Quite Forgotten and the Nation in Great Danger--British People are to Blame and Not the Government.

London, July 12.—Field Marshal Lord Roberts created a sensation in the House of Lords last night when, in a lengthy and well considered speech, he deliberately expressed his opinion as a practical soldier that the military force in Great Britain was inadequate, imperfectly trained, and totally unfit to uphold Great Britain as a first-class power. Lord Roberts did not blame the Government, which, he said, was actuated by a national feeling; but he scathingly attacked the people of England, who, he said, showed no national feeling toward the military until danger arose.

The speech was delivered in connection with a motion introduced by the Earl of Wemyss and March, Conservative, traversing Premier Balfour's statement regarding the impossibility of the invasion of Great Britain, and urging the necessity of keeping up sufficient land forces to repel any possible invasion. Lord Roberts said the lessons of the South African war had been forgotten, and that the armed forces of Great Britain were now as unprepared for war as when the South African trouble broke out. He declared emphatically that the choice lay between conscription or some practical system of universal training, and that only by such means would it be possible for Great Britain to possess forces organized and trained to meet the demands of the Empire in the event of war.

His Lordship said that any discussion of Great Britain's military position within the limits of the motion proposed by the Earl of Wemyss and March would be entirely unavailing. The country had to deal with a question of infinitely great importance—the question of the life or death of the Empire, the issue of which depended upon Great Britain being ready to defend her Eastern possessions, and at the same time take part in any affair near home, either of which necessitated the placing in the field of an army as large and efficient as that of any European country, all of which might be regarded as nations in arms.

Lord Roberts appealed to the country to awake to its danger and to take hold of the army as a great national issue on which the existence of Great Britain depended.

The discussion of the motion continued for some time, the speakers complimenting Lord Roberts for the stand he had taken.

had dominated the land of the Shah and of Great Britain, which would not want her road to India menaced by either Russia or Germany. Turkey would like nothing better than a free hand in connection with Bulgaria, promising to make short work of that principality, provided other powers did not interfere.

ATTITUDE OF ENGLAND AND FRANCE.

Great Britain and France are the two powers in Europe, it is said here, which would not benefit from a disturbance of the status quo. Great Britain views with appreciation the policy of Germany, because she regards it as a policy of aggrandizement. Any increase in German strength is accepted as a menace to British interests.

While the London authorities want Russia weakened, broken up into many small states, perhaps, because the safety of India would then be assured, no diplomat in Washington believes they would like the development of a coalition which would enable German expansion at Russian expense.

France, on her part, would object seriously to the otherthrow of the present government of Russia or any grave weakening of its power for political and financial reasons. The French people have regarded Russia as a greater safeguard against German aggression than England, because England could aid France only upon the sea, while Russia could throw into Germany a force greater than that country could raise. Moreover, the French are large holders of Russia's public debt and would suffer enormously in case of a successful revolution in the Empire of their ally.

Department of Agriculture Wishes All Employes in Canneries to be Ontario People--Will Stop Practice of Importing Italians from American Cities.

Toronto, July 11.—The Provincial Department of Agriculture has determined to stop the practice of importing Italians from Southern Ontario factories from Buffalo and other American cities to work in the canning factories during the busy season. The owners of the factories have been notified that these importations must cease, and in most cases satisfactory replies have been received. The Department, recognizing that the canning season is short, will make an effort to aid the proprietors of the factories to secure help in Ontario. Charitable societies are invited to send to the Factory Inspector's office any respectable person desiring work. The Department of Agriculture will be glad to furnish any information on the subject.

WAR OFFICE MUDDLES AND ITS ABUSES. — Kitchener's Work — METHODS OF ARMY ADMINISTRATION.

PERHAPS it is because of the but weather — we approach the English "dog days" —or perhaps it is because of the peculiarly irritating condition of English politics just now, but certain it is that Westminster is a very uncomfortable place at the present moment, writes a correspondent of the New York Evening Post. The immediate trouble of the past week as between the government and the opposition has been the South African war contract scandals. After some startling straight talk from friends upon his own side of the house, and from journals entirely sympathetic to the Unionist cause, Mr. Balfour has assented to a complete and semi-judical inquiry into the whole affair. The report of Sir William Butler's committee, which has brought the whole question so pertinently before the public, is admittedly the report of a non-judical body; it abounds in what one writer calls "tasteless embroideries," but it is not too much to say that its disclosures amaze and incense the British public the more it is read.

It is not that the British public has not become accustomed to army scandals. The remount committee some time ago showed in how negligent a manner many departments of the war office have hitherto done their work and how completely they are apt to break down. But in this and other exposures there was no evidence of the implication of army officers. The same cannot be said of the allegations with which Sir William Butler's report is so freely peppered, and the irony of the situation is enhanced by the fact that the report was published here (London) on the very morning after Mr. Chiozta had explained how much his admiration for British ways was increased by the absolute purity of the British public services. As the matter now stands, certain British officers are found to be mixed up in the sale and resale of army stores in a way which compels the gravest suspicion of their personal honesty.

It seems obvious that the very first duty of a British Government, when brought face to face with this scandal, and the first decree of every honest man in the army should be to secure an immediate and searching judicial investigation, which would bring home the guilt wherever it might be found, and punish the guilty parties without fever. This may have been what the government intended all along, but so charitable an interpretation of its desires is made difficult by the fact that three years have elapsed since Lord Kitchener himself warned the war office of the extreme necessity for supervision, seeing that the money involved by the sale of war stores in South Africa would probably reach six or seven million sterling. Indeed this warning and the warning of the quartermaster-general led the war office to cable ordering monthly reports to be sent of all sales, but no report was ever sent except one in October, 1902, and that report omitted all mention of sales to the public, and only forwarded sales to the repatriation department.

During the whole of these three years no attempt has apparently ever been made by the war office to get accounts of sales which, as they knew from Lord Kitchener's statement, ran into an many millions of pounds; and only now, under pressure of public opinion, have the officers implicated been suspended, though they are still receiving their pay, and a royal commission with power to compel the attendance of witnesses and to call for documents has been decided upon to investigate the whole affair. A long and tedious business it is bound to prove, and it is hardly to be expected that the report will be in the hands of the public and the whole scandal laid bare until after the present ministry has left office.

It is just this fact which helps to increase the irritation of the present position in the house of commons. It is felt that even though the guilt be brought home to a number of officers the prime cause of all this trouble and scandal is to be found in the inefficiency of the war office and in the failure of ministers themselves as administrators. Hence the demand to which Mr. Balfour has with no little show or irritation at last assented for an immediate arraignment of the military administration of the government quite apart from the investigation to be undertaken by the royal commission. The public insists upon learning why it was that this scandal was allowed to grow up and flourish under the very eyes of ministers without any apparent attempt to minimize evils so great and so patent. The whole affair suggests once again how hopeless it is to expect the war office to do its work efficiently under the present method of administration.

Lord Rosebery has, we know, indicated his profound conviction that war office muddles and mismanagement will never be done away with until a man of the character of Lord Kitchener brings to bear upon it his experience and determination, and Lord Kitchener has, as happens, provided this week an apt illustration of his method of handling abuses. After a prolonged struggle he has at last compelled the Indian and British governments to abolish a system which has long been in force in the Indian army, and which is not altogether incomparable with that still controlling the British army. According to Lord Kitchener the whole system hitherto in vogue in India succeeded in producing a maximum of friction and a minimum of efficiency. The functions of the commander-in-chief and the military department of the viceroy's council constituted a system of dual control, involving enormous delay and endless discussion. Thus we read that in the year 1903-4 the number of communications which passed between the military department and the commander-in-chief's department on mobilization questions alone amounted to nearly 10,000, that is to say, roughly, 200 per week, although the two departments are situated in the same buildings in Calcutta, and in adjacent buildings at Simla. In the case of an urgent demand for a reserve of 1000 rounds of small arms ammunition, it took nine months to secure the assent of the military department, and even then the resource of 1000 rounds asked for was cut down to 750 rounds. This sort of thing obviously spells muddle and perilous delay, and Lord Kitchener feels it to be his imperative duty to state that the present method is faulty, inefficient and incapable of the expansion necessary for great war in which the armed might of the empire has been engaged in a life and death struggle. And it is forthwith abolished.

And Lord Kitchener has had his way. The acute duel between the viceroy (Lord Curzon) and the commander-in-chief has been terminated by a British ministerial declaration for the soldier and against the politician. The views of the Army in future are to be represented on the viceroy's council by Lord Kitchener himself, and not allowed to filter through a subordinate, and Lord Kitchener is made absolute on all the larger questions of army control.

EUROPE TO IGNORE RUSSIA AS POWER

Palpable Weakness of Czar's Government Will Cause Readjustment of Various Alliances

END OF DREAM OF SLAV

Hope of Absorbing Many Small States and Thus Reaching Outlet on Mediterranean is Gone

Washington, D.C., July 12.—While the war with Japan has ruined Russia's prestige in the War east, the revolutionary outbreak in the Black Sea fleet and the disturbed conditions throughout the Slav Empire have destroyed the influence of the Czar in European councils.

A new adjustment of international relations in the old world is impending—in fact, already has begun—and the stable powers, including the United States, are considering policies they must adopt to meet the changed conditions.

Diplomats who discussed today the effect of the disturbances in Russia didn't let it be understood that their governments are making preparations in anticipation of the overthrow of the autocracy.

If such an event were to occur—and it is regarded today more probable than seemed likely ten days ago—successive developments will shape to a large extent the course each nation will follow. What has received international recognition at this moment is the passing of Russia as a factor in the Mediterranean and Balkan questions, particularly; and the prospect is that she soon will be counted on in connection with other problems which intimately have concerned Europe in the past.

CONFESSION OF IMPOTENCE.

The appearance of the Russian battleship Kniaz Potemkin in the hands of revolutionists at the Roumanina port of Kustenju and the inability of the St. Petersburg government to capture it—confessed by the dismantlement of the remaining vessels of the Black Sea fleet—mark the end of Russian domination of the Balkan situation.

It has been the dream of Pan-Slavists that Russia some day would extend her sway over Roumania, Bulgaria, Servia, part of Austria, and the Straits of Bosphorus and the Dardanelles. An outlet upon the Mediterranean was the ultimate ambition, and to insure its accomplishment Russian intrigue was constantly at work to maintain a condition of affairs which at any moment might be turned to advantage.

It was pointed out today that just before the Japanese warships fired torpedoes at the Russian fleet at Port Arthur there was grave danger of war between Bulgaria and Turkey over Macedonia. Since the war began neither Bulgaria nor Turkey has given any excuse to the other for hostilities. The peace of Europe lay in the lap of the Balkans, and to maintain it the powers gave a mandate to Russia and to Austria in 1897 under which they were to take such action as might be necessary to prevent strife.

Austria has internal weaknesses which every one predicts will develop into revolution when the aged Emperor, Franz Josef, dies. Turkey has been the "sick man" for more than half a century.

GERMANY REAPS FIRST FRUITS.

According to what was said today Germany was the first to profit by Russia's deplorable state. Appreciating the inability of the Czar to come to the aid of France, Kaiser Wilhelm reopened the Moroccan question, which France and Great Britain had settled to their mutual satisfaction, and in view of the last developments in the Slav Empire, it is believed here that he will continue to insist that his views for a conference shall be adopted.

Baron von Sternburg, the German Ambassador, will see the President tomorrow at Oyster Bay and is expected to assure that a peaceful adjustment of the Moroccan question will take place.

M. Jusserand, the French Ambassador, who had expected to sail on the 13th for France, may not go and the hesitation which marks the execution of his plans has aroused comment in diplomatic circles.

Germany has been circumspect in dealing with the Balkan question, but has been strengthening carefully her relations with Turkey. She has extended her activities in recent years to Persia, to the manifest dissatisfaction of Rusia, which has it in her power to make trouble for Germany in the Persian Gulf.

The New Fire Engine

The Fire, Water and Light Committee Discuss the Advisability of Purchasing a New Fire Engine to Replace the Old One--Lights to be Turned on in Victoria Park Every Night

Last night the Fire, Water and Light Committee, had a hot (in the sense of weather temperature) meeting in the clerk's office.

The question of purchasing another engine to replace the old one, destroyed by carelessness was thoroughly threshed out.

Mr. Cameron, representing the Waterous Engine Company, of Brantford, was given a hearing, and dilated upon the excellencies of his company's fire-fighters. The committee decided to communicate with other makers of fire-fighters and get prices and specifications. The Waterous Company could not, in any event, supply one of their make under three months' time. The subject of buying an automatically propelled engine was also considered.

The committee at last came to a decision to see that Victoria Park is lighted up every evening. The police will be instructed to immediately arrange that the switch, lighting up the park, be properly enclosed in a locked box, and to have the light turned on every evening from 8 p.m. until 2 a.m. This is a good move and one that will be appreciated by hundreds of citizens.

Ald. Adams will take Ald. Hall's place on this committee during Mr. Hall's absence from the city for a few weeks.

RUSSIAN ARMY ON VERGE OF REVOLT

REBELS DEFY THE POLICE

Provincial Revolutionists Wear Uniforms and Gather Under Officials' Eyes

St. Petersburg, July 12.—Some men belonging to the disciplinary batalions, which are composed of military convicts, while exercising at Kherson, attacked Capt. Gorgorodsky with bayonets, slightly wounding him. Col. Davidoff, drawing his sword, ran to this rescue, whereupon the men attacked and desperately wounded him in the chest. He was able, however, to command the men to return to their barracks and a majority of them obeyed the order and leading them there. He then wrote a report to the Czar, after which he died. Some of the mutineers were arrested. Eight of them escaped, but never since have been recaptured.

The reservists at Kieff have rioted and plundered liquor shops and restaurants. They have disarmed and wounded several policemen. The riot has been quelled.

The nervousness which pervades all classes is increasing. The government's policy in keeping back the facts, bad as they are, is resulting in people giving a willing ear to all the stories which are set afloat. Nothing, seemingly, is too wild to receive ready credence.

ARMY'S LOYALTY DOUBTED.

Many people are convinced that the country is actually in the throes of a revolution. Although the critical character of the situation can hardly be overstated, and while the danger of a general upheaval is undoubtedly real, there has been no big open mutiny of soldiers yet, and until some regiments, following the example of their comrades of the navy, go over, the rising has little chance of succeeding.

At the same time there is enough deep discontent among many of the soldiers here to render it doubtful whether they will stand the test of obeying orders to fire on the people in the streets.

Gen. Trepoff's warning to the newspapers not to print a word about the Black Sea fleet troubles, although obeyed in St. Petersburg, has aroused insistent demands for permission to publish the facts, while some of the Moscow papers openly defied the inhibition.

The revolutionists are working with feverish activity in spreading the news broadcast, circulating proclamations to the soldiers, and summoning the workmen everywhere to strike and join the movement for emancipation.

COMMERCE AT A STANDSTILL.

Today the workmen of the port of St. Petersburg, following the lead of the Cronstadt men, left work, and commerce is at a standstill, and all the yards of the Neva are idle.

Cronstadt resembles a city in time of war. The streets are patrolled by Cossacks, infantry and sailors. Some of the guard regiments have been brought from St. Petersburg to Krasnoe Selo, and while outwardly the city appears calm no one expects what to expect from hour to hour.

REVOLUTIONISTS DEFY POLICE.

Jacob Mandelkern, a real estate dealer at New York, who has just arrived in St. Petersburg from Petrand, where he visited Warsaw, Lodz, Byelostok and other centres, declares that a state of anarchy exists there, which the military and police are admittedly powerless to handle.

He brings startling information about the bund and other revolutionary organizations. Like similar organizations in the Caucasus, they have now forbidden the payment of taxes under the penalty of death and are levying tribute for the purpose of resistance to the movement. He says that all members of the organizations are armed with revolvers and knives and are defying the police to interfere with them under threats of death.

Mr. Mandelkern adds that he saw a procession of 60,000 persons at Warsaw carrying red flags, with not a policeman in sight, the police having been warned that if they appeared they would be murdered. In Byelostok, Mr. Mandelkern says, the revolutionists are actually wearing a sort of uniform, a blue blouse.

The Polish organizations, Mr. Mandelkern says, are not seeking for separation, but want a constitution which would give to Poland an autonomous government.

British Fair Play.

A Writer Condemns Mr. Cochrane's Action in the National Hotel Trial.

(To the Editor of The Times.)

As an onlooker, who appreciates "British Fair Play," I was yesterday disgusted at the proceedings in connection with a so-called "trial" of Mr. Lawless, proprietor of the National Hotel.

We older citizens of Peterboro, remember well the manner in which Mr. Inspector Cochrane used his office under the old regime, to intimidate hotelkeepers and whip them into the political line. In those days, under Grit rule, the office of a license inspector was used mainly for purposes of persecution for political ends; now that the old bunch of political sportsmen have been swept away, we have congratulated ourselves that the quondam system of petty tyranny was abolished.

In the case of Mr. Lawless, charged yesterday, with having sold liquor after seven o'clock Saturday evening, what was Mr. Cochrane's authority for bringing eight or ten men from their day's work, and causing them to lose half a day's time, not to mention the annoyance of being connected with a police court case? What does it look like? Simply this; Mr. Cochrane saw some men in a large public house, where they had every right to be, and, considering that he might hold his present position, in view of his unenviable record when serving under his own political friends, by making a great display of zeal, and instituting a campaign of petty persecution. He thought with so many men in the hotel at hours when liquor is prohibited, that there was a possibility of finding out "something" that would reflect credit on his zealous endeavor. This was done regardless of the expense, and stigma attaching to all concerned, and forgetful of the fact that his present employers want him to prosecute when he has some good evidence, not to persecute on a chance of making a catch.

In yesterday's court seven or eight men, whose veracity is equally on a par with that of the inspector, severally swore that they had neither been in the bar, bought or seen liquor sold, nor seen any evidence of a sale being made.

If Mr. Cochrane is anxious to hold his job down for the future let him prosecute every known infraction of the law, but not worry Peterboro citizens and make them lose time simply on a chance of his being able to prove his is still alive. Let his guiding motto be "fair play" not persecution on a rare chance of success.

Of course it is possible that the old political spirit may have been resurrected and the National Hotel punished for daring to take in Mr. Gamey and other visiting Conservatives on Saturday. Whatever was the inspector's motive in making all this trouble without any reason, or substantial cause, let him wait until he has some shadow of a chance of proving his sworn information before taking proceedings. Thanking you for your valuable space I am sir,

Yours truly,
FAIR PLAY.

LARGE AND SMALL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES

We suspect that the public does not regard the life insurance surpluses in New York with so much horror as Mr. Lawson and the speculators who would like to get them away from their present custodians in order to make the same use of them themselves.

The public objects to high salaries and extravagant expenses, ambassadorial dinners and French balls, because it thinks these things keep premiums up and dividends down. But the public does not worry greatly about the use of life insurance funds to finance operations in Wall street, so long as it is cleverly done and the companies lose rather than gain by it. The public would be even more tolerant of these things if it were convinced that the companies' surpluses were increased by these operations as well as the private fortunes of their officers and directors.

The public might hope then that it would profit in time by the speculations in smaller premiums or larger dividends. We think the general public does not look so far as realize the demoralization of using trust funds in speculation, even if the speculation be successful and profitable. Therefore we are inclined to think the public will be satisfied with the superficial reforms or restitution of private plunder and economies in official management promised by the new gang of Wall street operators who have gained control of the Equitable.

English insurance companies are quite as expensive to the insured as American or Canadian, though we believe they do not spend so much in soliciting business. But they pile up enormous reserves and surpluses, from $100,000,000 to $125,000,000 in the case of the largest. These are all invested in gilt edged securities. English life insurance companies do not organize trust companies or promote industrial corporations. They are managed more like savings banks and seem to inspire the same public confidence, though there is some grumbling about the high premiums.

The biggest English company is far smaller than the United States' three biggest and is twice as big as any of the other English companies. This raises the question whether the mere size of our huge companies does not inspire distrust. Would there not be less suspicion of the use made of these big reserves, if each were broken up into five or ten? It is certainly so with the national banks. The country would not put up with one great Canadian bank, but it is very well satisfied to have one or two dozen.

RELIGIOUS LIBERTY IN FRANCE

That the French Chamber of Deputies has agreed to the separation of Church and State promised by the French ministry is no more than was expected. A bill providing for that separation finally passed the Chamber by a vote of 341 to 233. More than three months was occupied by the discussion of the bill, and the pertinacity and resource of the opposition may be estimated from the fact that no fewer than 250 amendments, all more or less emasculating, were offered and rejected. The bill abolishes the Concordat or agreement with Rome into which Napoleon and Pius VII. entered in 1801, and withdraws from the Catholic church and from other denominations the annual contributions made to their support by the State treasury. In 1904 these contributions included 40,681,903 francs for Catholic worship, 1,577,509 francs for Protestant worship, and 180,530 francs for Jewish worship. "The republic," says the text of the new bill, "assures liberty of conscience and guarantees the free exercise of religion, subject to the restrictions of public order. The republic neither recognizes, pays stipend to nor subsidizes any sect, but provides funds for college, hospital and asylum chaplains. Otherwise the public worship budget is abolished, and public establishments connected with religion are suppressed."

Great changes are going on in France, and she seems to be standing them pretty well.

A Clydesdale Bride

Miss Georgina Campbell, Well Known Here, Becomes Mrs. B. J. Caldwell.

On June 14th a very pretty ceremony was performed in the Clydesdale Presbyterian church, when Georgina L., eldest daughter of Mr. David S. Campbell, became the bride of Mr. Benjamin Joseph Caldwell.

Miss McCuaig, Belleville, attired in pale blue crepe de chine, trimmed with lace and chiffon, acted as bridesmaid, whilst Mr. Purdy of Castleton supported the groom.

The bride's dress was pale blue crepe de chene, trimmed with silk lace and applique; she carried a bouquet of white snow balls, and was given away by her father.

The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. R. MacKnight, B.A., assisted by Mr. Taylor, the missionary of that field.

After the wedding ceremony a sumptuous supper was served at the house of the bride's parents.

The bride was the recipient of a large number of handsome and valuable presents. Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell will make their home in the Clydesdale district.

Coercion's Vote

(Contributed.)

There were ninety and nine who would coerce and boldly voted "aye;"
There were seven and twenty patriots just, who nobly voted "nay."
These seven and twenty gallant names will illumine history's page;
The ninety and nine may live to feel the public's honest rage.
The ninety and nine by sheer brute force put this baneful clause right through,
But I mean to tell them ere I stop of what force is unable to do.
Of these same ninety-nine some are conscience clear, while others are party set,
And some we know of have swallowed themselves — time will show us what they get;
But the champions of provincial rights are by no means on the run.
For, though the house has passed the clause the struggle has scarce begun.
They feel that this coercion curse would make our young west groan,
And will fight it to a finish; yes, to the foot of Edward's throne.
I would say to the ninety and nine, beware, you are treading a fateful brink—
A horse may be driven to the trough or spring, but all hell cannot force him to drink.

HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS

Any even numbered section of Dominion lands in Manitoba or the North-west Territories, excepting 8 and 26, which has not been homesteaded, or reserved to provide wood lots for settlers, or for other purposes, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres more or less.

ENTRY

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land to be taken is situate, or if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration Winnipeg, or the local agent for the district in which the land is situate, receive authority for some one to make entry for him. A fee of $10 is charged for a homestead entry.

HOMESTEAD DUTIES

A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required by the provisions of the Dominion Lands Act, and the amendments thereto, to perform the conditions connected therewith, under one of the following plans:

[1] At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years. It is the practice of the Department to require a settler to bring 15 acres under cultivation, but if he prefers he may substitute stock; and 20 head of cattle, to be actually his own property, with buildings for their accommodation, will be accepted instead of the cultivation.

[2] If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased), of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

[3] If a settler was entitled to and has obtained entry for a second homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by residence upon the first homestead, if the second homestead is in the vicinity of the first homestead.

[4] If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

The term "vicinity" used above is meant to indicate the same township, or an adjoining or cornering township.

A settler who avails himself of the provisions of clauses [2], [3] or [4] must cultivate 30 acres of his homestead, or substitute 20 head of stock, with buildings for their accommodation, and have besides 20 acres substantially fenced.

The privilege of a second entry is restricted by law to those settlers only who completed the duties upon their first homesteads to entitle them to patent on or before the 2nd of June, 1889.

Every homesteader who fails to comply with the requirements of the homestead law is liable to have his entry cancelled and the land may again be thrown open for entry.

APPLICATION FOR PATENT

Should be made at the end of three years before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector. Before making application for patent the settler must give six months notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa of his intention to do so.

INFORMATION

Newly arrived immigrants will receive, at the Immigration Office in Winnipeg, or at any Dominion Lands Office in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories, information as to the lands that are open for entry, and from the officers in charge, free of expense, advice and assistance in securing lands to suit them. Full information respecting the land, timber, coal and mineral laws, as well as respecting Dominion Lands in the Railway Belt in British Columbia, may be obtained upon application to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, Manitoba or to any of the Dominion Lands Agents in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories.

W. W. CORY,
Deputy Minister of the Interior

N. B.—In addition to Free Grant Lands, to which the Regulations above stated refer, thousands of acres of most desirable lands are available for lease or purchase from railroad and other corporations and private firms in Western Canada.

VARICOCELE & STRICTURE

No other disease is so prevalent among men as Varicocele. As it interferes with the nutrition of the sexual organs it produces weakness, loss of semen through the urine, decay of the organs, pains in the loins, aching in the back, nervousness, despondency, bashfulness, palpitation of the heart, constipation, and a combination of these results in complete LOSS OF MANHOOD. Thousands of young and middle-aged men are troubled with STRICTURE. If you have reason to believe you are afflicted with it, don't neglect it. It will ruin you. Don't let doctors experiment on you by cutting, stretching or tearing it. Our NEW METHOD TREATMENT dissolves the stricture tissue, hence it disappears And can never return. We cure Varicocele and Stricture without operation or loss of time. The treatment may be taken at home, privately. Send for our Free Illustrated Book on VARICOCELE and STRICTURE. WE GUARANTEE TO CURE OR NO PAY.

Kidneys & Bladder

All sexual complaints affect these organs, hence the kidneys are a great source of disease. Have you aching or weakness over the small of the back, tendency to urinate frequently, deposit in urine, coldness of hands or feet, a drowsy feeling in the morning. Don't neglect your kidneys. Our NEW METHOD TREATMENT is guaranteed to cure any disease of these organs or no pay.

A Dilatory Crew.

Half the Summer Gone! and Victoria Park Still Taboo by Night!

Is it economy, or lack of interest in the daughters and wives of this city that prevents our city fathers from attending to the details essential to having Victoria Park lighted? The taxpayers have already had this beautiful park wired up for lighting, but the comparatively simple job of arranging for having the light attended to and turned on and off at proper hours is neglected.

On Saturday night hundreds of people came to the park anticipating a pleasant stroll through its paths, but had, owing to the dangers and inexpressible sights lurking in the darkness, had to turn back and go home. The same story was in evidence Sunday evening. If our aldermen's ears tingled on these evenings they can attribute it to some very uncomplimentary remarks made about their lack of care for any civic administration that does not present some petty chance of graft. Such remarks were most certainly made, and not perhaps without foundation.

As a sample of careless way in which the lighting system of Victoria Park is attended to, or perhaps it would be more correct to say, neglected, on Monday last, during during the noon hour, in broad day lights, these lights were all turned on for about thirty minutes, and then suddenly turned off.

The switch that operates these lights is open to every one, in the band stand, to turn on or off, at pleasure or in mischief. This switch should be enclosed in a locked box, the key of which, should be in the possession of some one authorized by the Council to turn the lights out every evening and off, say, at one a.m.

This is now the middle of July and our Council, although all arrangements for lighting this park have been completed and, to be paid for, by the ratepayers, have not yet taken the very few minutes trouble necessary to arrange for making Victoria Park accessible to, and safe for, the same ratepayers. If they, the proper members of the Council, who should attend to such affairs, do not care to move in this matter because there is nothing in it for them, let them remember that hundreds of people being denied a pleasure they might have, is worth something.

Even if they render a bill for the few minutes time it would take to complete arrangements for lighting the park a majority of their constituents would cheerfully pay the account.

BETTER MINING OUTLOOK

SATISFACTORY REPORT FROM THE BELLEVILLE REGION

With the Introduction of the Latest Machinery and the Consequent Reduction of the Working Expenses, the Mineral Production is Likely to be Good

Belleville, July 10.—During the past two years mining, particularly gold mining, has been under a cloud in this region, owing to the closing of the two largest plants, namely, those of the Canadian Gold Fields at Deloro and the Cordova Exploration Company in Belmont township. Recently, however, prospects have brightened materially of late, and there is now no reasonable doubt that, with the introduction of the latest machinery, by the use of which working expenses can be so lessened as to largely reduce the cost of operation and the opening of new and the resumption of work in the older mines, the mineral production of the district will shortly exceed that of any previous time.

The Star of the East, in Barrie township, which has for several months been known as a producing mine, is being worked extensively with modern equipments, continues to yield satisfactorily, and the plant is likely to be enlarged in the near future.

The Craig Gold Mining & Reducing Company, under the management of Mr. W. A. Hungerford, and the principal stockholders in which live in New York State, have eighty men at work in their mine at Bannockburn, and are both producing and developing. They have instituted the first Merrill's mill in Ontario, by the use of which three times the amount of rock can be crushed by each stamp as with the old battery mills with two-thirds less power, and by the 1st of September they will be able to mill 125 to 150 tons every day of twenty-four hours. The ore, although of low grade—averaging about $5.50 per ton—is in abundance, there being five shafts of from 150 feet to 200 feet deep on the main vein. No stock has been offered for sale by this company.

The Big Dipper Mining Company have secured a large tract in Barrie township, and judging from assays made of material from their property, their prospects are bright.

The Cordova mine, which was closed owing to a misunderstanding between the proprietors and the manager, is likely to be in operation again ere long, as Mr. Kirkegarde, formerly manager at Deloro, is arranging for the merging into one large concern of this mine and the Canadian Gold Fields at Deloro.

Mr. W. A. Hungerford, who is one of our pioneer gold miners, has secured a clear title to the famous Richardson property, where gold was first discovered in Hastings, and this fabulous richness of a great portion in which astonished the world in 1866-7. This property has been in litigation for more than 30 years, and Mr. Hungerford will make a thorough examination of it.

The Hollands lead mine, near Bannockburn, has been showing up well of late. The equipment is excellent, and the stockholders are reaping a good return from their investments.

A sulphide mine is in operation near Deseronto, the shipments being from twelve to fifteen cars per week. About 40 men are employed.

Copper sulphides, which assay very highly, have been discovered on the Coe property near Eldorado, in what was formerly an iron mine. An American company have secured an option, and declare their intention to erect a smelter. The assays reported are thoroughly reliable, as they were made by Mr. Burroughs Provincial Assayer.

BRIGHT PROSPECTS IN WEST

Winnipeg, July 10.—Crop reports issued to-day by the Canadian Pacific and Canadian Northern Railways give most encouraging promises of a bumper yield of wheat throughout the Canadian West.

Not within the memory of the present generation has the prospects for a heavy crop been so bright as at present. The grain is now past the stage where the evils which threaten the preliminary development can do it much damage. The weather during the past week has been warm and clear, with sometimes heavy June rains, accomplishing a condition most favorable to growth. Up till now, the temperature in some parts of the wheat belt has been rather cool, but it has now risen to the most favorable degree and growth is marvellous.

At some places on the Arcola and Prince Albert branches of the Canadian Pacific Railway wheat is heading out, and within the next two weeks, it will be in head throughout the West. Straw is three feet high in some districts.

It is estimated that no matter what happens there will be a record yield of 90 per cent. of the acreage sown. It is believed that with harvesting of wheat now in sight the West will again start a period of development equal if not surpassing that of 1902-3, which exceeded the heavy wheat crop of former years.

Winnipeg, July 10.—A specimen of wheat straw from the farm of I. B. Way, a mile from Cartwright, Man., measures 38 inches. The whole field stands about three feet, and is a fair sample of the district. A sample of wheat straw from another farm is fully headed out, and numerous fields of barley are in full head.

History and Production of the Goldfields of Boulder County, Colorado, Portraying Economic Conditions Which Predict the Coming Goldfields of Colorado and Presenting the Stock Offering of a Great Gold Mining Enterprise of the United States Gold Corporation

FREE

Our booklet on the gold fields of Boulder County is off the press, and is being distributed free to investors. We have prepared this book to advertise the gold fields of Northern Colorado and our great gold mining enterprise. The books will be free for the asking while they last. It will tell you of how over fifty millions have been added to the world's wealth in production of gold, silver and copper under primitive methods and from surface workings of an average depth of not to exceed 250 feet. It will tell you of its great tungsten belt, the largest in the world. It will tell you of the existence of a diversity of precious and rare minerals, unrivaled by any other gold fields on this continent. It will tell you of a mineral area of twenty-five square miles literally covered with a network of veins practically undeveloped, with only one shaft below the thousand foot and half a dozen below the six hundred foot level. It will tell you of a gold field nearer to the Denver smelters than any other in Colorado; of a change of economic conditions, in this section, which will enable the miner to ship ore to the smelters, at a net profit, that is now being thrown over the dumps in other sections of Colorado; it will tell you of a field so attractive that it resulted in the construction of two railways from one end of the field to the other. It will tell you of the substitution of modern and up-to-date mining methods, in place of the primitive ones of the past; in short, it will tell you of all those conditions which predict for the gold fields of Boulder County, the coming gold fields of Colorado.

It will also tell you of our great gold mining enterprise in the western part of the gold fields of Boulder County, near the continental divide, where nature has deposited her largest and richest treasure vaults; it will tell you of our economic development tunnel, driven to drain and develop a mineral estate almost a mile long and half a mile wide; of the thousands of tons of gold ore now blocked out and ready for shipment in the five different veins cut by this tunnel in driving it eight hundred feet, the result of two years steady development work night and day; of our wonderful discovery of molybdenite—a rare metal—in large commercial quantities, foretelling for us the first molybdenite mine in Colorado that is producing, as well as a large and permanent source of revenue, of our project to drive this tunnel, long before the end of this year, into the famous Fourth of July dyke or "Mother Lode," from which the far famed Caribou group of mines produced twenty million dollars in gold, silver and copper from 1869 to 1893; of the tremendous possibilities for ore production which will follow the cutting of a mineral dyke from 50 to 100 feet wide at a depth of a thousand feet, and the great probability of our opening the first great copper mine in Colorado when we reach this dyke with the tunnel. In short, it will tell you of a gold mining enterprise that will go on a large producing basis long before the end of 1905; of an enterprise with possibilities second to none in Colorado, the developments of which have already shorn it of any element of risk or speculative features, rendering the investment offered safe and attractive one.

For the financial and commercial standing of the business men who stand back of this enterprise we refer you to the First National Bank, Boulder, Colo, or Bradstreets Commercial Agency

The edition will not last long. If you would be sure of securing a copy, write to-day, or your name and address on a postal card, with the word "Booklet," will do the work.

City of Peterboro

After This Date the Times Will Omit the Useless Trailing Letters "ough"

On, and after this date, The Times with its constant desire to keep up with the spirit of modern usage, will, in these columns print the name of our city, as it is universally spelled by progressive business men, and by the majority of the newspapers of Canada, PETERBORO. It may have appearance of iconoclasm and disrespect for the traditions of our older citizens, but modern thought and customs must prevail.

Has any one ever stopped for a moment to consider the saving of time effected, in the course of a year, by eliminating three superfluous letters from a word used so frequently in every business and private correspondence and mercantile communications? In our local newspaper alone it effects a saving in printing of nearly 100,000 letters a year. As far as appearances is concerned, the effect of this modern system of spelling Peterboro is desirable.

In our charter of incorporation, it would have been wisely stipulated that the new style of orthography be adopted.

A Close Call

Little Five Year Old Girl Eats Paris Green.

The danger of leaving poison carelessly about, and within reach of small children, was proved last week when the five-year-old daughter of Mr. William Dowdell, who resides near Downer's Corners, had a close call from death.

It appears that Mr. Dowdell was putting Paris green on some potatoes near the house. He left the poison in a can where it could be easily reached by the child who came along and swallowed about a tea spoon full. The act of the girl was soon noticed and Dr. McClelland was telephoned for, and arrived in less than thirty minutes after the poison had been taken and administered emetics and antidotes.

The child was pretty sick the next day but has now completely recovered from the effects of the Paris green.

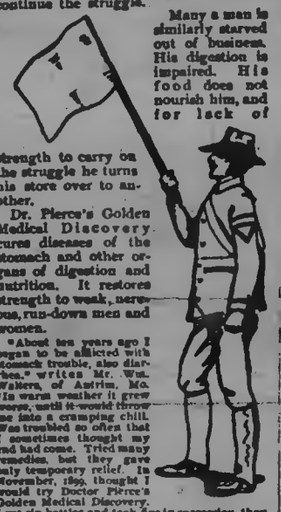
STARVED OUT.

Many a garrison has been forced to give up the fight and hang out the white flag of surrender, when lack of food has weakened the men past all power to continue the struggle.



Many a man is similarly starved out of business. His digestion is impaired. His food does not nourish him, and for lack of strength to carry on the struggle he turns his store over to another.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It restores strength to weak, nervous, run-down men and women.

"About ten years ago I began to be afflicted with stomach trouble, also diarrhea," writes Mr. Wm. Walters, of Antrim, Mo. "In warm weather it grew worse, until it would throw me into a cramping chill. Was troubled so often that I sometimes thought my end had come. Tried many remedies, but they gave only temporary relief. In November, 1899, thought I would try Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I got six bottles and took five in succession, then thought I would wait for a time and take the one left. Soon found I had symptoms of the trouble coming back, so took the sixth bottle and it cured me. I have enjoyed the best of health this summer and the credit all belongs to your 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I can't express my many thanks to Dr. Pierce for his remedy, for it did so much for me. Words cannot express how severely I suffered.

"If any doubt the above statement let them address me, and I will take great pleasure in answering."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cleanse the bowels and stimulate the sluggish liver.

A full attendance is requested.

—To-day P.C. Stewart, will be in command of two special constables at the track to see that ladies suffer no inconvenience, and to prevent any attempt at "funny work."

—Five minutes spent in looking over our ten and twenty-five cent bargain counters will be time well spent. Fancy and useful articles suitable for every home. Times Bookstore.

—Rufus Gibbs, who is a tool maker at the Canadian General Electric Company's works, while working with a shaper Monday afternoon, had the second finger of his right hand badly split.

—The crops in this vicinity look well, the hay crop being exceptionally heavy. Farmers report that the harvest will be a little later than usual on account of the late spring season. With the bright prospects for cheese, and the bountiful crops, farmers have reason to feel elated over the prosperous outlook.

Bancroft Farmer "Hits the Pipe"

The Bancroft Times says:—Here is a good one. We will not vouch for the truth of it, however. A farmer not a hundred miles from Bancroft undertook to "drive" a well. Length after length of pipe was added and driven into the ground, but still no water. This farmer finally gave up this job in disgust. A couple of days afterwards he noticed a pipe sticking out of the ground about a hundred yards from where he tried to "drive" the well, and on examination disclosed the fact that the point of the pipe had struck a rock and turned up, and as the farmer kept on pounding this pipe kept on going up in the air. We withhold the name of the farmer as the result might be rather painful if we gave him away.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now, known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer one Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Were Separated for Sixty Years

Belleville, July 12.—Chas. Adams, of this city, and his sister, Mrs. L. N. Rowe, Red Wood Falls, Minnesota, have met here after sixty years' separation. Sixty years ago their parents left the daughter with a sister of this father's in New York State when emigrating to Michigan, and took the baby boy with them. This son, after serving in the United States army in the civil war, came to Belleville, married and settled here. His daughter, Mrs. Lofard, made enquiries for relatives and this month was the meeting of brother and sister. Another brother discovered in Oswego will meet them then.

Yesterday's police court proceedings ran the gamut from drunks to proving that drink was not sold.

A young man, named Kimball, was accused as being drunk in a public place, to which he pleaded guilty, and with $2.60 costs paid the penalty for this offence.

Another young man named Sheehan pleaded not guilty of the same indiscretion. Kimball, under examination by the Chief, said he did not know what Sheehan had been doing. Did not know whether he Sheehan had used bad language or not. Did not know whether the prisoner had been fighting with Coulter or not. Said Sheehan and he were talking on the corner when P. C. McGinty arrested them. Did not remember what had been going on. Sheehan then asked if he could say a word, but the Chief replied "You had better not open your mouth or you might put your foot into it!" The Chief asked for an enlargement.

Richard Geary charged with being drunk, said "I guess I was." Told the Magistrate he had been stopping at the House of Providence. "Well," said his Worship, "if the doors are still open to you, you had better make for home." "God bless your Lordship" piously ejaculated Geary as he toddled off for his haven of refuge.

James Lawless, proprietor of the National Hotel, was charged by the Inspector, George Cochrane with having sold liquor during prohibited hours last Saturday evening. Mr. G. W. Hatton appeared for the defence and Mr. R. E. Wood for the prosecution. Seven witnesses for the prosecution were corralled in the Council Chamber, awaiting their turns to give evidence. Frank Sheehan a bell boy employed there was in the National on Saturday night. Swore Houlihan the bartender, was in the office that night after the bar closed at 7 o'clock. Did not know of any liquor going after seven o'clock. Did not go back to work after 9 o'clock that evening. No one succeeded him but the night watchman. Oscar Hallen, the other bartender, did not come to work until Monday morning. Was not in the sample room.

John Trotter, who lives in South Monaghan, was in the hotel about 9 o'clock. Was in the back part of the hotel, having come in to see a man named McCoy. Was in the sample room south of the bar. Had no drinks. Saw other men in this room. Saw no liquor nor glasses there. Saw no treating nor drinking anywhere.

Mr. Hatton here took exception to Mr. Wood's casting reflections on witnesses's veracity, and seeming intimidation.

James Thompson was in the hotel Saturday evening. Was in the sample room, but had no drinks there. Saw neither drinking nor treating.

Sam Newhall was in the Hotel between 8 and 9 Saturday evening. Had a drink out of a bottle standing on a table; did not know what it was. Did not know who put the bottle there or by whom it was paid for. He and his companion each took a drink out of the bottle and finished it. His companion did not bring or pay for the bottle. Saw no glasses there. No one served him with any drinks. Did not know who owned the bottle. Under cross-examination by Mr. Hatton, said he neither paid for any drinks nor saw any drinking. No one served any drinks.

John Healy was in the hotel about 8.30. Got no drinks nor saw any; just went to the office and after purchasing 25 cents worth of cigars, went out. Mr. Wood then threw up the sponge and the case was dismissed.

Whilst Mr. Cochrane is perfectly right and justified in compelling the hotel keepers to observe the law, and in laying information, where reasonable grounds exist for a prosecution, there is sometimes a very narrow line to be drawn between persecution and prosecution. It seems hard for a number of men to lose half a day's work, to attend court where the prosecution's case simply rests in a wild chance shot of hitting something to substantiate their action. Such proceedings tend towards creating a spirit of hostility against a good cause.

British Fleet Could Easily Annihilate German Warships.

Germany's Threat Not Serious for British Fleet Could Annihilate Her Warships and Commerce--In Case of War Great Britain Would be Surely with France--Morocco Conference a Mistake, Says Delcasse.

Paris, July 13.—Former Foreign Minister Delcasse, in the course of an interview published by the Gaulois to-day upon the British and French naval amenities at Brest, was induced to discuss his general policy relative to Great Britain and Germany. He said;

"The policy of nations nowadays is not based on sentiment of anti-pathy, but upon their material interests. As between Germany and Great Britain our commercial balance shows where our interests lie. Great Britain is our best purchaser, while Germany buys almost nothing of us and tries to sell us all she can. Moreover, it is evident that we could not leave open irritating controversies with Great Britain, which might precipitate an Armed Struggle, for Great Britain holds undisputably the empire of the seas. For every warship we build she builds four or five. It is therefore well to accept these manifest facts and consider the value which British co-operation would give us in critical eventualities. The greatest intrinsic value of such co-operation would be the virtual impossibility in which it would place Germany of making war upon us."

SMASH THE INFANT FLEET.

M. Delcasse was asked if he considered the recent menaces in connection with Morocco as being serious.

He replied;

"Not at all. In case of war Great Britain would be surely with us against Germany, and then what would the infant fleet of Germany amount to? What would become of her ports? Of her commerce, of her merchant marine? It would mean annihilation. That is the real significance of the present exchange of visits between British and French squadrons. An understanding between these powers and coalitions of their navy would create a naval war machine so powerful that neither Germany nor any other power would risk concessions upon these. It is the sea which it is necessary to command to-day, and the war in the Far East has conclusively demonstrated that."

MEANT PEACE OF WORLD.

Continuing, Minister Delcasse discussed the possibility of her policy which had been pursued.

"Anglo-French cordial understanding," he said, "was an achievement towards a definite understanding between Russia and Great Britain, and this further understanding would have been the work of the French Minister for Foreign Affairs. The success of such a task would have strengthened our influence in British councils, and assured for a long time the peace of the world."

CONFERENCE A MISTAKE.

In conclusion Minister Delcasse was asked for his opinion of France's accepting a conference on Morocco, to which he gave the following textual response:

"To go to a conference is a mistake—and such a mistake—"

A July Wedding.

Marriage of Mr. E. R. Jarvis Recently Accountant in Local Bank of Commerce.

The many friends of Mr. Edgar Ralph Jarvis, who recently, very ably filled the position of accountant in the local branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce will tender him their congratulations upon his recent marriage.

The Toronto Star of July 4th, adverting to his wedding, says;

"This afternoon at half-past one o'clock, Miss Edith Carfrae Dick, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Carfrae Dick, of Avenue road, and Mr. Edgar Ralph Jarvis, of the Canadian Bank of Commerce at Melfort, Sask., son of Mr. R. P. Jarvis, Stratford, Ont., were married in St. Simon's church by the rector, the Rev. E. C. Cayley.

The chancel of the church was profusely decorated with palms and marguerites, and there was a full choral service. The bride, preceded by the choir and ushers, entered the church on her father's arm, looking very sweet in a gown of crepe de Paris made with train and trimmed with rose point lace, and she carried a shower bouquet of white roses. Her long tulle veil was held in place with orange blossoms. Miss Helen Beecher, of Peterboro, was maid of honor, and was gowned in green eolienne, while Miss Jessie Dick, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, dressed in white eolienne. Both wore black picture hats and carried shower bouquets of pink roses.

"The groom's gift to the bride was a very handsome sapphire ring, and to the maid of honor and bridesmaid small bloodstone rings.

The bride's mother looked very young and charming in a gown of black and white grenadine, with black and white toque to match, and carried a bouquet of mauve sweet peas. Mr. Charles James, of Boston, the bridegroom's brother, was groomsman, and the ushers were Mr. Fred Brooke and Mr. Arthur Brooke, cousins of the bride, Mr. Thomas Dawson and Mr. Edward Pringle.

"At the conclusion of the ceremony a small reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, at which only the nearest relatives and friends of the two families were present, owing to a recent death in the bride's family.

"One of the most highly prized among the many presents was that given by the bride's mother, the sword which had belonged to Frederick Macdonald, of the British army, the great grandfather of the bride.

"The bride's traveling costume was of grey homespun, made with long tight-fitting coat, and showing white open, a white lace blouse, the toque being of mauve straw, trimmed with wings of the same color. After a trip to several of the large cities in the States, the young couple will make their home in Melfort, Sask.

GOLD CLEAN UP WAS BIG

Beaver Hat Mine Produced a Brick of Forty-one Ounces

Sydney, C. B., July 13.—The first clean up of Beaver Hat Gold Mining Company, Guysboro County, was made Saturday and resulted in a brick weighing 41 ounces of 11 penny weights to the ounce. This is far beyond the general average for this province. The test was witnessed by G. W. Stuart, of Truro. Prof. Faribault, of the Geological Department, Ottawa, and G. E. Leighton, an English expert. They say it is the greatest discovery made in Canada, not excepting the Yukon. Assuming that leads continue as at present, there are now in prospect quarts valued at millions of dollars. There is great excitement in this locality over the discovery.

HER PEASANTS ARE RUSSIA'S DANGER

The Agrarian Troubles Are More Serious Than the Industrial.

NINE-TENTHS OF PEOPLE

Germany is Russia's Greatest Foe From Without as Russia Will Realize

St. Petersburg, July 13. — Count Milutin-Potemkin said to a correspondent today:

"The danger that threatens the Empire is not to be found in the revolt in the Black Sea fleet. That assailed only life and property. The trouble is regrettable, but the fleet will soon be unnecessary. There is little fear of aggression on the part of Turkey.

"The navy's prestige went with the surrender of Nebogatoff. The dissatisfaction in the army is limited. The labor riots are unimportant. The industrial population constitutes only two per cent. of the population.

"On the other hand, the agrarian trouble is very grave.

"The movement is similar to that which took place under Emelian Pugatcheff, when the peasants over the greater part of the country and almost succeeded in wresting the government from the Czar.

"Conditions are worse now than then. The peasants are the sole taxpayers. The nobles, who own nine-tenths of the land, are exempt.

The Muznik soldier, who conquered vast territories amounting to one-sixth of the globe, has seen that land divided between the Czar and the nobles.

"Since the liberation of the serfs in 1860 the Muznik have been paying installments on their holdings, but have never received titles to their property.

"The peasants, who constitute 90 per cent. of the population, own only one-tenth of the land, an average family lot of one-fourth of an acre.

"Taxation and rent are increasing. The peasant lacks seeds and agricultural implements. He is starving.

"When the Muznik needs an advance, he sends his produce to the middleman, who allows him thirty kopecks for what is worth seventy-eight in the market.

"In imitation of Pugatcheff, the peasants spread stories concerning the Czar's brother, Grand Duke Michael.

"They say he is the Muznik's friend, and has been unjustly deprived of succession to the throne by the Czarevitch's birth. They hint that the tchnovniks (officials) have merely invented the story of the birth. Thus the superstitious peasants are in a state of great excitement.

"Unless an immediate remedy is provided, a bloody revolution is imminent. The Cossacks themselves are likely to join the Muzniks. Succor from outside Russia comes from Germany. Japan's interests do not antagonize us, but overpopulated Germany's eyes are cast on Russia's fertile prairies.

"Bismarck, abetted by our Germanized Grand Dukes, cleverly planted German colonies in this country.

"Alexander III. stopped this, but Witte, by promoting artificial industrialism, flooded Russia with German fakers, schemers for mechanics.

"German became our business language.

"The Kaiser considers Russia his colony. He only recently wanted to occupy Finland on the pretext of desiring to quell the revolution. The scheme failed.

"The Czar realized the danger, but when, despite the machinations of the Kaiser, the Russian people have obtained peace and reforms they will assert their independence.

"A clash is imminent at St. Petersburg.

"At M. Kokovtzoff's last night a German financier who arranged the recent loan to Russia said to a correspondent: "The Washington conference as far as known will arrange that Russia assume Japan's loans and agree to pay for the expenses incurred in supporting the Russian prisoners in Japan.

"This latter sum will amount to $1,000,000,000.

"Russia will probably cede the Chinese railway to Japan and also give over the Island of Sakhalin. Thus new loans and and an excessive and undesirable influx of capital into Japan will be avoided.

"America and England, which hold th Japanese bonds, will thus become creditors of Russia, and will oppose unjust demands on the Czar.

"Russian bonds will be better than Japanese as Russian sources of credit are untouched. The industrial crisis does not affect the Czar's finances. The indirect taxes and customs overbalance the budget.

"The inland gold production covers the bond interest. The interior troubles are transient.

"The opposition is heterogeneous and powerless.

"The population is indifferent politically.

"It is likely that the peasants will receive more land. The majority of the nobles are in the service of the state. Industry is protected. Taxation is the smallest in Europe. The only dissatisfied element are foreigners. Partial reforms will straighten them out. In the coming decades Russia will be the best investment and market in Europe."

The Glorious Twelfth Celebrated in Omemee

Local Loyal Orange Lodges and Prentice Boys Celebrate Battle of the Boyne at Omemee--A Splendid Turnout of the Followers of King William, who Did Themselves Credit.

Yesterday was a day that, in the back country in particular, is looked eagerly forward to, and prepared for from the preceding 13th of July.

Yesterday, the Orangemen of this city and surrounding country, celebrated in their usual loyal and enthusiastic manner, and was marked by a splendid turnout of the brethern, who both on their way to Omemee and, on their return, acted in a manner that reflected the greatest credit on this loyal and patriotic brotherhood. In the morning about 400 of the brethern, with their beautiful and costly banners, bright with the varied insignia of rank and membership in the Orange Order, to the sparkling music of many bands, including our local 57th Regimental, aggregation of musicians, marched to the G.T.R. station, where they entrained for Omemee. The different lodges were each well represented. Many of those present wearing the usual silk hats.

Thousands of onlookers feasted their eyes on the gorgeous regalia and mass of men moving in perfect rythm to the appropriate airs played by the different bands. Many of this county's oldest and most respected citizens bravely marched along as they have done every 12th of July for a generation of time.

The Peterboro Prentice Boys, youthful aspirants for promotion to the higher branches of the order, presented a striking appearance, and drew many favorable comments from the crowds lining both sides of the streets en route to the depot.

The lodges of Peterboro district assembled first at Central Park, and about ten o'clock formed in line to march to the train and meet the Lakefield brethren, who rallied to the standard with a strength of about one hundred and fifty. The procession formed upon Mellonnell street and marched to the Grand Trunk station in the following order.

W. H. G. Armstrong, D.D.G.M., on horseback.

R. Graham, L.O.L. No. 80, with Union Jack.

57th Regiment Band.

Peterboro Lodge, Prentice Boys, with banner. Jos. Reynolds, Master. Diamond Lodge, No. 80, Peterboro, George Bartlett, Master.

Jubilee Lodge, Prentice Boys.

Wellington Orange Lodge, No. 457 and Young Canadians, with banner and life and drum band. Robert Leeson, Master.

Col. Sanderson, L.O.L. No. 321, Otonabee, with banner, J. Waldie, Master.

Bereaford L.O.L. No. 112, Lakefield, S. Hunter, Master.

North Smith, L.O.L. No. 419, S. Blewett, Master.

Fife and drum band.

Young Canadian L.O.L. No. 1385, R. Carter, Master.

Carriage containing;

J. B. McWilliams, P.J.G.M.

Joseph Batten, P.C.M.

J. A. McWilliams, P.C.M.

W. A Kindred, P.C.M.

Nassau Lodge, as usual, made a good showing in white shirts and vests and tall hats. A large party of young Canadians wore similar uniforms. The Lakefield and Smith contingents added considerably to the splendor of the occasion by neat uniforms and stirring music. The Young Canadians of Lodge 1385 wore broad grey hats which were very becoming.

A "double header" train carrying the brethren and their friends left the city at 11 a.m.

At Omemee, the local contingent was met by large numbers of their brethren and escorted to headquarters. Fraserville Lodge, was represented well, having about 70 members under Wor. Master R. A. Roddy, and sent one of the finest bodies of the order present yesterday.

Lindsay Lodge, No. 38, and many other lodges from this part of Ontario sent large delegations. The speeches were most eloquent and received with rounds of applause; the speech of the quondam Omemee doctor was particularly well received.

The train bearing the brethren on their way home arrived about 6.30 when another procession was formed and marched up George street to Central Park. Here an informal gathering was held for a short time, when they once more paraded George to Simcoe streets, and dismissed. As the procession was turning the corner of George and Simcoe streets, an indiscrete young man tried to pass through the lines, however two husky brethren, one armed with a pouring right fist and the other with a formidable looking sword, soon dissuaded him from interfering with the parade. It was frequently remarked that other bodies or lodges of men might on outing days as was yesterday, take example from the local Orangemen, and return as gentlemanlike and strictly sober a condition. To think that over 500 men, who arrived in town yesterday evening, after spending a day abroad in a little place like Omemee, where there was every temptation to indulge, from lack of varied amusement, should return without even the suspicion of liquor in evidence, speaks volumns for the Orangemen of Peterboro.

FIFTH SON BORN TO PRINCESS OF WALES.

London, July 12.—A son was born to the Princess of Wales to-day.

The Prince of Wales is now just turned 40 years of age, and her Royal Highness is two years his junior. They were married on July 6th, 1893, the Princess then being Princess Victoria Mary ("May") of Teck. Their family now consists of five sons and one daughter, as follows:

Edward, born June 23rd, 1894.
Albert, born December 14th, 1895.
Victoria, born April 25th, 1897.
Henry, born March 31st, 1900.
George, born December 20th, 1902.
———, born July 12th, 1905.

RUSSIA WILL BUILD NEW NAVY

Schwab Has Been Called Upon to Prepare Wharf Plans

St. Petersburg, July 13.—The Navy Department, having resolved to build a powerful new navy, today instructed Charles M. Schwab to make plans for new wharves, giving the exact time in which the work can be accomplished.

Hoch's Case Growing Desperate

Chicago, July 13.—Johann Hoch, the condemned wife murderer, yesterday issued an appeal "to the just public" for enough money to enable him to take his case to the Supreme Court. It is necessary that he have $1,100 by July 15, otherwise he must hang.

For the first time since his conviction, Hoch is in despair. "Eleven hundred dollars," he mused to himself yesterday and shook his head solemnly. "Eleven hundred dollars." They might as well take me out and hang me now. I can never get it."

It is also said that Hoch made direct appeals to John D. Rockefeller, Miss Helen D. Gould, Andrew Carnegie and other wealthy persons, for money with which he hopes to save his life.

—Yesterday's races were postponed on account of rain. Last night the track dried up, so to-day's races will be fast. It is expected that fivalry between two visiting horsemen will break all records in a certain class.

THE TRANSCONTINENTAL

r. Dennis O'Brien Appointed Assistant-General-Manager

Montreal, July 13.—Mr. Dennis O'Brien, formerly connected with the Grand Trunk Railway, has been appointed assistant to Frank W. Morse, vice-president and general manager of the Grand Trunk Pacific, with head offices at Winnipeg.

Mr. O'Brien has been in the service of the Grand Trunk for seventeen years, resigning the position of assistant master mechanic, only a short time ago. He will have charge of construction work on the new line in the west, and maintain a general supervision over the affairs of the company in that district.

His appointment is regarded as an evidence that active operations will begin for the building of the road from Winnipeg west, in a very short time. The company has already printed specifications in hand and several of the larger contractors have been approaching the management with a view to bidding for construction work on the branch from Lake Superior, north to the main line, and later from Winnipeg west to the Rocky Mountains.

DEATH COIL CATCHES TWO

Young Man Electrocuted in Presence of Women Friends

Trenton, N.J., July 13. — Walter Ewing, aged 23 years, a New York City telegraph operator, and Wesley Davidson, of Hopewell, aged 20 years, were both killed in Hopewell by contact with an electric light wire.

Ewing was on a visit to Hopewell to see his mother and Miss Matthews, his fiancee, the earliest down the street a little after six o'clock with Davidson, and his attention was attracted to a broken telephone wire hanging over a live electric wire. A dog sniffed at the wire and was shocked.

Ewing got two sticks and tried to poke the wire out of the way, although his sweetheart and his mother, who were in the party, tried to persuade him not to. He slipped and the live wire coiled about him. Davidson rushed to the aid of Ewing and he, too, was caught in the death coil, and both men were killed in the presence of the two women.

DEADLY SPIDERS BITE TWO MEN

Tarantulas Are Discovered Hidden in Bunches of Bananas

Milwaukee, July 13.—Fruit dealers in Green Bay and Grand Rapids, Wis., are reported to have been bitten severely by tarantulas hidden in bunches of bananas. Peter Jorgenson, a Green Bay grocer, saved his life only by jumping on a bicycle and sprinting for a doctor's office. Before he reached there his finger and hand were twice their natural size. Treatment will save his hand. At Grand Rapids, A. J. Nichols was bitten on the back of the hand, and immediately began sucking the poison out of the wound as he hastened to a doctor. His condition is serious. In the bunch of bananas was found a nest of young tarantulas, several hundred in number.

AMERICAN MONEY IN EUROPE

$100,000,000 Will Be Spent by Tourists This Year

London, July 12. — Tourists' exchanges estimate that at least 100,000 Americans are now in different sections of Europe. Not so many are to be found in London during the heated season as in the provinces and on the Continent. It is estimated that each American traveler expends on an average at least $1,000 while on this side of the Atlantic. According to these estimates of experts upon foreign exchange Europe this year will be $100,000,000 richer by reason of the influx.

INFLUX FROM UNITED STATES

Many Families are Settling in City of Toronto

Toronto, July 13.—While reports come in from all the new districts of the arrival of American settlers, little is heard from the big centres. Enquiry at the Customs House today elicits the information that from six to eight, and frequently as many as twelve, American families come into Toronto daily from all parts of the United States, a large percentage of whom remain in this city. Officials say that the advent of new but small industries are responsible for the influx, which is greater than ever before.

—During the absence of Mr. Williamson and Mr. Holmes at the Y.M.C.A. boys' camp at Sandy Point, Mr. S. G. Cowan, late of Mathers Corners will look after all arrangements at the Y.M.C.A.

Captain of Russian Cruiser Soon Crawled

The British Lion Showed Its Teeth and Then the Russian Captain Released His British Captives--Refused When First Requested.

Marseilles, July 13.—It is stated that when the Russian converted cruiser Dnieper arrived at Port Said with the crew of the British steamer St. Kilda, which the Dnieper had sunk, the British complained to the consul that the captain of the Dnieper was determined to take them to Russia.

The consul, accompanied by the commanders of the British cruisers Lancaster and Suffolk, boarded the Dnieper, and requested that the British subjects on board be liberated.

The captain of the Dnieper rudely refused the request, whereupon the consul informed him that if they were not released within an hour special measures would be taken. The consul and the officer accompanying him then left the Russian warship.

Immediately afterwards the Lancaster raised anchor and swung round, ready to approach the Dnieper. This hint was sufficient for the Russian captain, who instantly sent the St. Kilda's crew ashore. They were brought here on a P. & O. Liner.

Simmons--Roy.

Miss Mabel Roy Becomes the Fair Bride of Mr. A. M. Simmons, of Toronto.

The deep toned chimes of St. John's church yesterday afternoon pealed out the tidings that another of Peterboro's fair maidens was changing her name and fulfilling her destiny in wedding the moon of her choice.

Miss Mabel Roy, eldest daughter of Mr. R. M. Roy, 4 Sheridan street, was joined in marriage to Mr. Alfred Munro Simmons of Toronto.

The wedding, which although quietly solemnized was a pretty ceremony, Rev. J. C. Davidson the rector, of Peterboro officiating. All superfluous paraphernalia and needless ceremonial customs were omitted, only immediate relatives being invited.

Miss Roy was attractively attired in a gown of pale blue hot taffeta silk, and wore a hat of white lace trimmed with pale blue and pink roses. Mr. and Mrs. Simmons drove down George street the observed of all eyes, many complimentary remarks being overheard, as the happy looking and pretty bride drove away, en route, to her new life as a matron, and her new home in Toronto.

The happy couple left by the 5.10 C.P.R. express on a wedding trip to Banff and the West. They will return to Toronto about the middle of September, where they will reside. Many friends will join in wishing them every happiness and prosperity.

Wedding Bells

Miss Florence M. Burton Becomes the Bride of Mr. W. O. LaBelle

A young lady well known in this city, Miss Florence M. Burton, daughter of Mr. E. J. Burton, was married last Wednesday to Mr. Wilfrid Oscar LaBelle, now of Bowmanville, but once a resident of this city.

The ceremony was celebrated at the residence of the bride's parents, 390 King street, west, Toronto, Rev. W. H. Vance, of the Church of the Ascension, performing the ceremony. The bride, who was given away by her father, was handsomely gowned in ivory crepe de chene over taffeta, with bertha of duchesse lace. A Brussels net veil, having been the bride's mother's was worn with a corset of orange blossoms. She also carried a shower bouquet of roses and lily of the valley. The bridesmaid was Miss Celia Burton sister of the bride. The groom was supported by Mr. Chris. J. Hutchinson.

GENERAL SPORTING GOSSIP

THE TURF—BASEBALL—LACROSSE—FOOTBALL

LACROSSE.

The next C.L.A. game will be played here with Oshawa on Wednesday next. A vigorous contest is looked forward to, and hostilities will begin at 3 o'clock, in order that Oshawa may leave on the 5.30 train. Mr. T. Burt, of Port Hope, will referee. This will be a lively game.

BASEBALL.

It is altogether likely that a large number of local fans will attend the Cobourg game on Saturday. Our boys will have a strong bunch competing for Midland League honors in that town. Manager McEwan's aggregation are confident of winning the game, and with Douglas in the box and the strengthened team should carry off the honors. Downs, the twirler with the deceptive drop, will occupy the box for Cobourg. Burge, who was injured recently at practice, is recovered sufficiently to once more take his place on the Cobourg team.

The Races Postponed

Jupiter Pluvius Made the Track too Heavy Yesterday.

A common remark made, in dismal accents, yesterday, by local horsemen was, "Well, there's no use quarrelling with the weather. Better luck tomorrow!"

Hundreds of citizens yesterday morning anxiously waited and watched, in vain, to see if the rain would pass by, hoping for sunshine and a well attended race track.

It was decided at noon, by the local Turf Club officials, to postpone the races until today, as neither the attendance nor the track would justify them in having yesterday's program carried out.

The track at noon, near the pole, was covered with about two inches of water, so the Turf Club, unwilling to have 800 or 1,000 people disappointed by looking at slow races, decided to call the races off for that day. Today's program will be the entries billed for July 12th, and for tomorrow the entries postponed from yesterday.

As the Turf Club has been under great expense over getting up these races it is to be hoped a large attendance will demonstrate that our citizens appreciate good, clean sport and the advertising these races has given Peterboro. The entries for today are as follows:

2.28 class:

Minnie Bell, George Powell, Orillia.
White Blaze, Dr. Johnston, Peterborough.
Miss Paisley, Geo. Lipsett, Peterborough.
Headlight, W. R. Acton, Gamanoque.

UNION LABEL

PETERBORO JULY 13 1905.

TO PARIS BY RAIL.

When no more than half a dozen years ago M. Loicq de Lobel, of Paris, first announced to the world his intention of establishing rail communication between New York and Paris by way of Alaska, a tunnel under Behring Sea and a connection with the Trans-Siberian Railway, he was looked upon as a fantastical enthusiast and his project was laughed at as a chimerical dream. Today no engineer in the world is receiving more serious consideration, and M. de Lobel left New York the other day with indorsements in his pocket from half a hundred of the most celebrated construction engineers in America, and the signed promises of several great financial syndicates to take stock in this gigantic enterprise. From being a source of amused and pitying comment he has so far won the support of great and influential engineers, governments and sovereigns that his scheme is no longer regarded as visionary and may be carried out within the next few years.

There is now being formed in New York, Paris and St. Petersburg an international syndicate with a capital of $300,000,000 to build this great railroad and tunnel system which is the most stupendous engineering enterprise ever conceived. The greatest difficulty that is to be surmounted is the matter of a tunnel from Cape Prince of Wales in Alaska to the East Cape, on the Siberian coast. As outlined by F. A. L. Waddell, of Kansas City, who is deeply interested in the enterprise the consensus of engineering opinion is that this great tunnel can be completed in four years. Speaking recently at a dinner in New York, at which the American projectors of this railway were gathered, Mr. Waddell said:

"The water over the tunnel route varies from 15½ to 180 feet deep at the deepest point and the underlying rock is of intrusive granite. The total length of the tunnel including the approaches will be about thirty-eight miles. Midway between the Alaskan and Siberian coasts are the Diomede islands—two of them—the largest of which will permit the division of the tunnel into two sections of nearly equal length and will serve as a base for the erection of works necessary during construction and also for a motive power plant for moving trains and for ventilation."

The railroad to Siberia will be 3,800 miles long and will connect at Irkutsk with the Trans-Siberian road leading directly to St. Petersburg, and from thence to Paris. On the American side the road will pass Council City and Fairbanks to point about 100 miles south of Dawson, where it will connect with the Grand Trunk Pacific, as its route to its route to Dawson has been projected. This will make a distance of about 5,000 miles between terminal points.

Mr. Waddell will go to St. Petersburg at once to submit the project to the Czar, as it has already been approved by the Russian Ministry of Railroads, and a concession of eight miles on either side of the track in Siberia has been granted.

Thus we may live to see the two great hemispheres of the earth bound by this circumpolar railroad and the much laughed-at dream of a rail route from New York to Paris prove a realization.

CANADIAN IN BRITISH HOUSE

In Finsbury, England, a few days ago, Mr. J. Allen Baker, a Canadian from the Bay of Quinte district, was elected to the British Parliament. This is complimentary both to Mr. Baker and the country of his opponents, in the stress of the contest tried to raise local feeling against him by calling upon the electors to raise the "alien" in the land of his fathers is surely doubtful, but it probably meant no more than an election cry raised in the hope of gaining a few votes. At all events the electors were too broad-minded to be influenced by it, for Mr. Baker was given a majority of 700. With Sir Gilbert Parker, also a Canadian from the Bay of Quinte, this fine old Canadian district will think it is well represented in the British House. Another Canadian who has been making himself heard in old country platforms is Mr. T. Hamar Greenwood, from Whitby, Ont. Mr. Greenwood is the Liberal candidate for a Yorkshire constituency.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

There has been some faultfinding with the birth rate in Ontario as compared with the marriage rate, but it is pointed out that a good many Ontario brides, whose marriages are registered there are brought over to this side by their husbands who have gone back home to marry them. Consequently the proportion of births to marriages is not quite fairly deduced from the statistics.

Toronto Socialists have been objecting to Lord Robert's opening the exhibition there next month because he is a soldier. They opposed the Boer war, and oppose Lord Roberts because he fought in it. But Lord Roberts is a patriot as well as a soldier, and that is probably more than can be said for some of those who are showing opposition to his name.

The Czar has decided not to hire Schwab to build another navy for Russia. At this distance it looks as if the Czar might well pay somebody to gather up such remnants of a navy as Russia still has and take it so far away that it could never possibly get back again.

Queen's University Has Warm Friends in This District

Rev. J. J. Wright, representative for Queen's University, Kingston, in connection with the effort to raise half a million dollar endowment fund for that institution, is meeting with splendid success in his canvass. He has received from friends of the University in and around Peterboro no less than twenty, one hundred dollar gifts, making $2,000 with prospect to substantially more. Any one who contributes $100 receives a scholarship, and has the privilege of nominating a student to pursue a course in Arts free of all fees.

Mr. Wright recently received a cheque for $100 from a gentleman at Whitehorse, in the Yukon district. The donor in a fire there a few weeks ago suffered a loss of $5,000, and Mr. Wright wrote him giving him an opportunity to reconsider the matter of his subscription, and this sufferer replied to the effect that he would not fail in sending along the amount. True to his word, the money arrived the other day. Such generosity is especially commendable.

A Kinmount Citizen to Live Here

A gentleman well known in this city, Mr. James Scott; who for several years conducted the Northern Hotel at Kinmount, has taken up his residence at the corner of Park and Bolivar streets. Mr. Scott has leased his hotel to Mr. Donald McKenzie, an experienced man from Glen Williams for a term of years. Mr. McKenzie will conduct the hotel on the same progressive and up-to-date lines as Mr. Scott. Mr. Scott's reason for giving up his old business, is that his wife has been in ill-health for some time.

—And still, (since last Friday night) Victoria Park, by night, is denied in all its beauty, to the respectable portion of Peterboro's womankind, and the other classes encouraged, by the dilatory lack of action by our Council. How long? How long?

HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS

Any even numbered section of Dominion lands in Manitoba or the North-west Territories, excepting 8 and 26, which has not been homesteaded, or reserved to provide wood lots for settlers, or for other purposes, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres more or less.

ENTRY

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land to be taken is situate, or if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration Winnipeg, or the local agent for the district in which the land is situate, receive authority for some one to make entry for him. A fee of $10 is charged for a homestead entry.

HOMESTEAD DUTIES

A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required by the provisions of the Dominion Lands Act, and the amendments thereto, to perform the conditions connected therewith, under one of the following plans:

(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years. It is the practice of the Department to require a settler to bring 15 acres under cultivation, but if he prefers he may substitute stock; and 20 head of cattle, to be actually his own property, with buildings for their accommodation, will be accepted instead of the cultivation.

(2) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased), of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

(3) If a settler was entitled to and has obtained entry for a second homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by residence upon the first homestead, if the second homestead is in the vicinity of the first homestead.

(4) If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

The term "vicinity" used above is meant to indicate the same township, or an adjoining or cornering township.

A settler who avails himself of the provisions of clauses (2), (3) or (4) must cultivate 30 acres of his homestead, or substitute 20 head of stock, with buildings for their accommodation, and have besides 80 acres substantially fenced.

The privilege of a second entry is restricted by law to those settlers only who completed the duties upon their first homesteads to entitle them to patents on or before the 2nd of June, 1889.

Every homesteader who fails to comply with the requirements of the homestead law is liable to have his entry cancelled and the land may again be thrown open for entry.

APPLICATION FOR PATENT

Should be made at the end of three years before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector. Before making application for patent the settler must give six months notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa of his intention to do so.

INFORMATION

Newly arrived immigrants will receive, at the Immigration Office in Winnipeg, or at any Dominion Lands Office in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories, information as to the lands that are open for entry, and from the officers in charge, free of expense, advice and assistance in securing lands to suit them. Full information respecting the land, timber, coal and mineral laws, as well as respecting Dominion Lands in the Railway Belt in British Columbia, may be obtained upon application to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, Manitoba, or to any of the Dominion Lands Agents in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories.

W. W. CORY,
Deputy Minister of the Interior

Fine Mill Burnt

The Mill at Youngs's Point Totally Destroyed By Fire.

On Monday evening, Young's Point sustained a severe loss through the total destruction by fire of the fine saw mill that furnished employment for so many inhabitants of that charming village.

The mill was operated by Messrs. Edward Young and A. Dunn. The cause of this lamentable fire is a mystery, no one knowing how it originated.

The fire broke out shortly after seven o'clock, the mill having been shut down for the day about one hour before. The loss is placed at $2,500, and it is understood that there is no insurance. As soon as the villagers discovered the blaze they attacked it with every means at hand, but without success. The lumber piles in the vicinity were, however, saved. The mill has been very busy of late, the fire field came at a most inopportune time.

It is reported that Messrs. Young and Dunn intend rebuilding, as they have a large season's contracts before them.

They Get Damages.

Messrs. W. L. Evans and W. James Allowed Their Claims by the G. T. R.

Our readers will remember that on the evening of May 30th Messrs. W. L. Evans and William James, whilst attempting to cross the G.T.R. tracks on King street, and not seeing an approaching engine on account of an intervening refrigerator car on the track nearest to the bridge approaching, were thrown violently from the wagon on which they sat, by collision of the engine, and that they sustained severe injuries, Mr. James being knocked senseless.

These gentlemen, who entered a claim, based on the severe injuries received, through no fault of their own, have received a satisfactory settlement of their claim for damages. The case was placed in the hands of Mr. John Green, and in a recent consultation with Mr. S. Wells, claims agent of the G.T.R. an agreement acceptable to all concerned was arrived at, after the circumstances had been thoroughly considered.

MARRIED MEN AND SINGLE

Interesting Match to be Played on the Evening of Friday this Week

The single men who have any reputation as lacrosse players will have to look well to their laurels when the married men enter the field to made good in regard to a challenge issued recently. Should the benedicts win, it is more than likely that several of the bachelors will desert the ranks of the unmarried to follow the example of their opponents. Should the result be otherwise, it is hardly fair to assume that the defeated ones will be filled with regret over the fact that they have left the state of single blessedness since they have those who can hand out some consolation in misfortune. The game will be played on Friday evening at 7 o'clock on the Ward Five grounds, in four 10 minute quarters, with five minutes' rest between each. The married men, who have obtained the consent of their wives, will line up as follows; — Clarke, goal; E. Hickey, point; W. Galley, cover point; W. Maugher, 1st defense; Main, 2nd defence; F. McCoy, 3rd defence; L. McCoy, center; W. Parnell, 3rd home; C. Graham, 2nd home, D. Ballard, 1st home; E. Wasson, outside home; Bennett, inside home.

History and Production of the Goldfields of Boulder County, Colorado, Portraying Economic Conditions Which Predict the Coming Goldfields of Colorado and Presenting the Stock Offering of a Great Gold Mining Enterprise of the United States Gold Corporation

FREE

Our booklet on the gold fields of Boulder County is off the press, and is being distributed free to investors. We have prepared this book to advertise the gold fields of Northern Colorado and our great gold mining enterprise. The books will be free for the asking while they last It will tell you of how over fifty millions have been added to the world's wealth in production of gold, silver and copper under primitive methods and from surface workings of an average depth of not to exceed 250 feet It will tell you of its great tungsten belt, the largest in the world. It will tell you of the existence of a diversity of precious and rare minerals, unrivaled by any other gold fields on this continent. It will tell you of a mineral area of twenty-five square miles literally covered with a network of veins practically undeveloped, with only one shaft below the thousand foot and half a dozen below the six hundred foot level. It will tell you of a gold field nearer to the Denver smelters than any other in Colorado; of a change of economic conditions, in this section, which will enable the miner to ship ore to the smelters, at a net profit, that is now being thrown over the dumps in other sections of Colorado; it will tell you of a field so attractive that it resulted in the construction of two railways from one end of the field to the other. It will tell you of the substitution of modern and up-to-date mining methods, in place of the primitive ones of the past; in short, it will tell you of all those conditions which predict for the gold fields of Boulder County the coming gold fields of Colorado.

It will also tell you of our great gold mining enterprise in the western part of the gold fields of Boulder County, near the continental divide, where nature has deposited her largest and richest treasure vaults; it will tell you of our economic development tunnel, driven to drain and develop a mineral estate almost a mile long and half a mile wide; of the thousands of tons of gold ore now blocked out and ready for shipment in the five different veins cut by this tunnel in driving it eight hundred feet, the result of two years steady development work night and day; of our wonderful discovery of molybdenite—a rare metal—in large commercial quantities, foretelling for us the first molybdenite mine in Colorado that is producing, as well as a large and permanent source of revenue, of our project to drive this tunnel, long before the end of this year, into the famous Fourth of July dyke or "Mother Lode," from which the far famed Caribou group of mines produced twenty million dollars in gold, silver and copper from 1869 to 1893; of the tremendous possibilities for ore production which will follow the cutting of a mineral dyke from 50 to 100 feet wide at a depth of a thousand feet, and the great probability of our opening the first great copper mine in Colorado when we reach this dyke with the tunnel. In short, it will tell you of a gold mining enterprise that will go on a large producing basis long before the end of 1905; of an enterprise with possibilities second to none in Colorado, the developments of which have already shorn it of any element of risk or speculative features, rendering the investment offered safe and attractive one.

For the financial and commercial standing of the business men who stand back of this enterprise we refer you to the First National Bank, Boulder, Colo, or Bradstreets Commercial Agency

The edition will not last long. If you would be sure of securing a copy, write to-day, or your name and address on a postal card, with the word "Booklet," will do the work.

AN AMERICAN DISEASE

Indigestion is Responsible for More Sickness in America Than Any Other Disease.

Some doctors go so far as to say that indigestion is the national disease of America. Repeated attacks indicate the lining of the stomach and cause the glands to secrete mucous instead of the juices Nature requires for digestion. Consequently the blood is poisoned, nerve force is reduced, the vitality of the entire system is weakened.

There is but one remedy for indigestion and that remedy is Dr. Hamilton's Pills, which are being used by thousands with marvellous success.

Dr. Hamilton's Pills accelerate the action of the gastric glands and give tone to the digestive organs. They strengthen the kidneys and liver, cleanse and purify the blood, and thus add general tone to every organ of the body. Flesh and strength are fast restored and the patient can eat and digest any food he pleases.

Under the vitalizing effect of Dr. Hamilton's Pills your system will soon rally; once more you'll enjoy the blessings of health. Test Dr. Hamilton's Pills yourself. 25c. per box or five boxes for $1; at all dealers, or by mail from N. C Polson & Co., Hartford, Conn., U.S.A., and Kingston, Ont.

An Ice Cream Making Accident.

An employe of Mr. Harry Long, the well-known George street restaurant man, by name Fred Miles, whilst oiling the machinery connecting a motor with the ice-cream freezer, had his right hand injured. In some way his hand came in contact with the revolving cogs, and in consequence Mr. Miles had the end of his little finger badly lacerated. Dr. McClelland found it necessary to amputate the finger at the second joint.

Shooting Accident

A Garden Hill despatch says: As William Davison, who lives east of this village in Hamilton township, was working at a revolver with a hammer and screw driver to force the cylinder to revolve, his wife did not hesitate to stand directly in front of the barrel. The result was the revolver went off, and now Mrs. Davison has a No. 22 bullet in her leg about 5 inches above her knee, which up to the present time has not been extracted.

Jumps the Cars

Yesterday afternoon, as the Lakefield train was passing the sharp curve between Smith and Antrim stations, a huge cast iron cylinder, weighing 100 tons, and completely covering the length of three flat cars, in some way, rolling from its position along the centers of the cars, by the eccentric motion caused at the curve in the track made the cars carrying it turn completely over.

The immense iron tube, 100 feet long, and six inches diameter, rolled down the 15-foot embankment, and was only prevented from giving an unwelcome flattening to a nearby garden, by its collision with some large trees. This vast structure is a "dryer" for the Lakefield Cement Works, being simply a huge iron pipe, with cogs along the middle to convey the motive power.

The track was torn up for about twelve feet, but a gang of section men had it quickly repaired and there was no great delay in traffic over the line. Just how the dryer will be hauled out of the ditch, though, is a mystery. It took scarcely ten seconds to unload it, but if it is placed upon the cars again inside of a couple of days, record time for a big job will have been established. A flange at one end of the dryer was broken and it is likely that there are other damages. It appears that this is the second collapse since it left the factory on the other side of the line.

Gross Vandalism

Mrs. McEntee Has Two Valuable Cows Poisoned.

An act of gross cruelty and ungardonable vandalism has recently been perpetrated at the corner of Smith and Reid streets. Mrs. John McEntee, a widow, very highly esteemed in the neighborhood where she resides, as above, was the owner of two valuable Jersey cows which have been pastured in a field near her house. On Tuesday it became evident that something was wrong with the animals and a veterinary surgeon was called. He found that they had in some manner eaten Paris Green with their food and the supposition is that the poison had been thrown by some person maliciously inclined, where the cattle would be sure to partake of the dose. That evening the younger of the cows died, and the other is still in a critical condition. It is doubtful if it can be pulled through.

Mrs. McEntee is at a loss to know who it is that bears her such ill-will as to obtain revenge by taking the life of her cattle. It is doubtful whether the guilty parties will be apprehended, as suspicion does not at present point positively, but should they ever be brought within the reach of justice the severity of punishment should only be limited by the fullest scope of the law.

Obituary.

Death of Mr. William Galley of This City.

A gentleman who came to this city 40 years ago, and who was universally respected by all knowing him, in the person of Mr. William Galley, passed away yesterday afternoon at his residence, 583 George street. Mr. Galley had been ill for nearly two years.

The deceased was sixty-five years of age and was a member of the Canadian Order of Foresters, Peterboro Lodge of Oddfellows and Mount Hebron Encampment. He leaves a wife, three sons and one daughter.

The funeral will take place on Friday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock from the family residence to Little Lake cemetery.

A Picton Horseman

Mr. W. Moffatt, Secretary of the Picton Turf Club is Town

Mr. W. Moffatt, of Picton, was in the city yesterday and dropped into to This Times' sanctum for a chat. Mr. Moffatt is a gentleman well known to local horsemen, being secretary of the Picton Turf Club. He is very much pleased with our local track, saying it is one of the best and quickest in Canada.

Mr. Moffatt is anxious that Peterboro horsemen would get their entries for the Picton races in at once. These races are on July 19th and 20th and will be for good purses. The entries close July 14th.

—Mr. James Joplin, butcher of Bridgenorth, while in the act of killing a beef one day recently unfortunately let the knife slip. His left hand was badly cut. The knife penetrated to the bone by means of a gash several inches long. It will be some time before he can use the hand.

WANTED TO SLEEP

Curious That a Tired Preacher Should Have Such Desire

A minister speaks of the curious effect of Grape-Nuts food on him and how it has relieved him.

"You will doubtless understand how the suffering with which I used to be troubled made my work as almost unendurable burden, and why it was after my Sabbath duties had been performed, sleep was a stranger to my pillow till nearly daylight.

"I had been very careful as to what I ate, and even with all my care I experienced poignant physical distress after meals, and my food never satisfied me.

"Six months have elapsed since I began to use Grape-Nuts food, and the benefits I have derived from it are very definite. I no longer suffer from indigestion, and I began to improve from the time Grape-Nuts appeared on our table. I find that by eating a dish of it after my Sabbath work is done, (and I always do so now) my nerves are quieted and rest and refreshing sleep are ensured me. I feel that I could not possibly do without Grape-Nuts food, now that I know its value. It is invariably on our table—we feel that we need it to complete this meal—and our children will eat Grape-Nuts when they cannot be persuaded to touch anything else." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

There's a reason.

To Make a Bride

Many a woman would make a beautiful bride but she is deterred from entering the married state because of ill-health.

$500 REWARD
FOR WOMEN
WHO CANNOT BE CURED.

The proprietors and makers of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription now feel fully warranted in offering to pay $500 in legal money of the United States, for any case of Leucorrhea, Female Weakness, Prolapsus, or Falling of Womb which they cannot cure. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure.

"If women would study the laws of health and use a little more common sense there would not be such a large number to-day suffering with the ills peculiar to our sex," writes Mrs. Belle Martine (President Model Social Science Club), of 46 South Halsted Street, Chicago, Ill. "Then when medicine is needed if they would take the 'Favorite Prescription,' they would have a chance to get well. I used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription three years ago and it cured me of female weakness of several years' standing, so I know what I am talking about when I praise it and always know what the result will be where it is used."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets should be used with "Favorite Prescription" whenever a laxative is required.

Local Incidents
BY THE TIMES MAN ON THE STREET.

—His Lordship, the Bishop of Ottawa, held a confirmation service in All Saints' church last night.

—Mr. J. J. Hartley has begun the brick work on the new Separate school building. The stone masonry contract has been executed in an eminently satisfactory manner by Mr. J. E. Hayes.

—The glorious 12th, is past and gone for another year. The local Orangemen turned out in strong numbers, and, after a pleasant day, came home in a manner that reflected great credit on this body.

—Too much 12th of July juice caused a mix-up on Simcoe street yesterday evening about 5.30. The larger man who came off second best in the fistic argument, repaired to a nearby hotel to wash off his evident signs of battle.

—Percy Irwin, the ten months' old child of John J. Irwin, 391 Aylmer street, was buried in Little Lake cemetery yesterday afternoon. Bronchitis was the cause of the baby's death, which disease it contracted just after getting over an attack of measles.

—The annual picnic of the Separate Schools pupils will be held this afternoon at Nicholls Oval. A good program of sports and games will be run off and an enjoyable time is anticipated. The sponsor of the annual picnic is Rev. Father McColl, Superintendent of Separate Schools.

—Why is it that, in trials for breach of the liquor law in this city, witnesses get their fees, should the boteleman be found guilty, but when the inspector fails to prove his case, witnesses have to lose half a day's work and allowed no witness fees? Is this either justice or impartiality or does it breed respect for our laws?

Fishermen Return.

Messrs. W. Snowden, accompanied by his friend, Mr. Livingstone of Listowel last night, returned from a fishing trip to Buckhorn. The two gentlemen report that the fishing was A 1, but unfortunately their bait ran out whilst on route. This little difficulty was however settled later. They combined with fishing a mineralogical research, hoping to find hard coal at Buckhorn, but whilst finding surface deposits, freely displayed of soft coal, had to forego their anticipated find of anthracite. The genial boniface, we understand, has completed arrangements for shipping his superfluous fish to the Eastern States; this however, depends considerably on the local supply of bait.

Police Court

OFFICIALS
Chief of Police, G.L. Reed
Magistrate, R.W. Bramble

Yesterday several George street merchants were hauled before the Police Court to answer why they had broken the recently passed bylaw prohibiting obstruction of the pavements.

One dry goods man was charged with hanging out over the sidewalk four ladies wrappers. As this was his first offense, he was dismissed with a warning.

Another merchant was up on a charge of violating the Health Act. His case was enlarged one week to give him a chance to rectify the trouble.

A George street general merchant, who sells everything from wall-paper to tin whistles, was charged with leaving waste paper and other inflammable material at the rear of his emporium.

As this merchant is out of town, the gentleman at present in charge was subpoenaed, but did not appear. His Worship remarked that it would be more healthy for his bank account to come next week, his case being enlarged, saying if he did not come then, he would inflict a fine he would remember. The Magistrate remarked, "This man is the worst violator of the law on George street."

DANGEROUS GERMS IN SUMMER

Strengthen the Stomach with Mi-o-na and Keep Well

A wealthy philanthropist in New York spends thousands of dollars every summer providing milk for the babies, with the result that the mortality is greatly decreased. He appreciates the fact that disease germs are common in the summer and that the stomach must be kept healthy to resist their attacks.

Older people do not live on a milk diet to insure health, but they can so strengthen the stomach and digestive organs by the use of Mi-o-na that they too, will be free from sickness in the summer season.

Take a Mi-o-na tablet before each meal, and it will soothe and heal any inflammation that may be present in the lining of the stomach, give tone and strength to the whole digestive system, and aid you in naturally and easily digesting the food. It is the only remedy known that cures indigestion and stomach troubles by strengthening the digestive system. It is guaranteed to make a complete and permanent cure in all diseases of the stomach excepting cancer.

Mi-o-na restores complete health to the whole system and cures headaches, back-ache, sleeplessness, pains and distress after eating, vertigo, heart burn, and the general debility which result from a weak stomach and imperfect digestion.

A guarantee to refund the money if Mi-o-na does not show help, is given with every 50 cent box. Ask Wm. Madill to show you the guarantee.

Gen. Trepoff Certain of His Assassination

Man Slated as Next Minister of Interior Expects to Die--The Terrorists Have Recently Renewed Their Warnings Against General Trepoff with Ominous Presistence.

St. Petersburg, July 14.—The resignation of M. Goulgon as Minister of the Interior is expected daily, General Trepoff, the Assistant Minister of the Interior probably will be his successor.

The terrorists have recently renewed their warnings against General Trepoff with ominous persistence. The general is constantly in receipt of letters signed by the Executive Committee of the fighting organization, informing him that his hour has come. A remarkable feature of all the communications is that the writers take pains to say that no safeguards will avail to avert his impending doom. At the same time they tell him he need not be afraid to go abroad in the streets. They add, "Your sentence will be executed in your own room. You will die in your bed."

EXPECTS TO DIE.

The terrorists seem to take pride in issuing a challenge involving a demonstration of their power and resource to penetrate the armour of police. Moreover, General Trepoff knows enough of the resources and desperateness of the organization to firmly believe the terrorists are able to execute their threat. He makes no concealment of the fact that he expects to be killed, but his nerve is unshaken. He says; "I will at least die at the post of duty."

The Czar is Sincerely Desirous for Peace.

Bright Prospects of Success for the Peace Conference--The First Session Is Scheduled to Take Place Early in August--De Witte Russia's Principal Delegate.

The world should now be convinced that the Czar is sincerely desirous of peace. When Russia first signified her readiness to consider terms, a great deal of scepticism was shown by those who said she was only sparring for time, and would never accept the conditions Japan might reasonably impose. People persisted in this view even though the Czar humiliated himself by "gratefully availing himself of President Roosevelt's good offices" shortly after he had made the announcement that any offer of mediation by a foreign power would be regarded by Russia as an unfriendly act, and despite the disappearance of Russia's forlorn hope—Rodestvensky's fleet. It has already been settled that the peace conference shall be held in Portsmouth, Vermount, and delegates from both Japan and Russia are on their way. The first session is scheduled to take place early in August. Todays announcement by the Czar of the substitution of M. de Witte for M. Murawieff as Russia's principal delegate, is a great triumph for the peace party. De Witte is Russia's strongest statesman, he always was opposed to the occupation of Manchuria, which he declared made war inevitable; he favored an understanding or an alliance with Japan, and he possesses the confidence of the Mikado's advisers. His appointment at this time, with the complete powers of a plenipotentiary, after his having refused to act as a mere figurehead, and the removal of a comparatively inexperienced diplomat given only nominal authority, makes a successful conclusion of the coming peace conference not only possible, but probable. But Russia must be prepared for further humiliation.

Kitchener's Task

THE GRAVITY OF THE PRESENT SITUATION

MILITARY PROBLEM IN INDIA TRANSFORMED

WITHIN the past few years the military problem in India has been completely transformed by the rapid extension of the new Russian railways southward through Central Asia. Three years ago, at the close of the Boer War, there was only one Russian line which approached the Afghan frontier, and this was the Transcaspian Railway. It was not in uninterrupted communication with the railway system of European Russia, and to reach its terminus on the eastern shore of the Caspian troops had to be conveyed in steamers across the stormy waters of the Caspian Sea.

Now, however, a new military line has been completed from Orenburg, in European Russia, to Tashkend, which is on the Transcaspian system, and troops can be sent direct from St. Petersburg or Moscow to Central Asia. The Orenburg-Tashkend Railway is in process of being extended southward, and in the near future is to be linked up by newlines with the great Siberian Railway which traverses Northern Asia.

The construction of this new line has brought European Russia close to India, and has made the British Empire a Continental Power in its great Eastern dependency. According to a Japanese soldier, who has made a personal study of India and the Indian frontier, Russia will be able with no great difficulty to place an army of from 500,000 to 600,000 men upon the Indian frontier and to maintain that army there.

IN GOOD FIGHTING SHAPE. As to the soundness of this conclusion little doubt can be felt, since in the present war with Japan Russia has been able to transport within a year 500,000 men from Europe to Manchuria, and to keep them there in fighting condition. It is true that Central Asia is not so rich, so densely populated, or so productive a country as Manchuria, but against this must be set the fact that there are two railways abutting upon the Indian frontier, whereas to Manchuria there is only one.

Lord Kitchener was among the first to realize the gravity of the situation created by the construction of the new railway. He is peculiarly and prominently a railway general. By railways he conquered the Soudan; by the help of railways he crushed the last vestiges of Boer resistance in South Africa. It thus was not inappropriate that, after he had accomplished his activity, much though his presence as organizer and reformer was needed in England at the War Office.

His first step on reaching India was to consider the disposition of Indian defence, which had before his coming been dealt with insufficient attention. But a small part of the Indian army was available for war on the frontier. The sum allotted to the Indian army was inadequate, amounting to only £17,000,000, and had remained for many years at or about the same figure, though the danger had steadily grown.

After a hard fight the vote for military purposes has been raised till it now stands at about £22,000,000 sterling, an amount which Mr. Brodrick states has been further increased to guarantee India against external aggression.

THE COMPLETE FORCES. Consequently a complete reorganization of the army has been carried out in the teeth of vigorous opposition from those who did not realize that force alone can ward off the attacks of force. The troops available for work on the frontier, under the most favorable conditions, have been raised to about 160,000 men. Even this total is not a large force with which to meet the possible Russian invasion. To-day the Russian Government should have achieved India as the Japanese alliance be extended the situation would be transformed by a stroke of the pen. But even so, Japan cannot be asked to defend India for us. India must be prepared to bear some considerable part of the burden, and the United Kingdom, which enforces upon India free trade in the interests of British manufacturers, must also be ready to bear its share.

The policy of Lord Kitchener has been to render India self-dependent. In the past, artillery, ammunition, rifles, saddlery, and all the thousand-and-one requisites of an army had to be obtained from England and Europe. In the event of war a prompt stop might be put to the supply by hostile cruisers. Lord Kitchener has, therefore, taken precautionary steps. A cordite factory has been opened in southern India which can turn out powder as good as that produced at Waltham Abbey, and this at a saving to the Indian taxpayer. A rifle factory is nearly ready to begin turning out rifles at Lahapore, and here again a substantial saving to the Indian Government will result. Artillery is to be manufactured in the same way, while gun carriages will be produced at immense works at Jubbulpore. A larsabue factory at Cawnpore will be able to meet all the demands of the Indian army. Thus self-dependence in every direction is being attained.

TRANSPORT OF ARMY Thus India will have to rely upon her own resources for weeks or perhaps months, though British fleets have gained decisive victories over their possible antagonists. Notwithstanding optimistic assurances to the British public, the Admiralty refuses to guarantee safe transport in the initial stages of a great war.

TRAINING OF THE TROOPS The organization and training of the Indian troops are now being conducted with a view to efficiency in war, and however much the lessons of the campaign in South Africa have been overlooked in England, they are not being ignored in India. The troops are brought together in large masses so that their commanders may learn how to handle great bodies of men; the brigades and divisions in peace are trained under the generals who would lead in war. Transport for a great army is being provided, so as to enable the troops rapidly to take the field. For the higher instruction of officers an Indian Staff College will be opened this summer at Deolali, which will be ultimately changed for Quetta. Arrangements have been perfected for the supply of horses and remounts, always a difficult problem, as the South African war showed.

Not the least important of Lord Kitchener's reforms has been the reorganization of the Indian police, by which, at a cost of one million sterling, armed corps of police will be provided to keep order when the army is at the front.

That all these measures have cost money goes without saying. You cannot have security for nothing, and though Japan manages her defences on a ridiculously small sum, who does it only because her people have accepted compulsory service, and are imbued with a spirit of devoted self-sacrifice which, unhappily, is paralleled in few western communities. But the wealth of India is growing by leaps and bounds, so that if the burden increases, so also does this capacity to bear it increase.

Lord Kitchener

All Records Broken At Yesterday's Races

The Peterboro Turf Club Yesterday Kept All Promises, Gave Clean, Fast Races, and Satisfied All Their Patrons--The Track Fast and in Great Condition for the Races.

Yesterday marked a new era in the history of racing in this city.

It is an open secret that the past history of horse racing in Peterboro has not, at times, been altogether above suspicion of collusion, and charges have been made sometimes that the best horse did not always pass the wire first of the bunch.

Yesterday, the present active management of the Peterboro Turf Club, demonstrated that they can, and did, put on some of the best, fairest, and most interesting races an audience ever watched.

To Messrs. J. M. Brooks, R. J. Munroe, and Arthur Rountree, the leading factors in making yesterday's races so successful, and Messrs. R. S. Jackson, and Elliott, and other members of the Turf Club, who so ably supported their executive, belongs and, was yesterday given, the credit of raising the standard of the noble sport of racing, in Peterboro, to a level equal to that of any city in the world. The races yesterday were above suspicion, were as well contested, and were witnessed by as well pleased an audience as ever gathered at any race track in Canada.

The unfortunate contretemps of rain on Wednesday, of necessity, prevented as large an attendance, at the opening races, as would otherwise have gathered at the track; still, yesterday's attendance was composed of some 800 people, including many of the leading citizens of Peterboro.

Scores of people from Port Hope, Lindsay, Cobourg, Belleville, Kingston, Toronto, Buffalo, and other towns and cities took in the races and were unanimous in praising the track, the races and the management.

The track was as near perfection as could be wished for; Mr. Smith, proprietor of the Buffalo Horse World, the official starter, said the track was the best 1-2 mile track in Canada.

On the judges' stand were Mr. F. Smith, official starter; the judges, Messrs. J. G. Martin, Stouffville; Fred Pyke, Campbellford, and W. Leahy, Lakefield; the time keepers, Messrs. Alex. Elliott and R. J. Munroe, and Mr. C. H. Clementi, clerk of the course.

From when the bell first summoned the drivers to the 2.28 class race, the 1st event, until the last heat was run in the free for all, not a word of protest was heard from any person in this large audience or from drivers or owners.

The first race started was the 2.28 class, for a purse of $150, divided into four prizes of $75 $37.50, $22.50, and $15. The horses in this race finished as follows:—

Miss Paisley	1	1	1
Minnie Bell	2	2	2
Sir Oliver M...	3	3	3
White Blaze	4	4	4

In this race as George Powell was driving Minnie Bell to the wire for place in the 2nd heat, the mare suddenly reared and fell backward over the driver and sulky; Mr. Powell escaped with a broken rib, and had a

A Peterboro Product

Toronto Papers Speak Very Highly of Goods Made in This City

Concerning a product that is bound to advertise Peterboro wherever gourmands are found and who appreciate the good things of life, the Toronto News, referring to a leading locally manufactured and widely advertised product, says;

"Canada Flakes is the name of a new package of flaked wheat cereal just placed upon the market. It is manufactured by the Peterboro Cereal Co. of Peterboro, and the special claim they make for it, as per their catch phrase, is that it is "A little better than the best—A little bigger than the rest."

The Petero Cereal Co. have one of the most complete plants possible for the treatment of cereals of all kinds. Equipped with all the elaborate machinery necessary for the modern high grade flour mill, it insures that the initial stages of cleaning the wheat shall be absolutely perfect. The greatest care is taken to see that the wheat is absolutely clean. Separators first remove all foreign grains from the wheat, which is afterwards thoroughly scoured and brushed. The washing process eliminates the last trace of dust and this grain is then ready for the cooking process, which demands about 15 hours' time altogether. Revolving air-tight tanks, under steam pressure, cook the wheat in its whole state perfectly and evenly. Not an atom of the starch within can possibly be left unchanged, and not even the odor escapes.

The malting and flavoring process follow, and then the grain passes to the big rollers for flaking. Into the automatic ovens is the next step. Great woven steel belts here convey the damp flakes a distance of about 200 feet over vast coils of steam pipes until the grain is thoroughly desiccated, when it passes over an array of innumerable gas jets, which toasts every flake to that fine, brown, crispy state peculiar to Canada Flakes. This food is now conveyed to large metallic bins from which, by an automatic weighing machine, it passes into the package ready for sealing.

Every portion of the whole process demands thorough sterilization. From golden grain to package form no human hand touches Canada Flakes. Automatic conveyers, automatic oven, everything possible automatic, means that every flake will be the same, perfectly cooked, perfectly toasted, perfectly sterilized.

This mill is operated entirely by electricity, the special feature of Peterboro. The efficiency of this, coupled with its extremely low cost, enables the Company to produce the large 25c. package of Canada Flakes to sell at 15c.

Within a short distance of the mill is the famous lift lock of Peterboro, a picture of which appears on the Canada Flake package, along with some interesting facts relative to its size and cost."

Local Consular Change

Mr. R. J. Hemmick, an American, Replaces a Canadian U. S. Representative.

Those of our readers who have had occasion to ship any kind of merchandise to the United States during the past fifteen years, will remember when Mr. A. V. R. Young, since deceased, was appointed the first American Consul Agent in Peterboro, and how, in 1897, Mr. Frank J. Bell, was appointed to the office. Mr. Bell has received an intimation from the 3rd Assistant Secretary of State at Washington that reads as follows;

Frank J. Bell, in Charge of American Consular Agency, Peterboro, Ont.

Sir,—The President having appointed Roland J. Hemmick of Pennsylvania, Commercial Agent at Peterboro, you are instructed to deliver to him the records and archives of the office, the seals, flags and arms, together with the revised statutes, the Statutes at Large, consular regulations and all other books and property in your possession belonging to the United States upon his application therefore.

This does not mean that any reflection has been cast on Mr. Bell's fitness for the office or that he has in any way neglected to fill every requirement of his position, but simply that this city has grown to a position of sufficient importance in the mercantile and industrial world, to authorize the Washington Government in sending a full-fledged American citizen here to represent the United States.

This is an elevation for the office here as formerly, in being a Consular Agency, reports were made to Mr. H. P. Dill, the Consul at Port Hope, whereas under the new arrangement returns will be sent direct to the Department of State at Washington

The foreign corporations declare that they will make claims against the Russian Government. The claimants number about 400, and the total losses are now estimated at $60,000,000.

HE MARRIED ONTARIO GIRL

Boer Officer From Brighton Beach Show Gets an Heiress

MET HER FIRST IN PARIS

Had Her Dying Mother's Assent to Marriage so Didn't Worry About the Father's

New York, July 14.—A wedding at the end of a romance of several years' duration explained the sudden disappearance of Lieut. Fritz Everhardt from the Boer forces at Brighton Beach yesterday.

Everhardt was one of the best looking officers at Spickhit and carried sixteen medals for bravery which he won fighting with the Boers.

Before the war he had been the assistant to Mr. Leyds and had been attached to the Boer delegation at Paris.

In Paris he met Arthur Edward Lawson, an Englishman, who is now chief of the Customs Bureau at Windsor, Ontario. He also fell in love with Dorothy Lawson, who was travelling with her father, and she returned his love.

About the time the show appeared at Brighton Beach, Miss Lawson registered at the Brighton Beach Hotel. She attracted attention by the beauty of her gowns, but was accompanied in her walks only by a maid.

Other officers in the show knew Everhardt and Miss Lawson were engaged, and were not greatly surprised yesterday when Everhardt was absent from roll call, and Capt. Lewis received a note from him saying he was going away and was to marry Miss Lawson before the letter was dead.

In a note to a friend Everhardt said:

"Miss Lawson's wealth always had inclined me to keep apart from her in view of her father's opposition, but having her dying mother's consent, I believe the fact she is an heiress is no longer an obstacle."

VAST RICHES FOUND IN TEXAS

Ledge Discovered Containing Great Deposits of Gold

Austin, Texas, July 14.—J. J. Terrel, state land commissioner, was informed today that a ledge of gold and silver ore of fabulous richness has been discovered in Kinney County. The ledge is several feet wide and six miles long. Assays show the ore value of the ledge averages $1,000 gold—and $100 silver to the ton.

NORWAY CLAIMS DESIRE FOR WAR

All Her Interests Are Furthered by Peace—War Would Be Disastrous

SWEDE PRESS RESPONSIBLE

Norway Has Acted Honorably From Start to Finish of the Affair

Christiana, July 14. — "Dr. Sven Hedin himself must know that his contention is false," said a prominent diplomat here to your correspondent this morning.

"Why should Norway attack Sweden?

"A more foolish statement was never made.

"The whole world now knows that in Sweden a passionate war party exists and manifests itself in daily inducements to attack Norway.

"All sorts of stories are spread to create Swedish hostility to Norway. The world must have seen sufficient proofs of Swedish war methods. Has the world heard anything like this from Norway's side?

"Norway's first word after the rupture was to hope for a peaceful settlement. In this hope all Norway has ever since joined.

"The respectable Swedish press has now examined the frontiers, especially at a place called Tydalen, where it was said 4,000 Norwegian soldiers were mobilized. It testifies that there is not one soldier there.

"Norway is prepared to defend herself if attacked, but will never be so foolish as either to begin war or to provoke it.

"The Norwegian press has never returned the Swedish war cry. Besides these facts, there are also the Government's responsible declaration.

"Who is to be believed? A unanimous self-possessed nation whose dominant passion and interest is peace or a war party which is in obvious antagonism to the King, the Government and the majority of its fellow-countrymen in Sweden."

MANMOTH BUILDINGS FOR FRICK

Pittsburg to Have $10,000,000 Office Structure and Big Hotel

Pittsburg, July 14.—H. C. Frick has accepted the plans for the erection in this city of a $10,000,000 office building, designed to be the largest and best in the world. In addition he will build on Grant street, a twenty-story hotel, to be known as the Frick, and to take rank with the finest in any city. Mr. and Mrs. Frick sailed today for Bremen on the Kaiser Wilhelm II. from New York.

THE FORCES IN MANCHURIA

A General Battle There Would Eclipse Any in World's History

NEARLY A MILLION MEN

Some of Greatest Battles Had Less Than a Fourth as Many—Rains Will not Interfere

Paris, July 14.—If a battle takes place in Manchuria of any considerable import before the final treaty of peace between Russia and Japan it will be by far the greatest in the history of the world, discarding as legendary the wild Greek tales of Xerxes' army millions strong. The Japanese today have six armies in the field composed of 26 divisions and totaling a force of at least 600,000 men. Five of these great armies are understood as operating against General Linevitch, so that the force opposed immediately to him will be at least 500,000 strong, and it may be even larger. The Japanese force of artillery is estimated at 1,800 guns.

Figures even approximately correct of the Russian army are more difficult to get at. It is known that the Russian army has been reinforced since Mukden, but it is believed that it does not greatly exceed 350,000 men with 1,200 guns. If each side should bring into the battle its full quota of men, therefore, nearly 1,000,000,000 men and close upon 3,000 cannon will be engaged. The front of the Japanese armies covers about 100 miles, extending in one vast semicircle from the Liao River to the mountains south of Kirin, the two flanks being advanced towards the Russians.

In no battle of the past, at least not until the outbreak of the present war, have more than 500,000 men been lined up in opposing armies. The following were the totals engaged in some of the past historic battles from which the colossal scale of the present war can be understood:

Plevna, September, 1877	130,000
Sedan, September, 1870	244,000
Gravelotte, August, 1870	300,000
Sadowa, July, 1866	435,000
Gettysburg, July, 1863	320,000
Solferino, June, 1859	284,000
Waterloo, June, 1815	217,000
Leipsic, October, 1813	472,000
Borodino, September, 1812 ...	251,000

It will be seen that in the greatest battles of the past sometimes not one quarter, often not one half the number of men were lined up which now confront each other to the south-west of Kirin. The present difficulty of Japan is not in finding men, but in feeding the immense force which she has at the front. But on account of the water transportation the problems which confront the Japanese in this respect are not as serious as those which confront the Russians. Indeed if the Japanese should succeed in cutting the Siberian Railroad, something not impossible since their force apparently outnumbers the force of the Russians nearly two to one, it would be necessary for the Russians to surrender, to fight or to starve. Their stores on hand would not be sufficient to feed a third of a million for many days, and their only hope of future supplies would lie in the Siberian Railroad.

Reports to the effect that the "rainy season has begun" in Manchuria are watched with greater interest by the military critics and students of military strategy than the reports of peace negotiations, which are chiefly of interest to diplomatic students and critics. According to careful meteorological reports made by Count Hosie, at Niuchwang, the date of the beginning of the "rainy season" is about the second week in July. It was pointed out, however, at a very early period in the campaign of 1904, that the practically invariable rule of past history was that warlike operations were carried on in weather which disturbed the minds of the "oldest inhabitants," and led them to say that they never remembered such a thing happening before. From this it is deducted that local memories are faulty, all traditions false, or else the abnormal incidents of the season themselves change the state of the atmosphere and upset the best established traditions. Either that or else that "all signs fail in times of dry weather," or "wet weather," as the case may be. Failing, military men have the privilege of falling back upon this theory that the discharging of cannon as at a battle has its effect of bringing down rain from the clouds. This latter theory may account for many things which have happened provided it is justified instead of denied by scientific men, as at the present time.

The very phrase "rainy season" is in itself deceptive, because it has so many widely varying and widely different meanings in various localities. In Manchuria the whole rainfall of the year is small, scarcely 13 inches in all, and of this not half practically continuously, but in broken spells even in the ordinary times during the specially wet months of July and August. It is safe to predict therefore that during July and August of 1905 we shall have deluges which will temporarily check movement, provided all military movements are not permanently ended by peace, followed by fine hot weather, during which the roads will rapidly dry. The delays therefore will not be serious, but short. This was the condition of affairs which was experienced a year ago. It is no doubt from their previous knowledge of the climate that the leaders of the Mikado's army are able to say that except at particular points, and for a limited period operations will not be interrupted by the rain.

OLDEST WOMAN IN AMERICA DEAD AT 135

She Claimed to Have Been Born Before Revolution was Fought

Augusta, Ga., July 14.—The oldest person in Augusta, and probably the oldest in the United States, is dead from old age. Easter Mathews was her name. She was a colored woman and lived at No. 91 New Pine street. Her age was 135 years.

"Aunt Easter," as she was called, was born in 1770, and while in slavery she belonged to a number of prominent families of this city. She had for her last owners the Clayton family, and often spoke of Turner Clayton, in her last days.

One of the ways the old woman had of telling her age was that she remembered several years before the Springfield Baptist church was built in the city, and this institution is one hundred and five years old. She claimed that she remembered when the spot where the church now stands was in the swamp.

All Thin, Pale Women

Can Learn the Cause of Their Nervous, Used up Condition

With women ill-health is usually traceable to nerve exhaustion. Feeling run-down and tired most of the time is nature's warning that more nerve-force is required.

You must build up, nourish the body, vitalize the nerves, get more flesh and blood.

It's the abundant nutriment and building material in Ferrozone that enables it to cure so many sick women. It increases the appetite, adds weight and strength, restores lost color and develops a surplus of energy and nerve force that denies sickness of any kind. There is living proof in Mrs. Daniel Ferguson, Jr., of Prescott, Ont. Read her statement:

"A year ago my health failed. I grew thin and exceedingly pale. At night it was difficult to obtain restful sleep. My appetite was variable and indigestion bothered me considerably. I became morose, and suffered from heart palpitation. I did not could scarcely believe the benefit I derived in one week from Ferrozone. Color came back to my cheeks. My vitality and appetite increased, renewed nerve force and better spirits came also. Ferrozone did a world of good and made me well.

Remember this. No alcoholic stimulant can nourish and build up like Ferrozone. Fifty cents per box or six boxes for $2.50. At all dealers, or N. C. Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont., and Hartford, Conn., U.S.A.

FRATERNAL INSURANCE

A Michigan circuit judge handed down a decision a few days ago in a case where a member of the Catholic Mutual Benefit Association entered suit to restrain the supreme Council of that order from enforcing the increased rates of assessment, which has special significance to members of fraternal insurance orders in Canada. Williams joined the order in 1900, when 58 years of age. After he became a member a change was made in the rates of assessment, nearly doubling the amount of his contract when he united with the order, and he began suit. The circuit judge, in his decision, holds that when Williams joined the order a contract of insurance was made with him which the order has no right to change at its pleasure. This decision will apply to all orders, and just now will be of special interest to more than 5,000 members of the Royal Arcanum in the Dominion of Canada. As it is an important question, and the suit in the circuit court was in the nature of a test case, it will undoubtedly be taken up to the court of last resort, where it will be finally determined whether a contract made between an insurance order and its members can be changed at the will of the supreme council of the order. The judge, in a lengthy written decision, does not recognize that the wisdom and the necessity of the increase are controlling elements or factors in the case. "It is purely and wholly a question of the proper legal construction of the contract of insurance which the defendant association made with Mr. Williams in 1900." While it may be true that the rates of insurance were too low at the beginning, yet the judge does not see why that fact could justify the destruction of the contract. The contract under which Mr. Williams became a member of the C. M. B. A., in section six of the constitution, provides that "members shall be assessed according to their age when admitted, in accordance with the graded scale of assessments as prescribed by the beneficiary fund article, their assessment remaining the same thereafter," yet thirteen years after, without his consent and against his protest, his assessment was increased to nearly double the amount which he contracted to pay.

When fraternal insurance orders were first organized one of the great inducements offered to members was the low rate of monthly assessments. Thousands of young men joined these fraternal orders to make provision for their families in case of death; and it was a worthy object. Millions of dollars have been paid to the beneficiaries and the members generally paid their assessments promptly and without complaint. As years rolled by the men who joined when they were young and vigorous grew older, increasing the mortality list. In order to insure the benefits in case of death to families of members who had been contributors for years, a small increase was made in the assessment, and while there was some dissatisfaction created, the members generally paid the increased assessments. The rates have now increased in some cases to that they are nearly equal to the amount the old members would have to pay in the old line companies. It is true they have had the protection of the cheaper insurance during their younger years, but now, when they can possibly least afford it, they are called upon to pay beyond the means of a large number of the insured. In the old line companies extravagant salaries are paid to the officers and agents, yet the actual amount paid out each year to the beneficiaries of insurance policies is less than one-half of the total sum paid in for premiums.

The decision handed down by the Michigan circuit judge, a few days ago, may decide the question as to the right of the head councils of fraternal insurance orders to change the contracts with members already connected with them.

Cheap Wood

A Meeting to Consider the Establishment of Water Communication Between Lindsay and Minden

Referring to a project that would open up a fine section of country, useful to this city, as supplying us with good and cheaper wood, the Lindsay Post says;

There was a representative turnout of citizens at Monday night's meeting of the Board of Trade called to confer with a number of North Victoria and Haliburton county gentlemen respecting the feasibility of establishing water communication between Lindsay and Minden, by means of the Gull River, via Coboconk, Norland, Elliott's Falls and Moore's Falls. In this way steamer connection would be established between the grand Kawartha chain of waters and the magnificent series of lakes and rivers in Haliburton county—a work which would mean millions almost to the residents of these townships in providing a cheap outlet for the almost inexhaustible quantities of valuable hardwood timber tanbark, cordwood, poles and other kinds of forest produce at present unmarketable owing to the distance from a railway and the excessive freight rates.

The delegates who appeared before the Board of Trade promptly established themselves in the good opinion of all.

The following resolution was carried,—

That this Board of Trade of the town of Lindsay, having heard the delegation from the north country regarding the Gull River waters place on record its hearty approval of such a scheme as will enable these waters to be made navigable and connected with the present Trent Valley Canal waterways and that the Council of this Board are hereby authorized to act in conjunction with the representatives of the Provisional County of Haliburton in memorializing the Dominion Government, in the matter.

NOT ANXIOUS FOR WAR

Japan Implored Russia to Settle the Difficulty Without Going to War

Tokio, July 14.—The Anglo-Japanese Gazette says that the fate of the Baltic fleet when approaching the far East was destined to occur as happened, and the Japanese are by no means astounded over Admiral Togo's judgment. They simply recognize that he was commissioned to check the progress of the Russian armada. Togo's glory is Japan's glory, and the people do not boast of their Admiral's success, for they simply regard it as a duty due to the Emperor ably performed by a loyal servant of the Emperor,—they rejoice at the event, but they are not over joyed.

Some 400 years ago, after a decisive victory at the engagement of Serigahara, the conqueror, Ieyasu, who was the commanding general of the Eastern Army, said to his comrade on the embankment: "After victory tighten the strings of your helmet." This expression illustrates the martial spirit of the sons of Japan, and a victorious admiral or General does not lose sight of the fact that war is inevitably cruel. In the days of insurrection in Japan many warriors after conquest entered into monastic life.

The humanitarianism displayed by the warriors in Japan is always manifested in their dealings with their foes, and the mightier the foe the greater is the admiration of the Japanese.

It is not Japan's desire to crush Russia. Indeed, Japan was not desirous of war, but was compelled at length to appeal to the arbitrament of arms. Japan had humbly implored Russia to settle the difficulty without going to extremes.

Victory upon victory has been won by Japan, yet the people are not pleased with the waste of the soldier's marvelous energy over a mere soldiering venture. The success of Japan is well deserved. We prepared for eventualities, not to crush another nation, but for self-preservation. Japan's preparation for war was not aimed at Russia alone. If any other country had forcibly compelled us, we were ready to respond.

HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS

Any even numbered section of Dominion lands in Manitoba or the North-west Territories, excepting 8 and 26, which has not been homesteaded, or reserved to provide wood lots for settlers, or for other purposes, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one quarter section of 160 acres more or less.

ENTRY

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land to be taken is situate, or if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration Winnipeg, or the local agent for the district in which the land is situate, receive authority for some one to make entry for him. A fee of $10 is charged for a homestead entry.

HOMESTEAD DUTIES

A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required by the provisions of the Dominion Lands Act, and the amendments thereto, to perform the conditions connected therewith, under one of the following plans:

[1] At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years. It is the practice of the Department to require a settler to bring 15 acres under cultivation, or if he prefers he may substitute stock; and 20 head of cattle, to be actually his own property, with buildings for their accommodation, will be accepted instead of the cultivation.

2] If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased), of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

[3] If a settler was entitled to and has obtained entry for a second homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by residence upon the first homestead, if the second homestead is in the vicinity of the first homestead.

[4] If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

The term "vicinity" used above is meant to indicate the same township, or an adjoining or cornering township.

A settler who avails himself of the provisions of clauses [2], [3] or [4] must cultivate 30 acres of his homestead, or substitute 20 head of stock, with buildings for their accommodation, and have besides 80 acres substantially fenced.

The privilege of a second entry is restricted by law to those settlers only who completed the duties upon their first homesteads to entitle them to patent on or before the 2nd of June, 1889.

Every homesteader who fails to comply with the requirements of the homestead law is liable to have his entry cancelled and the land may again be thrown open for entry.

APPLICATION FOR PATENT

Should be made at the end of three years before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector. Before making application for patent the settler must give six months notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa of his intention to do so.

INFORMATION

Newly arrived immigrants will receive, at the Immigration Office in Winnipeg, or at any Dominion Lands Office in Manitoba or the North-west Territories, information as to the lands that are open for entry, and from the officers in charge, free of expense, advice and assistance in securing lands to suit them. Full information respecting the land, timber, coal and mineral laws, as well as respecting Dominion Lands in the Railway Belt in British Columbia, may be obtained upon application to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, Manitoba or to any of the Dominion Lands Agents in Manitoba or the North-west Territories.

W. W. CORY,
Deputy Minister of the Interior

N. B.—In addition to Free Grant Lands, to which the Regulations above stated refer, thousands of acres of most desirable lands are available for lease or purchase from railroad and other corporations and private firms in Western Canada.

HER PEASANTS ARE RUSSIA'S DANGER

The Agrarian Troubles Are More Serious Than the Industrial.

NINE-TENTHS OF PEOPLE

Germany is Russia's Greatest Foe From Without as Russia Will Realize

St. Petersburg, July 13.— Count Milutin-Potemkin said to a correspondent today:

"The danger that threatens the Empire is not to be found in the revolt in the Black Sea fleet. That assailed only life and property. The trouble is regrettable, but the fleet will soon be unnecessary. There is little fear of aggression on the part of Turkey.

"The navy's prestige went with the surrender of Nebogatoff. The dissatisfaction in the army is limited. The labor riots are unimportant. The industrial population constitutes only two per cent. of the population.

"On the other hand, the agrarian trouble is very grave.

"The movement is similar to that which took place under Emelian Putmatcheff, when the peasants over the greater part of the country and almost succeeded in wresting the government from the Czar.

"Conditions are worse now than then. The peasants are the sole taxpayers. The nobles, who own nine-tenths of the land, are exempt.

"The Muzzik soldier, who conquered vast territories amounting to one-sixth of the globe, has seen that land divided between the Czar and the nobles.

"Since the liberation of the serfs in 1866 the Muzzik have been paying installments on their holdings, but have never received titles to their property.

"The peasants, who constitute 90 per cent. of the population, own only one-tenth of the land; an average family lot of one-fourth of an acre.

"Taxation and rent are increasing. The peasant lacks seeds and agricultural implements. He is starving.

"When the Muzzik needs an advance, he sends his produce to the middleman, who allows him thirty kopecks for what is worth seventy-eight in the market.

"In imitation of Pugatcheff, the peasants spread stories concerning the Czar's brother, Grand Duke Michael.

"They say he is the Muzzik's friend, and has been unjustly deprived of succession to the throne by the Czarevitch's birth. They hint that the Ichnovniks (officials) have merely invented the story of the birth. Thus the superstitious peasants are in a state of great excitement.

"Unless an immediate remedy is provided, a bloody revolution is imminent. The Cossacks themselves are likely to join the Muzzik. Danger from outside Russia comes from Germany. Japan's interests do not antagonize us, but overpopulated Germany's eyes are cast on Russia's fertile prairies.

"Bismarck, abetted by our Germanized Grand Dukes, cleverly planted German colonies in this country.

"Alexander III. stopped this, but Witte, by promoting artificial industrialism, flooded Russia with German fakers, schemers for mechanics.

"German become our bullness language.

"The Kaiser considers Russia his colony and only recently wanted to occupy Poland on the pretext of desiring to quell the revolution. The scheme failed.

"The Czar realized the danger, but when, despite the machinations of the Kaiser, the Russian people have obtained peace and reforms they will assert their independence.

"A clash is imminent at St. Petersburg.

"At M. Kokovtzeff's last night a German financier who arranged the recent loan to Russia said to a correspondent: "The Washington conference as far as known will arrange that Russia assume Japan's loans and agree to pay for the expenses incurred in supporting the Russian prisoners in Japan.

"This latter sum will amount to $1,000,000,000.

"Russia will probably cede the Chinese railway to Japan and also give over the Island of Sakhalien. Thus new loans and and an excessive and undesirable influx of capital into Japan will be avoided.

"America and England, which hold the Japanese bonds, will thus become creditors of Russia, and will oppose unjust demands on the Czar.

"Russian bonds will be better than Japanese as Russian sources of credit are untouched. The industrial crisis does not affect the Czar's finances. The indirect taxes and customs overbalance the budget.

"The inland gold production covers the bond interest. The interior troubles are transient.

"The opposition is heterogeneous and powerless.

"The population is indifferent politically.

"It is likely that the peasants will receive more land. The majority of the nobles are in the service of the state. Industry is protected. Taxation is the smallest in Europe. The only dissatisfied element are foreigners. Partial reforms will straighten them out. In the coming decades Russia will be the best investment and market in Europe."

THE TRANSCONTINENTAL

r. Dennis O'Brien Appointed Assistant-General-Manager

Montreal, July 13.—Mr. Dennis O'Brien, formerly connected with the Grand Trunk Railway, has been appointed assistant to Frank W. Morse, vice-president and general manager of the Grand Trunk Pacific, with head offices at Winnipeg.

Mr. O'Brien has been in the service of the Grand Trunk for seventeen years, resigning the position of assistant master mechanic, only a short time ago. He will have charge of construction work on the new line in the west, and maintain a general supervision over the affairs of the company in that district.

His appointment is regarded as an evidence that active operations will begin for the building of the road from Winnipeg west, in a very short time. The company has already printed specifications in hand and several of the larger contractors have been approaching the management with a view to bidding for construction work on the branch from Lake Superior, north to the main line, and later from Winnipeg west to the Rocky Mountains.

DEATH COIL CATCHES TWO

Young Man Electrocuted in Presence of Women Friends

Trenton, N.J., July 13. — Walter Ewing, aged 20 years, a New York City telegraph operator, and Wesley Davidson, of Hopewell, aged 20 years, were both killed in Hopewell by contact with an electric light wire.

Ewing was on a visit to Hopewell to see his mother and Miss Matthews, his fiancee. He walked down the street a little after six o'clock with Davidson and his attention was attracted to a broken telephone wire hanging over a live electric wire. A dog sniffed at the wire and was shocked.

Ewing got two sticks and tried to poke the wire out of the way, although his sweetheart and his mother, who were in the party, tried to persuade him not to. He slipped and the live wire coiled about him. Davidson rushed to the aid of Ewing and he, too, was caught in the death coil, and both men were killed in the presence of the two women.

AMERICAN MONEY IN EUROPE

$100,000,000 Will Be Spent by Tourists This Year

London, July 12 — Tourists' exchanges estimate that at least 100,000 Americans are now in different sections of Europe. Not so many are to be found in London during the heated season as in the provinces and on the Continent. It is estimated that each American traveler expends on an average at least $1,000 while on this side of the Atlantic. According to these estimates of experts upon foreign exchange Europe this year will be $100,000,000 richer by reason of the influx.

FREE History and Production of the Goldfields of Boulder County, Colorado, Portraying Economic Conditions Which Predict the Coming Goldfields of Colorado and Presenting the Stock Offering of a Great Gold Mining Enterprise of the United States Gold Corporation FREE

Our booklet on the gold fields of Boulder County is off the press, and is being distributed free to investors. We have prepared this book to advertise the gold fields of Northern Colorado and our great gold mining enterprise. The books will be free for the asking while they last. It will tell you of how over fifty millions have been added to the world's wealth in production of gold, silver and copper under primitive methods and from surface workings of an average depth of not to exceed 250 feet. It will tell you of its great tungsten belt, the largest in the world. It will tell you of the existence of a diversity of precious and rare minerals, unrivaled by any other gold fields on this continent. It will tell you of a mineral area of twenty-five square miles literally covered with a network of veins practically undeveloped, with only one shaft below the thousand foot and half a dozen below the six hundred foot level. It will tell you of a gold field nearer to the Denver smelters than any other in Colorado; of a change of economic conditions, in this section, which will enable the miner to ship ore to the smelters, at a net profit, that is now being thrown over the dumps in other sections of Colorado; it will tell you of a field so attractive that it resulted in the construction of two railways from one end of the field to the other. It will tell you of the substitution of modern and up-to-date mining methods, in place of the primitive ones of the past; in short, it will tell you of all those conditions which predict for the gold fields of Boulder County the coming gold fields of Colorado.

It will also tell you of our great gold mining enterprise in the western part of the gold fields of Boulder County, near the continental divide, where nature has deposited her largest and richest treasure vaults; it will tell you of our economic development tunnel, driven to drain and develop a mineral estate almost a mile long and half a mile wide; of the thousands of tons of gold ore now blocked out and ready for shipment in the five different veins cut by this tunnel in driving it eight hundred feet, the result of two years steady development work night and day; of our wonderful discovery of molybdenite—a rare metal—in large commercial quantities, foretelling for us the first molybdenite mine in Colorado that is producing, as well as a large and permanent source of revenue, of our project to drive this tunnel, long before the end of this year, into the famous Fourth of July dyke or "Mother Lode," from which the far famed Caribou group of mines produced twenty million dollars in gold, silver and copper from 1869 to 1893; of the tremendous possibilities for ore production which will follow the cutting of a mineral dyke from 50 to 100 feet wide at a depth of a thousand feet, and the great probability of our opening the first great copper mine in Colorado when we reach this dyke with the tunnel In short, it will tell you of a gold mining enterprise that will go on a large producing basis long before the end of 1905; of an enterprise with possibilities second to none in Colorado, the developments of which have already shorn it of any element of risk or speculative features, rendering the investment offered safe and attractive one.

For the financial and commercial standing of the business men who stand back of this enterprise we refer you to the First National Bank, Boulder, Colo, or Bradstreets Commercial Agency

The edition will not last long. If you would be sure of securing a copy, write to day, or your name and address on a postal card, with the word "Booklet," will do the work.

RHEUMATISM

Lives in the Blood

Consequently it requires an internal treatment that will reach the blood, and thereby relieve the cause of the pain.

After years of experiment Dr. Hamilton discovered a certain remedy that quickly cures rheumatism, gout and all uric acid disorders. This purifies the blood, and when the blood is pure all pain disappears.

By taking Dr. Hamilton's Pills, and not Dr. Hamilton's Pills, cause a change in the body. The blood is restored to a normal healthy condition. Pain will go as it is natural to overworked organs, and thus the general health is built up, and no room is left for rheumatism to creep in.

A Cripple's Story of Use

"This is a glad day for me," writes James E. Brownell, from Midland, Ont., "because I can speak of permanent cure of rheumatism. I have been all through the aching days and sleepless nights, have spent my money on worthless remedies, and consequently increased Dr. Hamilton's Pills. I feel sure of their merit. No remedy gave such relief or did me so much good as Dr. Hamilton's Pills. My rheumatism is cured, and ever since my health has been perfect."

When Dr. Hamilton's Pills are to be had in any drug store, it's foolish to live on in misery and ill-health. You ought to get this medicine today and cure yourself. Price 25c. per box, or five boxes for $1 at all dealers, or by mail from N. C. Polson & Co., Hartford, Conn., U.S.A., and Kingston, Ont.

Mr. David H. Stewart, formerly of Norwood, now of Pickford, Mich., returned home after an absence of twenty-five years. On reaching Peterboro yesterday, he met his cousin Mr. Lang, M.P., who told him that his mother was still alive and well, though Mr. Stewart believed her dead for years, the report of her death having reached him when roughing it in the Klondyke, and as she was the only near relative he became careless about writing and today was rejoiced to hear the good news. He left for Norwood last night to see her, and hopes to induce his mother to come back with him to his home on a farm in Pickford.

Little T. H. Armstrong, Run Over and Injured by Falling From a Buggy.

Much commiseration and pity is being extended to Mr. and Mrs. John J. Armstrong of Aylmer street. Only recently the death of their ten months' old son occurred, and yesterday a very severe accident happened to their little boy, Thomas Henry, who is only nine years old. Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong were driving to Mr. father's, Mr. Irwin, in Emily Township, and three children were seated in the back of the democrat. While they were proceeding along the line road in Smith township, the boy fell out and before anything could be done to save him, the wheel of the rig had passed over his head inflicting a serious cut on one side. It was thought at first that the jaw had been broken, but upon the lad being brought to town for medical treatment, this was found not to be the case. The little fellow suffered considerable pain, but he is now doing nicely at Nicholls' hospital.

Inspection Over.

Mr. Errett Has Completed Annual Inspection of the Whole County of Peterboro.

Mr. R. W. Errett, Inspector of Weights and Measures, has completed his annual inspection of this county. He has recently inspected all the scales, weighing machines and weights in use in the townships of Burleigh, Anstruther and Chandos, and found that our north county neighbors are as honest in their weights and measures as in the city. Errett's total collections for this year for fees amounts to $509.95, which is more than ever collected before in the county of Peterboro. Mr. Errett reports that the roads in Anstruther, from Apsley and Haddington P.O., are in a terrible state; as these roads pass through a most fertile country, some of the finest timber land in Canada, the Ontario Government might well make an appropriation for roads that will bring rich products to this city.

New Apparel for the 57th Regiment.

The new tunics for the members of the 57th Regiment have arrived from the militia stores department, Ottawa, and are now at the drill hall here. The requisition for new tunics was sent to headquarters about six weeks ago and it was expected they would reach here in time for the men to wear them on their trip to Ottawa. The fact that they did not came when expected, created some disappointment. The tunics will not be numbered and issued to the men until next spring as the drill season is over for this year.

"For about two years I suffered from a very obstinate case of dyspepsia," writes R. K. Secord, Esq., of 13 Eastern Ave., Toronto, Ontario. "I tried a great number of remedies without success. I finally lost faith in them all. I was so far gone that I could not for a long time bear any solid food in my stomach; felt melancholy and depressed. Some four months ago a friend recommended your 'Golden Medical Discovery.' After a week's treatment I had derived so much benefit that I continued the medicine. I have taken three bottles and am convinced it has in my case accomplished a permanent cure. I can conscientiously recommend it to the thousands of dyspeptics throughout the land."

A man can succeed and be strong if he heeds Nature's warnings. When there is indigestion, loss of appetite, ringing in the ears, dizziness, spots before the eyes or palpitation of the heart; any or all of these symptoms point to weakness and loss of nutrition. Dr Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is the medicine to turn to.

"Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol and is entirely free from opium, cocaine and all other narcotics. It is strictly a temperance medicine.

Miss Ester Vass Becomes the Bride of Mr. W. J. Connor.

A very pretty, though quietly celebrated, ceremony was the marriage on Wednesday evening at the residence of Mrs. William Vass, the bride's mother, of Miss Esther Vass and Mr. W. J. Connors, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Mr. Major, rector of All Saints' church.

The bridesmaid was Florence Connors, sister of the groom, and Mr. W. Jones was best man. Only the immediate friends and relatives were present, and after the knot was tied a dainty supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Connors were the recipients of many handsome gifts and congratulatory favors. The happy couple will reside on Romaine street.

All Records Broken at Yesterday's Races

FREE FOR ALL RACE.

This was one of the most closely contested and best races that not alone Peterboro, but any city, ever saw. In this race the best record ever made in a race on the local track was beaten, Helen R, owned by Perry & Tracy, Poughkeepsie, N.Y., doing the mile in 2.16 1-4, and when this record was made, the official starter, Mr. Smith, of Buffalo, specially commented on such a record being made in the face of such a tremendous wind as was then taking over the course. In this race the first three heats looked as though Helen R would carry off the last purse, but she was evidently tired out towards the end. As the horses came to the [illegible] in the second heat, Helen R reared like Powell's Minnie Bell did shortly before, and her driver fell off; the mare then ran a full mile and a half having the track all to herself, until finally captured. This caused some delay as she was so blown from her long hard played round the track, the starter had to let her catch her wind. In the second heat of this race, Dr. Johnston withdrew his horse, Billy P. The purse was divided as follows; 1st, $100; 2nd, $50; 3rd, $35. The winners were:

Hal Patron	4	4	1	1	1
Helen R.	2	1	2	2	3
Dr. H.	1	2	3	3	2
Minnie Kenlock	3	3	4	4	4

The time for All race was pronounced by Mr. Smith, the starter, to be "As pretty and fair a race as I ever saw in all my long experience."

THE RUNNING RACE

was started from the barrier by Judge Martin, who gave them a grand send off. The race run in 1.19 1-2, was close and evoked much applause. The World was named by competent judges as choice, but Mr. Pirrie's horse, Chatelaine, won by a head with The World 2nd, and My Henry 3rd.

The race, 3-4 mile dash, was for a purse of $150 divided into three prizes of $80, $37.50 and $22.50.

The betting did not have much doing, the odds being low. In the running race little or no play was made on Chatelaine, The World being considered favorite. On this race the books cleaned up about $95. The Lily to Rose bean bet on Chatelaine awarded 2 to 1 in favor of Chatelaine.

To-day's Races for $300

Will be even better than yesterday's as some rivalry was created that only a good turf defeat to-day will wipe out. The ladies yesterday were informed with the order that was kept and the gentlemanly conduct in evidence everywhere; the ladies also appreciated the upholstering of the grand stand seats, which saved their dresses and made more pleasant seating. The grand stand for to-day's races will permit entrance for 15 cents instead of 25 cents as usual.

The Delineator for August

From the standpoint of fashion the August Delineator is a most attractive number, portraying the midsummer styles in all their charm and variety; and it contains, besides this fashions, many features of interest to the general reader and practical householder. The first chapters of a new serial story by Helen M. Winslow is an item of note; it is called "At Spinster Farm" and relates the actual experience of a woman who forsook the busy city for the countryside, and found there real peace and happiness. "The Lucky Piece" is continued, and there are also short stories by Cyrus Townsend Brady and Lynn Roby Meekins. Of general interest are articles on "Old-Fashioned Time-pieces," and "Old-Time Summer Resorts," and on Martin Luther's famous hymn, "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God." Mothers will find Dr. Murray's paper on "Feeding the Child," well worth reading, and for the children themselves there are entertaining stories and pastimes, including an "Animal Fairy Tale" by L. Frank Baum, and a "Ben Riley Rabbit" story. Home plans and Housekeeping ideas and suggestions in cookery and other

The Delegates Are Now All for Peace.

Russia's Appointees Are Now Unanimous and They Will Probably Work Well Together --M. Witte's Selection Makes for a Successful Termination of Peace.

St. Petersburg, July 14.—M. Witte's appointment as chief of the Russian peace plenipotentiary was announced to-day in the Official Messenger in the following words;

"Owing to the serious illness which overtook M. Muravieff, on his arrival in St. Petersburg, which made it impossible for him to familiarize himself at short notice with the considerable material connected with the negotiations, his Majesty, the Emperor, has been pleased to appoint president of the Committee of Ministers M. Witte to the post of hief plenipotentiary."

Spontaneously all parties recognize that M. Witte's selection makes for a successful termination of the peace negotiations. The mere fact that the Emperor at last yielded to the pressure for his appointment, is accepted as being a complete assurance that his Majesty is sincerely determined to end the conflict and make peace, if a possible basis is obtainable. Every influence which championed M. Witte was for peace, while, on the contrary, in every instance those who opposed him were for a prolongation of the struggle.

MIRSKY TO RETURN

France, through Ambassador Meliboff, strongly urged him for the post, but the main credit for M. Witte's selection belongs to Foreign Minister Lamsdorff, who never ceased to press for his selection. Count Lamsdorff and M. Witte are now in close alliance, and when M. Bouligin retires from the Ministry of the Interior all the Ministers will at last be in harmony, especially should Prince Svatopolk-Mirsky, as rumored to-day intimates, return to the head of the Ministry of the Interior. The papers here generally were not aware last night that M. Witte's appointment was an accomplished fact, but with one voice they voice their satisfaction. Even the Novoe Vremya which has not believed that an honorable peace is possible, seems willing to trust the issue in M. Witte's hands.

ALL ARE FOR PEACE

The St. Petersburg Gazette dwells especially upon the confidence with which his appointment will inspire the Tokio Government, where M. Witte's opposition to the whole policy of commercial and military adventure in Manchuria and Korea is well known. The paper reviews his steady struggle against the influences which precipitated the war, and moreover points out that M. Witte's selection insures harmony among the Russian plenipotentiaries and delegates, as Baron Rosen shares M. Witte's views and M. Pokolitoff and M. Shipoff were trained under him while he was Minister of Finance, and belongs distinctively to the Witte school. In conclusion, the St. Petersburg Gazette says; "There is nothing so important during the negotiations as complete unity of opinion."

M. Muravieff has already departed for Rome to resume his post as Ambassador.

An Enormous Wheat Crop in the West.

100,000,000 Bushels the Estimate Made by Mr. W. Whyte--Thirty Thousand Laborers will be Required--The C.P.R. Making Big Preparations.

Toronto, July 15.—One hundred million bushels is the extent of this year's Western wheat crop, according to an estimate made by Mr. William Whyte, second vice-president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, and manager of the Western division. Mr. Whyte arrived in Toronto yesterday afternoon, and in conversation with a newspaper man stated that he based his estimate upon the fact that there are four million acres under wheat and that the yield will be equal to that of 1901, when 25 bushels per acre was the average. There is also a large increase this year in the acreage under barley and oats crop.

New locomotives and cars of the largest capacity are being delivered to the Canadian Pacific every week in preparation for the moving of this cargo. Mr. Whyte predicted that his road would be able to handle 100 cars per day from Winnipeg to Lake Superior.

The prices which will be secured for wheat this year, Mr. Whyte predicted, will be good. He based the expectation on the fact that the Russian crop will be comparatively small as a result of the war, and that the United States area under cultivation has not increased in proportion to the increase in that country's population.

The railway man expects to handle some 50,000 head of cattle from the West for the markets of Toronto, Montreal and Europe. Besides this from 10,000 to 15,000 head would be shipped to the Yukon and British Columbia. The sheep industry had also grown immensely.

The Canadian Pacific Railway has been making tests of all Western coals, and Mr. Whyte expressed the belief that the company will be able to buy fuel from Canadian sources more advantageously than from Pennsylvania.

ONTARIO REVENUE GROWS RAPIDLY.

Toronto, July 14.—The ordinary Provincial revenue for the first six months of this year shows an increase of $150,000 over the six preceding months of last year. Col. Matheson, the Provincial Treasurer, stated this morning that there had been a heavy falling off, however in the receipts from bonuses on timber sales.

Board of Works Meet

Last night a meeting of the Board of Works was held in the City Clerk's office, at which no business of general public interest was transacted. Ald. Frank Adams occupied the chair. Mr. J. W. Bennett appeared and spoke, at some length, in reference to the sewer connecting the Hurnanan property. Other sewer and similar routine work was discussed, but nothing of interest to the public was brought before this meeting.

To Make Pure

Biscuit, cake, rolls, muffins, dumplings, etc., a pure leavening agent is indispensable.

While the Royal Baking Powder is reported absolutely pure and healthful, the official reports show most other baking powders, as well as the cream of tartar of the market depended upon by many housekeepers for raising biscuit and cake, to contain either alum, ammonia or sulphuric acid.

The Government Analyst of Ontario says:

"As a result of my investigation, I find the Royal Baking Powder far superior to the others. It is pure, contains none but wholesome ingredients, and is of greatest strength."

AN ARMED UPRISING

PEACEFUL MEANS IN RUSSIA NO LONGER TOLERATED

Plans for a Revolution now Said to be Complete by Workingmen of the Empire

Berlin, July 15—Tired of peaceful means the Russian social democratic workmen's party will organize an armed uprising against the autocracy.

A resolution to that effect will be adopted by this party at the third congress to be held at Munich soon.

This plan is as out

Groups of native socialists will be delegated to take charge of the different districts, with a view to instruct workmen on the practical methods of resisting troops and also in the political aims of the revolution. Energetic work for the arming of the people will also be undertaken.

Russia will re-arm the parties agitators, who will give the signal for revolution

They will also arrange for simultaneous strikes which will be turned into revolutionary paths.

Milk Inspection

"Freezin," a New "Dope" for Milk Possibly Used Here

There is a feeling of nervousness prevailing in the city as to a possibility that the new drug compound, called "Freezin," mixed in with milk to prevent it souring, is being used by some of the local venders. One or two local milk merchants have been heard lately enquiring about this preparation, and it is not beyond possibility that some are now using it.

All towns and cities the size of Peterboro protect their citizens, and in particular infants and children, by appointing a milk inspector to see that the purity and strength of the milk is guaranteed. In this city, which has no such official, people are completely at the mercy of some half hundred peddlers of milk. What guarantee have the housewives of Peterboro, that they get with every quart of milk, the cream originally mixed in by the cow's lacteal dispensary?

Some steps should be taken to have a means of checking and testing the milk supplied to the infants of this city.

Local Medicos Meet.

All Contract Work for Lodges, Etc. Considered "Infra Dig."

On Thursday evening the local medical fraternity met in solemn conclave in the Ontario Bank chambers. Two most important matters were discussed, that of the adoption of a schedule of prices, and contract work.

In respect to the former the physicians decided to adopt a new schedule of charges, but the officers of the society were instructed not to furnish copies of the schedule to the press at the present time, the reason being that it was hardly complete, some additions having to be made to it.

In discussing the question of contract work, it was decided that after January 1st, 1906, no doctor in the association would accept such work. This means that after that date, lodges, factories, insurance companies, etc., will have to make some new provision to have their work done. Nearly all the large factories in town, and a majority of the lodges, have arrangements made with doctors by which their employees or members, as the case may be, are given medical attention for a certain lump sum each year.

It is felt by the doctors that this system is an injustice, both to those who accept the contract to do this work, and the other doctors, interfering as it does in many cases with the practice of having a family doctor.

WILL KING OSCAR HELP THE KAISER?

Rumors of a German-Swedish Alliance Denied by the Berlin Foreign Office.

Berlin, July 15.—The substance of the statement made at Stockholm yesterday to the effect that a German-Swedish alliance was seriously contemplated, was submitted to the Foreign Office here to-day and the authoritative statement was made that the question of an alliance between Germany and Sweden had never come before the Foreign Office, nor had it been discussed to the slightest extent. Of course the Foreign Office could not deny that Emperor William and King Oscar had not spoken of an alliance during their interview at Gelle yesterday, because the subjects of their conversation are not known here.

GERMAN FLEET FOR SWEDEN'S WATERS

Consternation in the Troubled Council of Sweden

WAR LORD'S COUP D'ETAT

While not a Hostile Act the Swedes Fear it may Portend Undue Exercise of German Influence

Stockholm, July 15.—Consternation prevails throughout the country over the sudden announcement that a German armada, consisting of twelve battleships, eleven cruisers and ten torpedo boats will make a demonstration at five different points in Swedish waters between July 29 and August 1.

Gothenberg and Uddevalla will be visited on the west and Stockholm, Karlskrom and Sarrboung on the East. No foreign fleet of such proportions ever came to Sweden before. The disposition of the squadrons will amount to a blockade of the entire Swedish coast. It is not too much to say that this unexpected and unsolicited visit of the Kaiser's navy, while not considered a hostile act excites astonishment bearing on alarm.

ALL AT A LOSS.

Nobody, not even the government officials are able to offer an explanation. The newspapers refrain from comment because, as editors confidentially inform your correspondent, of their astonishment at this outbreak of William's favorite policy of surprise and mystification.

If he intends it as a token of friendship, it is asserted that he has overdone it, and that he ought to have chosen a more amiable and less disquieting form of amity than girdling Sweden with a formidable cordon of battleships. Stockholm was aroused last night by the roars of salutation guns in the inner harbor.

When the smoke cleared the German coast defence cruiser Aegir was found anchored near the palace, having arrived without notice notwithstanding that Stockholm ten days ago was officially declared a war harbor and inaccessible to foreign men of war.

Swedish susceptibilities are further injured by the information that the German general staff has detailed officers to investigate the state of military preparations in Sweden and Norway.

THE CONFERENCE.

The King is accompanied by the Crown Prince, Count Gyldenstolpe and Gen. Gadd, and the chief of the general staff.

The Stockholm Government is nervous lest foreign recognition of Norwegian independence be given before Sweden has formally dissolved the union.

King Oscar will invoke the influence of the Kaiser to prevent premature foreign action which would embarrass Sweden in dealing with the crisis. It is believed that William will give satisfying assurances and that he will also undertake that no Hohenzollern will accept the throne of Norway.

It is reported that an executive council of state held in the palace yesterday dealt with the reconstruction of the Ministry in obedience to the popular demand and resolved to exercise more governmental firmness toward Norway.

Mr. James Stadling, the famous Sociologist, declares that the union crisis is tremendously augmenting both Swedish and Norwegian emigration to America.

CANADA INVESTS MONEY IN CUBA

Montrealers Place Many Millions in Railways

SIR WILLIAM VAN HORNE

His Return After Inspecting the Railways of Cuba

Montreal, July 15. — Sir William Van Horne, accompanied by his secretary, has returned to the city, after an inspection of the Cuban railway enterprises in which he is interested, with several other Canadian capitalists. He found everything in the best possible condition and, like other investors in the new island republic, is satisfied that his money is well placed.

The Havana Central Railway, of which Mr. Edwin Hanson, of Montreal, is president, and in which many Canadians are interested, has awarded contracts for the construction and equipment of a great electric railway system in Cuba. The company is to operate a network of interurban lines radiating from the city of Havana and covering an extensive territory in the interior of the island, which hitherto has been without transportation facilities. About 125 miles are to be constructed in the first instance, involving an expenditure of nearly $5,000,000. The road, besides catering for passenger traffic, will have a freight service for fruits, vegetables and other products. One branch will extend clear across the island to Rosario, sub-stations to be located at Cuatro, Caminos, Lomas de Candela, and Providencia. The second line will run from Havana seventeen miles south to Bejucal, with a sub-station at Santiago de Las Vegas. The third line, running south-west from Havana to Marsel, will have a length of thirty-seven miles, and branch lines running north and south to El Carmel, Santiago de Las Vegas, and Tuira de Melena, amounting to about thirty miles. The power house will be constructed in Havana, and will operate 7,500 horse-power of electric energy at 12,000 volts. The initial rolling stock for passenger service will consist of 24 30-ton cars, holding 50 passengers, and equipped with four motors, geared for a maximum speed of 40 miles an hour.

Sir William Van Horne.

Closing Day of the Peterboro Race Meet

The Local Turf Club Have Given New Life to Horse Racing in Peterboro--Fast Horses, Splendid Track, Good Officals and Management Above Reproach--Finest Races Ever Witnessed in Peterboro.

All honor, from lovers of good clean sport, is due and universally given to the Peterboro Turf Club for the races of the past two days, which, in management, lack of protests, and general appreciation by both audience and participants to the different events, exceed, in almost every respect, anything this city has ever witnessed of the kind. To the Peterboro Turf Club, great praise is given by all attending the track during Thursday and Friday's races, for the efficient and unselfish work they devoted towards making our local races a success. It would be invidious to say to whom in particular is due the success of the meet, but we might say that the whole Peterboro Turf Club, officials, directors and members, have, this summer, raised the standard of racing, in this city, to a point where a Peterboro horse race will be synonymous for fair play, good purses and large attendance.

The first event yesterday was the 2.40 class, in which the prize winners in order of merit, with their places in the several heats stood

Joe Allen	1 1 1
Dan Finister	2 2 2
Happy Harry	3 4 4
Miss Paisley	4 5 3

The first heat in the 2.40 class was considered the prettiest heat ever run on this track, not a head and neck between the first three and not half a length between the first and fourth horse at the finish. After the first heat Starter Smith remarked to the audience, "This is the prettiest heat I ever saw on a one-half mile track."

The 2.19 class, although from a casual glance, might appear to a reader who was not present at the race, to be a procession, was far from it, being hotly contested, and not allowing much daylight between any of the ponies participating.

The winners, according to purses won were

Donna Belle	1 1 1
Cecilia Belle	2 3 2
Little Jap	3 2 3
Billy P	4 4 4

The best time in this race was 2.34 1-4.

After the second heat in this race Mr. Smith, the official starter, said to the audience, "Ladies and gentlemen you have just seen a splendid heat, the driver, Mr. Snow, is a Toronto man, and drove a grand race." There was much applause over the announcement of Donna Belle's second heat.

In announcing officially the result of this race, the starter said, "To-day's races are the best I ever saw, not an eye-lash between the different horses."

As the audience, at the finish of the trotting races, were beginning to look at their watches and get uneasy, the running race was quickly put on. The starters were

Chatelaine	1 3 1
Victoria	2 1 2
My Honey	3 2 0
Fenton	4 withdrawn

Time 56 1-2.

Giving the first purse to Chatelaine, second to Victoria and third to My Honey. In the third heat of this race only Victoria and Chatelaine started, and gave a good finish.

The Turf Club made a happy choice in getting Mr. Smith, editor of the Buffalo Horse World and starter; in the fewest words, "He is onto his job!"

The races this summer cannot but arouse enthusiasm for the winter circuit, particulars of which appear elsewhere in this issue.

It is expected that a large number of local horsemen will attend the Picton races on July 19th and 20th.

The Auburn and T.A.S. nines, the old time rivals, will pull off a game at the Riverside Park this afternoon. It will be a great battle for supremacy. Admission 15c.

Swim Ten Miles in The Otonabee.

Toronto, July 14. — Mr. H. F. Strickland and Mr George Corson, of this city, will leave Toronto tomorrow and go to Lakefield, from where they propose on Monday to swim to Peterborough, a distance of ten miles, with the hope of establishing the longest Canadian record.

Corson was formerly the city champion at 100 yards and is teacher of life saving at the Swimming Club and Y.M.C.A. Strickland holds the record of 50 minutes across the bay, and has been an experienced swimmer for years.

They are confident of success. Lakefield and Peterboro are joined by the Otonabee River, now a link of the Trent Valley Canal. Lakefield sports are arranging to paddle with them and have the locks all ready to pass through.

The Turf Club's Winter Races.

On Thursday evening a meeting, attended by some twelve or fifteen leading horsemen of Ontario, was held in the Palace Restaurant, to inaugurate a winter circuit of races for this part of the Province. Great enthusiasm, aroused by the successful races in the afternoon, pervaded all present. Mr. Chas. Wilmot, Port Hope, organizer of the Eastern Ontario Turf Association, was present and strongly endorsed the idea of arranging for an ice race circuit that would attract all horses likely to go the Montreal races. The Eastern Ontario Ice-Racing Association was formed, Mr. Wilmot being elected President, and Mr. W. Carew, Belleville, Secretary.

Following are the places and dates where the ice races of the new association will be held, viz.;

Toronto, December 27 and 28.
Orillia, January 3 and 4.
Port Perry, January 9 and 10.
Lindsay, January 13 and 14.
Peterboro, January 19 and 20.
Port Hope, January 26 and 27.
Picton, January 31 and February 1.
Belleville, February 3 and 4.
Kingston, February 8 and 9.

There will be a grand wind-up at Ottawa, and, in all probability, at Montreal.

Such a program as this will doubtless interest many horsemen from long distances and ensures not only good sport for the audiences, but will enable the different towns and cities to hang up large purses, with good prospects of having a surplus after the circuit has been finished.

PEACEFUL OUT-COME ASSURED

Interview with Sweden's Foreign Minister Upon the Situation

Stockholm, July 15.—Whilst Sweden is deeply aggrieved by Norway's action, King Oscar's Government neither desires nor intends to impose terms for dissolution of the union which Norway will find it impossible to accept.

Count Gyldenstolpe, the Foreign Minister, said to a correspondent today;

"Sweden has no wish for a union that must be maintained by force.

"That would be too costly, and would be devoid of that bond of comradeship essential to political partnership, but our dignity will not permit us to acquiesce meekly in wanton disruption of the dual agreement.

"I am not at liberty to disclose the details of the conditions under which the Government is prepared to sanction the breaking of the union or the basis on which we progress to place our future relations with Norway.

"What I may say is that we are striving to reach a basis which will guarantee perpetual amity bringing the two nations under conditions profitable to both and humiliating to neither.

"Certain elements of the Swedish people favor unconditional sanction of dissolution, letting the future take care of itself. The Government believes it advisable to con-

Little things going wrong in the house bothered me. The doctor advised different treatments but they didn't help. He said my low condition was due to weakness that might never be cured. THE RUSSIAN VOLCANO

What will the Russian army do? Upon this answer to that question hangs the fate of the Russian Government, if not the Empire itself.

At first blush it would seem a foregone conclusion that the army will side with the people from whose loins it sprang. But that is not taking into consideration the well known effects of military training, which inculcates as its first principle blind and unquestionable obedience to orders, and which when long continued has a tendency to weaken the soldier's powers of initiative and self-reliance and reduce him to a mere automaton. Military discipline also tends to breed a higher degree of loyalty, or at least of respect for governmental authority and love for the flag. Against this, however, may be balanced the new and healthier sort of patriotism which is gaining ground so rapidly among the Russian people—that is, love of country rather than loyalty to the government.

It is possible also that the patience and loyalty of the rank and file of this army have been undermined and exhausted by the habitual brutality and systematic tyranny of its officers, for it is well known that the same cruelty and abuses prevail in the army that led to the desperate mutiny of the sailors on the Black Sea. An English correspondent, before the outbreak of the Russo-Japanese war, gave it as his opinion that the Russians would not put up a good fight, basing his opinion on the fact that the Russian soldiers and sailors were completely cowed and robbed of the spirit of men by the tyranny of their officers. He stated that it was not an uncommon sight to see Russian army officers flog their men with whips during the drills, and that he saw a drill on board of a Russian battleship at Port Arthur in which the officers struck the sailors with their swords to enforce their commands, not always using the flat side of the swords in doing so. This correspondent's story is corroborated by the fiendish cruelty of the captain of the Knias Potemkine to the martyred sailor, Omiltchuk, who delivered the petition of his comrades asking for better food.

The frenzied Russian sailors are powerless to overthrow the government, and the masses of the Russian people, unarmed, ignorant and cowed by centuries of merciless despotism, are equally impotent against the disciplined Cossacks of the Czar. Anarchy may reign in various parts of the Empire and the blood of martyrs may drench the land, but the Russian bureaucracy is safe as long as the army remains loyal.

Meanwhile it is pitiable to witness the puerile efforts of the bureaucracy to build itself upon the ignorance of the people. Its attempts to muzzle the press may prove measurably successful, but in relying for its safety upon keeping the people in ignorance of the bloody events which are transpiring throughout the Empire, the grand ducal regime is as foolish as the ostrich which hides its head in the sand to escape from its pursuers.

THE WAR SITUATION

Muraviefi's resignation from the Russian Peace Commission opened the way for the appointment of perhaps the ablest man in Russia whose sympathies and knowledge of conditions are both beyond question—De Witte. The very fact that the Czar sanctioned such an appointment shows how far and how fast the court pendulum has swung from the war-at-all-costs, reactionary attitude of the Grand Ducal party a month ago. With De Witte at the head of Russia's plenipotentiaries, peace seems more assured than at any time since the war began.

One other interesting point is brought to light in today's despatches: By securing Sakhalin, Japan has made the Sea of Japan, to all intents and purposes, a "mare clausum." From Tsushima on the south to the northern point of Sakhalin, she absolutely commands all entrance and exit. What this may mean to the world's commerce, it must be left to later generations to discover.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

Joseph Zeitlin, that remarkable centarian of Brooklyn, has been giving some more pointers as to longevity which upset all previous theories, save in the one particular of a cheerful spirit. He rises at 5 in the morning, summer and winter, and starts the day with a drink of whiskey and a smoke, beginning with Russian cigarettes and topping off with a cigar or two. At 8 he has breakfast composed of a couple of rolls and a cup of very strong tea. At noon comes luncheon, a very slight meal, with more strong tea flavored with a lemon. Dinner is at night, a hearty repast consisting of all that his fancy dictates. At 9 he retires. He sleeps with the window wide open for plenty of fresh air. If he happens to wake in the night, he wards off insomnia by smoking a few cigarettes and taking a drink. He rises in the morning with a clear head and a tranquil mind. This rare old gentleman is described as straight, tall and strong, with rugged though snow-white hair and beard, wearing no glasses over his bright eyes, and without a wrinkle on his face. Perhaps the chief secret of it all is the cheerful spirit. He has had his share of troubles, but has shaken care from his back as a duck shakes water from its feathers. Worry, he says, is at the bottom of short life. Smile, he commends, and live long.

ENTRY

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land to be taken is situate, or if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration Winnipeg or the local agent for the district in which the land is situate, receive authority for some one to make entry for him. A fee of $10 is charged for a homestead entry.

HOMESTEAD DUTIES.

A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required by the provisions of the Dominion Lands Act, and the amendments thereto, to perform the conditions connected therewith, under one of the following plans:

[1] At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years. It is the practice of the Department to require a settler to bring 15 acres under cultivation, but if he prefers he may substitute stock; and 20 head of cattle, to be actually his own property, with buildings for their accommodation, will be accepted instead of the cultivation.

[2] If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased), of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father of mother.

[3] If a settler was entitled to and has obtained entry for a second homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by residence upon the first homestead, if the second homestead is in the vicinity of the first homestead.

[4] If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

The term "vicinity" used above is meant to indicate the same township, or an adjoining or corresponding township.

A settler who avails himself of the provisions of clauses [2], [3] or [4] must cultivate 30 acres of his homestead, or substitute 20 head of stock, with buildings for their accommodation, and have besides 80 acres substantially fenced.

The privilege of a second entry is restricted by law to those settlers only who completed the duties upon their first homesteads to entitle them to patent on or before the 2nd of June, 1889.

Every homesteader who fails to comply with the requirements of the homestead law is liable to have his entry cancelled and the land may again be thrown open for entry.

APPLICATION FOR PATENT

Should be made at the end of three years before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector. Before making application for patent the settler must give six months notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa of his intention to do so.

Full information respecting the land, timber, coal and mineral laws, as well as respecting Dominion Lands in the Railway Belt in British Columbia, may be obtained upon application to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, Manitoba or to any of the Dominion Lands Agents in Manitoba or the North-west Territories.

MILITARY PROBLEM IN INDIA TRANSFORMED

PERHAPS it is because of the hot weather — we approach the English "dog days" —or perhaps it is because of the peculiarly irritating conditions of English politics just now, but certain it is that Westminster is a very uncomfortable place at the present moment, writes a correspondent of the New York Evening Post The immediate trouble of the past week as between the government and the opposition has been the South African war contract scandals. After some startling straight talk from friends upon his own side of the house, and from journals entirely sympathetic to the Unionist cause, Mr. Balfour has consented to a complete and semi-judicial inquiry into the whole affair. The report of Sir William Butler's committee, which has brought the whole question so prominently before the public, is admittedly the report of a non-judicial body; it abounds in what one writer calls "tasteless embroideries," that it is not too much to say that its disclosures amaze and incense the British public the more it is read.

It is not that the British public has not become accustomed to army scandals. The remount committee some time ago showed in how negligent a manner many departments of the war office have hitherto done their work and how completely they are apt to break down. But in this and other exposures there was no evidence of the implication of army officers. The same cannot be said of the allegations with which Sir William Butler's report is so freely peppered, and the irony of the situation is enhanced by the fact that the report was published here (London) on the very morning after Mr. Choate had explained how much his admiration for British ways was increased by the absolute purity of the British public services. As the matter now stands, certain British officers are found to be mixed up in the sale and resale of army stores in a way which compels the gravest suspicion of their personal honesty.

It seems obvious that the very first duty of a British Government, when brought face to face with this scandal, and the first desire of every honest man in the army should be to secure an immediate and searching judicial investigation, which would bring home the guilt wherever it might be found, and punish the guilty parties without favor. This may have been what the government intended all along, but no charitable an interpretation of its desires is made difficult by the fact that three years have elapsed since Lord Kitchener himself warned the war office of the extreme necessity for supervision, seeing that the money involved by the sale of war stores in South Africa would probably reach six or seven million sterling. Indeed this warning and the warning of the quartermaster-general led the war office to issue offering monthly reports to be sent of all sales, but no report was ever sent except one in October, 1902, and that report omitted all mention of sales to the public, and only forwarded sales to the repatriation department.

During the whole of these three years no attempt has apparently ever been made by the war office to get accounts of sales which, as they knew from Lord Kitchener's statement, run into so many millions of pounds; and only now, under pressure of public opinion, have the officers implicated been suspended, though they are still receiving their pay, and a royal commission with power to compel the attendance of witnesses and to call for documents has been decided upon to investigate the whole affair. A long and tedious business it is bound to prove, and it is hardly to be expected that the report will be in the hands of the public and the whole scandal laid bare until after the present ministry has left office.

It is just this fact which helps to increase the irritation of the present position in the house of commons. It is felt that even though the guilt be brought home to a number of officers the prime cause of all this trouble and scandal is to be found in the inefficiency of the war office and in the failure of ministers themselves as administrators. Hence the demand to which Mr. Balfour has with no little show of irritation at last assented for an immediate arraignment of the military administration of the government quite apart from the investigation to be undertaken by the royal commission. The public insists upon learning why it was that this scandal was allowed to grow up and flourish under the very eyes of ministers without any apparent attempt to minimize evils so great and so patent. This whole affair suggests once again how hopeless it is to expect the war office to do its work efficiently under the present method of administration.

Lord Rosebery has, we know, indicated his profound conviction that war office muddle and mismanagement will never be done away with until a man of the character of Lord Kitchener brings to bear upon it his experience and determination, and Lord Kitchener has, as happens, provided this week an apt illustration of his method of handling abuses. After a prolonged struggle he has at last compelled the Indian and British governments to abolish a system which has long been in force in the Indian army, and which is not altogether incomparable with that still controlling the British army. According to Lord Kitchener the whole system hitherto in vogue in India succeeded in producing a maximum of friction and a minimum of efficiency. The functions of the commander-in-chief and the military department of the viceroy's council constituted a system of dual control, involving enormous delay and endless discussion. Thus we read that in the year 1903-4 the number of communications which passed between the military department and the commander-in-chief's department on mobilization questions alone amount ed to nearly 10,000, that is to say, roughly, 200 per week, although the two departments are situated in the same buildings in Calcutta, and in adjacent buildings at Simla. In the case of an urgent demand for a reserve of 1000 rounds of small arms ammunition, it took nine months to secure the assent of the military department, and even then the resource of 1000 rounds asked for was cut down to 750 rounds. This sort of thing obviously spells muddle and perilous delay, and Lord Kitchener feels it to be his imperative duty to state that the present method is faulty, inefficient and incapable of the expansion necessary for great war in which the armed might of the empire has been engaged in a life and death struggle. And it is forthwith abolished.

And Lord Kitchener has had his way. The acute duel between the viceroy (Lord Curzon) and the commander-in-chief has been terminated by a British ministerial declaration for the soldier and against the politician. The views of the Army in future are to be represented on the viceroy's council by Lord Kitchener himself, and not allowed to filter through a subordinate, and Lord Kitchener is made absolute on all the larger questions of army control.

EUROPE TO IGNORE RUSSIA AS POWER

Palpable Weakness of Czar's Government Will Cause Readjustment of Various Alliances

END OF DREAM OF SLAV

Hope of Absorbing Many Small States and Thus Reaching Outlet on Mediterranean is Gone

Washington, D.C., July —While the war with Japan has ruined Russia's prestige in the far east, the revolutionary outbreak in the Black Sea fleet and the disturbed conditions throughout the Slav Empire have destroyed the influence of the Czar in European councils.

A new adjustment of international relations in the old world is impending—in fact, already has begun—and the stable powers, including the United States, are considering policies they must adopt to meet the changed conditions.

Diplomats who discussed today the effect of the disturbances in Russia didn't get it to be understood that their governments are making preparations in anticipation of the overthrow of the autocracy.

If such an event were to occur—and it is regarded today more probable than seemed likely ten days ago—successive developments will shape to a large extent the course each nation will follow. What has received international recognition at this moment is the passing of Russia as a factor in the Mediterranean and Balkan questions, particularly, and the prospect is that she soon will be counted on in connection with other problems which intimately have concerned Europe in the past.

CONFESSION OF IMPOTENCE.

The appearance of the Russian battleship Knias Potemkin in the hands of revolutionists at the Roumanian port of Kustendja and the inability of the St. Petersburg government to capture it—confessed by the dismantlement of the remaining vessels of the Black Sea fleet—mark the end of Russian domination of the Balkan situation.

It has been the dream of Pan-Slavists that Russia could [illegible] extend her power part of Austria [illegible] the Mediterranean was the ultimate ambition, and to insure its accomplishment Russian intrigue was constantly at work to maintain a condition of affairs which at any moment might be turned to advantage.

It was pointed out today that just before the Japanese warships first torpedoed the Russian fleet at Port Arthur there was grave danger of war between Bulgaria and Turkey over Macedonia. Since the war began neither Bulgaria nor Turkey has given any excuse to the other for hostilities. The peace of Europe lay in the lap of the Balkans, and to maintain it the powers gave a mandate to Russia and to Austria in 1897 under which they were to take such action as might be necessary to prevent strife.

Austria has internal weaknesses which every one predicts will develop into revolution when the aged Emperor, Franz Josef, dies. Turkey has been the "sick man" for more than half a century.

GERMANY REAPS FIRST FRUITS.

According to what was said today Germany was the first to profit by Russia's deplorable state. Appreciating the inability of the Czar to come to the aid of France, Kaiser Wilhelm reopened the Moroccan question, which France and Great Britain had settled to their mutual satisfaction, and in view of the last developments in the Slav Empire, it is believed here that he will continue to insist that his views for a conference shall be adopted.

Baron von Sternburg, the German Ambassador, will see the President tomorrow at Oyster Bay and is expected to assure that a peaceful adjustment of the Moroccan question will take place.

M. Jusserand, the French Ambassador, who had expected to sail on the 13th for France, may not go and the mysterious which marks the execution of his plans has aroused comment in diplomatic circles.

Germany has been circumspect in dealing with the Balkan question, but has been strengthening carefully her relations with Turkey. She has extended her activities in recent years to Persia, to the manifest dissatisfaction of Russia, which had dominated the land of the Shah and of Great Britain, which would not want her road to India manned by either Russia or Germany. Turkey would like nothing better than a free hand in connection with Bulgaria, promising to make short work of that principality, provided other powers did not interfere.

ATTITUDE OF ENGLAND AND FRANCE.

Great Britain and France are the two powers in Europe, it is said here, which would not benefit from a disturbance of the status quo. Great Britain views with apprehension the policy of Germany, because she regards it as a policy of aggrandizement. Any increase in German strength is accepted as a menace to British interests.

While the London authorities want Russia weakened, [illegible] up into [illegible] many small states, perhaps, because [illegible] of India would then be secured, no diplomat in Washington believes they would like the dismemberment of Russia.

France, on her part, would object seriously to the overthrow of the present government of Russia or any grave weakening of its power for political and financial reasons. The French people have regarded Russia as a greater safeguard against German aggression than England, because England could aid France only upon the sea, while Russia could throw into Germany a force greater than that country could raise. Moreover, the French are large holders of Russia's public debt and would suffer enormously in case of a successful revolution in the Empire of their ally.

RUSSIAN ARMY ON VERGE OF REVOLT

REBELS DEFY THE POLICE

Provincial Revolutionists Wear Uniforms and Gather Under Officials' Eyes

St. Petersburg, July 7.—Some men belonging to the disciplinary battalions, which are composed of military convicts, while exercising at Kharson, attacked Capt. Gorgorodsky with bayonets, slightly wounding him. Col. Davidoff, drawing his sword, ran to his rescue, whereupon the men attacked and desperately wounded him in the chest. He was able, however, to command the men to return to their barracks and a majority of them obeyed, the colonel leading them there. He then wrote a report to the Czar, after which he died. Some of the mutineers were arrested. Eight of them escaped, but seven since have been recaptured.

The reservists at Kieff have looted and plundered liquor shops and restaurants. They have disarmed and wounded several policemen. The riot has been quelled.

The nervousness which pervades all classes is increasing. The government's policy in keeping back the facts, bad as they are, is resulting in people giving a willing ear to all the stories which are set afloat. Nothing, seemingly, is too wild to receive ready credence.

ARMY'S LOYALTY DOUBTED.

Many people are convinced that the country is actually in the throes of a revolution. Although the critical character of the situation can hardly be overstated, and while the [illegible] lowing the example of their comrades of the navy, go over, the rising has little chance of succeeding.

At the same time there is enough deep discontent among many of the soldiers here to render it doubtful whether they will stand the test of obeying orders to fire on the people in the streets.

Gen. Trepoff's warning to the newspapers not to print a word about the Black Sea fleet troubles, although obeyed in St. Petersburg, has aroused insistent demands for permission to publish the facts, while some of the Moscow papers openly defied the inhibition.

The revolutionists are working with feverish activity in spreading the news broadcast, circulating proclamations to the soldiers, and summoning the workmen everywhere to strike and join the movement for emancipation.

COMMERCE AT A STANDSTILL.

Today the workmen of the port of St. Petersburg, following the lead of the Cronstadt men, left work, and commerce is at a standstill, and all the yards of the Neva are idle.

Cronstadt resembles a city in time of war. The streets are patrolled by Cossacks, infantry and sailors. Some of the guard regiments have been brought from St. Petersburg to Krasnoe Selo, and while outwardly the city appears calm no one expects what to expect from hour to hour.

REVOLUTIONISTS DEFY POLICE.

Joseph Mandelkern, a real estate dealer of New York, who has just arrived in St. Petersburg from Poland, where he visited Warsaw, Lodz, Byelostoke and other centres, declares that a state of anarchy exists there, which the military and police are admittedly powerless to handle.

He brings startling information about the Bund and other revolutionary organizations. Like similar organizations in the Caucasus, they have now forbidden the payment of taxes under the penalty of death and are levying tribute for the purpose of resistance to the movement. He says that all members of the organizations are armed with revolvers and knives and are defying the police to interfere with them under threats of death.

Mr. Mandelkern adds that he saw a procession of 60,000 persons at Warsaw carrying red flags, with not a policeman in sight, the police having been warned that if they appeared they would be murdered. In Byelostok, Mr. Mandelkern says, the revolutionists are actually wearing a sort of uniform, a blue blouse.

The Polish organizations, Mr. Mandelkern says, are not seeking for separation, but want a constitution which would give to Poland an autonomous government.

"Unless an immediate remedy is provided, a bloody revolution is imminent. The Cossacks themselves are likely to join the Muzniks. Danger from outside Russia comes from Germany. Japan's interests do not antagonize us, but overpopulated Germany's eyes are cast on Russia's fertile prairies.

"Bismarck, abetted by our Germanized Grand Dukes, cleverly planted German colonies in this country.

"The Kaiser considers Russia his colony and only recently wanted to occupy Poland on the pretext of desiring to quell the revolution. The scheme failed.

"The Czar realized the danger, but when, despite the machinations of the Kaiser, the Russian people have obtained peace and reforms they will assert their independence.

"A clash is imminent at St. Petersburg.

"At M. Kokovtzeff's last night a German financier who arranged the recent loan to Russia said to a correspondent: "The Washington conference as far as known will arrange that Russia assume Japan's loans and agree to pay for the expenses incurred in supporting the Russian prisoners in Japan.

"This latter sum will amount to $1,000,000,000.

"Russia will probably cede the Chinese railway to Japan and also give over the Island of Sakhalien. Thus new loans and and an excessive and undesirable influx of capital into Japan will be avoided.

"America and England, which hold the Japanese bonds, will thus become creditors of Russia, and will oppose unjust demands on the Czar.

"Russian bonds will be better than Japanese as Russian sources of credit are untouched. The industrial crisis does not affect the Czar's finances. The indirect taxes and customs overbalance the budget.

"The inland gold production covers the bond interest. The interior troubles are transient.

"The opposition is heterogeneous and powerless.

"The population is indifferent politically.

"It is likely that the peasants will receive more land. The majority of the nobles are in the service of the state. Industry is protected. Taxation is the smallest in Europe. The only dissatisfied element are foreigners. Partial reforms will straighten them out. In the coming decades Russia will be the best investment and market in Europe."

HER PEASANTS ARE RUSSIA'S DANGER

The Agrarian Troubles Are More Serious Than the Industrial.

NINE-TENTHS OF PEOPLE

Germany is Russia's Greatest Foe From Without as Russia Will Realize

St. Petersburg, July 4. — Count Milutin-Potemkin said to a correspondent today:

"The danger that threatens the Empire is not to be found in the revolt in the Black Sea fleet. That assailed only life and property. The trouble is regrettable, but the fleet will soon be unnecessary. There is little fear of aggression on the part of Turkey.

"The navy's prestige went with the surrender of Nebogatoff. The dissatisfaction in the army is limited. The labor riots are unimportant. The industrial population constitutes only two per cent. of the population.

"On the other hand, the agrarian trouble is very grave.

"The movement is similar to that which took place under Emelian Putmatcheff, when the peasants over the greater part of the country and almost succeeded in wresting the government from the Czar.

"Conditions are worse now than then. The peasants are the sole taxpayers. The nobles, who own nine-tenths of the land, are exempt.

"The Muzzik soldier, who conquered vast territories amounting to one-sixth of the globe, has seen that land divided between the Czar and the nobles.

"Since the liberation of the serfs in 1866 the Muzzik have been paying installments on their holdings, but have never received titles to their property.

"The peasants, who constitute 90 per cent. of the population, own only one-tenth of the land, an average family lot of one-fourth of an acre.

"Taxation and rent are increasing. The peasant lacks seeds and agricultural implements. He is starving.

"When the Muzzik needs an advance, he sends his produce to the middleman, who allows him thirty kopecks for what is worth twenty-eight in the market.

"In imitation of Peyetchieff, the

"They say he is the Muzniks friend, and has been unjustly deprived of succession to the throne by the Czarevitch's birth. They hint that the tchinovniks (officials) have merely invented the story of the birth. Thus the superstitious peasants are in a state of great excitement.

"Unless an immediate remedy is provided, a bloody revolution is imminent. The Cossacks themselves are likely to join the Muzniks. Danger from outside Russia comes from Germany. Japan's interests do not antagonize us, but overpopulated Germany's eyes are cast on Russia's fertile prairies.

"Bismarck, abetted by our Germanized Grand Dukes, cleverly planted German colonies in this country.

"Alexander III. stopped this, but Witte, by promoting artificial industrialism, flooded Russia with German fakers, schemers for mechanics.

"German became our business language.

"The Kaiser considers Russia his colony and only recently wanted to occupy Poland on the pretext of desiring to quell the revolution. The scheme failed.

"The Czar realized the danger, but when, despite the machinations of the Kaiser, the Russian people have obtained peace and reforms they will assert their independence.

"A clash is imminent at St. Petersburg.

"At M. Kokovtzeff's last night a German financier who arranged the recent loan to Russia said to a correspondent: "The Washington conference as far as known will arrange that Russia assume Japan's loans and agree to pay for the expenses incurred in supporting the Russian prisoners in Japan.

"This latter sum will amount to $1,000,000,000.

A Peterboro Product

Toronto Papers Speak Very Highly of Goods Made in This City

Concerning a product that is bound to advertize Peterboro wherever gourmands are found and who appreciate the good things of life, the Toronto News, referring to a leading locally manufactured and widely advertised product, says:

"Canada Flakes is the name of a new package of flaked wheat cereal just placed upon the market. It is manufactured by the Peterboro Cereal Co., of Peterboro, and the special claim they make for it, as per their catch phrase, is that it is "A little better than the best—A little bigger than the rest."

The Petero Cereal Co. have one of the most complete plants possible for the treatment of cereals of all kinds. Equipped with all the elaborate machinery necessary for the modern high grade flour mill, it insures that the initial stages of cleaning the wheat shall be absolutely perfect. The greatest care is taken to see that the wheat is absolutely clean. Separators first remove all foreign grains from the wheat, which is afterwards thoroughly scoured and brushed. The washing process eliminates the last trace of dust and the grain is then ready for the cooking process, which demands about 15 hours' time altogether. Revolving air-tight tanks, under steam pressure, cook the wheat in its whole state perfectly and evenly. Not an atom of the starch within can possibly be left unchanged, and not even the odor escapes.

The malting and flavoring processes follow, and then the grain passes to the big rollers for flaking. Into the automatic oven is the next step. Great woven steel belts here convey the damp flakes a distance of about 200 feet over vast coils of steam pipes until the grain is thoroughly desiccated, when it passes over an array of innumerable gas jets, which toasts every flake to that fine, brown, crispy state peculiar to Canada Flakes. The food is now conveyed to large metallic bins from which, by an automatic weighing machine, it passes into the package ready for sealing.

Every portion of the whole process demands thorough sterilization. From golden grain to package form no human hand touches Canada Flakes. Automatic conveyors, automatic oven, everything possible automatic, means that every flake will be the same, perfectly cooked, perfectly toasted, perfectly sterilized.

The mill is operated entirely by electricity, the special feature of Peterboro. The efficiency of this, coupled with its extremely low cost, enables the Company to produce the large 20c. package of Canada Flakes to sell at 15c.

Within a short distance of the mill is the famous lift lock of Peterboro, a picture of which appears on the Canada Flake package, along with some interesting facts relative to its size and cost."

WANT RUSSIA TO PAY

Insurance Companies Object to Paying Odessa Losses

Odessa, July —The question of insurance on property lost by fire in the harbor during the recent disturbances is occasioning serious disputes between the Russian and the foreign insurance companies. The foreign corporations declare that they will make claims against the Russian Government. The claims number about 400, and the to-

The Czar is Sincerely Desirous for Peace.

Bright Prospects of Success for the Peace Conference--The First Session is Scheduled to Take Place Early in August--De Witte Russia's Principal Delegate.

The world should now be convinced that the Czar is sincerely desirous of peace. When Russia first signified her readiness to consider terms, a great deal of scepticism was shown by those who said she was only sparring for time, and would never accept the conditions Japan might reasonably impose. People persisted in this view even though the Czar humiliated himself by "gratefully availing himself of President Roosevelt's good offices" shortly after he had made the announcement that any offer of mediation by a foreign power would be regarded by Russia as an unfriendly act, and despite the disappearance of Russia's forlorn hope—Rojestvensky's fleet. It has already been settled that the peace conference shall be held in Portsmouth, Vermount, and delegates from both Japan and Russia are on their way. The first session is scheduled to take place early in August. To-day's announcement by the Czar of the substitution of M. de Witte for M. Muraviefi as Russia's principal delegate, is a great triumph for the peace party. De Witte is Russia's strongest statesman, he always was opposed to the occupation of Manchuria, which he declared made war inevitable; he favored an understanding or an alliance with Japan, and he possesses the confidence of the Mikado's advisers. His appointment at this time, with the complete powers of a plenipotentiary, after his having refused to act as a mere figurehead, and the removal of a comparatively inexperienced diplomat given only nominal authority, makes a successful conclusion of the coming peace conference not only possible, but probable. But Russia must be prepared to further humiliation.

HE MARRIED ONTARIO GIRL

Boer Officer From Brighton Beach Show Gets an Heiress

MET HER FIRST IN PARIS

Had Her Dying Mother's Assent to Marriage so Didn't Worry About the Father's

New York, July 6.—A wedding at the end of a romance of several years' duration explained the sudden disappearance of Lieut. Fritz Everhardt from the Boer forces at Brighton Beach yesterday.

Everhardt was one of the best looking officers at Specktar and carried sixteen medals for bravery which he won fighting with the Boers.

Before the war he had been the assistant to Dr. Leyds and had been attached to the Boer delegation at Paris.

In Paris he met Arthur Edward Lawson, an Englishman, who is now chief of the Customs Bureau at Windsor, Ontario. He also fell in love with Dorothy Lawson, who was travelling with her father, and she returned his love.

About this time the show appeared at Brighton Beach, Miss Lawson registered at the Brighton Beach Hotel. She attracted attention by the beauty of her gowns, but was accompanied in her walks only by a maid.

Other officers in the show knew Everhardt and Miss Lawson were engaged, and were not greatly surprised yesterday when Everhardt was absent from roll call, and Capt. Lewis received a note from him saying he was going away and was to marry Miss Lawson before the letter was dead.

In a note to a friend Everhardt said:

"Miss Lawson's wealth always had inclined me to keep apart from her in view of her father's opposition, but having her dying mother's consent, I believe the fact she is an heiress is no longer an obstacle."

OLDEST WOMAN IN AMERICA DEAD AT 135

She Claimed to Have Been Born Before Revolution was Fought

Augusta, Ga., July —The oldest person in Augusta, and probably the oldest in the United States, is dead from old age. Easter Mathews was her name. She was a colored woman and lived at No. 91 New Pine street. Her age was 135 years.

"Aunt Easter," as she was called, was born in 1770, and while in slavery she belonged to a number of prominent families of the city. She had for her last owners the Clayton family, and often spoke of Turner Clayton in her last days.

One of the ways the old woman had of telling her age was that she remembered several years before the Springfield Baptist church was built in the city, and this institution is one hundred and five years old. She claimed that she remembered when the spot where the church now stands was in the swamp.

NORWAY CLAIMS DESIRE FOR WAR

All Her Interests Are Furthered by Peace—War Would Be Disastrous

SWEDE PRESS RESPONSIBLE

Norway Has Acted Honorably From Start to Finish of the Affair

Christiana, July —"Dr. Sven Hedin himself must know that his contention is false," said a prominent diplomat here to your correspondent this morning.

"Why should Norway attack Sweden?

"A more foolish statement was never made.

"The whole world now knows that in Sweden a passionate war party exists and manifests itself in daily inducements to attack Norway.

"All sorts of stories are spread to create Swedish hostility to Norway. The world must have seen sufficient proofs of Swedish war methods. Has the world heard anything like this from Norway's side?

"Norway's first word after the rupture was to hope for a peaceful settlement. In this hope all Norway has ever since joined.

"The respectable Swedish press has now examined the frontiers, especially at a place called Tydalen, where it was said 4,000 Norwegian soldiers were mobilized. It testifies that there is not one soldier there.

"Norway is prepared to defend herself if attacked, but will never be so foolish as either to begin war or to provoke it.

"Who is to be believed? A unanimous self-possessed nation whose dominant passion and interest is peace or a war party which is in obvious antagonism to its King, the Government and the majority of its fellow-countrymen in Sweden."

GUARD AGAINST GERMS

In time of war the most responsibility rests upon the guard. If he is lacking in vigilance, disaster can easily overtake the army.

With the individual life, the stomach may well represent the "guard" against sickness. If it is strong and vigilant, any disease germs that may be swallowed will be neutralized by the digestive juices, or else driven from the system.

Everyone with indigestion should use Mi-o-na at this season and so strengthen the stomach that disease germs can have no effect whatever. This remarkable remedy so healthy, clean and sweet a state that fermentation of the food cannot exist, that any disease germs which may enter the stomach will be destroyed, and food will be so readily assimilated that a rapid and healthy increase in flesh will result.

Nervousness and sleeplessness come more often from a weak stomach than from any other cause; head-ache, backache, and rheumatic pains are directly caused by an acid condition of the stomach. Mi-o-na corrects all this, prevents the formation of acids, and nervousness, kidney trouble, or rheumatism, is quickly cured.

STRICTURE AND KIDNEY DISEASE CURED.

G. E. Wagner.

"I had stricture for eleven years. It finally brought on Bright's Disease of the kidneys. I had an uncomfortable shooting pain in the groin and feeling as though something was in the urethra. My back was weak and I could scarcely stoop over. Urine was full of sediment. Had a desire to urinate frequently. Family doctors, so-called specialists, patent medicines, electric belts, all failed. I was discouraged. I had spent hundreds of dollars in vain. Finally I consulted Drs. Kennedy & Kergan as the last resort. I had heard a great deal about them and concluded from the fact that they had been established over 25 years that they understood their business. I am delighted with the results. In one week I felt better and in a few weeks was entirely cured. Have gained sixteen pounds in weight."

A BLAST FROM QUEBEC

Senator Choquette Declares That Ontario is Dwindling Before the Power of the French-Canadian Race

Quebec, July 15.—Replying to an editorial which appeared in the "News" some days ago, "Let us respect the faith, language and institutions and sentiments of the French-Canadians etc.," Le Soleil, the official Government organ in this city, now edited by Senator Choquette, says;

"For his punishment the author of this preceding lines should have fifty years' life punishment. He whipped not only the French-Canadian element that he and the like of him wished to wall within the confines of a province. No matter how great this province may be, the proposition would be surrounding it with a wall of fanaticism and bigotry with which the News would essay to limit our expansion. Already a French-Canadian wave sweeps over Ontario. The race which inhabits Ontario is not strong enough in its ridiculous superiority and its infatuation to bar the passage to the strong streams of fecundity which is called the French-Canadian race.

"One province for us and eight provinces for them. The man who speaks thus forgets who he is and of whom he speaks. Where are your families to fill eight provinces? Do you remember this; Ontario has lost six seats in the House of Commons and has lost them in spite of continual immigration, and this race has the stupid intention to exclusively people eight provinces out of nine, the ninth being left to us. This is the limit, whether Mr. Wilfrid wishes or not. Everywhere in Canada we are in our own home, subjects of the same King and on the same footing as the sons of England. The French-Canadian is not a graft in Canada; we are the trunk, the root; the graft comes from the British Isles."

JAPAN WILL HOLD ALL SHE WON

The Money Indemnity May be Reduced and Territory Taken Ins ead

London, July 15.—In a little more than two weeks, the plenipotentiaries of Russia and Japan will begin their deliberations over the terms of peace which Russia can make and Japan accept to end the Far Eastern war. Until they have met, all speculation as to the form their agreement—if they do agree—will take is the veriest gossip, yet we find Russia's "Elder Statesman" gravely assuring themselves and the Powers that Japan will ask for no money indemnity, being influenced to this course by Great Britain and the United States. There has not yet been advanced a shadow of a reason why Japan should be expected to prove so much more magnanimous than any European Power which has ever won a speedy and decisive victory as to refused to make the vanquished pay for the privilege of having been beaten, yet Japan has done so much in contravention of the established conventions that Russia's diplomats may fairly count on an unprecedented generosity as among the possibilities. In the meantime Saklalin is being occupied by a strong Japanese garrison, which is strong evidence that, whatever Japan's policy may be as regards financial gain, territorially she intends to hold what she has won.

The Delineator for August

From the standpoint of fashion the August Delineator is a most attractive number, portraying the midsummer styles in all their charm and variety, and it contains, besides the fashions, many features of interest to the general reader and practical householder. The first chapters of a new serial story by Helen M. Winslow is an item of note; it is called "At Spinster Farm" and relates the actual experience of a woman who forsook the busy city for the countryside, and found there real peace and happiness. "The Lucky Piece" is continued, and there are "Pieces" is continued, and there are also short stories by Cyrus Townsend Brady and Lynn Roby Meekins. Of general interest are articles on "Old-Fashioned Time-pieces," and "Old-Time Summer Resorts," and on Martin Luther's famous hymn, "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God." Mothers will find Dr. Murray's paper on "Feeding the Child," well worth reading, and for the children themselves there are entertaining stories and pastimes, including an "Animal Fairy Tale" by L. Frank Baum, and a "Sun Baby Rabbit" story. House plans and housefurnishing ideas and suggestions in cookery and other housewifely matters complete the number, which is of much interest throughout.

MAMMOTH BUILDINGS FOR FRICK

Pittsburg to Have $10,000,000 Office Structure and Big Hotel

Pittsburg, July 16.—H. C. Frick has accepted the plans for the erection in this city of a $10,000,000 office building, designed to be the largest and best in the world. In addition he will build on Grant street a twenty-story hotel, to be known as the Frick, and to take rank with the finest in any city. Mr. and Mrs. Frick sailed today for Bremen on the Kaiser Wilhelm II. from New York.

Inspection Over.

Mr. Errett Has Completed Annual Inspection of the Whole County of Peterboro.

Mr. R. W. Errett, Inspector of Weights and Measures, has completed his annual inspection of this county. He has recently inspected all the scales, weighing machines and weights in use in the townships of Burleigh, Anstruther and Chandos, and found that our north county neighbors are as honest in their weights and measures as in the city. Errett's total collections for this year for fees amounts to $509.85, which is more than ever collected before in the county of Peterboro. Mr Errett reports that the roads in Anstruther, from Apsley and Haddington P.O., are in a terrible state; as these roads pass through a most fertile country, some of the finest timber land in Canada, the Ontario Government might well make an appropriation for roads that will bring rich products to this city.

Ensign Owen of the Army's headquarter's Toronto, will conduct the meetings here on Sunday next.

History and Production of the Goldfields of Boulder County, Colorado, Portraying Economic Conditions Which Predict the Coming Goldfields of Colorado and Presenting the Stock Offering of a Great Gold Mining Enterprise of the United States Gold Corporation

FREE

Our booklet on the gold fields of Boulder County is off the press, and is being distributed free to investors. We have prepared this book to advertise the gold fields of Northern Colorado and our great gold mining enterprise. The books will be free for the asking while they last. It will tell you of how over fifty millions have been added to the world's wealth in production of gold, silver and copper under primitive methods and from surface workings of an average depth of not to exceed 250 feet. It will tell you of its great tungsten belt, the largest in the world. It will tell you of the existence of a diversity of precious and rare minerals, unrivaled by any other gold fields on this continent. It will tell you of a mineral area of twenty-five square miles literally covered with a network of veins practically undeveloped, with only one shaft below the thousand foot and half a dozen below the six hundred foot level. It will tell you of a gold field nearer to the Denver smelters than any other in Colorado; of a change of economic conditions, in this section, which will enable the miner to ship ore to the smelters, at a net profit, that is now being thrown over the dumps in other sections of Colorado; it will tell you of a field so attractive that it resulted in the construction of two railways from one end of the field to the other. It will tell you of the substitution of modern and up-to-date mining methods, in place of the primitive ones of the past; in short, it will tell you of all those conditions which predict for the gold fields of Boulder County the coming gold fields of Colorado.

It will also tell you of our great gold mining enterprise in the western part of the gold fields of Boulder County, near the continental divide, where nature has deposited her largest and richest treasure vaults; it will tell you of our economic development tunnel, driven to drain and develop a mineral estate almost a mile long and half a mile wide; of the thousands of tons of gold ore now blocked out and ready for shipment in the five different veins cut by this tunnel in driving it eight hundred feet, the result of two years steady development work night and day; of our wonderful discovery of molybdenite—a rare metal—in large commercial quantities, foretelling for us the first molybdenite mine in Colorado that is producing, as well as a large and permanent source of revenue, of our project to drive this tunnel, long before the end of this year, into the famous Fourth of July dyke or "Mother Lode," from which the far famed Caribou group of mines produced twenty million dollars in gold, silver and copper from 1869 to 1893; of the tremendous possibilities for ore production which will follow the cutting of a mineral dyke from 50 to 100 feet wide at a depth of a thousand feet, and the great probability of our opening the first great copper mine in Colorado when we reach this dyke with the tunnel. In short, it will tell you of a gold mining enterprise that will go on a large producing basis long before the end of 1905; of an enterprise with possibilities second to none in Colorado, the developments of which have already shorn it of any element of risk or speculative features, rendering the investment offered safe and attractive one.

For the financial and commercial standing of the business men who stand back of this enterprise we refer you to the First National Bank, Boulder, Colo. or Bradstreets Commercial Agency

The edition will not last long. If you would be sure of securing a copy, write to-day, or your name and address on a postal card, with the word "Booklet," will do the work.

Watch the Skin for Bad Blood

It Comes to the Surface in the Form of Pimples, Boils, Rashes and Humors.

Where the blood is weak and depraved the system lacks staying power and force. Frightful ulcers and unsightly blotches break out, the skin becomes yellow and muddy, the eyes lack lustre.

Reader, does YOUR blood need attention? If so get Dr. Hamilton's Pills at once; they filter out all poisons, eliminate disease-making germs, nourish, and re-vitalize every drop of blood in the body.

No medicine exerts such a marvellous influence for good as Dr. Hamilton's Pills; they clear the complexion, make it exquisitely beautiful; they cure pimples, rashes and skin troubles of every kind. Read the following carefully;

No Appetite Bad Color General Debility

"I was run down," writes Mr. Albert E. Dickson, of Fairbank P. O. My color was dull, unhealthy, appetite was poor, and I constantly suffered from rheumatism.

I found it hard to sweep, and felt worn out and tired all the time. Dr. Hamilton's Pills made an instant change. I grew stronger, my blood was restored, rheumatism vanished. To-day I am vigorous, cheery and healthy in every respect.

You will never realize what grand health means until you feel the quickening, vitalizing effect of Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Every tired, overstrained, nervous man and woman should use this grand tonic regularly. Life will then be full of happiness and buoyant health. All dealers sell Dr. Hamilton's Pills, 25c. per box, or five boxes for $1, by mail if price is forwarded to N. C. Polson & Co., Hartford, Conn., U.S.A., and Kingston, Ont.

Lawn Watering Rules.

Paterfamilias, Read, Mark, Learn and Duly Practice.

As this is the time of year that paterfamilias gets up to water his lawn so early that the dew-laden spiderwebs, hung from the trees, takes the starch out of his moustache and temper, and keeps it up until long after the children's last protest at having to go to bed has died away, it would, perhaps, be of use to him to know the Water Commissioners' rules anent this subject. The principle rule is

No person or persons shall be allowed to spend or use in any manner whatever the water supplied for lawns, gardens, grass plots, boulevards or grounds of any description, except between the hours of five and nine o'clock in the forenoon, and four and nine o'clock in the afternoon.

On payment of 30 per cent. addition al rate, however, users can water lawns at all hours.

A Study in Toxicology.

Who Is the Miscreant That Poisoned Mrs. McEntee's Cows?

As noted in yesterday's issue Mrs. J McEntee, corner of Smith and Reid streets, has had two valuable cows poisoned, presumably by paris green.

It now seems that a neighbor who has a potato patch, has stated that the paris green pail from which he had been treating some potato bugs had been accidentally upset, and that some of the contents might have found its way into the pasture field. Another report finding circulation is that an English boy who lives in the vicinity states that he rubbed paris green on the backs of the cows, thinking it would kill the flies, which appeared to be tormenting them. A little girl states positively that she saw a boy put paris green on some grass and force it into the mouths of the animals.

These are some of the reports that are in circulation, and it is stated that Mrs. McEntee has received sufficient information to warrant her in taking legal action.

A Good Appointment.

Dr. Harold Carlisle, son of Mr. John Carlisle, Fifth Ward, has been appointed Assistant Medical Officer of the Government Sanitarium, Gravenhurst. Dr. Carlisle graduated from the Toronto University, where he took high standing.

5th Ward to Have Car Service

As advocated for some months by The Times and in response to a largely signed petition from the Fifth Ward, it is understood the Radial Railway Company may extend a line to that portion of the city. The line if built would run down Hunter street, then make a detour by way of the American Cereal Company's mill across the Peterboro Light and Power Company's bridge at the dam, then through the principal streets of the ward. The company will prepare an estimate of the cost of the extension.

Harvey Brealy Loses His Life Trying to Save a Friend

Mr John Davidson, of Smith township who is an uncle of Harvey Brealey, who was drowned on Sunday last at Alameda, Assa., has received some particulars of the sad affair.

It appears that Harvey, with two other boys, was in bathing. One of his companions, who could not swim, got into a hole about seven feet deep and shouted for help. Young Brealey immediately went to his rescue, but the lad being heavier than Brealey caught hold of the latter and drew him down. The result was that both boys were drowned.

Brealey's body was in the water about half an hour before being recovered and the other boy's body an hour. The remains were interred at Alameda but may be removed to Peterborough later on. Harvey was only 16 years old and was learning to be a telegraph operator. He was the only son of Mr. and Mrs James Brealey, who survive him along with two sisters. Harvey and his father left Peterboro for the west last September and many friends will regret to learn of the sad circumstances causing his death.

—Our local Solons of the Council might read what the Hastings Star says. "There is a good crop of burdocks in town that should be harvested at once.

—Mr. Green, tax collector, states that there are a lot of people living in this country who own vacant lots in the city. For their benefit he wishes to state that the first instalment of taxes becomes due on or before August 1st. He intends issuing his bills on Monday.

—Referring to Dr. N. G. McKinnon, who recently established himself at 453 Water street, the Millbrook Reporter says: Dr. Foster, who purchased the medical practice of Dr. McKinnon, having secured a good position on the medical staff of the Grand Trunk Pacific has sold out to Dr. Sprigrove, of Toronto, who is now in charge in Dr. McKinnon's old office.

Judges Gone Home

Messrs. J. G. Martin, Stouffville; W. Leahy, Lakefield, and Fred. Peake, Campbellford, judges in the splendid races of the past two days, left for their respective homes last night. These gentlemen performed their duties in a manner that reflected the greatest credit on themselves, in that not a single protest was raised over any decision given at any of the races. Numerous comments were heard at the track and in the cars bringing home the returning crowds, that the judges in our local races performed their duties impartially and well.

PROUD OF KING OSCAR.

"Sweden feels reason to be proud of the dignified and noble attitude of the King in the face of the affront he has suffered. He is utterly free of the charge that he attempted to subjugate Norway. The Norwegians know that his reign has been marked by concession after concession to their demands for fresh rights. They know, too, that their attempt to shift the blame for the disruption to the venerable shoulders of the King is unworthy of statesmen and patriots.

"We are anxious that Canadians should judge us aright. We hope they will do so regardless of the campaign of misrepresentations Norway has waged sleeplessly through out the world preparatory to its revolt. Wide sections of our people are smarting under the insult to the King, and are ready to avenge their wounded pride on the battle field.

"I am happy to say, however, that the danger of a resort to arms is remote, except in the event of a Norwegian attack which we regard as extremely unlikely under the circumstances.

"We hope foreign governments will not hasten to recognize the independence of Norway, the status of which pending the sanction of King Oscar is of course wholly nondescript.

"Only this remains to be said. The question of the dissolution of the union will be submitted to the Riksdag, and however pacific the sentiment of the Government may be, the last word must be pronounced by the chosen representatives of the Swedish people."

$500 REWARD FOR WOMEN

WHO CANNOT BE CURED.

So uniformly successful has Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription proven in all forms of Female Weakness, Prolapsus, or Falling of Womb, and Leucorrhœa, that, after over a third of a century's experience in curing the worst cases of these distressing and debilitating ailments, Dr. Pierce now feels fully warranted in offering to pay $500 in cash for any case of these diseases which he cannot cure.

IT STANDS ALONE.—The "Favorite Prescription" stands alone, as the one and only remedy for those distressingly common forms of weakness, possessed of such positively specific curative properties as to warrant its makers in proposing, and binding themselves to forfeit, so we, the undersigned proprietors of that wonderful remedy hereby do, to pay the sum of $500 in legal money of the United States in any case of the above diseases in which after a fair and reasonable trial of our treatment, we fail to cure. No other medicine for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments is backed by such a remarkable guarantee; no other medicine for woman's ills is possessed of the unparalleled curative properties that would warrant its manufacturers in making such an offer; no other remedy has such a record of cures on which to base such a remarkable offer.

Therefore, desist on having Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and turn your back on any unscrupulous dealer who would insult your intelligence by attempting to foist upon you some inferior substitute under the plea that "it is just as good" as "Favorite Prescription." They are sold by all druggists, or sent post-paid to any address, on receipt of 50 cents in stamps. Send 50 cents in stamps for Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. Address WORLD'S DISPENSARY, Buffalo, N. Y.

Weak and sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is held as strictly private. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

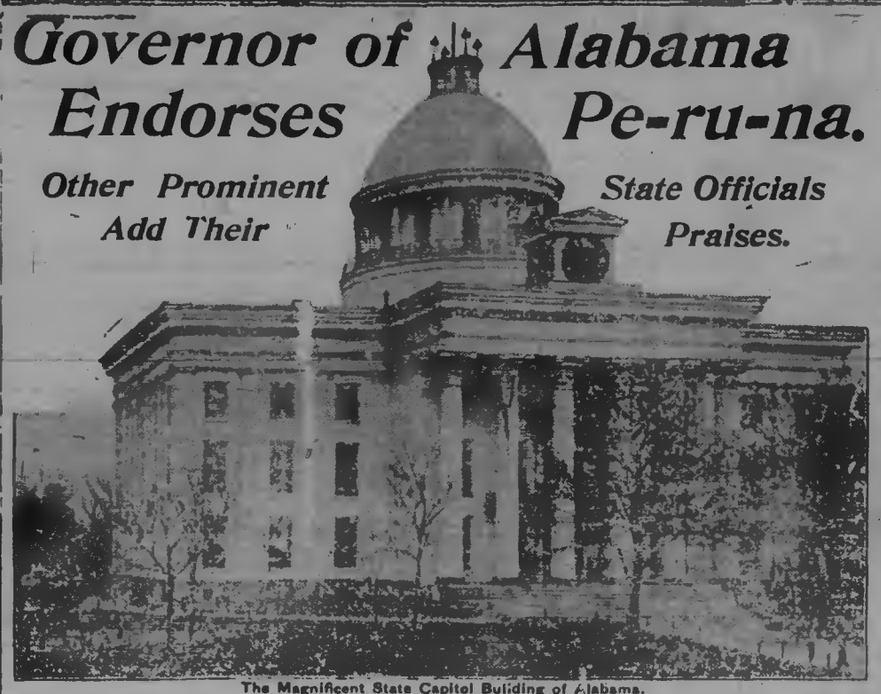
Governor of Alabama Endorses Pe-ru-na.

Other Prominent State Officials Add Their Praises.



The Magnificent State Capitol Building of Alabama.

ONE of the most wonderful events in the history of medicine is the multitude of endorsements which Peruna is receiving as a catarrh cure from men of national importance.

The most distinguished men of the United States have no hesitation in lending their influence to assist in letting the public know of the merits of Peruna.

Nearly one-half the people are in some way affected by catarrh. Therefore it is almost a national curse, and it is of national import that the people should know of Peruna.

Catarrh is an American disease. Peruna is an American remedy.

Catarrh is a result of changeable climate. Peruna is a result of long and careful experimentation.

Catarrh enters the system through the nerve centers and affects the mucous membranes. Peruna enables the nerve centers to repel and expel the catarrh from the system.

Catarrh is a systemic disease and curable only by systemic treatment.

The remedy that cures catarrh must aim directly at the depressed nerve centers. This is what Peruna does.

Redeemer of Public Moneys.

Hon. John C. Leftwich, Redeemer of Public Moneys, whose office is in the Postoffice Building, in a letter written from Montgomery, Ala., says:

"I take pleasure in recommending Peruna as an excellent tonic, and it is recommended to me by those who have used it as a good catarrh cure."—John C. Leftwich.

Register United States Land Office.

Hon. Robert Barber, Register United States Land Office, writes from Montgomery, Ala.:

"For some time I have been a sufferer from catarrh in its incipient stage, so much so that I became depressed and feared my health was generally in a decline. But hearing of Peruna as a good remedy I gave it a fair trial and began to improve. Its effects were distinctly beneficial, removing the annoying symptoms, and it was particularly good as a tonic."—Robert Barber.

Collector of Port.

Hon. J. K. Burke, Collector of Port, Mobile, Ala., writes:

"Peruna I can recommend as a fine medicine. It has been used in my family and as a tonic it is excellent. I take pleasure in testifying to its fine qualities."—J. K. Burke.

Postmaster of Mobile.

Hon. P. D. Barker, Postmaster of Mobile, in a recent letter from Mobile, Ala., says:

"Allow me to send to you my testimonial as to the good qualities of Peruna. I have used it for the past three months and find it is a most excellent tonic."—P. D. Barker.

U. S. Marshal, Northern District.

Hon. Dan Cooper, U. S. Marshal for the Northern District of Alabama, writes:

"Your remedy for catarrh and la grippe, Peruna, has done me so much good that I cannot speak too highly of it.

"I have used it for a short time and have improved rapidly from the first day. I was really much surprised at such a quick and effective cure."—Dan Cooper.

U. S. Marshal, Southern District.

Hon. L. J. Bryan, U. S. Marshal for the Southern District of Alabama, writes:

"I have used Peruna for catarrh a short time and have also had several friends try it and they all pronounce it the best catarrh remedy ever put on the market. It can not be praised too highly."—L. J. Bryan.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, President of the Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio, and he will give you the benefit of his valuable advice gratis. All correspondence strictly confidential.

Governor of Alabama Commends Pe-ru-na.

In a letter dated July 26, 1899, written from Montgomery, Ala., Governor Joseph J Johnston, says:

"I join Congressman Brewer in commending Peruna."—Joseph J. Johnston.

The Burden of Maintaining 30,000 Russian Prisoners--People Beginning to Grumble at the Heavy Expense That is Added to Their Already Onerous Burden.

London, July 17.—Aside from the tremendous burden of the active campaign itself, Japan must find herself saddled with a heavy indirect expense in caring for her Russian prisoners, says the Shanghai Mercury. Already there are at the different prison camps—that is, the places which have been chosen as headquarters for receiving the prisoners—some 30,000 Russian captives, officers, privates and supernumeraries, (these last including a few women and several children), all of whom have to be clothed, fed and guarded, and if all of the Port Arthur garrison who are not to be permitted to return to Russia on parole are taken to Japan this number will be very materially increased, without taking into consideration any more who may be captured in other engagements.

At a very moderate estimate these three items of primary expense, namely food, clothing and guards, cannot be much less than fifty sen a day, and at that rate the total which Japan will have to provide for one year's maintenance of her prisoners of war is upwards of 5,000,000 yen, and there is confronting the Japanese Government that it is probably impossible for it to use the labor of those prisoners in any advantageous way.

No wonder then that the people of Japan are grumbling at this heavy expense that is added to their already onerous burden. The legitimate expenses of the war they bear cheerfully, as a matter of principle, although these have already reached a sum quite twice as great as that which was announced by the Government at the commencement of hostilities; but there is noticeable in the varnacular press a disposition to ask if the authorities are not needlessly coddling the prisoners, doing too much for them in a sentimental way, and if the men cannot be compelled to do something that shall at least

If not pay the whole expense thereof, Yet there is no open revolt at the expressed intention of their Government to do what it can to make the Russian prisoners at least comfortable.

Russians justly have the reputation of being hearty eaters, and they are not accustomed to the simple diet which is satisfying to the Japanese, so that even if the prisoners are kept upon a diet that to them might seem almost abstemious, the cost of it would quickly run away with three times the sum that is sufficient to feed a Japanese prisoner. In the Japanese jails it can hardly be necessary to spend more than ten sen a day for the food of a native prisoner, who gets no meat, but little fish, and absolutely nothing in the way of what a native of that land would call "luxuries." With the Russian prisoners it is very different.

NATIONALITIES ARE ANGRY AT PROPOSAL

Are Against Any Reduction of Irish Representation

TO STRENGTHEN EFFORTS

Hope that if Their Number is Reduced the Rest Will Gain Better Financial Report

Dublin, July 17.—Mr. Balfour's redistribution proposals, depriving Ireland of twenty-two seats in the House of Commons, are violently received by the Irish and are already provoking bitter hostility in this country. It is likely to consolidate all sections behind the Irish party.

The proposals are designed to favor the pro-British party in Ireland at the expense of the Nationalists by facilitating the gerrymandering of the new constituencies.

Nevertheless the Nationalists may hope to secure sixty seats.

Sixty members with all the forces of passion behind them and consequently increased financial support will give as much unremitting attention to Parliament as the present eighty, and so defeat the purpose of those who hoped to weaken them.

However, one of the effects of the proposals will be to give strength to the new and growing political section in Ireland that favors abandoning parliamentary action and following the Hungarian policy of withdrawing, but setting up reinstatement at home which forced home rule from Austria.

William O'Brien's movement offers no serious danger to the Irish party.

It is practically confined to part of Cork, and even there is weakening.

His latest attack on the Irish party, though delivered in his own corner, was opened by an arraignment of the local representative body which had unanimously repudiated his conduct.

Scores of repudiations of O'Brien have been published everywhere. From representative bodies throughout Ireland there has not been a single resolution approving his conduct anywhere outside of Cork.

CARS FOR WESTERN CROPS

Canadian Pacific's Expensive Preparations to Handle the Wheat

Montreal, July 16.—The officials of the Canadian Pacific Railway think it will be necessary to transfer many of their freight cars to the North-West this year, in order to meet the demand for cars to bring the grain crop east, as the number of cars required for the west bound freight is sufficiently large to meet the demand for freight east bound.

Although it is stated that the grain crop will be heavier than it has been any previous year, probably reaching 90,000,000 bushels, arrangements are being made to have it transported without delay. At the head offices of the company in Montreal, weekly reports will be received from the western officials, who will study the crop reports, and thus enable them to calculate how many cars will be required in Manitoba and the Territories.

LAWSON TO BREAK MR. ROCKEFELLER

Gives Out the Secret of His Campaign Against Him

JOHN D. HAS NO ESCAPE

All Lawson's Friends Who Hold Securities Will Throw Them on Market at the Same Time

Sioux City, Ia., July 17.—Thomas W. Lawson made a short stop here last evening. He said:

"Thousands upon thousands of men and women who hold securities have promised me that they would sell when I said the word.

"There is the secret.

"They will sell when I say the word, and I will say the word when I know John D. Rockefeller has sufficient of his securities on hand to break him. He will have to buy. He has money enough to cover only 20 per cent. of the stocks he has sold to the people, and when he is loaded with these I will say the word.

"People will sell and Rockefeller will go into the hands of a receiver. I mean every word of what I say about placing John D. Rockefeller in the hands of a receiver. I shall do it.

"The only escape for John is that he may wrap the drapery of his couch about him and lie down to pleasant dreams before I have a chance to get him loaded up with securities, which he has unloaded on American people.

"But bear in mind I am not pursuing John D. Rockefeller personally.

"I am after his class."

ROCKEFELLER FEARS ASSASSINS

Exercising Eternal Vigilance at His Cleveland Home

Cleveland, July 17.—It is understood that John D. Rockefeller's fears for personal safety have grown to such an extent that he has caused extra precautions to be taken to guard him from intruders at his home on Forest Hill.

Since the recent return of the controversy with Ida Tarbell, his nervousness is said to have increased, and his fears some crank, believing the statements in the woman's article, may attempt his life.

Rockefeller has always lived more or less in seclusion when in Cleveland, but has never failed to attend Sunday school regularly.

Now his home on Forest Hill is almost unapproachable.

His private secretary cannot be seen. Utmost vigilance is maintained by attendants, and every caller is closely questioned and practically ordered off premises after being given a hearing.

Never before was such vigilance observed.

Rockefeller has recently received more than the usual number of threatening letters.

SEPARATE SCHOOLS FOR STATES

Catholic Educational Association Takes Measures for Religious Education

New York, July 17.—At a meeting of the Catholic Educational Association in Cathedral College yesterday resolutions were adopted declaring that the elimination of religion from the public schools would mean the loss of Christian ideals slowly and surely; congratulating England, Belgium, Ireland, Germany and Canada on the maintenance of positive religious teaching in the elementary schools, and denouncing the present infamous policy pursued by the French Government as a crime against liberty of conscience and freedom of education.

Before the close of the annual meeting of the Roman Catholic Educational Association yesterday the foundation of a free Catholic school system throughout the United States was laid.

The plans under which the system is to be inaugurated need only the approbation of the American hierarchy, headed by Cardinal Gibbons, and if the offer of the colleges is accepted, a system of secondary education, extending throughout the land will be established, representing an endowment of not less than $2,500,000.

The system is to be established by turning all the Catholic preparatory colleges, now conducted by the religious orders, and the brothers of the Christian schools, into free high schools.

FRANCE'S MILITARY STRENGTH

Even Numerically Germany Has no Great Advantage

London, July 17.—In his recent article in the Aurore, of Paris, on the present condition of the French army, Lieutenant Colonel Picquart says that the remark of Marshal Moltke, "Everything money can give the French army possesses, as for the rest we have the right to make certain reservations," is still applicable. He declares that France has an excellent artillery, that the French rifle is as good as any, that in case of mobilization French industry would come effectively to the rescue of the military administration, that French fortresses are redoubtable, and that the scheme of railway concentration is good. Moreover, thus far, in spite of the greater population of Germany, her effectives are not so far in excess of those of France as might be imagined. Both have 24,000 officers under arms, and as for non-commissioned officers and soldiers, Germany has 600,000, while France has 550,000. For the moment, therefore, the disparity of numbers is not alarming. He goes on to say that the weakness of the French military system lies not in the soldier, but in the command. Little change has been made during the past thirty years in the mode of obtaining the French officer. There is still a great lack of homogeneity, owing to diversity of origin and the political and religious dissensions that agitate the country. The great fact which inspires confidence in the future—and in this Germany does not share—is that France possesses an indefinite capacity for the production of such leaders as she may require in case of a long war. This he says, is not the case in countries where command is the privilege of a caste and where an abyss separates the soldier and the officer.

A Good Attraction.

Royal Canadian Dragoons will be at the Local Exhibition

The Directors of the Peterboro Industrial Exhibition are keeping themselves well in touch with likely drawing attractions for their show of this fall. They have had considerable correspondence with the officers of the Royal Canadian Dragoons of Stanley Barracks, and have received word that a detachment will be in attendance at the annual show here in September.

The Dragoons will prove to be a decided attraction, and, as a drawing card, no stronger feature could be presented. They will be here for two days—Sept. 26th and 27th—and will give their famous musical ride each afternoon.

Copies of the prize list, which has been thoroughly revised, will be issued in a few days, and the attractive posters setting forth the striking events of this show, will be published at an early date.

It is expected, with favorable weather, that between 10,000 and 12,000 visitors will be in the city to attend the exhibition, which will be held on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Sept. 25th, 26th and 27th.

$40 Ahead

The Local Turf Club Come Out to the Good After the Recent Races

Now that the races are over, the local Turf Club have reason to be congratulated on the successful termination of their endeavors. It was currently feared, on account of the first day's races being postponed on account of the rain, the Club would have a serious deficit to face, as a postponed sporting event never draws as large a crowd as would have attended on the day fixed.

After paying $1,000 in prizes, some $150 in connection with getting the grounds, stables and track into shape, officials' (from outside the city) honorariums, printing and other expenses, the Turf Club will have a balance of about $40. This seems an insignificant sum to reward the immense labor of the club in getting the races up, but there is a broader, deeper reward coming to the Peterborough Turf Club, the consciousness of having created a universal feeling of admiration for the races our citizens enjoyed; but still more appreciated by the club is the fact, and it is a fact, that a general spirit of trust has been engrained in the public mind, in the club's determination to have Peterboro's races absolutely "On the square." The club, although not doing as well financially as their races entitled them, can rest assured that the spirit of confidence born last week in their honesty of purpose, and strictly impartial race decisions, will, in their future races or sports, result in better attendance and, consequently, more adequate financial reward.

Mr. Stocker Re-Elected

President of the Canadian Bill Posters Association.

One of the most generally known men in the city is Mr. Walter Stocker, the bustling city bill poster. Mr. Stocker, who was President of the Associated Bill Posters last year, has been re-elected to the position.

Next year the association will meet in Chicago; there was a close contest between Chicago, Boston, Niagara Falls, and Ashbury Park for the nomination of meeting place, but Chicago won out.

The following was the result of the election of officers for the Canadian Association: President, Mr. Walter Stocker, Peterborough; Vice-President, Mr. C. C. Lindsay, Winnipeg; Secretary-Treasurer, Mr. Arthur Ware, Montreal; and three of an Executive, viz.: Messrs. Henning, Toronto; R. W. Allen, Kingston, and W. W. Seane, Chatham.

The Swimmers Here

Messrs. Strickland and Corsan for To-day's Swim.

By the C.P.R. noon train, Saturday, arrived the two gentlemen who will today attempt to break all local records for long distance swimming. Messrs. H. E. Strickland and Geo. H. Corsan, of Toronto, will today enter the canal at Lakefield and try to swim from that village to the Lift Lock, a distance of nine miles.

Both men are confident that the feat can be performed, provided that the water is not too cold. They had a work-out or rather a swim-out in Little Lake Saturday afternoon and appear to be very fit for their attempt today. Mr. Strickland states that the longest distance he ever made in the water in one straight swim, was a distance of about four miles around Gin Island, Stoney Lake. His friend, Mr. Corsan, is a teacher of life-saving in Toronto, and is the instructor for the Toronto Swimming Club and of the Central Y.M.C.A. He is a strong and experienced swimmer and has saved a number of lives from drowning. Saturday afternoon he gave an exhibition of life-saving in Little Lake.

The two swimmers went to the residence of Mr. H. T. Strickland, and were his guests Saturday. They went on to Lakefield on Saturday evening and will commence their long swim at 6 a.m. today.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT SATURDAY EVENING.

Mrs. Thurse, of Lakefield, Receives a Stray Bullet from Boy's Revolver.

On Saturday night a special engine and one car was dispatched from the city to Lakefield to bring a wounded lady to Nicholls Hospital.

It appears that on Saturday evening two small boys in the village were practising with a revolver and a straying bullet happened to find its billet in the side of Mrs. Thurse, who is only a bride of about a year. Medical attendance in the village was at once summoned, and the bullet probed for. It was decided by the Lakefield medical men that the wounded lady should at once be taken to a hospital, so a special train was telephoned for and sent.

Mrs. Thurse was made as comfortable as possible in the car, with mattresses, etc., and taken off the car near the hospital.

The Nicholls Hospital authorities informed The Times late last night that the injured lady was doing as well as could be expected and resting comfortably, the bullet having been discovered and extracted.

MAY POSTPONE THE SETTLEMENT

Want the Norway Secession Matter Brought Before a New Riksdag

DELAY TO HURT NORWAY

The Swedish Liberals Claim the Decision is a Trick to Prevent Universal Ballot Law

Stockholm, July 17.—Riksdag sentiment is rapidly crystallizing in favor of postponing a settlement of the union crisis until the next Riksdag meets in January next.

Your correspondent learned that the special committee whose report is momentarily awaited is busily debating such recommendation and that there is a majority in favor of it.

Postponement is desired in order that a direct mandate with reference to the dissolution of the union may be held. The present Riksdag was chosen in 1902, on a platform calling for the maintenance of the union, and it is pointed out that it would violate its electoral pledge were it to sanction the Norwegian revolution in any form.

It is more probable, however, that postponement is desired because Sweden wants to gain time for the completion of such military and naval preparations as may be eventually necessary to enforce the conditions on which she is willing to recognize Norway's secession. Notwithstanding their superiority on paper, King Oscar's land and sea forces are not supposed to be in the healthiest state of preparedness.

Incidentally the hanging up of a settlement for six months is calculated to cause serious embarrassment to Norway, because its status would meantime be nondescript, especially as far as recognition by foreign governments is concerned.

Norwegians affect to disregard such a contingency. They say that their country is self-contained and that foreign relations are secondary and can wait.

CALL THIS A TRICK.

Swedish Liberals call the postponement project a Conservative trick to obscure the suffrage question during the coming campaign and to side track the program for the universal ballot which would otherwise be the paramount issue. The Swedish nation continues sullen but reserved and cautious. There is a studied effort to avoid public utterances likely to aggravate Norwegian passion.

They want the restoration of the union on any condition. They say that a people capable of the Christiania coup d'etat is absolutely not to be trusted to keep agreements in the future.

This deep seated suspicion is certain to complicate the final adjustment, as Sweden will view with distrust any settlement that fails to paralyse Norway's physical ability to break its word hereafter. This anomalous condition of affairs may be summed up in the abbreviation that Sweden seems definitely unwilling to fight for the union, but thoroughly determined to go to war for the imposition of the conditions on which she will allow disruption.

JAPAN AND CHINA AGREE

New Alliance in the Orient Will Soon be an Accomplished Fact

CHINA MAKES OVERTURES

Conservatives Change Attitude, and Now Desire Union for Mutual Protection

Washington, July 17.—There is excellent reason to believe China is preparing to reach an agreement with Japan regarding Manchuria. It is freely predicted in diplomatic circles in Washington that the outcome of their negotiations will be the long anticipated treaty of alliance.

This news undoubtedly will revive the time worn assertion that the white world is confronted with a "Yellow peril." It may be that Japan, in order to prevent a false impression in Europe and America, will defer her signature of the treaty and content herself merely with an understanding.

CHINA SEEKS TREATY.

This time it will not be Japan which will press for the treaty or the understanding. It will be China. Information secured to-day shows there is a great change in the feeling of the Chinese conservatives. These men before the Russo-Japanese war opposed consistently the project of close relations with Japan.

When the Chinese mission was in Tokio in 1902 overtures were made by Prince Tushama, representative of the Japanese emperor, which some Chinese representatives received favorably. The sense of the majority, however, was against a treaty at that time, because their country had little to give in exchange and the terms of Japan would have been disadvantageous. Besides there was towering Russia holding Manchuria and threatening 5,000 miles of frontier.

To-day a different condition of affairs exists. Russia has been beaten on land and sea by Japan. There is no longer the "white peril" for China. Japan's slogan and that of the Chinese is identical.

"ASIA FOR THE ASIATICS."

Japan has declared by treaty with Great Britain and by declarations to the whole world that she proposes to uphold the integrity of "the open door" in China. With such a powerful champion the celestial empire will have nothing to fear in the future. It is vital that she prevent the encroachment of Germany, France and Great Britain the three nations of which are especially to suspicious. In this respect her interests and the declared interests of Japan are identical.

RUSSIA PREPARES FOR CIVIL WAR

Bureaucrats are Arming to Defend Orthodox Institutions

NOBLES AGAINST PEASANTS

The Anti-Semetic Organizations are Precipitating Disaster by Their Rioting

Moscow, July 17.—Feverish preparations for civil war is going on, especially in the provinces.

The bureaucrats are organizing and arming so-called patriotic leagues.

The latest Moscow union for the defence of the autocracy is the Patriotic League for the defence of orthodoxy.

There are many anti-Semitic organizations in South and South-Western Russia, especially in Odessa where anti-Semitic riots are in open preparation.

Gorky's famous Vagrants of the Black Sea and the Volga have landed to fight the intellectuals.

The youth of the nobility are organizing companies to fight the peasants. Particularly in Georgia all these organizations are financially supported by the bureaucrats.

However, Guardom can make no real gains from them except where numerically insignificant they are more or less amendable to revolutionary influence.

Nevertheless, for the time being, they are capable of adding to the prevailing disorder and of causing much bloodshed.

The spectacle of the bureaucracy attempting to save itself through civil war is only hardening the determination of the reformers to press vigorously forward.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES.

Scholars Who Passed the Entrance Exams.

A Complete List of Those Who Will Enter the Collegiate Institute Next September--Graded in Order of Merit.

The following are the names of the successful candidates at the recent Entrance Examination held at the Peterboro Collegiate Institute. It was required to take 40 per cent. of the marks in each subject, as well as 60 per cent. of the total. This is a higher standard than that required in former years, which was 33 1-3 per cent. for each subject, as well as 60 per cent. of the total. This advanced standard has materially reduced the number of successful candidates. Honors are given to those who have taken 70 per cent. of the total—650.

Lulu Bushnell wins the Scholarship for the girls and Donald Denham that for the boys.

Old Boys Coming

Will Run An Excursion to Peterborough on Aug. 3rd.

Mr. Clarence Bell has completed arrangements for an excursion of Peterboro Old Boys on August 3rd. It is expected that some 350 to 400 of Peterboro's sons will take advantage of the excursion, which is dated for Toronto's Civic Holiday, to visit the city. The excursion is run in connection with a similar one gotten up by the Lindsay Old Boys, for the same day.

A meeting of the Association was held on Thursday evening in Toronto, at which the members enthusiastically favored the project.

It is hoped that suitable arrangements for the reception of the excursionists will be made.

WHY SO WEARY?

Always Results and Weak Lungs Natural—But Its Dangerous

You have to work hard. Life is a struggle—every step and turn down its long road is more than it can hold up.

The result is a hundred ailings you can't shake off. Something you must get more vitality. The water in your blood must be turned into nutrition and building material.

This is just what happens in using Ferrozone, which renews the blood and nerves, and makes each organ do the work that nature expects of it.

Ferrozone quickly increases your weight, brings appetite and healthy color, instills a reserve of vigor into the system that defies weariness, exhaustion, debility, or sickness of any kind.

The enormous strengthening power of Ferrozone is proved in the case of Mrs. Edward Hill, of Otter Lake, Ont., who says:

"Two years ago I had a nervous breakdown. At night I tossed restlessly in bed, unable to get any rest from sleep. In the morning I suffered from over-powering weakness. My appetite was poor. I grew pale then and despondent. A slight hacking cough also added to my burdens.

"My doctor said to try Ferrozone, and it did me good in a few days. I increased in strength, the nervous sensations disappeared, and with my appetite came back my color and good spirits. I have gained over ten pounds in weight, and as my age is 56, I consider Ferrozone is a marvel." (Signed) Mrs. Edward Hill.

REMEMBER THIS: Ferrozone is a true tonic—not an alcoholic stimulant. Fifty chocolate-coated tablets in a box for fifty cents, or six boxes for $2.50, at all dealers, or N. C. Polson & Co., Hartford, Conn., U. S. A., and Kingston, Ont.

UNION LABEL

PETERBORO, JULY 17TH.

NOT IN DANGER JUST NOW

England is probably not afraid of an immediate invasion of India by Russia. A veteran officer of the Russian staff was discussing the invasion of India with a special correspondent of a London journal the other day. He ridiculed the idea that there was the least possibility of anything of the kind. He said: "Where is our overwhelming force to come from? Where could we now find five army corps, the least possible number for such a risky campaign? You talk of the Transcaspian and Orenburg-Tashkend railroads as two immense military arteries through which our invading legions are to be poured. One of your experts military commentators says that the invasion of India is the only possible means by which Russia can hope to regain her lost prestige. That prestige, I may tell you frankly, is an utterly lost quantity. On the conclusion of the war Japan will be in possession of Sakhalin. A glance at the map will show you that any warlike possession of that island constitutes a standing menace to our great Amur province. The Japanese being Great Britain's allies, is it not certain that if our army in Central Asia assumed a threatening attitude towards Afghanistan or India the Japanese would simultaneously threaten the Amur province, and even the whole of Eastern Siberia?" He went on to say that, whatever plans once existed for the invasion of India from Central Asia, they had all been disgusted by the unlooked-for result of the struggle in the Far East, and the sudden rise of the new Asiatic Titan.

True enough perhaps but recent events show that England is not going to take any chances.

STRIKES BAD FOR THE UNIONS

The New York State Department of Labor, in its quarterly bulletin, just issued, speaks of the disastrous effect of recent strikes upon the labor organizations that prosecuted them. It says:

"The failure of the strike on the Rapid Transit system in New York resulted in the disruption of unions embracing more than 4,000 men; that of the glaziers was followed by the dissolution of 500 men, while the disputes in the Fulton County glove manufacture also caused very large losses. In some industries, trade has only recently recovered from the great depression which greatly weakened the workmen's organizations. Thus the Schenectady unions lost 16 per cent. of their members between October 1, 1904, and April 1905, while Syracuse was the only large city in which unionism made any gain in number of adherents. In the six months specified, 195 organizations in this State dissolved and 20 more amalgamated with other unions of the same trade."

During that period New York City lost 8,611 union members. A losing strike is generally disastrous, and even a successful one has its drawbacks. Like war, strikes should be a last resource, never undertaken until all other means have failed to obtain the desired object. And the object should be such as every man could approve of it if he were in the other fellow's place.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

A man walked into a bank in Chicago the other day and drew $500 from the savings department. As he went out the cashier said: If all our depositors were like that gentleman our concern would soon become rich. Murad Ali is an Indian, a native of Calcutta, and his religion forbids him to take interest on money. He has had a savings account with us for twelve years; interest altogether has amounted to $900 but he has never accepted a cent of it. It has all flowed back into our coffers again." That is the kind of customer the banks like to have.

STRIKE AT ENGLISH JUSTICE

Man Sentenced at St. John to Two Years or Return to England

St. John, N. B., July 16.—Judge Forbes, of the St. John County Court, has struck a blow at the English magistrate who recently sentenced a criminal in England to a British prison or to Canada.

Judge Forbes had before him Thomas Jackson, an Englishman, who had stolen $60 from his room-mate, and pleaded guilty to the theft. Having in mind the English judge's sentence, Judge Forbes imposed on Jackson a sentence of two years in Dorchester penitentiary or to return to England. He was remanded to gaol until he could make up his mind.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer one Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.
